TEAM GAME NOTES

PROJECT ELEVATE

- Today's uniform worn by the Ducks is perhaps the most inspiring and important in team history. Three childhood cancer survivors, Ethan Frank, Joe MacDonald, and Sophia Malinoski, teamed with Nike designers and three Duck football players to create today's uniform.
- Tyrell Crosby, Justin Hollins, and Khalil Oliver are the three Oregon players who collaborated on this project, which was known as "Project Elevate."
- Ethan, Joe, and Sophia will all be in attendance at Saturday's game.

OREGON 77, SOUTHERN UTAH 21

- Oregon won its eighth consecutive season opener and its 11th consecutive home opener in a 77-21 win over Southern Utah.
- The 77 points were the most for the Ducks since 1916 (97-0 win over Willamette) and the nine rushing TDs set a school record.
- The win also increased the Ducks' winning streak over non-Power 5 opponents to 15 games while giving the UO a 16-5 record in its last 21 non-conference games.

HEAD COACH WILLIE TAGGART

- Saturday's 77-21 win over Southern Utah gave Willie Taggart a win in his debut as head coach of the Ducks.
- Taggart has a 20-7 record since 2015 (.741). His teams have averaged 51.46 points per game since 2015, highest among FBS head coaches during that span.
- Taggart is in his eighth season as a head coach, including four seasons at South Florida (2013-16) and three at his alma mater, Western Kentucky (2010-12).
- His USF teams were 19-7 the last 2 seasons, including a 13-3 conference record.
- Taggart is 6-1 (.857) in games decided by 8 points or fewer over the last two seasons, the third-best winning percentage in games decided by that margin (Mike Gundy 8-1, Jim McElwain 7-1).

2017 DUCKS

- The Ducks return eight starters on both offense and defense, in addition to their kicker and long snapper. Here's the list, including each player's career stats:
- OFFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING (*8) - WR Charles Nelson (Sr., 23 GS, 92 rec, 1,151 yds, 13 TD) - LT Brady Aiello (So., 10 GS) - LT Tyrell Crosby (Sr., 23 GS) - LG Shane Lemieux (So. - 12 GS), C Jake Hanson (Fr., 12 GS) - RT Calvin Throckmorton (So., 12 GS) - QB Justin Herbert (So., 7 GS, 162-for-255, 1,936 yds,

4 int., 19 TD) - RB Royce Freeman (Sr., 34 GS, 703 carries, 4,146 yds, 44 TD) *includes one 2015 starter

- DEFENSIVE STARTERS RETURNING (8) - DE Justin Hollins (Jr., 12 GS, 61 TT, 10.5 TFL, 3.0 Sacks) - DT Henry Mondeaux (Sr., 19 GS, 66 TT, 11.0 TFL, 5.0 Sacks) - LB Troy Dye (So., 91 TT, 13.0 TFL, 6.5 Sacks, 1 INT) - LB Jimmy Swain (7 GS, 103 TT, 2.5 TFL, 2 PBU), - DB Tyree Robinson (Sr., 23 GS, 153 TT, 4 INT, 2.0 Sacks, 2 FR) - S Khalil Oliver (Jr., 7 GS, 73 TT, 3.0 TFL, 2 INT, 1 FR) - CB Arrion Springs (Sr., 20 GS, 95 TT, 4.5 TFL, 1 INT, 24 PBU)
- SPECIALISTS RETURNING (2) - CAREER STATS LS Tanner Carew (Sr.) - PK Aidan Schneider (Sr., 42-48 FG, 149-152 PAT, 275 Points)

THE GRADUATES

- A total of 12 members of the Oregon football team are graduates and are pursuing advanced degrees, which ties the Ducks for the fifth-most of any FBS program in 2017 (Northwestern 18, Coastal Carolina 14, Cincinnati and Toledo 13; Florida, Alabama, Central Florida, TCU and Virginia also have 12).
- The following Ducks have already received degrees: Taylor Alie, Kani Benoit, Doug Brenner, Tanner Carew, Royce Freeman, Ivan Faulhaber, Elijah George, Ty Griffin, Charles Nelson, Henry Mondeaux, Tyree Robinson and Juwaan Williams.

DECADE OF THE DUCK

- The decade of the 2010's has been Oregon Football's most prolific, and the Ducks have been among the most successful programs in NCAA Division I FBS during the decade.
- Oregon is 74-20 (.787) during the 2010's, the eighth-best winning percentage in FBS during the decade.

POLL POSITION/SCHEDULE SITUATION

- The Ducks continued to receive votes in both the AP and Coaches Polls after their 77-21 win over SUU. Oregon and upcoming opponent Nebraska remain just outside the top-25 heading into Saturday's game.
- Oregon has been ranked in at least one poll at some point during the season for 19 consecutive years since 1998.
- The Ducks face six teams this season who appeared in 2016 bowl games: Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Washington State, Stanford, Utah, and Washington.
- Oregon hosts Southern Utah and Nebraska at home in non-conference play, and the

TEAM GAME NOTES

UO makes its first-ever trip to Wyoming to play the Cowboys on Sept. 16.

- This season, Oregon will look to increase series winning streaks over Wyoming (1), Arizona State (10), UCLA (5), Utah (1), and Arizona (1) while attempting to end series losing streaks to Nebraska (5), Cal (1), Washington State (2), Stanford (1), Washington (1), and Oregon State (1).

YOUNG GUNS

- Nine true freshmen made their collegiate debuts for the Ducks: S Billy Gibson, CB Thomas Graham, NG Austin Failiu, WR Johnny Johnson III, CB Deommodore Lenoir, WR Darrian McNeal, S Nick Pickett, NG Jordon Scott, and P Adam Stack.
- In 2016 for the Ducks, 10 freshmen and seven sophomores started games with the final Oregon depth chart featuring 22 underclassmen (14 freshmen).
- Oregon opened the 2016 season with three redshirt freshmen starting on the offensive line. C Jake Hanson, LG Shane Lemieux and RT Calvin Throckmorton all started after being listed as "ones" on the two-deep coming out of fall camp.
- Oregon started four freshmen on the offensive line every Pac-12 Conference game, the first Power 5 team since Wisconsin 2015 to start four freshmen on the offensive line in at least one game and the first since UTSA to start at least four freshmen in its opener.

PLAYING WELL AGAINST GOOD COMPETITION

- The Ducks have a 20-9 record vs. Top 25 opponents since 2010, a .690 winning percentage against ranked foes that ranks third nationally behind only Alabama (39-11, .780) and Ohio State (20-8, .714).
- Oregon is 60-20 vs. Power 5 opponents since 2010, the seventh-best mark nationally during that time.
- UO is 34-18 (.654) vs. teams over .500 over the last seven seasons, the 10th-best mark nationally during that time.

