Bruner Named National Mid-Major Player of the Week

Bruner averaged 29.0 points this week including a 30-point outing against Campbell on Saturday afternoon. The Palmetto State native was lights out from the field shooting 62 percent from the floor, 67 percent from beyond the arch and 67 percent from the free throw line. Bruner joins Phlandrous Fleming of Charleston Southern as the only other Big South Player to earn the honor by the College Sports Madness publication. Grant Riller of College of Charleston was named High-Major National Player of the Week and Reggie Perry of Mississippi State was Power-5 Player of the Week.

Spartans Sprint Past Camels in the Second Half

USC Upstate trailed by 10-points going into the halftime break but scored a season high 57-points in the second half against Campbell to pickup their third consecutive win. USC Upstate shot 65 percent from the field and freshman Tommy Bruner ended the game with a career high 30-points. It was the first time in three seasons in which the Spartans overcame a double-digit halftime deficit. USC Upstate eclipsed the 90-point threshold for the third time this season and the Spartans are 6-1 when shooting 50 percent or better from the field.

Program Win No. 800!

With a 77-74 victory over Presbyterian on Thursday night the USC Upstate men's basketball program eclipsed their 800th win in program history. The 800th win was a thriller at Presbyterian as the Spartans won on a last second shot by sophomore guard Everette Hammond.

Hammond Plays Hero

With 4.1 seconds left to go in the game Everette Hammond in-bounded the pass to Nevin Zink who passed it right back to Hammond. The sophomore guard split a pair of defenders as he crossed the mid-court line and threw up a last second three near the top of the key. The basketball rattled in and the Spartans bench mobbed Hammond for his heroics. The play ended the night at No. 3 on Sportcenter's Top 10 list.

Bruner Career Night

USC Upstate freshman guard Tommy Bruner scored a career high 28-points in the Spartans 77-74 win over Presbyterian on Thursday night. His 28-point outburst was just his second career game of 20 or more points. Since the conference portion of the schedule began Bruner has reached double-figures in eight of nine contests.

Spartans Surge Past Bulldogs

With 6:07 to play in the game USC Upstate was holing on to a 58-57 advantage over the UNC Asheville Bulldogs. The Bulldogs had been slowly chipping away at the Spartans lead and they seemed on the verge of taking their first lead of the second half. Moments later sophomore Bryson Mozone knocked down back-to-back three-pointers and the Spartans never looked back as they ended the game on an 18-3 run. Everette Hammond finished the game with an impressive stat line of 23pts, 7rebs, 5asts and a pair of steals. Tommy Bruner contributed 17-points and Mozone added an additional 10-points in the victory for USC Upstate. The win snapped a four game losing streak for USC Upstate.

Mozone off the Bench

Sophomore forward Bryson Mozone is currently averging 9.8 points per contest which leads the Big South Conference this season. The USC Upstate bench is averaging 26.89 points per game this season.

Watson's Career Outing Not Enough for Spartans

USC Upstate freshman forward Jatayveous Watson scored a career high 11-points on Saturday afternoon but it was not enough as the Spartans fell 83-67 to Gardner-Webb. The Peach State native also hauled in a career high 6-rebounds and tied his career high in blocked shots with two in the loss.

I Want It That Way

With an 83-73 win over Hampton last week the Spartans bested their win total from last season by picking up their seventh overall win and their second conference win. Four Spartans ended the game in double-figures against the Pirates, Everette Hammond (20), Tommy Bruner (16), Brandon Martin (11) and Thomas Booker (10). Bruner went a perfect 10-for-10 from the free throw line and Cartier Jernigan had 9-points, 9-rebounds, 6-assists and a pair of steals in the contest. USC Upstate will be looking for their second three-game winning streak of the season on Thursday night against Radford.

Zealous Zink

USC Upstate sophomore center Nevin Zink recorded a career high 21-points in Saturday's win over Longwood Univeristy. The Newton, Conn. native went 5-of-6 from the field and converted a career high 11 free throws on Saturday afternoon.

Winning Streak!

With a win over VMI on Sunday afternoon the Spartans recorded their third consecutive win to close out the month of December. The last time USC Upstate won three consecutive games was during the 2016-17 season when they won three in row from Decemer 4-13. USC Upstate also eclipsed the 90-point threshold for the second consecutive game on Sunday afternoon against VMI. The last time the Spartans achieved that milestone was also during the 2016-2017 season (Dec. 20 - 30.).

Young Guns

USC Upstate is the only team in the nation in which 95% of their scoring comes from either freshman or sophomores. St. Bonaventure is second in the nation at 89% and Belmont rounds out the top three with 82%.

December to Remember

Since the start of December the Spartans have averaged 79 points per contest and have gone 3-1 over the stretch. Freshman Tommy Bruner is currently averaging a team high 19.8 points per contest and is shooting 50% from the field. Everette Hammond is right behind the freshman at 16.8 points per game and Bryson Mozone is contributing 11.5 points per contest off the bench.

The Streak is Over

Wednesday night's win over S.C. State ended a 19-game road losing streak for the men's basketball team. The streak lasted 382 days with their last road win coming against Western Michigan on December 1, 2018.

