UNLV REBELS (2-6/0-4 Mountain West)

Vs.

#20/23 Fresno State (7-1/4-0 Mountain West)

DATE: Saturday, Nov. 3, 2018

KICKOFF: 7:32 pm PT

SITE: Sam Boyd Stadium (35,500/SPRINTURF), Las Vegas

TV: CBS Sports Network (Rich Waltz, Aaron Murray & Cassie McKinney)

RADIO: ESPN 1100 AM & 100.9 FM (Russ Langer, Caleb Herring & Steve Cofield)

ONLINE: Live Stats at www.unlvrebels.com

SATURDAY'S PREVIEW...

Looking for its first Mountain West win, UNLV (2-6/0-4) hosts first-place and newly ranked #20/23 Fresno State (7-1/4-0) Saturday evening ... The Rebels are coming off a 50-37 loss at San Jose State while the Bulldogs downed Hawai'i at home, 50-20 ... With starter Armani Rogers out indefinitely because of a foot injury, it has now been 22 years since the same quarterback started every game of a season for the Rebels (Jon Denton 1996) ... Rogers was ranked in the top 10 in the nation with 122.0 rushing yards per game when he was knocked out of action ... Rogers' replacement behind center, sophomore Max Gilliam, has thrown for 12 touchdowns in four games, becoming only the second Rebel to reach that amount in four games as Denton had 12 over the final third of the 1996 season (1 vs. FS, 3 at TCU, 4 vs. SDSU, 4 at SJSU) ... Gilliam also became the first UNLV QB to throw at least three TDs in three consecutive games since Denton did it in '96 ... RB Lexington Thomas sits second in the MW and 36th in the country with 90.1 YPG ... Thomas (721 yards in 2018) is the second player in school history to run for at least 500 yards in four different seasons, joining all-time leading rusher Tim Cornett (2011-14) ... Against SJSU, Lex moved past two-time All-American Mike Thomas into second place on UNLV's career rushing list and is one 100-yard rushing game short of tying Thomas' 44-year-old school record of 17 set in 1973-74 ... UNLV goes into Saturday tied for second in the nation with 10 fumbles recovered, just one behind leader Florida ... The Rebels have 14 QB sacks, which is already three more than all of last season.

REBELS vs. BULLDOGS NOTES...

These programs have played each other as part of three different conferences (Big West, WAC and now MW) ... FS leads the overall series 13-7 but UNLV has won three of the last four meetings ... UNLV RB Charles Williams is out of Fresno's Bullard HS ... FS lists two players who transferred home after signing with UNLV but never played for the Rebels: LB David Tate Jr. and DL Leevel Tatum III ... First-year UNLV OLB coach Eric Brown played at FS in 2007 and was on the 'Dog coaching staff as a student assistant (2008-10) and then GA (2011-12) ... First-year UNLV DC Tim Skipper was a star LB for the Bulldogs from 1997-2000 and spent six seasons on their staff from 2006-11 ... Three FS staffers formerly worked or played for the Rebels: RB coach Jamie Christian and DB coach J.D. Williams were at UNLV in 2015-16 while GA Matt Lea played against the Bulldogs in UNLV's victory in 2016.

HAPPY 50TH, NSU REBELS!

UNLV honored the 50th anniversary of its first football team at the home opener vs. UTEP. That 1968 squad of Rebels was still a year away from being known as UNLV -- as it played a lone season under the name Nevada Southern University. NSU played its home games at old Cashman Field and enjoyed stunning success for a fledgling college squad, winning its first eight games, including a 69-0 pasting of Cal Tech, before falling by four points in the season finale to Cal Lutheran.

POLL POSITIONS

UNLV has played 46 teams ranked in at least one of the two major polls at the time of the game. The Rebels hold a 5-41 record against such competitors. The Rebels' most recent win over a ranked team came in 2008 when they upset No. 15/13 Arizona State, 23-20 in overtime (pictured, below). In fact, the last four UNLV wins over ranked opponents have come on the road. UNLV has faced a ranked Fresno State team just once before when the No. 17/19 Bulldogs won in 2013.

UNLV QB SITUATION A MAX EFFORT

With quarterback Armani Rogers sidelined by an injury, fellow-sophomore Max Gilliam made his first D-I start vs. New Mexico on October 6. A former Cal signee, Gilliam (pronounced GILL-um) left the Golden Bears for Saddleback College for the 2017 season and helped the Gauchos to a 7-3 record. He signed at midyear with the Rebels and took part in spring practice with his new team. Gilliam previously appeared briefly in three games this fall and completed his lone pass attempt vs. UTEP. Against the Lobos, he became the sixth different Rebel to start behind center during the Tony Sanchez era and completed 15 of 35 attempts for 123 yards, one interception and notched his first two touchdown throws. Then, at Utah State, Gilliam completed 18 of 36 attempts for 250 yards and one pick. His day included touchdown passes to three different receivers. Against Air Force he threw for another trio of scores while completing 26 of 38 attempts for 250 yards. Last week at SJSU, Gilliam's 387 yards were the 14th-most in a game by a Rebel and the most since Blake Decker's 397 vs. Northern Illinois in 2014.

