WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Oregon vs. the field

Oregon heads into the Louisville Regional with no history with the three other teams in the tournament. The Ducks will meet Michigan for the first time on Friday, while a meeting against Louisville or Southeast Missouri State would also be a first between the programs. Oregon head coach Mark Wasikowski started his career at SEMO serving as an assistant in 1997 and 1998. The 1998 team advanced to a NCAA Regional.

Four Ducks earn All-Pac-12 honors

Oregon had four players earn All-Pac-12 Conference honors when the awards were announced on the eve of the Pac-12 Tournament. SR LHP Kolby Somers claimed his second consecutive first-team honor as Oregon's closer, while SO SS Josh Kasevich and SO DH Brennan Milone joined him on the first team. SO OF Anthony Hall was named honorable mention.

Record setting year at the plate

The 2022 season has been one for the record books for Oregon's offense. Ducks hitters have combined to set new single-season school records in five different categories and are on pace to set a sixth. Season bests have been set in home runs (72), RBI (389), runs (423), hits (625) and total bases (944). Oregon is also batting .306 as a team, which matches the single-season record set in 1965.

HEAD COACH MARK WASIKOWSKI

During his five-year tenure as a head coach, Mark Wasikowski has proven he can turn a program around in a hurry. In his first full season at Oregon, Wasikowski led the Ducks to a 12-win improvement over Oregon's win total the season before he became UO's head coach.

The Oregon turnaround came on the heels of an even bigger improvement at Purdue, where he was a first-time head coach. The Boilermakers won 19 more games in Wasikowski's first season at the helm than the team totaled the year before he took over the program.

Wasikowski also coached both teams to postseason appearances after significant playoff droughts at both Purdue and Oregon in year two as head coach. After coaching just 15 games in his first season at the helm of the Ducks because of COVID-19, Wasikowski led Oregon to a 39-win season and a spot as an NCAA Regional host in the 2021 season. The postseason appearance was Oregon's first since the 2015 season.

At Purdue, Wasikowski led the Boilermakers to a 38-win campaign in 2018 and a spot in the NCAA Regionals two years after PU finished the season 10-44. It was Purdue's first postseason appearance since 2012 and just its third in school history.

A Familiar Face in the Postseason

Playing in the postseason is nothing new for Wasikowski. As a player, he captained the 1992 Pepperdine team to a National Championship winning the College World Series.

As an assistant or head coach, Wasikowski helped lead 16 of his 24 teams (omitting 2020 COVID-19 shortened season) to the postseason, including three Super Regional appearances and one trip to the CWS. In four stops as an assistant coach, Wasikowski helped each of the four teams advance to the postseason.

In addition to the two regional tournaments he led his teams to as a head coach, Wasikowski helped Oregon to four postseason appearances in his five seasons as an assistant on George Horton's staff. At Arizona, the Wildcats advanced to the NCAA Tournament seven times in his 10 years on Andy Lopez's staff in Tucson.

In his first job on Lopez's staff as a full-time assistant at Florida, the Gators played in the postseason in two of Wasikowski's three seasons in Gainesville. Coach "Waz" started his career at Southeast Missouri State as a member of Mark Hogan's staff for two seasons, helping the Redhawks to the postseason in 1998. The NCAA Regional appearance was the first in school history for SEMO, and just one of two for the program all-time.

Developing Players and Producing Pros

Throughout his 25 years as a college baseball coach, Wasikowski's players excelled both during their playing careers and once they have moved on to professional baseball.

Wasikowski coached 134 players that have been selected in the Major League Draft, a list highlighted by 42 big leaguers. In his seven seasons in Eugene as an assistant or head coach, the Ducks have had 38 players drafted (two twice) with nine of the players Wasikowski coached or recruited advancing to the Major Leagues.

In 10 seasons at Arizona, Wasikowski coached 59 Major League Draft picks and 27 future big leaguers. As the recruiting coordinator, he assembled the Wildcats' 2012 national championship team, leaving the school before the start of the 2011-12 school year.

Wasikowski's players earned a number of awards during his stops at SEMO, Florida, Arizona, Purdue and Oregon, with 31 earning All-America or freshman All-America honors. Sixteen of his players have claimed all-region honors, while a total of 58 have claimed all-conference recognition with Aaron Zavala becoming Wasikowski's first conference player of the year in 2021.

