HEAD COACH DOUG SCHWAB - 12th season

Doug Schwab is the Panthers' ninth head coach in the program's illustrious history. He enters his 12th season at UNI in 2020-21 season coming off a season that saw 184-pounder Parker Keckeisen earn the highest all-America honors of a redshirt freshman since the 1950s. Twelve UNI student-athletes have earned 17 all-America honors under his leadership, including current wrestlers, Keckeisen, Jacob Holschlag and Carter Isley, who earned an honorable mention when the 2020 championships were canceled.

2020-21: The Panthers wrestled an abbreviated schedule, finishing 4-4 on the year. Six Panthers qualified for the NCAA championship, but Lance Runyon had to withdraw due to injury. Keckeisen led UNI with a third-place finish. The Panthers finished 20th overall.

2019-20: Lujan and Steiert capped dominant seasons with Big 12 titles, Lujan won the final 19 bouts of his career and Steiert earned the only fall in the Big 12 Championship round. Seven wrestlers qualified for the NCAA field before the tournament was canceled. Lujan was ranked first headed into the NCAA championships. Steiert also earned First Team AA honors that year. Max Thomsen, Carter Isley and Michael Blockhus earned honorable mentions.

Jay Schwarm notched the most falls among Division I wrestlers, recording 16 on the year. The Panthers also took care of things in the classroom. Schwarm, Steiert and Thomsen earned NWCA Scholar All-American honors. The Panthers went 8-4 in duals, including a 6-2 record in Big 12 action.

2018-19: Drew Foster's national championship, the first individual title for UNI since Tony Davis in 2000, paced the Panthers to a 13th-place finish at the NCAA National Championship. Bryce Steiert earned All-American honors after finishing eighth at 164. Six Panthers qualified for the NCAA Championship. Foster repeated as the Big-12 champion and was named the Big-12 Wrestler of the Year. Taylor Lujan wrestled in the Big-12 championship and Josh Alber finished third to lead the Panther Train to a third-place finish.

2017-18: Jacob Holschlag earned his first All-America honor at 197 pounds. He was one of six Panthers to compete at the NCAA tournament. The team tied for 24th at the national championships. The Panthers joined the Big 12 and took second at the conference meet. Taylor Lujan (174 pounds) was the first Panther to earn Wrestler of the Week honors and a Big 12 title. Drew Foster also won a conference title at 184 pounds. Max Thomsen earned a spot in the Big 12 championship round, taking second at 149 pounds.

2016-17: UNI won the regular season Mid-American Conference title with an undefeated conference record. Taylor Lujan earned a MAC title at 174 pounds. The Panthers qualified seven for the NCAA tournament and finished 18th at the national tournament. It was the highest finish since 2014. Redshirt freshman Max Thomsen was fifth at 149 pounds, and sophomore Drew Foster was seventh at 184 pounds. UNI was 10th among all Division I schools for attendance.

2015-16: Dylan Peters earned his second All-America honor, taking sixth at 125 pounds. Blaize Cabell became the eighth Panther to win a MAC title, and the first Panther to win a conference title at heavyweight since UNI joined the MAC championship in the 2012-13 season. Five Panthers qualified, but only four competed at the NCAA tournament. Illness prevented Cabell from competing at his third NCAA championship. The team tied for 25th overall.

Schwab started a true freshman for the first time since taking over at UNI. The last freshman to start was Joey Lazor in 2009-10. Bryce Steiert was among the five NCAA qualifiers at 157 pounds. He was the first freshman Panther since 2003 to qualify for the NCAAs. The Panthers were 10th in the nation among all Division I schools for attendance.

2014-15: Tough scheduling and Schwab's energy boosted attendance numbers for UNI wrestling in 2014-15. The Panthers posted the eighth-highest attendance numbers in the nation, up from ninth the year before. Schwab sent four wrestlers to the NCAA tourney, including two-time MAC champion Cooper Moore at 165 pounds. The team finished 34th at the national championships.

2013-14: Schwab crowned three All-Americans and qualified seven wrestlers, the most UNI had sent to nationals since 2007-08 when nine qualified.

Joe Colon took third at 133 pounds, the highest finish of any Panther since 2005. Dylan Peters (125 pounds) and Joey Lazor (141 pounds) placed sixth.

UNI was the only Division I school to finish its dual season undefeated. It was the first time in history UNI won 13 consecutive duals in a single season to finish undefeated. The Panthers went 10-0 in 1956 and 11-0 in 1950.

UNI's opponents only scored 163 points in duals, the fewest allowed since 1974. The program saw its biggest jump in attendance in at least 14 seasons, posting the ninth highest numbers in the nation. Four home duals in the West Gym were sell-outs.

2012-13: Schwab crowned his first two All-Americans and led the Panthers to their highest finish at the NCAA national tournament since 2005. Four wrestlers accounted for the team's 15th-place finish. David Bonin took fourth at 157 pounds, and Ryan Loder was seventh at 184 pounds. Two more Panthers made the Round of 12, just missing out on the All-America spot.

2011-12: He was among 45 coaches who received full scholarships to join the fourth annual National Wrestling Coaches Association Leadership Academy in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, in August 2012. Five Panthers qualified for the NCAA tournament, and the team finished 34th.

2010-11: In his first season as head coach, Schwab led the Panthers to their first 12-win season since 2003 and helped UNI earn its fourth Western Wrestling Conference dual championship. Three Panthers qualified for the NCAA tournament, and the team tied for 46th place.

Schwab of Osage, Iowa, served as an assistant wrestling coach with University of Iowa. Prior to joining the Iowa staff, Schwab served two seasons (2005-07) as an assistant coach at Virginia Tech University under Tom Brands. During his tenure with the Hokies, the team won the 2005 regular season Atlantic Coast Conference title, set a school record for dual meet wins (16) and had a school-record five wrestlers qualify for the NCAA Championships. Virginia Tech also crowned five conference champions and two All-Americans, and senior heavyweight Mike Faust was named 2006 ACC Wrestler of the Year.

Schwab was a three-time All-American and Big Ten champion for the Hawkeyes from 1998-2001. He won the 1999 NCAA title at 141 pounds and finished his collegiate career with 130 wins, which ranks 10th-best in school history.
