2017 USC SPRING FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

USC has produced some of college football's most legendary players, coaches, games and moments.

There have been 11 national championships, 34 bowl victories, 166 All-Americans, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 43 College Football Hall of Famers, 22 Academic All-Americans, 485 NFL players and 15 Pro Football Hall of Famers.

The 2017 Trojans–the school's 125th football team–want to add to that legacy. They certainly are well equipped to do so.

After all, 81 squadmen return from the Rose Bowl champion 2016 team (51 of them saw action), including 14 starters (6 on offense, 7 on defense, 1 specialist). Among them are some of the top players at their positions in the country, including at quarterback, running back, linebacker and cornerback. They'll be joined by a consensus national Top 5 recruiting class of 23 newcomers, including 5 who already enrolled at USC and will participate in spring drills.

USC enters 2017 riding a 9-game winning streak (its longest since 2008-09) that was capped with the instant-classic last-second 52-49 Rose Bowl victory over Penn State. That gave USC a 10-3 finish (7-2 in the Pac-12 South Division for second place) and a No. 3 final national ranking (its highest since 2008 and the highest ever of any 3-loss team). Troy did all this while playing a schedule ranked among the 10 most difficult in the nation.

USC's 2016 turnaround from a 1-3 start (the losses were to AP Top 25 teams away from home) can be attributed partly to Clay Helton, who stayed the course in his first full season as the Trojan head coach (he had served as interim head coach in 2 previous seasons). His steady and consistent hand guided USC to wins over traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame and in the Rose Bowl, just the 13th season that trifecta has happened in Trojan history. USC was perfect at home (6-0) for the first time since 2008 and undefeated in the greater Los Angeles area (8-0). The Trojans beat both teams (Washington and Colorado) that played in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

With the way USC closed out the 2016 season, expect the Trojans to enter 2017 highly ranked.

"We understand the expectations at USC are high, especially after the successful season we had last year," said Helton, who in 2016 was a finalist for the Bryant Coach of the Year Award and won the Football Writers First Year Co-Coach of the Year Award. "We welcome those expectations.

"Just like every year, we will enter the 2017 season with the expectation of winning the Pac-12 championship. We have a group of players and coaches here that can do that. This is the 125th USC football team and we expect great things this season."

The 2017 Trojan offense, which last season piled up at least 400 total yards in each of its last 10 games and scored at least 40 points 7 times, will be led by quarterback Sam Darnold, now a leading Heisman Trophy candidate after a spectacular 2016 campaign in which he won the Archie Griffin Award, made Freshman All-American and was the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year as he hit 67.2% of his passes for 3,086 yards and 31 touchdowns, including a 453-yard, 5-TD outing that earned him Rose Bowl Offensive MVP honors. The other returning offensive starters are tailback Ronald Jones II, who ran for 1,082 yards and 12 TDs last season (he is over 2,000 career rushing yards), wide receiver Deontay Burnett, who had 56 receptions last fall (13 in the Rose Bowl with 3 scores, including the game-tying TD in the final minutes), linemen Viane Talamaivao at guard (he has started the past 3 years) and Nico Falah at center and tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe (4 TDs among his 17 catches in 2016). Others back with starting experience are wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr. and Jalen Greene, center-guard Toa Lobendahn, tackle Chuma Edoga, guard-tackle Chris Brown and tight end Tyler Petite.

USC's feature players on a defense that last fall held 7 opponents to season lows in points include inside linebacker Cameron Smith, a 2016 Sophomore All-American who already has notched 161 career tackles (with a team-high 83 last year), cornerback Iman Marshall (6 career interceptions), outside linebackers Porter Gustin (68 tackles in 2016, including a team-high 13 for losses) and Uchenna Nwosu, lineman Rasheem Green (a team-best 6 sacks in 2016) and safety Marvell Tell III. Safety Chris Hawkins and cornerbacks Ajene Harris and Jonathan Lockett also return after being part-time starters in 2016. Others returning with starts to their name are outside linebacker Olajuwon Tucker and tackles Malik Dorton and Josh Fatu.

USC's 2016 punter (Chris Tilbey, who saw only 8 runbacks among his 50 punts last season) returns in 2017, as does the holder on placement kicks, Wyatt Schmidt.

However, the Trojans do have a number of holes to fill. Gone from last season's offense are wide receivers JuJu Smith-Schuster (USC's No. 4 career pass catcher with 213 receptions for 3,092 yards and 25 TDs, including 70 grabs with 10 scores in 2016) and Darreus Rogers (127 career catches with 11 TDs, including 56 catches in 2016), plus both starting tackles (All-Americans and All-Pac-12 selectees Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler), tailback Justin Davis (2,465 career rushing yards with 19 TDs), 2-year starting tight end Taylor McNamara and 2-year starting guard Damien Mama, who like Smith-Schuster declared for the NFL Draft after his junior season.

Missing from last year's defense are cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, the 2016 Thorpe Award and Jet Award winner, unanimous All-American first teamer and Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year who had 6 career interceptions, 15 touchdowns scored via kick return, punt return, interception and reception and set the USC career records for kick returns and yardage (he declared for the NFL Draft after his junior year), along with inside linebacker Michael Hutchings (118 career tackles, with 66 last fall), tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, and safety Leon McQuay III, who had 5 career picks, including one with 27 seconds to play in the Rose Bowl to set up Troy's game-winning field goal.

The return of placekicker Matt Boermeester, whose 18 field goals last year–including a 46-yarder at the gun to win the Rose Bowl—were 1 shy of the school record, is uncertain because of a student code of conduct issue. Also gone from last season is 4-year starting long snapper Zach Smith.

Helton's assistant coaching staff stayed nearly intact from 2016, with the only newcomer being running backs coach Deland McCullough, who joins USC after 6 seasons at Indiana, where the Hoosiers set 19 school rushing records and sent 3 runners to the NFL.

USC's 2017 schedule features 7 home games in the Coliseum, beginning with three straight to open the season. Overall, USC's 12-game slate features 5 teams that played in bowls last season and won at least 8 games. The Trojans will play 9 league foes in the 2017 regular season (all but Oregon and Washington). However, for the first time since the 1995 season, the Trojans will not have a regular-season bye week, only getting a week off on the final weekend of November should they advance to the Pac-12 Championship Game on Dec. 1 or 2.

Troy will open its 2017 slate with a 3-game homestand, as Western Michigan of the Mid-American Conference on Sept. 2 and the Big 12's Texas on Sept. 16 sandwich league foe Stanford's Sept. 9 appearance. The Broncos won 13 games in 2016 and played in the Cotton Bowl, while the Longhorns will be making their first L.A. visit versus Troy since 1967, and both teams will be guided by a new head coach (Tom Herman with Texas and Tim Lester with Western Michigan). The Cardinal clash marks the seventh year in a row that USC will play the Pac-12's first conference game of the year. After Texas, the Trojans take to the road for a pair of Pac-12 encounters, at California on Sept. 23 (led by former USC defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox) and then visiting Washington State for a Friday night game on Sept. 29. USC returns to the Coliseum for 2 league contests, hosting Oregon State on Oct. 7 (like WSU, the Beavers are back on the schedule after a 2-year hiatus) and Utah on Oct. 14. USC then goes back on the road for its traditional intersectional battle with Notre Dame on Oct. 21 before finishing with a stretch of 4 Pac-12 games, first playing at Arizona State on Oct. 28. Arizona comes to the Coliseum on Nov. 4, then USC goes to defending Pac-12 South Division champion Colorado on Nov. 11 before hosting crosstown rival UCLA on Nov. 18.

OFFENSE

Six starters return on offense from 2016: quarterback Sam Darnold, tailback Ronald Jones II, wide receiver Deontay Burnett, guard Viane Talamaivao, center Nico Falah and tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe. Other offensive players back with starting experience are wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr. and Jalen Greene, center-guard Toa Lobendahn, tackle Chuma Edoga, guard-tackle Chris Brown and tight end Tyler Petite.

USC returns its top rusher (in fact, 5 of its top 6 runners) and its top passer from 2016, and 9 of the 17 players who caught passes last fall are back. In 2016, Troy improved upon its offensive numbers from the previous season, averaging 200.7 yards on the ground (+32.5) and 276.4 yards through the air (+6.7) for 477.1 yards of total offense (+39.2) and 34.4 points (+0.5). The rushing and total offense figures were USC's best since 2005. The Trojans had at least 400 total yards in each of their final 10 games of 2016 and tallied 40-plus points 7 times. In its 10 victories last year (when it scored at least 35 points 8 times), USC's average victory margin was 19.8 points and the Trojans held the halftime lead in each contest. Last year, USC ranked sixth nationally in sacks allowed (0.9), seventh in tackles for loss allowed (4.4), ninth in completion percentage (.657), 11th in third down conversions (.478), 15th in first downs (322), 20th in total offense and 25th in both passing efficiency (149.6) and pass offense.

USC's offense, coordinated by wide receivers coach Tee Martin with quarterbacks coach Tyson Helton assisting as the pass game coordinator and new running backs coach Deland McCullough as the run game coordinator, features multiple formations, often with extra wideouts and no fullback.

"I loved how our offense progressed last year and that's a credit to Tee and our offensive coaches and players," said Helton. "I look forward to more of the same in 2017. We strive to be balanced on offense and take advantage of what the defense gives us. We have some very talented skill position players who can get yards on the ground or through the air, but we will have to develop our big men in a hurry this year if we want to win a conference championship."

QUARTERBACKS

In sophomore Sam Darnold (246-of-366, 67.2%, 3,086 yds, 31 TD, 9 int in 2016, plus 62 tcb, 250 yds, 4.0 avg, 2 TD), USC has one of the nation's elite quarterbacks. Despite his youth, he will enter 2017 as a leading contender for the Heisman Trophy. Known for his poise, accuracy and mobility, Darnold sparked the Trojans last year as just a redshirt freshman when he became the starter in the fourth game and led Troy to a 9-1 record. He won the Archie Griffin Award, was a finalist for the Manning Award, made Freshman All-American first team and was the Pac-12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. He was second nationally in ESPN's Total Quarterback Rating (behind Oklahoma's Baker Mayfield) and led all freshman signalcallers in passing efficiency (161.1), completion percentage and TD passes. His 31 TD aerials was a USC freshman season record. He threw multiple scoring passes in 9 consecutive games, the most by a Trojan since Matt Leinart's 15 in 2003-04. Darnold threw 5 TDs in a game 3 times, including in his 453-yard passing performance in the Rose Bowl, when he set game records for TDs and total offense (473 yards) to earn Rose Bowl Offensive MVP honors, and back-to-back against Arizona and California (a USC first). He was the first USC freshman to throw for 300 yards in consecutive games (Arizona State and Colorado) since Todd Marinovich in 1989. Darnold's 250 rushing yards were the most in a season by a USC quarterback since 1991.