Completing a career-high 28 on 50 attempts, he also tossed four more TDs and finished with a career-best 56 yards rushing, including his first TD on the ground as a Rebel. The dozen touchdown passes are the most by a Rebel signal-caller in four games since Jon Denton had the same amount in 1996.

HEAD COACH @UNLVSANCHEZ

Tony Sanchez, who built a national powerhouse at Las Vegas' Bishop Gorman High School, is now well on his way to creating another consistent winner in town as the 11th head coach in UNLV football history.

Named to the job on Dec. 11, 2014, Sanchez in 2015 became the first Rebel coach to win at least three times in his first season since Hall of Famer John Robinson in 1999. Sanchez also became only the third UNLV coach to win the fabled Fremont Cannon by defeating in-state rival Nevada, Reno in his debut campaign and the first to do it on the road. Under the new staff, the Rebels also became competitive on a near-weekly basis, either leading or trailing by just a touchdown during the fourth quarter in nine of their 12 games.

The improvement continued in 2016 when UNLV won four games and again in 2017 with five victories. That marked the first time in program history the Rebels won more games than the previous season for three straight years -- and impressive streak that is currently matched by just two other FBS programs.

Enjoying the encouraging early results, UNLV recently rewarded Sanchez with a contract extension that will take him through at least the 2021 season.

Sanchez, who turned 44 in January, became a rising star in coaching circles after spending the previous six seasons leading Bishop Gorman to an overall record of 85-5 and six consecutive state 4A championships to go with a top-25 national ranking each year. His 2014 top-ranked Gaels squad finished 15-0 and won the mythical national championship.

Sanchez was well decorated for his efforts in his final season with the Gaels, being named USA TODAY's All-USA Coach of the Year as well as the U.S. Army All-American Bowl National Coach of the Year and the Rawlings National High School Coach of the Year. His overall record as a head coach was 120-26 after having also spent five seasons leading California High School in San Ramon, California, before coming to Southern Nevada. He also was part of staffs at Onate High School in Las Cruces, NM, and Irvin High School in El Paso, TX.

The winning head coach at the 2014 All-American Bowl in San Antonio, Sanchez saw 41 of his players earn collegiate football scholarships during his time in Las Vegas, including 31 to FBS programs. Now he has attracted national attention as only the fifth man in the modern era of college football to go from the high school level directly to the position of head coach of an FBS team.

Sanchez's first major statement as the leader of the Rebels was to quickly attract a top-notch, experienced staff. Dividends from the impressive list of assistants joining Sanchez began immediately as just over a month later, the group secured a recruiting class that was ranked in the upper half of the Mountain West Conference by multiple national outlets. One year later, the Rebels' class was one of the program's best ever as it included a school-record 10 three-star signees. His most recent class was ranked fourth in the 12-team MW.

One of the youngest head coaches on the FBS level, Sanchez is a 1992 graduate of Granada High School in Livermore, CA. A decorated two-way player, he went on to become a standout receiver at Laney College in Oakland before transferring to New Mexico State. He would letter two seasons for the Aggies and finish his senior campaign with 42 receptions for 546 yards, including grabbing five passes for 80 yards at Sam Boyd Stadium when he played against UNLV on Nov. 18, 1995. His first taste of coaching came the next season when he served as an undergraduate assistant at his alma mater.

The son of a career policeman in the Oakland area, Sanchez was born Jan. 25, 1974, at Travis Air Force Base in California while his father was serving in the military. He earned a bachelor's degree in family and consumer science from NMSU in 1998 and then his master's in special education in 2003. He and his wife, Tessie, have two children: daughter, Alyssa, and son, Jason.

QB1(HUNDRED)

While there have only been 16 games in history that saw a UNLV quarterback rush for at least 100 net yards EIGHT of those have happened since the start of the 2016 season. That list includes five from Armani Rogers -- highlighted by a school-record 193-yard effort in a win at New Mexico in 2017. Rogers' 103-yard night vs. UTEP meant he joined Jason Thomas as the only Rebel signal-caller to reach the mark three times in a career and then his 122 vs. PVAMU gave him the school record. He made it three straight this fall with 181 yards at Arkansas State.

ROGERS' RECORD PUSH ON PAUSE

Armani Rogers already has the UNLV record for yards rushing by a quarterback for a single game (former record 165 by Hunkie Cooper in 1991) with his 193 at New Mexico in 2017 and for a season with his 780 (former record 599 by Jason Thomas in 2000). Even after suffering an injury at midseason that cost him nearly three full games in 2017 and now missing time this fall, Rogers already stands second on UNLV's career rushing yards by a QB and figures to soon challenge Thomas' school record of 1,528 set in 2000-02.

SANCHEZ PART OF SELECT COACHING GROUP

UNLV's Tony Sanchez is just the fifth man in the modern era of college football to move directly from being a head coach at a high school to being head coach at a university that was part of what is now known as the FBS. Sanchez, of course, only had to move across the city after going 85-5 in six seasons while leading 2014 national champion Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas. Jim Bradley, who passed away in 2015, was the first to do it when he went across town to take over at NMSU.

