2018 USC Season Outlook

TROJANS EYE THE TOP OF THE MOUNTAIN

The Trojan track and field program under the direction of Caryl Smith Gilbert continues its upward ascent and seems poised to break through on the national scene in 2018. The women's team won the MPSF indoor title, finished fourth indoors and third outdoors nationally and returns five All-Americans. The men's team placed second at the Pac-12 meet and 20th nationally outdoors and returns all of its scorers. With strong recruiting classes and several high-end transfers added to these groups, the top of the mountain is clearly in sight.

The men's team returns its NCAA scorers from 2017 in 400m runners Michael Norman and Ricky Morgan Jr., hurdler Marquis Morris, shot putter Nick Ponzio and jumper Eric Sloan. It has also added transfer hurdler All-American Rai Benjamin and a strong freshman class, which includes California high school state champion Zach Shinnick.

The men's sprints will be led by the sophomore Norman and senior Morgan Jr. in the 200m and 400m. Norman won the Pac-12 400m title, finished fourth at the NCAA meet and set the USC freshman record in the event with a time of 44.60 at the USA Championships. Morgan Jr. was third in the 400m dash at the Pac-12 Championships and reached the NCAA semifinals in the event. They are far from alone in the sprints, though.

Sophomore T.J. Brock placed fourth in the 100m dash at the Pac-12 Championships, second at the USA Juniors and won the Pan Am title in the 100m. He has a wind-aided PR of 10.16 and legal PR of 10.30 in the 100m dash. Sophomore Alexander Barnum (100m – 10.32, 200m – 21.06) was sixth in the 100m at Pac-12s and junior Christian Sourapas (100m – 10.37, 200m – 20.63) was seventh in the 100m and third in the 200m at the Pac-12 Championships. Freshman Nick Moore joins this group with PRs of 10.63 and 21.44 in high school.

Also, Benjamin is expected to compete in the sprints as well as his signature event the 400m hurdles. Last season, he captured the Pac-12 title and went on to place second at nationals in the 400m hurdles with a time of 48.33. USC's other All-American hurdler is the senior

Morris who placed sixth in the 110m hurdles at nationals last season, and his best of 13.56 ranks 10th on USC's all-time list. This year, they are joined by junior Jaydon Logan (52.89 in the 400m hurdles) and freshman Cameron Samuel (13.78 in the 110 hurdles and 52.37 in the 400m hurdles).

The middle distances are once again led by senior Robert Ford. He placed second in the 800m at the Pac-12 Championships and advanced to the NCAA semifinals in the event. Redshirt senior Alex Rohani competed in the 800m race last season and posted a PR of 1:49.73 to take second at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet. Also returning in the 800m are senior Mitchell Cameron and sophomores Matthew Myrtue and Josh Zavala. Freshman David Hulme will also compete in the middle distances for USC.

The jumps should be a strength for USC, led by a trio of seniors in Eric Sloan and Dominic Smallwood in the long jump and triple jump, and Randall Cunningham in the high jump. Sloan won the 2017 Pac-12 triple jump title and placed third in the long jump. He then went on to take sixth in the long jump and reach the semifinals in the triple jump at the NCAA Championships. He had a PR of 55-6.25 in the triple jump at the regional which moved him into third on USC's all-time list in the event and set the meet record. Smallwood took second in the triple jump and fourth in the long jump at the Pac-12 Championships. The pair is joined in the horizontal jumps by senior Jadon Joyner who, in his first season of focusing on the jumps, finished just out of scoring at the conference meet.

Randall Cunningham won the 2016 NCAA high jump title and figures to provide USC with a great chance to score in the event again. He is joined this season by freshman Earnest Sears III, who has a PR of 7-0. Sophomore Michael Gonzalez returns to pole vault for USC. Last year as a freshman, he won the Dual Meet high jump title.