Backing Darnold are 4 untested underclassmen: redshirt freshman Matt Fink, first-year freshman Jack Sears (San Clemente High in San Clemente, Calif.), a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from Darnold's alma mater (he threw for 2,602 yards and 37 TDs last fall on the state champs) and will participate in 2017 spring practice, and walk-ons Thomas Fitts, a sophomore, and redshirt freshman Holden Thomas.

"After a very successful freshman season, I'm looking forward to seeing how Sam progresses," said Helton. "No doubt, he is a special talent, performing well beyond his years. We need him to continue to develop and perform. We also need to develop the young quarterbacks behind him. That's very important."

RUNNING BACKS

Despite losing tailback Justin Davis, who ran for 2,465 yards and 19 touchdowns in his career along with catching 46 passes (he had 607 rushing yards in 2016), the 2017 Trojan backfield is deep. It features one of the game's most exciting and productive runners in junior Ronald Jones II (177 tcb, 1,082 yds, 6.1 avg, 12 TD in 2016, plus 11 rec, 76 yds, 6.9 avg, 1 TD). Jones already has run for 2,069 yards with 20 TDs in his USC career (an impressive 6.3 yards per carry), including eclipsing the 1,000-yard barrier last fall when he gained a team-leading 1,082 yards with 12 scores. His 223-yard rushing output versus California last year (averaging 12.4 yards per attempt) was the most by a Trojan since 2010 and the second most ever by a USC sophomore. He ran for a TD in each of the last 7 games of 2016.

Two other experienced junior tailbacks also return in 2017: Aca'Cedric Ware (78 tcb, 397 yds, 5.1 avg, 2 TD in 2016, plus 4 rec, 29 yds, 7.3 avg and 1 tac), who rushed for 397 yards last season (he had back-to-back 100-yard games versus Arizona and California), and speedy Dominic Davis (23 tcb, 132 yds, 5.7 avg in 2016, plus 4 rec, 19 yds, 4.8 avg), who picked up 132 rushing yards in 2016. Davis' 85-yard run at Arizona was the longest by a Trojan since 1996. Like Jones, Davis has sprinted for the USC track team.

Also in the tailback mix are senior James Toland IV (13 tcb, 69 yds, 5.3 avg in 2016, plus 3 tac) and promising redshirt freshman Vavae Malepeai, who was sidelined most of last year with a broken shoulder blade, along with walk-on redshirt freshman Chris Edmondson.

Joining the tailback corps in the fall as a freshman will be prep All-American Stephen Carr (Summit High in Fontana, Calif.), a 210-pounder who had 2,123 rushing yards and another 466 receiving yards in 2016.

USC rarely employed a traditional fullback last year. The only one on the 2017 roster is junior Reuben Peters (1 tac in 2016), who like Toland came to USC as a walk-on but earned a scholarship last fall (he plays often on special teams).

"We have a very potent and deep backfield, with some veteran, gifted runners in Ronald, Aca'Cedric and Dominic," said Helton. "Each can be a difference maker in a game. We also have some very talented youngsters who I'm anxious to watch perform."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC lost a lot of wideout firepower from 2016, including its top 2 receivers: JuJu Smith-Schuster declared for the NFL after his junior campaign and Darreus Rogers' eligibility expired. Smith-Schuster ended as Troy's No. 4 career pass catcher with 213 receptions for 3,092 yards and 25 TDs, including a team-best 70 grabs with 10 scores last season. He caught a pass in all 40 games in which he played as a Trojan and he had 12 100-yard performances. Rogers added 127 career catches with 11 TDs, including 56 catches for 696 yards in 2016.

Junior Deontay Burnett (56 rec, 622 yds, 11.1 avg, 7 TD in 2016, plus 3 tcb, 31 yds, 10.3 avg and 4 PR, 26 yds, 6.5 avg and 2 tac) had an eye-opening sophomore campaign last fall when he tied Rogers for the team's second-most receptions (56). Burnett's showing in the Rose Bowl was magical as he caught 13 passes for 164 yards and 3 scores, including the game-tying TD in the final minutes.

Three other experienced wide receivers return in 2017: senior Steven Mitchell Jr. (24 rec, 226 yds, 9.4 avg, 1 TD in 2016, plus 2 tcb, -3 yds, -1.5 avg and 5 KOR, 91 yds, 18.2 avg and 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg), junior Jalen Greene (8 rec, 116 yds, 14.5 avg in 2016, plus 4 tcb, 12 yds, 3.0 avg and 0-1 passing) and sophomore Michael Pittman Jr. (6 rec, 82 yds, 13.7 avg in 2016, plus 7 tac, 1 BLK P, 1 FF and 2 PR, 63 yds, 31.5 avg and 4 KOR, 31 yds, 7.8 avg). Mitchell, who has 68 career grabs and 7 TDs with 11 starts, caught 24 passes last year before a mid-season knee injury sidelined him (he could be limited in 2017 spring practice while recuperating). Greene, a one-time quarterback, has developed into an effective and often-employed wideout (with 18 career catches and 3 starts). Pittman had 6 catches as a rookie last fall and also made his mark on special teams with 7 tackles and a blocked punt.

Four redshirt freshmen will battle to get into the wide receiver playing rotation: Josh Imatorbhebhe, Velus Jones Jr., Trevon Sidney (he had post-season surgery on his hips, which could limit him in 2017 spring drills) and Tyler Vaughns. There also is a trio of walk-ons in seniors Jackson Boyer and Milo Stewart and sophomore Jake Russell, but none have caught a pass.

Bolstering the wide receiver group as freshmen this fall are prep All-American Joseph Lewis IV (Hawkins High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who had 142 career receptions as a prepster, along with Randal Grimes (Desert Pines High in Las Vegas, Nev.), who like Greene has quarterback skills in his background.

"This is a group that will need to develop in a hurry because we lost some very productive wideouts from last season," said Helton. "We saw what kind of player Deontay is as he emerged throughout last season. Steven has proven to be very effective when he is healthy. This is a relatively young unit but has some exciting talent. They will be thrown into the fire quickly."

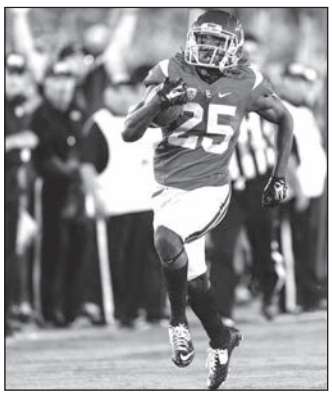
TIGHT ENDS

USC's tight end room will be without the dependable Taylor McNamara, who graduated along with his 24 Trojan career catches (with 5 TDs) in 15 starts.

But there is a wealth of talented tight ends in 2017. Sophomore Daniel Imatorbhebhe (17 rec, 250 yds, 14.7 avg, 4 TD in 2016), the older brother of USC wide receiver Josh Imatorbhebhe, showed his ability to be an impact pass catcher, especially down the field, as he had 4 scores among his 17 grabs last season while starting 5 times. The same can be said of junior Tyler Petite (10 rec, 156 yds, 15.6 avg, 2 TD in 2016), who has 25 career receptions.



RONALD JONES II

DEONTAY BURNETT

DANIEL IMATORBHEBHE

Also available are developing redshirt freshman Cary Angeline and junior walk-ons Alec Hursh and Austin Applebee. Applebee joined the Trojans this spring after transferring from Arizona Western Junior College (the NJCAA national runner-up) following a 2-year stint at NCAA Division II McKendree.

Coming aboard in the fall as freshmen will be prep All-American Josh Falo (Inderkum High in Sacramento, Calif.), who caught 8 TDs in his senior year, along with Erik Krommenhoek (Monte Vista High in Danville, Calif.), who also had 8 scoring catches last year. Falo has 2 brothers who have played collegiately.

"This is one of our deepest and strongest positions," said Helton. "Daniel and Tyler really emerged last year into effective blockers and pass catchers. And there are some promising young players pushing behind them."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's offensive line, a strong point in 2016 (Troy averaged 200 rushing yards and allowed less than 1 sack per contest), will need to retool in 2017 with the loss of 3 key starters. Gone are both tackles, Zach Banner (a 3-year starter on the right side) and Chad Wheeler (a 4-year starter on the left side), and 2-year starting left guard Damien Mama. Banner (a 2016 Senior CLASS Award finalist) and Wheeler both made All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team last year, while Mama declared for the NFL following his junior season.

Senior Viane Talamaivao returns for his fourth season as the starting right guard, while senior Nico Falah was solid in 2016 as the starting center.

The wild card on Troy's offensive line in 2017 is versatile junior Toa Lobendahn, a starter in every game in which he has appeared. He has 21 career starts at 4 positions (8 at left guard, 5 at left tackle, 5 at right guard, 3 at center). He could be tried at a variety of spots this year. Lobendahn started the 2016 opener at center but suffered a season-ending knee injury in that game (it was the second consecutive year that his season was cut short by a knee injury), so his participation in 2017 spring drills could be limited.

VIANE TALAMAIVAO

Two other juniors have starting experience on the line: Chuma Edoga at tackle (4 starts) and Chris Brown at guard (2 starts). Brown also might be tried at tackle.

Looking to break into the playing rotation are junior guard-tackle Jordan Austin and sophomores Roy Hemsley at guard-tackle, Clayton Johnston at tackle and Cole Smith at center. All have seen limited playing time to date. Then there is a pair of redshirt freshmen in guard Frank Martin II and tackle Nathan Smith, but Smith suffered a late-season knee injury in 2016 and could be sidelined in 2017, plus junior walk-on center Richie Wenzel.

Prep All-American guard-tackle Andrew Vorhees (Kingsburg High in Kingsburg, Calif.) graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring as a freshman, able to participate in 2017 spring drills. Tackle Austin Jackson (North Canyon High in Phoenix, Ariz.) and guard-tackle Alijah Vera-Tucker (Bishop O'Dowd High in Oakland, Calif.) and center Brett Neilon (Santa Margarita High in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), all prep All-Americans, will come aboard in the fall as freshmen. Jackson's grandfather played on USC's 1974 national championship squad and then in the NFL, while Neilon's aunts were USC golfers.

"With the personnel losses we had here, there will be a very competitive atmosphere for playing time within this unit," said Helton. "As we did last year, we will train players to perform at several positions. Viane and Nico will be the senior leaders of the line. There are a number of other players with experience under their belts, like Toa, Chuma and Chris, and there are also some young and new players from whom we expect big things. Whoever emerges will have some huge shoes to fill."

DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters return from 2016: inside linebacker Cameron Smith, cornerback Iman Marshall, outside linebackers Porter Gustin and Uchenna Nwosu, lineman Rasheem Green and safety Marvell Tell III, along with a trio of players who shared starts in safety Chris Hawkins and cornerbacks Ajene Harris and Jonathan Lockett. Other defensive players back with career starts are outside linebacker Olajuwon Tucker and tackles Malik Dorton and Josh Fatu.

