ABOUT THE SPARTANS

The Spartans have improved to a 17-3 overall record and 6-1 in the Southern Conference. UNCG continues to sit at the top of the SoCon standings, with their most recent 3-1 victory over the Western Carolina Catamounts. With the 17 wins the Spartans have this season, it is the fifth most wins in the last 10 seasons. The most was back in 2015 when they finished 22-11. Kayla White continues to lead the Spartans with 300 kills on the season so far. Her 22 kills against the Catamounts brings her career total to 963, just 37 shy of another career milestone. Gabriela McHugh is averaging 10.53 assists per set this season. The junior has a total of 790 total assists on the season, which puts her at the top of division one volleyball.

Brittany Wood's 15 kills in the 3-1 win over Western Carolina is the sixth time the junior has had double digit kills. Defensively, Grey Breen and Hannah Knier have been great this season. Knier leads the team with 75 total blocks (17 solo, 58 assisted) and Breen follows with 65 total (19 solo, 46 assisted).

Jenna Wiggs leads the team with 305 digs this season. The senior libero averages 4.07 dig per set.

KAYLA WHITE TOP 30 SENIOR CLASS CANDIDATE

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. — Graduate transfer Kayla White was named one of 30 2021 Senior CLASS Award Candidates on Friday morning.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

White graduated from Metro State University, where she was named to the Dean's List all four years. She boasted a 3.95 GPA in human performance and sport. White was named the 2021 Academic Player of the Year and also earned the 2019 Summit Award. She is now pursuing her MBA, carrying a 3.83 GPA.

White is a member of the UNCG Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was also a member at Metro State before transferring. She was the President from 2017-2021. She has earned both the Cadre Award and MSU Denver Rowdy Award.

White has been an active participant in the UNCG community. She has volunteered with Food for Thought, the Special Olympics' Polar Plunge, and Habitat for Humanity. White also traveled to Nicaragua in 2017, where she assisted in teaching English to the local elementary school students.

Early in the season, White has helped UNCG to an 14-3 start while leading the Spartans in both kills (241) and service aces (33). White is currently ranked ninth in total attacks, 13th in services aces, and 17th in total kills on the season. She has career totals of 904 kills, 120 services aces, 997 digs, and 1,120.5 points.

The 30 candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists later in the season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot. Ballots will be distributed through a nationwide voting system to media, coaches and fans, who will select one candidate who best exemplifies excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition.

The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced during the 2021 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship in December.
