SOUTH ALABAMA NOTES

DANIELS & ELLIS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SUN BELT

The Jaguars' junior guard Marquita Daniels was selected to the preseason all-Sun Belt First Team while junior center Chyna Ellis was selected to the second team.

Daniels is the first Jag to be named to the Preseason First Team All-Sun Belt Conference since Shakira Nettles in the 2009-10 season and the second non-senior to earn the preseason nod. Whitney Woodard garnered the preseason selection as a sophomore for the 2004-05 campaign.

In her second season in Mobile as a starter, Daniels led the Jaguars in scoring with 11.3 points to rank 17th in the conference. She also ended the season ranked third in the league in steals with 2.3 per game. She has the ninth-highest scoring average and second-best steals per game among returning league players.

Daniels' 61 steals were third-most in a season by a sophomore in program history. She also grabbed 3.5 rebounds per contest and was third on the team in assists (53). Scoring double figures 16 times, she led the Jaguars in scoring in 13 games while also pacing the team in steals on 16 occasions.

Daniels was named the Sun Belt Conference's Student-Athlete of the Week after leading the Jaguars to wins on the road to Troy (75-71) and at home against Appalachian State (71-55), averaging 19.5 ppg and 4.0 rpg, while also adding five assists and three steals in her two games. Daniels posted the first double-double of her career with 11 points and 10 rebounds at Arkansas State and had a season-high 26 points against UL Lafayette.

Ellis continued to elevate herself as one of the top players in the conference a year ago. She earned third-team all-conference accolades and became the first Jaguar to be selected as the league's defensive student-athlete of the year. She started 29 of the 30 games played in and averaged 8.0 points and 7.7 rebounds per game in 24.5 minutes of action per outing.

Ranked third on the team in scoring, Ellis also led the club on the glass. She topped the Sun Belt and ranked 22nd in Division I in blocks with 2.73 per game, fifth-most among sophomores. Her 82 blocks were four shy of tying the school's single season record. She also had two or more rejections in 26 games, a stretch of 16-consecutive multi-block games during the season and five or more blocks six times during the year.

Ellis shot 40.4 percent from the field and recorded five double-doubles on the year after recording 10 double-figure scoring outings and eight double-figure rebounding outings. She scored a career-high 17 points and pulled down 12 rebounds at Georgia State on 7-of-14 shooting. She also had double-doubles against Spring Hill, at UL Lafayette, at UT Arlington and at Texas State.

PRESEASON PROGNOSTICATION

The South Alabama women were picked to finish fourth by the 12 league coaches in the preseason poll released back on Oct. 18. The fourth-place prediction is the highest ever for the Jaguars under fourth-year head coach Terry Fowler. Last year USA was picked to finish 10th and surpassed the expectations of the conference's coaches, ending up in fifth place.

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

South Alabama has four members – Candice Williams (2), India Hall (2), Marquita Daniels (1), Alyese Givens (1) – on its 2016-17 roster that won at least one state championship during their prep career. The players have a total of six championships between the four of them.

THE GREAT WALL OF CHYNA

Chyna Ellis ranked first last season in the Sun Belt and 22nd in the NCAA in blocks – fourth-most among sophomores nationally – with 2.73 per game. Her 82 rejections were 24th-most nationally. With her block at Appalachian State (2/18), Ellis moved past former Jag Genevieve Delk (65 – 2003-04) for second on South Alabama's single-season blocks chart. She was just four blocks shy of tying the single-season mark of 86 set by LaShanda Jenkins during the 1982-83 season.

Ellis has recorded five or more blocks six times last year and in her 20 conference games, she averaged 3.05 bpg. She has had two or more blocks in 26 of her 30 games.

Ellis didn't record a block against Troy (2/16), marking just the third time this season that she hasn't registered one in a game. It also snapped a streak of 16-straight outings in which she had had multiple blocks in a game.

With her two blocks against UL Lafayette (1/21), Ellis passed former Jag Adrian Vickers for second-most by a sophomore in program history. She also moved into fifth place all alone, passing Shaniece Brunner (98 – 2006-07, '09-10). In the last game of the year against Troy (3/9), she registered three blocks to move into fourth place ahead of Orphie Moore (1984-87) with 138 in her career.

TERRY FOWLER

HEAD COACH | LANE [TENN.] COLLEGE, '86 | THIRD SEASON
OVERALL RECORD: 234-236 | SOUTH ALABAMA RECORD: 28-59 (19-39 SUN BELT)

Terry Fowler was named the University of South Alabama women's basketball program's ninth head coach on April, 17, 2013 coming off two NCAA Division II Tournament appearances in the previous three years at North Alabama.

