About Arizona State

The Sun Devils enter the weekend with a 3-6-1 overall record and a 1-2-1 mark in NCHC play to sit fifth with five points.

ASU is coming off a two-point weekend at home against Colorado College, rallying from a 3-0 deficit to notch a 3-3 tie and shootout win on Friday before dropping the series finale by a 3-1 score.

The Sun Devils have been a bit up-and-down to begin the season, having only put together back-to-back wins once this season (Oct. 10-11) against Notre Dame and Alaska. ASU has only won once in its last six games.

Junior forward Bennett Schimek and senior forward Cruz Lucius have led the way offensively for ASU so far this season, with Schimek pacing the squad with 13 points and Lucius tallying eight goals to lead the team. Both senior goaltender Connor Hasley (2-4-0, 3.09, .910) and freshman netminder Samuel Urban (1-2-1, 2.89, .921) have seen the net for the Devils this season.

Arizona State Coaching Staff

Greg Powers is in his 17th season as the bench boss for Arizona State and his 10th as the head coach during ASU's Division I tenure.

Powers' staff includes associate coach Alex Hicks as well as assistant coaches Dana Borges and Mike Corbett.

Series History

Saturday will be the fifth all-time meeting between North Dakota and Arizona State, with the series tied at 2-2-0.

The two sides split last season's meeting in Tempe, with the Sun Devils grabbing a 4-1 win in Friday's opener before UND responded with a 4-3 overtime victory in the finale.

This weekend marks the first meetings at Ralph Engelstad Arena, having already played in both Las Vegas, Nev. and Tempe, Ariz.

Poll Position

UND jumped up to No. 6 in both the USA Hockey/AHCA Poll and in the USCHO.com Poll, both of which were released on Monday.

Arizona State is receiving one vote in the USCHO.com Poll.

See Page 3 for the complete polls.

Last Time Out

No. 6 North Dakota struck for three goals in the third period to break a 2-2 deadlock and defeat Arizona State, 5-2, on Friday night in front of a sellout crowd of 11,572 at Ralph Engelstad Arena in Grand Forks, N.D.

The win stretches UND's (8-3-0, 4-1-0 NCHC) to a season-long four straight games and keeps the Fighting Hawks in first place in the league standings with 13 points. NoDak has also won seven of its eight games this season by at least three goals and allowed two-or-fewer goals in eight contests.

Freshman forward Will Zellers had an impact on the offense again, as the rookie scored a pair of goals for his second multi-goal game in the last three contests. The Maple Grove, Minn., native notched the eventual game winner just 64 seconds into the final stanza for his team-leading seventh goal of the year while also stretching his point streak to five games.

Senior forward Tyler Young returned to the lineup for the first time since Oct. 31 and put together his best game in a UND uniform with a goal and an assist for his first multi-point contest since Jan. 18, 2025 when he was at Merrimack. Fellow senior forward Ellis Rickwood also had a pair of points with two assists, as 11-different UND skaters notched at least a point.

Rookie netminder Jan Špunar made it four straight wins to begin his collegiate career, finishing with 19 saves on 21 shots against to become the third goalie in the last 21 years at UND to start his career 4-0-0.

Winning The Final 20

After struggling over the final 20 minutes last season, UND has dominated the third period through 11 games this season.

Entering Saturday's contest against Arizona State, the Fighting Hawks have a plus-11 goal differential in the third period this season.

UND's 19 goals in the third period rank second in the nation and tops in the NCHC.

When They Win, They WIN

NoDak has made it rather convincing this season when winning games.

Seven of UND's eight wins this season have been by at least three goals, with the lone exception being the 1-0 victory over Clarkson.

In wins, the Hawks are averaging 4.75 goals per game while only 2.0 in losses.

Active UND Point Streaks

Games	Player (G-A--Pts)	Began
5	Will Zellers (5-2-7)	Oct. 31
4	Cole Reschny (1-6-7)	Nov. 1
4	Abram Wiebe (1-4-5)	Nov. 1
4	Cody Croal (2-3-5)	Nov. 1
3	Jake Livanavage (0-5-5)	Nov. 7
3	Dylan James (3-1-4)	Nov. 7
2	EJ Emery (0-2-2)	Nov. 8

Active UND Goal Streaks

Games	Player (G-A--Pts)	Began

Puck Find Net

UND has been one of the best offensive teams in the nation this season.

The Hawks currently sit fifth nationally and second in the NCHC with 4.0 goals per game.

Through five NCHC games, NoDak paces the league with 4.80 goals per game and a 2.8 scoring margin.

Build The Wall

On the other side, the Fighting Hawks have done a good job at keeping the puck out of their own net this season.

