STORYLINES

- WEEK 4 RECAP: Northern Colorado gutted out a 26-23 overtime win at Houston Christian on Saturday night, evening its record at 2-2 for the first time since 2022. After the Huskies opened overtime with a field goal, the Bears answered with a six-play drive capped by Hank Gibbs' one-yard touchdown run for the game-winner. UNC's offense controlled the game with 437 total yards and nearly 39 minutes of possession, led by running back Mathias Price's 126 rushing yards and a score. Quarterback Eric Gibson Jr. threw for 215 yards and a touchdown to Carver Cheeks, who hauled in eight catches for 101 yards. Defensively, the Bears limited HCU to just 200 total yards and 40 on the ground, with Ezra Ekuban (8 tackles, 1 sack) and Brennen Acosta (1.5 sacks, forced fumble) leading the charge.
- THE LAMB ERA: Head coach Ed Lamb enters year three with a clear vision for growth. A veteran of the Big Sky Conference and a two-time Eddie Robinson Award finalist for FCS National Coach of the Year at Southern Utah, Lamb continues to build a foundation centered on discipline, player development, and local recruiting. While the Bears went 1-11 (1-7 Big Sky) in 2024, they closed the year playing their most competitive football and return several key contributors on both sides of the ball. That progress has carried into 2025, as Northern Colorado opened the season with a 17-3 win over Chadron State, its first opening-day victory since 2017 and first under Lamb at Nottingham Field, then nearly upset FBS foe Colorado State in a 21-17 road loss. The Bears followed with an overtime battle at No. 20/12 South Dakota, falling 24-17 in their second straight road game before breaking through with a gritty 26-23 overtime win at Houston Christian to even their record at 2-2. Through four games, UNC is averaging 346 yards of total offense (135.5 rushing, 210.5 passing) and holding opponents to 327.5 yards per game. Quarterback Eric Gibson Jr. has completed 66 percent of his passes for 750 yards and two touchdowns, while Mathias Price leads the ground attack with 199 yards and a score. Carver Cheeks (289 yards, 1 TD) and Brayden Munroe (173 yards, 1 TD) headline the receiving corps. Defensively, the Bears are led by Hudson Voggesser (33 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 1 sack), Darrell Bryant Jr. (26 tackles, 1 INT), Cam Chapa (26 tackles, 1 INT) and Ezra Ekuban (22 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 2 sacks, 1 fumble recovery). Special teams have been a strength, with Jacob Willig converting 7-of-9 field goals, including a long of 48 yards.
- GIBSON IN CONTROL: Redshirt junior quarterback Eric Gibson Jr. has provided stability and efficiency through the first month of the season. After leading UNC to a 17-3 opening win over Chadron State and nearly upsetting FBS foe Colorado State, Gibson exploded for a career-high 336 yards at No. 20/12 South Dakota before guiding the Bears to an overtime win at Houston Christian. Through four games, Gibson has completed 66 percent of his passes for 750 yards and two touchdowns, spreading the ball to a balanced group of playmakers led by Carver Cheeks and Brayden Munroe.
- PRICE SETS THE PACE: Junior running back Mathias Price has powered the Bears' rushing attack. Despite missing one game, Price has carried 44 times for 199 yards (4.5 ypc) and a touchdown, highlighted by his 126-yard performance in the overtime win at Houston Christian. With UNC averaging 135.5 rushing yards per game, Price has emerged as the lead back in a committee that also features

Aliou-Rocco Traore and a mix of situational contributors.