Fowler will enter his 18th season as a head coach during the 2016-17 season and the Jackson, Tenn., native now holds a career coaching record of 234-236 (.498) and a 28-59 record during his first three seasons at South Alabama.

While at South Alabama, Fowler has coached four all-Sun Belt Conference selections – Meghan Dunn ('13-14), Breanna Hall ('14-15), Marquita Daniels and Chyna Ellis ('15-16) – all third-team selections. Ellis also became the first Jaguar to be selected as the league's defensive student-athlete of the year ('15-16).

Under his direction, the 2015-16 season saw a marked change in the program as South Alabama as USA finished plus-10 in the wins column from the previous year. After recording a 5-24 record during the '14-15 season, USA ended this past season with a 15-15 overall record – for a 9.5 games improved mark. The Jaguars' turnaround was tied with Binghamton and Saint Louis for eight-best among Division I NCAA programs.

The Jags set a new school record with 174 blocks during the '15-16 season, which ranked 21st in the NCAA. USA also led the Sun Belt and tied for 11th nationally with 5.8 blocks per game. South Alabama was ninth in the NCAA in field-goal percentage defense (.347) and 46th in scoring defense (58.0). South Alabama led the conference in blocks, field-goal defense and in defensive rebounding (27.3).

Ellis ranked as one to the top post defenders nationally during the '15-16 campaign as she led the Sun Belt in blocking for the second-straight season. Ellis also ranked 22nd in the NCAA in that category – fourth-most among sophomores nationally – with 2.73 per game. Her 82 blocks were 24th-most nationally and were four blocks shy of tying the single-season mark of 86 set by LaShanda Jenkins during the '82-83 season.

In his second season, USA was tied for second in the SBC in blocks with 4.6 per game, just 0.1 behind Texas-Arlington in first. Hall closed out her Jaguar career with an outstanding final season during the 2014-15 campaign. She ranked among the conference leaders in numerous categories in the final rankings, leading the league in three-point shooting (.408), and ranking second in three-pointers per game (2.37), third in free-throw percentage (.820) and sixth in scoring (15.4). Hall also ranked 27th nationally from behind the arc.

Fowler also had a pair of freshman contribute significantly during the '14-15 season. Daniels ranked in the top 10 in several program freshman marks – steals (second – 54), three-pointers made (fourth – 32), free-throws (seventh – 64), and points (10th – 290). Daniels also set a new Mitchell Center record for points in a game by a South Alabama player with a 37-point effort versus Georgia State on Feb. 7, 2015.

Ellis, a fellow freshman of Daniels during the '14-15 season, led the conference in blocks with 2.0 per outing. Her 56 blocks were the most ever by a freshman at South Alabama. Ellis also ranked fifth in the Sun Belt on the glass with 7.8 rpg, while shooting 41.1 percent from the field.

During his first season at the helm, the Jaguars led the Sun Belt in three-point percentage (.354), three-point field-goal defense (.280) and tied with Troy for most three-pointers per game (6.5). USA ended the season ranked 26th nationally in three-point field-goal defense and 38th in three-point shooting.

Fowler's first Sun Belt Conference victory came in his very first league contest as the Jaguars defeated preseason favorite Western Kentucky, 74-65, on Jan. 1, 2014.

Fowler arrived at USA after spending the last seven seasons at the helm at North Alabama where he guided the Lions to the NCAA Tournament in both 2011 and '13 while winning 20-plus games in each of those years. During the 2012-13 campaign, UNA posted a 20-11 mark – going 12-6 in the Gulf South Conference – while qualifying for the event, and after ranking in the top 20 nationally in field-goal percentage defense and scoring defense he was named the league's Coach of the Year. Fowler was also chosen the GSC East

Division Coach of the Year in 2011 after leading the Lions to a 12-0 record in conference action; UNA would finish the year 21-7 after advancing to the NCAA Tournament, its first appearance in the event since the 1993-94 campaign.

At UNA, he inherited a program that had won 11 games combined the two previous seasons, and in his first year directing the team, Fowler led the Lions to a 14-14 overall finish and their first berth in the conference tournament since 2003. He guided UNA to a winning record in each of the last five years, posting an overall mark of 115-87 (56.9%) — which included going 57-32 (64%) in Gulf South play — during his tenure.

