MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2021-22 University of North Dakota men's basketball media guide has been produced by the UND athletic communications office to provide information for the media in covering the team this season. We appreciate your interest and will do everything possible to meet your needs. Please take a few minutes to read through the information on this page and to familiarize yourself with this publication. Thank you again for your interest and coverage.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS/PARKING

Media credentials will be issued only to working media, sports information personnel, league officials or staff members of competing institutions with a legitimate need for access to the press seating. Requests for media credentials, season or single-game, must be made in advance with the UND athletic communications office. Please submit credential requests in advance with Tyler Wells (701.777.4210) in the UND Athletics Communications office. Please make requests at least one week prior to the game you plan on covering.

PRESS SEATING

Members of the media will be seated either at the courtside press row table or in an auxiliary press row in the upper level of the east grandstand. Cheering and betting on press row will not be tolerated and violators will be removed.

PRESS ROW OPERATIONS

Game programs, game notes, statistics and media guides will be available at press row prior to and during all home games. Statistics will be distributed at half time and immediately following each game via email. All working media will have access to wireless internet and phone data lines. A copy machine is also available behind press row.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photography credentials are issued to media and institutional photographers only and they must remain in designated areas.

The photographer credential process has been updated to meet the current COVID-19 safety protocols. Please contact Tyler Wells for those protocols.

RADIO/TELEVISION

The Betty Engelstad Sioux Center press row can accommodate two radio stations, and two additional stations may be accommodated in the upper press box. On-air television talent can also be accommodated in the upper press box. Radio and television stations wishing to broadcast UND home games are asked to contact basketball athletic communications director Tyler Wells at least two weeks prior to the event you are covering.

INTERVIEWS

The UND athletic communications office is eager to assist the media with student-athlete and coach interview requests. In order to help in this endeavor, it is asked that all media requests be made in advance through the basketball communications director.

Players will return phone calls once requested through the media relations office. As per UND Athletics policy, phone numbers of student-athletes will not be disclosed to members of the media.

Due to COVID-19 protocols, practices are no longer open to the general public. Any requests to attend a practice must be cleared by the basketball communications director.

The coaching staff and student athletes are also available for post-game interviews and all interviews will take place in the student-athlete lounge, adjacent to the main lobby of the Engelstad Sioux Center. The locker room, training room and weight room are closed to the media.

HOME OF ECONOMY SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

UND re-signed its contract with Clear Channel Communications (ND), now iHeart Media, in summer of 2017 to broadcast North Dakota football, men's and women's basketball and men's hockey. UND men's basketball games are carried in Grand Forks on KSNR-FM (100.3) "Cat Country" and KKXL-AM (1440) "The Fan". Check the men's basketball schedule page at FightingHawks.com for each game's radio location.

KSNR-FM (100.3) is the flagship station for the Home of Economy UND Sports Radio Network. All UND men's basketball games can be heard on iHeart stations throughout the region as well as Midwest Communication Stations in Fargo-Moorhead with UND's Director of Broadcasting Paul Ralston calling the play-by-play. All audio broadcasts can also be heard on the world wide web at www.FightingHawks.com.

Next Game: vs. Dixie State

The North Dakota men's basketball program will host Dixie State at the Betty Engelstad Sioux Center at 1 p.m. on Saturday. Fans can follow all the action on FightingHawks.com, as well as by tuning into Paul Ralston's call on the Home of Economy Radio Network (1440 AM/790 AM).

Series History vs. DSU

This will be the second meeting between the North Dakota and Dixie State men's basketball programs, with the Fighting Hawks falling 74-73 in St. George, Utah, on Dec. 3, 2020, to give the Trailblazers their first win as a member of Division I. North Dakota trailed by as many as 12 with just two minutes left to play before cutting the deficit down to three in the final seconds, but Dixie State held off the visitors at the free throw line in the final seconds to hold on for the victory.

Mitchell Sueker led the kelly green and white in that contest with 19 points and eight rebounds. Filip Rebraca was next in scoring for UND with 15 points and six rebounds. Frank Staine and Jacob Nicolds are the top returners from that game for DSU, netting 19 and 17 points, respectively.

Last Time Out

North Dakota broke both the school record and the Betty Engelstad Sioux Center record for made three-pointers in a game with 17, en route to a 110-65 win over North Central University on Tuesday evening. Six Hawks netted double figures in the victory, and every UND player that suited up scored points.

The Hawks were led by Matt Norman, pacing the team with a new career-high 23 points, including a season-best seven made triples. He also dished out a team leading six assists while pulling down five rebounds.

