NEED TO KNOW

- UNI hits the road for the first time this season, as the Panthers begin a six-game road swing starting at Creighton.
- The Bluejays lead the all-time series over the Panthers, 36-17.
- UNI's last win over CU came in 2016 when the Panthers downed the Bluejays 50-49 in Cedar Falls. The victory snapped a six-game losing skid against CU.
- Head coach Tanya Warren is 5-11 overall against her alma matter.
- Last time out, UNI defeated Iowa State at home 57-53. The win broke a 15-game losing streak to the Cyclones. UNI's last win over ISU was a 65-58 victory that came in 2002.
- Senior Kennedy Kirkpatrick led the Panthers with 17 points on 6-of-11 shooting. The game also marked Kirkpatrick's second-career start for the Panthers.
- Junior Ellie Howell matched Kirkpatrick's 17 with 17 of her own, after shooting 7-of-16 from the field.

SERIES WITH CREIGHTON

- UNI and Creighton have met 53 times on the hardwood in women's basketball, with the Bluejays owning a 36-17 advantage.
- Last season's win over the Bluejays snapped a six-game losing skid to CU.
- The win in 2016 was a 50-49 thriller, with Madison Weekly and Megan Maahs scoring 12 points each to lead the Panthers past the Bluejays at home.
- Overall, the Panthers have only won three times against the Bluejays in Omaha. The last road win came on Jan. 13, 2011 when CU was still a member of the MVC.

SCOUTING THE BLUEJAYS

- Creighton finished last season 24-8 overall and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament, advancing all the way to the second round.
- So far this season, the Bluejays are 2-1 after wins over Wichita State and Nebraska, with their lone blemish coming at the hands of South Dakota.
- The Bluejays are shooting 44.1% from the field, while holding opponents to 37.6% from the field.
- Junior forward Audrey Faber leads CU this season, scoring 15.0 points a contest.
- Sophomore guard Olivia Elger is not far behind with 12.0 points per game.

SEASON OPENERS UNDER COACH WARREN

- Since head coach Tanya Warren took over the reigns in 2007, the Panthers are 7-4 in season openers.
- UNI is 3-4 at home to open the season under Warren and a perfect 4-0 on the road.
- The Panthers' last home win to open the season came against Rockhurst 58-39 in 2015.
- Overall, the Panthers are 26-24 all-time in season openers since the program started in 1968 and 27-20 in home openers.

QUICK RECAP

- The Panthers are fresh off of its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2011, after posting a 24-9 record last season.
- The NCAA at-large bid was UNI's first in program history.

DEFENDERS OF WARREN

- UNI is 133-18 under the direction of head coach Tanya Warren when holding an opponent to 60 points or less.
- Five of UNI's top-10 scoring defense averages in school history have come during the Warren era, while the Panthers ranked second in the Valley last season after holding opponents to 58.3 points per game.
- UNI was 19-0 in 2016-17 when holding foes to 60 points or less, so far this season the Panthers are 1-1.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

- Sophomore Megan Maahs turned in quite the performance to open the season, as she hauled in a career-high 16 rebounds and chipped in 10 points to earn her second double-double as a Panther.
- Maahs last earned a double-double after finishing with 11 points and 12 rebounds against Bradley on Jan. 15, 2017.

ANOTHER 24-WIN SEASON IN THE BOOKS

- UNI posted its third season with at least 24 wins or more after going 24-9 in 2016-17.
- The Panthers have earned all three 24-plus winning seasons in the Coach Warren-era, with the first coming in 2010-11.
- The back-to-back 24-win seasons is a first for the program.

WARREN MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE AT UNI

- Head coach Tanya Warren became UNI's all-time wins leader following UNI's 65-64 win against Missouri State on March 4, 2017.
- Warren passed former Panther coach Tony DiCecco who previously held the record with a 183-161 mark in his 12 seasons at UNI.
- Warren enters 2017-18 with a 186-139 record.

