NEW LOOK PRIVATEERS READY FOR 55TH SEASON

>> The University of New Orleans men's basketball program plays its 55th season under the leadership of first-year head coach Stacy Hollowell - a 2021-2022 NAIA National Championship winner at Loyola New Orleans. Three of his four assistant coaches were part of his staff or played for him during his eight seasons at Loyola New Orleans - Trey Lindsey, Javan Felix, and Andrew Fava. In addition to a new look coaching staff the Privateers return just three student-athletes from last year's squad - Jah Short, Omarion Henry, and Turk Vincent. Eight transfers (Luke Davis - Midland College, Theo Grant - Temple College, Dae Dae Hunter - Pearl River CC, JR Jacobs - Walters State CC, Grant Kemp - LSU-Alexandria, Kerwin Prince - South Plains College, James White - UAB) and four true freshmen (Leland Coleman, MJ Thomas, Kohen Rowbatham, and Jackson Sowards) fill out the remaining spots on the roster. The Privateers were picked 10th in the preseason Southland polls, with no All-Conference preseason picks.

LAKEFRONT WAVES HIT DIFFERENT

>> Meeting for the first time in almost eight years, the Privateers — an 18-point underdog — dominated the first half of the Crosstown Rivalry against the Tulane Green Wave, racing out to a 39-27 halftime lead. The Privateers maintained a double-digit lead for most of the second half, with a 72-60 advantage after a James White layup with 2:03 remaining. Tulane gradually found its way back into the contest, and a pair of late fouls by the Privateers — the first leading to a four-point play with 19 seconds left and the second resulting in three game-tying free throws with 0.9 seconds to play — forced an unlikely overtime.

Tulane took its second lead of the contest early in overtime when Asher Woods found Gregg Glenn III in the paint to make the score 82-81. White responded for the Privateers, knocking down a three-pointer to give New Orleans a lead they did not relinquish. A dunk by Jah Short and a layup from White sealed the deal for New Orleans, which won 93-87 after outscoring Tulane 14-8 in overtime. White scored a career-high 31 points for the Privateers, becoming the first player to reach the 30-point mark for New Orleans since Jordan Johnson against HCU last season.

NEW ORLEANS BASKETBALL NEWS & NOTES

MR. EVERYTHING

>> Senior transfer James White brings over 50 games of mid major and high major basketball experience to the New Orleans locker room. The Conyers, Ga. native spent two seasons at Ole Miss, overlapping with Hollowell's time as an assistant coach, and made 47 appearances for Kermit Davis' squad. His best game as an Ole Miss Rebel was a double-double in the 2022 SEC Tournament - a win over South Carolina. He made seven appearances for Andy Kennedy's UAB Blazers in an injury riddled season last year, and tallied a double-double in his unofficial UNO debut on Oct. 22 - an exhibition game against Southern Miss.

White has scored in double-figures in all six games of his UNO career, scored 20 or more in four of his last five games, and set a new career high three different times this season, including a 31-point outburst on Friday at Tulane. With the exception of an 11-rebound game vs. Lindenwood, James has pulled down exactly 8 rebounds in each of UNO's other five contests. He leads the Southland Conference in scoring (20.7), rebounding (8.5), minutes (36.5) and double-figure scoring games (4).

A STEADY HAND

>> When the Privateers do score points, JR Jacobs is usually involved. Jacobs is averaging 5.2 assists per contest despite UNO's struggles from the floor. Jacobs has had five or more assists in three of UNO's six games this season, including seven in the victory against Tulane last time out. His 12 assists against Troy were the most by a Privateer since Rarlensee Nelson had 14 against Bethune-Cookman in 2012. Jacobs checks in at No. 1 in the Southland in assist to turnover ratio at 3.1 and No. 2 in average assists, and total assists (31).

I'LL TAKE THAT

>> New Orleans has made a habit of taking the ball away from everyone they've played early this season. The Privateers currently rank No. 3 in the Southland (and No. 33 in the NCAA) at 9.67 steals per game, and Jah Short ranks first in the league with 2.50 swipes a game. Short also sits No. 19 in the NCAA with 37 total steals. He has had at least one steal in five of six contests this year and two games with four steals (Troy and Lindenwood.) KenPom has UNO's Steal% at 13.1 - ranked No 32 in the NCAA.

250 FOR HOLLOWELL

>> Coach Hollowell picked up career victory No. 168 in his 250th game as a collegiate head coach against the Tulane Green Wave. It was his second Div. I victory following a win over Lindenwood in the Urban-Bennett MTE. His career record after 250 games stands at 168-82 (.680) and includes a pair of conference tournament championships and the 2021-2022 NAIA National Championship while at Loyola New Orleans.

13 YEARS COMING

>> When Coach Hollowell took the floor at Kansas State it marked the first time in 13 years, 8 months and 4 days (4,998 days) that a head coach other than Mark Slessinger led New Orleans. The defeat at the Wildcats left UNO coaches with a 6-7 all-time mark in their debuts, with the last by win Joe Pasternack - the man Mark Slessinger replaced.

WOLVES RUN IN PACKS

>> Stacy Hollowell's inaugural coaching staff on the Lakefront is full former Loyola connections. Lead assistant Trey Lindsey spent his 2021-2022 season helping Hollowell lead the Wolfpack to a National Championship as an assistant coach. Javan Felix helped the Wolfpack win back-to-back regular season and conference tournament titles in the two seasons after Stacy's departure. Andrew Fava played on Hollowell's national championship team - starting all 38 games that season averaging 9.5 points per game. Graduate assistant Andrew Stagni also played four years - three under Hollowell - at Loyola New Orleans and was a two-time SSSAC All-Academic selection.

