(18) DAVID BUEHLER—Placekicker, 6-2, 225, Sr./Sr., Anaheim, CA (Canyon HS/Santa Ana JC)

CAREER: He has hit 26-of-33 field goals in his career, including 6-of-11 of 40 yards or longer, as well as 117-of-120 PATs. Some 105 of his 180 career kickoffs (58.3%) have pinned opponents within the 20-yard line, with 69 touchbacks (38.3%).

2008: The strong-legged Buehler spent his second season as USC's placekicker as a senior in 2008 and was particularly effective. Overall in 2008 while appearing in all 13 games, he hit 65-of-66 PATs and 9-of-13 field goals, plus he made 2 tackles. Some 48 of his 88 kickoffs were touchbacks (54.5%) and 64 pinned foes within the 20-yard line (72.7%). He made the 2008 All-Pac-10 first team and won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award. He was an East-West Shrine Game and Texas Vs. The Nation Bowl invitee.

At Virginia, he hit all 7 of his PATs and a 20-yard field goal, plus 5 of his 9 kickoffs pinned the Cavaliers within the 20-yard line (with 3 touchbacks). He hit all 5 of his PATs and 5 of his 6 kickoffs pinned the Buckeyes within the 20 (with 3 touchbacks) against Ohio State. He hit all 3 of his PATs and 2 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Beavers within the 20-yard line at Oregon State. He scored 14 points against Oregon by hitting all 5 of his PATs and all 3 of his field goals (21, 36 and 42 yards) and also had touchbacks on 6 of his 9 kickoffs. He hit all 4 of his PATs and 4 of his 5 kickoffs were touchbacks against Arizona State. He had 9 touchbacks on his 11 kickoffs (with another pinning the Cougars within the 20) and hit 9-of-10 PATs at Washington State. He had touchbacks on 3 of his 4 kickoffs while also hitting both PATs and 1-of-2 field goals (a 43-yarder) at Arizona (he also had a touchdown-saving tackle on a kickoff). Against Washington, he hit all 8 of his PATs and 7 of his 9 kickoffs pinned the Huskies within the 20 (with 4 touchbacks) to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He hit a 27-yard field goal and both of his PATs against California, plus 3 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Golden Bears within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). He hit a 37-yard field goal and all 6 of his PATS at Stanford, plus 5 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Cardinal within the 20 (with 4 touchbacks). Against Notre Dame, he earned Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors as he hit a 35-yard field goal and all 5 of his PATs, plus 5 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20 (with 4 touchbacks). He made all 4 of his PATs (but missed all 3 of his field goal tries) and had 3 touchbacks on his 5 kickoffs at UCLA. He hit all 5 of his PATs and a 30-yard field goal against Penn State, plus 6 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Nittany Lions within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks).

2007: Buehler inherited USC's placekicking duties as a junior in 2007 and did a solid job. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games, he hit 16-of-19 field goals and 52-of-54 PATs, plus he made 3 tackles. Some 35 of his 84 kickoffs in 2007 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line, with 18 touchbacks. He was a 2007 Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick.

He hit all 5 of his PATs and a 36-yard field goal against Idaho, plus 6 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Vandals within the 20 (including 4 touchbacks). He hit all 7 of his PATs at Nebraska. Against Washington State, he hit 2 field goals (23 and 29 yards), was 5-of-6 on PATs, pinned the Cougars within the 20 on 4 of his 9 kickoffs and even ran down and tackled a WSU kick returner who had broken free at midfield to save a touchdown. He hit 2 of his 3 field goal attempts (a 22-yarder and a 33-yarder with 3:01 to play that proved to be the decisive points) and all 3 of his PATs at Washington. Against Stanford, he hit a 34-yard field goal, 2-of-3 PATs and pinned the Cardinal within the 20 on 3 of his 5 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). He hit a pair of field goals (27 and 23 yards) and PATs against Arizona and 3 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Wildcats within the 20 (with a touchback). He hit a 30-yard field goal and all 5 of his PATs at Notre Dame and 4 of his 7 kickoffs pinned the Irish within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). He hit a 30-yard field goal and both PATs at Oregon and 1 of his 4 kickoffs pinned the Ducks within the 20. He made a 47-yard field goal (he also missed a 48-yarder) and all 3 of his PATS against Oregon State and 1 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Beavers within the 20 (he also had a tackle). He hit a 28-yard field goal and all 3 of his PATs at California (1 of his 5 kickoffs pinned the Bears within the 20). He made all 3 of his field goals (42, 20 and 37 yards) and all 5 of his PATs at Arizona State and had touchbacks on 3 of his 9 kickoffs. He made all 3 of his PATs and 1 of 2 field goals (a 46-yarder) against UCLA. He hit all 7 of his PATs, while 5 of his 8 kickoffs were touchbacks against Illinois, 2006: Buehler, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2006 from a junior college, was a backup placekicker specializing in kickoffs and played on special teams, but also worked at fullback and safety (he did not see action at those spots). He appeared in 11 games in 2006 (all but Arkansas and Nebraska), mainly on special teams. He hit his only field goal attempt (49 yards against California, the longest by a Trojan since Adam Abrams had a 49-yarder at Oregon in 1998) and also kicked off in 2 games (once at Stanford and the entire Michigan game). Of his 8 kickoffs, 6 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line (with 3 touchbacks).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made the 2005 All-Mission Conference National Division first team as a freshman placekicker, linebacker and running back at Santa Ana (Calif.) Junior College. He had 25 touchbacks on his 58 kickoffs in 2005, plus recorded 24 tackles and 1 interception on defense and rushed for 50 yards on 9 carries (5.6 avg.) with 5 touchdowns (he also caught a TD pass) on offense.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2004 All-Century League team as a senior at Canyon High in Anaheim (Calif.). He also was on Canyon's volleyball, golf and track teams.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy, management and planning major at USC with a B- average (2.76 GPA). His father, John, was a 3-year letterman (1969-71) on USC's track team as a shot putter. His uncle, George Buehler, lettered in football at Stanford for 3 years (1966-68) and then played guard with the Oakland Raiders (1969-78) and Cleveland Browns (1978-79). Another uncle, Charles, lettered in football at Stanford for 3 years (1960-62).

(10) BRIAN CUSHING—Linebacker, 6-3, 255, Sr./Sr., Park Ridge, NJ (Bergen Catholic HS)

2008: Cushing, among the finest strongside linebackers in the nation, started for his third season as a senior in 2008. Overall while starting all 13 games, he had 73 tackles (second on USC), including a team-best 10.5 for losses of 50 yards (with 3 sacks for minus 22 yards), plus he had 6 deflections, a forced fumble and an interception. He made the 2008 SI.com All-American first team, AP and Sporting News All-American second teams, Rivals.com, Phil Steele's and Collegefootballnews.com All-American third teams, Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-10 first team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 first team, plus he was among 12 finalists for the 2008 Butkus Award, 12 semifinalists for the 2008 Lombardi Award and 20 quarterfinalists for the 2008 Lott Trophy. He also won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award. He was a Senior Bowl invitee. He did all this despite breaking his hand against Oregon State and bruising his shoulder against Arizona State. He had arthroscopic surgery on his ankle prior to 2008 spring practice and was limited in spring drills. He was named to the 2008 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

After getting 2 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Virginia, he had a team-high 10 tackles (1 for a loss) against Ohio State and then 8 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Oregon State. He added 6 stops (2 for a loss, with a sack) and 2 deflections while starting on the inside for an injured Rey Maualuga against Oregon. He had 7 tackles (with 0.5 sack) against Arizona State, 3 stops (0.5 for a loss) and a forced fumble that USC recovered at Washington State, 6 tackles at Arizona and 3 tackles against Washington. He recorded 9 stops (including 2 for a loss, with a sack) versus California, 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and an interception at Stanford, 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection against both Notre Dame and UCLA. He had a team-best 7 tackles against Penn State (with 0.5 sack) and became just the second player (along with Ohio State's Archie Griffin) to start 4 consecutive Rose Bowls.

2007: Cushing, who did a standout job starting at defensive end in 2006, moved back to his natural strongside linebacker spot as a junior in 2007 and didn't miss a beat. Overall while appearing in 10 games (all but Washington, Stanford and Arizona) and starting 8 times (Idaho and USC's last 7 games), he had 25 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 4 yards (with a 2-yard sack), plus a fumble recovery and 2 deflections. He sprained his left ankle in the Idaho opener, then played briefly but didn't start the next 2 games (Nebraska and Washington State) before re-spraining it against Washington State and being sidelined for the next 3 contests.