UND currently ranks tied for 17th in the nation and third in the NCHC with just 2.4 goals against per game.

Over the last four games, NoDak has allowed just 1.5 goals per contest.

Will The Thrill

Freshman forward Will Zellers has been finding the offense early in his collegiate career.

The Maple Grove, Minn., native stretched his point streak to five after his second two-goal game of the season in Friday's win over Arizona State to give him seven points (5G, 2A) over that stretch.

His seven goals this season are tied for second among all rookies in the nation.

Zellers moves into the team lead with seven goals this season while his 11 points are tied for second.

Rookie Mode

Zellers' start has been one of the best by a rookie in recent memory at North Dakota.
His seven goals through the first 11 games of his career are the most by a UND freshman since Riese Gaber also potted seven in 2020-21.

In fact, Gaber and Zellers are the only UND rookies in the last 20 years to have at least seven goals in their first 11 games.

Young And Restless

Senior forward Tyler Young made an impact in his return to the lineup in Friday's 5-2 win over Arizona State.

The Falmouth, Mass., native scored a goal and added an assist in third period for his second multi-point game of his career and first at UND.

With Young's tally, 13 of UND's 14 forwards that have played a game this season have now scored at least one goal.

Spreading Out The Scoring

North Dakota has showed a balanced attack all season, with 22 players on UND's roster already having at least one point, including 18 with multiple points.

The Hawks currently have 17-different goal scorers this season, which ranks second in the nation.

Best Resched

Freshman forward Cole Reschny has been starting to get his offense going over the last few weeks.

The rookie has seven points (1G, 6A) over his last four games -- dishing out another helper in Friday's win over Arizona State.

Reschny now paces the team with nine assists this season while his 11 points are tied with Zellers for second on the squad.

Matchup Nightmare

The trio of Cody Croal, Ollie Josephson and Ben Strinden have thrived since being put together on a line.

In five games together, the three have combined for six goals, 10 assists and a plus-19 rating to help UND win all five of those contests.

The trio also currently rank among the top-3 in the conference for plus/minus during NCHC play.

Keep Croalin'

Sophomore forward Cody Croal has also carved out a strong role for himself to begin the season.

Croal is currently riding a four-game point streak after potting his third goal of the season in Friday's win over Arizona State.

The North Branch, Minn., native has five points (2G, 3A) over that point streak.

Croal is also tied for the team lead with a plus-8 rating this season.

DJ, Play The Hits

Forward Dylan James also extended his point streak to three straight after an assist in Friday's win over ASU.

James has three goals and one helper over that three-game stretch.

The senior currently ranks second on the team with six goals while his nine points are tied for fifth.

Blackjack

Forward Ben Strinden if officially on a heater.

The Fargo, N.D., native has nine points (4G, 5A) over his last five games after another goal in Friday's win over Arizona State.

He was honored with the NCHC Forward of the Week accolade for the first time in his career after scoring the game-tying goal in Friday's contest and exploding for a career-high four points, all via the assist, in Saturday's win over No. 10 Minnesota Duluth.

Strinden currently paces the team with 12 points and with a plus-8 rating. In five NCHC games, Strinden is also tied for second in the league with nine points.

Four Starts, Four Wins

Freshman netminder Jan Špunar has had a trio of strong starts to his rookie campaign.

The Czechia native became the first UND freshman goalie to record a shutout in his collegiate debut since Aaron Dell blanked Alaska Anchorage on Oct. 23, 2009 in a 5-0 Fighting Sioux win in his first start against Clarkson.

He finished with 19 saves on 21 shots against in the 5-2 win over Arizona State to improve to 4-0-0.

Over the last 21 years, Špunar joins Hobie Hedquist (2023-24) and Jordan Parise (2003-04) as the only rookie goals at UND to win their first four starts.

Four Score

The 4-goal mark has proven to be the magic number over the years for North Dakota.

UND has been nearly unbeatable when scoring at least four goals, sitting at 112-8-3 since 2018-19 and is off to a 7-0-0 start this season.

Wiebe And Dream

Junior defenseman Abram Wiebe keeps putting together strong offensive performances from the backend this season.

The blueliner has five points (1G, 4A) over his last four games, including an assist in Friday's win over Arizona State.

Wiebe currently sits tied for fifth on the team with nine points (2G, 7A).

Liver Doing His Thing

Junior defenseman Jake Livanavage has continued to keep doing his thing through 11 games this season.

The Phoenix, Ariz., native has one goal and eight assists for nine points to rank tied for fifth on the team.

Livanavage has played well in his career against the foe from his home state of Arizona, dishing out three assists in three games.