USC returns its top 2 tacklers from 2016, plus its leaders in tackles for loss, sacks and forced fumbles. Like on the offensive side of the ball, Troy saw improvement last fall in its defensive numbers from 2015, surrendering 367.2 total yards (-33.6), including 139.6 rushing (-9.7) and 227.5 (-24.0) passing, and 24.2 points (-1.5). Seven times in 2016, USC held the opponent to a season low in points. The Trojans allowed just 50 points in the first quarter last fall (and only 71 in the second quarter).

Clancy Pendergast, who returned last year for his second stint as Troy's defensive coordinator, employs an attacking 5-2 system that morphs into a 3-4 and a 4-3. USC played most of 2016 with 5 defensive backs.

"We were very pleased that Clancy was able to get our defense to perform last year like it did when he was here previously," said Helton. "We expect even more success defensively in 2017 as our players enter the second year in his system. He develops tough defenses that put constant pressure on the opponent, a style that our players enjoy playing."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The rock of USC's 2016 interior defensive line—tackle Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who had transferred from Utah last season—is gone. He had 53 tackles last season while clogging up the middle of the Trojan defensive front. He was the Rose Bowl Defensive Player of the Game after notching 8 tackles.

However, Tu'ikolovatu's inside linemate in the starting lineup does return in 2017, junior Rasheem Green (55 tac, 6.5 for loss, 6 sack, 4 dfl, 2 FF, 2 BLK FG in 2016). Green had 55 tackles last year, including a team-high 6 sacks.

Looking to replicate Tu'ikolovatu's immovable force will be challenging. The possible replacements include senior Josh Fatu (21 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack in 2016), who made 21 tackles while playing often last fall (he even started once) after coming to USC from a junior college, and juniors Malik Dorton (9 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl in 2016), who started once last year and notched 9 tackles, and Jacob Daniel (6 tac in 2016). Senior Kenny Bigelow Jr., who missed the 2016 season while sidelined with the second knee injury of his Trojan career, is hoping to come back healthy and make an impact. Then there is walk-on redshirt freshman Connor Rossow, who sat out 2016 with a shoulder injury. Two touted freshmen will get a look here, too: prep All-American Marlon Tuipulotu (Central High in Independence, Ore.), who enrolled at USC this spring after graduating early from high school (where he had 269 career tackles, with 64 for a loss and 31 sacks), and Brandon Pili (Westview High in Portland, Ore.), who previously prepped in Alaska and will come aboard this fall.

Working to get into the rotation behind Green will be sophomore Christian Rector (5 tac, 1 dfl in 2016) and redshirt freshman Liam Jimmons. Joining the fray here in the fall as freshmen will be prep All-American Jay Tufele (Bingham High in South Jordan, Utah), along with Jacob Lichtenstein (Cypress Bay High in Weston, Fla.).

"Like with our offensive line, the defensive front will have to overcome the loss of key personnel and therefore there will be great competition for playing time," said Helton. "Rasheem took a big leap forward last season and he will be our veteran leader up front. I expect our other older players to step up here, along with some talented newcomers."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Both of USC's 2016 starting outside linebackers, who play standing up at the line, return this year and both are good ones: frenetic junior Porter Gustin (68 tac, 13 for loss, 5.5 sack, 4 dfl in 2016), who led Troy in tackles for loss (13) last season and was second in tackles (68), and senior Uchenna Nwosu (53 tac, 7.5 for loss, 3 sack, 5 dfl, 1 FF in 2016), who had 7.5 tackles for losses among his 53 total stops last fall.

PORTER GUSTIN

UCHENNA NWOSU

Their high-potential backups from last season also are back in 2017 in senior Olajuwon Tucker (9 tac in 2016), who started 3 times in 2015 at an inside spot, and sophomores Connor Murphy (6 tac, 1 FR in 2016) and Oluwole Betiku Jr. Walk-on soph Matt Bayle also is available.

Enrolling in the fall as freshmen will be prep All-American Hunter Echols (Cathedral High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who had 54 tackles for a loss and 26 sacks in his prep career, along with Juliano Falaniko (Leone High in Pago Pago, American Samoa), the first Trojan footballer from an American Samoa high school since the mid-2000s. Falaniko might also work at inside linebacker.

"This is one of our strongest, most productive units with Uchenna and Porter back," said Helton. "They are disruptive players to any offense. We also look forward to the continued development of our younger outside linebackers."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Michael Hutchings, who was the heart of USC's defense last year while starting at middle linebacker and posting 66 tackles (third on the team), has graduated.

But always-around-the-ball junior Cameron Smith (83 tac, 7 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2016, plus 1 KOR, 7 yds, 7.0 avg) returns as a starter and is among the nation's best. Known for his intense, punishing style, he earned Sophomore All-American first team status in 2016, a year after being a Freshman All-American. He led the Trojans in tackles last year with 83 and now has 161 stops in his career with 22 starts.

CAMERON SMITH

Looking to move into a starting role are sophomores John Houston Jr. (16 tac in 2016) and Jordan Iosefa (9 tac in 2016). There also are 3 walk-ons available in seniors Joel Foy and Christian Herrera and junior Grant Moore.

Tayler Katoa (Layton High in Layton, Utah) graduated a semester early from high school and began at USC this spring as a freshman, while prep All-American Levi Jones (Westlake High in Austin, Tex.) arrives in the fall as a frosh. Katoa played quarterback in high school in addition to defense, while Jones recorded 238 prep tackles (his father, brother and uncle all starred in the NFL). Jones might also be tried at outside linebacker.

"We are very fortunate to return a veteran like Cameron," said Helton. "He is as good as they get. But we need to fill a void at the other inside spot. We have a number of promising young players who will compete to do that."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC lost a pair of big-play starters from its 2016 secondary, cornerback Adoree' Jackson (who also was a dangerous returner and saw action on offense as a wide receiver) and safety Leon McQuay III. Last year, Jackson won the Thorpe Award and Jet Award (he also was a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy), earned consensus All-American first team notice and was the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year when he had 55 tackles and led USC in interceptions (5), deflections (11) and fumble recoveries (2). Jackson started at corner for 3 seasons, getting 139 tackles, 29 deflections and 6 interceptions in his career while also scoring 8 touchdowns as a punt and kick returner and 6 TDs as a wideout. He was an All-American long jumper, too, twice winning the Pac-12 title (he was fifth in the past 2 NCAA Meets). He left USC after his junior year and declared for the NFL. McQuay, who had 24 career starts and 5 interceptions, made 50 stops and 2 picks last year while starting at strong safety or nickelback. He will long be remembered for his interception in the Rose Bowl with 27 seconds to play to set up USC's game-winning field goal.

But the Trojans have plenty of returning talent in the 2017 secondary. Most prominent is physical junior cornerback Iman Marshall (51 tac, 3 for loss, 8 dfl, 3 int in 2016), a starter the past 2 years while logging 6 interceptions and 118 tackles. He had 51 stops and 3 thefts in 2016 and could be among the nation's best corners this year.

Rangy junior Marvell Tell III (43 tac, 2 for loss, 2 dfl, 1 int in 2016) returns as the starting free safety. He made 43 tackles last fall.

A likely contender for the starting strong safety job is veteran senior Chris Hawkins (44 tac, 4 for losses, 1 sack, 2 dfl, 2 FF in 2016), who alternated with McQuay there last season and got 44 stops and 4 starts. He has 22 career starts with 146 tackles and 3 interceptions.

USC often employed a fifth defensive back in 2016 and both players who earned starts in that nickelback role last year are on the 2017 team: junior cornerback Ajene Harris (30 tac, 3.5 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, 1 FR, 2 FF, 2 int with 1 TD in 2016, plus 1 tcb, 14 yds, 14.0 avg) and senior corner Jonathan Lockett (17 tac, 0.5 for a loss, 3 dfl, 1 int in 2016). Harris, a one-time wide receiver, had 4 starts at nickelback in 2016 when he made 30 tackles and returned an interception for a score. Lockett had 17 tackles with 5 starts in 2016, but could be limited in 2017 spring practice while recovering from late-season hip surgery.

MARVELL TELL

Sophomore cornerback Jack Jones (13 tac, 1 dfl, 1 FR in 2016, plus 3 KOR, 31 yds, 10.3 avg) also saw significant playing time off the bench as a rookie last fall and looks to add to that this season.

Several other Trojan defensive backs who have seen action return and will battle for playing time: senior safeties John Plattenburg (3 tac in 2016), who has 14 career starts but missed the first half of 2016 because of a concussion, and Matt Lopes (5 tac in 2016), a one-time walk-on who received a scholarship last year, junior cornerback Isaiah Langley (8 tac in 2016), sophomore safety Ykili Ross (2 tac, 1 dfl in 2016) and soph cornerback Keyshawn "Pie" Young, who might also see some time at wide receiver. Then there are redshirt freshman safeties Jamel Cook and C.J. Pollard.

Also available are 4 walk-ons: senior cornerback Yoofi Quansah, junior cornerback Jalen Jones, junior safety Davonte Nunnery and redshirt freshman safety Richard Hagestad. Quansah and Jones have seen brief action in just 1 game in their careers.

Four freshmen will fight for action when they arrive in the fall: prep All-Americans Bubba Bolden (Bishop Gorman High in Las Vegas, Nev.) and Isaiah Pola-Mao (Mountain Pointe High in Phoenix, Ariz.) at safety, prep All-American Greg Johnson (Hawkins High in Los Angeles, Calif.), who likely will begin as a cornerback but is multi-talented enough to also play on offense and as a returner on special teams, and cornerback Je'Quari Godfrey (Bishop O'Dowd High in Oakland, Calif.). Bolden had 11 interceptions while playing on 3 consecutive USA Today national championship prep teams. Pola-Mao, who had 21 thefts as a high schooler, is the nephew of USC and NFL safety legend Troy Polamalu. Johnson had 10 picks in his high school career along with more than 6,000 yards on offense and special teams. Godfrey had 7 prep interceptions.

"We're lucky to have Iman, Chris and Marvell back and anchoring our secondary, along with Ajene and Jonathan" said Helton. "But it will be challenging to replace the dynamic playmaking ability that Adoree' had. The competition will be intense to do that and I'm anxious to see how it plays out among our returnees and our signees."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC returns its punter (Chris Tilbey) and holder (Wyatt Schmidt) from 2016. But the Trojans will have new faces in 2017 at snapper and both the primary punt returner and kickoff returner, and likely at placekicker.

In 2016 under special teams coordinator John Baxter (who returned to Troy last fall), USC ranked fourth among all schools in FootballOutsiders.com's Special Teams Efficiency rating. In NCAA stats, the Trojans were sixth nationally in punt returns (15.3) and 23rd in kickoff returns (23.2), blocked kicks (3) and blocked punts (1). Troy returned 2 punts (for the fourth consecutive year) and 2 kickoffs for touchdowns last fall, and blocked 2 field goals and a punt. USC's 18 field goals last year were 1 shy of the school season record. USC kicked 43 touchbacks in 2016 after having only 11 the previous season. Opponents returned just 8 of USC's 50 punts last year (for just 50 yards).