He had 1 tackle against Washington State, then returned from his injury and notched 2 tackles at Notre Dame. He had 8 tackles at Oregon, 5 stops (with a sack) against Oregon State, 4 tackles (1.5 for a loss) and a deflection at California, 2 tackles at Arizona State and 2 more stops against UCLA. He had 1 tackle, 1 fumble recovery (to set up a USC TD) and 1 deflection against Illinois. He was named 2007 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He sat out most of 2007 spring practice with a strained hamstring. He had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee following 2007spring practice.

2006: Cushing, who started 4 times in 2005 at strongside linebacker, started all of his 2006 sophomore season as a stand-up defensive end in USC's hybrid 3-4 "Elephant" defense. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 57 tackles, including a team-best 13.5 for losses of 52 yards (with 4.5 sacks for minus 33 yards), plus a deflection, a forced fumble, a blocked punt that he returned 21 yards (at Washington to set up a USC field goal) and a 42-yard scoring kickoff return of an onside kick (against Notre Dame). He made the 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American third team, All-Pac-10 second team and Scout.com All-Pac-10 second team. He won USC's John McKay Award (most competitive spirit). He missed some of 2006 spring drills while recuperating from shoulder surgery.

Four of his 7 tackles against Michigan were for losses (with 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble to help him earn Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, ESPN.com All-Bowl Team and CBSSportsline.com All-Bowl Team honors. He also had 7 tackles (1.5 for a loss) at Washington State, 6 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against California, 5 tackles against Arkansas (1 for a loss), Nebraska (0.5 for a loss), Washington (1.5 for a loss) and Stanford (1 for a loss), 4 tackles against Arizona (with a sack), Arizona State (0.5 for a loss) and Oregon (with a deflection), 2 tackles at Oregon State and UCLA (both for losses, with a sack) and 1 tackle against Notre Dame.

2005: Cushing made quite an impact in 2005 as a first-year freshman linebacker, despite missing nearly half the season with a shoulder injury. He started USC's last 4 games (versus California, Fresno State, UCLA and Texas) on the strong side after previously serving as an often-used backup there and a key special teams player. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 8 games (he missed the Arkansas, Oregon, Arizona State, Arizona and Notre Dame games after dislocating his shoulder before the Arkansas contest), he made 23 tackles, including 0.5 for a loss, plus had 3 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries and a blocked punt that he returned 6 yards. He made 2005 Scout.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. After the season, he had surgery to repair a dislocating shoulder.

As a starter, he led USC with 7 tackles at California, then added 4 stops, a deflection and a fumble recovery to set up a USC field goal against Fresno State, had 2 tackles, a fumble recovery and a deflection versus UCLA and had 1 tackle and 1 deflection against Texas. As a backup, he had 5 tackles against Stanford, 2 tackles and blocked a punt to set up a USC field goal at Washington, 1 tackle and forced a fumble that USC recovered for a touchdown at Hawaii and 1 stop versus Washington State.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Northeast Defensive Player of the Year, Prep Star All-East and All-State Defensive Player of the Year as a senior linebacker, running back and tight end at Bergen Catholic High in Oradell (N.J.). He had 120 tackles, 11 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and 7 interceptions on offense in 2004, plus 475 rushing yards with 10 TDs and 13 receptions for 456 yards (35.1 avg.) with 7 TDs and a kickoff return for a score. He did all that despite missing 3 games with an ankle sprain.

As a junior in 2003, he made Student Sports Junior All-American, All-State first team and All-Bergen County Defensive Player of the Year while posting 120 tackles, 22 tackles for loss, 9 sacks and 7 interceptions.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Frank, was a member of Seton Hall's baseball team that played in the 1964 College World Series.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach Pete Carroll: "David gets great height on the ball and is very consistent. There's no question about his leg strength. He's a really good kicker."

(4) KEVIN ELLISON—Safety, 6-1, 230, Sr./Sr., Inglewood, CA (Redondo Union HS)

2008: The solid, steady Ellison started for his third season at strong safety and proved to be one of USC's top players as a senior in 2008. Overall in 2008 while starting 8 games (he missed the Washington, California, Stanford, Notre Dame and Penn State games with an injury), he made 47 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 3 yards, plus had 7 deflections and an interception. He tore cartilage in his right knee prior to the Washington game and had arthroscopic surgery, sidelining him for those 4 games. He made the 2008 All-Pac-10 first team (for the second consecutive year) and Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention and won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award. He was an East-West Shrine Game invitee.

He had 2 tackles and 2 deflections at Virginia, then a team-best 10 tackles and an interception against Ohio State and 9 tackles (0.5 for a loss) and 2 deflections at Oregon State. He added a career-high and game-best 12 tackles (1 for a loss) against Oregon, then had 7 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections against Arizona State, 1 tackle at Washington State and 4 tackles and a deflection at Arizona. He had 2 stops (1 for a loss) at UCLA in his first action after missing 4 games with the knee injury.

2007: Ellison started for his second season at strong safety as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 57 tackles, including 8 for losses of 27 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 15 yards), plus 2 interceptions that he returned 9 yards (4.5 avg.), 6 deflections and 2 forced fumbles. He made the 2007 All-Pac-10 first team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 second team. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award and Co-Lifter of the Year Award.

He had 3 tackles and a deflection against Idaho, 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Nebraska, 3 tackles and a forced fumble against Washington State, 2 stops at Washington and 5 tackles against Stanford. He had a team-high 9 tackles against Arizona, 5 tackles (including 1.5 for a loss), an interception and 2 deflections at Notre Dame, 5 tackles (2 for a loss) at Oregon and 2 sacks among his 4 tackles against Oregon State. He added 8 tackles and had an interception that set up a USC field goal at California, 3 tackles and a deflection at Arizona State and 4 tackles versus UCLA. He had 3 tackles (1.5 for a loss) against Illinois. He had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee prior to 2007 spring practice.

2006: Ellison started all of his 2006 sophomore season at strong safety and did a sound job. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 64 tackles, including 6 for losses of 21 yards (with 1.5 sacks for minus 7 yards), plus an interception, 5 deflections and a forced fumble. He made 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American second team and All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He won USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (biggest hit). He had 2 tackles and a deflection against Arkansas, Nebraska and Arizona. He then had 7 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Washington State, 9 tackles against Washington and 4 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, versus Arizona State. He added 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Oregon State and another 6 tackles with an interception at Stanford. He had 7 stops (1 for a loss) and a forced fumble against Oregon, a team-best 7 tackles with a deflection against California, 5 tackles (1 for a loss) against Notre Dame, 6 tackles (1 for a loss) at UCLA and 1 stop against Michigan.

2005: Ellison, who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC in the spring of 2005, was headed to an impressive season as a backup strong safety and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005, appearing often in extra defensive back situations. But he tore ligaments and got a fracture in his left knee while making a crucial interception late in the Arizona State game and had surgery, sidelining him the rest of the season. Overall while appearing in USC's first 4 games of 2005, he made 6 tackles, the interception and a forced fumble. He had 3 tackles at Arizona State, 2 versus Arkansas (with a forced fumble) and 1 at Hawaii. He made the 2005 The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside Player of the Year, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area Player of the Year and All-Bay League MVP as a senior running back and linebacker at Redondo Union High in Redondo Beach (Calif.). He ran for 1,661 yards on 230 carries (7.2 avg.) with 32 TDs and had 25 receptions for 414 yards (16.6 avg.) with 5 TDs on offense and 115 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 5 sacks, 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) in 2004. In one game, he ran for a school-record 322 yards on 18 carries (17.9 avg.).

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division IV, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team and All-Ocean League Co-MVP. He had 1,402 yards on 222 carries (6.3 avg.) with 15 TDs and 15 receptions for 161 yards (10.7 avg.) with 1 TD, plus 101 tackles, 8 tackles for loss, 3 sacks, 2 interceptions (1 for a TD) and 1 fumble recovery in 2003.

He was a 2002 South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area and All-Ocean League Co-Defensive MVP selection as a 2002 sophomore. In his career, he rushed for a school-record 3,718 yards on 578 carries (6.4 avg.) and had 297 tackles.

