

2014 UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S SOCCER

HEAD COACH KEIDANE MCALPINE

Keidane McAlpine, the 2013 Pac-12 and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year, was named the new head coach of the USC women's soccer team on Dec. 16, 2013.

McAlpine comes to Troy after serving the past two seasons (2012-13) as head coach at Washington State, where he guided the Cougars to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and a program-best second place finish in the Pac-12 in 2013.

"We conducted a national search with a great pool of candidates, and Keidane really stood out with his vision of what he wants to bring to the USC soccer program," USC athletic director Pat Haden said of McAlpine. "He has already shown his ability to coach and succeed at the highest level, and his experience as a head coach in the Pac-12 is a big plus. We believe he is uniquely qualified to lead USC back to the successful level that we expect for our soccer program."

Keidane McAlpine becomes the fourth USC women's soccer head coach, replacing Ali Khosroshahin, who spent the past seven years (2007-13) at Troy. The Women of Troy won the 2007 NCAA Championship and have made 12 NCAA appearances, but have not reached the postseason since 2010.

This past season at Washington State, McAlpine's Cougars tied the program record for victories with a 14-3-4 mark. His team and players set or tied 27 school records. In his first season at WSU, McAlpine went 6-4-1 in Pac-12 play and finished up 12-6-2 overall in reaching the 2012 NCAA Tournament. In his two years in Pullman, McAlpine saw one Cougar named an NSCAA All-American and Pac-12 Player of the Year while picking up his own selection as the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year. In those two years, McAlpine coached six Cougars to All-Pac-12 honor rolls. Considered an offensive-minded coach, McAlpine showed his defensive savvy while at WSU as the Cougars finished 2013 ranked No. 7 in the nation with only 11 goals allowed.

Prior to Washington State, McAlpine spent six years (2006-11) as an assistant at Auburn, helping the Tigers to NCAA appearances each season along with three SEC West titles.

A 1997 graduate of Birmingham-Southern College, he spent three seasons (1998-2000) as an assistant women's coach before taking over as his alma mater's head women's coach in 2001 for the program's first season of NCAA competition following participation at the NAIA level. In 2004, McAlpine's fourth season as head coach at Birmingham-Southern, the team won the Big South championship and reached the NCAA Tournament, helping secure McAlpine honors as the Big South Coach of the Year. He helped develop 12 all-conference selections and a Big South Freshman of the Year recipient as the Panthers went 40-48-11 (.460) in the first five seasons (2001-05) in NCAA play. As an assistant at BSC during the Panthers' NAIA years, he helped the team to its first NAIA Tournament in 2000.

In all, McAlpine has spent seven seasons as a head coach (five at Birmingham-Southern, two at Washington State), having accumulated a 66-57-17 (.532) record at the helm of those two programs, with three NCAA appearances.

Active in Olympic Development Program for many years, McAlpine is currently on the Region IV staff with the '99 age group. He also worked in Region III as head coach for the U-13 group and was on the U-14 staff in the summer of 2010 after joining the U-13 staff in the summer of 2009. McAlpine holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. He was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer a native of Huntsville, Ala., McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

17 different goal scorers on the year, with seven having had multi-goal outings. The team's 41 goals are fourth in the Pac-12, and they also rank No. 4 in points per game (5.65) and fifth in assists per game (1.55 per game, 31 total).

BEST START - The Women of Troy's season start of 6-0-2 is a program-best. The program has never seen a team be undefeated through its first eight games of the season. The last record was the 2000 team, which went 5-0-0 to start the year. The team's 12 wins so far on the season are the most the program has seen since 2010, and there are still three games to go.

QUINCEY'S KICKS - Senior Alex Quincey is tied for fifth in the Pac-12 with 10 goals on the year. Her 10 goals have come on just 31 shots. She has a team-leading .323 shooting percentage. Four of her goals have been game winners. The last Trojan to score 10 goals in a season was Amy Rodriguez, who completed the feat in 2007.

SCOUTING PEPPERDINE - The Waves defeated then-No. 15 BYU 3-2 in their final regular season game. They are ranked No. 11 in the NSCAA poll this week. Senior forward Lynn Williams is second in career goal scoring for the Waves with 37 goals and ranks first in game-winning goals with 15. Goalkeeper Hannah Seabert ranks sixth in career saves with 185 and fourth in shutouts with 13. Head coach Tim Ward earned WCC Co-Head Coach of the Year honors in 2014.