The throws are always a strength for USC and this season will be no different. Senior Nick Ponzio placed sixth in the shot put at the NCAA Championships and second at the Pac-12 Championships last season. Junior Matthew Katnik placed third at the conference meet, 16th at NAAs, 11th at the USA T&F Championships and took second indoors at the MPSF Championships. Talented redshirt sophomore Nathan Bultman returns after missing last outdoor season with an injury. He finished third in the hammer throw at the Pac-12 Championships as a freshman and also competes in the shot put, discus throw and weight throw. Junior Jason Kim returns for his second season as a thrower for the Trojans.

Redshirt senior Cameron Collins transferred to USC from Virginia and will compete in the multi-events.

The women's team placed third at the NCAA Championships last season, and despite losing several key seniors in All-Americans Amalie Iuel, Brittany Mann, Cameron Pettigrew and Destinee Brown, are loaded once again.

Senior Deanna Hill and redshirt junior Ky Westbrook are key to the Trojans' short sprints. Hill ranks in USC's all-time top 10 in both the 100m and 200m and has scored in both at the NCAA Championships, last season finishing sixth in the 200m, as well as running on the 4x400m relay which ran the fastest time in school history and placed second at NCAAs. Westbrook scored in both the 100m and 200m as a freshman and after missing a season, returned to score in the 100m at the NCAA Championships last season. Sophomore Zaria Francis also returns. She placed seventh in the 100m dash at the Pac-12 Championships and has a PR of 11.31 in winning the California high school state title in 2015.

Redshirt sophomore Angie Annelus transferred to USC with three outdoor seasons remaining. She reached the NCAA semifinals in the 200m dash as a freshman. Freshman Twanisha "TeeTee" Terry (11.37 in the 100m) comes to USC as a six-time Florida state sprint champion, winning both the 100m and 200m dashes her final three seasons of high school.

Senior All-American and school record-holder Kendall Ellis leads a strong group of sprinters specializing in the 400m dash. Ellis, who owns the school record with a 400m time of 50.00, won the Pac-12 title, placed third at the NCAA Championships and made the USA team for the World Championships last season. Sophomore Kyra Constantine broke into USC's indoor top 10 in the 400m and outdoors placed sixth at the Pac-12 Championships. Freshman Kaelin Roberts won the L.A. City 200m and 400m titles last season and is a two-time California state champion in the 400m, with a best time of 52.28. In addition, Kennedy Gillian and Kayla Richardson return, and Kayla's twin sister Kyla, returns to action after a redshirt season.

The hurdles should also provide the Trojans with big opportunities to score points at the conference and national meets. Sophomore Anna Cockrell had an impressive first season at USC, setting school freshman records in the 60m hurdles and 400m hurdles, and placed second in the 400m hurdles and eighth in the 100m hurdles at the NCAA Championships. Redshirt junior Dior Hall was fourth at the Pac-12 Championships and seventh at the NCAA Championships in 100m hurdles and ranks third on USC's all-time list in the event (12.74), with Cockrell fourth (12.89). Cockrell also ranks fourth on USC's 400m hurdles list with a time of 55.14. Mecca McGlaston was slowed by injury last season, but was still able to complete late in the season and was able to finish fifth in the 100m hurdles and eighth in the 400m hurdles at the Pac-12 Championships. Joining them this season is a talented pair of freshmen in Chanel Brissett and Shante Robinson. Brissett has a PR of 12.91 in the 100m hurdles and competed at the U.S. Olympic Trials as a junior in high school. Robinson has a best of 40.84 to finish third in the 300m hurdles at the 2017 California state meet.

Junior Margaux Jones again returns as USC's top jumper, with a legal best jump of 20-10.75. She is the two-time defending MPSF indoor long jump champion and took second at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships. Redshirt freshman Courtney Corrin sat out the outdoor season last year with an injury, but brings a PR of 20-11 into the season and was twice the California state high school champion in the event. Also, senior Madisen Richards placed seventh in the long jump at the Pac-12 Championships last season. Freshman Cassidy Palka will compete in the high jump. She won the CIF state title in 2016 with a PR of 5-9 and placed fourth last season.