PERSONAL: He's a social science economics major at USC. His brother, Chris, was a defensive back at BYU in 1997 and 1998, while another brother, Keith, was a linebacker at Oregon State in 2004 and 2005 (he also played at San Diego State in 2002) who now plays with the NFL's Buffalo Bills. His cousin, Donminic Ellison, played basketball at Washington State and New Mexico State.

KEVIN ELLISON ON: Coming back from his 2005 knee injury: "It was a hard process coming back, the rehab and trying to get my body right. It was a challenge. But I was ready for it. I got my mind right."

His brother, Chris: "It has definitely helped me watching him. He showed me the way. He set an example."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach Pete Carroll: "We feel confident in him because he's applied himself at every single turn since he got here. He's mature, he's smart, he's got his priorities straight, he's a hard worker, he's tough. It's in his nature and it's why he was positioned to graduate early from high school. It's the kind of person he is…He's a prime example of a guy who's such a high achiever. He took advantage of every opportunity to position himself where he wants to go."

(7) CARY HARRIS—Cornerback, 6-0, 180, Sr./Sr., Pacoima, CA (Notre Dame HS)

2008: The experienced, reliable Harris started for his third season at cornerback as a senior in 2008 and once again proved effective. Overall in 2008 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 11 (all but Washington State and Arizona), he had 38 tackles, including 4 for losses of 7 yards, plus had 6 deflections, a team-best 3 interceptions and 2 forced fumbles. He had arthroscopic surgery on both ankles prior to 2008 spring practice. He made 2008 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was an East-West Shrine Game invitee.

He had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) at Virginia and a stop against Ohio State, then had 7 tackles at Oregon State and 6 against Oregon. He added 6 tackles, an interception, a forced fumble and a deflection against Arizona State. He then had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) at both Washington State and Arizona, a deflection at Washington, a tackle and a deflection versus both California and Stanford, an interception against Notre Dame and 2 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at UCLA. He made 5 tackles, a forced fumble (USC recovered it, setting up a Trojan touchdown) and an interception (in the end zone on the game's final play) against Penn State.

2007: Harris started for his second season at cornerback as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while starting 12 games (all but Washington), he had 48 tackles, including 2 for losses of 5 yards, plus 7 deflections, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble. He dislocated his right shoulder against Washington State and missed the Washington game. He was a 2007 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick.

He had 2 tackles against Idaho, 7 at Nebraska, 1 against Washington State, 5 against Stanford (with 3 deflections) and 6 versus Arizona. He had 2 tackles (1 for a loss) and forced a fumble that USC recovered at Notre Dame, then had 4 stops at Oregon, 3 tackles and a deflection against Oregon State, 2 tackles at California, another 2 at Arizona State (with a deflection), then 4 stops with a deflection against UCLA. Against Illinois, he had a team-best 10 tackles (1 for a loss), plus an interception and fumble recovery (both led to USC touchdowns) and a deflection. He had surgery on a sprained finger prior to 2007 spring practice.

2006: Harris did a reliable job while starting most of 2006 at cornerback as a sophomore. Overall while appearing in all 13 games (he started all but Arkansas and Arizona State), he had 48 tackles, including 1.5 for a loss of 3 yards, plus an interception that he returned 28 yards, 2 deflections and a fumble recovery. He also returned 6 kickoffs early in the season for 93 yards (15.5 avg.). He had 3 tackles, an interception and 3 kickoff returns for 50 yards at Arkansas, then a tackle, a fumble recovery and returned 3 kickoffs for 43 yards against Nebraska. He added 5 stops at Arizona, 6 at Washington State, 2 against Washington, 3 versus Arziona State, 4 at Oregon State and 3 at Stanford. He had a team-high 10 tackles (0.5 for loss) against Oregon, then 2 tackles and a deflection against California. He had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections against Notre Dame, 2 tackles at UCLA and 4 stops versus Michigan.

2005: Harris served as a reserve cornerback and played on special teams as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 9 tackles and 1 deflection. He had 2 stops versus Washington (with a deflection), Stanford and UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, EA Sports All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-San Fernando Valley and Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team selection as a senior running back and cornerback at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). He rushed for 1,800 yards with 24 TDs and had 81 tackles, 19 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions in 2004. Notre Dame went 14-0 and won the CIF Division III championship in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Southern Section second team and All-CIF Division III while gaining 1,150 rushing yards (7.5 yards per carry) with 17 TDs and posting 73 tackles, 6 deflections, 3 forced fumbles, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery.

He was named to the Cal-Hi Sports Sophomore All-State and All-CIF Division III squads in 2002. In his career, Notre Dame won 3 consecutive CIF Division III crowns.

He also ran track at Notre Dame, with a best of 10.75 in the 100 meters. Current Trojans Garrett Green, Shane Horton and Wes Horton also attended Notre Dame.

PERSONAL: He's a health promotion and disease prevention major at USC.

(41) MATT HILLIER—Fullback, 6-2, 210, Sr.*/Sr., La Canada, CA (Loyola HS/Pasadena CC)

2008: Hillier, a USC volleyball player who joined the football team as a walk-on in the spring of 2008 and earned a scholarship in the fall of 2008, was a reserve fullback and played some on special teams as a senior in 2008. He appeared briefly in 8 games (Virginia, Ohio State, Oregon, Arizona Stte, Washington State, Washington, Notre Dame and Penn State), but did not have any carries or make any tackles.

VOLLEYBALL: He was a middle blocker and opposite hitter on the USC men's volleyball team in 2007 (appearing briefly in 2 matches) and 2008 (he did not see any action).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He spent 2005-06 at Pasadena (Calif.) City College, but did not play football or volleyball.

HIGH SCHOOL: He played linebacker as a senior in 2003 at Loyola High in Los Angeles (Calif.) and helped the team to the 2003 CIF Division I championship.

In volleyball, he was named the 2004 All-CIF Division I Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star first team and All-Mission League Co-MVP while leading Loyola to its second consecutive CIF Division I title. He also made the 2004 Volleyball Fab 50 team. He earned 2003 All-CIF Division I third team honors on Loyola's CIF Division I champion.

PERSONAL: He is a political science major at USC.

(43) KALUKA MAIAVA—Linebacker, 6-0, 230, Sr./Sr., Wailuku, HI (Baldwin HS)

2008: Maiava started all season at weakside linebacker as a senior in 2008 and performed well. Overall in 13 games in 2008, he had 66 tackles (third on USC), including 7.5 for losses of 15 yards, plus had 5 deflections and an interception. He made the 2008 All-Pac-10 second team. He was an East-West Shrine Game invitee. He had surgery on his thumb and wrist prior to 2008 spring practice and was limited in spring drills.

He had 6 tackles (1 for a loss) at Virginia, 3 tackles (1.5 for losses) against Ohio State, then added 11 stops (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Oregon State. He had 8 tackles against Oregon, 3 stops against Arizona State, 4 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington State and 4 stops at Arizona. He then had 5 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington, 2 tackles and a deflection versus California and 7 stops at Stanford. He had a team-best 5 tackles (1 for a loss) and an interception against Notre Dame to win USC's Player of the Game versus Notre Dame Award. He added 4 stops (1 for a loss) and a deflection at UCLA. He was named Rose Bowl Defensive MVP after making 4 tackles and 2 deflections versus Penn State.

2007: Maiava was a key backup linebacker and special teams player as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 44 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 18 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 11 yards), plus 2 deflections and 1 forced fumble. He even started the Arizona State game on the weakside.

He had 7 tackles (1 for a loss) and a deflection at Nebraska, 2 tackles and a deflection against Washington State, 2 stops at Washington, 5 tackles versus Stanford, 2 tackles against Arizona and 5 tackles at Notre Dame. He then had 4 tackles at California, a team-best and career-high 10 stops (0.5 for a loss) at Arizona State and 2 of his 4 tackles against UCLA were for losses (with a sack). He had 3 tackles (including a sack) and a forced fumble (on the USC 1-yard line, which the Trojans recovered in the end zone) against Illinois.

