Athletics Hall of Fame Members - Soccer

The USC Upstate men's soccer program is arguably the most successful program in the history of USC Upstate. The program has produced the most NCAA Division II and NAIA national tournament appearances, the most All-America selections and the highest winning percentage of any sport at the school. The program also boasts the most Athletics Hall of Fame members at Upstate. With James Eley's induction in 2008, the men's soccer program now has 12 members in the Athletics Hall of Fame.

The NCAA Division II Tournament Years

USC UPSTATE SOCCER: THE NCAA DIVISION II YEARS

The University of South Carolina Upstate soccer team enjoyed tremendous success in the 1980s, as Frank Kohlenstein turned the Spartans into an NAIA power. USC Upstate posted an overall record of 140-52-11 (.717) for the decade, Rifle Field hosted two NAIA National Tournaments, and the Spartans finished third nationally three times. After one year as a dual member of the NAIA and NCAA in 1990, USC Upstate began play as a full member of the NCAA in 1991. While the decade of the '80s was immensely impressive, the program enjoyed even greater success in the 1990s. USC Upstate teams were 159-39-14 (.783), hosted the national championships in 1995 and 1998 as USC Upstate advanced to the title game both years, won three PBC regular season championships and six PBC Tournament titles. The program did not slow down once the year 2000 rolled around and, after a four-year break from the NCAA Tournament, returned to the postseason in 2002 and 2003. Upstate ended its membership in NCAA Division II and the Peach Belt Conference with a final NCAA Tournament appearance in 2006. The Spartans held a record of 250-54-22 in NCAA Division II.

Note: Prior to the 2004 season, the University changed its name to USC Upstate and its nickname to Spartans. All references below to USC Spartanburg, USCS, and Rifles are for historical purposes only.

The 1991 season marked the Rifles' first step into the NCAA national spotlight. Under the direction of first-year head coach Rob Russo, USCS qualified for the NCAA Tournament in its first year as a full member. The Rifles finished with a 17-3-1 record and traveled to Tampa to face a strong Spartans squad in the opening round. A Marlon Burgess goal in the 10th minute gave No. 9 USCS the lead. But Tampa goals in the 31st and 47th minutes gave the No. 5 Spartans the win and spoiled the Rifles' upset bid. Danny Rebeck and Victor Pace were named First Team All-Americans. Rebeck, Pace, Burgess, and Darren Ambrose were named All-South Region. Rebeck was named PBC Player of the Year. Rebeck (18 goals, 11 assists, 47 points) and Burgess (15-12-42) paced the Rifles' scoring attack, while goalkeeper Ambrose posted a 0.51 GAA.

1992

The Rifles opened the 1992 season 1-1-2, and a second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament seemed a long way off. But 15 consecutive wins later, USCS was ranked No. 5, it had won a PBC regular season championship, a PBC Tournament championship and they were poised to meet defending national champion, No. 2 Florida Tech, in the opening round. The Panthers knocked the Rifles out with a 4-0 win. Darren Ambrose, Marlon Burgess, Scott Halkett, Jerry Kandakai and Danny Rebeck were named All-South Region, Burgess was named the PBC Player of the Year and Rob Russo was named PBC Coach of the Year. Rebeck (12-10-34) and Burgess (14-3-31) again led the USCS attack.

USCS entered the 1993 season as the team to beat in the PBC after sweeping the regular season and tournament titles in 1992. A September loss to rival Lander cost the team a regular season championship, but the Rifles gained revenge with a 2-1 overtime win in the PBC finals to advance to the NCAA Tournament. They opened on the road against No. 5 Tampa and walked away with a 4-0 win for the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament victory. The Rifles' opponent in the quarterfinals would be Florida Tech, who entered the game with a perfect 18-0-0 record and ranked No. 1. A goal by Miles Dean in the 72nd minute tied the game at 2-2 and sent it into overtime. The upset for the No. 9 Rifles was not to be, however, as the Panther's Richard Sharpe scored his third goal of the game in the 110th minute. Marlon Burgess was named First Team All-American, and Burgess, James Eley, Scott Halkett and Sean Hartley were named All-South Region. Dean (16-5-37) and Burgess (15-5-35) were the leading scorers.