Homer's Odyssey

Graduate student goaltender Gibson Homer is set to battle his former team this weekend, having spent the first three seasons of his career at Arizona State.

Homer is coming off his best performance at UND so far, stopping 34-of-35 in Saturday's 4-1 win over Omaha.

The 34 saves are tied for the fourth-most in a single game in Homer's career.

Reschny Gets His Flowers

Freshman forward Cole Reschny put together a strong weekend down in Omaha and earned NCHC Forward of the Week for the first time.

The rookie paced the NCHC with five points, striking for a goal and dishing out four assists, including his first three-point game (1G, 2A) in Saturday's win.

Reschny also went 17-for-31 (54.8%) in the faceoff dot to pace all skaters on the weekend.

Baxter Beatdown

North Dakota exploded for a season-high seven goals in Friday's 7-2 win at Omaha.

It's tied for the second-most goals that UND has scored at Baxter Arena -- matching the mark from Jan. 7, 2017 in a 7-3 triumph.

The Hawks made it four straight wins over Omaha at Baxter Arena after Saturday's 4-1 victory.

Good For You, Jack!

Freshman forward Jack Kernan struck for his first-collegiate goal in Saturday's 4-1 win over Omaha.

The Maple Grove, Minn., native becomes the sixth UND freshman this season to score a goal.

Kernan has one goal and two assists this season for three points.

Geno Gets One

Junior forward Anthony Menghini also picked up his first tally in a green and white sweater on Saturday night.

The Baxter, Minn., native opened the scoring in Saturday's 4-1 victory to give him his first goal and point of the season.

Menghini now has 21 career goals, with 18 of them coming against NCHC opponents.

Mac Attack

Sophomore forward Mac Swanson has gotten off to a strong start.

The Anchorage, Alaska, native has four goals and six assists for 10 points over the first 11 games this season to third on the team.

Swanson recorded his second three-point game of his career in the Friday win over Omaha, potting a goal and two assists before adding another helper in Saturday's victory to give him four points in the series.

With four goals already this season, Swanson has surpassed his goal total from last season and is currently tied for fourth on the team.

Nickname History

The University of North Dakota boasts a proud history of varsity athletics nicknames. UND's first official athletics nickname was the "Flickertails," although its origin remains somewhat a mystery. The nickname made its first public appearance in a Grand Forks Herald account of UND's football loss to Minnesota on Oct. 8, 1904, 15 years after UND's first athletics contest was played. According to Lee Bohnet's A Century of UND Sports, "The author was not identified, but there is strong evidence the nickname was coined by a Minneapolis sportswriter who may have covered the game for the Herald. The writer lauded the fighting spirit of the North Dakota players."

In 1911, UND's student body officially adopted "Flickertails" as its athletics nickname. UND would remain known as the "Flickertails" (as well, unofficially, as the "Nodaks") for a third of a century, establishing an early athletics history.

In the fall of 1930, the university adopted the nickname "Sioux" for its varsity teams following a successful renaming campaign by the Dakota Student, UND's student newspaper. The word "Fighting" was later added, and UND would be known as the "Fighting Sioux" until the summer of 2012.

The university utilized several "Fighting Sioux" logos throughout the decades, perhaps most notably the green geometric logo introduced in 1976 and the most recent full-color logo was unveiled in 1999. The former was designed by an artist at the UND News Bureau, while the latter was created by noted Native American artist and UND alum Bennett Brien.

The University of North Dakota officially retired its longtime "Fighting Sioux" nickname and logo prior to the 2012-13 athletics season.

UND's varsity athletics teams operated without an official nickname, while the university continued the process of adopting the third official nickname in school history. During that time, the university's varsity athletics teams were referred to as "the University of North Dakota," "North Dakota," or "UND."

Former President Dr. Robert Kelley announced in mid-November 2015 that "Fighting Hawks" would be the University's new moniker. UND would win its eighth NCAA national title in that season with the Fighting Hawk logo making its first appearance in the following campaign.

Please refer to our hockey program as either, "North Dakota," "UND," "NoDak," "Fighting Hawks" or "Hawks."

Check, Please!

When North Dakota holds a lead after two periods, you can practically guarantee a win for the green and white over the last few seasons.

UND is 126-8-4 since 2018-19 when leading after two and 6-0-0 this season.

Power Surge!

UND broke out of its power play slump in a big way on Friday night against Omaha.

After entering the night with just four power play tallies in the last 28 attempts, the Hawks exploded for a 4-for-8 night in the 7-2 win over the Mavs.

The four power play goals are the most for UND in a single game since Feb. 22, 2025 against Minnesota Duluth.

