- UO won the program's first ever Pac-12 Tournament title in 2018.

Kelly Graves is in his sixth season at the helm of the Oregon women's basketball program. He was named the seventh head coach in program history on April 7, 2014. On March 20, 2019, Graves and UO agreed to terms on a contract extension that will keep him in Eugene through the 2025-26 season.

Graves enters the 2019-20 campaign with a record of 124-52 in his previous five seasons with the Ducks and a 551-254 overall head coaching mark over 25 seasons, which includes three years at Big Bend CC. He is 506-214 all-time as a Div. I head coach, with stops at Saint Mary's, Gonzaga and Oregon. As a head coach, Graves has won 12 regular season conference titles and reached the NCAA Tournament 11 times. In tournament play, he boasts one trip to the Final Four, four career trips to the Elite Eight and six total Sweet 16 appearances. His teams have won 20-plus games in 12 of the last 13 seasons and 17 total times. Graves has coached seven All-Americans, including three-time selections Courtney Vandersloot (Gonzaga) and Jillian Alleyne (Oregon).

In 2018-19, Oregon won a second straight Pac-12 regular season title after going 16-2 in conference play. Graves and the Ducks were ranked as high as No. 2 in the AP poll and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament for a second consecutive year. Sabrina Ionescu was named the Pac-12 player of the year for a second straight season as well, before earning the first national player of the year recognitions in program history, from the WBCA (Wade Trophy) and the Wooden Award. The Ducks went 33-5 for a second straight year in 2018-19, capped by the program's first-ever trip to the Final Four. UO upset No. 1 seed Mississippi State, 88-84, in the Elite Eight in front of a raucous crowd of 11,538 at the Moda Center in Portland, Ore. The Ducks are 10-3 in the NCAA Tournament over the last three seasons, after winning just five total NCAA Tournament games previously in program history.

The 2017-18 campaign will always be a special one, as Oregon won its third ever Pac-12 regular season championship and the first Pac-12 Tournament title in program history. Graves and the Ducks went a program-record 33-5 on the season, including a record 16-2 in league play. The Ducks clinched the title over Stanford by sweeping the Arizona schools on the road in the final weekend of the regular season. Oregon also topped Stanford, 77-57, in the tournament championship game at KeyArena in Seattle.

Oregon earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament, hosted games in Eugene for the first time since 2000, and reached the Elite Eight for a second straight season before falling to eventual national champion and No. 1 seed Notre Dame in the Spokane regional final.

Sophomores Sabrina Ionescu and Ruthy Hebard each earned a multitude of awards at the conclusion of the season. Ionescu was a unanimous first team All-American and was named the Nancy Lieberman national point guard of the year. Vandersloot won the Lieberman award in 2011 under Graves. Hebard was an honorable mention All-American and was named the Katrina McClain national power forward of the year. After earning Pac-12 player of the year honors in the regular season, Ionescu was also named the Pac-12 Tournament MVP after scoring a championship game record 36 points. The Walnut Creek, Calif., native also broke the NCAA career triple-doubles record in 2017-18. The Ducks were, statistically, one of the best shooting teams in the nation in 2018-19. Oregon finished the season ranked fourth in the NCAA in field goal percentage (50.0), third in three-point percentage (40.1) and seventh in the country in scoring (82.4 points per game).

Prior to the Ducks' incredible 2018-19 season, 2016-17 was considered the best year in program history. Oregon not only reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2005, but Graves and the No. 11 seed Ducks shocked the college basketball world by reaching the program's first ever Sweet 16 and Elite Eight.

With three true freshmen in the starting, the most in the tournament that year, the Ducks defeated No. 7 seed Temple, No. 2 seed Duke and No. 3 seed Maryland before falling to No. 1 seed UConn in the Bridgeport regional final. Graves became the only coach in NCAA history to take two double digit seeds (Gonzaga in 2011, Oregon in 2017) to the Elite Eight. The Ducks' exciting tournament run was fueled by Graves' work on the recruiting trail the year prior, as he signed the No. 3 ranked class in the nation, highlighted by USA Today national high school player of the year, Ionescu. The lead guard would go on to be named the ESPNW and USBWA national freshman of the year, in addition to all-Pac-12 and Pac-12 freshman of the year. Oregon's offense under Graves was typically efficient in 2016-17, ranking in the top-30 of the NCAA in field goal percentage (45.0), three-point percentage (39.2) and assists (16.5 assists per game).

