OBITUARIES

GOULET

Jennifer Goulet, a longtime official and club committee member, passed away on March 22, 2026. She was 55.

Jennifer, of North Providence, Rhode Island, was a passionate member of the figure skating community, dedicating many years to the sport she loved. She was a member of the Yarmouth Ice Club on Cape Cod and later the Hayden Recreation Centre Figure Skating Club in Lexington, Massachusetts. Widely respected for her fairness and expertise, she served as a National Showcase judge and referee, sectional singles and pairs judge and referee and gold-level test judge.

Jen was also a committed leader and volunteer, serving as vice president and secretary of the New England Interclub Council and as Eastern sanction officer for U.S. Figure Skating. As chief referee for numerous competitions, she was a steady and trusted presence, mentoring others and leaving a lasting impact on the skating community.

Jen, known in the figure skating world as “Lola Goulet” for her signature big sunglasses, flowing curls and fashionable scarves, brought style, sparkle and joy wherever she went. She had a vibrant personality, a love of all things pink and bling and a fondness for apple martinis, but most of all, she will be remembered for her generosity, warmth and deep love for her friends and family.

Jen was the beloved wife of Michael Goulet for 27 years. Born in South Kingstown, she was the daughter of Robert Cavallaro and Michelle Brousseau. She took immense pride in her role as a mother to her boys, Connor, Noah and Aidan, and found her greatest joy in the moments they shared together.

She is also survived by her loving parents and her sisters, Annalee Cavallaro and Dr. Alexandra Cavallaro. She was predeceased by her brother, Bobby Cavallaro.

Donations in Jen’s memory may be made to the New England Inter-Club Council, which will honor Jen’s impact on the sport through the creation of an annual scholarship in her name, to be awarded to a deserving skater. She inspired athletes, coaches, officials and volunteers alike through her expertise, dedication and deep love of skating.

Donations may be sent to New England Inter-Club Council, 90 Cherry Street, Gardner, MA 01440

JOHNS

Johnny Johns, a U.S. champion in pairs and ice dance in the 1970s and a longtime, beloved World and Olympic coach, passed away on Feb. 20, 2026, following complications from knee surgery. He was 74.

In 1973, Johns competed at the U.S. Championships in both the ice dance and pairs disciplines, a feat rarely undertaken at such a high level. That year, he earned the bronze medal in pairs with partner Emily Benenson and won the title in ice dance with partner Mary Campbell.

Johns finished his ice dance career at the 1973 World Championships with a career-best sixth-place finish.

As a pairs skater, he won U.S. titles with Melissa Militano in 1974 and 1975. He was a World Team member from 1971-75, with a career-best sixth-place finish at the 1975 World Championships.

Johns was also an accomplished singles skater during this time and was known for being able to rotate a double Axel in both directions.

He attended traditional schools during his skating career and studied at the University of Delaware in the early 1970s while under the tutelage of his coach, Ron Ludington.

Johns was a featured performer with the Ice Capades from 1976-79.

Following a successful career as a skater, Johns embarked on a coaching career that spanned more than 35 years. He spent 27 years at the Detroit Skating Club before moving to the Arctic Edge Ice Arena in Canton, Michigan, in 2006, and then to Hertz Arena in Estero, Florida, in January 2019.

Johns’ teams included 1997 World Junior pairs champions and 1999 U.S. senior pairs champions Danielle and Steve Hartsell; 2006 World and Olympic pairs skaters Marcy Hinzmann and Aaron Parchem; and 2007 U.S. senior pairs champions Brooke Castile and Benjamin Okolski.

“Johnny saw things in people and brought out the best in them,” said Mitch Moyer, who coached with Johns from 1988 to 2006. “He made it fun to skate. He kept his smile, kept you laughing. He always had a way of keeping things in perspective. The skaters who worked with him loved him.”

“He was more than just a coach. He believed in me when I didn’t believe in myself and helped me rise to my full potential,” U.S. Olympian and Johns’ student Marcy Hinzmann (Simpson) said. “It wasn’t more reps, it wasn’t training harder. It was training smarter, actually enjoying the process, and finding something to be grateful for. I will miss him dearly. My whole family will; he was so good to us.”

Later in his career, Johns worked with multiple World and Olympic champion ice dancers alongside Marina Zoueva, his long-time partner in coaching and in life.

“Johnny brought a unique balance of expertise and professionalism at the highest level, as well as a passion and joy for the everyday and a sense of humor that always brightened the atmosphere in the arena,” Zoueva said. “With Johnny, we always worked hard but laughed even harder. The joy he shared with us all will be terribly missed.”

Johns is survived by Zoueva, his daughter, Jillian Johns (Pounders); Jillian’s husband, Scott Pounders; and their sons, Phoenix and Ozzy.

JOSEPH

Dr. Ronald B. Joseph, the 1964 U.S. Olympic bronze medalist in pairs with sister Vivian, passed away on Jan. 20, 2026, after more than a three-year battle with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS). He was 81.

Ronald and Vivian, who grew up and trained in Chicago, enjoyed immense success on the ice. In addition to Olympic bronze, they earned the silver medal at the 1965 World Championships, the gold medal at the 1965 North American Championships and the U.S. title in 1965.

They were known for their speed and performing breathtaking spins and jumps. Sixty years later, the two were inducted into the U.S. Figure Skating Hall of Fame (January 2024) — an honor that Joseph’s son Jeremy accepted on his behalf.

Dr. Joseph went on to a career in medicine. He became a renowned orthopedic surgeon, training at Northwestern University and the Mayo Clinic. Dr. Joseph’s 50-year medical career focused on surgery of the shoulder, hand and wrist, as he became one of the first surgeons to pioneer arthroscopic shoulder repair. He practiced in Jacksonville, Crystal River and Orlando, Florida; Aspen, Colorado; and Phoenix and Kingman, Arizona.

He and wife Krista raised two boys and two girls. Dr. Joseph’s also had one son by his first marriage.

WALKER

Wilma Piper Walker, a beloved teacher and mentor for figure skaters throughout western New York, died Jan. 2 in Peoria, Arizona. She was 85.

She taught primarily at the Amherst Skating Club, where she not only guided many students to their gold medals in ice dancing, but where she ran and participated in Learn to Skate programs for more than 35 years.

A former competitive figure skater, Wilma was a graduate of Buffalo State where she specialized in teaching children with learning disabilities before focusing her considerable teaching skills on skaters of all ages.

After retiring to Arizona with her husband Don in 2001, she began a second skating career as a judge for U.S. Figure Skating.

She is survived by her husband and two daughters. Gifts in her memory can be made to the U.S. Figure Skating Memorial Fund, 20 First St., Colorado Springs, CO 80906-3624