WARREN IN THE VALLEY

- Head coach Tanya Warren is fifth all-time wins in the Missouri Valley Conference, with 118 league victories under her belt. Warren is behind Creighton's Jim Flanery (2003-13) who owns 131 wins.
- Overall, Warren's 187 wins are tied for sixth all-time in the Missouri Valley Conference with Lisa Bluder (1991-00) of Drake.

ALL WE DO IS WIN

- The 2016-17 season marked the eighth-straight season the Panthers have won at least 17 or more games.
- The win total also marked the 15th season since the women's basketball program joined NCAA Division I basketball in 1982 that the Panthers have achieved at least 17 wins.
- Tanya Warren now owns eight seasons with at least 17-plus wins or more in a season, which is more than all other coaches at UNI combined.

CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- UNI finished the 2016-17 season with 15 conference wins, which is tied for the second-most league victories in program history.
- The Panthers set the school record for conference wins in 2011 with 17 league victories.
- The 15 MVC wins also mark the ninth season with at least 12 or more Valley wins for UNI.

PRESEASON RECOGNITION

- UNI was selected to finish third in the MVC before the start of the 2017-18 season.
- The Panthers have been voted in the top-half of the MVC Preseason Poll in all but one of head coach Tanya Warren's seasons at UNI.
- Redshirt junior Ellie Howell was selected to the Preseason All-MVC squad.

PANTHER CUBS

- UNI welcomes five true freshmen to the roster this season, with one lone senior leading the pack in Kennedy Kirkpatrick.
- Karli Rucker, Nicole Kroeger, Bre Gunnels, Riley Wheatcraft and Marissa Robson make up the five freshmen for UNI.
- That total is the most since 2015-16's six true freshmen, that squad earned a 24-11 record while advancing to the third round of the WNIT.

RISING STAR

- Sophomore Megan Maahs burst onto the scene last season, earning a spot on the Missouri Valley Conference's All-Freshman Team after averaging 7.5 points and 6.7 rebounds per game as a true freshman.
- Maahs was UNI's first MVC All-Freshman team member since Ellie Howell in 2014-15.

HOWELL HUSTLE

- Redshirt junior Ellie Howell earned the Missouri Valley's Sixth Player of the Year award last season, after averaging 12.2 points and 22.5 minutes per game in 2016-17.
- The honor for UNI is the second for the program and first since Angie Davison (2015).

TANYA WARREN

11 SEASONS ■ 187 CAREER WINS ■ 118 MVC CAREER WINS
 ALL-TIME WINS LEADER AT UNI ■ 3-TIME MVC COACH OF THE
 YEAR ■ 7 POSTSEASON APPEARANCES ■ 3 NCAA TOURNAMENT
 BERTHS ■ 2 MVC TITLES ■ 3 SEASONS OF 24+ WINS

Tanya Warren is entering her 11th season as the head coach of the UNI Panther women's basketball team. Warren is a three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and has guided the Panthers to league regular season titles in 2010-11 and 2015-16. The Panther all-time wins leader has led UNI to back-to-back 24-win seasons.

Warren has compiled an overall coaching mark of 187-140 – ranking her first all-time in victories in school history and No. 7 in the MVC.

Under her direction, the Panthers have appeared in post-season play in seven of the last eight seasons, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2010 and 2011. She led the Panthers to the program's first in a Women's National Invitational Tournament game during the 2012-13 season. From the start of the 2009-10 season to the start of the 2012-13 season, Warren led the Panthers to 63 wins, marking the most wins in school history over a three-season span.

With Warren leading the way, the Panthers have also won two MVC Tournament championships (2010, 2011) and have finished in the top-half of league standings in eight-consecutive seasons. She has led the program to eight-straight seasons with 17 or more wins along with coaching seven different all-conference selections. Warren has also instilled the word "student" into her programs, finishing in the top-15 in the country in team GPA in eight of the last nine seasons.