The Fighting Hawks are currently ranked eighth nationally and three in the NCHC at 27.7 percent on the man advantage.

Back In Black

UND broke out its new black alternate uniforms on Saturday night at Omaha, improving to 2-0-0 this season in the sweater.

The uniform features a new diagonal "NoDak" crest down the front.

Ollie Leads The Way

Freshman forward Ollie Josephson had his best weekend in a UND sweater last weekend against No. 10 Minnesota Duluth, potting two goals and two assists for four points.

Josephson became the first UND player since Dixon Bowen on Oct. 7, 2016 vs. Canisius to score his first-career goal shorthanded in Friday's outing before striking early in the third period in Saturday's contest.

The Victoria, British Columbia, native was named NCHC Rookie of the Week following his performance.

Rock The Dot

North Dakota has made plenty of improvement to begin this season in the faceoff dot, ranking just inside top-20 nationally.

UND currently sits 18th in the nation and fifth in the NCHC at 52.4 percent this season in faceoffs.

Friday's game at Omaha marked the first time all season that UND has lost the faceoff battle.

That's How The Kids Do It

Freshman Keaton Verhoeff has wasted no time getting his scoring account started at North Dakota, as he currently leads the team with four goals.

He became the first UND rookie defenseman to score in a season opener since Jordan Schmaltz against Alaska Anchorage on Oct. 19, 2012.

Verhoeff is also the youngest player to score a goal at UND, doing so at 17 years, 3 months and 21 days.

The rookie has goals in two of his last three games, notching the game winner at Clarkson and striking in Saturday's 5-1 win over No. 10 Minnesota Duluth.

Elite Company

Verhoeff is already off to a historic pace this season on the national scale.

With four goals, Verhoeff already has the third-most goals by a U-18 blueliner in the NCAA in the last 20 years.

NCAA GOALS BY A U-18 DEFENSEMAN (SINCE 2005-06)

Rk.	Player (Year, Team)	G
1.	Zach Werenski (14-15, Michigan)	9
2.	Noah Hanifin (14-15, Boston College)	5
3.	Keaton Verhoeff (25-26, UND)	4
4.	Sascha Boumedienne (24-25, Boston U)	3
5.	Yan Kuznetzov (19-20, UConn)	2

Same Old BuLLdogs

UND kept up its recent success against Minnesota Duluth last weekend, improving to 13-2-0 in the last 15 meetings.

NoDak has grabbed 28 of the last 30 possible points in the NCHC standings between the two teams -- notching at least a point in 10 straight meetings.

The win on Saturday was the 162nd all-time against Minnesota Duluth, which are the second most against any opponent in UND history.

Ranked, Spanked

UND picked up a win over a ranked opponent on its first three tries, and sits 4-2-0 this season against top-20 foes following the win over No. 10 Minnesota Duluth on Saturday.

UND also recorded its first season-opening sweep against a ranked team since Oct. 8-9, 2004 at No. 2 Maine.

Friday's win over No. 13/14 Minnesota gave UND three straight wins over ranked teams to begin the season, which is believed to be the first time that has happened in the USCHO.com Poll era (1995-96 to present).

Land Of 10,000 L's

For the third time this season already, UND has had success against its neighbor.

After battles with St. Thomas, Minnesota and Minnesota Duluth, NoDak is 471-305-63 (.599) all-time against programs from Minnesota entering tonight's finale against UMD.

The Hawks are also on a bit of a run against Minnesota teams recently, sitting 21-5-4 (.767) since 2023-24.

Extra Extra!

UND picked up right where they left off last season, striking for another goal via an extra attacker in Friday's comeback against No. 10 Minnesota Duluth.

NoDak now has 10 goals via an extra attacker over the last two seasons.

NCHC Openers

North Dakota opened up its NCHC slate on Friday night, dropping the 4-3 OT decision to No. 10 Minnesota Duluth.

It marks the first time UND has dropped an NCHC opener since the 2017-18 season at Colorado College -- snapping a streak of seven straight wins.

UND did pick up a point on Friday to increase its point streak in league openers to eight straight seasons.

Get Blocked!

Facing one of the top offenses in the nation, UND had one of its best outings of the season when it came to blocking shots on Friday night vs. No. 10 Minnesota Duluth.

NoDak finished with a season-high 22 blocked shots in the contest, with eight-different players recording multiple blocks.

To no one's suprise, Bennett Zmolek currently paces all skaters at UND with 22 blocked shots this season.

One Is All That Matters

UND picked up a rare, 1-0 victory on Saturday night over Clarkson, doing so on the road and in regulation for the first time in awhile.