PAC AND PLAY

- The Oregon Ducks are 51-14 (.785) overall in Pac-12 Conference play since 2010, the seventh-best conference winning percentage among Power 5 schools.
- The Ducks lead the nation in scoring offense per game in conference games since 2010 at 42.86 points per game.
- Despite a 2-7 league mark in 2016, the Ducks were 47-7 (.870) in the Pac-12 from 2010-15, an .875 winning percentage that led the nation during that six-year span.

- Oregon has 51 conference wins this decade, trailing only Alabama and Stanford (both 53) among Power 5 schools.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Oregon has been dominant on the road in conference games since 2010, posting a 24-6 record (.800) in Pac-12 away contests that ranks third nationally among Power 5 schools in non-conference road games (Alabama 24-4, .857; Ohio State 23-5, .821).
- This includes road conference winning streaks of 15 games (2010-13) and eight games (2014-15).
- Oregon is 26-8 on the road overall over the last seven seasons since 2010 for a .765 winning percentage that is tied for fourth nationally (Florida State).
- The 24 non-conference road wins ties the Ducks with Alabama for the most by a Power 5 program in the 2010's.

APPLE GREEN TURNOVER

- Since 2010, Oregon leads the nation in turnover margin per game, averaging a +0.84 difference per game in the turnover ticker (Okla. St. +0.70, Kansas St. +0.61).
- No team in the nation has averaged more points off turnovers over the last eight seasons than Oregon's 8.11 (Okla St. 7.63, Houston 7.12).
- The Ducks also lead the nation since 2010 in per game differential in points off turnovers, averaging a +4.44 difference per game (Alabama +3.81, LSU +3.74).

DOUBLE DIGITS DURING THE DECADE

- Oregon has won at least 12 games during the 2010s four times, one of the only three programs to do so (Alabama, Ohio St. 5).
- The Ducks are also one of only six programs to win at least 11 games in five seasons during the decade and one of 12 schools to post at least five 10-win seasons during the decade.

EXPLOSION PLAYS

- Since 2010, Oregon has gained 20 or more yards on 9.08% of offensive plays, the highest figure in the nation.
- The 2016 South Florida team, coached by new Oregon head coach Willie Taggart, finished second in FBS with 52.05% of touchdowns being scored from 20-plus yards (38 of 73 TDs).
- Since 2015, Taggart ranks second among FBS head coaches in pct. of touchdowns scored from 20 or more yards (45.26%), trailing only Sean Kugler (47.06%).

2017 — Opened the season with 150 yards rushing and 200 all-purpose yards against Southern Utah, while tying a career-best with four touchdowns.

2016 — Finished the season as the team's leading rusher, recording nine touchdowns for 945 rushing yards, despite not playing against Colorado and at less than full strength in several others ... Started at running back in 10 games while adding a 10th score with a 1-yard catch at Utah ... Named honorable mention all-conference ... Eclipsed the 100-yard plateau five times, including his last three games of the year vs. Stanford, Utah and Oregon State, with his 22nd career effort over the century mark placing him second in Oregon history ... Rushed for a season-high 207 yards, including a season-long 85-yard TD run, against Virginia on a season-high 21 carries ... Ran for three touchdowns at Washington State and scored a pair of TDs on two additional occasions.

2015 — A second-team All-American (Football Writers Association of America) and Pac-12 Conference rushing runner-up (141.2 avg.) ... Broke LaMichael James' single-season school rushing record with 1,836 yards, posting the Ducks' highest per-game average since James' 150.4 yards in 2011 ... Ranked fourth in the country in rushing in addition to becoming the only FBS player nationally to accumulate more than 100 yards from scrimmage in every game ... Led the country with 36 runs of 15 yards or more and rushed for more yards over during the 2014 and 2015 seasons (3,201) than any other Power 5 player in the country ... Named first-team all-league ... Set Oregon record by rushing for 100 yards or more in nine consecutive games to finish the season over the century mark 11 times ... Led the Pac-12 in total touchdowns scored (19) and rushing TDs (17) while tying for 12th in the country in both categories ... Ran for a collegiate-best 246 yards (9.1-yard avg.) and two touchdowns against Washington State - the top rushing effort in the Pac-12 in 2015 ... Rushed for 163 yards on the ground in a win at Colorado ... Also caught three passes for 46 yards and a third score vs. the Cougars ... Scored touchdowns in 11 of 13 games, with season-high three TDs against Eastern Washington, Washington State, and TCU ... Began the year running for 180 yards while averaging 8.6 yards per carry in the season-opening win over Eastern Washington ... Added 92 yards and one score on 24 carries at Michigan State.

2014 — Named the Pac-12 Conference Freshman Offensive Player of the Year (coaches), a Freshman All-American and a first-team all-league choice (Athlon's, Phil Steele Magazine) ... Led Oregon's rushing attack (91.0 avg.), climbing to fifth in the conference in rushing while averaging 7.6 points and 101.5 all-purpose yards per outing ... Scored 18 touchdowns and gained 1,523 all-purpose yards ... Led the Pac-12 in touchdowns scored (tied for 12th nationally in rushing touchdowns) ... Scored two TDs Rose Bowl victory over Florida State ... Put together six 100-yard rushing efforts against UCLA (121 yards), Washington (169 yards), California (112), Colorado (105), Oregon State (135), and Arizona (114, Pac-12 Championships), in addition to falling two rushing yards shy of eclipsing the century mark vs. Stanford and one yard short at Utah.

ROYCE FREEMAN

FREEMAN ACTIVE NCAA LEADER

- SR RB Royce Freeman rushed for 150 yards in Oregon's opener to extend his lead by 38 yards as the NCAA active rusher. Freeman heads into Saturday game against Nebraska with 4,296 yards. The Duck running back is 58 yards ahead of Northwestern's Justin Jackson. Freeman has rushed for 1,562 more yards than anyone else playing in the Pac-12 Conference. Washington's Myles Gaskin is second with 2,734 yards.
- Freeman also leads all active players in rushing touchdowns with 48. He has scored seven more TDs than Western Michigan's Jarvion Franklin. Only 10 active players have as many as 30 rushing touchdowns.