"I'm very proud of the way our special teams performed in 2016 and that's a credit to John Baxter," said Helton. "We are very fortunate to have him back with us. We saw how important special teams play was in the Rose Bowl. It will continue to be an emphasis for us in 2017."

PUNTERS

Junior Chris Tilbey (38.3 P avg in 2016) of Australia returns for his second season as USC's punter. His 38.3 punting average last season was adequate, but he excelled in his ability to limit runbacks. Opponents returned only 8 of his 50 punts for just 50 yards (USC was allowing just 4.6 yards per runback until Penn State had an 18-yarder in the Rose Bowl). Eighteen of Tilbey's punts last fall pinned opponents within their 20-yard line, while 20 were fair caught.

Backing Tilbey are untested junior walk-ons Reid Budrovich, a lefty who can also placekick, and James Bermingham Jr.

PLACEKICKERS

USC could be without placekicker Matt Boermeester, whose 46-yard field goal with no time remaining dramatically won the Rose Bowl last year, because of a student code of conduct issue. Known for his accuracy and strong leg, his 18 field goals last year were 1 shy of the school season record. Eight of his field goals were 40-plus yards. His 3 field goals against

CHRIS TILBEY

Penn State tied a Rose Bowl record and his game winner was just the fourth time ever that USC won a game on a field goal with no time left. He was 53-of-54 on PATs. He also had 43 touchbacks on his 86 kickoffs last fall after the Trojans had only 11 touchbacks in 2015.

That leaves redshirt freshman Michael Brown as the only kicker on Troy's 2017 roster, so he will be asked to step up in Boermeester's place.

SNAPPERS

After 4 years of flawless long snapping by Zach Smith, USC will break in a new snapper. The likely candidate is first-year freshman Damon Johnson, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2017 after spending the fall of 2016 not playing football at Citrus Junior College in Glendora (Calif.) following a prep career at Glendora (Calif.) High.

Another snapper on the roster is blind walk-on sophomore Jake Olson. He was born with retinoblastoma (a cancer of the retina) and had both of his eyes removed as a youth. He snapped in high school for 2 years despite his blindness. Although USC currently prevents contact during any practice drills in which Olson is involved to make sure he is protected, the hope is he will snap in a game one day.

HOLDERS

Junior Wyatt Schmidt returns as the holder on placement kicks. He also is able to long snap, punt and placekick.

Soph quarterback Sam Darnold held a few times in 2016 and is available, although it is possible others will be tried for the backup holder role.

RETURNERS

USC will be hard-pressed to find a returner as dynamic as Adoree' Jackson, who declared for the NFL after his junior season. In his career, Jackson returned 4 punts and 4 kickoffs for touchdowns (including a school record-tying pair of 100-yard kick runbacks). He set the USC career records for kickoff return yardage (2,141 yards) and returns (79) and his 27.1 career kick return average is second best in Trojan history. He also averaged 12.6 yards on his 46 career punt returns. Last year, he averaged 29.5 yards (sixth nationally) on 26 kickoff returns with 2 TDs and 15.8 yards (third nationally) on 20 punt returns with another 2 scores. Against Notre Dame last fall, he became the first Trojan since records were available in 1953 to have scoring punt and kick runbacks in a game. He won the 2016 Jet Award as the nation's top punt returner and many of his All-American accolades were as a returner.

Several current Trojans have been involved in the return game in the past, including junior wide receiver Deontay Burnett (4 PR, 26 yds, 6.5 avg in 2016), senior wide receiver Steven Mitchell Jr. (5 KOR, 91 yds, 18.2 avg in 2016, plus 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg), sophomore wide receiver Michael Pittman Jr. (4 KOR, 31 yds, 7.8 avg in 2016, plus 2 PR, 63 yds, 31.5 avg) and soph cornerback Jack Jones (3 KOR, 31 yds, 10.3 avg in 2016). They or some of the younger Trojans could be worked here.

2017: The poised-beyond-his-years Darnold, known for his quick release, accuracy and mobility, enters his second season as USC's starting quarterback as a leading Heisman Trophy contender as just a sophomore in 2017 after earning national accolades in his 2016 rookie showing.

2016: Darnold proved to be among the top quarterbacks in the nation as just a redshirt freshman in 2016. His insertion into the starting lineup in the fourth game of 2016 gave the USC offense a spark as the Trojans won the final 9 games of the season. Overall in 2016 while appearing in all 13 games and starting the last 10, he completed 246-of-366 passes (67.2%) for 3,086 yards with 31 TDs and 9 interceptions, plus 62 carries for 250 yards (4.0 avg) with 2 TDs and 3 tackles.

He won the 2016 Archie Griffin Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus (given to the nation's season-long most valuable player after the bowls) and was among 10 finalists for the 2016 Manning Award and 18 semifinalists for the O'Brien Award, both awarded to the nation's top quarterback. He was the 2016 Pac-12 Freshman Offensive Player of the Year, made Football Writers Freshman All-American first team and Campus Insiders Freshman All-American second team and was All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He is the only USC quarterback in history to have back-to-back 5 passing TD games (Arizona and California in 2016). He threw multiple TD passes in 9 straight games, the most by a Trojan since Matt Leinart's 15 in 2003-04. He was ninth nationally in passing efficiency (161.1, second in Pac-12), 10th in completion percentage (.672, second in Pac-12) and 13th in passing TDs (31, fourth in Pac-12). Among freshmen quarterbacks, he was first nationally in passing efficiency (161.1), completion percentage (.672), TD passes (31) and yards per attempt (8.4). His 31 TDs in 2016 is a USC freshman season record. His 250 rushing yards in 2016 are the most in a season by a USC quarterback since Reggie Perry's 254 in 1991. He already is 15th on USC's career passing list with 246 completions (he also is tied for 10th on Troy's season passing chart with those 246 completions). His 3,336 yards of total offense in 2016 is eighth on USC's season list and 20th on USC's career list.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SAM DARNOLD

Colin Cowherd, FOX: "I think he is the best quarterback I've ever seen at USC."

Kyle Bonagura, ESPN.com: "Darnold is a star, plain and simple...Darnold's poise and ability to create plays when they break down are incredible for any player, but even more so for a freshman...He has the ability to extend plays with his feet, both to buy time to pick out a receiver and to take off and run. He plays more on instinct because he's had less time in the program and because he's simply wired that way."

David Lombardi, ESPN.com: "Darnold may well be the best quarterback in the Pac-12; the Trojans have much to be excited about entering 2017... He has a big arm, he's elusive and he hasn't made many mistakes so far."

William Quimby, FanSided: "Darnold is a cool customer, who was 10-for-10 in the fourth quarter alone (in the Rose Bowl). Let the hype begin because he is a skilled, poised, tenacious competitor who will not disappoint as his reputation grows."

Rich Hammond, Orange County Register: "Darnold's on-field decisions suggest intelligence but also a level of instinct that can't be taught."

Washington co-offensive coordinator Jimmy Lake: "I really believe this young quarterback is going to be a star in this conference."

UCLA head coach Jim Mora: "I watched him on film obviously, I've seen him on TV, had a lot of respect for him coming into this (UCLA) game, but when you see him in person he's a truly special one. I'll tell you, he reminds me of a younger Tony Romo. He's bigger, but that type of ability and he's smart and he's poised and confident."

USC offensive coordinator Tee Martin: "Sam, he has that quiet confidence and very stern, direct leadership quality that a lot of guys have who win a lot of games."

Former USC wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster: "If you've ever seen Aaron Rodgers throw the ball, it's a fastball. It just goes there. That's what it (Darnold's throw) is."

USC safety Chris Hawkins: "When he's playing like this, I don't think there are too many teams in the country that really want to see us."

Former USC wide receiver Darreus Rogers: "The kid has grown up fast, on and off the field. He has become a natural leader and his instincts on the field are amazing. What more can you ask for?"

Former USC Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback and current NFL star Carson Palmer: "He's a great young quarterback...He's a gamer. When you watch him play, there's so many plays that break down, and all of a sudden he fires a ball to a crossing route or finds a way to get out of a sack and keeps his eyes downfield to throw the touchdown pass. He's just a natural gamer, and guys like that only get better with repetition. Obviously, he's new on the scene and doesn't have a ton of experience, but for him to come on the scene that quickly and have the success he's had, I'm really excited to see the future he is going to have."

He had 4 100-yard rushing games in 2016, all in the last 5 regular-season contests. He ran for a TD in each of the last 7 games and had 4 multi-TD games in 2016. Against Oregon, he tied a USC game record by rushing for 4 touchdowns (23, 3, 66, 1 yards) to become the 14th Trojan to do so (most recently, LenDale White versus Arizona in 2005) while he gained a game-best 171 yards on a career-high 20 carries (8.6 yards per rush) and, combined with his 223 yards in the previous game, his 2-game rushing total of 394 yards was the most in consecutive games by a Trojan since Reggie Bush's 554 in 2005 versus Fresno State and UCLA (he also caught 2 passes for 26 yards) and thereby earning Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week honorable mention. USC HEAD COACH CLAY HELTON

It didn't take long for Clay Helton to make his mark as USC football's head coach.

The 44-year-old Helton is 16-7 as the Trojan head coach (10-3 in 2016, with wins over No. 4 Washington, No. 5 Penn State in a legendary Rose Bowl thriller and No. 21 Colorado en route to a 9-game winning streak, 5-4 in 2015, with wins over a pair of Top 25 teams, and 1-0 in 2013).

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013.

After starting the 2015 season as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, Helton was named USC's permanent head coach on Nov. 30 of that year, dropping the interim head coach title he had held since Oct. 12 (for USC's final 7 regular season games). He signed a 5-year contract.

"After weeks of searching the collegiate and pro ranks, interviewing candidates, and speaking with head coaches, athletic directors, NFL executives, and very knowledgeable football people, and after observing Clay in action the past seven weeks, it became abundantly clear that what we were searching for in a coach was right here in front of us," said then-USC athletic director Pat Haden upon announcing Helton's hiring. "Choosing a coach is an inexact science. In Clay's case, there is exactness. We have a man with unquestioned integrity. He is a fantastic person and he is real. Clay is a leader of young men. He is a terrific communicator. He brings high character, stability, continuity, consistency, toughness and resiliency to our program.

"We have known Clay well for the past six years. He earned this opportunity. He has been positive and upbeat handling adversity. He was built to be a head coach. Football is his family business. He is a coach on the rise and he will be coaching a team on the rise. As our interim head coach, Clay brought back USC's style of physical football. I have been impressed with how hard and how inspired our team has played for him, as well as the support they have shown for him."