Graves guided the Ducks to a 24-11 record and an appearance in the semifinals of the WNIT in 2015-16. Oregon's 24 wins was just one shy of the previous program record of 25, set in both 1980-81 and 1998-99. UO's 33 wins in 2017-18 is now the record. The Ducks began the season with a perfect 11-0 record, the second-best start in program history. The Ducks led the NCAA in three-point shooting at 42.1 percent and ranked sixth overall in field goal percentage, shooting 46.6 percent. At the end of the 2016 season, star forward Alleyne, a two-time third team All-American under Graves, was selected in the second round of the WNBA draft, the Ducks' first player drafted since 2012.

Graves went 13-17 in his first season with the Ducks in 2014-15, taking a team built to run-and-gun under former head coach Paul Westhead and instilling strong fundamentals and a tough defense-first philosophy. Oregon held their opponents under 70 points 14 times in 2014-15 after allowing an NCAA-worst 89.1 points per game in 2013-14. The new offense also got going as Graves led his Ducks to a 66-64 win over No. 19 ranked Stanford in the regular season finale, UO's first win against the Cardinal since 2004. Alleyne was named a third team All-American and first team all-Pac-12 following the season, making the jump from honorable mention in both as a sophomore.

Oregon is Graves' fourth head coaching position, previously leading the programs at Big Bend Community College (1989-92), Saint Mary's (1997-2000) and Gonzaga (2000-14).

Graves' coaching career started at Big Bend CC in Moses Lake, Wash., where he accepted an assistant coaching position on the men's team, but after the women's coach left, he moved over to lead the women's program instead.

In three seasons (1989-90 through 1991-92) Graves took a four-win team his first season to a 23-10 record in his final year, the first 20-plus win year in program history. Graves was inducted into the Northwest Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 2018.

Graves left Big Bend CC to become an assistant coach under Jim Sollars at the University of Portland prior to the 1992-93 season. Following four years with the Pilots, Graves was named the head coach at Saint Mary's for the 1997-98 campaign. Graves advanced to his first NCAA Tournament with the Gaels during the 1998-99 season, his second of three seasons at Saint Mary's, and went to seven more over 14 seasons at Gonzaga.

Graves left Saint Mary's for Gonzaga for the 2000-01 season. His first year with the Bulldogs, his team went 5-23, including 0-14 in WCC play. But by his third year at Gonzaga, the Bulldogs went 18-12 overall and went to the WNIT the following season. Gonzaga won the first of 10 straight WCC titles under Graves during the 2004-05 campaign when his squad went 28-4 overall and 14-0 in league play. Including that year, Graves and Gonzaga lost just 12 total conference games over his final 10 years leading the program.

Gonzaga's first NCAA Tournament appearance came in 2006-07, when the Bulldogs went 24-10 and 13-1 in WCC, and after a WNIT bid in 2007-08, Gonzaga advanced to six straight NCAA Tournaments. Graves and the 'Zags advanced to the Sweet 16 for three straight years (2010, 2011, 2012) and went to the Elite 8 in 2011. Overall, Graves brought eight West Coast Conference Coach of the Year awards and a 382-162 (.696) Div. I head coaching record to Eugene in 2014, with a 427-202 record overall before joining the Ducks.

"Kelly Graves is a great guy and one of the best coaches in America," said UConn head coach Geno Auriemma when Graves was hired in 2014. "Oregon is a place with tremendous women's basketball potential and Kelly is the perfect person to lead the Ducks to the next level. I won't be surprised when Oregon is competing for Pac-12 championships, and contending on a national level, in the near future."

Graves added USA Basketball to his resume in the summer of 2012, becoming an assistant coach with the U18 women's basketball squad and helping the team to a gold medal at the 2012 FIBA Americas. He again coached for USA Basketball in the summer of 2013. As an assistant, he helped the USA U19 squad win the FIBA Women's World Championship.