Bruner Named Big South Freshman of the Week

Bruner started out the week by resetting his career high in points with 19 against Eastern Kentucky. The freshman followed it up with an 18 point outburst against Furman on Sunday afternoon. For the first time in his career Bruner has recorded back-to-back double-digit outings.

Bruner weekly stats averaged out to 18.5 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists while making 52 percent of his shots from the field and 38.5 percent of his shots from beyond the arch. The freshman was also a perfect 6-6 from the free throw line this week.

This is the first player of the week honor for Bruner in his career. Bruner becomes the first men's basketball player to win a weekly award in the Big South era and the first since Michael Buchanan's ASUN Player of the Week honor in February 2017. The last Spartan to earn a Freshman of the Week accolade was Mike Cunningham in February of 2016.

A Tale of Two Halves

USC Upstate scored 43 points in the second half against Furman University on Sunday afternoon but it was not enough as the Paldins held on for an 82-74 victory. The Spartans recorded a better shooting percentage than their opponent with a 56% shooting clip from the field. Bryson Mozone tied his career high with 22 points as he was 6-of-8 from behind the arch. Tommy Bruner scored 18 points and Everette Hammond contributed 17 points and a team high 7 rebounds in the loss to Furman. In the opening half of play the Spartans got off to a slow start as they scored just 29 points in the opening half of play. An 8-0 run by Furman to start the game forced USC Upstate to play catch for almost the entire game.

Quartet of Spartans Reset Career High's against ECU

USC Upstate sophomore guard Everette Hammond tied his career high in points with 27 against Eastern Kentucky on Tuesday night. Hammond also reset his career high in rebounds (9), free throws made (11) and free throws attempted (12). Freshman Tommy Bruner scored a career high 19 points against ECU and tied his career high in rebounds with 5. Bruner was a perfect 6-6 from the free throw line, which was another personal best for the Palmetto State Native.

Josh Aldrich reset his career high in both points (12), free throws made (6) and free throws attempted (7). The sophomore also tied his career best in rebounds with 7 boards on the night. Freshman forward Jatayveous Watson made his collegiate debut on Tuesday night and went 2-for-3 from the field and capped it off with a alley-oop dunk late in the game.

Winning at the Line

For the first time in nearly three years the Spartans recorded 30-made free throws as a team against Eastern Kentucky. USC Upstate went 30-38 from the line their most since 2018 when they attempted the same number against Brevard College.

Spartans Falter in Final Moments against Youngstown State

The USC Upstate men's basketball team clawed their way back and briefly held a two point lead with four minutes remaining in the contest. The Spartans did not score a final basket over the final two minutes of action, despite having four players end the game in double-figures.

Putting Up a Fight

USC Upstate held a 43-40 advantage over Louisville the No.2 team in the nation on Wednesday night before falling by a final score of 76-50. Bryson Mozone led the way with 14-points off the bench for USC Upstate.

2019-20 USC Upstate Men's Basketball

Zink Streak

USC Upstate sophomore center Nevin Zink has started every game of his career. Zink will look to start his 40th consecutive game on Sunday afternoon against Furman.

Road Work

The Spartans have not had many favorable outcomes on the road over the past two seasons. USC Upstate has lost 16-straight dating back to last December. This season the Spartans have lost by an average of 20 points on the road. Inside the friendly confines of the G.B. Hodge Center the Spartans are blowing out opponents by an average of 41 points.

Mozone's Near Double-Double Not Enough

Sophomore guard Bryson Mozzone (North Augusta, S.C.) scored 15 of his team high 17 points in the second half against North Carolina Central, but it was not enough as the Eagles defeated the Spartans 73-64 in their home opener on Monday night.

Helping Mozzone out on the offensive end was fellow sophomores Josh Aldrich (Wilmington, N.C.) and Nevin Zink (Newtown, Conn.) who both contributed 10 points in the loss. For Aldrich this was the first time in his career that he recorded back-to-back double digit scoring outings. Zink broke out of his slow start to the season with a 5-for-6 shooting performance against the Eagles.

Home Sweet Home

The USC Upstate men's basketball team steam rolled through Truett-McConnell in their home opener 103-62 on Friday night at the Eddie and Ann Payne arena inside the G.B. Hodge Center.

Sophomore guard Everette Hammond (Silver Springs, Md.) led the Spartan charge with a career high 27 points. Fellow sophomores Josh Aldrich (Wilmington, N.C.) and Bryson Mozzone (North Augusta, S.C.) each contributed 11 points in the contest, while Brandon Martin (Miami, Fla.) and Cartier Jernigan (Charlotte, N.C.) added 10 points each. For Martin this is the third time in his career he has had back-to-back double digit performances.

Defensively USC Upstate (1-1) swarmed to the ball and caused 27 turnovers for Truett-McConnell (2-1). The Spartans stole the ball 19 times (fourth most in school history) against the Bears, with Jernigan leading the team with six swipes (tied for second most in school history). USC Upstate outrebounded Truett-McConnell 43-25 as Aldrich and Jernigan tied for the team lead with six rebounds.

