COACH'S QUOTES

FROM COACH PONT

"I thought our defense was excellent, especially as the game progressed. Our tackling improved greatly the second half. We stopped the option play pretty good as we didn't want Reynolds to get the ball outside."

"The layoff really hurt Mitch (Anderson). In his passing as well as his playcalling. He was sharp at times but he didn't have his usual zip all of the time."

"Winning really makes a difference. It's much easier to teach when you win. I doubt if any of our players will be hurt this week."

(Referring to turning points) "After they kicked the field goal, our ball control was a very important factor. We drove deep into their territory which meant that they had a long way to go to score if they got the ball back. Another turning point came when we held them twice and forced them to go for the field goal."

"We blitzed as many as 15 to 20 times during the game. We felt we had to gamble and stop them before we got started. The complexion of the game changed so many times. The wind was an extremely strong factor in favor of the team that had the advantage."

"Reynolds is as good as any back we've played against this year."

FROM COACH READ

"Mitch Anderson is a helluva quarterback and very hard to stop."

"We just didn't play enough, though. I don't just where or why, but we just didn't do it."

"Reynolds obviously ran very well and Norv Turner threw quite well considering the situations he was confronted with. The LBs were coming and he read them right, but they were tipping the ball. He just couldn't seem to put the ball over them."

"Of course, Northwestern is a very physical football team. They really come at you. The wind is definitely a factor here too. Your whole game plan has to be built around it. Passing, we got behind people a couple of times, but the ball flew by a time or two, and we had some costly drops. A couple of short punts contributed to our problems in the second half." (In succession, punts were of -1, 29, and 23 yds).

GAME NOTES.....

Reynolds, with his 196 yd effort, moved into 4th position among all-time Oregon career rushers with 1,749 yds, behind Bobby Moore, Jim Shanley, and George Bell.

NU -- this is the second time Rich Booths has gained over 100 yds. He gained 113 vs. Pitt in 1973 to go along with his 102 yds today. Both efforts were on NU Band Day. Anderson now has 22 career TD passes, needing but one to tie Maurie Daigneau's career mark set for 1969-71.