FREEMAN JUST SECOND BACK IN OREGON HISTORY TO RUSH FOR MORE THAN 4,000 YARDS

- SR RB Royce Freeman joined LaMichael James (2009-11) as the only two Ducks in history to rush for more than 4,000 yards during their careers. Freeman reached the milestone in Oregon's win at No. 11 Utah last season. In addition to being one of two 4,000-yard rushers, Freeman is one of only four Oregon running backs to rush for more than 3,000 yards (James, Freeman, Kenjon Barner - 2009-12, Derek Loville - 1986-89) and one of just 16 Oregon Ducks to surpass the 2,000-yard rushing plateau. He achieved that milestone in just his 21st career game.
- Freeman needs 704 yards to join James in the 5,000-yard rushing club and 787 yards to pass him for the all-time rushing lead at Oregon.

FREEMAN GETS 23RD 100-YARD GAME AGAINST SOUTHERN UTAH

- SR RB Royce Freeman rushed for 150 yards on 23 carries against Southern Utah in the Ducks' opener to notch his 23rd career 100-yard rushing game. Freeman, who also has two 200-yard rushing games, had five 100-yard games in 2016 after rushing for more than 100 yards 11 times as a sophomore and six times as a true freshman.
- Freeman's 23 100-yard games are the second most in school history. LaMichael James (2009-11) holds the school record with 26.
- Freeman has rushed for more than 100 yards in four straight games dating back to last season.

FREEMAN CLOSING IN ON DUCK TD LISTS

- SR RB Royce Freeman enters the Nebraska game with 48 career rushing touchdowns which ranks second all-time at Oregon. He needs six more to pass LaMichael James (2009-11) for the all-time lead.
- The Ducks' running back is also second on the all-time total touchdowns list with 52. He passed Kenjon Barner (2009-12) for second Saturday.

FREEMAN CLIMBING CAREER SCORING LIST AT OREGON

- SR RB Royce Freeman is third in career scoring at Oregon heading into the Nebraska game. The Ducks' running back has 312 career points and needs 12 points to pass Jared Siegel (2001-04) for second on the list.
- Freeman needs six TDs to tie LaMichael James (2009-11) for the most points in school history.

FREEMAN NEEDS FOUR ALL-PURPOSE YARDS TO REACH 5,000 FOR CAREER

- SR RB Royce Freeman heads into the Nebraska game fifth all-time in all-purpose yards at Oregon and needs 874 to break LaMichael James' (2009-11) record of 5,869 yards. Freeman has 4,996 all-purpose yards in his first three-plus seasons and needs just 228 to pass Derek Loville (1986-89) for fourth all-time.
- Freeman can become just the fifth Duck all-time to reach 5,000 career all-purpose yards with just four on Saturday. He will join James, Kenjon Barner (2009-12), De'Anthony Thomas (2011-13), and Loville.

FREEMAN CLIMBING PAC-12 ALL-TIME LISTS

- SR RB Royce Freeman is not only moving up in the Oregon record books, but he's also climbing both the Pac-12 Conference's career rushing and career rushing touchdowns top-10 lists.
- Freeman enters Saturday's game seventh in career rushing yards in the Pac-12 and needs five against Nebraska to pass Stanford's Stepfan Taylor. He can pass UCLA's Johnathan Franklin with 108 yards.
- Freeman heads into the Nebraska game tied for fifth with 48 career rushing touchdowns. He will tie USC's Charles White for fourth with his first rushing touchdown and needs four to tie USC's LenDale White for third and five to match former Duck LaMichael James for second.
- Freeman needs 12 more rushing TDs in his career to set a new Pac-12 Conference record.

FREEMAN TOP 80 RUSHER IN CFB HISTORY

- SR RB Royce Freeman should steadily move his way up the list of all-time rushers in college football history. Entering the Nebraska game, according to SRCFB, Freeman is the 78th leading rusher in NCAA history.
- Freeman jumped from 98th with 150 yards in Oregon's win over Southern Utah in the opener.
- With 100 yards against Nebraska, Freeman will move into 64th passing such notable former college football running backs as Joe Morris and Bo Jackson.
- With 200 yards against the Cornhuskers, Freeman will move into 54th on the all-time list, ahead of Earl Campbell and Eric Dickerson.

OFFENSIVE GAME NOTES

HERBERT GETS OFF TO STRONG START IN SECOND SEASON

- SO QB Justin Herbert completed 17-of-21 passes for 281 yards and a touchdown in Oregon's season-opening win against Southern Utah.
- His 209.1 quarterback rating in the game was the best of his career besting the 203.0 he put up against Arizona State as a freshman.
- Herbert has thrown at least one TD pass in all eight of his starts.
- Heading into the Nebraska game, Herbert ranks third in the nation in completions of 25+ yards (5), fifth in yards per attempt (13.4), eighth in completion percentage (81.5) and ninth in quarterback rating (209.1).
- The sophomore signal caller started the last seven games of his freshman year and was impressive despite a lack of experience. Herbert finished the season completing 162-of-255 passes for 1,936 yards and 19 touchdowns with just four interceptions.
- Herbert cracked the top 10 in a pair of single-season all-time lists for the Ducks. He completed 63.5 percent of his passes to tie Marcus Mariota (2013) for fourth on the single-season list. His 148.75 passing efficiency ranked ninth all-time at Oregon.
- Oregon's single-game records haven't been safe with Herbert behind center. The freshman set or tied three different single game records during his freshman season.
- In just his second career start at California, Herbert threw six touchdown passes to tie an Oregon single-game best. His six TDs matched Vernon Adams Jr. (vs. USC in 2015), Marcus Mariota (at California in 2012), Darron Thomas (vs. Nevada in 2011), Joey Harrington twice (vs. Arizona State in 2001 and at Arizona State in 2000) and Danny O'Neil (vs. Stanford in 1994).
- In Herbert's third career start he completed 31-of-42 passes for 489 yards and four touchdowns. The 489 passing yards tied a school record set by Bill Musgrave in 1989 against BYU. Herbert also totaled 512 total yards against ASU to set a new Oregon record.
- Herbert's 12 TD passes in his first three starts (UW, Cal, ASU) match the most ever by a Duck quarterback in a three-game stretch. Herbert connected on two TDs against Washington in his first-ever start, before matching the single-game school record with six touchdown passes at Cal and then throwing four in the win over Arizona State. Herbert tied both Marcus Mariota (2012-14) who threw 12 TDs in three games in 2012, and Joey Harrington (1998-01) who tossed 12 TDs in three games in 2000. Herbert also ranks in a tie for fourth on the list with his 11 touchdowns in games against Cal, Arizona State and USC.

