2019-2020

Season Record: 14-8 (5th in the OUA West)

Playoff Record: 0-1 (lost to McMaster Marauders in the OUA Preliminary Round)

It was a successful season for the Gryphons women's basketball team, who reached the OUA playoffs for the third consecutive season and improved their regular season record by five wins. They finished 5th in the OUA West Division with a total of 18 points and went on to the OUA preliminary round where they lost to the McMaster Marauders. The team opened their season with a bang, capturing back-to-back wins in their first two games as they defeated the Queen's Gael's on the road and the York Lions on home court. For the first time since 2018, the Gryphons hosted an OUA playoff round after defeating the Algoma Thunderbirds in their final two games of the season. As the eighth seed, they battle against the ninth-seed Marauders. It was an extremely close match, coming down to the wire the teams went to overtime where McMaster defeated the Gryphons 93-88. The team's offence finished fourth overall in the OUA. It was led by Burke Bechard, who averaged 13 ppg. The third-year guard placed 5th overall in the OUA in field goal percentage as well as led the team in scoring and blocked shots. In addition, Skyla Minaker highlighted both the offence and defence with an impressive 2nd overall finish in the OUA in steals (average of 3.6 pg) and a 4th place finish in assists (102). The third-year guard and veteran player also led the team in minutes played. Rookie MacKeely Shantz (OUA All-Rookie Team) put in an excellent first season leading the team in rebounds with an average of 2.5 pg and an average of 10.1 points per game.

Season Record: 9-15 (4th in the OUA West)

Playoff Record: 1-1 (lost to Lakehead in OUA West semi-final)

The Gryphons entered the 2018/19 season ready to build on a strong previous year in which they earned home court advantage for the opening round of the OUA playoffs. The 2018-19 campaign proved to be a challenging year as Guelph endured a slew of injuries to key players, but the Gryphons, buoyed by the play of OUA All-Star Burke Bechard team highs of 15.8 ppg and 8.5 rpg), veteran guards

Skyla Minaker and Sarah Holmes, forward Ivana Vujadinovic, and a cast of young players getting extended minutes because of the injuries, found their legs late in the season. Guelph recaptured its identity by ramping up the defence to finish the season with wins in three of the last four games. The roll continued in the OUA West quarter-final as the Gryphons got 20 points from Bechard to knock off the Windsor Lancers 62-59 on the road. Guelph then travelled to Thunder Bay to take on the Lakehead Thunderwolves in the OUA West semi-final but the hosts eliminated the resilient Gryphons with a tough 79-71 win.

Season Record: 14-10 (4th in the OUA West)
Playoff Record: 0-1 (lost to Western OUA playoffs 1st round)

As a veteran coach with decades of experience, Mark Walton has preached a consistent message with his teams – trust in the process. It was no different when he took over a rebuilding Gryphon program in 2016. Guelph’s players came to work last offseason and were ready to go when the OUA schedule began. Key veterans like Sarah Holmes, Hayley Belyk, Quincy Sickles-Jarvis, Megan Brenkel, Ashley Wheeler and Ivana Vujadinovic comprised the core of the team but the Gryphons got a bigger boost than they could have imagined from the arrival of rookie guard tandem Skyla Minaker and Burke Bechard. Guelph certainly took a while to jell, starting the season with three straight losses. But the wins began to pile up and the Gryphons went over .500 after a dominant 71-44 victory over Nipissing on the road in late November. Guelph took a step back losing five of its next six, but a blowout win at Brock was a turning point. The Gryphons established an identity and utilized a blend of suffocating defence and unselfish play at the offensive end to take seven of the last eight games. They welcomed back Holmes from an illness late in the season and the third-year guard went off, providing an offensive spark and deep threat that completed the puzzle. The last game of the season against Western determined whether Guelph would host the Mustangs the following week or travel to London in the first round. The Gryphons went down early but Holmes and Minaker each produced career-highs of 25 and 22 points respectively to help the team clinch home court. The playoff rematch was unfolding the same way with Western’s red-hot shooting guiding the visitors to a lead. Guelph again battled back and though Bechard gave her team a one-point margin inside the last minute, the Gryphons could not hang on and were eliminated 72-68 in a heartbreaker. It was the final game for graduating seniors Belyk, Sickles-Jarvis and Brenkel. But as Coach Walton would say, his players would learn from the defeat – and it was part of the process.