The Trojans and the Waves met earlier this season at McAlister Field, with the Trojans falling 2-1. The Waves scored first, but the Trojans tied things up 1-1 on a goal from Erin Owen, assist from Sydney Sladek and Katie Johnson. However, Lynn Williams scored the eventual game-winning goal in the 66th minute. Pepperdine and USC have faced each other twice in postseason play, with the Waves getting wins in both 2001 and 2003. Overall the Trojans are 6-6 all-time vs. the Waves. The Trojans are 3-1 while playing the Waves in Malibu. The last time the Trojans played in Malibu was 1997. The Trojans have lost their last four matchups vs. the Waves. All the losses have come by one goal. The last time the Trojans beat the Waves was in 2008, 3-0 at McAlister Field.

RACKING UP THE HONORS - North Carolina transfer Reilly Parker has made herself known in the early going, as her two goals over the weekend, including the game-winner over Notre Dame earned her Pac-12 Player of the Week. She was also named to Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week and was College Soccer 360 Primetime Player. The honor was the first of her career and the first for the Women of Troy since Elizabeth Eddy won in the first week of the 2013 season.

Goalkeeper Caroline Stanley was also recognized her outstanding play between the pipes as Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Week. Stanley is the first Trojan to win the honor since the inception of the award. She collected seven saves over the two wins, including the huge stop on the Notre Dame penalty kick. The last goalkeeper to receive a weekly honor was Kristin Olsen, who earned Pac-12 Player of the Week honors in 2009.

Sophomore defender Mandy Freeman was named to Top Drawer Soccer Team of the Week after the Women of Troy held Arizona scoreless in the Pac-12 opener on the road.

Whitney Pitalo became the first Trojan ever to win Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week since the award's inception in 2012. Against the Beavers, Pitalo picked a good time to net her first goal since her freshman season, as she connected on a header off a corner kick from teammate Jamie Fink in the 54th minute to tie the game back up at 1-1, after the Beavers had taken a 1-0 lead just five minutes earlier. She then helped the defense shore things up, not allowing another goal through regulation and into overtime, allowing teammate Alex Quincey to come up with the game-winning goal in the 96th minute of a wet, sloppy game to finish the Trojans' sweep of the Oregon schools.

Katie Johnson was the offensive power behind the Trojans' two big road upsets in the second-to-last regular season weekend at the Washington schools. The junior began the week with a goal against Washington to give the Trojans a 1-0 lead in a game that USC eventually won, 2-1. Johnson then netted the dramatic goal in the final minute of regulation against Washington State, running onto a flicked header from teammate Jamie Fink and giving USC the 1-0 victory. The honor was the first of Johnson's career.

Caroline Stanley made eight saves over the weekend's two road games. The senior goalkeeper was between the pipes all 180 minutes for USC, only giving up one goal. In the 2-1 win over Washington, Stanley recorded three saves on wet field conditions. She then went on to make five saves in a 1-0 win over Washington State where the Cougars had nine corner kick opportunities, but Stanley held her line and came up with her seventh shutout of the year. The honor was her second of the season and career.

THE STAFF - The Trojans have a new-look coaching staff in 2014. Along with head coach Keidane McAlpine, the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year, the staff includes former UNLV head coach Jen Klein, one of McAlpine's assistants at Washington State, along with Jason Lockhart, also an assistant for McAlpine in Pullman, Wash.

SISTER ACTS - Three USC juniors have factored in significantly to the USC gameplan since arriving at USC two seasons ago, and their ability to make a quick transition may well be attributed to family ties. Jamie Fink, Katie Johnson and Erin Owen have all played a ton of minutes, and all three have older sisters who also have been USC student-athletes. Fink's older sister Amanda was an All-American and Pac-12 champion in tennis; Katie Johnson's older sister Isabelle also was on the soccer team; and Owen's older sister Kelly was a co-captain on the track and cross country teams before graduating last year. Whether it has been familiarity with USC overall or sisterly advice on how to succeed as a student-athlete, it's working as all three have played in every game to date.

The collegiate soccer pedigree lives amongst other Women of Troy, including sophomores Mandy Freeman, Savannah Levin and Dominique Randle. Mandy's sister Ashley played soccer, softball and ran track at Florida, while her sister Tiara played soccer at South Alabama. Savannah's sister Camille played soccer for four seasons at Stanford and was a member of the 2011 National Championship team on the Farm. Camille currently plays in the NWSL for Sky Blue F.C. as a defender. Randle's sister Brittanee plays college soccer at Missouri. Marlee Carrillo's sister Mikaela Carrillo also plays Division I soccer and is a senior defender at Idaho State this season.