After his Trojans started off 1-3 in 2016 in his first full season as head coach (all 3 losses were to AP Top 25 teams away from home), USC went on a 9-game winning streak (its longest since 2008-09) to rise to a final No. 3 national AP ranking (USC's highest since 2008 and the highest ever of any 3-loss team) and earn a berth in the Rose Bowl (finishing second in the Pac-12 South at 7-2) while playing a schedule ranked among the 10 most difficult in the nation. Troy capped the season with an instant classic 52-49 at-the-gun victory over No. 5 Penn State in the Rose Bowl. He guided USC to wins over UCLA and Notre Dame and in the Rose Bowl, just the 13th season that has happened in Trojan history. USC was perfect (6-0) at home for the first time since 2008 and undefeated in the greater Los Angeles area (8-0). His Trojans beat both teams (No. 4 Washington and No. 21 Colorado) that played in the Pac-12 Championship Game.

Under Helton's guidance in 2016, Adoree' Jackson was named the Thorpe Award winner, a unanimous All-American first teamer, the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Hornung Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy. Sam Darnold was the Archie Griffin Award winner, a Manning Award finalist and a Freshman All-American first teamer and both Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler were All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team picks. USC's offense had at least 400 total yards in its last 10 games, while its defense held 7 opponents to season lows in points. Helton was named a finalist for the 2016 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and won the Football Writers First Year Co-Coach of the Year Award.

Helton guided the 2015 Trojans to 5 wins in the last 6 regular-season games (including victories over No. 3 Utah and No. 22 UCLA), the co-championship of the challenging Pac-12 South Division, a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game and a trip to the Holiday Bowl. He was named the 2015 Los Angeles Sports Council Coach of the Year.

As the coordinator of USC's offense in 2015, the Trojans ranked ninth nationally in fumbles lost (5) , 11th in both passes had intercepted (7) and completion percentage (.667), 16th in fourth down conversions (.654) and 20th in passing efficiency (153.6). USC averaged 437.9 total yards and 33.9 points a game. Quarterback Cody Kessler, a finalist for the Unitas Award and a NFL Draft third round pick, ranked in the national Top 20 in completion percentage (13th at .668), passing TDs (15th at 29) and passing efficiency (19th at 151.7). Kessler ended his career in USC's career Top 4 in TD passes, completions, passing yards and total offense (and set school career records for completion percentage and interception rate). All-Pac-12 first team wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster was in the Top 20 nationally in receiving yards (11th at 103.9), receiving TDs (17th at 10) and receptions (20th at 6.4). Tailbacks Justin Davis and Ronald Jones II each had 900-plus yard rushing seasons. Jones set the USC frosh season rushing record and was just the second Trojan first-year freshman to top the squad in rushing.

In 2014, quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7%, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions) while setting USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11) and tying USC season marks for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7). He also threw a school record 7 TD passes against Colorado and a Notre Dame opponents record 6 TDs against the Irish. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense in 2014. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerrfel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommie West had off-season heart surgery.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

2016 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 3, Arlington, Texas
Alabama 52, USC 6
Att: 81,359

USC	3	0	3	0	--	6
Alabama	0	17	21	14	--	52

No. 20 USC suffered its worst season-opening loss in history when it fell to top-ranked, defending national champion Alabama, 52-6, in front of 81, 359 fans in soldout AT&T Stadium in Dallas (Tex.) and a national ABC-TV audience.

It snapped USC's 17-year season-opening win streak. The 46-point deficit was Troy's largest losing margin in any game since 1966 (51-0 to Notre Dame). Alabama's 52 points were the most ever surrendered by the Trojans in an opener. It was the fewest points USC has scored since also getting 6 against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl and Troy's fewest in an opener since getting 7 against Florida State in 1997. It was the first time USC failed to score a touchdown since a 27-0 loss to Washington in 1997 and the first time doing so in an opener since 1960 (14-0 to Oregon State).

USC had just 164 total yards (only 64 rushing on 30 carries) and 11 first downs while converting only 4-of-18 third downs (and 0-of-2 on fourth downs). The Crimson Tide gained 465 total yards, including 242 on the ground). Alabama averaged 7.4 yards per play to USC's 2.9.

USC got off to a quick start in the game, as PK Matt Boermeester nailed a 47-yard field goal (his first attempt as a Trojan) on opening drive. Troy held Alabama to just 12 total yards in the opening quarter.

But then the Crimson Tide struck quickly midway through the second period while USC started to sputter. WR ArDarius Stewart pulled down a 39-yard scoring throw from QB Jalen Hurts, then PK Adam Griffith hit a 29-yard field goal on the Tide's next possession and soon after CB Marlon Humphrey ran back an interception 18 yards for a TD to give Alabama a 17-3 halftime edge.

The Tide scored touchdowns on 5 of their first 6 possessions of the second half, first on a 71-yard Hurts pass to Stewart 3 plays into the half, then on 7- and 6-yard runs by Hurts, followed by a 2-yard run by RB Bo Scarborough at the top of the fourth quarter and capped by a 45-yard aerial from QB Blake Barnett to WR Gehrig Dieter. USC was able to counter with only a 41-yard Boermeester field goal late in the third quarter.

QB Max Browne, making his first USC start, hit his first 7 passes and ended up 14-of-29 for 101 yards with the interception, while QB Sam Darnold added 29 yards on 4-of-8 passing. TB Ronald Jones had 46 yards on 7 carries. WRs Deontay Burnett (26 yards) and Steve Mitchell (22 yards) each had 4 receptions.

For Alabama, RB Damien Harris gained 138 yards on 9 carries and Hurts was 6-of-11 for 118 yards and also ran for 32 yards on 9 tries, while Barnett was 5-of-6 for 100 yards. Stewart caught 4 passes for 113 yards.

DE Porter Gustin and ILB Michael Hutchings each had a game-high 9 tackles (Smith also recovered a fumble) and CB Iman Marshall had a pick.

It was the teams' first meeting since 1985 and USC's first visit to the Dallas area in 21 years. It also was just the fourth time that USC ever played inside. Calling the offensive plays for Alabama was former USC head coach Lane Kiffin.

USC 45, Utah State 7

Utah State	0	0	7	0	--	7
USC	7	14	10	14	--	45

Behind a pair of touchdown passes each from QBs Max Browne and Sam Darnold--including 2 to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster--and a scoring punt return by CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, USC bounced back from its season-opening loss by blowing out Utah State in its home opener, 45-7, before 62,487 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Network audience.

USC was never threatened, building a 31-0 lead late in the third quarter. The Trojans had 422 total yards (178 rushing after getting just 64 in the opener) on 81 plays and limited the Aggies to 253 total yards (just 49 on the ground after they had 428 the previous week) on 65 plays. Troy also had 29 first downs to USU's 13 (the Aggies converted just 6-of-16 third downs).

After WR Michael Pittman blocked a USU punt early in the first quarter, Browne threw his first career TD pass when he found Smith-Schuster on a 3-yarder. Then midway through the second quarter, Darnold threw for his first career score on a 13-yard pass to WR Deontay Burnett (his first career TD grab). Later in the quarter, S Leon McQuay III picked off an Aggie pass, leading to a 2-yard TD toss from Browne to WR Steven Mitchell Jr. with 19 seconds to go.

USC scored on its first 2 possessions of the second half, a 20-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester and then on Jackson's 77-yard punt runback. After Utah State responded with QB Kent Myers' 6-yard touchown pass to TE Wyatt Houston at the end of the third quarter, added 2 fourth quarter touchdowns on Darnold's 15-yard aerial to Smith-Schuster and a 2-yard run by TB Aca'Cedric Ware.

Browne completed 23-of-30 passes for 182 yards (with a pick) and Darnold was 5-of-7 for 62 yards, and they became the first pair of Trojans to each throw at least 2 TDs in a game since Brad Otton and Matt Koffler did so in 1994 against California. WR Darreus Rogers (82 yards) and Smith-Schuster (56 yards) each had 7 receptions (career highs for Rogers). TB Justin Davis had a game-best 70 yards on 16 rushes, while Ware added 57 yards on 11 carries. ILB Cameron Smith led USC with 13 tackles (1 for a loss) and S Chris Hawkins had 8 stops.

For Utah State, Myers was 25-of-37 for 204 passing yards.

The game's 11 a.m. kickoff was the earliest for a Trojan home game since at least the early 1950s.

Stanford 27, USC 10
Att: 48,763

USC	3	0	7	0	--	10
Stanford	7	10	10	0	--	27

RB Christian McCaffrey had 260 all-purpose yards, including 172 on the ground, and scored twice to lead No. 7 Stanford to a 27-10 win over USC before 48,763 fans in Palo Alto and a national ABC-TV audience.

It was the first Pac-12 game of 2016.

Stanford had 404 total yards in the game (302 rushing) to USC's 353 and held the ball for 34:14, while the Trojans had 8 penalties (6 false starts) to the Cardinal's 3 and Troy converted just 4-of-12 third downs.

USC fell behind 17-3 at halftime as it was hampered by 7 penalties (5 were motion penalties) and it failed to convert on any of its 4 third down tries. After QB Ryan Burns found a wide-open McCaffrey for a 56-yard TD late in the first quarter on a busted coverage, USC responded with PK Matt Boermeester's 47-yard field goal. But Stanford countered right back with a 31-yard field goal by PK Conrad Ukropina midway through the second quarter. The Cardinal scored again on its next possession, as McCaffrey ran for a 1-yard score late in the half.

USC opened the second half with a 1-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones to pull within 17-10, but Stanford responded by scoring on its next 2 series, first a 42-yard Ukropina field goal and then a 56-yard end-around TD by WR Michael Rector late in the third quarter. USC got into Stanford territory on all 3 of its fourth-quarter possessions but couldn't convert on any of them.

Jones (11 carries) and TB Justin Davis each ran for 63 yards for USC, QB Max Browne hit 18-of-28 passes for 191 yards and QB Sam Darnold was 5-of-7 for 45 yards and WR Steven Mitchell caught 5 passes for 55 yards. ILB Michael Hutchings had a game-best 7 tackles, while CBs Adoree' Jackson and Iman Marshall and ILB Cameron Smith each added 6 tackles (Jackson also had an interception and a deflection).

McCaffrey's 172 rushing yards came on 31 carries and he added 66 yards on 3 receptions and a 22-yard kickoff return. Burns was 8-of-14 passing for 102 yards.

GAME 4 – September 23, Salt Lake City, Utah
Utah 31, USC 27
Att: 46,133

USC	7	10	7	3	--	27
Utah	7	3	7	14	--	31

WR Tim Patrick caught an 18-yard touchdown pass from QB Troy Williams with 16 seconds to play to help No. 24 Utah overcome a 10-point deficit midway through the fourth quarter and defeat USC, 31-27, on a drizzling, chilly (mid-40s) Friday night in front of a sold-out crowd of 46,133 fans in Salt Lake City and a FS1 national television audience.