Offensively the Spartans came out ready to go and seemed locked in. USC Upstate opened the game on a 30-2 run and never looked back as they went wire-to-wire for their first victory of the season. The Spartans connected on 41 field goal attempts, tying them for the fourth most in school history. The 103 points scored was the fifth highest total in school history as well.

Spartans Falter in Season Opener

Freshman guard Tommy Bruner (Columbia, S.C.) led the Spartans offense with 14 points in the contest. Brandon Martin (Miami, Fla.) was second on the team in points with 13 and he hauled in a team high eight rebounds in the contest.

USC Upstate Picked 11th in Big South Preseason Poll

The Spartans received a total of 64 points in the Big South Men's Basketball Preseason Poll and has been predicted to finish in 11th place according to the league's head coaches.

Defending Big South Tournament champion Radford is the favorite to win the conference this season after garnering 28 first-place votes and 357 points. Winthrop and Hampton each collected two first-place votes and were second and third, respectively, with 280 and 253 points. Campbell and Charleston Southern follow in fourth and fifth place at 239 and 231 points. Gardner-Webb picked up the final first-place vote and was projected sixth with 230 points.

High Point was seventh with 192 points and UNC Asheville eighth at 151 points. Presbyterian College (9th, 104 points) and Longwood (10th, 77 points) round out the preseason poll.

Dave Dickerson is in his second season as the head men's basketball coach at USC Upstate.

Dickerson was introduced as the program's tenth head coach during a press conference on April 5, 2018 at the G.B. Hodge Center.

A native of Olar, S.C., Dickerson has over 20 years of college coaching experience with stops at Gardner-Webb, James Madison, Radford, Maryland, Tulane and Ohio State. He was hired at USC Upstate after spending one year as a scout for the NBA's Utah Jazz.

Dickerson spent seven seasons on the coaching staff for Thad Matta at Ohio State from 2010-16, serving as the associate head coach for the last six. In those seven years on the sidelines for the Buckeyes, Dickerson was a part of 181 victories, two Big 10 Regular Season titles, three Big Ten Tournament title game appearances, three Sweet 16 appearances, an Elite Eight run in 2013 and the 2012 Final Four. Ohio State participated in NCAA Tournament play in five of his seven seasons.

Dickerson spent five years as head coach at Tulane prior to being hired at Ohio State. He compiled a 68-84 record, 31-47 in Conference USA, after inheriting a Green Wave basketball program that had registered just one winning season during the five years prior to his arrival. He guided the Green Wave to back-to-back winning seasons in 2006-07 and 2007-08, a feat that had not been achieved in the 11 previous years. To start his tenure, he led Tulane to four consecutive opening-round wins in the Conference USA Tournament.

Prior to being named head coach for the Green Wave, Dickerson served as assistant coach at Maryland, his alma mater, under head coach Gary Williams for nine years. In 2004-05, Dickerson was elevated to associate head coach. He helped the Terrapins to nine consecutive postseason appearances, including five Sweet 16's, two Final Fours and the program's first-ever National Championship in 2002. Maryland also enjoyed eight 20-win seasons during his tenure. Serving as the lead recruiter for the Terrapins, Dickerson recruited and coached two NBA lottery picks – Steve Francis (1999) and Chris Wilcox (2002) – and four overall first round picks in Keith Booth (1997), Francis, Wilcox and Juan Dixon (2002).

After leaving James Madison, Dickerson was on the coaching staff at Radford for four seasons as an assistant coach. The recruiting classes he helped assemble were ranked among the nation's best. The 1994 season saw the Highlanders compile a 20-8 record and a school-record winning percentage of 71.4. Radford also gained national acclaim and became one of the Big South's most successful programs during his tenure. Radford defeated LSU, 73-72, on Dec. 30, 1993, to gain the biggest victory in school history.

Soon after graduating from college, Dickerson began his coaching career at Gardner-Webb for one season. He then joined former head coach Lefty Driesell at James Madison for a 1992 season that culminated in a bid to the NIT.

Coaching accolades for Dickerson throughout his coaching career include AFLAC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2003, the ACC's No. 1 Assistant Coach as named by Basketball News (2003-04), Athlon Sports' No. 4 Assistant Coach in the nation (2003-04) and an "Assistant Coach on the Rise" as tabbed by ESPN's Andy Katz. He was the National Association of Basketball Coaches District 8 Coach of the Year in 2007-08.

Dickerson played forward at Maryland from 1986-89 and earned four varsity letters. He was co-captain as a senior in 1989. Dickerson saw action in the 1986 and 1988 NCAA Tournaments and was a member of three teams that advanced to the ACC Tournament semifinals. The Terps won 19 games his freshman year and 18 during his junior season. Dickerson was a starter on the 1989 team that became the first No. 8 seed to defeat a No. 1 seed in the ACC Tournament when the Terps knocked off N.C. State.

He graduated from Maryland in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in government and politics.

Dickerson and his wife, Laurette, have one son, Dave III.