Graves and his wife Mary have three sons - Max (1995) Jackson (1997) and Will (2000). Max graduated from UO in 2017 and is now working with the Dallas Mavericks. Jack is an assistant coach with the Lane CC women's basketball team and Will graduated from South Eugene HS in 2018 and is a sophomore on the Lane CC men's basketball team.

In 2012 and 2013, Campbell was selected to attend Nike's renowned Villa 7 Consortium, which brings together university athletics directors and the country's elite assistant coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball head coaches.

Mark Campbell is in his sixth season with the Oregon women's basketball program and his fifth season as the team's associate head coach. Campbell was promoted from assistant coach on Nov. 30, 2015. He works with Oregon's guards, creates the Ducks' defensive game plans and is the team's lead recruiter. Campbell helped the Ducks to a second straight Pac-12 regular season title and the program's first ever Final Four appearance in 2018-19. For the first time in his career, Campbell tutored a player to national player of the year honors as guard Sabrina Ionescu was named both the Wooden Award and the Wade Trophy winner. For a second straight year, Ionescu was named a unanimous first team All-American, the Nancy Lieberman national point guard of the year and the Pac-12 player of the year.

Campbell and the Ducks went to a second straight Elite Eight in 2017-18, after winning both the Pac-12 regular season and tournament titles. Under Campbell's guidance, Ionescu was named the Pac-12 player of the year and also the Pac-12 tournament MVP after tallying 36 points in a win over Stanford. She would go on to earn consensus first team All-America honors. Guard Maite Cazorla, along with Ionescu, was named a first team all-Pac-12 selection. Campbell helped Ionescu earn ESPNW and USBWA national freshman of the year honors in 2016-17 in addition to Pac-12 freshman of the year accolades. He has coached a Pac-12 all-freshman guard in each of his first four seasons in Eugene - Lexi Bando, Maite Cazorla, Ionescu and Satou Sabally.

Campbell joined the Oregon program in 2014 after spending four seasons on the staff at Oregon State. Campbell started with the Beavers as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach for the 2013-14 season. He played an integral role in rebuilding the OSU program. Campbell worked with OSU's guards and helped develop four-straight Pac-12 all-freshman picks in Alyssa Martin (2011), Ali Gibson (2012), Jamie Weisner (2013) and Sydney Weise (2014). He has continued that recruiting prowess with the Ducks, helping Oregon sign the No. 3 ranked class in the country in 2016, headlined by Ionescu, the No. 1 ranked guard in the country and the No. 4 overall recruit in the nation according to ESPNW. Campbell has also been key in signing some top international players, including Berlin, Germany, native Satou Sabally, considered the top international forward in the 2017 recruiting class, and her younger sister, star power forward Nyara Sabally, in the 2018 class. Before heading to Corvallis, Campbell worked with the men's program at Saint Mary's. He served as an assistant coach for Randy Bennett during the 2009-10 campaign, helping the Gaels reach the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history as well as tie a school record for wins in a season (28-6). He originally joined the Saint Mary's staff as director of operations in 2008-09. In the Bay Area, he mentored a number of All-American guards including Patty Mills, a 2009 NBA draft pick by the Portland Trail Blazers, Mickey McConnell, the 2011 WCC Player of the Year, and Matthew Dellavedova, the 2012 WCC Player of the Year. Prior to his stint at St. Mary's, Campbell spent the 2007-08 season as an assistant coach for the Pepperdine men's basketball program under Vance Walberg, creator of the dribble-drive offense. From 2005-07, Campbell coached at Clackamas Community College in Oregon City, Ore., helping the Cougars to the 2007 Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges (NWAACC) Championship.

In his own career, Campbell played at Cal Poly and Clackamas CC before transferring to Hawai'i for his final two seasons, guiding the Warriors to a NCAA Tournament bid in 2002 and NIT appearance in 2003. Starting all but one game, he is the winningest two-year player in Hawai'i's history and led the team to a school-record 27 wins in 2001-02. He was a WAC all-defensive team pick as a senior and was a two-time WAC all-academic selection. In June of 2016, Campbell was inducted into the Clackamas CC hall of fame. In 2012 and 2013, Campbell was selected to attend Nike's renowned Villa 7 Consortium, which brings together university athletics directors and the country's elite assistant coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball head coaches.