Lexington "Lightning" Thomas didn't even start a game in 2015 but was so dynamic that he managed to tie the school freshman record for 100-yard rushing games in a season with three such outings. Thomas ranked ninth in the nation in 2015 with a per-carry average of 6.24 among all freshmen with at least 500 net rushing yards. In his sophomore season, Thomas added 642 more yards and led the squad with 11 total touchdowns (nine rushing). In the 2017 season opener, Thomas came off the bench again vs. Howard and went for 151 net yards en route to six century-mark games as a junior. In his senior season debut at No. 15 USC, Lex ripped off a 71-yard score as part of his 136-yard day in the Coliseum. His 127-yard night vs. UTEP in Game 2, a 124-yard effort vs. Prairie View A&M one week later and a 108-yard night vs. Air Force in Game 7 brought his current total to 16 in just 27 career starts. That puts him second on the school's career list for 100-yard games and just one away from tying a 44-year-old record set by Mike Thomas. "Lightning" now sits second in Rebel history with 36 career TDs with eight more scores this fall. Lex has gone long as well. In fact, he had at least one run of 55 yards in six games in 2017 and two in 2018 after ripping off the fifth-longest run in program history in 2016 when went 85 yards at Central Michigan.

COMING IN 2019: A STATE-OF-THE ART FOOTBALL HOME

UNLV Athletics announced the largest single gift in its history on Sept. 13, 2016, as the Fertitta Family pledged $10 million toward the construction of a state-of-the-art football training facility, which will be known as the Fertitta Football Complex. The 73,000-square-foot, two-level complex is being built on campus in the north end of the team's practice area and overlooks the Ernie Becker Sr. Football Fields at Bill "Wildcat" Morris Rebel Park. Next year, the Fertitta Football Complex will become the day-to-day home of the program and include an academic center, locker rooms, offices, meeting rooms, strength & conditioning center, media room, training table and nutrition bar, athletic training center and player lounge.

The Fertitta Family had the following statement: "We believe in the future of Rebel Football under Tony Sanchez's leadership and are proud to join others in the community in helping make this vital building block for the program become a reality."

A lead gift of $2 million, which was previously the largest ever earmarked for UNLV Football and came from a donor who wished to remain anonymous, was announced in May 2016.

"As I've said since the day I was hired here, I am excited about the future of this program and its limitless potential," said head coach Tony Sanchez. "I want to thank the Fertittas for not just this amazing gift but also for everything they do in the community. I also want to thank everyone else who has stepped up with significant and important contributions as they help us turn Rebel Football into a national program."

THE WATCH POWER

MAXWELL AWARD - QB ARMANI ROGERS

UNLV sophomore quarterback Armani Rogers was one of just 85 players in the nation named to the Maxwell Award Watch List, which was released by the Maxwell Football Club. The award is given to college football's top player at the end of each season. Oklahoma quarterback Baker Mayfield won last year's Maxwell Award. Rogers is one of five players from the Mountain West on this year's watch list and one of just 13 sophomores overall.

DOAK WALKER AWARD - RB LEXINGTON THOMAS

UNLV senior running back Lexington "Lightning" Thomas was one of 62 players named to the official Doak Walker Award Watch List. The award is presented annually to the nation's top college running back. Thomas, who is a unanimous choice for 2018 preseason first team All-Mountain West, needs 1,250 yards to pass Tim Cornett (3,733 from 2010-13) and become the school's career rushing king. Despite starting just 20 games as a collegian, he headed into the fall ranking third in UNLV history with 12 100-yard rushing games and needed six to break two-time All-American Mike Thomas' 44-year-old UNLV record of 17. The PwC SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors will name 10 semifinalists in November, and three finalists will be announced November 20. The committee will cast a second vote beginning November 26 to determine the recipient.

LOU GROZA AWARD - PK EVAN PANTELS

UNLV senior Evan Pantels was one of just 30 players in the nation named to the 2018 Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award Watch List, which was released by the Palm Beach County Sports Commission. Pantels headed into his final season as the team's starting kicker on field goals and extra points and is on target to threaten multiple UNLV career marks this fall. Going into his senior season, Pantels made a remarkable 100 of his 106 combined kick attempts (FGs and XPs) as a Rebel – hitting all 70 of his PATs – while his field-goal percentage of .833 tops the program's all-time list. In 2017, Pantels ranked first in the Mountain West and fourth nationally with 1.89 field goals per game, and second in the league and 21st in the country with 8.8 points per game.

POLYNESIAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR AWARD - OL JUSTIN POLU

UNLV junior offensive lineman Justin Polu was one of 50 players from around the nation named to the 2018 Watch List for the Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award. The honor is presented annually to the most outstanding Polynesian college football player that epitomizes great ability and integrity. Polu (PO-lew) earned a spot on the list for the second straight year. An honors candidate as a returning starter, he is again listed No. 1 at right guard. Named 2018 Preseason Third Team All-MW by Phil Steele's and Fourth Team by Athlon, Polu started all 12 games and helped the Rebels rank 18th in the nation with 240.2 rushing yards per game.