Most Recently for DSU

Dixie State defeated SAGU American Indian College, 114-49, inside Burns Arena on Wednesday night. In the game, DSU shattered the school record of 16 made three-pointers, with 21 made triples over the Warriors. In addition to the 21 made trifectas, the Trailblazers 114 points are the second-most in DSU's program history in the NCAA era.

Eleven different Trailblazers scored at least one basket, led by Frank Staine, who hit five triples for a season-high 15 points.

Fearless Freshman

Freshman Paul Bruns has played a key role in the success of UND this season, and it has paid off with him earning five collegiate starts. He currently leads all freshmen in the Summit League, averaging 11.8 points per game and 13.6 points per game as a starter.

Most recently, Bruns just missed a double-double with 15 points and nine rebounds against North Central. He also accounted for two steals and a pair of assists in the win. Bruns currently has eight double digit scoring performances this season. The Jefferson, S.D., native has a team leading 24 made three-pointers and averages 1.6 steals per game.

Stormin' Norman

Sophomore transfer Matt Norman erupted for 23 points in the 110-65 victory over North Central, burying seven shots from beyond the arc, while dishing out a career-high six assists. Prior to the game with NCU, Norman had scored just 24 points in UND's previous games and is now second on the team in made triples with 18.

Heat Check

North Dakota proved the three-point threat exists on Tuesday, breaking the school record for made triples in a game with 17. The previous UND record for made shots beyond the arc in a single game was 16, which was tied three times, most recently on Dec. 17, 2019, in a 109-50 victory over Northland College inside the Betty Engelstad Sioux Center.

The Fighting Hawks are familiar with shots from deep and that has not changed this season, with the kelly green and white firing off 317 shots from beyond the arc and knocking down 106 of them for an average of 33.4 percent made from three-point land. In the record-breaking game vs. NCU, the Hawks finished 17-of-31 from deep for an average of 54.8 percent.

North Dakota has hit at least one triple in every game dating back to March 1, 2018. The last time the Hawks did not make a three came on Feb. 24, 2018, when UND went 0-for-8 from downtown at Northern Colorado in a 79-66 loss. North Dakota has hit at least one three in each of the last 105 games played.

Keeping Things Even

North Dakota had five returners in 2021-22 and nine newcomers and so far, they are keeping things close as a team. The Fighting Hawks have scored 826 points this season with the newbies pouring in 447 of them and the returners amassing 379 points. In total, the newcomers have scored 54.12 percent of UND's total points this season, while the returners have accounted for 45.88 percent of North Dakota's made shots.

Shaking Things Up

North Dakota has utilized six different variations of its starting lineup so far this season and may try its seventh different starting lineup on Saturday. On the team, Bentiu Panoam has the most active consecutive starts currently with 24, followed by Paul Bruns with five. The next most common starters are Brady Danielson with two, trailed by Ethan Igbanugo and Tsothe Tsartsidze with one each.

Ballin' with Bentiu

Bentiu Panoam currently leads the team with 24 consecutive starts and has dished out a team-high 26 assists. Panoam has been filling the position of point guard most recently after Caleb Nero went down with an injury.

Early last season, Panoam provided a spark off the bench for the Fighting Hawks and worked his way into the starting lineup, earning his place as a starter in the final 13 games of the season. He decided to exercise his COVID-19 extra year of eligibility and is playing for the Fighting Hawks once again in 2021-22.

In 2019-20, the Anchorage, Alaska, native netted double-figure performances in five of his last six starts, recording back-to-back 20+ point games in that stretch. Panoam recorded a new career-high with 25 points against South Dakota and five rebounds at Omaha. He also set a new career-high in made triples in a single game with five at Omaha.

Nero the Hero

North Dakota has been without its starting point guard the last three games after going down with an injury on Dec. 3, against San Jose State. Despite not playing the last three games, Nero continues to lead the team in points per game (12.1), assists per game (2.8) and with a free throw percentage of 85.2.

Nero appeared in all 26 games last season and started 13 of them. The Tulsa, Okla., native proved to be a leader off the bench last season, leading all players off the bench with 8.7 points per game and 22.9 minutes per contest. He also led all guards on the team with a shooting percentage of 41.8 percent from the field and was second on the team in crunch time with an 83.3 percentage from the charity stripe.

In his career, Nero has piled up 25 games where he has netted double digits in points and has 17 games where has dished out three assists or more. In the season finale last season, Nero poured in 11 points in 21 minutes while grabbing three rebounds against Oral Roberts in the Summit League Quarterfinals.

Let's Go Igbanugo

Coming into the season, Ethan Igbanugo had the most starts at North Dakota out of everyone on the active roster. So far this season, Igbanugo has five starts and has played in 10 games after going down with an injury early in the season. Igbanugo remains dangerous from beyond the arc with 14 made triples, good for third on the team this season.