HERBERT BECOMES FIRST TRUE FRESHMAN TO START AT QUARTERBACK IN 33 YEARS

- In last year's Washington game, Justin Herbert became the first true freshman to start a game at quarterback at Oregon since Chris Miller in 1983. The Ducks' signal caller completed 21-of-34 passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns. The 21 completions and 34 attempts were the most by a freshman (true or redshirt) since Miller got the start against Stanford on Nov. 12, 1983 and completed 9-of-15 passes for 98 yards and a TD. Oregon has started a handful of freshman over the years, but most of those had used a redshirt their first season on campus.

NELSON NEEDS THREE CATCHES TO REACH CENTURY MARK

- SR WR Charles Nelson needs three catches against Nebraska to reach the 100-catch milestone.
- With the three catches, Nelson will become the 28th member of the 100-reception club at Oregon.
- Nelson opened the season with team highs in receptions (6) and receiving yards (99).

BENOIT GETS SECOND CAREER 100-YARD GAME

- SR RB Kani Benoit picked up his second career 100-yard rushing game in Saturday's season opener when he gained 107 yards on just seven carries (15.3 yards per carry).
- In Benoit's two career 100-yard games he has a combined 13 carries for 207 yards.
- Benoit's first career 100-yard game came at Nebraska last season when he rushed for 100-yards on just six carries (16.7 yards per carry).
- Benoit also scored a career-high three TDs in the win over Southern Utah.

DUCKS EXTEND STREAK OF GAMES WITH 20+ POINTS

- Oregon scored 77 points in its opener against Southern Utah to extend the Ducks' streak of scoring 20-or-more points to 43 games, which is the longest streak in the country.
- The Ducks are the only team with a streak longer than 30. Six teams have streaks of 20 games or longer, while only 19 teams have reached double-digits.
- Temple (13), Wyoming (12), and BYU (11) had streaks snapped during the season's first weekend.

OFFENSIVE RECORDS FALL IN 77-21 WIN:

- Oregon's 77 points scored against Southern Utah was the most in the modern era (post WW2) by a Ducks' team. The last time UO scored more than 77 was a 97-0 win over Willamette in 1916.
- The Ducks also set a number of Autzen Stadium records in the win. The 77 points bested the previous record of 72 against New Mexico (2010) and Nevada (1999).
- Oregon's 11 touchdowns were one more than UO scored against Colorado (2012) and Nevada (1999), and Washington scored vs. Oregon last season.
- The nine rushing TDs was two more than UO scored against Nicholls (2013), Colorado (2012) and Utah State (1999), and UCLA scored against the Ducks (1975).

GROUND AND POUND

- Oregon's reputation as a high-scoring offense owes a lot to the team's ability to score touchdowns, not only through the air, but on the ground. The Ducks have racked up 569 touchdowns since the beginning of 2010 with 288, the third most in the nation, of them coming on running plays.

DUCKS HAVE THIRD-MOST TD PASSES SINCE 2010 SEASON

- When it comes to finding the end zone through the air, almost nobody has been better than Oregon since 2010. The Ducks have tossed 243 TD passes during that time, which is the third most in the nation. UO's offense has thrown at least 28 TDs in each of the last seven seasons with a high of 44 touchdown passes in 2014. In 2015, the Ducks had 33 TD passes. Last season, Oregon had 28 TD passes.

DUCKS SCORE IN ALL FACETS OF GAME

- If the Ducks aren't scoring on offense, they're probably finding the end zone on defense or special teams. Oregon is fifth in the country in non-offensive TDs since 2010 with 37. Tony Brooks-James gave Oregon an early addition to the list scoring on the season's opening kickoff against Southern Utah.

LIGHTNING STRIKES

- Oregon leads the nation since 2010 in scoring offense in both conference games (42.87) and non-conference games (49.93). The Ducks also lead the nation in total offense per game this decade (560.8 ypg).
- Since 2010, Oregon leads the nation in percentage of possessions scoring points (47.73%), percentage of possessions scoring touchdowns (40.07%), and points per possession (2.73) while ranking second in fewest three-and-out possessions (15.37%).
- Oregon ranks second nationally with nine games since 2000 with 700-plus yards of total offense, trailing only Baylor during that span (14).

DUCKS' RUN/PASS BALANCE AMONG NATION'S BEST OVER LAST THREE YEARS

- Oregon is one of just three teams in the nation with double-digit games with both 300+ passing yards and 200+ rushing yards since 2014. The Ducks have totaled 12 during that stretch, including the opener against SUU.

GP/GS: 1/1

-Completed 17 of 21 pass attempts for 281 yards and one touchdown in season opener against Southern Utah

2016

GP/GS: 8/7

- First true freshman to start a game as quarterback since 1983 ... Made his collegiate debut in the season opener vs. UC Davis, taking the final snap from center in a 53-28 win ... Second career appearance culminated in a 2-minute, 85-yard drive late in the fourth quarter with a 4-yard scoring run ... Tied the Oregon single-game record for most touchdown passes with six for 258 yards against Cal ... The following game he again put up unprecedented numbers against Arizona State, setting a school record for total offensive yards with 512 yards and tying the single-game passing record with 489 yards (31-of-42), which was first set in 1989 by Bill Musgrave ... Matched the school record for most touchdown passes thrown in a three-game stretch with 12, emulating Marcus Mariota (2012) and Joey Harrington (2000) ... During the same three-game stretch, his completions (74), attempts (116), and yards (926) also were a first by a freshman quarterback ... Orchestrated a come-from-behind win at Utah, accounting for four touchdowns in the final 15:27 of the game to help the Ducks overcome a 14-3 deficit ... Capped the game-winning drive by completing his final six of nine passes for 63 yards, in addition to running 12 yards for a first down, before finding Darren Carrington in the corner of the end zone for a 17-yard game-winning score with 2 seconds remaining on the clock ... Finished the season with seven starts while recording 1,866 of his 1,936 passing yards, 19 touchdown passes, and completing 64 percent of his passes as a starter.

BEFORE OREGON

- The multi-sport standout ranked fourth among the state's 2015 prep football prospects (ESPN.com) as the Southwest Conference offensive player-of-the-year attracted PrepStar all-West Region honors ... Shared first-team 6A all-state accolades (The Oregonian) in 2015 quarterbacking Sheldon to a 10-2 ledger his senior season ... Selected as a second-team all-state first baseman in the spring of 2015 ... Threw for 3,130 yards and 37 touchdowns his final prep campaign while completing 66.5 percent of his passes, and running for 543 yards (5.4-yard avg.) and 10 scores to lead the Irish to the 2015 6A state semifinals ... Completed 10 scoring passes in the first two games of his junior year before suffering a season-ending leg injury ... Returned for the 2015 baseball season to hit .400 while scoring six runs and driving in 11 RBIs for a contingent that defeated West Linn for the Class 6A state championship ... Also accumulated a 1.98 ERA in 42.1 innings, striking out 39 batters

R-Sr. | 6-5 | 314 | West Linn, Ore. (West Linn HS)

GP/GS: 1/0

2016

GP/GS: 12/0

- Saw action in all twelve games of the season at right tackle.