Season Record: 5-14 (4th in OUA Central, 14th in RPI)

Playoff Results: DNQ

Fielding one of the youngest teams in the conference in 2016-17, the Gryphons women's basketball team came agonizingly close to sneaking into the OUA playoffs, finishing 14th in the RPI rankings (top 12 make postseason). Four of the team's five wins on the season came in the final seven games of the season. In the final game of the regular season, the Gryphons hosted the Waterloo Warriors but fell 86-73, ending the team's chances of securing the final spot in the OUA playoffs. After playing their first two home games of the season at the 60-year-old W.F. Mitchell Centre, the Gryphons officially moved to their new home court (the newly built Guelph Gryphons Athletics Centre) on Friday, January 13, 2017 when they hosted the Laurier Golden Hawks. The Gryphs posted a 2-5 record on their new home court, with their first win on the new court coming on January 27 versus Algoma. The 2016-17 season also marked the first season in charge for new head coach Mark Walton who was named head coach in July of 2016.

A trio of Gryphons finished the season with double-digit scoring averages as Megan Brenkel (11.8 PPG), Sarah Holmes (11.6 PPG) and Ashley Wheeler (10.3 PPG) all impressed in their first full year as starters. All but one of the players from the 2016-17 roster will be eligible to return for the 2017-18 season, as point guard Samantha Renshaw was the lone senior to be acknowledged on senior night. Renshaw, who also was in her first full season as a starter, enjoyed the best year of her Gryphon career, averaging 7.2 PPG while starting in 16 of the Gryphons 19 regular season contests.

2015-2016

Regular Season Record: 11-2 (2nd OUA Central)

Playoff Record: 1-1 (lost to Ottawa in quarter-finals)

When players, coaches and fans of the Gryphons women's basketball team look back on the 2015-16 season, they will do so with fond memories. For the first time in nearly a decade, the team posted a winning record, qualified for the playoffs and won a postseason game on home court. The Gryphons finished the regular season with an 11-2 record good enough for second in the OUA central division and earned the right to host a first round playoff game. A strong and gritty defence was a main ingredient in the Gryphons success this season as they finished top five in the conference in points allowed per game and steals per game.

In the OUA preliminary round the Gryphons defeated the visiting Brock Badgers 69-51 to mark the team's first postseason win since 2007. In the next round, the Gryphons traveled to the nation's capital to take on a tough Ottawa Gee-Gee's team and unfortunately dropped the OUA Quarter-Final game by a score of 55-43.

Three members of the squad were recognized by the OUA. Second-year point guard Bridget Atkinson was named a Second-Team All-Star after finishing the year top 10 in the conference in steals (10) and assists (66) while averaging 11.8 points per game. Kate MacTavish was also named to the Second-Team after leading the Gryphons in scoring with 14.9 points per game, ranking her ninth in the conference and recording a team-high 9.1 rebounds per game. She also led the OUA with an impressive 89.6 free throw percentage. First-year Abbey Clark earned a spot on the All-Rookie Team after appearing in 15 games as a freshman and shot an impressive 41 percent from beyond the arc.

2014-2015

Regular Season Record: 8-11 (4th in OUA Central)

Playoff Record: did not make playoffs

The Gryphons narrowly missed out on an OUA playoff berth in 2014-2015. Guelph finished the regular season with a record of 8-11, but Brock (8-11) finished just ahead of them in third in the OUA Central to claim the final playoff berth in the division (Brock went through thanks to an advantage in point differential in the Badgers/Gryphons head-to-head matchups during the regular season).

It was another impressive season for fourth year forward Katherine MacTavish. In the regular season opener, Kate poured in a career-high 35 points in a win over the Western Mustangs. MacTavish finished the 2014-2015 season as the only player in the OUA to average a double-double (16.5 PPG, 10.8 RPG). Kate's 10.8 rebounds per game ranked her fifth in the CIS. As a result, Kate was named an OUA First Team All-Star for the first time in her career (she was on the OUA Second Team in 2013-2014). Bridget Atkinson earned an OUA Second Team All-Star, OUA Rookie of the Year as well as being named to the All-Rookie Team.