The Lakeville North product appeared in every game last season with 16 starts, averaging 27 minutes per game. He was a cool customer from downtown, leading the team in made triples with 40 and hitting a three in every game except one.

Igbanugo knocked down a career-high 18 points against North Dakota State late last season, while averaging 8.3 points per game. The Lakeville, Minn., native also went 6-for-6 from the charity stripe against Purdue Fort Wayne during the 2019-20 season.

Sueker Sinks Them

Mitchell Sueker has continued his hot streak from the end of last year and has six double digit scoring performances this year, averaging 11.9 per game. Even with missing the last game with an injury, Sueker is second on the team in total points scored this season with 131.

Sueker leads the team with 28 makes at the charity stripe this season and is second in free throw percentage, hitting at 77.8 percent. Last season, Sueker drained 56-of-67 at the charity stripe to lead the team with an 83.6 percent at the free throw line. In his career, the Marshall, Minn., native is 200-258 at the stripe, good for a free throw percentage of 77.5 percent.

Sueker averaged 7.7 points and 4.0 rebounds per game last year and has career-highs in points (32), rebounds (12) and assists (5). His best free throw performance came against Kansas City last year when he went 11-for-12 at the line in the 52-45 win.

Brady the Backbone

Brady Danielson has played in more games than any other player on the active roster, playing in 69 games and starting five of them. Danielson has been called upon most recently this season in the last two games, earning starts in both of them.

Last season, Danielson appeared in 25 games off the bench and averaged 13.0 minutes per game while putting in just under two points per game and just over one rebound per game. He dished out a career-high four assists at Minnesota last year.

In his career, Danielson netted a high of 18 points at Oregon State, while making a career-best six field goals.

Meet the Newbies

UND welcomed nine newcomers in 2021-22, four transfers (Brendan Howard - MSU-Billings, A'Jahni Levias - Central Wyoming College, Matt Norman - Snow College and Tsotne Tsartsidze - Southern Idaho) and five freshman (Jackson Anderson - Hillsboro, N.D., Paul Bruns - Jefferson, S.D., Reid Grant - Johnston, Iowa, Brian Mathews - Chicago, Ill. and Gavin McGrath - Onalaska, Wis.)

Record Rewind

The North Dakota men's basketball program holds a 1,614-1,116 all-time record since Dr. George Sweetland led the first team onto the court in 1904-05. UND is 971-300 all-time when it comes to defending its home court. The 2021-22 season is the 14th at the Division I level for the program (2008-09) and the Fighting Hawks are 194-228 in those contests.

UND is 0-11 since 2000 against ranked Division I opponents, with the 2019 matchup at No. 8/7 Gonzaga being the highest-ranked regular season opponent since the No. 3 ranking held by Kansas when the Jayhawks visited Grand Forks in 2001.

A Town Called Sioux

Sioux Falls, S.D., has hosted The Summit League Tournament every year since 2008-09. The Denny Sanford PREMIER Center plays host to the three-day, eight-team championships in a neutral-court setting for both the men's and women's tournaments. UND will look to continue its success in league tournaments since moving to Division I. UND has appeared in seven semifinals over the last 10 years, reached five title games and won three championships (2011 - Great West, 2012 - Great West and 2017 - Big Sky). UND's overall record in DI conference tournaments is 16-8.

I-29 Bound

UND will be traveling plenty up and down Interstate 29 in the coming years as members of The Summit League and the men's basketball program will look to continue its success over the rivals located along that stretch. UND owns winning records against four of the other five The Summit League teams that are located on I-29: North Dakota State, Omaha, South Dakota and South Dakota State, but is 2-5 against Kansas City.

Since joining the league in 2018-19, however, I-29 was a tough place to find wins for UND, as the Fighting Hawks are 8-24 against Division I opponents along the stretch. On the other hand, the Hawks are 16-7 against conference foes not positioned on I-29.

UND finally snapped its losing streak at 14 against I-29 league foes with a 71-68 win vs. North Dakota State. The win was the first over a DI school along the stretch since a road win over NDSU on Jan. 16, 2018. Just a few weeks later, UND snapped an eight-game losing streak against South Dakota with a 74-71 win in the quarterfinal round of the Summit League Tournament.

Last Win Over I-29 Schools

Kansas City - Jan. 2, 2021 (L1)
North Dakota State - Jan. 16, 2021 (W1)
Omaha - Feb. 20, 2021 (W1)
South Dakota - Feb. 14, 2021 (W4)
South Dakota State - Dec. 15, 2011 (L11)

A Sense of Normality

After a season that felt similar to the days of Division II for UND in terms of scheduling, the Hawks will open this season with an exhibition against Mayville State on Nov. 1. UND will start its 2021-22 campaign hosting Milwaukee on Nov. 9 and then Montana on Nov. 15 before heading to Boca Raton, Fla. for the Paradise Classic. The entire non-conference slate will include Milwaukee, Montana, Troy, Florida Atlantic, UT-Martin, Florida International, Kansas State, Presentation College, San Jose State, Cal Baptist, Eastern Washington, North Central University (MN) and Dixie State before opening conference play at North Dakota State on Dec. 22.