1,600 GAMES LATER

>> Against Troy the Privateers played their 1,600th game in program history with a record of 881 wins and 719 losses in those games. The first New Orleans basketball game was a loss to Louisiana College on Dec. 1 1969 - 54 years, 9 months, and 8 days before game No. 1,600. New Orleans will play it's 750th home game on Feb. 22 against Northwestern State. (including both the Human Performance Center and Lakefront Arena)

FREQUENT FYLER MILES

>> New Orleans will travel 3,657.3 miles during November and December with trips to Moon Township, Waco, Iowa City, Austin, Baton Rouge and Nashville for non conference matchups. It is the first time in school history the team will play no home games in December.

AGAINST THE AP TOP-25

>> Wednesday afternoon in Waco will mark the 37th meeting between the Privateers and a member of the Associated Press Top 25. Overall, UNO is just 4-32 in those contests, with the last meeting resulting in a defeat at No. 1 Purdue on Dec. 21, 2022. Away from home against Top 25 teams, UNO is 2-21, with the last win against the top 25 coming at No. 21 NC State. TJ Worley hit a game-winning shot with three seconds left, giving UNO a 65-63 victory at the then-RBC Center (now Lenovo Center) in 2007. UNO is 0-2 when facing the No. 17 team in the country, with losses at Memphis in 1989 and at Butler in 2013.

BIOGRAPHY

Stacy Hollowell enters his first season on the Lakefront after being named the 13th men's basketball coach in school history last April. He replaced Mark Slessinger who spent 13 seasons as Privateers head coach and tallied the most wins in school history.

Hollowell comes to New Orleans after spending last season at Texas Southern as an assistant coach under Johnny Jones. During his one season Hollowell helped the Tigers to a 12-6 mark in the SWAC and a run to the SWAC tournament finals.

During the 2023-24 season Hollowell joined Kermit Davis' staff at Ole Miss as the Associate Athletic Director for Men's Basketball. During his time in Oxford, Hollowell oversaw day to day operations of the program with a focus on development and mentorship of student-athletes. He also helped the program achieve a top-12 recruiting class that season according to ESPN's rankings.

It was at Loyola (New Orleans) where Hollowell wrote his name into Louisiana folk lore. Hollowell left Loyola (New Orleans) after the 2021-22 season as the second winningest coach in school history and a national champion. During his eight seasons in charge of the Wolfpack he compiled a record of 166-78 (.680) and 90-51 (.638) record in conference play. His final team uptown won the 2022 NAIA National Championship - the second in school history and the first since 1945. His national championship team set a Loyola record with 37 wins that season, and the record for winning percentage at .974. That squad also set school records for points in a game (143) and the largest winning margin in school history (78). In an ironic twist of fate Hollowell beat UNO at Lakefront Arena in an exhibition game to start his run to the national title.

While at Loyola (New Orleans) Hollowell won 20+ games five times, won a pair of conference tournaments (2019, 2021) along with a regular season championship (2021). Prior to being named the head coach at Loyola he served as an assistant on the Wolfpack coaching staff starting in 2009 where he was part of another 20-win campaign. In total Hollowell has been part of six of the schools' ten total 20+ win seasons. He coached 19 All-Conference selections, and individual student athletes to Conference Player of the Year, Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Conference Newcomer of the Year and Conference Freshman of the Year status.

Hollowell was instrumental in the recruitment and development of two of Loyola New Orleans' best ever players - Zach Wrightsil and Myles Burns. Wrightsil was named both the 2021-2022 NAIA National Player of the Year, and Southern States Athletic Conference Player of the Year following the national championship. He is the program's all-time scoring leader, and first all time in assists, and second all-time in rebounds and steals. He also owns both the most points and rebounds in a single season in school Wolfpack.

Burns was named a three-time Southern States Athletic Conference Defensive player of the year. He ranks No. 1 in Wolfpack history in career rebounds, and holds both the single season record, and single season number two mark for rebounding in program history. Burns also finished his career with the most steals in program history, and the second most points.

Both Wrightsil (Marquette) and Burns (Ole Miss) transferred to Div. I schools after the national championship - a testament to Hollowell's ability to develop talent. Burns spent last season playing in the NBA G-League for Raptors 905.

Hollowell's career also boasts extensive international experience - having coached abroad in over 30 countries. Before first joining the Loyola staff as an assistant coach in 2011, Hollowell gained international experience coaching professionally in Qatar, Lithuania, Bahrain, and China. As assistant coach for the Qatar National Team under former New Orleans men's basketball coach Joey Stiebing, Hollowell helped the team qualify for the 2006 FIBA World Championship, the only world championship appearance in Qatar's history.

Hollowell was born in Shreveport, La. and raised in Mandeville, La. He was a four-year basketball player at Mandeville High School. He and his wife Nicole have three children, Emma, Jett and Jax, and stepson Aaron Traub.

Kermit Davis

Former Ole Miss and Middle Tennessee State Head Coach

"Stacy is fantastic. He has a great grasp on the city of New Orleans and would be a great fit at UNO. He's a really good recruiter and a really good coach. He has a great family and a good understanding of how to recruit to New Orleans."

Brett Simpson

Loyola New Orleans Athletic Director

"Stacy is fantastic. He would do a great job at UNO, and they'd be lucky to have him. Stacy is one of those special people you occasionally get a chance to work with in college athletics. He's great in the community and is a great connector of people. He brought in several donors during his time with us."
