FIRST PITCH AT ERV HUETHER FIELD

The Bears will face St. Thomas for a four-game weekend series. Game one is set for April 17, with first pitch scheduled for 11:00 a.m. MDT.

GAME COVERAGE

Fans can follow all the action with a live stream available on Midco Sports Plus along with live stats provided throughout the game to keep up with every pitch and play.

A LOOK AT THE BEARS

The Bears closed the 2025 season with an 18–33 overall record, including a 9–21 mark in Summit League play. Offensively, UNC finished the year with a .278 team batting average and a .390 slugging percentage, showing consistent production throughout the lineup and an ability to generate extra-base hits.

Defensively, the Bears posted a .957 fielding percentage on the season, totaling 493 assists and turning 97 double plays. The steady play in the field highlighted UNC's reliability behind its pitching staff and its ability to make key defensive stops in critical moments.

STORYLINES

NOTES ABOUT THE BEARS

The Bears features a productive and balanced offense, hitting .269 as a group and led by performers like Jaden Stone (.355 AVG, .449 OBP) and Logan Pruski (.327 AVG), with strong support from hitters who provide both consistency and extra-base impact. The lineup shows depth and aggressiveness, including effective base running that puts pressure on defenses. Defensively, the team is steady with a .964 fielding percentage and reliable play across positions. UNC currently sits third in the Summit League standings.

LAST TIMEOUT:

Northern Colorado enters the weekend with strong momentum, having secured back-to-back series victories. The Bears claimed two of three games against North Dakota State before repeating that success last weekend against St. Thomas. The series against the Tommies was highlighted by a historic performance, as Northern Colorado outlasted St. Thomas 8-7 in a marathon 21-inning contest-the longest game in Summit League history.