EARL CAMPBELL TYLER ROSE AWARD - RB LEXINGTON THOMAS

For the third straight year, UNLV running back Lexington Thomas was named to the official watch list for the annual Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. The award honors the nation's top college football offensive player who was either born in Texas, graduated from a Texas high school or plays at a college located in the Lone Star State. The honoree must also exhibit the enduring characteristics that define the award's namesake -- former NFL running back great Earl Campbell (nicknamed the Tyler Rose) -- including integrity, performance, teamwork, sportsmanship, drive, community and tenacity. A 2015 graduate of Benjamin Davis High School in Houston, Thomas three times in 2017 earned an Earl Campbell Award Honorable Mention -- Sept. 12 after his 190-yard, three TD performance at Idaho; Oct. 3 following a 146-yard, two-TD effort vs. San Jose State; and Nov. 21 after going for 127 and two scores at New Mexico.

KALILI WEARING THE WIESNER JERSEY

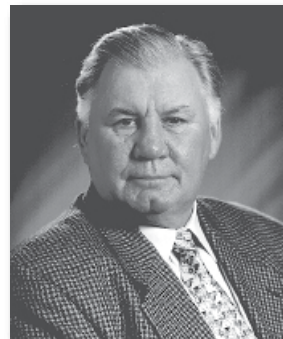

Before UNLV's home-opening game vs. UTEP, senior cornerback Jocquez Kalili was recognized as this year's recipient of the Tom Wiesner Award (pronounced "WEEZE-ner). For the 17th consecutive year, coaches and seniors on the football team selected the player who best exemplifies the courage, enthusiasm, dedication and toughness of the late Mr. Tom Wiesner. Kalili, a Las Vegas native who originally walked on at Arizona out of Desert Oasis High School, spent two years at Mesa Community College before joining the Rebels in 2017. Earning a scholarship for his final year at UNLV, Kalili had grabbed a starting spot at cornerback before suffering a season-ending injury last fall and is listed No. 1 at right corner heading into the season opener at USC. Kalili is the first CB to earn the Wiesner, which is designated with special stitching on the front of his jersey. A Wisconsin native and three-time letterman on the Badger football team, Mr. Wiesner sought his fortune out West and became one of the Las Vegas' leading businessmen, philanthropists, politicians and ambassadors. The founder of the successful restaurants that are part of Big Dog's Hospitality Group, Mr. Wiesner helped guide Rebel Athletics from their infancy and was inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame as a Distinguished Contributor in 1994. Also a member of the Nevada Board of Regents, he died in 2002 at the age of 63 after a battle with Leukemia.

ONE-OF-A-KIND DESIGN

Sam Boyd Stadium underwent a $1.2 million renovation on its field level in the summer of 2015 that included a new $800,000 playing surface. Two rows of seats on both the West and East sides were eliminated to create a wider field and a new official stadium capacity for football of 35,500. The highlight of the project, however, was the installation of a new football field for the first time since 2003. The state-of-the-art, 100-percent Made in the USA, SPRINTURF synthetic surface features a shock pad for player safety. Given the advantages of a blank green canvas with no sewn-in markings, UNLV head coach Tony Sanchez looked to go bold with the program's new field design and the Vegas-themed look made national news when the rendering was released. The world-famous "Welcome to Fabulous Las Vegas" sign makes an appearance in the black end zones along with "REBELS" in red. Yardage numbers are displayed in a unique retro Las Vegas font and lay atop red and gray diamonds made famous in the iconic old Stardust hotel sign. The 50-yard-line markers are gray sunbursts taken from the top of the aforementioned Las Vegas sign. Finally, a gray strip borders the entire field. The entire design, including the Mountain West Conference logos and midfield UNLV primary logo, is painted by stadium personnel in the final weeks leading up to kickoff.

REBELATIONS...

UNLV has not returned a punt for a touchdown in 17 years -- believed to be second-longest current drought in the nation (Rice has the longest drought dating back to 1997). The last Rebel to do it was Troy Mason, who went 52 yards vs. San Diego State on Oct. 13, 2001, at Sam Boyd Stadium ... UNLV's defense, after going three games without a single sack, notched three vs. SJSU to give the Rebels 14 on the year, which is three more than all of last season ... Against the Spartans, senior safety Dalton Baker grabbed his first career interception, which was only the second pick of the season by UNLV. The Rebels need three more INTs over the last four games to avoid breaking the school record for fewest in a season (5 set in 2016, '09 and '05) ... Baker also sits second in the MW and tied for 13th in the nation with 11.1 tackles per game ... True freshman WR Tyleek Collins has emerged as a weapon in the last few games. At USU, his 79-yard catch-and-score helped him finish with 139 yards on four receptions and marked the first 100-yard receiving game for a Rebel since Darren Woods Jr. went for 114 yards at New Mexico in Game 11 of 2017. Two weeks later at SJSU, Collins became just the fourth Rebel and first rookie to notch four TD receptions in one game, joining Devante Davis (2013), Henry Bailey (1994) and Nate Hawkins (1971). His 170 yards on nine grabs were just six yards short of Ryan Wolfe's 2006 school freshman record and ranked 21st in a game by any UNLV receiver. Collins now leads the team with 23 catches for 387 yards and six touchdowns (plus one rushing TD) ... Earlier this fall, UNLV defeated opponents by at least four touchdowns in back-to-back games (UTEP and Prairie View A&M) for the first time since elevating to NCAA Division I in 1978 and for the first time overall since 1975 ... Against PVAMU, UNLV senior Evan Pantels saw his school-record streak of successful extra points snapped at 80 when his first attempt of the night hit the uprights. Pantels then missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt, which marked the first time he missed an attempt shorter than 39 yards in his collegiate career. Despite making only three of six attempts this fall, Pantels' field-goal percentage of .786 (33-42) is second on the program's all-time list ... Against UTEP, new UNLV punter Hayes Hicken, a graduate transfer from Utah, finished with a 56.2-yard average on five attempts. That mark ranked second on the Rebels' list for highest average in a game, trailing only College Football Hall of Famer Randall Cunningham's 58.0 average turned in vs. UNR in 1983. Hicken had another stellar night at Arkansas State with an average of 53.0 and a 52-yard day at SJSU. He currently stands 14th in the nation with an average of 44.8 ... Junior safety Javin White is tied for third in the nation with four forced fumbles, which also ties him for the sixth in UNLV single-season history ... Sitting fifth in the league is LB Gabe McCoy with his 1.12 tackles-for-loss per game. His total of 9.0 already is more than the team's leader in 2017 (DL Mike Hughes with 7.0) ... After James Wofford's 1997 school record for rushing yards in a season by a freshman (624) stood for two decades, the mark has been bested in back-to-back seasons. Rookie Charles Williams shattered it in 2016 with 763 yards only to see QB Armani Rogers put his name on top with 780 yards last fall ... UNLV's coaching staff has five new faces this year, including four on defense. Tim Skipper came from Florida to take over defensive coordinator duties; veteran coach Al Simmons came over from New Mexico to lead the safeties; former Rebel player