Twelve Lions earned all-GSC recognition in Fowler’s seven seasons, with a pair selected the league’s East Division Player of the Year. UNA also had the conference Freshman of the Year in 2009. Amber Rutherford led the NCAA Division II in free-throw percentage twice, during the 2006-07 season where she hit 93.7 percent of her attempts and during the following season where she hit 93.6 percent of her attempts at the charity stripe. He has also had three academic all-GSC selections during his time at North Alabama – Ashley Moore (2008-09), Julia Myers (2011-12) and Lauren Faris (2012-13).

Seven players were honored 20 times as GSC Player of the Week under his tutelage at UNA.

Fowler has ties to the Mobile community as well, having worked at both USA and Spring Hill prior to taking over the reins of the UNA program. He was an assistant on the Lady Jaguar staff during the 2000-01 and ’01-02 seasons, with his responsibilities including coach guards, recruiting, scouting, strength and conditioning, and handling team travel. During his first year, USA’s 13 wins were the most posted by the program since 1991, while in his second season the Lady Jags finished 17-11 for the school’s first winning record since 1990. USA ranked in the top 25 in the country both years in scoring defense, finishing sixth in the category Fowler’s second year on the staff.

After serving as an assistant at SHC from 1993-98, he was promoted to head coach prior to the start of the ’98-99 campaign. In his second season as a collegiate head coach, Fowler led the Badgers to their first-ever NAIA Tournament appearance and 23-11 overall record while winning both the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference regular season and tournament titles. For his efforts, he was named the league Coach of the Year at the end of the year.

Fowler returned to Spring Hill in 2002, and during the next four years led the Badgers to their first-ever NAIA national ranking and the semifinals of the GCAC Tournament on two occasions, while helping SHC finish among the top 15 in the nation in scoring defense three consecutive seasons. He served as chair of the GCAC women’s basketball committee and was the Region 6 representative on the NAIA Kodak/WBCA All-America selection committee while in his second stint at the school, also implementing “Reading Badgers” and mentoring programs in, which his student-athletes assisted in the community.

He played his first two years on the collegiate level at Lincoln Memorial (Tenn.) before going on to earn all-Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honors as a senior at Lane (Tenn.), where he was also a two-time Academic All-SIAC selection. Fowler earned his degree in business administration from the school in 1986, and added a master’s degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy in 1994.

Fowler and his wife, Carolyn, have four children — Megan, Geoffrey, Morgan and Madison.

Mitchell Center

The Mitchell Center enters its 17th year as home of both the South Alabama men's and women's basketball teams during the 2015-16 season.

A dream was realized in 1999 with the opening of the 10,000-seat Mitchell Center Arena, giving the Jaguar basketball teams a state-of-the-art, on-campus facility. The arena has come to be known as "The Jungle".

The first South Alabama basketball games were played in the Mitchell Center on November 23, 1999. The Jaguar women hosted Illinois-Chicago (L, 55-71), while the men's team defeated Alabama State 77-59. The women's first victory in their new home arena came on December 13, 1999.

The South Alabama women's 100th victory in the Mitchell Center came during the 2009-10 season with a 68-67 win over Arkansas State (1/10).

In 2001, South Alabama and the Mitchell Center played host to the first-ever combined Sun Belt Conference Men's and Women's Basketball Tournament.

The Jaguars have twice hosted the Sun Belt Conference Championships, doing so in '01 and in '08.

USA also hosted Florida State in the opening round of the 2004 Women's National Invitational Tournament, the first national postseason event held at the arena.

In 16 seasons of play at the Mitchell Center, the Jaguar men are 161-74, while USA's women are 145-80. Prior to the opening of the Mitchell Center, Jaguar teams played their home games at both the Mobile Civic Center and Jaguar Gym.

The lower level of the building houses both the men's and women's basketball offices and locker rooms, as well as visiting locker rooms, officials' dressing rooms and several class rooms, including USA's meteorology department.

During the summer of 2014, both the men's and women's basketball had significant renovations to their locker room and lounge areas.

Outside of South Alabama athletics, the Mitchell Center has served as a multi-purpose facility hosting events ranging from concerts to commencement ceremonies and other large events.

The facility has also served host to other athletic events. Multiple NBA exhibition contests have been played in the arena, as well as a few Harlem Globetrotter games. During the 2000 season, the arena was also home to the Mobile Seagulls, a former indoor football team. For several years, the Mitchell Center was also one of the Regional sites for the Alabama High School Athletic Association basketball tournament.

The seating capacity for concerts can be topped out at 10,800, while Motorsport and Circus events can accomodate 8,777.