First year point guard Bridget Atkinson became the first Gryphons women's basketball player to ever be named CIS Rookie of the Year and was a member of the CIS All-Rookie team. Bridget finished third in the OUA in assists (82) while also finishing second on the team in scoring (10.9 PPG). Her 5.3 rebounds per game, seven blocked shots and team-leading 32 steals on the season were a testament to her hard work on the defensive end of the floor.

Season Record: 7-15
 Playoffs: NA

The women's basketball team fought hard throughout their season, however finished with a 7-15 record and failed to make the playoffs. Katherine MacTavish was named an OUA West second team all-star averaging an impressive 18.0 points per game for the Gryphons this season. She led the team in points (18 PPG), rebounds (9.1 RPG), free throws made (99), field goal percentage (50%) and dropped a total of 10 double-double outings. The third-year forward was fourth overall in OUA scoring and ninth in CIS scoring.

2012-2013

Regular Season: 7-15
 Playoff Record: 0-1

The women's basketball team fought back in the second half of their season to finish with a 7-15 record, good for sixth in the OUA West and a playoff berth. In the first round, the Gryphons were paired up against a tough McMaster squad and were forced to drop out of the playoff race early with an 81-51 loss.

In her third year, Kayla Goodhoofd (Oakville, Ont.) led the team with 13.0 points per game. Despite a minor injury in the final stretch of the season, Goodhoofd's tenacious play throughout the year earned her OUA Second Team All-Star status. Rookie point guard, Erica McFadden (Alma, Ont.) followed closely behind Goodhoofd's lead to net 11.9 points per game on the season. Her promising start as a Gryphon was completed with being named to the OUA All-Rookie team.

2009-2009

Season Record: 2-20

The Gryphon women's basketball team finished with a 2-20 regular season record, placing eighth in the OUA West and failed to make the playoffs. With seven out of ten players in first or second year (including five first year players) the team struggled to put wins on the board, but have showed great promise and potential for the future. As their experience grows expect this young squad to challenge their opponents in the future with their solid interior game, rebounding strength and improving perimeter game.

Second-year forward Jasmine Douglas (Guelph, ON) enjoyed a breakout season, averaging very close to a double-double of 10.7 points and 9.3 rebounds per game, placing her fifth in rebounding in the OUA. Graduating fourth-year forward Alex Russell (Paradise Valley, AZ) had a standout season averaging 10.6 points per game in 21 games played.

2008-2009

The Women's Basketball team posted a 9-13 record this season which was good enough to clinch the sixth and final playoff-spot in the OUA West Division. In the OUA quarter-finals against McMaster, the women fell just short; losing 72-69 in Hamilton after mounting a late-game comeback. First-year forward Samantha Russell (Paradise Valley, AZ) showed great promise and was named the OUA West Rookie of the Year and a member of the OUA All-Rookie team. She scored 166 total points and grabbed 111 rebounds for the team this season. Her field goal percentage of 45.2 was the second highest in the West Division. Fourth-year guard Kris Yallin (Port Colborne, ON) was named an OUA Second Team All-Star after leading the Gryphons in scoring averaging 13.9 points and 5.9 rebounds per game. She also finished second in the OUA in three pointers made with 52. Third-year forward Rachel Hancock (Ingersoll, ON) had a great season leading the team in rebounds (6.4 per game) and followed closely behind in scoring with 13.1 points per game.

2007-2008

The Women's Basketball team ended the season with a 7-15 record and in last place in the OUA West. The team finished four points shy of earning a playoff spot. It was the first time since 2002-2003 that the program didn't make an appearance in the post season. Boasting eight rookies and five second-year players, it was a challenging season for the young squad. Fourth-year guard Heather Angus (Waterdown, Ont.) was an outstanding presence both offensively and defensively for the team and earned Second Team All-Star status averaging 13.3 points per game and leading the team in rebounds with 125 and steals with 41.