PAUL SATHER

Head Coach

Season: 3rd

Alma Mater: Northern State (1996)

University of North Dakota Director of Athletics Bill Chaves announced the hiring of Paul Sather on May 30, 2019 to fill the head men's basketball post. Sather comes to UND following a very successful stint at Northern State (Aberdeen, S.D.) where he was back-to-back conference coach of the year, leading the Wolves to the NCAA Division II championship game two seasons ago. He will be entering his second season at the helm for the Fighting Hawks in the 2020-21 season.

Armed with a collegiate coaching résumé that includes 23 years— including 20 at South Dakota schools— Sather has built a pair of national-contending basketball teams at his two head coaching stops. Prior to that, he was a six-year assistant at NSU, his alma mater, under legendary head coach Don Meyer before later embarking on a 15-year head coaching course that features a 297-169 (.637) record.

In a year that featured a global pandemic and new challenges across all of collegiate athletics in 2020-21, Sather navigated a tough non-conference schedule and a new-look league schedule to help guide the Fighting Hawks to their highest finish in the Summit League since joining the league in 2018-19. The 8-8 mark helped UND finish in fifth place before falling to eventual Sweet 16 participant Oral Roberts in the Summit League Tournament.

Flip Rebraca etched his name in program history by earning a spot on the All-Summit League Second Team following finishing seventh in the league in scoring at 17.3 ppg and fourth in rebounding at 8.2 rpg in league play while becoming the 39th player to score 1,000 points in his career at UND. Off the floor, Rebraca was named to the Summit League All-Academic Team and a CoSIDA Academic All-District Team selection.

Sather led a Fighting Hawks team to new heights in his first year behind the bench in 2019-20, becoming only the third coach in Summit League history to reach the tournament title game in their first year as head coach. Along the way, UND picked up a win over Big Ten foe Nebraska, the first since 1933, started 2-0 in league play for the first time since 2005, and knocked off North Dakota State in the final home game of the year.

Marlon Stewart became the 38th 1,000-point scorer in program history that season, also reaching the top-10 in the program record books for single season assists and points per game to earn the first All-Summit League First Team distinction in UND history. Filip Rebraca also broke the UND Division I single-season record for double-doubles in a season to be named to the All-Summit League Honorable Mention Team while De'Sean Allen-Eikens broke the program's scoring record by a freshman.

Off the court, the Fighting Hawks topped all of Division I in community service hours by a men's basketball program as well as set new highs in GPA marks.

In his final year at Northern State, the Wolves were the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament champions, finishing the league schedule with an 18-4 record, part of a 30-6 league mark in the past two seasons. Sather's team led the NSIC in scoring defense, scoring margin, 3-point field goal percentage defense, and assists. In addition, NSU sat sixth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage.

A year prior, an early 18-game winning streak propelled the Wolves to a program-record 36 wins and all the way within a missed buzzer-beater of an NCAA Division II championship. He was named both the NSIC and NABC Central Region Coach of the year. His team was again among the elite in the country in a myriad of statistical categories, finishing in the top 20 in scoring defense (66.1) and rebounding margin (+7.8), in the top 10 in scoring margin (+14.1) and in the top five schools in field goal percentage (51.2).

Sather launched his head coaching career at Black Hills State (Spearfish, S.D.) in 2005. In five years there, Sather was instrumental in turning the BHSU program around from a 10-19 season in 2006-07 to an NAIA Final Four contender in 2008-09. The Yellow Jackets also qualified for the national tournament in 2009-10 and compiled an overall conference record of 46-25 in the five years under Sather, including winning two Dakota Athletic Conference championships.

As an assistant at Northern State, his teams recorded three league titles, a pair of NCAA Tournament bids with 10-league players, two of whom would also be named All-America. He then spent a year as an assistant at the University of Colorado.

After earning his bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1996 from Northern State, he served as physical education teacher and assistant boys' basketball coach at Sidney High School in Nebraska from 1996-1997. The following year he was a graduate assistant at Wayne State College while he earned his master's degree in sports administration.

Originally from Princeton, Minn., Sather had a stellar career collegiate career as a Wolf from 1990-1994. He was team captain for NSU when it earned back-to-back NAIA national runner-up finishes in 1993 and 1994.

Sather's family includes his wife, Kelsie, and their two children, Sam and Becca.
