White on why she chose UND:

"What mattered to me most when looking at where to play at the next level was the people. I wanted coaches who I enjoyed being around who I could geek-out about volleyball with and who can make me the best version of myself. I wanted teammates I genuinely looked forward to seeing and playing with whom I felt like I could mesh with. I wanted a community around the program that supported us. Ultimately, I was looking for a family away from my family and I truly feel like I've found all of that and more at North Dakota! I cannot wait to start competing with this team and I believe we are going to accomplish BIG things!"

Coach J. Tupac on White:

"Sadie is quite simply the greatest setter to ever come out of the state of Utah. It didn't take long for us to realize that Sadie was a perfect fit for us here at UND. She immediately stood out as someone who was hungry and driven to be elite. She asks great questions and wants to make her teammates better, which is a great quality for someone in the setter position. Sadie is an unbelievable leader and teammate, and not only will she lead this team offensively, but she has a love for defense that will set her apart from