2015

GP/GS: 13/2

- Brings a wealth of experience to the table, stepping onto the field for all 13 games including starting assignments at left guard in wins at Washington and Arizona State ... Logged a career-high 83 plays while facing the Huskies and responded with 55 snaps in the Alamo Bowl

2014

GP/GS: 8/0

- Logging playing time as a reserve along the offensive front line in eight games as a redshirt freshman, he accumulated 44 of his 63 snaps the latter half of the season

2013

- Attracted positive reviews during his redshirt year for his contributions on the Ducks' scout team

DEFENSIVE GAME NOTES

DYE ACTIVE LEADER ON D

- SO LB Troy Dye has played in just 12 games in his young career, but has quickly become a leader both on the field and on the stats sheet. The true sophomore from Norco, Calif., is Oregon's active leader in tackles for loss (15.0) and sacks (7.5), and ranks third among current players in career tackles (101).

DYE NAMED TO FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICA TEAM

- SO LB Troy Dye was named to the 2016 USA Today Freshman All-America Team after leading the Ducks in tackles (91), tackles for loss (13.0) and sacks (6.5) last season. Dye led all Pac-12 Conference freshmen in tackles per game, while finishing second overall in the category.

DYE ONE OF THREE TRUE FRESHMEN IN NATION TO LEAD TEAM IN TACKLES

- SO LB Troy Dye was in rare company when it came to true freshmen leading their teams in tackles in 2016. The Norco, Calif., native was one of just three first-year players in the country to lead their team in tackles. Dye was joined by Josiah Tauaefa (UTSA) and Jordyn Brooks (Texas Tech).

True Freshmen Leading Tacklers

Name	Team	Tackles
Josiah Tauaefa	UTSA	115
Troy Dye	Oregon	91
Jordyn Brooks	Texas Tech	86

DYE RECORDS ANOTHER STELLAR OPENING PERFORMANCE

- After starting the 2016 season with an 11-tackle performance against UC Davis worthy of Pac-12 player of the week honors, SO LB Troy Dye opened the 2017 season with a similar monster effort that included 10 tackles (5 solo), 2.0 tackles for loss, one sack, an interception and a pass breakup against Southern Utah. Dye, who moved from outside linebacker in 2016 to the "Jack" inside linebacker position in new defensive coordinator Jim Leavitt's scheme this season, now has six double-digit tackle games in 12 career appearances. He has only appeared on defense in 11 games as he was limited to special teams duty at Nebraska last season.

SPRINGS ENTERS TOP 10

- SR CB Arrion Springs moved into the Ducks' all-time top 10 list for pass breakups with a pair in the season opener vs. Southern Utah, giving him 27 for his career. The four-year defensive back from San Antonio passed Keith Lewis (26 from 2000-03) for 10th, and will enter the Nebraska game one shy of Kenny Wheaton (1994-96) for ninth.

DUCKS STUFF SOUTHERN UTAH

- The Oregon defense is coming off an irregular year that saw the Ducks surrender more than 200 rushing yards per game for the first time in 30 years. But if last week's opener vs. Southern Utah is any indication, that regression may be an outlier. Oregon held the Thunderbirds to 99 yards on 38 attempts for an average of 2.6 yards per rush. It marked the first time the Ducks have limited an opponent to less than 100 yards rushing since holding UC Davis to 89 yards Sept. 3, 2016. The Aggies, however scored four rushing touchdowns, compared to two by SUU.

TIME TO BREAK UP

- Collectively, the Oregon defense registered eight pass breakups in last week's opener vs. Southern Utah, helping to limit the Thunderbirds to just 5.5 yards per pass attempt. Seven Ducks had breakups, led by SR CB Arrion Springs with two. The eight breakups matched last year's season-high in the road win over Utah Nov. 19.

TRUE TEST

- Of Oregon's nine true freshmen to play in the season opener vs. Southern Utah, six saw action on the defensive side of the ball, including starting nose guard Austin Faoliu and his backup Jordon Scott. FR CB Thomas Graham Jr. led all newcomers with five tackles, followed by FR S Billy Gibson with four. Fellow safety FR Nick Pickett added a pair of tackles and FR CB Deommodore Lenoir was credited with a pass breakup.

DUCKS KEEP CLEAN SHEET AFTER HALF

- A big sign of progress for the 2017 Oregon defense came after halftime of the Ducks' 77-21 season-opening victory last Saturday against Southern Utah, when the Thunderbirds failed to score a single point over the final two quarters of the contest. It marked the first time UO had shutout an opponent for an entire half since blanking TCU in the first half of the Alamo Bowl on Jan. 2, 2016. Prior to that, the Ducks shutout Arizona during the first half of the 2014 Pac-12 Championship Game at Levi's Stadium. The last regular season game when Oregon held an opponent scoreless for a half was Aug. 30, 2014 vs. South Dakota (second half). In the 48 total quarters of football Oregon played last year, the Ducks only held their opponents scoreless five times.

GP/GS: 12/11

- Logged more snaps than any other player (984), taking part in 80 or more reps in eight of his first nine appearances while stepping onto the field in all 12 games ... Took part in 98 and 99 plays in consecutive outings against Colorado and Washington State, respectively, and peaked with 124 snaps at California ... The 11-game starter opened the season's first two games at safety before converting to cornerback for the remainder of the season ... The Ducks' fourth-leading tackler (53) paced the team in stops on one occasion (7 vs. Virginia) before coming back with a season-high nine tackles the following week at Nebraska, including his lone quarterback sack of the year ... Tied for second on the team with six pass break ups ... Recorded his lone interception of the year against Arizona State, picking off his fourth career errant throw at the Ducks' 1-yard line and returning it 84 yards to prevent the Sun Devils from pulling within five points towards the end of the game

GP/GS: 13/11

- Appeared in all 13 games and finished the year as Oregon's fourth-leading tackler (64 stops) ... Led the program with three interceptions, including a 41-yard touchdown return among his two picks vs. Georgia State, as well as added a fumble recovery and nine tackles against Washington State ... The 11-game starter led all tacklers with a career-high 11 stops in his cornerback debut at Washington in addition to sharing a team-high seven takedowns (6 solo) vs. California

2014

GP/GS: 15/1

- Played in all 15 games and earned a starting role at Utah ... Ranked 12th on the team in tackles with 36 (10 solo) ... Twelve of his takedowns occurred while covering kickoffs, tying him for third on the team in that category ... Best efforts came early in the year as he recorded a career-high five tackles against both Michigan State and Wyoming ... Recovered a fumble against Arizona in the Pac-12 Championship game

2013

- Redshirted during his freshman season at Oregon

HONORS AND AWARDS

2015 Vlade Award Winner

3rd-Team All-America (Associated Press)

1st-Team Pac-12 All-Conference (Coaches)

Lou Groza Award Watch List (Nation's Top Placekicker)

2017

GP/GS: 1/0

- Perfect in the season opener against Southern Utah connecting on all 11 PAT attempts to set a new career high.