2006: Maiava was the backup weakside linebacker and a key special teams player as a sophomore in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in 12 games (he missed the Arkansas opener with a shoulder sprain suffered in 2006 fall camp), he had 34 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 13 yards. He had 8 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Oregon State, 6 against both Stanford and Oregon (with 1 for a loss), 3 against Washington State and Arizona State and 2 against Nebraska, Notre Dame and UCLA. He had a tackle for a loss against Washington and California. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

2005: Maiava served as a backup outside linebacker and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games (he even started against Stanford), he had 20 tackles, 1 fumble recovery and 1 interception that he returned 10 yards. He had 4 tackles versus Stanford and UCLA, 3 against Arkansas (with the interception to set up a USC touchdown) and 2 against Oregon, Washington and Fresno State. He had a tackle and recovered a fumble to set up a USC TD against Texas. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year and Service Team Defensive Player of the Year Awards.

HIGH SCHOOL: Among his 2004 honors were Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Gatorade Hawaii Player of the Year, Honolulu Advertiser All-State first team, All-Maui Interscholastic League Defensive Player of the Year and All-League as a senior linebacker at Baldwin High in Wailuku (Hi.). He had 147 tackles, 39 tackles for loss, 8 sacks, 8 forced fumbles and 5 blocked kicks in 2004, as well as a punt return for a TD.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Honolulu Advertiser All-State pick as he posted 157 tackles, 22 tackles for loss and 8 sacks.

He also participated in soccer and boxing at Baldwin.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His grandfather is ex-pro wrestler Neff Maiava, while his father, Scott Mahoney, was an offensive lineman at Colorado (1969-71), his uncle is pro wrestler/actor "The Rock" (Dwayne Johnson, who played football at Miami) and his brother, Kai, is a junior offensive lineman at UCLA (he formerly played at Colorado).

KALUKA MAIAVA ON: Learning from USC's other linebackers: "I have learned a lot just watching them. How they play, how they are always in the backfield. Their passion for the ball, physically taking control, that is how I try to play."

(47) CLAY MATTHEWS—Linebacker-Defensive End, 6-3, 240, Sr.*/Sr., Agoura Hills, CA (Agoura HS)

2008: Matthews, the fourth person from his family to play football at USC, started the last 10 games of 2008 as a stand-up defensive end as a senior (he was an often-used backup in the first 3 contests) and turned out to be among the team's key defenders. He also was available to play any of the linebacker positions (his normal position) and was a vital special teams performer (with a knack for blocking kicks). Overall in 2008 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 56 tackles, including 9 for losses of 59 yards (with 4.5 sacks for minus 42 yards), plus 2 fumble recoveries, 2 forced fumbles, 2 deflections and 1 blocked field goal. He made the 2008 Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-10 second team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 third team, plus won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award and Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award. He was a Senior Bowl invitee. He had surgery on his hand prior to 2008 spring practice.

At Virginia, he had 2 fumble recoveries and a forced fumble to go with his game-best 6 tackles (with a sack), then he added 6 tackles (1.5 for losses, with a sack), a forced fumble and a deflection against Ohio State. He had 5 tackles and blocked a field goal at Oregon State, then 5 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Oregon, 5 tackles and a deflection against Arizona State, 2 tackles at Washington State and 5 tackles (with 1.5 sacks) at Arizona. He had 4 tackles (1.5 for losses, with 0.5 sack) against Washington, 4 tackles (1 for a loss) versus California, 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Stanford, 3 tackles (1.5 for a loss, with 0.5 sack) against Notre Dame and 3 tackles at UCLA. He had 5 tackles against Penn State.

2007: Matthews was a key backup linebacker and special teams player as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 17 tackles, including 3 for losses of 23 yards, plus 2 forced fumbles, 1 deflection and 2 blocked field goals. He even started the Nebraska and Washington State games on the strong side. He had 4 tackles, a deflection and a blocked field goal against Idaho, then added 3 tackles (1 for a loss) against Washington State, 4 stops against Arizona, a tackle and blocked field goal at Notre Dame, a tackle at Oregon and a tackle for a loss at California. He had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 forced fumbles against Illinois. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

2006: A one-time walk-on, Matthews earned a scholarship in the fall of 2006 and served as a reserve linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 15 tackles, including 1.5 for losses of 9 yards (with a 7-yard sack). He had 4 tackles at Stanford (with 0.5 tackle for a loss and a sack), 3 tackles against Oregon and 2 stops versus Michigan. He won USC's Co-Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

2005: As a redshirt freshman reserve linebacker in 2005 (he also played on special teams), he had 8 tackles and a deflection while appearing in 12 games (all but Hawaii). He had 3 tackles versus Stanford and 2 against Washington State. He had a tackle and deflection versus Arkansas. He missed the Hawaii game with a sprained elbow.

2004: He did not see any action as a first-year freshman linebacker in 2004.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Agoura (Calif.) High.

PERSONAL: He's an international relations major at USC with a B average (3.06 GPA). He made the 2008 Pac-10 All-Academic first team and 2006 Pac-10 All-Academic second team. He comes from a football family. His father, Clay, was a 4-year (1974-77) letterman linebacker at USC who played on Troy's 1974 national championship team and earned All-American honors in 1977 (he went on to play with the NFL's Cleveland Browns and Atlanta Falcons from 1978 to 1996). His brother, Kyle, lettered at safety on USC's 2003 national championship team. Another brother, Casey, is a sophomore linebacker at Oregon. His uncle, Bruce, was a 3-year (1980-82) letterman offensive guard at USC who earned All-American honors in 1982 and then played with the NFL's Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans from 1983 to 2001. His grandfather, Clay Sr., was on the football, wrestling and swimming teams at Georgia Tech in the 1940s and then played in the NFL with the San Francisco 49ers in the 1950s. His cousin, Ashley Nick, is a senior on the USC women's soccer team (the 2007 NCAA champions). His cousin, Kevin Matthews, is a junior center at Texas A&M.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach Pete Carroll: "Clay is really productive. He gives us great speed, and he has great savvy and instincts."

(58) REY MAUALUGA—Linebacker, 6-2, 260, Sr./Sr., Eureka, CA (Eureka HS)

CAREER: He has 273 tackles in his career.

2008: Maualuga started for his third season as the Trojans' menacing middle linebacker as a senior in 2008. Overall in 2008 while starting 12 games (he missed the Oregon game after spraining his knee at Oregon State), he had a team-high 79 tackles, including 2.5 for losses of 11 yards, plus 4 deflections and 2 interceptions (with a TD). He was named a 2008 unanimous All-American first teamer (AP, Football Coaches, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Sporting News, ESPN.com, CBSSports.com, Rivals.com, Phil Steele's, Collegefootballnews.com), an All-American second teamer (SI.com), an All-American honorable mention (Pro Football Weekly). He won the Bednarik Award (as the nation's top defensive player) and was CBSSports.com's National Defensive Player of the Year, plus he was among 4 finalists for the 2008 Lombardi Award, 5 finalists for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and 12 finalists for the Butkus Award. He also was the 2008 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year and, for the third year in a row, made the 2008 All-Pac-10 first team, plus he was named USC's MVP. He also was the 2008 Sporting News Pac-10 Defensive MVP and made Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 first team. He was a Senior Bowl invitee. He was named to the 2008 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

He had 2 tackles at Virginia, then against Ohio State he had 5 stops and returned an interception 48 yards for a TD to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors. He had a game-high 12 tackles at Oregon State, a game-best 8 tackles against Arizona State, a team-best 5 tackles (1 for a loss) with a deflection at Washington State and a team-high 9 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Arizona. He had 6 tackles and an interception against Washington, then a game-best 10 tackles versus California and a team-best 9 tackles (1 for a loss) at Stanford. He had 2 tackles against Notre Dame and 5 tackles and a deflection at UCLA to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors. He had 6 tackles and a deflection against Penn State.

2007: Maualuga returned for his second season as USC's starting middle linebacker as a junior in 2007 and led the team in tackles. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games (starting all but the Notre Dame game, in which he was limited because of a hip pointer), he had 79 tackles, including 10.5 for losses of 40 yards (with 6 sacks for minus 32 yards), plus 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble, 1 interception (returned for 19 yards) and 3 deflections. He was named to the 2007 Phil Steele's All-American third team, Collegefootballnews.com All-American honorable mention, Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-10 first team (for the second year in a row), Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 first team, Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 first team and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 second team.