Steve Irvin, most recently at USD, is coaching the cornerbacks; while filling the new 10th assistant role is Eric Brown, who came from Idaho to direct UNLV's outside linebackers. Garin Justice is the lone newbie on offense, taking over the offensive line after spending last season FAU ... Four players, two from each side of the ball, were voted UNLV football's permanent team captains for the 2018 season. After a vote by players, sophomore quarterback Armani Rogers (Los Angeles, CA/Hamilton HS) and senior running back Lexington "Lightning" Thomas (Houston/Davis HS) represent the offense while junior linebacker Gabe McCoy (Pittsburg, CA/Pittsburg HS) and senior safety Dalton Baker (Las Vegas/Bishop Gorman HS) lead the defense this fall. Rogers is one of only seven sophomore team captains in college football this season.

NO. 15 TROJANS PULL AWAY LATE

LAS ANGELES (UNLVRebels.com) - Playing at the famed LA Memorial Coliseum for only the second time, the UNLV football team opened its 51st season Saturday afternoon by giving No. 15/15 USC all it could handle before the Trojans pulled away with 24 points in the fourth quarter for a 43-21 victory.

Competing in sunny and humid conditions, UNLV got off to a miserable start, fumbling away the football on the very first play of the season. The Rebel defense responded, however, holding the Trojans to a subsequent field goal – the first of four three-pointers for the home team in the first half alone.

UNLV twice quieted the crowd by taking the lead before halftime, first when Lexington Thomas raced for a 71-yard touchdown on a fake reverse to make it 7-6; and then when Armani Rogers found Kendal Keys for a 31-yard scoring strike to make it 14-9. The Trojans eventually led by five at the break and, after a scoreless third quarter, outscored UNLV 24-7.

THE TURNING POINT: Leading 14-12, UNLV had all the momentum late in the second quarter while driving to the USC 20-yard line. That's when the Rebels missed a 39-yard field goal attempt and the Trojans responded with a 79-yard touchdown drive to take a 19-14 lead, which they never relinquished.

STAT OF THE GAME: USC kicker Chase McGrath made all five of his field goals and four extra points for 19 total points. The five three-pointers tied the record by a UNLV opponent (BYU's Owen Pochman in 1999).

REBEL OF THE GAME: Lightning struck at the Coliseum when Lexington Thomas ran for 136 yards on just 14 carries. It marked the senior's 13th career 100-yard effort, which ranks third in school history and moves him to within four of tying the Rebel record of 17 set by Mike Thomas in 1973-74.

REBEL NOTES

- UNLV outrushed USC 308 to 219 on the day.
- Lexington Thomas' 71-yard scoring scamper marked the ninth touchdown of 55 yards or longer by the senior, including seven in just the last 13 games.
- Quarterback Armani Rogers, who graduated from Los Angeles Hamilton High School, rushed for 82 net yards despite being sacked five times, and threw for two touchdowns despite finishing with just 97 yards through the air.
- UNLV PK Evan Pantels' 39-yard field goal attempt in the second quarter marked the first time the senior missed an attempt of 39 or shorter as a Rebel, having come in 23 of 23 under 40.
- The Rebels pulled off a fake punt to set up a touchdown in the second quarter when Evan Austrie ran for 36 yards and the first down.
- Senior captain safety Dalton Baker turned in 11 total tackles while junior cornerback Jericho Flowers finished with 10 to go with two pass breakups.
- Opening on the road vs. a ranked opponent for the first time since 2011, the Rebels fell to 5-40 all-time vs. ranked opponents and 4-16 vs. Pac-12 opponents who were in the league at the time of the game.

REBELS RUSH PAST MINERS IN HOME OPENER

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) – UNLV (1-1) scored 24 second-quarter points to run away from visiting UTEP (0-2), 52-24, on a hot Saturday night at Sam Boyd Stadium.