Jodie Berry is in her sixth season as an assistant coach with the Oregon women's basketball program. The long-time assistant coach under Kelly Graves serves as Oregon's post coach and helps in opponent scouting and recruiting. Berry helped guide the Ducks to a second straight Pac-12 regular season title and the program's first ever Final Four appearance in 2018-19. Star forward Ruthy Hebard had another standout season as a junior under Berry's tutelage. Hebard was named all-Pac-12 for a third straight season and was named an honorable mention All-American for a second consecutive year. The junior post ranked second in the nation, shooting 67.0 percent from the field, and ranked fourth in the Pac-12 in rebounding (9.1 rpg) and 10th in scoring (16.1 ppg).

Hebard was named the Katrina McClain national power forward of the year in 2017-18. Hebard was named all-Pac-12 for a second straight season as Berry and the Ducks won both the Pac-12 regular season and tournament titles en route to a second straight Elite Eight. Hebard ranked second in the NCAA, shooting 66.0 percent from the floor during her sophomore season. The Fairbanks, Alaska, native set a new NCAA record, making 33 straight field goals stretching over four games and was named an honorable mention All-American by both the Associated Press and Women's Basketball Coaches Association. As a freshman in 2016-17, Hebard was named both all-Pac-12 and Pac-12 all-freshman. Berry also coached All-American forward Jillian Alleyne, who earned third team honors in both 2014-15 and 2015-16 and finished her career with the third most rebounds (1,712) and the second most double-doubles (92) in NCAA history. Alleyne owns both Oregon's and the Pac-12's single-game, single-season and career rebounding records and is just the third player in league history to score 2,000+ points and grab 1,500+ rebounds, joining Chiney Ogumike and Cheryl Miller. Berry joined the Oregon coaching staff in 2014 after working with new head coach Kelly Graves at Gonzaga for 11 seasons. Berry served as the director of women's basketball operations at Gonzaga for two seasons before being promoted to an assistant coach for the 2005-06 campaign. She served as Graves' top assistant for her final six seasons with the Bulldogs, starting in 2008. Working with the offense, Gonzaga led the nation in scoring during the 2010-11 season, averaging 85.3 points per game. The Bulldogs also shot 49.4 percent from the floor that season, good for second-best in the NCAA. Gonzaga won the WCC regular season title in 10 of her 11 years on the bench and advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times. At Gonzaga, Berry coached five All-Americans, 14 all-WCC performers and five WNBA draft picks, including the No. 3 pick overall pick in 2011, Courtney Vandersloot. Berry was instrumental in signing Vandersloot out of Kent, Wash., as well.

In her own playing career, Berry earned four letters at Western Washington University. She finished her career as WWU's career leader in three-pointers (210) and free throw percentage (81.9) and earned all-Great Northwest Athletic Conference honors in 2001 and 2002. Western Washington posted a 95-24 record during Berry's four-year career and made four trips to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The squad made a Div. II Final Four appearance in 2000.

Berry (Kaczor) married her husband, Eric Berry, in 2005 and the couple welcomed their son Tyson in 2010. They added a second son to the family, Kyson, adopted in 2016.

2018-19 PAC-12 YEAR IN REVIEW

OREGON's first-ever trip to the NCAA Women's Final Four and ARIZONA's WNIT Championship victory in front of a record crowd capped another historic Pac-12 women's basketball campaign. The Ducks won the Pac-12 regular-season crown for the second year in a row, while Stanford won its 13th Pac-12 Tournament title which was held in Las Vegas for the first time at the MGM Grand Garden Arena. For the 10th time in 12 years a Pac-12 team was in the national semifinal, the Ducks becoming the fifth-different league squad to advance that far since 2013. No other conference has sent as many different teams to the Final Four during that span. The Ducks (No. 2), OREGON STATE (No. 4) and Stanford (No. 2) each received top-16 seedings. Joining them in the NCAA Tournament were ARIZONA STATE, CALIFORNIA and UCLA, marking the third-straight year at least six Pac-12 teams earned bids. The Conference went 11-1 in the first two rounds, the best record for a conference since 1997, while going undefeated in the first round for the third time in four years. The Pac-12 placed five teams in the Sweet 16 for the second time in three years and was the only league to have at least two teams in the Elite Eight the last four years. Arizona recorded the best turnaround in the country, going from six wins in 2018 to 24 in 2018-19, marking UA's first 20-win season in eight years. Averaging over 7,200 in attendance during its postseason run, Arizona set the Pac-12's all-time single-game attendance mark in the WNIT final (14,644).