It's the first 1-0 road, regulation win for the program since Nov. 12, 2010 at Wisconsin when Jason Gregoire potted the lone goal in the victory over the Badgers.

Curse Lifted

UND made the trek out to the Empire State once again and snapped a long losing streak in the state on Saturday night.

The victory over the Golden Knights gave the Fighting Hawks their first win in New York since Dec. 31, 2016 at Union -- snapping a streak of six straight losses.

Finally, A Close One

UND has not found itself in many tight games to begin the season, with Saturday's contest at Clarkson being the first decided by two-or-fewer goals.

It's the longest that UND has began a season without playing a one-goal game since the 1986-87 squad did so.

That infamous 1986-87 Sioux squad went until Dec. 5 without playing a one-goal game -- a stretch of 17 contests.

Klee, Laurila On The Board

Two more rookies notched their first points as Fighting Hawks in Friday's contest at Clarkson, with forward David Klee and defenseman Sam Laurila each tallying an assist.

The helpers were the first-career points for the duo, with Klee also making his collegiate debut in Friday's contest.

That Went As Expected

When North Dakota and Minnesota meet, the odds suggest that a split is likely to happen, and that is exactly what happened.

The weekend marked the fourth straight split between the two sides dating back to 2019-20, when UND swept Minnesota in Minneapolis.

UND has not swept Minnesota in Grand Forks

since Jan. 2009.

Worth The Wait

Sophomore defenseman EJ Emery had his best game a Fighting Hawk in Friday's win over No. 13/14 Minnesota, striking for a pair of goals.

It marked the first goal for Emery since Mar. 24, 2023 against Dubuque when he was a member of the U.S. Under-17 Team -- a span of 938 days.

Emery also added the game winner early in the third for his first two-goal game of his career and the first two-goal game by a UND defenseman since Logan Britt against Miami on Feb. 3, 2024.

Two More On The Board

Two more rookies collected firsts in the win over No. 13/14 Minnesota on Friday night, with forwards Ollie Josephson and Jack Kernan each tallying their first-collegiate points.

Josephson picked up the primary helper on UND's second goal of the game by Emery before Kernan collected the secondary assist on Emery's game-winning strike in the third period.

All eight of UND's freshmen who have played a game this season have recorded at least one point.

A Win Here, A Win There

NoDak also broke a long streak with the sweep over St. Thomas, grabbing its first pair of victories in a home-and-home series in a long time.

The sweep was the first in a home-and-home series for UND since Jan. 2-3, 2009 against Bemidji State.

UND had gone nine straight home-and-home series without a sweep dating back to 2009.

Putting The Grand In Grand Casino

UND also snapped a winless streak at newly-named Grand Casino Arena in St. Paul on Sunday.

The win was the first at formerly-named Xcel Energy Center since Mar. 17, 2018 vs. Minnesota Duluth -- snapping a skid of four straight losses.

Making Their Debuts

Ten Fighting Hawks made their green and white debut in the weekend sweep over No. 19 St. Thomas, including seven freshmen.

Forwards Ollie Josephson, Will Zellers, Jack Kernan, Cole Reschny and Josh Zakreski as well as defensemen Sam Laurila and Keaton Verhoeff also made their collegiate debuts while transfers Ellis Rickwood, Anthony Menghini and Gibson Homer wore the green and white for the first time.

The debutants combined for five goals and seven assists while Homer notched 48 saves in the wins.

No. 1 For Jax

Head Coach Dane Jackson picked up his first win behind the bench for North Dakota on Friday night with the 6-2 victory over No. 19 St. Thomas.

He becomes the third straight UND head coach to win their debut and the first since Dave Hakstol to do so against a ranked team.

Home Opener Success

North Dakota continued to have success in home openers since Ralph Engelstad Arena opened in 2001-02.

The win over No. 19 St. Thomas on Friday moves UND to 22-2-1 in home openers at the REA, including a run of seven straight wins.

NoDak's only losses in home openers came in the building's first game against Minnesota on Oct. 5, 2001 and against Bemidji State on Oct. 10, 2014.

Livanavage Selected To "Selects"

Junior defenseman Jake Livanavage was one of five players named to the United States Collegiate Selects Team last week for the upcoming Spengler Cup in Dec. 2025.

Livavnage joins Penn State forward Aidan Fink, UConn forward Joey Muldowney, Penn State defenseman Mac Gadowsky and Minnesota State goaltender Alex Tracy as the first group named to the squad.

The Spengler Cup has been played annually since 1923 in Davos, Switzerland. HC Davos is the host and one of six participants.

