USC will face Fresno State on Friday (Sept. 1) at 7 p.m. before facing two Top 25 teams in No. 24 Utah on Saturday (Sept. 2) at 2 p.m. and No. 11 Tennessee (Sept. 3) at 4 p.m. Two other matches will take place with Utah playing North Carolina on Friday at 5 p.m. and Fresno State facing Utah on Sunday at 2 p.m. Loyola Marymount is also hosting matches this weekend as part of the tournament.

Week In Review

USC went 3-0 to open the 2006 season at the CenturyTel Premier Volleyball Tournament in San Marcos, Texas, hosted by Texas State. Junior opposite hitter/outside hitter Asia Kaczor earned most valuable player honors while junior outside hitter Diane Copenhagen was named to the all-tournament team after the Women of Troy swept all three matches against North Texas, UTPA and Texas State.

Kaczor led the team with 15 kills in the season opener against North Texas while Copenhagen and redshirt sophomore Jessica Gysin added 12 kills apiece. Gysin had a strong weekend after battling injuries her first two seasons which limited her to just one match played. Senior All-America libero Debora Seilhamer had 67 digs in three matches for the Women of Troy while freshman setter Taylor Carico got the nod as the team's No. 1 setter.

Junior middle blocker Bethany Johansen had 20 kills against two hitting errors on 39 attempts last weekend for the Women of Troy.

Head Coach Mick Haley

- Head Coach - U.S. Women's National Team (1997-2000)
- Four national championships (1981, 1988 - Texas, 2002, 2003 - USC)
- Two junior college women's national championships
- Four junior college men's national championships
- Three-Time National Coach of the Year

Success is often measured by results and USC head coach Mick Haley has pushed the women's volleyball program to a level that proves that axiom to be true. During his tenure at USC, Haley has guided his teams to two national championships (2002 and 2003), three consecutive NCAA Final Four appearances (2002, 2003, 2004) and five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Now in his sixth year at USC, Haley has posted an amazing overall record of 134-22 (.859) while going 76-13 (.854) in Pac-10 Conference play.

In 2003, Haley led the Women of Troy to a second-consecutive NCAA Championship - the program's sixth title overall and third NCAA title.

Haley, 63, guided the 2003 squad to a perfect 35-0 record (only the fourth team to ever accomplish the feat). For these accomplishments, he earned the most prestigious honor among collegiate coaches and something that had eluded him in previous years of his collegiate coaching career as he was honored AVCA Division I Coach of the Year.

In the process, Haley put together an NCAA-record 52-match winning streak, dating from Nov. 8, 2002, to Sept. 11, 2004. During the impressive streak, the Women of Troy compiled a 156-14 single game record (91.8%).

As a two-time national championship head coach at Texas and four-year United States National Team coach, Haley took the helm of the Trojan program at the start of the 2001 season. He brought a tradition of excellence as one of the elite coaches in the game with him to a University with a rich tradition of its own.

In his 29 years as a collegiate head coach, Haley boasts a 907-210-1 (.812) career women's record and a 656-160 (.804) mark in 22 years at the Division I level. He ranks sixth among the NCAA's winningest active coaches according to win percentage (.812) and ninth among all active coaches by victories (656). Most impressive is Haley's dominant history against conference opponents.

Along with his men's record, Haley is 1,004-242-1 (.806) during his tremendous career that includes four Division I women's national championships and six overall junior college national titles. He recorded his personal 1,000th win on Nov. 25, 2005, with USC's 3-0 win at home against California.

Prior to his return to the collegiate scene, Haley made his mark on the international and Olympic stage. He spent four seasons as head coach of the U.S. Women's National Team (1997-2000), leading Team USA to a fourth-place finish at the 2000 Olympics.

Before entering the international spotlight, Haley spent 17 successful seasons (1980-96) at Texas, where he was 522-137-1 overall, won two national championships (1981 and 1988), 13 Southwest Conference titles and earned 15 NCAA tournament berths.

Prior to Texas, Haley coached at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Mich., for seven seasons (1973-79). In 1997, he was inducted into the Junior College Coaches Hall of Fame.

While at Kellogg, he also trained with the U.S. National Team and served as an assistant coach with the U.S. men's and women's programs.

As a setter at Ball State (1962-65), he helped lead the Cardinals to the 1964 and 1965 Midwest Intercollegiate Volleyball Association title. He was the MIVA's MVP in 1965 and made the All-MIVA second team in 1964. Haley was inducted into the Ball State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1984. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Ball State in 1965.

He received a master's degree in education in 1966 from Southern Illinois, where he started a men's club team.

Grand Victory

On Nov. 25, 2005, USC head coach Mick Haley recorded his 1,000th collegiate win in the Women of Troy's 3-0 win against California. He earned his 900th win as a women's coach on Nov. 4, 2005, at Oregon State. His 29-year career includes seven years (combined men's and women's) at Kellogg Community College in Michigan (1973-79), 17 years at Texas (1980-96) and five years at USC (2000-present). He also served as head coach for the U.S. Women's National Team from 1997-2000, including the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia.