It was Troy's second straight visit to Utah that resulted in a last-second loss (in 2014, it came on a TD pass with 8 seconds to go). The loss pushed USC to its slowest start (1-3) since 2001.

Utah turned a recovery of a Trojan fumble on the game's opening series into a 10-yard TD run by Williams. But USC CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson raced 100 yards with the ensuing kickoff to tie the score (it was his third career scoring kick return, including a school record-tying 2 that covered 100 yards, with the other in 2014 also at Utah). The Utes tacked on a 36-yard field goal by PK Andy Phllips midway through the second quarter after recovering their third USC fumble. But USC countered with a 14-yard TD run by TB Justin Davis followed by a 32-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester just before halftime.

The Trojans built their lead to 24-10 midway into the third quarter as QB Sam Darnold raced for an 8-yard TD, but Utah answered right back by driving 85 yards, with OG Isaac Asiata recovering a short Ute fumble in the end zone. Boermeester tacked on a 43-yard field goal at the top of the fourth quarter for a 27-17 USC edge.

But Utah used 2 long TD drives on their only possessions of the final quarter, first seeing Williams hit WR Raelon Singleton with a 10-yard scoring toss with 9:45 to play before throwing the game-winner to Patrick that capped a 15-play, 93-yard drive in which the Utes converted a pair of fourth downs.

Utah ran off 22 more plays (81) than USC and held the ball 37:29. The Trojans had the ball just 9:21 in the first half (only 2:33 in the first quarter) while fumbling away the ball on its first 3 possessions, each while driving in Utah territory. The Utes also had 30 first downs to USC's 22 and although they converted just 5-of-13 third downs, they were good on all 4 of their fourth down tries (including 3 times in the fourth quarter). Despite all that, USC had a season-best 466 total yards while averaging 7.9 yards per play, converted 6-of-10 third downs and punted only once.

Darnold was impressive in his first career start (he became just the sixth USC redshirt freshman to start at quarterback; 3 true frosh have also done so), hitting 18-of-26 passes for 253 yards and he added 41 yards on 9 runs. Davis ran for a game-high 126 yards on just 10 carries, his fourth career 100-yard outing. WR JuJu Smith-Schuster caught a game-best 8 passes for 98 yards and WR Darreus Rogers added 5 grabs for 58 yards. ILB Cameron Smith had a game-high 15 tackles with a forced fumble and pass deflection, Utah native DE Porter Gustin added 13 tackles, DT Stevie Tu'ikolovatu (who transferred to USC from Utah) had 9 stops and Jackson had 7 tackles, 2 deflections and a fumble recovery.

For Utah, Williams was 21-of-34 for 270 yards, Patrick caught 6 passes for 100 yards and RB Zack Moss had 90 yards on 23 carries while RB Armand Shyne added 62 yards on 14 carries.

USC	7	20	14	0	--	41

QB Sam Darnold threw for 352 yards, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster caught 3 TD passes, TB Justin Davis ran for 123 yards with a score and USC's defense shut down Arizona State's high-powered offense while giving the Sun Devils their first loss of 2016, 41-20, before 71,214 fans in the Coliseum and a FOX national television audience.

It was USC's fifth consecutive home victory, its most since 12 straight from 2007 to 2009.

USC piled up a season-high 523 total yards (averaging 7.6 yards per play), including 157 rushing against an ASU defense that was allowing just 95.0 on the ground. And Troy held an ASU offense that was averaging 48.8 points and 507.8 total yards (including 236.5 rushing) to season lows in points and total yards (303, including just 75 on the ground). USC had 23 first downs to ASU's 16, but the Trojans converted just 3-of-13 third downs.

After PK Zane Gonzalez gave the Sun Devils a 3-0 lead midway through the opening quarter, USC converted an interception by CB Jonathan Lockett into a 5-yard Darnold TD pass to Smith-Schuster to cap a 95-yard drive. But ASU answered right back at the end of the quarter with a 34-yard Gonzalez field goal, giving him the Pac-12 career field goal record.

USC then went on a 34-point scoring binge, including getting 20 points on all 4 of its second quarter possessions. Darnold and Smith-Schuster hooked up on a 3-yard scoring pass midway through the quarter, then PK Matt Boermeester nailed a carreer-long 49-yard field goal, followed by a 37-yard TD run by Davis and a 46-yard Boermeester field goal with 20 second left in the half. In the third quarter, Smith-Schuster turned a short hitch pass from Darnold into a 67-yard cut-back-against-the-grain score. On USC's next drive, Darnold ran for a 3-yard TD midway through the third quarter.

ASU scored twice in the fouth quarter against USC's reserves, for on a 13-yard pass from QB Brady White to TE Raymond Epps and then on a 10-yard run by RB Nick Ralston late in the game.

Darnold completed 23-of-33 passes, Davis' yards came on just 14 carries (for an 8.8 average) and Smith-Schuster (123 yards) and WR Deontay Burnett (93 yards) each had 7 receptions. Lockett and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson each had a team-best 5 tackles.

For ASU, QB Manny Wilkins was 13-of-24 for 148 yards before leaving the game with an injury late in the first half, WR Tim White (whose father, Timmy, played at USC, as did his uncle, Lonnie) caught 7 passes for 84 yards and returned 4 kickoffs for 65 yards and Ralston rushed for 46 yards on 12 tries.

It was USC's 600th game in the Coliseum. USC's Rio Olympians were saluted at halftime (Allyson Felix, USC's most decorated Olympian, became the first woman to run the Trojans out of the tunnel prior to the game).

QB Sam Darnold threw for a career-best 358 yards with 3 touchdowns, including a pair to TE Tyler Petite, and USC's defense shut down a potent Buffalo offense to help the Trojans defeat No. 21 Colorado, 21-17, on a hot day (90 degrees) in the Coliseum in front of 68,302 fans and a Pac-12 Network audience.

It kept Troy undefeated in 11 tries against Colorado.

USC piled up a season-high 548 yards of total offense against a Buffalo defense that was allowing just 290.4 total yards (including only 150.4 passing). And the Trojans limited CU's offense, which was averaging 531.2 total yards (218.6 rushing) and 43.2 points, to just 371 total yards (only 96 rushing). USC had more first downs (28 to 20) and plays (80 to 73), held the ball 32:18, was penalized just twice, posted 4 sacks and limited CU to 6-of-17 on third down conversions, but Troy had 4 turnovers, including 3 while driving in Buffalo territory (one lost fumble went into the CU end zone).

USC held a 14-0 halftime lead on Darnold TD throws to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe (32 yards) late in the first quarter and then to Petite (11 yards after scrambling with a botched handoff) late in the half, the first time since 2011 that a pair of USC tight ends caught TD passes in a game (Randall Telfer and Xavier Grimble versus Syracuse).

But on the play after recovering a Trojan fumble early in the second half, Colorado TB Phillip Lindsay took a lateral and threw a 67-yard TD pass to WR Bryce Bobo. CU tied the game early in the fourth quarter on Bobo's 10-yard grab of a pass from QB Steven Montez. But on the ensuing possession, the Trojans drove 70 yards, capped by Darnold's 7-yard TD toss to Petite. The Buffaloes responded with a 42-yard field goal by PK Davis Price with 4:49 to go, but USC was able to run out the clock.

Darnold completed 25-of-37 aerials to become the first USC freshman to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games (he had 352 versus Arizona State the previous week) since Todd Marinovich in 1989 did so versus Notre Dame and Stanford, but Darnold lost 2 fumbles and threw an interception. WR Steven Mitchell had 6 receptions for 63 yards, while WR JuJu Smith-Schuster added 5 grabs for 113 yards. TB Justin Davis ran for a game-best 92 yards on 13 carries before going out with an ankle injury in the third quarter.

OLB Uchenna Nwosu led USC with a career-high 10 tackles, with a sack, and had 2 deflections, CB Iman Marshall added 9 tackles and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson had 6 tackles and a spectacular tip-toe-the-sideline interception to go along with a 38-yard kickoff return (to tie him for the USC career kickoff return yardage record) and 4 punt returns for 50 yards.

For Colorado, Montez was 25-of-40 for 197 yards, including 10 that were caught by Bobo for 83 yards.

QB Sam Darnold threw a USC freshman record 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster, and the Trojan defense came up with 4 turnovers as USC won its first road game of 2016, 48-14, at Arizona on a hot (93 degrees) afternoon in front of an announced sold-out crowd of 55,463 (although only half showed up and most were gone by halftime) and a FOX national TV audience.

USC's offense rolled up 500-plus yards for the third consecutive week (574, while averaging 7.4 yards per play), including 320 rushing (its most since getting 342 against San Jose State in 2009). Troy held the ball 35:24, converted 7-of-13 third downs and had no turnovers. Arizona had 343 total yards, but just 134 in the first half (only 4 passing while hitting 1-of-7 attempts) to trail 34-7 before USC substituted liberally in the second half.

The teams traded touchdows early in the contest, with TB Ronald Jones getting a 5-yard scoring run on USC's game-opening drive and then Wildcat true freshman QB Khalil Tate getting a 3-yard TD run later in the first quarter. USC then scored the next 5 TDs (all on Darnold passes), first an 11-yarder by WR Deontay Burnett from a scrambling Darnold at the end of the first quarter, then an 8-yarder by TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe after CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson's fumble recovery on Arizona's ensuing possession and finally a trio to Smith-Schuster (3 yards after an interception by CB Iman Marshall and 39 yards to cap consecutive drives to end the first half and 46 yards on USC's first series of the second half). After Matt Morin, an Arizona tight end working at quarterback, threw a 7-yard TD to WR Samajie Grant early in the fourth quarter against USC's reserves, USC countered with a 21-yard TD run by TB Aca'Cedric Ware.

Darnold was 20-of-32 passing for 235 yards and added 54 yards on 6 runs (the most rushing yards in a game by a USC quarterback since Carson Palmer's 60 versus Kansas State in 2001) while playing just the first 3 quarters. Smith-Schuster had 9 receptions for 132 yards. Ware had a game-high and career-best 103 yards on 12 carries, while TB Dominic Davis added a career-high 89 yards on 7 tries (including an 85-yard run, USC's longest since LaVale Woods' 96-yarder versus Oregon State in 1996) and Jones had 77 yards on 16 carries while starting. S Chris Hawkins led USC with 5 stops and a forced fumble, while late in the game CB Ajene Harris had an interception and DE Connor Murphy had a fumble recovery.

Tate led Arizona with 72 yards on 14 rushes and completed 7-of-18 passes for 58 yards, while Morin was 4-of-8 for 84 yards.

It was the 100th anniversary of the first USC-Arizona game.