The NCAA Division II Tournament Years

The 1994 Rifles enjoyed a truly outstanding season. They rolled through the PBC, capturing regular season and tournament championships. They set what was then a school record with 72 goals on their way to a 17-2-1 record and a fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. They used a balanced scoring attack, with five players scoring at least 24 points, but none more than 27. And they earned their first-ever home NCAA Tournament match, finishing No. 2 in the final regular season poll. On Nov. 19, USCS welcomed Tampa to Rifle Field. The Rifles had already defeated the Spartans 2-1 in Tampa, and hoped to repeat that performance in Spartanburg. Tampa had other ideas, defeating USCS, 3-0, on their way to the national championship. Marlon Burgess and Scott Halkett were named First Team All-American and Burgess, James Eley, Halkett, Sean Hartley and Musa Kaba were named All-South Region. Kyle Jordan (11-5-27), Kaba (10-7-27), Brent Askeland (8-10-26), Burgess (8-9-25) and Miles Dean (11-2-24) led the balanced Rifles' offense.

1995

Five in a row! For the second time in four seasons, the Rifles were a little slow out of the gate. After two wins to open the year, USCS went 1-1-2 over the next four and stood at 3-1-2 entering PBC play. A midseason loss to Lander again cost USCS a regular season title, but once again the Rifles avenged the loss in the PBC Championship, topping the Senators, 3-1, in overtime. In the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, No. 6 USCS got two goals from Miles Dean to defeat #10 Presbyterian, 2-0, at Rifle Field. The win set up a rematch with defending national champion and No. 1 ranked Tampa in Florida. A goal by Peter Kirkelos in the 43rd minute was the only scoring of the game as USCS pulled off the upset. The win placed the Rifles in the Final Four, an event that was staged at Rifle Field. In the semifinals, USCS came from behind to defeat No. 12 Mercyhurst, 3-2, in double overtime. A goal by Nestor Chacon in the 114th minute sent the game into the second overtime, where the Rifles won on a Kirkelos goal in the 131st minute. USCS met No. 5 Southern Connecticut State in the finals. The Rifles managed just two shots, and the Owls scored twice in a six minute span in the first half for a 2-0 win. Scott Halkett was named First Team All-American and Miles Dean, James Eley and Halkett were named All-South Region. Dean (17-3-37), Brent Askeland (12-2-26) and Musa Kaba (9-7-25) were the leading scorers.

1997

The 1997 season was quite a reversal from the previous year. The Rifles won 20 games, scored a school-record 102 goals and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals just one year after posting a disappointing 11-7-3 record. USCS opened the season with nine consecutive wins, outscoring their opponents 49-4. The Rifles then lost three of their next four, all by one goal. They snapped out of the slump in a big way, however, winning their next 10 games. Along the way, USCS captured the PBC regular season and tournament championships by winning 10 consecutive games over PBC opponents by a combined score of 49-4. They opened the NCAA Tournament at home versus Alabama-Huntsville. The Rifles took a 1-0 lead on a Brian Armstrong goal in the 46th minute. The Chargers came back to tie the score in the 69th minute, and took the lead in the 82nd minute. But Phil Stolfa answered with the equalizer just 1:45 later, sending the game to overtime. Paul Zgalich scored the game-winner for the Rifles in the 92nd minute. USCS traveled to Boca Raton, Florida for the quarterfinals, and were defeated 3-1 by Lynn. Khari Sharrieff and Paul Zgalich were named Second Team All-American. Henrik Ronnevig, Sharrieff, Kalle Siira and Zgalich were named All-South Region. Sharrieff was named PBC Player of the Year and Greg Hooks was named PBC and South Region Coach of the Year. Sharrieff (29-6-64) and Ronnevig (19-19-57) paced the Rifles' offense.