New Era Begins

For the first time in over a decade a new bench boss takes the reigns for the North Dakota hockey program, as Dane Jackson is set to take over as the program's 17th head coach.

Jackson has spent the previous 19 years on staff for UND, serving in various assistant roles before moving taking over as associate head coach from 2015-25.

A native of Castlegar, British Columbia, Jackson played for UND from 1988-92 and registered 59 goals and 103 points in 150 career games, serving as an alternate captain as a senior. He was drafted in the third round (44th overall) by Vancouver in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft.

Meet The Staff

Jackson also brings in two new members of the staff to the bench this season, with former UND defenseman Matt Smaby joining as the associate head coach and former UND forward Bryn Chyzyk being named assistant coach and general manager.

Both return to North Dakota following successful runs with the Waterloo Blackhawks in the USHL, with Smaby serving as the head coach and Chyzyk as the GM.

The duo helped the Blackhawks advance to the postseason every year and reach the Clark Cup Final in 2025.

GM BC

Chyzyk's hiring also signals a new direction for both North Dakota and the collegiate hockey landscape.

He becomes the first general manager to have coaching/recruiting capabilities in college hockey, and will be spending a majority of his time away from Grand Forks.

Loyal To The Green

Jackson is one of 25 coaches to be leading their alma maters this season, but he is not the only one with special connections to the program.

In fact, UND's entire coaching staff played at North Dakota -- becoming the only team in the nation to have its entire staff made up of alums from that school.

If you want to dig even deeper, Director of Hockey Operations Patrick Swanson, Athletic Trainer/Strength Coach Mark Poolman, Director of Player Personnel Jean-Philippe Lamoureux, Team Physician Dr. Steve Johnson and Athletic Communications Director Alec Stocker Johnson also all attended North Dakota.

Hello, My Name Is

There were likely quite a few meet-and-greets this season for North Dakota, as the roster experienced a major overhaul.

The Fighting Hawks are set to welcome 15 new players to the roster this season -- marking the most in a season since 1973.

Eleven of those 15 newcomers were not committed or signed with the program until this summer, including two not until August.

MOST NEWCOMERS ON UND ROSTER (ALL-TIME)

Year	Newcomers
1946-47	21
1947-48	17
2025-26	15
1973-74	15
1951-52	15

Jake And Bake, Baby

Defenseman Jake Livanavage is set to return for his junior season with UND and is coming off a sparkling sophomore campaign.

He finished third on the team last season with 28 points and sat second on the squad with 24 assists while also leading the team with 68 blocked shots to earn a spot on the AHCA/CCM All-America Second Team as well as the All-NCHC First Team.

Entering this season, Livanavage was selected to the Preseason All-NCHC Team, leading all players with 25 of a possible 30 votes.

NCHC Firepower

Depsite all the roster turnover, UND is set to carry two of the league's top returning offensive players this season.

Junior forward Anthony Menghini and senior forward Dylan James enter 2025-26 sitting 1-2 among returning players for goals in NCHC play.

Gibby Time!

Junior goaltender Gibson Homer is set to join the Fighting Hawks in the 2025-26 season after spending the first two years of his career at Arizona State.

Homer was dominant with the Sun Devils over his two seasons, posting a 16-8-4 record with a 2.32 goals against average, a .924 save percentage and three shutouts in 30 appearances.

Listed at six-feet, six-inches, Homer is the tallest goaltender to ever play at North Dakota.

Bulldog Bites

NoDak picked up a couple of local transfers from Minnesota Duluth over the summer, with forward Anthony Menghini (Baxter, Minn.) and goaltender Zach Sandy (Fargo, N.D.) joining the green and white this season.

Menghini scored 20 goals and added nine helpers in two seasons with the Bulldogs while Sandy appeared in five games in his three seasons at UMD.

Ellis Island

Forward Ellis Rickwood is also set to join North Dakota this season for his final year of eligibility after playing his first three seasons at Clarkson.

While with the Golden Knights, Rickwood scored 14 goals and added 35 assists for 49 points in 96 games. He was at his best last season, exploding for a career-high 10 goals and 35 points to earn All-ECAC honors.

The Brantford, Ontario, native also finished top-10 nationally with 430 faceoff wins and a 57.5 winning percentage.

Big Z Returns

UND is excited to see the return of defenseman Bennett Zmolek, who missed all but one game last season due to injury.

In 2023-24, Zmolek was a defensive force, leading UND with a plus-17 rating while blocking an NCHC high 91 shots -- the most by a UND player in a single season since Gage Ausmus in 2015-16.

Such A Wiebe

Junior defenseman Abram Wiebe also returns in 2025-26 to bolster the UND blue line after a strong sophomore season.