UO's Sabrina Ionescu was named the WBCA Wade Trophy and John R. Wooden Award Trophy winner, presented to the nation's top-collegiate women's basketball player, also winning the Pac-12's top honor. She broke the NCAA's single-season triple-doubles record, and became the NCAA's men's and women's career record holder. California's Kristine Anigwe, who was voted Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, was tabbed the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year while Ionescu won the WBCA's Nancy Lieberman Award (presented to the nation's top point guard) for the second-straight year. For the first time since 1993, three from the Pac-12 were tabbed USBWA All-Americans - Anigwe, Ionescu and Stanford's Alanna Smith. OSU's Aleah Goodman won the inaugural Pac-12 Sixth Player of the Year honor and Oregon's Kelly Graves was voted Pac-12 Coach of the Year for the first time. UTAH's Dre'Una Edwards was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year. For the first time ever, five Pac-12 teams appeared in the Associated Press final poll, with two ranked in the top 10, extending the Conference's streak of two top-10 ranked teams to five-consecutive years. For the first time ever, five Pac-12 teams are in the top 15 of the final USA Today/WBCA Coaches poll, also making the second time in three years five teams are in the final ranking. Additionally, it marks the first time three teams are ranked in the coaches' final top 10.

Sabrina Ionescu was named the winner of the 2019 WBCA Wade Trophy for national player of the year at a ceremony at the Final Four.

NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR - SABRINA IONESCU

In 2018-19, Sabrina Ionescu was the best college women's basketball player in America.

Ionescu, a UO junior guard with an NCAA-record 18 career triple-doubles, was named winner of both the Wade Trophy and the Wooden Award, each recognizing the national player of the year in NCAA women's basketball.

The Wade Trophy is awarded by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association to a player who not only excels athletically but serves as a positive role model on and off the court. The Wooden Award is presented by the Los Angeles Athletic Club and is based on a candidate's play over the entire season, including the NCAA Tournament.

The Wade Trophy was given to Ionescu at a ceremony in Amalie Arena, site of the Final Four. The Wooden Award was presented in Los Angeles as part of ESPN's College Basketball Awards show.

"I'm at a loss for words," said Ionescu after claiming the Wade Trophy. "Truly honored and humbled to receive this award. Couldn't be here without my team and coaches and everyone along the way, so thank you guys so much."

Ionescu is the first UO women and fifth Pac-12 player ever to win the Wade Trophy. She is the first in program history and the third from the Pac-12 to win the Wooden Award, which started in 1976 for men's basketball but was expanded to women's basketball in 2004.

Ionescu averaged 19.9 points, 7.4 rebounds and 8.2 assists per game this season while shooting 44.3 percent from the floor, 42.9 percent from three and 88.3 percent at the line. She was the only player in the country to average 15+ points, 7+ rebounds and 7+ assists per game.

The Walnut Creek, Calif., native set an NCAA single-season record with eight triple-doubles this year, adding to her NCAA career record, for both men or women, of 18.

She matched her season-high with 31 points in the Ducks' thrilling Elite Eight win over No. 1 seed Mississippi State as the Ducks advanced to the Final Four for the first time in program history. Ionescu has amassed 1,984 points, 756 rebounds and 792 assists thus far in her collegiate career.

She has a chance to become the first player in NCAA women's basketball history to reach 2,000+ points, 1,000+ rebounds and 1,000+ assists.

The Wade Trophy is named for the late Lily Margaret Wade, who coached Delta State to three national championships. It was first presented in 1978 by SHAPE America/National Association of Girls & Women in Sports. The Wooden Award is named after long-time UCLA men's basketball coach John R. Wooden.