2016

GP/GS: 12/0

- The most accurate kicker in school history, the season's scoring leader (69 points) has connected on 87.5 percent (42-of-48) of his career field goal attempts ... His accuracy has been at its peak under 40 yards as he converted 88.6 percent of his kicks (31-35) at that range, yet he was perfect at 40 yards or longer his first two years ... Was successful on 9-12 field goals and 42-43 PAT tries in 12 appearances as a junior to move into sixth on the program's all-time scoring list (275 points), second in PATs (149), and third in career field goals ... Attempted kicks in 11 of 12 appearances and converted field goals on six occasions ... Connected on 31 consecutive PATs through the first eight games before misfiring on his first try at USC, extending his school-record uninterrupted string to 102 ... Duplicated his personal single-game best of four field goals (5 attempts) against ASU after first setting mark as a sophomore vs. Georgia State in a game where he also accounted for a personal pinnacle of 19 points

2015

GP/GS: 13/0

- The former walk-on was afforded first-team Pac-12 all-conference honors as voted by the league's coaches, as well as All-America third-team acclaim by the Associated Press after finishing second in the country in field goal accuracy (90.9%) and ninth in scoring (10.2 ppg) ... Named the winner of the 2015 Vlade Award presented by The Touchdown Club of Columbus honoring college football's most accurate kicker ... Extended his unblemished string of consecutive field goals to 10 to start the year before finishing the season connecting on 22-of-24 FGs ... Connected on his longest two field goals as a collegian of 47 and 44 yards in the Alamo Bowl season finale vs. TCU ... Remained perfect on a school-record 67 PAT tries his sophomore year to extend his successful string of points-after-touchdown to 71 ... Converted 140 of his 145 of his total placements over the course of his first two seasons ... Accounted for a personal single-game best 19 points vs. Georgia State (7 PATs, 4 FGs) while equaling the school's one-game pinnacle of connecting on 11 kicks ... Tied for second on Oregon's single-season field goal percentage chart, ranks third on its single-season scoring list (122 points) and tied for third on its field goals made ledger (20) with the most since 1992

2014

GP/GS: 9/0

- Handled the majority of placements in the latter stages of the season, along with assisting with kickoff duties ... Made 11-of-12 field goals on the season (91.7%), including his final four attempts during the Ducks' stretch run against Arizona (Pac-12 Championship), Florida State (CFP semifinal), and Ohio State (CFP National Championship) ... Opened collegiate tenure connecting on seven-consecutive FGs during a four-game span, including all four attempts between 30-39 yards, and two-of-two on tries spanning 40-49 yards ... Finished third on the team in scoring (73 points) behind Royce Freeman (114) and Marcus Mariota (96) ... Made a career-high three field goals on two occasions - on the road at Utah and against Arizona in the Pac-12 Championship Game at Levi's Stadium ... Finished 40-of-42 on PAT attempts ... Averaged 60.4 yards in kickoffs, recording touchbacks on seven of 36 efforts.

Named the 33rd head coach in Oregon football history on Dec. 7, 2016, Willie Taggart arrived in Eugene after building a reputation as one of college coaching's brightest offensive minds and a proven winner.

Taggart's first game as Oregon game featured a 77-21 win over Southern Utah in which the Ducks scored their most points since 1916 and set a school record with nine rushing touchdowns. Both were Autzen Stadium records.

Despite having less than two months before National Letter of Intent day after coming to Oregon, Taggart impressed immediately with a strong first recruiting class with the Ducks. In the midst of hiring his coaching staff, Taggart put together a consensus top 25 2017 recruiting class, highlighted by a No. 16 ranking by Scout.com.

In eight seasons as a head coach, Taggart has rebuilt two different programs in Western Kentucky (2010-12) and South Florida (2013-16). The native of the Tampa Bay, Fla., area brings a proven track record of creating a positive student-athlete experience while also placing a winning product on the field.

Taggart owns a 20-7 record (.741) since 2015 and in eight seasons as a head coach, he is 41-45 (.477) with four bowl appearances. His teams have averaged 4.92 rushing touchdowns per game since 2015, ranking him first among all FBS Division I head coaches.

Taggart took over a three-win South Florida team in 2013 and used his energy and stellar recruiting style to put the program back on a winning track, while also rallying USF fans with his "Do Something" mantra. Taggart turned the program into an offensive juggernaut in only four years, leading the Bulls to a program-record 10-2 mark in 2016 with seven conference victories after going 2-10 in his first season. The Bulls closed the 2016 regular season in the AP poll (No. 25) for just the second time in program history and reached back-to-back bowl games after earning a bid to the 2016 Birmingham Bowl.

A quarterback in his playing days at Western Kentucky, Taggart molded the South Florida offense into one of the nation's best over his four seasons with the "Gulf Coast Offense." The Bulls ranked seventh in the country in points per game (43.6) during the 2016 regular season and fifth in rushing offense (291.75 ypg).

The team's primary play caller, Taggart led an offense that set 33 program records, including scoring, total touchdowns, total yards, rushing yards, yards per play, yards per carry and points per game. Taggart also molded a number of standout players at USF with a program-record 10 landing on all-conference teams, highlighted by quarterback Quinton Flowers, who was named the American Conference Offensive Player of the Year after becoming the first USF player ever to post 2,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing in the same season. Before revamping the offense at South Florida, Taggart laid the foundation by signing some of the most highly-regarded recruiting classes in program history. Taggart's first full recruiting period at USF resulted in the consensus No. 1 ranked class in AAC in 2014, and he landed the conference's top class once again a year later.

Taggart's players have found success in the classroom in addition to on the field, with the USF football program experiencing a rise in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) over each of Taggart's four seasons. The Bulls also saw record numbers of academic all-conference honorees in each of Taggart's first three seasons, including 38 in 2015.