The Gryphons finished league play third in the OUA West standings with a 17-5 record. Guelph won their first playoff match 80-56 over the Lakehead Thunderwolves and then defeated the Western Mustangs 68-59 in semi-final action. In the OUA West final, the Gryphons lost a disappointing 66-41 decision to the #3 CIS ranked McMaster Marauders, putting an end to their season. Floor leader Stephanie Yallin earned her fourth nod as an OUA All-Star with a First Team selection. She tallied 11.1 points per game and a team leading 5.9 rebounds per game. Yallin was also the recipient of the OUA West's Joy Bellinger Award and the CIS Sylvia Sweeney Award presented to a student-athlete in recognition of outstanding service to the sport and the advancement of university athletics. Third-year guard Heather Angus was awarded the West Defensive Player of the Year bringing down 110 rebounds in 21 games this season and accumulating 36 steals. Katie Guthrie earned Second Team All-Star status ranking second on the team in field goal percentage (41.2) and points per game (10.3). Rookie point guard Morgan Jean was selected to the OUA West All-Rookie team. She made an instant impression averaging 4.2 points per game and 2 rebounds per game in her freshman campaign.

The Guelph Gryphons, 3rd in the OUA West with a 16-6 record, won their first playoff match 78-60 over the Windsor Lancers. Unfortunately, they had a very disappointing end to their season when they were upset in the quarter-final round 51-39 by McMaster. Stephanie Yallin earned First Team All-Star status. This marked her third All-Star selection. As one of the nation's best ball distributors, Stephanie averaged 4.23 assists per game (second in the OUA), 11.05 points per game and chipped in 5.05 rebounds per game.

2004-2005

The Gryphons had a phenomenal ride this season posting a 19-3 record in league play for 1st place in the OUA West Division and an overall record of 31-9. In OUA semi-final action, they defeated Laurier 75-62 and then Brock 72-56 to capture the division title. In front of an electric home town crowd, the Gryphons went on to upset OUA defending champion Ottawa 87-68 en route to their first OUA title in 25 years. At the CIS Championships, the #6 ranked Gryphons' run of 16 consecutive wins came to an end as they fell 79-62 to #3 Winnipeg and eventual silver medallists. On the consolation side, Guelph beat #7 Memorial by a score of 72-67. The consolation final was a rematch of the OUA Championship. The Gryphons were pitted against #8 Ottawa. Unfortunately, this time, Guelph ended up on the short side of a 76-69 result. Stephanie Yallin and Sharon Hollinshead earned OUA West Division All-Star distinctions while Heather Angus was selected to the West All-Rookie Team. Angela Orton was honoured as West Coach of the Year for the 4th time in her career.

2001-2002

For the Women's Basketball Gryphons, the 2001-2002 season was supposed to be a rebuilding year. After losing 5 of their top 7 players from a team that finished 20-1 last season, many people weren't expecting anything from this young team. The Gryphons gained a lot of respect as the season progressed and they clinched the final playoff position with a 6th place finish in the OUA West Division. In quarterfinal action, the Gryphs dropped a 66-61 decision to Waterloo. Leanne Rowthorn, had an impressive season as she was named Second Team All-Canadian, claimed two of the OUA major awards, MVP and Defensive Player of the Year, as well as a First Team All-Star selection. Last year's Rookie of the Year led the OUA in scoring and steals with 77. She averaged 17.8 points per game, the 5th highest in the country and also averaged 6.2 rebounds, 3.7 steals and 2.4 assists per game. 2001 President's Scholar, Anne Marie Ssemanda, was named to the All-Rookie team. She was second leading scorer for the Gryphons. Her stats included 11.3 points, 3 rebounds and 1.6 steals per game. The future looks bright for this young team, as they only graduate Jenn Murphy from this year's squad.

