NEWS AND NOTES -- UNCG SOCCER

LAST TIME OUT

Freshman Joey Skinner helped the UNC Greensboro men's soccer team groove to a winning rhythm with a goal and an assist in a 2-0 victory over Gardner-Webb Sunday evening at steamy UNCG Soccer Stadium.

Skinner's first tally two minutes before intermission was a beauty. He took a perfect pass off Theo Quartey's corner kick and headed the ball into the back of the net for his first career collegiate goal.

Using his head to score goals is nothing new for Skinner. He admitted following the match that four of his goals were headers during his senior season in high school.

Later in the match, Skinner threaded a nice pass to Angel Bacho, who lasered the ball into the net in the 75th minute. That was all the Spartans needed to earn their first victory of the 2021 campaign.

Niclas Wild made one key save early when the match was scoreless to post his sixth career clean sheet. The Runnin' Bulldogs attempted two shots.

The Spartans used a spirited defensive effort along with a solid job of possessing the ball for long periods – old-school classics that never go out of style. Leading UNCG's defensive charge was Emmanuel Hagan, Marco Milanese, Matthew Skinner and Ethan Conley.

MORE SKINNER

UNC Greensboro freshman Joey Skinner was named the ECNL Mid-Atlantic Conference Players of the Year for the under-18/19 division Tuesday night. A defender for the Spartans, Skinner played this summer for the Charlotte Independence Pro, a club team based in Charlotte.

"It's a really good feeling to know that I won this award, especially because all of the work I have put in over the last 2-3 years," Skinner said. "At the same time, I couldn't have done it without the support of my family, coaches, and teammates."

Skinner played a key role during UNCG's 2-0 victory over Gardner-Webb this past Sunday with a goal and an assist.

That performance was a carry-over from the summer in which Skinner shined. He helped his team win the under-19 national championship. He was also named to the All-Conference team of the Mid-Atlantic Region. In starting every match, Skinner scored 11 goals and had eight assists in 22 games. He also had one hat-trick.

UNCG RECEIVING VOTES IN WEEKLY POLL

The UNC Greensboro men's soccer team is receiving votes in this week's College Soccer News national poll following a week in which it split a pair of matches.

UNCG is 1-1 following a season-opening setback to Campbell last Thursday and a 2-0 victory over Gardner-Webb Sunday night.

Through a pair of games, UNCG has gotten goals from Theo Collomb, Joey Skinner, and Angel Bacho. Skinner also had an assist during the win over Gardner-Webb. Keeper Niclas Wild notched his sixth career shutout.

Some of UNCG's future opponents are either ranked or receiving votes. Clemson, whom the Spartans host on September 21, is ranked fifth while Coastal Carolina and Virginia are also receiving votes.

SOCON PRESEASON HONORS

After clinching the Southern Conference Men's Soccer Championship crown in 2020-21, defending champion UNC Greensboro has been selected as the preseason frontrunner to claim the 2021 SoCon men's soccer title in voting completed by the league's seven head coaches.

The Spartans have nine starters returning for the 2021 season, including preseason all-conference selections Theo Collomb, Fernando Garcia, and Emmanuel Hagan.
