Bold indicates current members of the softball team.

LORI HARRIGAN'S NUMBER RETIRED

On Feb. 26, 1998, Lori Harrigan's contributions to UNLV athletics were recognized when the softball program officially retired jersey number 22.

10-time Big West Pitcher of the Week, Harrigan hurled six no-hitters, including the school's only perfect game (a 1-0 eight-inning victory over Missouri in 1992).

Harrigan was, and still is, one of the most dominant and intimidating pitchers the Rebels ever put into the circle and is arguably the best pitcher in the history of UNLV softball.

She was a three-time American Softball Association All-American and three-time USA National Team member, she won numerous awards both as a Rebel and in the years following graduation.

From 1989 to 1992, Harrigan compiled a record of 83-53, with a career ERA of 0.77. These career marks still rank first in UNLV annals, as does career strikeouts (725), innings pitched (1034.7), shutouts (53) and complete games (123).

She won Big West Conference accolades in all four seasons, including a First Team award in her senior year. A

In her no-hitter against Southern Utah on February 14, 1992, she threw a school-record 15 strikeouts in the team's 3-0 win over the Thunderbirds. The southpaw also owns the single-season record in three categories. Her ERA of 0.51 in her senior season ranks first, as do her strikeouts in a season (223: 1991) and her shutouts in a season (17: 1990).

Harrigan's efforts on the mound helped lead her Rebel teams to three NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the College World Series.

Harrigan will long be remembered by UNLV fans as one of the most exciting players to ever take the field for the Rebel softball program. UNLV's 1992 Sportswoman of the Year, she was the kind of student-athlete that exemplified what all Rebel athletes aspire to become.

REBELS IN THE UNLV ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Rebel softball program has had three student-athletes and one team inducted into the UNLV Athletics Hall of Fame. Lori Harrigan (pitcher) became the first softball member inducted back in 2002. Cyndi Parus (first base) followed Harrigan with her entry in 2006. Kim Rondina (second base) and her 1995 Women's College World Series team became the third and fourth additions to the H.O.F. in 2008.

UNLV'S THREE WCWS TEAMS

EXTREME TECHNOLOGY

Extreme performance comes from extreme technology.

And no bat takes technology to the extreme like the all-new Triton.

The Triton utilizes aerospace-grade graphite and 3X composite technology, the most advanced bat technology in the game today.

The unique 3-zone design of Triton allows the barrel and handle to be designed and built as individual units, while the innovative Bubble Transition (BT) Zone brings everything together to function as an advanced 1-piece bat.

The ultra-stiff handle maximizes barrel flex for unmatched performance. The end result is a bat that combines thin-wall performance with lasting durability.

So take your game to the extreme. Get your hands on the extreme technology of Triton today.

BT Zone completes a 1-piece bond, providing a stiffer handle and transition.

Bubble Transition (BT) Zone optimizes the relationship between the barrel and handle, making a stiffer and stronger bat.

62 | Mountain West Conference

BIRTH OF A CONFERENCE

The Mountain West Conference was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions --Air Force, Brigham Young, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming-- decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from the former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Five of the MWC's eight members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (BYU, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV entered the fold in 1996 and TCU began its first year of competition in 2005-06, completing the membership in the MWC as it stands today.

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West Conference has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. The Colorado Springs-based league is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within the MWC boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders four league schools (Utah, BYU, Air Force and Colorado State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet - the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert city of Las Vegas (the fastest growing metropolitan area in the West) and the Pacific locale of San Diego State. The southwestern flavor of New Mexico complements the western heritage and culture of Fort Worth, Texas, home of the MWC's newest member TCU.

MWC members have participated in 31 bowl games in nine years with eight of the nine schools going to at least one postseason event. The MWC has earned 39 postseason bids in men's basketball, including 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, while women's basketball has tallied 24 NCAA bids, four Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. The MWC has sent at least 30 teams to NCAA postseason events each of the past nine years, while capturing seven NCAA team championships during that span.

YEAR IN REVIEW

The 2007-08 campaign provided several notable moments for Mountain West teams and individuals. The MWC sent a record five team to bowl games and posted a 4-1 mark in those contests to capture the Bowl Championship Cup for the second time in four years. League champion BYU also became the first team to claim back-to-back outright MWC regular-season men's basketball crowns. UNLV captured the MWC Tournament title and earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season, advancing past the first round for the second straight year. It marked the eighth time in the last nine years the MWC has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Tournament. The league sent four teams to the postseason in women's basketball, including three to the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive year. First-time MWC Tournament champion UNLV led a trio of women's volleyball teams into the NCAA Tournament marking the eighth time in nine years that the league has sent at least three squads into postseason play. No less than 36 MWC student-athletes earned All-America honors at the NCAA indoor and outdoor track and field championships. Student-athletes from BYU and UNLV represented the MWC in the NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving Championships, while BYU, TCU and UNLV provided participants on the men's side in NCAA postseason action. Four MWC men's and women's golf teams each were invited to the 2008 NCAA Regionals, with three teams advancing to the NCAA Championships. Multiple MWC women's tennis teams appeared in the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive year with TCU and tourney champ UNLV qualifying in 2008, while TCU was the MWC entrant to the NCAAAs on the men's side. The league sent BYU and SDSU to the NCAA Softball Tournament, while TCU represented the league for the third straight year in the NCAA Baseball Tournament.

COMMISSIONER CRAIG THOMPSON

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the newest NCAA Division I conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 10th season of competition in 2008-09, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for MWC institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West Conference opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $230 million in television revenue, directed the league through expansion and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MWC teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games.

His leadership and vision also helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and Comcast to become the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the MWC in its current Bowl Championship Series (BCS) structure. In 2004, the inaugural step for all Mountain West teams was accomplished when Utah became the first team from a non-automatic-qualifying conference to play in a BCS game. Thompson subsequently spearheaded an effort to provide better access in the system and the MWC champion has now nearly tripled its opportunity to participate in a BCS bowl.

In 2007, the MWC posted the best winning percentage among the 11 conferences that make up the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision and claimed the ESPN Bowl Challenge Cup for the second time in four years. While MWC teams have participated in 31 bowl games in nine seasons, last year the conference sent a record five bowl teams into postseason action and finished with a 4-1 (.800) mark. The league earned its first Bowl Challenge Cup after registering a 2-1 record during the 2004 seasons and is one of only two conferences (ACC) to win the trophy twice.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991. Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. He and his wife, Carla, have a son, Ted, and a daughter, Emma.