Oregon (Head Coach: 2020-present; Assistant Coach: 2012-16)

Wasikowski was named the 13th head baseball coach, and the second of the modern era, at Oregon on June 11, 2019.

He could not have dreamed what he would face in his first two years on the job. Just 15 games into his first season, Wasikowski had a team that was gaining confidence and was anxious to open the Pac-12 Conference season against the league's preseason favorite on the road.

Instead of making that trip, the 2020 season abruptly ended and Wasikowski and the rest of the team faced the uncertainty of a worldwide pandemic. The next 11 months were spent revamping how the team would prepare for the 2021 season while dealing with the effects of COVID-19.

The months of preparation paid off in a big way. Oregon started the 2021 season fast and finished strong, advancing to NCAA postseason play and hosting a regional tournament for just the third time in Oregon Baseball's modern history.

Picked to finish seventh in the preseason Pac-12 Conference poll by the league's coaches, Wasikowski had the Ducks in the hunt for their first Pac-12 title until the final weekend of the season. Ultimately, Oregon finished second in the conference, just one game out of first place and was rewarded with the No. 14 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Outfielder Aaron Zavala became just the second Duck in the modern era named to all six major All-America teams. Zavala joined David Peterson (2017) as a unanimous All-America pick, earning first-team All-America honors from the ABCA, Baseball America, D1Baseball, the NCBWA and Perfect Game while claiming second-team recognition from Collegiate Baseball.

With Zavala leading the way, it was a historic season at Oregon with four different Ducks earning All-America honors. First baseman Gabe Matthews and outfielder Tanner Smith claimed third-team All-America recognition from Collegiate Baseball while relief pitcher Kolby Somers was named to the NCBWA's third team. The four All-Americans were not only the most in one season in school history, but also tied for the most in the nation in 2021.

In addition to boasting four All-Americans, Oregon placed eight players on the All-Pac-12 Conference Team including five first-teamers, the most in school history. Zavala earned Pac-12 Conference Player of the Year honors, while Somers, Matthews, Robert Ahlstrom and Kenyon Yovan joined Zavala on the first team. Smith, Cullen Kafka and Josh Kasevich were named honorable mention all-league.

HEAD COACH MARK WASIKOWSKI

Oregon's success during the 2021 season re-wrote the school's record books. Offensively, the Ducks set new school records for runs scored (379), home runs (56) and RBI (334), while also falling just two doubles (118) and four total bases (860) shy of school records ultimately finishing second in both categories. In all, Oregon's offense ranked in the top-10 all-time in 10 categories including hits (3rd/546), walks (3rd/255), batting average (8th/.289), at-bats (8th/1,890) and triples (10th/14).

On the mound, Oregon tied the school record by striking out 513 opposing batters, while finishing second all-time with 9.3 strikeouts per nine innings. The Ducks also finished fifth all-time in wins (39), seventh in fewest walks per nine innings (3.3) and eighth in innings pitched (495.0).

Despite a shortened season in 2020, two of Wasikowski's players claimed postseason honors with designated hitter Yovan and third baseman/outfielder Zavala both earning Collegiate Baseball All-America honors.

Yovan claimed first-team recognition after batting .429 with four home runs. He finished in the top three in the Pac-12 Conference in seven different categories - slugging percentage, runs scored, batting average, on-base percentage, hits, home runs, total bases - and in the top six in two more.

Zavala earned third-team honors as a third baseman after leading the Pac-12 in RBI with 22. He also ranked fourth in the conference in batting average (.418) and hits (23) and 11th in on-base percentage (.493). Nationally, Zavala ranked 11th in RBI per game, 16th in RBI and 18th in toughest to strikeout (three strikeouts in 67 plate appearances).

During Wasikowski's five seasons as an assistant at Oregon, the Ducks compiled a 205-106 (.659) record and advanced to postseason play four times, including the 2012 Super Regionals. UO averaged 41 wins during that stretch, with three seasons of 40-plus wins that included a school-record 48 victories in 2013. From 2012-15 the Ducks won 176 games, tied for the sixth-most in the nation during that four-year span.