2000-2001

West Division Coach of the Year, Angela Orton, guided her team to an impressive 20-1 record and top spot in the OUA West Division. At the Final Four in St. Catharines, Guelph slipped by Waterloo 63-62 to advance to the final. In the championship game, the Gryphons squared off against McMaster who had handed the Gryphons their only loss in league play and again found themselves on the short side of a 59-56 result and crushed their hopes of qualifying for the CIAU Championships in Alberta. At the Awards Banquet, 5th year guard, Pat Marcello, who ranked 2nd in the country in scoring with 21.4 points per game, was awarded West Division MVP and was selected to the West Division All Star team. Post, Angela Hrkac, top rebounder in the country, joined Marcello as an All Star. With a clean sweep of the major awards for the Gryphs, Leanne Rowthorn was named West Division Rookie of the Year. Pat Marcello was also named a CIAU All-Canadian.

The Women's Basketball squad closed out their season in 5th spot posting an 11-10 record. In OUA West Division quarter-final action, the Gryphons suffered a 64-50 loss to the Waterloo Warriors. OUA West Division All Star, Pat Marcello, capped off the regular season leading the conference in scoring (17.4 pts/game), assists, steals, and was fourth in rebounding. On the national scene, Marcello was 6th in scoring, and lead the country in assists and steals, and was 2nd in defensive rebounds.

Coming off their best season in 11 years, the Women's Basketball team landed an 11-3 league record bettering each of the last two years' records of 8-6. The Gryphons lost 63-52 in the West Division quarter final to McMaster, who were eventual OUA champions. Kristy Newton and Pat Marcello were selected as West Division All Stars while Head Coach, Angela Orton, was awarded Coach of the Year honours.

The Women's Basketball Team returned to the playoffs for a second straight year before losing to eventual league champion, Laurentian, in the first round of the playoffs in Sudbury. The team had an injury riddled pre-season, but turned it on during league play. They won eight of their first twelve contests and had a shot at second place going into the final weekend at Lakehead. Pat Marcello was an OUA West Division All Star and was the outstanding performer for the Gryphons in her first full year of play. The team returns a number of players for next season and should once again be contenders in the West Division.

The Women's Basketball team had their best season in a number of years as they overcame injuries to post an 8-6 league record and advance to the OWIAA Championships in Waterloo. After dropping the first game to eventual champion Toronto the Gryphons won their next two games to finish 5th in the league. Karen Arnott was a 1st Team OWIAA West All-Star and 2nd in the division in scoring. She was also the winner of the CIAU Tracy MacLeod Award given to an athlete who overcomes injury and perseveres to return to the game. Laurie Townshend was named a Tournament All-Star at the OWIAA Championships. The playoff appearance was the first in 6 seasons and Angela Orton earned the OWIAA West Coach of the Year Award.

While the Women's Basketball Team did not qualify for post season competition this very young squad did finish the season on a high note knocking off third place, Brock, in the season finale to finish with a 4-10 mark. Laurie Townshend was selected as the OWIAA West Division Rookie of the Year and was a member of the All Canadian Rookie Team. Most of the squad is back next year and the fortunes could well improve dramatically for this team.

The team suffered through a injury racked season that saw their playing ranks reduced to just eight players for a good portion of the regular season.

Despite the 1-11 record the silver lining included the development of a lot of younger players who saw additional court time which bodes well for the future. The team were champions of the Gryphon Invitational Tournament in November.

Two of the Gryphon victories were over Laurier and Lakehead, who both qualified for the playoffs. With most of the team returning prospects are much brighter for the 1989-90 season.

A couple of hard luck close losses eliminated the Gryphons from the OWIAA title hunt for the first time in recent memory. The 5-7 record was not totally indicative of their play but more a reflection of the improved calibre of the league. The team did manage to win the Queen's Invitational Tournament in early January and the only graduating player, Beth Pulsifer was named a second league All-Star. With most of the team comprised of first and second year players the Gryphons will be back in the playoffs next season.

The women's basketball team just kept getting better and better throughout the season and finished the regular schedule with an 8-4 record. This was good enough for second place in a year which was viewed as a rebuilding campaign. In the OWIAA playoffs the team rebounded from a large halftime deficit to edge York and advance to the semi-finals where they were defeated by eventual champions Toronto Blues. Beth Pulsifer and Jocelyn Laviolette were both named as second team West Division All-Stars. A large nucleus will return next year and Gryphon fortunes should continue to improve.