The Power of the Pac-10

Six Pac-10 teams were ranked among the top 25 in the 2006 CSTV/AVCA preseason poll (the most among any other conference), including No. 3 Washington, No. 4 Stanford, No. 10 UCLA, No. 14 USC, No. 17 California and No. 18 Arizona.

"Seil" The Deal

Senior libero Debora Seilhamer (Ponce, Puerto Rico/ Colegio Ponceño) has established herself as one of the top liberos in the nation. Seilhamer earned All-America second team status and All-Pac-10 honors last season after posting a school record 696 digs and 6.82 dpg average, surpassing both records she had set in her 2004 sophomore season.

During the last weekend's opening matches in San Marcos, Texas, Seilhamer posted 67 digs for a 7.44 dpg clip.

Currently, she holds the school career record with a 4.74 dpg average (Katie Haller, 1990-93, is second with a 4.01 average) and is fourth all-time with 1,417 digs. She needs 54 digs to tie Kelly Kuebler (1992-95) for third and can tie Haller for the school record with a total of 285 in 2006.

She set a school record for most digs in a four-game match with 39 on Nov. 19, 2005, at Arizona State, surpassing a record she tied earlier in the season (Sept. 9 against Notre Dame) with 36.

She earned Pac-10 Player of the Week honors last year after recording 57 digs in two matches (8.14 dpg average) on Oct. 21 and 22 against Arizona State and No. 8 Arizona. With 27 digs against ASU, she set a school record for most digs in a three-game match and, in the process, recorded her 1,000th career dig. She was perfect in 21 serving attempts against Arizona and did not record a reception error. On Nov. 12 against Washington State, Seilhamer set a new three-game school record with 29 digs against the Cougars.

She tied the school record on Sept. 9, 2005, against No. 19 Notre Dame for most digs (36) in a four-game match, tying a mark held by Megan McAllister (10/21/89) and Katie Haller (10/24/92). Seilhamer had 82 digs in three matches against Top 25 teams (Notre Dame, No. 6 Florida and No. 13 Texas A&M) at the UTSA Dome Rally (Sept. 9-11) and was named to the all-tournament team.

Seilhamer earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention in 2004 and set a USC record (and five-game record) with 45 digs in the match on Nov. 12 against UCLA.

She was third on the team last year with a 3.85 ppg average, along with 314 kills (3.27 kpg). She set a career-high with 24 kills in a five-game loss to No. 6 Florida on Sept. 10, 2005, at the UTSA Dome Rally in San Antonio.

Family Gysin

It has taken two years, but USC fans will finally get a chance to see the exploits of redshirt sophomore outside hitter Jessica Gysin (Los Gatos/St. Francis HS). Hailed as one of the top high school players in 2004, Gysin has battled injuries in her first two seasons. She sprained her ankle in 2004 and suffered a left knee injury in 2005.

Gysin started out of the blocks in fine fashion with 13 kills, seven digs and two solo blocks in USC's 3-0 win on Aug. 26 at Texas State.

Taylor Made

Freshman setter Taylor Carico (Manhattan Beach/Mira Costa HS) takes center stage on the NCAA Division I level this season as the Women of Troy's No. 1 setter. She recorded 94 assists (10.44 apg) in the first three matches this season.

Carico won the 2005 Andi Collins Award as the nation's top senior high school setter according to PrepVolleyball.com. She was also CIF Co-Player of the Year and state most valuable player in her senior season.

On the club level, she won most valuable player honors for the 18 Open Division this summer at the Junior Olympics and was a member of the 2004 and 2005 Youth National Team.

The Pahl Bearer

Sophomore middle blocker/outside hitter Kelli Tennant (Temecula/Chaparral HS) lists former USC All-America middle blocker Jennifer Pahl (1998-2001) as her biggest sports hero. Tennant is wearing Pahl's number (26) as a tribute to her. Pahl grew up near Tennant in Murrieta, Calif.

Tennant earned 2005 Pac-10 All-Freshman Team honors after recording 188 kills (1.84 kpg) and 84 blocks (0.82 bpg). She finished fourth on the squad with a 2.52 ppg average.

CSU: Los Angeles

This season, USC welcomes to two junior transfers from last year's junior college national champions at the College of Southern Idaho. Both players are also from Poland.

6-4 opposite/outside hitter Asia Kaczor (pronounced AH-shuh KAHK-chor) will be counted on to generate points for the Women of Troy this season. She was the 2005 NJCAA Player of the Year after leading the team with 605 kills on the season (4.96 kpg) and a .456 percentage. She recorded 89 service aces (0.73 apg), 25 assists, 62 blocks (0.51 bpg) and 307 digs (2.52 dpg). Kaczor has been a member of the Polish National Team program since 2000.

Kaczor earned most valuable player honors at the 2006 CenturyTel Premier Tournament in San Marcos, Texas, after recording 42 kills (15, 14 and 13 kills respectively) in three matches. She hit .370 on the weekend, adding five digs and seven block assists.