GAME 8 – October 27, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, California 24
Att: 61,725

California	0	10	7	7	--	24
USC	14	14	14	3	--	45

TB Ronald Jones II ran for a career-high 223 yards and scored twice, while QB Sam Darnold threw 5 TD passes to lead USC to a dominant 45-24 victory over California in a Thursday night game in the Coliseum in front of 61,725 fans and an ESPN audience.

It kept the Trojans, coming off a bye, undefeated against the Golden Bears since 2003. It was just USC's fourth non-holiday Thursday home game.

Jones' yardage came on 18 carries for a 12.4 average per rush and included non-scoring bursts of 61 (on USC's opening play) and 42 yards (he also caught 2 passes for 18 yards). It was the most rushing yards by a Trojan since Allen Bradford also had 223 yards against Washington in 2010. Jones became the 18th Trojan to eclipse the 200-yard rushing barrier (accomplished 45 times by those runners) and the first since Javorius Allen had 205 yards against Arizona in 2014.

Fellow TB Aca'Cedric Ware ran for a career-best for the second consecutive week, getting 130 yards on 20 carries, which marked the first time that a pair of Trojans rushed for at least 100 yards in a game since the 2013 Oregon State contest when Silas Redd had 140 and Allen had 135.

Darnold completed 72.0% of his passes (18-of-25) for 231 yards, but he threw a late interception and lost fumbles twice to set up Cal scores. After also throwing 5 TDs the previous game at Arizona, Darnold became the first Trojan to throw 5 scores in back-to-back games. It was his fourth straight outing with at least 3 TD passes. He set the USC season freshman touchdown pass record.

WRs Darreus Rogers (career-high 97 yards) and JuJu Smith-Schuster (66 yards) each had 6 receptions, with Rogers catching a pair of touchdowns.

USC rolled up a season-high 629 total yards, its fourth straight game with at least 500 yards and its most since getting 737 against Idaho in 2015 (it was also the most allowed by Cal in 2016). Troy averaged 8.9 yards per play. The Trojans ran for 398 yards, their most since getting 430 against UCLA in 2005. After running for 320 yards at Arizona, it was USC's first back-to-back 300-yard rushing performances since 2005 (208 versus Fresno State followed by that UCLA game). USC was penalized 13 times, its most since getting 14 against Cal in 2014.

USC built a 21-0 lead before Cal scored and Troy held a 28-10 halftime lead while compiling 451 total yards (260 rushing) and 21 first downs. Jones had 149 of his rushing yards in the opening half and Darnold hit 13-of-18 passes in that half.

Darnold hit Rogers for a 3-yard score on USC's first possession and he came right back with a 16-yard TD toss to Jones on the next series to cap a 95-yard drive. He then hit WR Deontay Burnett for a 13-yard TD early in the second quarter. Cal took advantage of Darnold's fumbles by scoring on consecutive drives later in the half, first a 22-yard pass from QB Davis Webb to RB Tre Watson and then a 27-yard field goal by PK Matt Anderson. But USC responded late in the half on another Darnold-to-Rogers TD toss, this one for 20 yards.

Cal scored on its first possession of the second half on a 1-yard run by Webb to pull within 11 again, but USC countered with touchdowns on its next 2 series, first a 37-yard Jones run and then a 17-yard Darnold pass to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe late in the third quarter. Cal countered with a 16-yard Davis scoring aerial to WR Melquise Stovall early in the fourth quarter. USC PK Matt Boermeester tacked on a 32-yard field goal late in the game to close out the scoring.

Cal ended up with 475 total yards (333 passing), but was just 3-of-12 on third down conversions (0-of-5 in the first half). Its points were a season low (the Bears were averaging 43.7). Webb was 34-of-53 for 333 yards with 2 TDs and an interception. Stovall (87 yards) and WR Demetris Robertson (92 yards) each had 9 receptions, while RB Khalfani Muhammad ran for 89 yards on 15 carries.

S Marvell Tell III had 8 tackles, a pick and a deflection for USC, while S Leon McQuay III had 8 stops (1 for a loss) and OLB Uchenna Nwosu had 7 tackles and a forced fumble (recovered by CB Ajene Harris). CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, with 2 kick returns for 56 yards, became USC's career kickoff return yardage leader.

Oregon	6	0	7	7	--	20
USC	17	7	14	7	--	45

TB Ronald Jones II tied a USC game record by rushing for 4 touchdowns, QB Sam Darnold threw 2 TDs and USC's defense shut down Oregon's potent offense as the Trojans posted a 45-20 victory over the Ducks in front of 74,625 Homecoming fans in the Coliseum and a national ESPN audience.

Jones had scoring runs of 23, 3, 66 and 1 yards to become the 14th Trojan to run for 4 TDs in a game (most recently, LenDale White versus Arizona in 2005).

Troy's defense limited the Ducks, who came into the game averaging 519.1 total yards (248.0 rushing) and 40.5 points, to their fewest total yards since 2009 (288, including 85 rushing) and a season-low point total. USC had 579 total yards (the fifth straight game over 500 yards) while averaging 7.1 yards on its 81 plays, 28 first downs, 34:51 of possession time, 9-of-14 third down conversions and 3 sacks. Oregon had just 19 first downs, 67 plays and converted only 5-of-16 third downs, while punting 8 times (its most since 2012).

USC scored on its first 3 possessions, building a 17-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal by PK Matt Boermeester field goal and Jones' first 2 TD runs (23 and 3 yards), before Oregon countered on a 25-yard reverse run by WR Charles Nelson late in the first quarter. Darnold hit WR Deontay Burnett with a 2-yard scoring toss late in the first half to give USC a 24-6 halftime edge, then Jones jetted 66 yards on the third play after the intermission. Oregon responded on its next series, with QB Justin Herbert hitting TE Pharaoh Brown for a 5-yard touchdown to cap a 12-play, 80-yard drive. USC then scored on consecutive possessions, first on Darnold's 7-yard TD strike to TE Taylor McNamara late in the third quarter and then on Jones' final TD run (1 yard). Oregon got a late TD against USC's backups on a 15-yard run by QB Dakota Prukop (whose grandfather played at USC).

Jones ran for 171 yards on a career-high 20 carries (8.6 average per rush), Darnold hit 70.0% of his throws (28-of-40, both career highs) for 309 yards but had an interception and Burnett caught a game-high and career-best 7 passes for 87 yards. ILB Cameron Smith led USC with 8 tackles and 2 deflections, while S Chris Hawkins had 7 stops and DT Rasheem Green had 1.5 sacks among his 6 tackles.

For Oregon, Herbert was 18-of-33 for 162 yards, including 5 completions to Brown for 30 yards.

GAME 10 – November 12, Seattle, Washington
USC 26, Washington 13

USC	3	14	0	9	--	26
Washington	3	3	7	0	--	13

QB Sam Darnold threw a pair of touchdown passes, CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson picked off 2 passes and the Trojan defense allowed just 17 rushing yards as USC upset No. 4 Washington, 26-13, in front of a sold out crowd of 72,364 fans in loud, chilly Husky Stadium and a FOX national TV audience.

It snapped the Huskies' 12-game winning streak and dampened their hopes for a College Football Playoff berth, while extending USC's win streak to 6 and kept Troy alive in the Pac-12 South race.

USC shut down a Washington offense that was second nationally in scoring (48.3) and was averaging 499.4 total yards. The Huskies managed just 276 total yards (they entered the game leading the Pac-12 in rushing at 231.0). It was the fewest rushing yards allowed by USC since Washington State had 7 in 2013 and it was Washington's lowest rushing total since minus 5 versus Arizona State in 2013. Washington QB Jake Browning, the nation's passing efficiency leader who was regarded as a Heisman Trophy contender, completed just 47.2% of his passes (17-of-36) for 259 yards but was intercepted twice (he had thrown just 3 picks all year). And USC's offense had 400 yards against a Husky defense that was allowing just 329.8 yards and 17.0 points. USC was in control almost the entire game.

The teams traded field goals late in the first quarter, first a 43-yarder by Washington PK Cameron Van Winkle followed on the following series by USC PK Matt Boermeester's 38-yarder. The Huskies had outscored opponents, 128-20, in the first quarter in 2016.

Following an interception by Jackson early in the second quarter, Darnold connected with WR Darreus Rogers on a 13-yard TD, the first time the Huskies trailed at home in 2016. Van Winkle hit a 39-yard field goal on the ensuing drive, but USC answered with a 4-yard scoring run by TB Ronald Jones II with 28 seconds to play in the half to give the Trojans a 17-6 lead, the first time in 2016 that Washington trailed at the intermission.

Browning hit WR John Ross on a 70-yard TD midway through the third quarter and the Huskies got the ball back 2 plays later on Darnold's second intercepted pass, but DT Rasheem Green blocked a Van Winkle field goal try and the Trojans turned that into another TD, this one on an 8-yard Darnold pass to TE Daniel Imatorbhebhe at the top of the fourth quarter. USC added a safety with 58 seconds to go when Browning went down in his end zone.

USC had more first downs (21 to 13), held the ball for 32:37, converted 7-of-13 third downs (UW was just 6-of-17) and sacked Browning 3 times.

Darnold completed 69.7% of his throws (23-of-33) for 287 yards, Jones ran for 93 yards on a career-high 23 carries, Rogers had 6 catches for 84 yards and Imatorbhebhe added 5 grabs for 78 yards. ILB Michael Hutchings had a game-best 9 tackles and OLB Porter Gustin had 2 sacks.

For UW, Ross had 8 receptions for 154 yards and TB Myles Gaskin ran for 51 yards on 15 tries.

It was USC's first visit to Husky Stadium since 2009. The crowd was the largest in Husky Stadium since it was renovated in 2013. ESPN's pre-game College GameDay show broadcast from the UW campus that morning.

GAME 11 – November 19, Pasadena, California
USC 36, UCLA 14
Att: 71,137

USC	7	16	7	6	--	36
UCLA	7	7	0	0	--	14

TB Ronald Jones II rushed for a pair of touchdowns, WR De'Quan Hampton caught a pair of TDs from QB Sam Darnold and PK Matt Boermeester kicked 3 field goals as No. 15 USC held the ball nearly 44 minutes, limited the Bruins to just 266 total yards and scored the game's final 29 points to post a decisive 36-14 victory over crosstown rival UCLA on a chilly night in the Rose Bowl before 71,137 fans and an ESPN audience.

The win kept the Trojans alive in the Pac-12 South Division race. It was USC's most points against the Bruins in the Rose Bowl since 2002 and it was UCLA's biggest losing margin of 2016.

USC rolled up 527 total yards (260 rushing) against a Bruin defense that was yielding just 356.1 overall and 160.3 on the ground. Troy had 326 total yards at halftime (163 rushing). USC had 31 first downs to UCLA's 10 (the fewest allowed by the Trojans since California had 10 in 2010) and ran off 95 plays to UCLA's 51 (USC's most since getting 95 versus Arizona State in 2014 and fewest allowed since Boston College had 50 in 2013) while holding the ball for 43:47 (USC's most since at least 1984 when records were available). The Trojans converted 12-of-21 third downs to UCLA's 2-of-11.