He had 4 tackles versus Idaho, 6 tackles (including 1.5 for losses) at Nebraska and 6 stops against Washington State. He then had a game-high 10 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington, a game-high 10 tackles (with a sack) against Stanford, 4 tackles at Arizona, 3 tackles (including 2 sacks) at Notre Dame, 11 stops (1 for a loss) and a fumble recovery at Oregon, 5 tackles (including 1 for a loss) and a deflection against Oregon State, 5 tackles at California and 3 stops at Arizona Stae. He had a game-high 8 tackles and a deflection against UCLA. Against Illinois, he had 3 sacks among his 4 tackles and added an interception (returned 19 yards to set up a USC TD) and a forced fumble to earn Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, ESPN.com All-Bowl Team and CBSSportsline.com All-Bowl Team honors.

2006: Maualuga started most of 2006 at middle linebacker as a sophomore and proved to be an impact player. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games (he started all but Arkansas, Oregon State and Notre Dame), he had a 78 tackles, including 5 for losses of 17 yards (with 2 sacks for minus 8 yards), an interception, 3 deflections and a forced fumble. He made the 2006 Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention, Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team, All-Pac-10 first team, ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team, Scout.com All-Pac-10 first team and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 second team and was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the 2006 Butkus Award.

He had 6 tackles at Arkansas, then a game-high and personal-best 11 tackles (1 for a loss) versus Nebraska, 4 tackles, including 2 for a loss (with a sack), and an interception at Arizona and a team-best 9 tackles with a deflection at Washington State. He added 5 tackles and a deflection against Washington, a team-best 8 tackles against Arizona State, 7 stops at Oregon State, 5 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Stanford and 6 stops and a forced fumble against Oregon. He made 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against California, 3 tackles and a deflection against Notre Dame, 7 tackles (with a sack) at UCLA and 2 stops versus Michigan.

2005: Maualuga was an effective and often-used backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 12 games (all but Hawaii), he had 37 tackles, including 4.5 for losses of 23 yards (with an 8-yard sack), plus he had 2 forced fumbles, 2 deflections and an interception that he returned 9 yards. He also returned 1 kickoff for 7 yards (7.0 avg). He had a team-best 9 tackles (1 for a loss), 2 forced fumbles (both recovered by USC to set up touchdowns) and 2 deflections against UCLA, 6 tackles (with the sack) and the interception at California, another 6 stops against Washington State, 5 tackles versus Stanford, 3 stops (2 for losses) against Arkansas and another 3 versus Fresno State. He made a tackle and returned a short kickoff 7 yards against Texas. He made the 2005 Football Writers Freshman All-American first team and Scout.com Freshman All-American first team. He won USC's John McKay Award (most competitive spirit).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2004 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team and Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team honors as a senior linebacker at Eureka (Calif.) High. He had 96 tackles, 37 tackles for loss, 4 interceptions (2 for TDs), 2 fumble recoveries and 1 kickoff return for a touchdown in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he was a Student Sports Junior All-American and Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team pick while posting 146 tackles, 43 tackles for loss, 11 sacks and 1 interception. Eureka went 20-2-1 during his junior and senior seasons.

He spent his 2001 freshman year at St. Bonaventure High in Ventura (Calif.).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He was born in Oklahoma.

REY MAUALUGA ON: His style: "I want to become the player that the offense gameplans around, that the offense fears coming into the game."

The inspiration he draws from his late father, Talatonu, who died just before the 2006 Rose Bowl BCS Championship Game: "It doesn't hit me as much now as it did, but I use it as inspiration…He's out there in my heart playing with me. Even though he's not here, he's with me spiritually."

His recent maturity: "I've matured a lot lately. That childish player, that person that I was, is long gone. I feel like I've developed a sense of leadership on the team. I've learned the do's and don't's, and I've realized what's important."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former Washington State head coach Bill Doba: "Maualuga has my vote for All-American right now. He is a super linebacker."

Steve Dilbeck, Los Angeles Daily News: "Have you seen the play of USC linebacker Rey Maualuga? If you watched the Trojans play, could your eyes possibly avoid him?...Does this look like Superman in cardinal and gold or what? He flies to the ball and then hits like a locomotive...Isn't this obviously USC's next superstar?...Maualuga has given every indication of becoming the ideal middle linebacker. He has the natural size. He has incredible burst. He is powerful and aggressive and uncommonly fast. More than all that, he is also amazingly athletic. He can be a sledgehammer or a ballerina. Dazzle with power or agility. Play with fury and control."

Lou Holtz, ESPN Magazine: "He's the next great Trojans linebacker, very physical, always lining up big hits. He reminds me of (ex-Ohio State All-American) A.J. Hawk. Maualuga's athletic ability is similar to Hawk's, but the infectiousness of his free spirit makes him even more valuable to his team."

(88) JIMMY MILLER—Tight End, 6-5, 250, Sr.*/Sr., Thousand Oaks, CA (Westlake HS)

2008: Miller was a reserve tight end and played on special teams as a senior in 2008. Overall in 2008 while appearing in 7 games (all but Oregon State, Washington State, Washington, California, Stanford and Penn State), he had 1 catch for minus 1 yard (at Arizona). He missed the Washington State game because he was sick and a flare up of his 2007 back injury sidelined him for 3 games (Washington, California, Stanford).

2007: Miller played briefly in the Idaho opener as a backup tight end and on special teams as a junior in 2007. But he hurt his back in practice prior to the Nebraska game and was sidelined the rest of 2007. He did not catch a pass in 2007.

2006: Miller, who was a backup tight end as a sophomore in 2006, appeared briefly in 11 contests in 2006 (all but Arkansas and Oregon State), primarily on special teams. His only appearances as a tight end came briefly against Oregon and Michigan, but he did not catch a pass. He missed the Arkansas opener after spraining his shoulder in 2006 fall camp.

2005: Miller was a backup at tight end and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 3 catches for 8 yards (2.7 avg.) with 2 TDs and made 1 tackle. He caught a 4-yard TD pass against Arkansas and had 2 receptions for 4 yards (with a 1-yard TD) versus Stanford.

2004: Miller redshirted as a freshman tight end in 2004, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2003 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division IV Defensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura/North Coast Lineman of the Year and Daily News All-Valley first team as a senior tight end and defensive end at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.). He had 40 receptions for 750 yards (18.8 avg.) with 9 TDs on offense and 85 tackles with 17 sacks on defense.

As a 2002 junior, he was a Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team, All-CIF Division IV, Daily News All-Area first team, All-Ventura County and All-League selection. He caught 12 passes for 200 yards (16.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense in 2002 and posted 80 tackles, 33 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks and 14 deflections on defense. Current Trojan Steve Gatena also prepped at Westlake.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His brother, Jeff, is a sophomore tight end at UCLA. He grew up in Texas before moving to California in the late 1990s.

JIMMY MILLER ON: The possibility of lining up opposite his brother, Jeff, in the UCLA game: "It'd be interesting to see what would happen if we got matched up against each other. Once we got in the game, he'd be like any other player. I guess you'd just have to play the game and beat the guy across from you. After the game I'm sure we'd talk about everything that happened on the field…When he signed with UCLA, I called him to congratulate him because getting a Division I scholarship is a big deal. But then I said, 'Once a year, we're not going to be able to talk to each other because USC and UCLA is a big rivalry.'"

(75) FILI MOALA—Defensive Tackle, 6-5, 295, Sr.*/Sr., Buena Park, CA (Western HS)

2008: The dominating Moala started for his third season at defensive tackle as a senior in 2008 (at times, he even played nose tackle). Overall in 2008 while starting all 13 games, he had 30 tackles, including 10 for losses of 41 yards (with 4.5 sacks for minus 32 yards), plus 2 blocked field goals, a fumble recovery and a deflection. He made the 2008 Sporting News All-American second team, AP, Rivals.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American third teams, Phil Steele's All-American third team, All-Pac-10 first team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 second team, as well as won USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year Award. He was a Senior Bowl invitee.

He had 4 tackles (with a sack) against Ohio State, then 5 tackles (2 for a loss, with 0.5 sack) at Oregon State and 5 tackles versus Oregon. He had 3 tackles, a fumble recovery and blocked a pair of third-quarter field goals against Arizona State to tie an NCAA record for most blocked field goals in a quarter (he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance). He had 3 tackles (including 2.5 for a loss, with 0.5 sack) at Arizona. He added a tackle and a deflection versus California, then 3 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack), at Stanford, 3 tackles (with 1.5 sacks) against Notre Dame, 2 stops (1 for a loss) at UCLA and 1 tackle versus Penn State.

