

2020 CAREER SUMMIT

Sponsored by the UND Women's Athletic Leadership Council

Terri Cooney is a social gerontologist and family sociologist who conducts research in family sociology and social gerontology. While at UND, Terri played tennis and earned a degree in psychology. She went on to receive her M.S. and her Ph.D. from The Pennsylvania State University and completed post-doctoral training at the University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill. Her 30-year research and teaching career has included faculty positions at the University of Delaware, University of Missouri and currently at the University of Colorado where she is a Professor and Department Chair of the Sociology Department.

Holly Corbin is a human resource generalist with the Minnesota Twins Baseball Club. Holly received her B.S. in Geography from UND and her M.S. in Sports Administration from St. Cloud State University. While at UND, she played softball and was a three-time all-NCC selection. Holly was inducted into the UND Athletic Hall of Fame in 2015. Holly is a member of the University of Minnesota Sports Management Association Professional Board.

Kristi Engelstad has been a paramedic with F-M Ambulance in Fargo, ND since 2001. Engelstad played volleyball at UND from 1996 - 2000; after graduating from UND in 2000 with a degree in criminal justice, she completed paramedic school in Fargo. Engelstad has held several different positions within F-M Ambulance including paramedic, educator, public relations coordinator and outreach coordinator. Engelstad works closely with her local police and fire departments as well as the hospital emergency departments to ensure the best patient care is delivered by first responders and the emergency medical team.

Erin Herman is the Principal and Head Girls Basketball coach at Hill-Murray School in Maplewood, MN. Erin played tennis, basketball and softball at UND, graduating with a degree in education. She went on to receive her masters degree from the University of Minnesota. Erin is a member of the MN Girls Basketball Coaches' Association Hall of Fame, the UND Hall of Fame and is a UND Thomas Clifford Award winner.

Emma Larson grew up in Glenwood, MN and played tennis at UND. She graduated with a B.S. and M.S. in Sports and Exercise Science. Emma was a tennis pro and head coach for girls high school tennis in Grand Forks. In 2016 she moved to Rochester and is currently a tennis pro at the Rochester Athletic Club. When not working, she is a chair umpire for the girls and boys MN State High School Tennis Championship matches and she officiates for the U of M men's and women's tennis teams.

Thank you to UND Women's Athletic Leadership Council members Samantha Shapiro, Callie Ronkowski, Marisa Leighton, Traci Kovar and Kara Helmig for helping make the 2020 Career Summit a success!