- CHEEKS & COMPANY: UNC's receiving corps has been consistent and explosive through four weeks. Junior wideout Carver Cheeks leads the team with 19 catches for 289 yards and a touchdown, averaging more than 72 yards per game, while Brayden Munroe has added 173 yards and a score on just nine receptions, including a 60-yard touchdown. Together with Charles Garrison and Dawson Menegatti, the Bears already have four receivers with 90+ yards, giving Gibson a versatile arsenal.
- DEFENSE DELIVERS: The Bears' defense has limited opponents to just 17.8 points and 327.5 yards per game while creating timely stops. Linebacker Hudson Voggeser leads the unit with 33 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, and a sack, while safety Darrell Bryant Jr. has chipped in 26 stops, three pass breakups, and an interception. Up front, Ezra Ekuban has been a disruptive force with 22 tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, and two sacks, while Brennen Acosta (1.5 sacks, forced fumble) and Zach Nowatzke (20 tackles) provide steady production.
- SPECIAL TEAMS EDGE: Special teams have been a difference-maker early in 2025. Kicker Jacob Willig is 7-of-9 on field goals with a long of 48, including clutch makes from 48 and 27 yards at Houston Christian. Punter Leo Blumentritt has averaged 42.6 yards per boot with eight punts pinned inside the 20, while returner Luke Wooten has added spark with 57 all-purpose return yards.
- EVENING THE RECORD: With their overtime win at Houston Christian, the Bears moved to 2-2—the program's first .500 record since the 2022 season. UNC has shown growth against a challenging early slate that included two road trips to nationally ranked opponents and a near-upset of an FBS team. The Bears now shift into Big Sky play with momentum, opening conference action against Idaho State on Homecoming weekend.

HEAD COACH ED LAMB

3-24 / third year

48-71 / 11th year

Ed Lamb enters his third season as head football coach at the University of Northern Colorado after being named the 17th head coach in program history on Dec. 7, 2022.

Lamb brought with him a decorated coaching résumé that includes head coaching success in the Big Sky Conference, a critical role in BYU's national resurgence, and a career-long reputation for developing programs rooted in toughness, discipline, and character.

He spent seven seasons at BYU (2016–22) as assistant head coach and special teams coordinator under Kalani Sitake. During that time, the Cougars appeared in six bowl games and posted back-to-back AP Top 25 finishes in 2020 and 2021. Lamb helped shape the program's overall structure and culture while coaching across all three phases of the game.

Before returning to BYU, Lamb made his name as the head coach at Southern Utah University, where he led the Thunderbirds from 2008 to 2015 and orchestrated one of the most remarkable turn-arounds in FCS football. He inherited a team that had lost 18 straight games and immediately elevated the program from 0-11 in 2007 to 4-7 in his first season. By 2010, SUU posted a 6-5 record and went undefeated in Great West Conference play (4-0) to claim the league title.

As SUU transitioned into the Big Sky Conference, Lamb's teams remained competitive. In just their second year in the league, the Thunderbirds went 8-5 in 2013, earning the program's first-ever berth in the FCS Playoffs. Two years later, Lamb led the Thunderbirds to a Big Sky title with an 8-4 overall mark and 7-1 conference record. Over four Big Sky seasons, his teams went 19-13 in league play, including notable FBS wins over UNLV (2011) and South Alabama (2013). He was a two-time Eddie Robinson Award finalist, recognizing the top coach in the FCS.

Now in year three at UNC, Lamb continues to instill his vision of a fundamentally sound, locally built program. The Bears have endured a full rebuild under his leadership, showing signs of progress with foundational pieces starting to emerge. In 2024, standout freshman Cam Chapa earned Freshman All-America honors and was named Big Sky Defensive Player of the Week, while a rotating cast of young offensive players gained critical experience amidst injuries, including the season-long loss of projected QB1 Peter Costelli.

Despite the 1-11 record in 2024, the Bears improved their discipline, effort, and structure — with many games decided by narrow margins. Lamb's commitment to recruiting and retaining Colorado talent has been especially evident, with UNC boasting one of the highest percentages of in-state players in the Big Sky.

Lamb's coaching career includes successful stops across all levels of college football. After launching his career as a graduate assistant at BYU in 2001, he served as defensive coordinator at the University of Idaho under Tom Cable and spent three seasons on Jim Harbaugh's staff at the University of San Diego, helping the Toreros to three straight Pioneer League championships and a combined 31-4 record.

As a player, Lamb starred at safety for LaVell Edwards' BYU teams from 1994–96, including the 1996 squad that finished 14-1, won the Cotton Bowl, and ended the season ranked No. 5 nationally. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from BYU and a master's in education counseling from the University of Redlands.

COACH LAMB

"First, must give credit to Idaho State. Their coaching staff did a great job, and their players executed their game plan. Really in all three phases of the game, we need to be more disciplined. We need to be more consistent on both sides of the ball. We saw some good things that we can build upon."