Before he was hired at USF in 2013, Taggart spent three seasons remaking a Western Kentucky program that was enduring a 20-game losing streak upon his arrival. After just one year of transition, Taggart guided his alma mater to two straight winning seasons (7-5 in 2011, 7-6 in 2012) and the program's first bowl appearance - the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl - since moving from FCS to FBS. WKU won 12 of 14 games under Taggart from Oct. 2011 to Oct. 2012, with the only losses coming to No. 1-ranked teams in LSU and Alabama. Taggart proved his ability as a recruiter as well at Western Kentucky, securing the top classes in the Sun Belt Conference in both 2010 and 2011.

Before becoming the head coach of the Hilltoppers, Taggart worked as the running backs coach at Stanford under head coach Jim Harbaugh from 2007-09. He joined the program following a 1-11 season in 2006 and was instrumental in the development of the Cardinal offense, which in 2009 led Pac-10 in total offense (441.4 ypg) and ranked second in the conference rushing offense (224.3 ypg) while breaking the school's single-season rushing record that had stood since 1949 with 2,481 yards. Taggart also helped to groom the 2009 Doak Walker Award winner in Toby Gerhart, who averaged 144.7 rushing yards per game while also maintaining a 3.25 GPA.

Taggart started his coaching career at Western Kentucky in 1999, returning to the institution he attended and would later bring to prominence as its head coach. Taggart worked at WKU in multiple capacities from 1999 to 2006, starting as the receivers coach for a year before spending a year as quarterbacks coach (2000), two as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2001-02) and four as assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach (2003-06). Under Taggart's guidance from 2003-06, quarterback Justin Haddix set school career records with 8,890 yards of total offense, a 57.1 completion percentage, 50 touchdowns and a 137.28 pass efficiency rating.

Taggart helped coach an offensive unit that set school records for points (432), total yards (5,479) and first downs (263), en route to the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA national championship. The Hilltoppers ranked second in the nation in pass efficiency and sixth in rushing, and averaged 38.8 points per contest in four playoff victories.

Taggart's coaching career began just a year after he wrapped up a stellar playing career at WKU, where he was the starting quarterback from 1995-98. Taggart set 11 WKU school records while directing the offense and had his jersey retired on Oct. 23, 2016. He finished his career as WKU's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (47), ranked second in scoring (286 points), pass efficiency rating (127.71) and rushing yards (3,997), tied for third in most 100-yard rushing games (17) and tied for fourth in touchdown passes (30). His rushing yards were the most in NCAA Division I history at the time for a quarterback.

Recruited to WKU by Harbaugh to play for his father, Jack, Taggart graduated in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in social sciences. Prior to college, Taggart was a prep standout at Bradenton Manatee High School, where he was a first-team all-state and all-conference selection as a senior after guiding the Hurricanes to the state 5A championship game.

Taggart and his wife, Taneshia, have two sons, Willie Jr. and Jackson, and one daughter, Morgan.

TAGGART CAREER NOTES

• Is 20-7 over the last two seasons (at South Florida), including a 13-3 conference record.

• In his debut at Oregon, Taggart's Ducks squad scored their most points in a game since 1916 (77) while setting a school record with nine rushing touchdowns.

• Is 6-1 (.857) in games decided by 8 points or fewer, the third-best winning pct. in games decided by that margin (Mike Gundy 8-1, Jim McElwain 7-1).

• All-time, Taggart is 20-12 in games decided by eight or fewer points, a .625 winning pct. that ranks him 11th among all coaches since '05.

• Last year's USF team set 33 program records, including ranking 7th nationally in points per game (43.6) and fifth in rushing yards per game (291.75). The Bulls finished in the Top 25 for only the second time in school history.

• His teams have not allowed a defensive touchdown since 2014.

• Leads all FBS head coaches since 2015 with a 51.46 scoring average per game.

• Leads the nation in percentage of touchdowns scored from 20 or more yards (48.03, followed by Sean Kugler, 47.76%, Mark Richt 44.83%) over the last two seasons.

• Is 18-10 in road conference games as a head coach.

• Has won 15 consecutive games when scoring 40 or more points.

• Started his head coaching career at Western Kentucky, where he took over a program making the leap from FCS to FBS in his first year. After a 2-13 start, he is 39-32 since (.549).

• Is 33-7 with a halftime lead and 17-5 when winning the turnover battle.

Game 1 - Sept. 2

SOUTHERN UTAH 21
OREGON 77

Eugene, Ore. (52,204)
Autzen Stadium
90 degrees, smokey, hazy

EUGENE — The Wille Taggart era of Oregon football began in rousing fashion Saturday, with Tony Brooks-James returning the opening kickoff for a touchdown and the Ducks' offense in vintage form throughout a 77-21 victory over Southern Utah before 52,204 fans in Autzen Stadium.

The Ducks (1-0) won their seventh straight season opener, and their 10th straight season opener played at home. They won their 16th straight game over non-Power 5 conference opponents.

How It Happened: Brooks-James returned the opening kick 100 yards to get the Ducks on the board first. Oregon's defense, making its debut under coordinator Jim Leavitt, got off to an inauspicious start, allowing Southern Utah to drive 70 yards to a game-tying touchdown.

But the defense buckled down from there, and the Ducks scored the game's next 35 points. Justin Herbert sparked that stretch with a TD pass to Jacob Breeland, and the Ducks also got a pair of touchdowns each from Royce Freeman and Kani Benoit.

The Thunderbirds scored twice just before halftime, recovering a muffed kick return by Brooks-James in between. But the UO defense rallied with a three-and-out to open the second half, Freeman scored in third touchdown of the night early in the third quarter, and the rout was on.

Who Stood Out: Freeman kicked off his senior season and quest for the UO career rushing record with 150 yards and four touchdowns on 23 carries. His 48 career rushing touchdowns tie for fifth-most in conference history, and are five behind LaMichael James for the UO record. Freeman is also within four yards of catching Stepfan Taylor (Stanford, 2009-12) for sixth in Pac-12 history with 4,300 rushing yards. Benoit also surpassed the century mark, rushing for 107 yards and three touchdowns on seven carries.

Herbert was an efficient 17-of-21 for 281 yard with the single passing touchdown, and Charles Nelson led UO receivers with five catches for 99 yards. Defensively, returning team MVP Troy Dye made an apparently seamless transition to inside linebacker, leading the Ducks with 10 tackles and adding a first-half interception that helped Oregon take firm grasp of momentum.

What It Means: The Ducks used a familiar formula to beat the Thunderbirds, with explosive offense, timely turnovers and stops on defense, and game-changing special teams play. There's still much work to be done in the weeks ahead, but Saturday's win was the first step in proving the 2016 season an aberration in recent UO football history.