Facing the Miners for the first time since 1993, the Rebels took their home opener by rushing for 414 yards and winning the turnover battle 3-0. It marked the first time UNLV hosted a team that was a member of Conference USA at the time of the game.

The Rebels produced two 100-yard rushers as running back Lexington Thomas went for 127 and two scores and quarterback Armani Rogers totaled 103 and one touchdown on the ground. Rogers also threw three touchdowns – all to different receivers – as UNLV twice built its lead to 35 points.

THE TURNING POINT: With both teams driving up and down the field early, UNLV held the Miners to a field goal, which kept the Rebels ahead 14-10. That allowed UNLV to eventually build a 38-10 halftime advantage.

STAT OF THE GAME: Four different UNLV running backs finished with at least 70 yards on the ground and all of them posted per-rush averages of at least 6.7 yards.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Armani Rogers completed only six passes but three of those went for touchdowns. He also rushed for 103 yards on just 10 carries.

REBEL NOTES

- Game time temperature was 106 degrees at 6 pm PT.
- By making all seven of his extra points vs. UTEP, UNLV senior Evan Pantels broke the school record for consecutive PATs. The former record was 75 set by Kyle Watson in 2008-09. Pantels has now made all 80 his attempts.
- Pantels also made his one field-goal attempt (35 yards) to finish with 10 total points vs. the Miners.
- Sophomore quarterback Armani Rogers threw for three touchdowns in a game for the first time as a Rebel.
- Rogers finished with 103 net yards rushing on just 10 carries (including one TD). It marked his third 100-yard rushing game as a Rebel, which tied the school record by a quarterback (Jason Thomas had three from 2000-02).
- Senior Lexington Thomas posted his 14th 100-yard rushing game with 127 on 17 carries, including TD runs of 40 and four yards. He now sits just three scores away from tying Mike Thomas (1973-74) for the most in UNLV history.
- Thomas also moved up one spot on the career rushing yardage list. His total of 2,747 ranks fourth in school history.
- New UNLV punter Hayes Hicken finished with a 56.2-yard average on five attempts. The former Utah transfer is a junior graduate transfer.
- UNLV senior safety Dalton Baker finished with a game-high 14 total tackles.
- The Rebels' 414 yards rushing was the sixth most in school history and most since going for 517 vs. Idaho State in 2015.
- The 52 points scored by UNLV tied for the 18th most in school history and fourth most under head coach Tony Sanchez.

RUSHING REBELS WIN SECOND STRAIGHT

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) – UNLV (2-1) improved to 2-0 at home for the first time in a decade with a 46-17 victory over Prairie View A&M (1-3) Saturday night at Sam Boyd Stadium.

Sophomore Armani Rogers tied a school record with four rushing touchdowns and broke the UNLV mark for 100-yard rushing games by a quarterback in a career with his fourth century-mark game as a Rebel. Senior running back Lexington Thomas had a game-high 124 yards rushing and a score. Senior end Roger Mann led the way on defense, notching a pair of sacks as part of his four-tackle night that also featured a forced fumble and recovery.

Facing the Panthers for the first time since 1974, UNLV led 20-0 after the first quarter and went into halftime leading 34-0 powered by three straight rushing scores by Rogers.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV boasted two 100-yard runners for the second consecutive week (Rogers with 122 and Thomas with 124) en route to out-rushing PVAMU 318-99.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Armani Rogers became the first Rebel to rush for four touchdowns in a game since 2013 and the fifth in history. He was the first quarterback to get four and also threw for another score.

REBEL NOTES

- UNLV won consecutive home games for the first time taking three straight in 2013.
- The Rebels improved to 2-0 vs. PVAMU and 5-0 vs. teams currently in the Southwestern Athletic Conference. The 44-year drought between games with these two schools was the longest in UNLV history.
- UNLV, which downed UTEP in Game 2, played opponents from Texas in back-to-back weeks for the first time since 1999 when the Rebels won at North Texas and Baylor in successive outings.
- Lexington Thomas' moved past Dominique Dorsey (2001-04) into third place on the school's career rushing yards list with 2,871.
- Thomas recorded his 15th career 100-yard rushing game, which ranks third in school history and moves him to within two of tying Mike Thomas' UNLV mark of 17 set in 1973-74. He is one short of second place (Tim Cornett 16 in 2011-14).
- Thomas' one-yard rushing TD gave him 32 in his career, which put him six short of Mike Thomas' UNLV record of 37 set in 1973-74.
- When PVAMU kicked the ball out of the end zone after a bad snap late in the game, it marked UNLV's first safety since a game vs. Northern Illinois in 2014.
- UNLV senior Evan Pantels saw his school-record streak of successful extra points snapped at 80 when his first attempt of the night hit the uprights. Pantels then missed a 24-yard field-goal attempt, which marked the first time he missed an attempt shorter than 39 yards in his collegiate career.

RUSHING REBELS WIN SECOND STRAIGHT

JONESBORO (UNLVRebels.com) – Arkansas State (3-1) converted four turnovers into 13 points to get by UNLV (2-2) 27-20 during a rain-soaked Saturday night non-conference game Saturday at Centennial Bank Stadium.