The teams traded TDs on their first possessions, with Bruin QB Mike Fafaul hitting WR Jordan Lasley for a 56-yard score on the game's fourth play and USC responding with a 1-yard scoring run by Jones. DT Rasheem Green blocked a UCLA field goal try at the top of the second quarter, but the Bruins got the ball right back following an interception, leading to a 7-yard Fafaul-to-Lasley touchdown.

But the Trojans then went on their 29-point scoring binge. On third-and-1 on the ensuing possession, Jones burst 60 yards for a TD. Then Hampton leaped high to snag a 31-yard Darnold TD toss on USC's next series and the Trojans closed out the half with a 30-yard Boermeester field goal with 8 seconds left to go up 23-14.

UCLA had the ball only 5:56 of the second half and managed just 102 total yards (only 10 rushing). USC scored on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 6-yard Darnold-to-Hampton touchdown pass, then on Boermeester field goals of 32 and 25 yards in the fourth quarter.

Overall, Jones ran for 121 yards on 18 carries, Darnold was 25-of-36 for 267 yards (but threw 2 picks) and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 8 receptions for 76 yards despite coming in and out of the game several times with a hip injury. CB Ajene Harris led USC with 5 tackles.

Fafaul was 15-of-31 passing for 181 yards, including 6 passes to WR Darren Andrews for 62 yards.

GAME 12 – November 26, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 45, Notre Dame 27
Att: 72,402

Notre Dame	7	0	14	6	--	27
USC	10	14	14	7	--	45

CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson scored touchdowns on a punt return, kickoff return and pass reception, TB Ronald Jones II ran for 134 yards with a score and QB Sam Darnold threw a pair of TDs, while the Trojan defense posted 6 sacks and limited the Irish to 5-of-17 third down conversions, as No. 12 USC beat intersectional rival Notre Dame, 45-27, on a rainy, cool afternoon in front of 72,402 fans in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV audience.

It was the Irish's largest loss in a game since a 49-14 defeat to USC in 2014 and marked the first time that ND came to the Coliseum with a losing record since 1986. It also gave USC its first perfect home record (6-0) in a season since 2008 and was just the 20th time that the Trojans defeated both rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in a season (the first since 2011). It was the final home game for 15 USC seniors.

After PK Matt Boermeester got USC on the board on the game's opening series with a 37-yard field goal, Notre Dame struck back quickly on QB DeShone Kizer's 1-yard run, just 1 snap after RB Josh Adams raced 74 yards on ND's first play. But USC answered right back as Jones jetted 51 yards for a score. Then, in the final 2 minutes of the first half, USC scored twice within 17 seconds to go up 24-7, first on Jackson's 55-yard punt return (the fourth scoring punt runback in his career to tie a school record) and then 2 plays later on CB Ajene Harris' 33-yard interception return.

Notre Dame turned a fumble recovery early in the second half into a TD, as Kizer hit WR Chris Finke for a 14-yard score. But USC responded on its following possession, with Jackson taking a Darnold pass 52 yards for a touchdown. After Kizer hit WR Kevin Stepherson for a 29-yard TD late in the third quarter, Jackson took the ensuing kickoff back 97 yards for a touchdown. USC scored again on its next possession after CB Jack Jones recovered a fumble and then Darnold found WR JuJu Smith-Schuster for a 2-yard TD. The Irish closed the scoring late in the game against USC's reserves on QB Malik Zaire's 15-yard TD toss to WR Equanimeous St. Brown.

Statistically, the game was even as USC had slightly more yards (412 to 408, including 207 rushing yards by Troy) despite having 8 less plays than Notre Dame's 76 and both teams had 23 first downs.

Jackson had 291 all-purpose yards (161 on 4 kickoff returns and 66 on 3 punt returns along with the 52-yard reception and a 12-yard rush) and became the first Trojan since at least 1953 to having scoring kick and punt runbacks in a game. Jones's 134 rushing yards came on 16 carries (an 8.4 yard average per rush) and he eclipsed the 1,000-yard season rushing barrier. Darnold was 19-of-29 for 205 yards. ILB Cameron Smith had a game-best 10 tackles, while DE Porter Gustin added 8 stops, including 1.5 sacks.

For Notre Dame, Adams had 180 yards on 17 tries (a 10.6 average), the most yards by a runner against USC in 2016, along with 2 catches for 30 yards, while Kizer threw for 220 yards on 17-of-32 passing and St. Brown had 7 receptions for 94 yards.

Referee Ron Cherry left the game late in the third quarter after suffering a concussion when accidentally run into by a Trojan.

GAME 13 – January 2, Pasadena, California
Rose Bowl
USC 52, Penn State 49
Att: 95,128

USC	13	14	8	17	--	52
Penn State	0	21	28	0	--	49

After QB Sam Darnold threw a Rose Bowl-record 5 touchdowns, PK Matt Boermeester rebounded from a pair of earlier missed field goal attempts to nail a 46-yarder at the gun to help No. 9 USC overcome a 14-point fourth quarter deficit and propel the Trojans to a wild and legend-making 52-49 victory over No. 5 Penn State in the 103rd Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 95,128 fans on a chilly Jan. 2 afternoon and an ESPN national audience.

It was the highest scoring Rose Bowl in history (by 18 points), as well as the largest fourth quarter deficit a team has overcome to win a Rose Bowl (USC also was down by 15 points in the third quarter, marking the largest victorious comeback from any point in a Rose Bowl).

The victory not only snapped Penn State's 9-game winning streak, it extended USC winning string to 9 games and gave the Trojans their 26th 10-win season. It also upped Troy's Rose Bowl record to 25-8 (not including 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty).

Darnold, the game's Offensive MVP, was 33-of-53 passing for 453 yards (all were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl) and he set a Rose Bowl total offense record of 473 yards. He was 10-of-10 for 135 yards in the fourth quarter while leading USC on 2 long scoring drives in the final 9 minutes to tie the score and set the stage for Boermeester's game winner.

WR Deontay Burnett caught 13 passes for 164 yards, with a Rose Bowl record-tying 3 TDs (all career bests). His 13 receptions were the second most ever in a Rose Bowl.

Boermeester, who hit a pair of first quarter field goals but also missed 51- and 44-yarders in the first half, tied a Rose Bowl record with his trio of 3-pointers. It was only the fourth time ever that USC won a game on a field goal at 0:00.

Boermeester's game winner was set up by a 32-yard third down interception return by S Leon McQuay III with 27 seconds to play, just one snap after McQuay dropped a potential pick on a similar long pass.

The teams, which together put up 1,040 yards of total offense, set Rose Bowl game records for total touchdowns (13), passing TDs (9) and passing first downs (35).

USC set Rose Bowl records for first downs (33) and passing first downs (23), its 453 passing yards was just 3 shy of the Rose Bowl mark and Troy finished in the Top 5 on the Rose Bowl charts for pass attempts (54), completions (33), plays (88), total yards (575), touchdowns (6), field goals (3) and points (52).

USC held the ball for 33:21 and converted 8-of-15 third downs, but was penalized 10 times.

Penn State rolled up 465 total yards, including 211 rushing, and 23 first downs on 62 plays, but converted just 4-of-10 third downs and turned the ball over 3 times. At one point, PSU scored on 7 consecutive drives, including on 4 straight offensive plays. Its 49 points were the most by a Rose Bowl losing team, while its 28 third quarter points were the most ever in any Rose Bowl quarter. The Nittany Lions were held scoreless in the first and fourth quarters (managing just 52 yards), including only 14 yards in the final quarter when it failed to convert on all 4 third downs tries.

PSU RB Saquon Barkley ran for 194 yards on 25 carries along with 5 catches for 55 yards and 2 kick returns for 57 yards for 306 all-purpose yards, QB Trace McSorley was 18-of-29 for 254 yards and 4 TDs but threw 3 picks and WR Chris Godwin had 9 catches for 187 yards.

CB Iman Marshall and then CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson picked off McSorley's first 2 passes of the game and USC converted the second one into a touchdown on a 26-yard Darnold aerial to Burnett, the first of 5 scores on consecutive first-half drives for the Trojans. Boermeester then hit 22- and 44-yard field goals late in the first quarter to get Troy off to a 13-0 start.

But Penn State responded as Barkley had a 24-yard scoring run early in the second quarter, the first of its 7 consecutive TD drives. USC countered with a 3-yard TD toss from Darnold to Burnett, only to have Penn State answer back on McSorley's 30-yard scoring pass to Godwin. USC built the margin back to 13 points on Darnold's 3-yard TD pass to WR Darreus Rogers, but PSU pulled within 27-21 at halftime on McSorley's 11-yard TD throw to TE Mike Gesicki with 54 seconds left, the first of 4 TDs the Nittany Lions would score on consecutive offensive plays.

After a USC drive stalled to open the second half, Barkley jetted 79 yards for a score on PSU's first play (the longest run surrendered by USC in 2016). On the first play of Penn State's next possession, Godwin hauled in a 72-yard McSorley bomb for a touchdown (the longest pass allowed by USC in 2016) and, after Darnold was intercepted deep in Trojan territory on USC's next drive, McSorley raced 3 yards on the following play to put the Nittany Lions up 42-27 just 10:26 into the third quarter. USC ended PSU's 28-point scoring run on its ensuring drive by getting a 13-yard Darnold scoring toss to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (Troy added a 2-point conversion on a Darnold pass to TE Taylor McNamara), but the Nittany Lions responded with an 82-yard scoring march late in the third quarter, capped by McSorley's 7-yard TD pass to Barkley to give PSU a 49-35 lead.

After failed possessions by both teams, USC closed the gap after a 3-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones II with 8:15 to play to finish an 83-yard drive. USC forced Nittany Lion punts on their next 2 series, with Troy getting the ball back on its own 20 with 1:59 to go and taking just 3 plays to tie the game at 49 all on Darnold's 27-yard TD strike to Burnett, who broke off his flat route and instead ran to the post. The Trojans forced Penn State into third-and-9 on its next drive, setting up McQuay to make his dramatic interception.

Smith-Schuster had 7 grabs for 133 yards in the game and Jones, who wore jersey #4 in honor of late USC TB Joe McKnight (the entire team wore a JM4 helmet sticker), ran for 55 yards on 20 carries.

DT Stevie Tu'ikolovatu, who was the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, led USC with 8 tackles, while McQuay had 7.

The attendance was the Rose Bowl's largest since 1998 and the most for a USC game since 106,033 at Ohio State in 2009. The 55-degree temperature at kickoff was the coolest since the 1974 Rose Bowl (also 55). The game lasted 4 hours and 12 minutes (USC's longest since the 2012 Syracuse game, 4:24). The ESPN College GameDay pre-game show emanated from the stadium's field.