Warren, who is the all-time wins leader at UNI with 186 career victories, guided the Panthers to their third NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016-17. The Panthers posted 24 wins for the second consecutive season and earned the program's first at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament. UNI was a No. 10 seed and played No. 7-seeded DePaul in Starkville, Miss. Warren coached Ellie Howell to MVC Sixth Player of the Year honors, which was the second for Warren and the Panthers. The Panthers also earned All-MVC honors for Madison Weekly, Howell and Megan Maahs.

In 2015-16, Warren coached the Panthers to its second regular-season MVC title, earning her third MVC Coach of the Year honor. The Panthers finished the season in the third round of the WNIT, suffering a one-point loss to eventual WNIT champion South Dakota. UNI recorded a final record of 24-11 and 15-3 in conference play, the second most Valley wins and second most wins overall in school history. She saw Madison Weekly and Amber Sorenson earn first-team all-conference honors. Weekly won MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year award.

She has coached the only two players in UNI history to score 600 or more points in a season in Jacqui Kalin (662 points in 2012-13) and Weekly, who had 618 points in 2015-16. She coached Sorenson and Sharnae Lamar to record breaking seasons in 2015-16, setting new UNI marks in three-pointers made (97 by Sorensen) and assists (195 by Lamar). Stressing defense and technique, the Panthers finished the 2015-16 season ranked in the top-15 in the country in turnovers per game and are now 112-17 under the direction of Warren when holding an opponent to 60 points or less.

UNI made its fifth postseason appearance during the 2014-15 season after earning a bid to play in the WNIT. UNI finished the 2014-15 season with an overall record of 17-15 and a conference mark of 12-6, starting the MVC season on a program-best four-game winning streak. Warren coached first-team all-conference point guard Madison Weekly and was at the helm to see Stephanie Davison be named the first MVC Sixth Player of the Year.

After the season concluded, Warren was awarded the unique opportunity to coach for her country after being named an assistant coach for Team USA at the World University Games in South Korea. During the month of July, Warren traveled overseas with Team USA for the tournament, eventually defeating Canada in the championship game for the gold medal.

Without a senior on the team, Warren guided a young, but experienced squad to a third-place finish in the MVC during the 2013-14 season. The Panthers finished 17-13 overall for the fifth straight season with 17 or more wins and 13-5 in conference play for their second highest conference win total in school history. She saw sophomore Jen Keitel named to the all-MVC first-team and four student-athletes named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete teams. Culminating the 2013-14 season was Warren winning her second MVC Coach of the Year honor.

She also saw the team earn the seventh-best GPA in NCAA Division I women's basketball. The Panthers were named to the Honor Roll for the third consecutive season, including two seasons in a row in the top-10. The team also finished with the seventh-best GPA during the 2012-13 season.

The 2012-13 season showed promise for the Panthers with a young group of athletes. Warren helped lead the Panthers to a 17-17 season. Under Warren's guidance, UNI made its fourth straight post-season appearance, playing in the WNIT and winning its first WNIT game in program history over the Marquette Golden Eagles. Warren culminated her sixth year as head coach by capping off senior Jacqui Kalin's career with the Sioux City, Iowa, native winning MVC Player of the Year and MVC Scholar Athlete of the Year. Warren notched her 100th career win during the 2012-13 season when UNI defeated Evansville on March 3.

During the 2011-12 season, Warren led the Panthers to a 19-15 overall record and a 9-9 conference record. She guided the Panthers to their third straight postseason tournament appearance and to the WBI championship game. She coached a second team all-MVC selection in K.K. Armstrong and an MVC all-defensive team selection in Rachel Madrigal. Amber Kirschbaum was named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete second team.

In 2010-11, she led the Panthers to a 27-6 overall record and a 17-1 Valley record as UNI completed the conference season five games better than the second-place finishers. UNI won the MVC Tournament for the second straight year, earning the school's second NCAA Tournament appearance. She coached a pair of first-team all-MVC selections in Lizzie Boeck and Jacqui Kalin. Kalin was tabbed the school's first-ever MVC Player of the Year. Kalin was also named the league's Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and Erin Brocka earned a spot on the all-defensive team.