After winning the PBC regular season and tournament championships, advancing to the NCAA quarterfinals, and posting a 20-4 record, the Rifles were ready to take the next step in 1998. USCS steamrolled to a 17-0 regular season record. Three straight wins in the PBC Tournament gave the Rifles their second consecutive double-double -- champions of the regular season and the tournament. The perfect season also extended the Rifles' winning streak over PBC opponents to 20. In the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, No. 2 USCS got goals from Henrik Ronnevig, Matt Lucas and Phil Stolfa as they defeated No. 7 West Florida 3-1 at Rifle Field. The win set up a rematch with No. 1 ranked Lynn, a team USCS had never defeated, in Florida. The Rifles took an early 1-0 lead on a goal by Khari Sharrieff in the 13th minute. Lynn, playing a man down after a red card, scored the equalizer in the 79th minute. After a scoreless first overtime, things got a little crazy. Rifles' goalkeeper Jeff Negalha was whistled for a foul and issued a red card for a dangerous play in the box at the 107:55 mark. Freshman keeper Chad Todd was inserted to face the ensuing penalty kick. Todd stoned the kick, which bounded to sweeper Rob Mikulski in the right corner. He cleared the ball to Sharrieff, who was waiting just past midfield. Sharrieff attacked the goal, and found a streaking Hasse Eranka, who scored just 16 seconds after the failed penalty kick to give USCS a 2-1 double overtime win and a trip to the Final Four. The 22-0 Rifles were chosen to host the Final Four for the second time in four seasons. In the first semifinal, Southern Connecticut State defeated Seattle Pacific, 3-0, to advance to the title game. In the other semifinal, USCS faced No. 15 Mercyhurst, who entered the game with a 17-3-1 record. The situation was eerily similar to 1995, when the Rifles hosted the Final Four, faced Mercyhurst in the semifinals, and Southern Connecticut State was waiting in the final. USCS got a goal and an assist from Ronnevig, and Aaron Ziehm also scored as the Rifles won, 2-0. Todd, making the start after Negalha's red card, recorded 10 saves to earn the shutout. The championship game was a rematch of the Rifles' thrilling 4-3 double-overtime win in September. A Rifle Field crowd of 2,833 saw the Owls score in the 8th minute, and hold on for a 1-0 win. The Rifles set a NCAA Division II record for winning percentage (23-1, .958). Ronnevig led the nation in assists and was named First Team All-American, as was Sharrieff. Ronnevig, Sharrieff and Kalle Siira were named All-South Region First Team and Ronnevig, Sharrieff, Siira, Mikulski and Negalha were named All-PBC. Ronnevig (12-22-46) and Sharrieff (15-7-37) were the leading scorers.

After going three years without an NCAA Tournament appearance, the 2002 Rifle soccer team began the season with a mission - to restore the program to the elite level it has enjoyed for the better part of a quarter century. USCS has never disappeared from the national scene, but a three-year drought from the NCAA Tournament was too much for head coach Greg Hooks and the Rifle Boys. USCS opened the season as host of the Southern Soccer Classic, scoring 12 goals in two matches to win the tournament, dispatching of Limestone and Mars Hill. A close 3-2 win at Brevard gave the Rifles a wake-up call and USCS responded with eight more victories, outscoring its opponents 47-4 to start the season 11-0-0. The perfect start of the season allowed the Rifles to climb from its preseason ranking of 17th in the country to the No. 3 spot in the NSCAA Top 25 poll. However, the stay was short-lived as rival Lander claimed a 3-2 win in Greenwood, S.C., to end the Rifles perfect run. USCS fell to No. 5 in the poll and went 3-1 the rest of the way heading into the Peach Belt Tournament. USCS recorded three shutouts en route to its eighth PBC Tournament title in the 12-year history of the event. As the No. 1 team in the region and the No. 5 team in the country, USCS was awarded a host site for the first round of the NCAA Tournament. The Rifles and Queens and battled in a quagmire at County University Soccer Stadium. Ricky Charles' unassisted goal in the 53rd-minute was the difference as the Rifles prevailed 1-0 to move on to the quarterfinals against Central Arkansas. Central Arkansas jumped on USCS quickly and took a 2-0 lead early in the second half, eventually settling for a 3-0 win to end the Rifles season and quest for a national title. Despite the exit from the NCAA Tournament, the 2002 season was marked with a renewal of excellence for the Rifles. Charles earned All-America honors, defender Marlon Grant was named the Peach Belt Player of the Year and joined Charles, Chris Baretta, Preben Ringerike, and league Freshman of the Year Jorge Atehortua on the All-Conference team. Ringerike was named the PBC Tournament Most Valuable Player, while Atehortua, Charles, and Grant were named All-Region. Coach Hooks was not left out of the accomplishments either, winning his 200th career match.