2007: Moala started for his second season at defensive tackle as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while starting all 13 games, he had 32 tackles, including 5.5 for losss of 21 yards (including 2.5 sacks for minus 16 yards). He was named to the 2007 Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He sprained his left ankle during 2007 spring practice and sat out the last half of spring drills.

He had 2 tackles versus Idaho, 5 stops (with 1 for a loss) at Nebraska, 3 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington, 2 tackles against Stanford and 1 stop versus Arizona. He added 5 tackles (including 1 sack) at Notre Dame, 6 tackles at Oregon, 1 tackle against Oregon State and 2 stop at California. He had 2 tackles (1 for a loss) at Arizona State and 1.5 sacks among his 2 tackles against UCLA. He added 1 tackles against Illinois.

2006: Moala started USC's last 7 games at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2006. He also started 3 early-season contests (Nebraska, Arizona, Washington State) at nose tackle for an injured Sedrick Ellis. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 20 tackles, including 7 for losses of 16 yards (with 2.5 sacks for minus 8 yards), plus a fumble recovery and 4 deflections. He made 2006 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He had 5 tackles against Notre Dame (including 2 for losses, with a sack), plus a fumble recovery and a deflection. He added 4 tackles against Nebraska, 3 against California and 2 at Oregon State (with a sack). Both of his tackles against Michigan were for losses (including 0.5 sack).

2005: Moala saw key playing time at defensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2005, even starting 2 games (Arizona State and Arizona). Overall in 2005 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 8 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 1 yard. He had 3 tackles against Washington State and 2 versus Arizona.

2004: Moala redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2004, his first year at USC. He sprained his right hand and his shoulder in 2004 fall practice and missed USC's first 4 games. He was USC's 2004 Service Team Defensive Player of the Year.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He originally signed with USC in 2003, but did not qualify for admission, so he attended Cypress (Calif.) Junior College in 2003 as a part-time student (he didn't play football there).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2002 Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 selection as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at Western High in Anaheim (Calif.). He missed all but 2 games of his 2002 senior season because of an injured left foot ligament.

As a junior in 2002, he made All-CIF Division IX first team and All-League while posting 60 tackles and 4 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Fili Sr., was a heavyweight boxer in the 1970s who sparred with Ken Norton and lost a 1979 fight to Ron Lyle. His cousin is former Oregon defensive tackle Haloti Ngata (2002-05), now with the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach Pete Carroll: "Fili is difficult to block. Plus, the experience and leadership he brings is really valuable."

(84) KYLE MOORE—Defensive End, 6-6, 270, Sr./Sr., Kathleen, GA (Houston County HS)

2008: Moore started for his second season at defensive end as a senior in 2008 and was productive. Overall in 2008 while starting all 13 games, he had 30 tackles, including 9.5 for losses of 56 yards (with a team-best 5 sacks for minus 41 yards), plus 2 deflections and a fumble recovery. He made 2008 All-Pac-10 honorable mention and won USC's Most Inspirational Player Award. He was a Senior Bowl invitee. He had arthroscopic surgery on his knee prior to 2008 spring practice, which limited him in spring drills.

He had 8 tackles (2 for a loss, with a sack) and a fumble recovery against Ohio State, then had 3 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Oregon State. He added 3 tackles (1 for a loss) against Oregon, 2 tackles (including a sack) and a deflection against Arizona State, a tackle for a loss at Washington State, 2 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Arizona and 1 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Washington. He had 2 tackles for a loss (with a sack) against California, 3 tackles and a deflection at Stanford and 3 tackles (with a sack) versus Notre Dame. He added 2 tackles against Penn State.

2007: Moore did a solid job while starting at defensive end as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 11 (all but Idaho and Arizona State), he had 35 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 29 yards (with 2 sacks for 20 yards), plus 2 interceptions that he returned 38 yards (19.0 avg.), 5 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery. He had 3 takeaways in USC's first 3 games of 2007.

He had 4 tackles against Idaho (including a sack in which he forced a fumble that he recovered) and a deflection. He had 2 tackles and returned an interception 24 yards to set up a USC TD at Nebraska. Against Washington State, he had 2 tackles, an interception (which led to a USC field goal) and a deflection. He had 4 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington, 6 tackles versus Stanford, and a tackle and 2 deflections against Arizona. He added 6 tackles (0.5 sack) and a deflection at Notre Dame, 1 tackle at Oregon, 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Oregon State, 1 tackle at California, 2 stops at Arizona State and 2 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against UCLA.

2006: Moore was an often-used backup defensive end as sophomore in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 5 tackles and a deflection. He had 2 stops at Stanford.

2005: Moore served as a backup defensive end as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 11 games (he sprained his right knee in the Hawaii opener and missed the Arkansas and Oregon games), he made 6 tackles and recovered a team-high 2 fumbles. He had 3 tackles against UCLA. His fumble recoveries came at Hawaii (to set up a USC TD) and California.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast, Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100 and Georgia Class 5A Defensive Player of the Year as a senior defensive lineman at Houston County High in Warner Robins (Ga.). He had 93 tackles, 22 sacks, 18 deflections, 8 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and 1 blocked punt (for a touchdown) in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made All-Middle Georgia, All-Region and All-County while getting 110 tackles, 23 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. He was born in Germany and lived in Europe and Texas before moving to Georgia.

(6) MARK SANCHEZ—Quarterback, 6-3, 225, Jr.*/Sr., Mission Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

CAREER: He is ninth on USC's career passing chart (313 completions) and 15th on USC's career total offense list (3,705 yards). In his career (16 starts and 27 appearances), he has thrown 41 touchdowns, with at least 2 TD passes in 13 starts, plus he has at least 3 TD passes in a game 7 times and at least 1 TD pass in all 16 of his career starts.

2008: The exciting, passionate Sanchez started all season at quarterback as a junior in 2008 and proved to be among the nation's best, leading the Pac-10 in passing efficiency and total offense. Overall in 12 games in 2008, he completed 241-of-366 passes (65.8%) for 3,207 yards with 34 TDs and 10 interceptions, plus he scored 3 rushing TDs. He ranked fifth nationally in passing efficiency (164.6, first in Pac-10). His 241 completions in 2008 are seventh on USC's season passing list, his 34 TD passes in 2008 are tied for second best in Pac-10 history and is second best at USC (behind Matt Leinart's 38 in 2003) and his 3,223 yards of total offense are seventh on USC's season ladder (20th on the Pac-10 list). His 164.6 passing efficiency rating was a USC season record. He threw at least 3 TD passes in a game in 6 outings in 2008. He made 2008 SI.com and Pro Football Weekly All-American honorable mention and the All-Pac-10 first team and Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 first team. He is among 10 finalists for the 2008 Manning Award (top quarterback) and was among 13 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback) and 15 semifinalists for the Maxwell Award (top player). He was slowed in 2008 fall camp after dislocating his left kneecap.

He threw for a career-best 338 yards (the most by a Trojan in a season opener) with 3 TDs on 26-of-35 passing (tying his career high for completions) with an interception at Virginia, including hitting on 12 straight passes at one point and completing 16-of-19 passes in the first half (he was named Rivals.com National Player of the Week, O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week and Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week for his performance. He tied a career high by throwing 4 TD passes while completing 17-of-28 passes for 172 yards with an interception against Ohio State to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He completed 18-of-29 passes for 227 yards and 3 TDs with an interception at Oregon State. He hit 19-of-28 passes for 332 yards and 3 TDs (all in the second quarter) against Oregon to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He was 13-of-26 for 179 yards and a TD (but he threw 3 interceptions) and also had a 1-yard scoring sneak against Arizona State. He tied a USC game record by throwing 5 TD passes (all in the first half; no Trojan had thrown that many in a half) at Washington State as he hit 15-of-20 throws (75.0%) for 253 yards (all in the first half) while playing only through the first series of the second half. He was 21-of-36 for 216 yards with a TD and an interception at Arizona. He hit 78.9% of his passes (15-of-19) for 167 yards and 2 TDs with no interceptions while playing only through the first series of the second half against Washington (he also had a 1-yard scoring sneak). He was 18-of-29 for 238 yards, with 2 TDs and no interceptions, against California. He hit 11-of-17 passes for 136 yards and 2 TDs with no interceptions at Stanford. He was 22-of-31 for 267 yards and 2 TDs against Notre Dame, but threw 2 interceptions to snap a streak of 96 consecutive passes without a pick that extended back to the first quarter of the Arizona game. He completed 18-of-33 passes for 269 yards and 2 TDs with an interception at UCLA and also ran 24 yards on 4 carries. He was named Rose Bowl Offensive MVP and to the ESPN.com All-Bowl Team and Collegefootballnews.com All-Bowl Team as he completed 28-of-35 passes for 413 yards and 4 TDs against Penn State (career highs for completions and yardage), the second most passing yards in a Rose Bowl game (behind 456 by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in 1995) and the fourth highest in USC history (the most since Carson Palmer's 425 versus Notre Dame in 2002), while his touchdowns and completion percentage (80.0%) tied Rose Bowl game records (Penn State had given up only 6 TD passes in 2008 and was allowing only 168.0 passing yards).