Notable: Brooks-James' kickoff return was the first by a Duck to open a new season since Saladin McCullough in 1997 against Arizona in Autzen Stadium. ... The Ducks used seven true freshmen in the first half: Johnny Johnson III started at receiver, Adam Stack was the primary punter, Austin Faoliu started at nose guard and the defense used Jordon Scott, Nick Pickett, Billy Gibson and Thomas Graham Jr. off the bench. Cornerback Deommodore Lenoir and receiver Darrian McNeal played in the second half. ... Safety Tyree Robinson, safety Brady Breeze, defensive lineman Scott Pagano and defensive lineman Malik Young were notable among the Ducks who did not suit up Saturday. ... Blake Maimone, who battled all preseason camp for the punting job with Stack, handled the job in the second half.

LINCOLN, Neb. — Oregon suffered a 35-32 defeat at Nebraska on Saturday afternoon, fighting through the absence of two pre-season all-America candidates as well as a flurry of penalty flags before falling to 2-1 on the season entering the start of Pac-12 play.

How It Happened: Nebraska quarterback Tommy Armstrong scrambled 34 yards for the game-winning touchdown with 2:29 to play, two plays after throwing a 14-yard completion on fourth-and-nine to extend the drive. Oregon had a chance to respond and drove past midfield, but the Ducks' 13th and final penalty of the game put them in a hole and they couldn't dig out.

Oregon took its last lead at 32-28 early in the fourth quarter on the third rushing touchdown of the game by Tony Brooks-James. That completed the Ducks' rally back from a 28-20 deficit, as Kani Benoit's 41-yard touchdown got Oregon within 28-26 late in the third quarter.

The Ducks had a six-point lead at halftime, but Nebraska scored twice early in the third quarter to go up 28-20. The Ducks committed two pass interference penalties on that second drive, on a day marked by 126 penalty yards on Oregon.

Oregon entered halftime with a 20-14 lead after a wild second quarter. The Ducks led 8-7 entering the period, and got a defensive stop to open the quarter. Dakota Prukop then drove the offense 74 yards to the second rushing touchdown of the game by Brooks-James. The drive included a fourth-down conversion on which Prukop passed 24 yards to Dwayne

Stanford down to the two-yard line, and ended with Brooks-James running around left end, where the Ducks had positioned tight ends Pharaoh Brown and Evan Baylis.

Nebraska then began to gash the UO defense and drove quickly into the red zone, before a backwards pass hit the turf and was scooped up by Arrion Springs. He returned it to the 50, and instead of the Huskers potentially tying the game, Taj Griffin raced 50 yards on the next play for a touchdown and the 20-7 lead. Oregon's defense followed with another stop, but the offense couldn't move the chains with a chance to add on; instead the Ducks punted, Nebraska ripped off a long return and the Huskers ultimately scored to make it 20-14.

The Ducks ran 26 times for 166 yards in the first half, thriving despite the absence of running back Royce Freeman and left tackle Tyrell Crosby for all but the opening minutes of the game. Brooks-James gave Oregon an early 8-0 lead in the first quarter, his third straight game with a rushing TD.

Who Stood Out: Benoit carried six times for 100 yards, Griffin had 68 yards on eight carries and Brooks-James rushed for 37 yards on three carries in the absence of Freeman. Charles Nelson caught eight passes for 80 yards, part of a 14-of-23 performance by Prukop for 146 yards. Johnny Ragin III returned from a one-game absence and led the defense with 10 tackles.

Notable: Oregon scored five touchdowns and attempted a two-point conversion after each, converting only the first. ... Jimmie Swain, a native of nearby Olathe, Kan., started at MIKE linebacker and Jonah Moi was the starter at SAM linebacker. In the secondary, Tyree Robinson shifted down to corner with Arrion Springs, with Khalil Oliver and Brenden Schooler at safety. Redshirt freshman Drayton Carlberg got the call at defensive tackle, giving the Ducks five first-time starters on that side of the ball. ... Freeman's 31 yards propelled him into the Pac-12's top 20 all-time for career rushing yards (3,526).

OREGON ATHLETICS EXCELLENCE

DUCKS FINISH RECORD NINTH IN DIRECTOR'S CUP

- The UO athletic department in 2016-17 posted its highest-ever finish for the third year in a row, taking ninth in the annual ranking of NCAA athletic departments.

- Schools can count their best 20 team finishes (up to 10 women's sports and 10 men's sports) in an academic year, and Oregon took ninth despite fielding just 19 NCAA programs - more than a dozen fewer than top-two finishers Stanford and Ohio State. - The Ducks took ninth just a year after entering the top-10 for the first time in 2015-16, when the UO athletic department was 10th in the Directors' Cup standings. A year earlier, Oregon was 13th, at that point its best finish ever.

- The department earned 1,027 points toward the Directors' Cup in 2016-2017, led by 300 from the women's track and field program — 100 for each national title by the program in its historic "Triple Crown" year, the first by an NCAA women's program. Oregon's three national titles in 2016-17 were one fewer than Stanford and Oklahoma, and gave the Ducks multiple national championships for the fifth straight year, the longest active streak in the country. - The 100 points for the women's NCAA Outdoor title contributed to Oregon's 467 points during the spring, nearly half the department's total for the year. The Ducks also got 90 points for the men's golf team's NCAA runner-up finish, 83 points for making the semifinals of the Women's College World Series and 69 points for the ninth-place men's NCAA Outdoor finish. The women's golf team and both tennis programs also contributed points by reaching their respective postseasons.

- This was the fifth year in a row UO finished in the top 15 of the standings, and the sixth in the last eight years.

WOMEN'S TRACK TRIPLE CROWN

After winning national titles in women's cross country, women's indoor track and field and women's outdoor track and field last years, the Ducks became the first women's program in the history of the NCAA to sweep all three championships in a single academic year.

POSTSEASON APPEARANCES IN 2016-17

- During the 2016-17 academic year, the Ducks sent 15 teams to the postseason, the most in school history.

- In addition to the women's track and field team sweeping all three national titles (cross country, indoor, outdoor), the Oregon men's basketball program advanced to the Final Four, softball went to the Women's College World Series and men's golf, a year after winning a national title, finished as runner-up to Oklahoma.

- Women's basketball had a remarkable run to the Elite Eight in 2016-17 while men's track and field finished third in the nation in indoor and ninth outdoors.

- Volleyball, men's cross country, women's golf, men's tennis and women's tennis all qualified for their respective NCAA Tournaments.

- Acrobatics and Tumbling finished second at the NCATA national tournament.