Wiebe scored four goals and added 20 assists for a career-high 24 points last season to rank fourth on the team.

He also had 17 games last season with at least two blocked shots -- finishing third on the squad with 58 total blocks.

Will The Thrill

Freshman forward Will Zellers comes to North Dakota after a historic season in the USHL with Green Bay.

The Maple Grove, Minn., native finished with 44 goals and paced all USHL players with 71 points and 1.37 points per game to earn USHL Player of the Year and Forward of the Year honors.

His 44 goals are the third-most by any player in the USHL over the last eight seasons -- doing so in just 52 games.

Zellers is the eighth UND recruit to win USHL Player of the Year, joining current teammate Mac Swanson.

Ollie, Ollie, If You Please

Freshman forward Ollie Josephson is one of three former WHL forwards who are set to play at North Dakota this season.

Josephson accumulated 101 points in 179 career games with Red Deer, including a career-high 14 goals in 2024-25.

The Victoria, British Columbia, native is also the first Seattle Kraken pick to play at UND, having been selected 105th overall in 2024.

Cole's World

Fellow freshman forward Cole Reschny is ready to make a big impact for UND this season after spending parts of the last three years with Victoria in the WHL.

Reschny totaled 152 points in 127 games with the Royals, exploding for 26 goals and 66 assists last year.

The Macklin, Saskatchewan, native was clutch down the stretch as well, potting 25 points (9G, 16A) in just 11 postseason games.

Reschny became the program's 24th first round pick over the summer after being selected 18th overall by the Calgary Flames.

Keaton's Corner

Freshman defenseman Keaton Verhoeff brings in quite a resume to Grand Forks.

At just 16 years of age last season, Verhoeff tallied 45 points in 63 games as a defenseman for Victoria in the WHL.
His 21 goals last season were the third-most by a defenseman 16-or-younger in WHL history while also becoming the first U-17 blueliner to eclipse 20 goals in a WHL season.

17 Again!

Verhoeff enters the season having just turned 17, making him one of the youngest players in college hockey.

He begins the season as the second-youngest player across all of college hockey -- trailing only Miami's Ilia Morozov.

Verhoeff is also believed to be the youngest player to play a game at North Dakota.

20/20 Vision

North Dakota hit the 20-win plateau once again last season.

It marked the 25th time over the last 29 years that UND has won at least 20 games in a season.

Last season was the first time UND won at least 20 games and did not reach the national tournament since 1991.

Back In The Big Dance

After a one year hiatus, North Dakota will look to return to the NCAA Tournament in 2025-26.

NoDak has reached 35 national tournaments, which ranks fifth in college hockey history.

Viva Las Vegas!

NoDak will set its sight on Sin City for its ultimate goal this season as the site of the 2026 NCAA Frozen Four.

UND is looking to reach the Frozen Four for the first time since capturing its eighth national crown in Tampa, Fla. during the 2015-16 season.

Overall, North Dakota has reached 22 NCAA Frozen Fours, which is fifth-most in the nation.

Young Guns

With 10 freshmen on the roster, North Dakota is set to be one of the youngest teams in the nation this season.

The Fighting Hawks are tied with Cornell and New Hampshire for ninth in the nation with an average age of 21.2 years.

UND is also the second-youngest team in the NCHC, trailing only Denver (21.0).

Big And Strong

Despite being young, UND is not on the small size.

NoDak enters the season as one of the tallest and heaviest teams in the nation.

At an average of 6-foot, 1.2-inches, UND is tied for sixth in the nation for height and the average 195.0 pounds is third in the NCAA for weight.

Where Art Thou Goals?

North Dakota will have to look to some new scorers this season, with five of its top seven goal scorers from 2024-25 no longer on the roster.

The Hawks return only 38% of their goals from last season -- tied with LIU and UMass for the eighth-fewest in the country.

What's Burning?

It was not the home cooking that fans were used to last season for UND at Ralph Engelstad Arena.

NoDak finished just 10-7-1 at home this season and notched only one regulation sweep.

The 10 wins are tied with the 2022-23 team for the second-fewest victories at Ralph Engelstad Arena since it opened in 2001-02.

Cheaper By The Dozen

UND's roster features 12 NHL draft picks, which sits tied for sixth in the nation and second in the NCHC behind Denver.

UND's 12 draft picks include: forwards Dylan James (DET), Ollie Josephson (SEA), David Klee (SJS), Cade Littler (CGY), Cole Reschny (CGY), Ben Strinden (NSH), Mac Swanson (PIT) and Will Zellers (BOS), as well as defensemen EJ Emery (NYR), Sam Laurila (NYI), Andrew Strathmann (CBJ) and Abram Wiebe (VGK).