In just the second meeting between the programs and the first since 1995, the Rebels rushed for 310 yards, including 181 by quarterback Armani Rogers, but were held to the fourth-lowest passing total in school history with just 23 yards.

UNLV led twice in the game. The first time came in the first quarter when Evan Owens sprinted for a 41-yard touchdown that marked the senior's first score as a Rebel and gave his team a 7-6 advantage. After falling behind 19-7 in the third, the visitors scored two quick touchdowns to go back ahead 20-19. The Red Wolves went on to score the only points in the fourth quarter on a 39-yard scamper. The Rebels got the ball back at their own 23-yard line with 1:52 remaining but could not move into scoring position.

UNLV's defense, which held the hosts to 3-of-13 on third-down attempts, was paced by Dalton Baker's 10 total tackles go with a fumble recovery.

STAT OF THE GAME:

UNLV, playing in constant rain, completed just one of 10 pass attempts in the second half.

REBEL OF THE GAME:

Junior safety Javin White shined with nine total tackles, 1.5 TFL, one QB sack and one forced fumble that led to a UNLV touchdown.

THE TURNING POINT:

UNLV led 7-6 and was driving for more points in the second quarter after a 37-yard Lexington Thomas burst. Instead, Arkansas State grabbed one of its three interceptions on the night at its own two-yard line and marched the ball down field to take momentum and a 13-7 lead.

- The Rebels were facing a team that was a member of the Sun Belt Conference at the time of the game for the first time.
- UNLV fell to 0-2 all-time in the state of Arkansas and dropped to 3-2 vs. teams from the Natural State.
- Armani Rogers' 181 net yards on 26 carries extended his school record for most career 100-yard rushing games with his fifth such effort (and third straight). He also ran in his sixth touchdown of the season.
- Lexington Thomas did not break 100 yards rushing for the first time this season, finishing with 82 net yards on 18 attempts. The senior did rush for his 33rd career touchdown, which is just four short of the record set by Mike Thomas in 1973-74.
- Punter Hayes Hicken continued his fine work, finishing with a 53-yard average on five attempts, including a 66-yarder that was downed on the ASU two-yard line.

eighth in the nation in rushing – sidelined indefinitely with a foot injury, sophomore Max Gilliam made his first Division One start and the offense struggled to net just 43 yards on the ground. Gilliam completed 15 of 35 attempts for 123 yards, including two touchdowns, but was sacked five times. Receivers Brandon Presley and Darren Woods Jr. each found the end zone for the home team in the fourth quarter.

The balanced Lobos took advantage of every opportunity, scoring 13 points off of turnovers and running for 252 yards and passing for 250. After a scoreless first quarter, the visitors put up 29 points in the second and never looked back.

STAT OF THE GAME:

At halftime, New Mexico had 15 first downs to UNLV's one.

REBEL OF THE GAME:

Even while spending half the game kicking into the extreme winds, punter Hayes Hicken finished with an average of 42 yards on nine attempts, including a long of 66. He also successfully converted a fake punt in the third quarter by running for 14 yards.

REBEL NOTES

- UNLV came into the game ranked third in the nation in rushing with 336 yards but could only manage 43 against the Lobos after 43 yards lost on sacks were included.
- Senior running back Lexington Thomas, who entered 14th in the nation with 116 yards per game, finished with just 36 yards on six.
- Senior safety Dalton Baker led all players with 14 total tackles while safety Javin White had 10 takedowns, 1.5 TFL and two forced fumbles.
- UNM evened the all-time series between the teams at 12 after winning its second straight trip to Las Vegas.
- The Rebels fell to 13-24 in conference openers, including 9-10 when they happen at home.
- Fourth-year head coach Tony Sanchez lost a Mountain West opener for the first time.

IMPRESSIVE AGGIES DOWN REBELS

LOGAN, Utah (UNLVRebels.com) – Surging Utah State (5-1/2-0) continued to build its case as the Mountain West's best team with a 59-28 victory over UNLV (2-4/0-2) on a mostly gloomy and cold Saturday at Maverik Stadium.

The Aggies won their fifth straight while the Rebels lost their third consecutive outing despite jumping out to 7-0 lead on a one-yard Lexington Thomas touchdown in the first quarter. USU, however, soon scored 28 points in a span of less than six minutes to build a 42-7 halftime lead.

Thomas, who came in averaging 100 yards per game, had 51 yards on 12 carries when he was knocked out of the game with an injury in the first series of the second half.

Max Gilliam, making his second start after the loss of quarterback Armani Rogers to injury, completed 18 of 36 passes for 250 yards and three touchdowns despite being sacked seven times and picked off once.

Rebel safety Javin White led the way defensively with 10 total tackles, including 1.5 TFL.

STAT OF THE GAME: 12 different Utah State players made at least one reception as Aggie QB Jordan Love tied a school record with five touchdown passes.

REBEL OF THE GAME: True freshman Tyleek Collins had a breakout game with 139 yards on four receptions, including a 79-yard catch and score. He also rushed twice for 20 yards.