Thirteen of Oregon's position players claimed All-Pac-12 honors while Wasikowski served as an assistant and recruiting coordinator, with first baseman Ryon Healy earning ABCA All-Region and All-America honors and shortstop J.J. Altobelli claiming ABCA All-Region accolades. Two Ducks, A.J. Balta and Mitchell Tolman, also garnered Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American recognition.

Purdue (2017-19)

Before taking the reins of the Oregon program, Wasikowski served as the head coach at Purdue for three seasons (2017-19) and was an assistant coach at Oregon the previous five seasons (2012-16).

Wasikowski led Purdue to a 39-win season in 2018, leading the Boilermakers to just the third NCAA Regional appearance in school history and only the second since 1982. The 2018 Purdue team won 22 of its last 27 regular-season games, including a 13-game winning streak. The Boilermakers finished second in the Big Ten regular season, while finishing as the conference tournament runner-up.

During his first season at Purdue, Wasikowski led the Boilermakers to 29 wins, a 19-win improvement from the 10-44 campaign the team had the year before his arrival. Wasikowski was 87-82 (.515) in his three years as the head coach at Purdue, and the three years before his arrival saw the Boilermakers post a combined winning percentage of .272 (43-115).

His consecutive winning seasons with Purdue in 2017 and 2018 marked only the second such occurrence for the school since 2003-04. In his first season at Purdue in 2017, the team was 8-3 in one-run games after posting a 2-13 record in those games the year before.

Arizona (2002-11)

Wasikowski spent 10 seasons as an assistant at Arizona where the Wildcats advanced to the seven regional tournaments, three Super Regionals and one College World Series during his time on staff. He also recruited the bulk of the Arizona team that won the 2012 CWS following his first season with the Ducks.

In his 10 seasons in Tucson, the Wildcats won 60.8 percent (355-229-1) of their games, while finishing with two 40-plus win seasons (42 in both 2007 and 2008) and six seasons with 35 or more wins with a pair of 39-win campaigns included.

Wasikowski coached five All-Americans at Arizona, as well as 10 freshman All-Americans, while 21 of the Wildcats' position players claimed All-Pac-10 Conference honors during his tenure. Fifty-nine of his players from Arizona were drafted with 27 of them advancing to the Major Leagues.

Florida (1999-2001)

Wasikowski spent three seasons in the SEC working at Florida where the Gators advanced to the NCAA Regionals during his last two seasons in Gainesville. UF won 59.4 percent (110-75-1) during Wasikowski's three seasons on staff.

Florida showed marked improvement with Wasikowski on staff from year one to two, winning 13 more games. The 2000 Gator club finished 44-23-1, including an 18-11-1 record in league play and a second-place finish in the SEC Eastern Division. Florida also advanced to the championship game of the SEC Tournament that season.

Three Florida players claimed All-SEC honors from 1999-2001 with outfielder Tim Olson claiming first-team recognition in 2000, while also earning second-team All-America accolades from the ABCA and third-team honors from Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball.

Twenty-nine Gators who played for Wasikowski were selected in the Major League Baseball draft with six of them advancing to the Big Leagues.

Southeast Missouri (1997-98)

Wasikowski started his collegiate coaching career at Southeast Missouri where the Redhawks went 56-55 in two seasons. SEMO showed improvement from year one to year two with Wasikowski on staff winning eight more games and claiming a NCAA Regional berth with a 15-11 win over top-seed Eastern Illinois in the championship game of the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament.

Six Redhawks earned All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in Wasikowski's two seasons, highlighted by LaMonte Collier's first-team selection in 1997. Collier was also one of five Redhawks who played with Wasikowski on staff to be selected in the MLB Draft.

Playing Career and Personal

Wasikowski was a two-time All-West Coast Conference honoree at Pepperdine after spending his first two collegiate seasons at Hawaii and Rancho Santiago Junior College. The Milwaukee Brewers selected him in the 1993 MLB Draft, but Wasikowski opted to remain at Pepperdine to finish his bachelor's degree in business administration while serving as a student assistant under Lopez during the 1994 season. He also has a master's of business administration from Southeast Missouri.

Wasikowski was inducted into the Pepperdine Athletics Hall of Fame along with his teammates from the 1992 national championship team. He led the Waves in doubles as a junior and hits as a senior, guiding Pepperdine back to the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Wasikowski is married to Lori Jo, and the couple has two daughters, Joelle and Kelsey.