The middle distances are led by junior Mikaela Smith. She placed eighth in the 800m race at the Pac-12 Championships and last year had a PR of 2:05.17 which ranks seventh on USC's all-time list. Junior Amber Gore had a strong cross country season this fall and leads USC cross country/distance runners which include sophomore Chloe Berry, freshman Julia Bounds, freshman Jennifer Daly, freshman Mackenzie Ellison, junior Rachel Glynn, junior Lauren Maurer, senior Madison Ricks, freshman Sydney Tullai and sophomore Kamryn Weber.

The Trojans have a new group of women's throwers. Redshirt senior Breana Jemison transferred to USC from UC Riverside where she set the school record with a shot put of 56-11.50. Freshman Joy McArthur had the top high school hammer throw in 2017 and her PR of 203-8 won the 2016 USATF Juniors hammer throw title. Fellow freshman Natasha Stamp threw the hammer, discus and shot put in Georgia as a high schooler, winning the state 7A shot put title last season. Redshirt freshman Colette Putnam sat out last season to work on learning to throw the javelin.

The multi-events will again be manned by junior Lyndsey Lopes and redshirt junior Alexa Harmon-Thomas. Lopes placed third in the heptathlon at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships with a PR of 5,371 points, which ranks eighth on USC's all-time list. Harmon-Thomas finished 10th at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships in her first collegiate heptathlon.

The Trojans have the depth and talent to do special things during the 2018 track and field season. If USC continues the upward progression it has been making as a program, both the men's and women's teams certainly figure to be in the mix at both the Pac-12 and NCAA Championships meets.

CARYL SMITH GILBERT

USC Director of Track & Field | Fifth Season

Caryl Smith Gilbert begins her fifth season as the Trojan Director of Track & Field and once again last season demonstrated that USC has one of the elite programs in the country.

USC's women's team placed third at the 2017 NCAA Championships with its most points since 2002 and its highest finish since the 2006 season. The men's team placed 20th, but was just six points outside of a top seven finish. USC athletes garnered 17 All-America honors.

The women's teams have scored 120 points in her first four seasons as the program leader, the most points in a four-year stretch since scoring 158 points during the 2001-04 seasons. Both the men's and women's teams placed second at the 2017 Pac-12 Championships. During the indoor season, the women's team placed fourth at the NCAA Championships and won the MPSF title, while the men's team placed 21st at the NCAA Championships and took second at the conference meet. USC set six indoor school records and two outdoor during the 2017 season, running the total in her four years at the helm to 25 indoor school records and 11 outdoor USC records. The Trojans have also established a combined total of 23 freshman records (17 indoor and 6 outdoor) in her first four seasons. In addition 14 Trojans were named to Pac-12 All-Academic teams, bringing the total to 54 in her first four seasons leading the program.

During the 2016 season, the men's team won its first MPSF Indoor title which earned Smith Gilbert MPSF Men's Coach of the Year honors. At the Pac-12 Championships, the men's team took fifth and the women's team second. She also earned USTFCCCA Men's Indoor West Region Coach of the Year honors. Sophomore Randall Cunningham won the NCAA high jump title and USC set or tied four more school outdoor records. The Trojans were also strong in the classroom with four athletes named to the USTFCCCA All-Academic teams, 14 named to Pac-12 All-Academic teams and Jaide Stepter being named Pac-12 Track and Field Women's Scholar Athlete of the Year. At the 2016 NCAA T&F Championships the injury-depleted men's team tied for 12th with only three men scoring and the women's team tied for ninth.