Warren led the Panthers to a historic season as UNI won the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history in 2009-10. UNI finished 17-16 on the season, posting wins over three higher-seeded teams in the Valley Tournament to earn the automatic berth. Jacqui Kalin was named a first-team all-conference selection, and Lizzie Boeck was an honorable mention. Kalin, Boeck and Erin Brocka were also academic all-conference selections. The Panthers also finished the season with the seventh-highest team GPA in the nation.

In 2008-09, Warren led an injury plagued team to an 11-19 overall mark and a 9-9 record and sixth-place finish in the MVC. Junior Kim Wypiszynski was tabbed the league's Newcomer of the Year, and she earned second-team all-conference honors. K.K. Armstrong was named to The Valley's all-freshman team. UNI also finished with the sixth-highest GPA among Division I teams in 2008-09.

In her first season at the helm for the Panthers, Warren led a team composed primarily of freshmen and sophomores to a 13-18 overall record and an 8-10 conference mark and sixth-place league finish. UNI collected wins over eventual MVC co-champions Illinois State and Drake. Warren helped the Panthers take care of business at home, finishing with a 9-5 mark in the McLeod Center, including a 6-3 record against league opponents. Under Warren's watch, Jacqui Kalin was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year, and the point guard also collected second-team all-conference honors. The 2007-08 Panthers also finished with the sixth-highest GPA among NCAA Division I teams.

Warren came to UNI after accumulating 13 years of Division I collegiate coaching experience. Warren previously served as an assistant coach at UNI for six seasons (1995-2001) under Tony DiCecco, and other prior assistant coaching stops included Creighton, Missouri and Iowa State.

Warren, a 1988 graduate of Creighton, returned to her alma mater in 2004 as an assistant coach. In three seasons with the Bluejays, she helped lead Creighton to a WNIT appearance in 2005 and the Missouri Valley Conference tournament championship game in 2007. Working as associate head coach, Warren was instrumental in developing Megan Neuirth, the 2007 MVC Newcomer of the Year, as well as Sam Schuett, who was named to the 2007 MVC all-freshmen team. During her tenure at Creighton, she coached three all-MVC players.

Warren returned to Creighton after a three-year stint as an assistant at the University of Missouri (2001-04). In those three years, the Tigers made three postseason appearances, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2004. She also worked as the recruiting coordinator at Missouri, and she coached five all-Big 12 selections, two of whom went on to play in the WNBA.

Prior to her time at Missouri, Warren worked as an assistant at UNI from 1995-2001. She coached several of the best players in UNI program history, including Kelley (Westhoff) Jacobs. She also helped develop UNI's then all-time scoring leader, Amy Swisher, as well as first-team all-MVC selections Allison (Starr) Pohlman, Alex Cook, Abbie Schutte, Kary Dawson and Katie Miller. Warren joined the Panther program in DiCecco's first season, inheriting a team that won just four games the year prior. UNI improved its number of wins by at least three in each of the first four seasons under the new staff, and in 2001 Warren helped lead UNI to an 18-win season and its first postseason appearance when the Panthers earned a bid to the WNIT.

Warren's first collegiate coaching experience was at Iowa State, where she spent one season as an assistant. Before joining the Cyclones, she spent two seasons as the head girls coach at Duchesne High School in Omaha, Neb., leading the team to its first state tournament appearance in the program's history. Warren's coaching career began with a four-year term as the head girls' coach at Boys Town High School in Omaha.

Warren earned several accolades in her four seasons as a player at Creighton. She holds the CU record for assists in a career and a season. Her 228 assists in 1987 ranked 10th nationally, and she ranks eighth on Creighton's career scoring chart with 1,566 points. She averaged 18.7 points per game in 1987, and she was named to the WNIT all-tournament team and was a Kodak District V selection that season.

Warren's No. 10 jersey is one of two retired numbers at Creighton, and she is also a member of the Creighton University Hall of Fame. Her collegiate career followed an impressive career at Des Moines Lincoln High School, where she was eventually inducted into both the Lincoln High School Hall of Fame and the Iowa High School Girls Hall of Fame.