UND has had at least one player taken in each NHL Entry Draft since 1999.

Midwestern Hosts

North Dakota will be the host school for the 2026 NCAA Frozen Four in Las Vegas, Nev., (T-Mobile Arena) announced by the NCAA. This adds to UND's long resume of hosting NCAA events.

North Dakota has previously hosted NCAA Regionals in 2015, 2017, 2019, 2021, 2023 and 2025 at SCHEELS Arena, 2006 at Ralph Engelstad Arena in Grand Forks and 2018 at Denny Sanford PREMIER Center in Sioux Falls, S.D., in the past 19 years.

Z Is The C

Graduate student defenseman Bennett Zmolek was voted team captain for the 2025-26 season.

Zmolek, who served as an assistant captain in 2024-25, returns for his third season in a UND uniform after beginning his collegiate career at Minnesota State.

The Rochester, Minn., native is set to return after missing all but one game last season with an injury. In his first full year with the program, Zmolek led the team with a plus-17 while blocking an NCHC high 91 shots – the most by a UND player since Gage Ausmus in 2015-16.

Over his career, Zmolek has appeared in 62 career games and tallied 16 points.
He is currently pursuing his graduate degree in athletic administration & coaching.

Leadership Group Named

Four others will join Zmolek as part of the leadership group, with Dylan James, Jake Livanavage, Ben Strinden, and Abram Wiebe all donning the "A" as assistant captains.

All four assistant captains will be wearing a letter for the first time in their collegiate careers.

F-M's Finest

The local area is represented on the roster this season, with three players from North Dakota or a neighboring city.

Goaltender Zach Sandy and forward Ben Strinden are from Fargo while defenseman Sam Laurila is from just across the river in Moorhead, Minn.

It is a bit of an odd sight to not see a Grand Forks or East Grand Forks native on the team, as the 2025-26 season is the first time without a Greater Grand Forks native on the squad since 2012-13.

Attendance Leaders...Again

UND can once again boast the title of best fans in college hockey, as the program paced the country in multiple attendance categories.

For the 11th straight year, UND and Ralph Engelstad Arena led the nation in average attendance with a total of 11,614 per game while also sitting atop the total attendance number for the 14th straight year with 209,043 total fans.

UND was one of only eight programs to average at over 100 percent capacity, finishing with 17 sellout crowds in 18 home contests.

DANE JACKSON

Head Coach

Years as Head Coach: 1st
Years at UND: 20th
Hometown: Castlegar, British Columbia
Alma Mater: North Dakota ('92)
Career Record: 8-3-0 (.727)
Record at UND: Same

University of North Dakota Director of Athletics Bill Chaves announced on Saturday, March 29, 2025 that Dane Jackson has been named the 17th head coach of the North Dakota hockey program.

Jackson has spent the last 19 years on the bench for North Dakota, serving as an assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach prior to the 2015-16 season. He has primarily coached the team's forwards and penalty kill, while also working directly with UND's forwards and defense on individual skill development throughout the year.

"I am very humbled and appreciative of the opportunity to become the next leader of the North Dakota hockey program," said Jackson at the time of his hiring. "I feel fortunate of all the things that I have learned from the UND culture, and it is this special place that has shaped my playing and coaching career. I am looking forward to getting right to hard work with our staff to make our program and great University proud. I want to thank Dr. Andy Armacost, Bill Chaves and Erik Martinson for having the trust in me to lead this program."

During his time at UND, Jackson's penalty-killing units have annually ranked among the best in the nation and have led their conference in PK percentage seven times. UND has also ranked among the top three in its conference in 12 of the last 15 years under Jackson.

Jackson joined UND in 2006 after serving as head coach and player personnel director for the Adirondack Frostbite of the United Hockey League. Prior to coaching at Adirondack, Jackson spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the American Hockey League's Manchester Monarchs. The Monarchs posted 102- and 109-point seasons during Jackson's two seasons there.

A native of Castlegar, British Columbia, Jackson played for UND from 1988-92 and registered 59 goals and 103 points in 150 career games, serving as an alternate captain as a senior. He was drafted in the third round (44th overall) by Vancouver in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft.

After finishing his collegiate playing career, Jackson went on to enjoy an 11-year professional playing career that included stints in the NHL with the Vancouver Canucks, Buffalo Sabres and New York Islanders.

He was a captain five times during his professional playing career and won community service awards in two separate cities (Syracuse, N.Y. and Hamilton, Ontario). He was also honored with the Rochester Americans' (AHL) Leadership and Dedication Award in 2000-01.