2007: Sanchez served as the backup quarterback as a sophomore in 2007, but he ended up starting 3 games (Arizona, Notre Dame and Oregon) for an injured John David Booty and performed well. Overall in 2007 while appearing in 8 games, he completed 69-of-114 passes (60.5%) for 695 yards and 7 touchdowns with 5 interceptions. He also gained 22 yards on 14 carries (1.6 avg.). He sat out the Idaho opener while recuperating from a broken right thumb suffered in 2007 fall practice.

Against Arizona, Sanchez made his first-ever start and completed 19-of-31 passes for 130 yards with a 25-yard TD (the first of his career) and 2 interceptions. He started again at Notre Dame and completed 21-of-38 passes for 235 yards and 4 touchdowns (all career highs) with no interceptions, and won USC's Player of the Game versus Notre Dame Award. He completed 26-of-41 passes for 277 yards with 2 TDs (9 and 14 yards) and 2 interceptions while starting at Oregon. In his other appearances of 2007, he played USC's final 2 series at Nebraska but did not attempt a pass, was 2-of-3 for 23 yards with an interception while playing the final series against Washington State, completed his only pass attempt (a 30-yarder) while playing the final series against Oregon State and played the final series against UCLA but did not attempt a pass. He played 1 late series against Illinois, but did not throw a pass.

2006: Sanchez, who had an impressive showing in 2006 spring practice while John David Booty was sidelined with an injury, was USC's No. 2 quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing late in 6 games, he completed 3-of-7 passes (42.9%) for 63 yards with an interception. He also had 4 carries for minus 5 yards (-1.2 avg.) with a TD. He hit 1-of-2 passes for 19 yards at Arkansas, then he played the entire fourth quarter at Stanford and was 2-of-4 for 44 yards and also ran for a 4-yard TD. His only pass attempt against Oregon was intercepted. He also saw action against Arizona, Notre Dame and Michigan, but did not throw a pass.

2005: Sanchez redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2005, his first year at USC. He won USC's Service Team Offensive Player of the Year Award.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named 2004 Parade All-American Player of the Year, Super Prep All-American Player of the Year, EA Sports All-American first team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division II Co-Offensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-Orange County and All-South Coast League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. He completed 151-of-245 (61.6%) passes for 2,441 yards with 24 TDs and 4 interceptions in 2004 despite sitting out 8 halves because Mission Viejo was winning handily. Mission Viejo was the CIF Division II champion in 2004.

As a junior in 2003, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, All-CIF Division II, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League first team. He completed 161-of-211 passes (76.3%) for 2,460 yards with 29 TDs and 7 interceptions, plus he ran for 90 yards and caught a touchdown pass in 2003. In one game in 2003, he was 12-of-12 for 326 yards and 4 scores. Mission Viejo was 27-1 in his career.

He also played basketball and baseball at Mission Viejo. His coach at Mission Viejo was Bob Johnson, the father of former USC and NFL quarterback Rob Johnson.

He spent his freshman and sophomore years at Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita (Calif.), where his first varsity pass as a 2002 sophomore went 55 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC with a B average (3.14 GPA). He made the 2008 Pac-10 All-Academic first team and 2007 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention. His brothers--Nick (Yale in 1992-93-94) and Brandon (DePauw in 1997)--played football in college.

MARK SANCHEZ ON: Winning the starting job: "Once you get the nod, your mentality totally changes. It's like a heavyweight fighter—you win the title and that's it, you don't want to look back and you don't want to change. That the way I feel and I'm working to keep the job."

His father being a fireman: "It keeps things in perspective. Football means the world to me. But when people lose their houses and lives in a fire, I realize football is just a game. Those fires are a big deal. That's real life…I'm so proud of him. I look up to him. I love being able to say, 'My dad's a fireman.'…I'm used to him being away fighting fires. Ever since I was a young kid, he was fighting fires and big-time disasters and helping people out. When he's gone, he's gone for the right reason."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC head coach Pete Carroll: "Mark has shown he has the ability to be a really big-time quarterback in our system. He has the strongest arm we've had since Carson Palmer…He is a resourceful quarterback, able to take off and move and make some plays with his legs…And our players really respond to him…Once he was named the starter, he came out more energetic, more demonstrative and took on more of a leadership role, which is what we expected."

Former USC quarterback John David Booty: "Mark is going to have an awesome career at USC. I promise you, Mark is going to do well at USC. Waiting a while to play is not necessarily a bad thing."

USC quarterback Mitch Mustain: "He's smart. He knows what's going on, he knows the offense, he knows what to do and he can execute really well. He's a tremendous athlete."

His father, Nick Sanchez: "There's no doubt Mark has that gunslinger mentality. He wants to come out and make a play. The last thing you want to do is to take that out of him. You don't want to give him a 'gunslinger-otomy.' But it's got to be tempered to a degree. He has to learn when to and when not to."

(1) PATRICK TURNER—Wide Receiver, 6-5, 220, Sr./Sr., Nashville, TN (Goodpasture HS)

CAREER: His 138 career catches is 10th on USC's all-time pass catching chart and his 30 career TDs are tied for second at USC (tied for 23rd in the Pac-10).

2008: Turner, USC's most experienced wide receiver, started for his second season as a senior in 2008 and had a consistent, effective showing. Overall in 2008 while starting all 13 games, he had 49 receptions (second on USC) for 741 yards (15.1 avg.) with a team-best 10 TDs. He had 4 games with 5-plus receptions in 2008. He made the 2008 All-Pac-10 second team. He was a Senior Bowl and Texas Vs. The Nation Bowl invitee.

He had 2 catches for 62 yards with a 20-yard score at Virginia, then 4 catches for 43 yards against Ohio State and 4 receptions for 44 yards (with a 14-yard TD) at Oregon State. He added 5 catches for 77 yards (with an 11-yard TD) versus Oregon, 3 receptions for 38 yards against Arizona State and 3 grabs for 46 yards with a career-high 2 TDs at Washington State. He had 2 catches for 23 yards at Arizona, then 6 receptions for 100 yards, including touchdowns of 4 and 32 yards, against Washington. He made 2 receptions for 35 yards (including a diving 19-yard TD) versus California, then 3 catches for 35 yards at Stanford and 6 receptions for 83 yards with a 12-yard TD against Notre Dame. He had 5 catches for 81 yards (both game highs), with an 18-yard TD, at UCLA to win USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA Award. He made 4 receptions for 74 yards versus Penn State.

2007: Turner started at both wideout spots (3 early-season games at flanker and 7 contests at split end) in his 2007 junior season. Overall in 2007 while appearing in 11 games (all but Idaho and Illinois) and starting 10 times (all but Idaho and UCLA), he had 48 receptions for 569 yards (11.9 avg.) with 3 touchdowns. He also had a tackle and a forced fumble. He was a 2007 Phil Steele's All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick. He missed the Idaho game after suffering a stinger in 2007 fall camp and the Illinois game with a thigh bruise suffered in practice.

He had 3 receptions for 24 yards at Nebraska, 7 catches for 74 yards (64 yards) against Washington State, Turner had a 6 catches for 87 yards (both game highs) with a 23-yard TD at Washington and a game-high 9 receptions for 83 yards against Stanford. He added 3 catches for 21 yards against Arizona, 4 catches for 42 yards at Notre Dame and 7 receptions for 107 yards (with a 9-yard TD) at Oregon. He caught a 13-yard TD against Oregon State and a 13-yard pass (for a key first down late in the game while USC was trying to protect its lead) at California. He then had 5 receptions for 70 yards at Arizona State and 2 catches for 35 yards against UCLA.

