Has 681 yards and three TDs on the year.

DEFENSE BY THE NUMBERS: Despite a tough stretch, UNC has continued to generate impact plays defensively:

15 sacks, led by Dominic Butts (7.5 TFL, 1 sack) and Ezra Ekuban (8.0 TFL).

Linebacker Hudson Voggesser ranks top-10 in the Big Sky with 72 total tackles, including two 16-tackle performances.

RUN GAME SEEKING SPARK: Mathias Price leads the team with 397 rushing yards, including a career-high 126 at Houston Christian.

Brandon Johnson owns UNC's longest run of the season (30 yards at EWU) and the team's only multi-TD rushing game (2 at Sac State).

SPECIAL TEAMS IMPACT: Punter Leo Blumentritt is one of the most productive specialists in the Big Sky:

43.2 yards per punt (2nd in conference)

Four games with 45+ yard average

STORYLINES

Kicker Jacob Willig is 12-for-16 on field goals and 21-of-22 on PATs.

PORTLAND STATE AT A GLANCE: The Vikings enter with one of the league's more balanced offensive attacks.

KEY NUMBERS:

QB John-Keawe Sagapolutele – 155.4 passing ypg

RB Delon Thompson – 602 rushing yards, 7 TDs, 60.2 ypg

Kicker Mathias Uribe – 12-of-15 FG, 4.9 ppg

Portland State averages over 30 yards per kickoff return allowed, potentially providing

UNC opportunities for field position.

WHAT A WIN WOULD MEAN

Snaps a five-game losing streak

Secures UNC's second home win of the season

Gives the Bears their best offensive season (total offensive yards) since 2017 (4271)

Gives Eric Gibson the seventh highest single-season passing total by a Bear since the Division I transition

BY THE NUMBERS

3994 – Total yards of offense this season (363.1 per game)

2711 – Passing yards for UNC, the program's most since 2019 (2976)

75% – Red zone scoring rate

36% – Third-down conversion rate, an area of needed improvement vs a Portland State defense allowing 38%

40 – Points scored off turnovers (UNC is +7 in fumble margin)

KEY MATCHUP: UNC PASS GAME vs PSU PASS DEFENSE

Portland State allows 155 passing yards per game, but the Vikings have surrendered 15 interceptions on offense. If UNC wins the turnover battle and gets another big performance from Cheeks/Munroe, the Bears should have an opportunity to control momentum.

NOTING THE NORTHERN COLORADO - PORTLAND STATE SERIES

- Northern Colorado trails the all-time series 5-12, including a 2-6 mark at home and 3-6 record in Portland. The matchup has produced several tight finishes, with eight games decided by one possession.
- The Bears won the first-ever meeting in 1979, a 21-20 Homecoming victory in Greeley. UNC later snapped a six-game skid in the series with a 35-30 road win in 2010 and added back-to-back wins in 2012, 2015, and 2016. One of the most memorable matchups came in 2016, when the Bears outlasted the Vikings 56-49 in overtime in Portland.
- Recent years have tilted toward PSU, which has won the last five meetings, including a 45-13 result in 2024. Despite the recent slide, the series has historically been competitive, with eight games since 2007 decided by seven points or fewer.

HEAD COACH ED LAMB

4-30 / third year

49-77 / 11th year

Ed Lamb enters his third season as head football coach at the University of Northern Colorado after being named the 17th head coach in program history on Dec. 7, 2022.

Lamb brought with him a decorated coaching résumé that includes head coaching success in the Big Sky Conference, a critical role in BYU's national resurgence, and a career-long reputation for developing programs rooted in toughness, discipline, and character.

He spent seven seasons at BYU (2016–22) as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator under Kalani Sitake. During that time, the Cougars appeared in six bowl games and posted back-to-back AP Top 25 finishes in 2020 and 2021. Lamb helped shape the program's overall structure and culture while coaching across all three phases of the game.

Before returning to BYU, Lamb made his name as the head coach at Southern Utah University, where he led the Thunderbirds from 2008 to 2015 and orchestrated one of the most remarkable turn-arounds in FCS football. He inherited a team that had lost 18 straight games and immediately elevated the program from 0-11 in 2007 to 4-7 in his first season. By 2010, SUU posted a 6-5 record and went undefeated in Great West Conference play (4-0) to claim the league title.

As SUU transitioned into the Big Sky Conference, Lamb's teams remained competitive. In just their second year in the league, the Thunderbirds went 8-5 in 2013, earning the program's first-ever berth in the FCS Playoffs. Two years later, Lamb led the Thunderbirds to a Big Sky title with an 8-4 overall mark and 7-1 conference record. Over four Big Sky seasons, his teams went 19-13 in league play, including notable FBS wins over UNLV (2011) and South Alabama (2013). He was a two-time Eddie Robinson Award finalist, recognizing the top coach in the FCS.

Now in year three at UNC, Lamb continues to instill his vision of a fundamentally sound, locally built program. The Bears have endured a full rebuild under his leadership, showing signs of progress with foundational pieces starting to emerge. In 2024, standout freshman Cam Chapa earned Freshman All-America honors and was named Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week, while a rotating cast of young offensive players gained critical experience amidst injuries, including the season-long loss of projected QB1 Peter Costelli.

Despite the 1-11 record in 2024, the Bears improved their discipline, effort, and structure — with many games decided by narrow margins. Lamb's commitment to recruiting and retaining Colorado talent has been especially evident, with UNC boasting one of the highest percentages of in-state players in the Big Sky.

Lamb's coaching career includes successful stops across all levels of college football. After launching his career as a graduate assistant at BYU in 2001, he served as defensive coordinator at the University of Idaho under Tom Cable and spent three seasons on Jim Harbaugh's staff at the University of San Diego, helping the Toreros to three straight Pioneer League championships and a combined 31-4 record.

As a player, Lamb starred at safety for LaVell Edwards' BYU teams from 1994–96, including the 1996 squad that finished 14-1, won the Cotton Bowl, and ended the season ranked No. 5 nationally. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from BYU and a master's in education counseling from the University of Redlands.