REBEL NOTES

- Tyleek Collins' 139 yards receiving marked the first 100-yard receiving game for a Rebel since Darren Woods Jr. went for 114 yards at New Mexico in Game 11 of 2017
- UNLV made its first appearance in Logan since 2014
- USU blocked a Hayes Hicken punt attempt and ran it into the end zone to mark the first punt return for a score by a Rebel opponent since a game at Utah in 2004
- The Aggies improved to 17-7 vs. UNLV all-time in what was their fifth straight victory in the series
- Despite missing half the game because of injury, Lexington Thomas became only the third Rebel in history to reach the 3,000-yard career rushing mark. The senior now has 3,040 and joins Tim Cornett (3,733 from 2010-13) and Mike Thomas (3,149 from 1973-74)
- Thomas' first-quarter touchdown gave him 34 for his career, which is just three away from Mike Thomas' school record set more than four decades ago

RALLY FALLS SHORT AGAINST AIR FORCE

LAS VEGAS (UNLVRebels.com) - Air Force's defense turned back UNLV's final drive of the night, which allowed the Falcons (3-4/1-3) to hold off the Rebels (2-5/0-3) in a wild 41-35 Homecoming final Friday night at Sam Boyd Stadium.

UNLV dropped its fourth straight despite building an eight-point lead in the second quarter and carrying a 21-20 advantage into the halftime. Air Force quarterback Isaiah Sanders was nearly unstoppable, running for 173 yards and three touchdowns and completing his first eight pass attempts en route to a 217-yard night through the air.

The Rebels trailed by 20 points with 5:45 left in the third quarter but then scored two touchdowns to pull to within six. After forcing a punt for the first and only time, UNLV got the ball back and drove to the Air Force 30-yard line before Max Gilliam's pass attempt to Darren Woods Jr. was batted down on fourth down to end the threat.

Woods earlier caught two touchdowns while Brandon Presley grabbed one score. Senior tailback Lexington Thomas finished with 108 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Senior safety Dalton Baker turned in a game-high 18 tackles while junior safety Javin White forced his fourth fumble of the season.

STAT OF THE GAME: Air Force scored on its first seven possessions in the game and punted only once.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Quarterback Max Gilliam set career highs with 26 completions on 38 attempts for 261 yards. He also tossed three touchdowns for the second consecutive week.

REBEL NOTES

- UNLV fell to 8-6-1 on Fridays and 18-16-1 overall on non-Saturday games.
- Air Force improved to 16-6 in the all-time series, including three straight.
- UNLV dropped to 25-26 all-time in Homecoming games.
- The winning team in this high-flying series has averaged 38 points and never scored less than 24.
- Lexington Thomas' two touchdowns vs. AFA gave him 36 for his career, which moved him past Tim Cornett (2011-14) all alone in second in UNLV history. Thomas is just one away from tying Mike Thomas' school record set more than four decades ago.
- Thomas reached the 100-yard rushing mark for the fourth time this season and the 16th time in his career. That moved him into a tie for second in UNLV history with Cornett, who had 16 such games from 2011-14.

GAME 8

CEFCU Stadium • San Jose, CA
Oct. 27, 2018 • Att. 16,165

REBELS SEE DROUGHT IN SAN JOSE CONTINUE

SAN JOSE (UNLVRebels.com) - Freshman wide receiver Tyleek Collins' four touchdowns were not enough to keep UNLV (2-6/0-4) from losing its fifth straight game, 50-37 to San Jose State (1-7/1-3) at CEFCU Stadium Saturday. The Rebels have also lost five straight road trips against the Spartans.

Collins finished with 170 yards on nine catches and became just the fourth Rebel - and first rookie - to find the end zone four times via the pass. Quarterback Max Gilliam threw all four, which gave him 12 in the last four games since taking over for injured starter Armani Rogers. The sophomore also threw a career-high three interceptions, however, one of which was returned 50 yards for a touchdown.

Despite scoring first, UNLV fell behind 17-7 before Gilliam found Collins for a 75-yard score and then for a four-yard shovel pass to give the Rebels a 21-17 lead. SJSU, however, scored the next 21 points in the game to pull away.

THE TURNING POINT: UNLV had just captured all momentum late in the second quarter and looked ready to enjoy a halftime lead before the hosts traveled 74 yards in a minute's time to recapture the advantage with just 34 seconds left.

STAT OF THE GAME: UNLV star running back Lexington Thomas netted just 61 yards on the ground on 19 carries.

REBEL OF THE GAME: Tyleek Collins dazzled onlookers with his four touchdowns (75 yards, 46 yards, and twice from four yards), joining Devante Davis (2013), Henry Bailey (1994) and Nate Hawkins (1971) with four TD receptions in a game by a Rebel. His 170 yards were the 21st-most in a game by any UNLV receiver.

REBEL NOTES

- UNLV has not won a game in San Jose since 1993 when both teams were members of the Big West Conference.
- Max Gilliam's 387 yards passing were the 14th-most in a game by a Rebel and the most since Blake Decker's 397 vs. Northern Illinois in 2014.
- Gilliam also finished with a career-high 56 yards rushing, including his first touchdown on the ground as a Rebel. His previous rushing high in a game was four yards.
- UNLV's defense, after going three games without a single sack, notched three vs. SJSU to give the Rebels 14 on the year, which is three more than all of last season.
- Senior safety Dalton Baker led the team with 10 total tackles and grabbed his first career interception. It marked the team's second pick of the season.