2006: Turner saw significant action as a sophomore backup wide receiver in 2006. Overall in 2006 while appearing in all 13 games (he even started the Washington State and Washington games), he caught 29 passes for 272 yards (9.4 avg.) with 2 TDs. He also made 2 tackles and threw an incomplete pass (off a reverse against Nebraska).

He had 2 catches for 15 yards (including a 14-yard TD) at Arkansas, then had 2 receptions for 13 yards at Arizona. He caught 5 passes for 25 yards at Washington State. He started in place of an injured Dwayne Jarrett against Washington and had a game-best 12 catches for 116 yards (both career highs) with a 17-yard TD (the most receptions by a Trojan since Mike Williams had 13 at Oregon in 2002). He caught 2 passes for 33 yards at Oregon State, added a 14-yard reception at Stanford and a 17-yard reception against Oregon. He had 2 catches for 21 yards against California and a 20-yard reception against Notre Dame.

2005: Turner served as an often-used backup wide receiver as a first-year freshman in 2005. Overall in 2005 while appearing in 12 games (all but UCLA), he had 12 catches for 170 yards (14.2 avg.) with 2 TDs. He had 2 catches for 25 yards (including a 21-yard TD) against Arkansas, added a 20-yard reception against Arizona and had 2 grabs for 40 yards (with a 31-yard TD) at Washington. He then had 2 catches for 21 yards against Washington State, 3 receptions for 35 yards versus Stanford and 2 catches for 29 yards at California. He strained his right hamstring against Fresno State and missed the UCLA game.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2004 Parade All-American, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Rivals 100, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Scout.com All-American first team, USA Today All-USA second team, EA Sports All-American second team, Super Prep All-Dixie Offensive Player of the Year, Prep Star All-Southeast, Atlanta Journal-Constitution Super Southern 100 and FSN South All-South selection as a senior wide receiver at Goodpasture High in West Madison (Tenn.). He had 48 receptions for 800-plus yards and 11 touchdowns in 2004.

As a junior, he caught 56 passes for 955 yards (17.1 avg.) with 12 TDs.

He was a Student Sports Sophomore All-American in 2002 when he had 56 catches for 1,033 yards with 14 TDs.

He also was on the basketball and track teams at Goodpasture.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

PATRICK TURNER ON: Catching passes: "My goal is to catch anything that comes near me…When the ball is in the air, it's anybody's game and you just have to make it yours."

His expectations: "I feel it's my time now to show what I can do, now that I'm older, been in the system and know how things go around here. I'm just going in there with the mindset to make sure the team doesn't lose a step."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback John David Booty: "I really think Patrick has the chance to be an all-world receiver here."

Former USC offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach Lane Kiffin: "We felt comfortable that whenever we needed to go to Patrick, he would do a great job. He has really good hands and he keeps getting better. He's such a good athlete and is so fast."

(81) GERALD WASHINGTON—Defensive End, 6-6, 255, Sr.*/Sr., Vallejo, CA (Vallejo HS/Chaffey JC)

2008: Washington, USC's oldest player (26), was a backup defensive end and played on special teams as a senior in 2008. Overall in 2008 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arizona and Washington), he had 3 tackles, including 0.5 for a loss of 1 yard, plus he recovered 2 fumbles (at Virginia and Washington State, both leading to USC touchdowns) and blocked a punt (at UCLA). He sprained his right ankle at Washington State and missed the next 2 games (Arizona and Washington).

2007: Washington, who was moved from tight end to defensive end in the spring of 2007, saw brief action in 10 games (all but Nebraska, Washington and Stanford) as a junior in 2007, primarily on special teams (blocking on placekicks) and as a backup defensive end. He had a tackle against Washington State. He had arthroscopic surgery on his left knee following 2007spring practice.

2006: Washington, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2006 after transferring from a junior college, redshirted as a junior tight end in 2006. He suffered a bruised knee prior to the Arizona game and was sidelined the rest of the season. He entered USC as a tight end, was switched to defensive end early in 2006 fall camp, then was moved back to tight end early in the season.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named to the 2005 J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region II first team and All-Foothill Conference first team squads as a sophomore tight end at Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga (Calif.). He caught 23 passes with 2 TDs in 2005.

As a freshman in 2004, he had 15 receptions with 1 TD.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Vallejo (Calif.) High, where he played football just as a senior (his only catch was a 21-yard touchdown).

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. Before he entered junior college in 2004, he spent the previous 4 years in the U.S. Navy as a helicopter mechanic. As a youth, he played tennis and competed in juniors tournaments.

(44) GREG WOIDNECK—Punter, 6-0, 200, Sr.*/Sr., Brea, CA (Brea Olinda HS/Arizona State/Mt. San Antonio JC)

CAREER: In his career, Woidneck averaged 37.7 yards on his 155 punts. Some 61 of his 155 punts (39.4%) pinned opponents with the 20-yard line. He had 19 punts that traveled 50-plus yards in his career.

2008: Woidneck was USC's punter for his third season as a senior in 2008. Overall in 2008 while appearing in all 13 games, he averaged 36.9 yards on his 47 punts. Some 21 of his 47 punts (44.7%) pinned foes within the 20. He also had 1 tackle.

He averaged 36.0 yards on his 2 punts at Virginia (with 1 pinning the Cavaliers within the 20). He averaged 35.2 yards on his 5 punts against Ohio State (with 3 pinning the Buckeyes within the 20). He averaged 39.3 yards on his 6 punts (with a 50-yarder) at Oregon State. His only punt against Oregon went 27 yards. He averaged 37.8 yards on his 5 punts (including a 53-yarder) against Arizona State, with 2 pinning the Sun Devils within the 20. He averaged 49.0 yards on his 2 punts at Washington State (both pinned the Cougars within the 20), with a 56-yarder. He averaged 34.3 yards on his 6 punts at Arizona (with 2 pinning the Wildcats within the 20). His only punt at Washington was a 50-yarder that pinned the Huskies within the 20. He averaged 27.6 yards on his 5 punts against California, with 2 pinning the Bears with the 20. He averaged 42.5 yards on his 4 punts at Stanford, with 2 pinning the Cardinal within the 20. He averaged 32.2 yards on his 4 punts versus Notre Dame, with 1 pinning the Irish within the 20. He averaged 41.0 yards on his 2 punts at UCLA (pinning the Bruins within the 20 once). He averaged 40.0 yards on his 4 punts against Penn State, with 2 pinning PSU within the 20, and he had a 50-yarder.

2007: Woidneck, a one-time walk-on who earned a scholarship in the fall of 2007, spent his second season as USC's punter as a junior in 2007. Overall in 2007 while appearing in 12 games (USC did not punt against Washington State), he averaged 37.9 yards on his 60 punts. He also had 1 tackle. Twenty-four of his 60 punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 7 traveled at least 50 yards, but he had 3 punts blocked.

He averaged 43.0 yards on his 2 punts versus Idaho and 41.0 on his 4 punts at Nebraska (2 pinned the Cornhuskers within the 20 and 1 traveled 50 yards). He averaged 38.3 yards on his 4 punts at Washington but had 1 blocked, then averaged 40.8 on his 4 punts against Stanford, with a 56-yarder. He averaged 36.6 yards on his 7 punts against Arizona (including twice pinning UA within the 20). He averaged 37.0 yards on his 6 punts at Notre Dame (including 4 pinning ND within the 20) but had 1 blocked. He averaged 36.4 yards on 5 punts at Oregon, including a 54-yarder (1 pinned the Ducks within the 20). He averaged 36.4 yards on his 7 punts against Oregon State, with 3 pinning OSU within the 20. He averaged 34.0 yards on his 6 punts at California (including 2 that pinned the Bears within the 20) and used a variety of directional punts and sky kicks to eliminate the effect of star returner DeSean Jackson. He averaged 52.0 yards on his 2 punts at Arizona State (52 and 50 yards), but had 1 blocked. He averaged 38.3 yards punting versus UCLA with 4 of his 7 punts pinning the Bruins within the 20. He averaged 36.2 yards on his 6 punts against Illinois, with 4 pinning the Illini within the 20.

2006: Woidneck, who won the starting punter job in 2006 fall camp as a walk-on sophomore after transferring to USC via Arizona State and then a junior college, averaged 38.3 yards on his 48 punts while appearing in all 13 games in 2006. He also had a tackle. Sixteen of his 48 punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 5 traveled at least 50 yards.