The NCAA Division II Tournament Years

The 2003 Rifles entered the season as the sixth-ranked team in the NSCAA Top 25 poll, and it would be a prophetic ranking by year's end. USCS started quickly by winning its first three games of the season before facing Lander in an epic battle. The Bearcats scored in the 17th-minute and played inspired defense to keep USCS scoreless until Preben Ringerike tied the match in the 83rd-minute to tie the match and send it into overtime. Once in OT, Ringerike ended the match 1:51 into the extra period to lift the Rifles to the win. USCS dispatched of all comers and rose to No. 2 in the poll with a 13-0-0 record heading into the final two regular season games of the year. The Rifles had already claimed the regular season Peach Belt Championship and all but clinched a second straight NCAA Tournament berth. USCS took its show on the road to Clinton, S.C., where a defensive minded Presbyterian club awaited the Rifles. In a constant, heavy rain, Presbyterian scored with less than five minutes to play and USCS had two goals called back on controversial offsides calls as the Blue Hose upset USCS, 1-0, to hand the Rifles their first loss on the season. It would later end up being its only official loss. USCS defeated Tusculum, 8-1, to clinch the No. 1 seed in the Southeast Region heading into the postseason. USCS defeated Clayton State and UNC Pembroke (on penalty kicks) for its ninth tournament title in 13 years of the event and its third in a row. USCS hosted the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament. After a first round bye, USCS faced Carson-Newman in the second round. The game headed into overtime where the Eagles prevailed on penalty kicks, ending Upstate's season with a 15-1-2 record. Ricky Charles earned Peach Belt Player of the Year honors and was joined on the All-Conference team by Gary Lynch, Preben Ringerike, and Almir Barbosa. Barbosa was named the PBC Tournament MVP and was joined on the All-Tournament team by Andrew Frame, Josh Richardson and Janiel Simon. Charles, Ringerike, Lynch and Liam Slack earned All-Region honors and Charles picked up his second All-America award. Head Coach Greg Hooks was awarded the Peach Belt Coach of the Year honor for the third time in his career. And the final national ranking...No. 6.

2006

In its last year as a member of NCAA Division II and the Peach Belt Conference, Upstate wanted to go out with a bang. The Spartans started the quest for their first NCAA Tournament bid since 2003 by winning its first two matches before suffering a 1-1 tie to Limestone in what would be a prophetic match. Upstate answered with five straight wins, including a 5-0 drubbing of rival Lander, which was ranked No. 5 at the time. Upstate suffered its first loss of the season in a 1-0 decision to UNC Pembroke. Upstate rattled off three more wins before settling for a tie, a loss and a win to end the regular season with an 11-2-2 record and a 4-2-1 mark in the Peach Belt. The No. 3 seed in the Peach Belt Tournament, the Spartans fell in the semifinals but did enough in the regular season and the league tournament to earn its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance in 16 years as a member of Division II. Upstate faced Limestone in the opening round of the tournament hosted by Lander in Greenwood, S.C., and again battled to a tie after regulation and overtime. However, the Saints prevailed on penalty kicks to end Upstate's run in the tournament and Division II. Liam Slack became the program's only three-time All-American and goalkeeper Ryan Cooper joined him on the All-America list. Cooper, Slack, Nick Buxton and Troy Mellanson earned All-Conference and All-Region honors. Slack became the third-leading scorer in the history of the program and the fourth-leading scorer in Peach Belt Conference history.

NAIA Salute

The teams of today and tomorrow, though they have their own goals, personalities, and levels of achievement, owe a great deal of appreciation to those teams in the 1980s that built a winning tradition and a strong foundation for which the program currently resides.

Names like Frank Kohlenstein (1980-88), the USC Upstate Hall of Fame head coach who started the program in 1979 as a club sport and elevated it to varsity status in 1980; Mario del Pino (1980-83), a USC Upstate Hall of Fame member; Bob Cheshier (1980-83), a member of the 100-point club and an Athletics Hall of Fame member; Carlos Osorio (1980-82), who remains in Spartanburg as the head coach of the Dorman High School boys' soccer team; Majid Ahmaduarjii (1981-84), a member of the 100-point club; Martin Hill (1983-86), a USC Upstate Hall of Fame member; and Danny Rebuck (1988-89, 1991-92), a USC Upstate Hall of Fame member; are just a few players who stand out in the tremendously successful history of the program and as the builders of the tradition that is USC

The 1980 teams combined for a 140-52-11 record and a winning percentage of .717. Kohlenstein helped lead the team to the national final four of the NAIA Tournament in 1983, finishing with a 21-1-1 (.935) record and a third-place finish in the nation. The .935 winning percentage is the second-best mark in school history and stood as the standard bearer for 15 years until the 1998 squad bettered the mark with a .958 winning percentage (23-1-0). The 1983 squad began a string of three consecutive third-place finishes in the national tournament as the 1984 and 1985 teams also advanced to the Final Four. The 1984 team finished with a 16-3-3 record (.796), while the 1985 squad was 15-5-0 (.750).

Kohlenstein coached nine of the 10 years that covered the 1980's, turning the program over to David Linenberger for the 1989 season. When he left, the program had tallied 20 All-Americans, two NAIA Scholar Athletes, 46 All-District Six selections, four District Six Player of the Year honorees, and Kohlenstein was named National Coach of the Year twice. In all, 11 of the top 25 all-time scoring leaders and seven of the 11 men's soccer inductees in the USC Upstate Hall of Fame played or coached in the 1980s. The success enjoyed during the decade of the 1980s helped build the foundation on which the program rests.