Smith Gilbert continued the upward trending of the program in her second season as the 2015 men's team placed fifth at the NCAA Championships with its fifth-most points since the scoring system changed in 1985 and the women's team placed seventh with its most points since 2006 (since topped by the 2017 team). The top 10 finishes by both programs were USC's first since the 2009 season. The men's team had three individual champions with Conor McCullough winning the hammer throw and Andre De Grasse taking both the 100m and 200m titles. He became the first college male athlete to claim both titles in the same season since Walter Dix in 2007 and Smith Gilbert became the first woman to coach a men's 100m and 200m champion. The women's team earned 14 first-team All-Americans, the second-highest for any school, and the teams combined for 32 first or second team All-American selections. Again the men's and women's teams took second at the Pac-12 Championships and Smith Gilbert was named both men's and women's Pac-12 Coach of the Year, becoming the first woman to be named the conference's men's coach of the year. She again led the women's team to the MPSF Indoor title and the men's team placed second in their first season in the conference. Smith Gilbert was named the 2015 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Indoor Coach of the Year and the MPSF Women's Indoor Coach of the Year. In addition, the Trojans garnered 13 Pac-12 All-Academic selections and Alexandra Collatz was named to the District VIII All-Academic team. It didn't take long for Smith Gilbert to prove that USC had "hit a home run" when they named her as the Director of Track & Field on June 17, 2013. In her first season at the helm of the Trojan program, she guided the men's team to a fourth-place tie and the women's team to a 16th-place tie at the NCAAs, the women's team won the MPSF Indoor Championship and both men's and women's teams placed second at the Pac-12 Championships. USC garnered 28 first-team All-America honors, posted 22 all-time top 10 school marks and Aleec Harris set the school hurdles record. It is no surprise then that she was named the NCAA West Region Women's Head Coach of the Year and the MPSF (Indoor) Women's Head Coach of the Year. Smith Gilbert's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom where they earned 13 Pac-12 All-Academic selections and Alexandra Collatz was honored as a third-team Academic All-American.

Prior to her arrival at USC, Smith Gilbert was a six-time Conference USA Coach of the Year at the University of Central Florida who guided the Knights' women's team to a program-best fifth place finish at both the 2013 NCAA Track and Field Indoor and Outdoor Championships.

Smith Gilbert succeeded Ron Alice, who led the Trojans for 19 years and retired after the 2013 NCAA Championships.

Prior to her arrival at USC, Smith Gilbert, 48, spent six seasons (2008-13) at UCF overseeing the women's track and field and cross country programs after serving as an assistant at Tennessee, Alabama and Penn State.

During her UCF tenure, the Knights won six Conference USA track and field indoor and outdoor crowns. Her athletes were named All-Americans more than 100 times and set more than 100 school records. Academically, her team's GPA exceeded 3.0 nearly every term. She also oversaw the building of the on-campus UCF Cross Country Complex.

- Has coached eight individual NCAA champions
- Has guided her athletes to more than 103 individual conference titles
- UCF won six C-USA indoor and outdoor titles in her tenure and her athletes were named All-Americans more than 100 times and set more than 100 school records
- In the classroom her teams have posted a team GPA of 3.0 or higher almost every semester

In 2013, UCF's fifth place showing at the NCAA outdoor meet was the best finish by a non-BCS team since 2000 and its 35 points more than doubled the previous program best. She was named the USTFCCCA South Region Coach of the Year for a fifth time in 2013 as she guided UCF to its first-ever outdoor national Top 10 ranking in the USTFCCCA poll. She was the only coach to have three 100 meter runners ranked among the top 10-seeded qualifiers at the NCAA meet. Twelve school records were broken in the 2013 outdoor season while the team won its fourth-straight C-USA title, a feat unmatched by any other women's track and field program in conference history. Octavious Freeman was the C-USA Outdoor Track Athlete of the Year for the second consecutive year.

UCF also finished fifth at the 2013 NCAA indoor meet, as C-USA Indoor Track Athlete of the Year Auriyall Scott won the 60-meter dash to become the school's first NCAA champion in any sport.

UCF's eighth place finish at the 2012 NCAA indoor meet was the program's best at the time. UCF won the C-USA outdoor title and capped the season by sending four Knights to compete at the USA Olympic Trials. Scott was one of two collegiate athletes who advanced to the finals of the 200 meters. At the 2012 London Olympics, Smith Gilbert trained U.S. Olympian DeeDee Trotter to her third appearance in the Summer Games and her first individual Olympic medal (a bronze), as well as a second gold medal on the 4x400 relay.

In 2011, UCF swept the indoor and outdoor C-USA titles as Jackie Coward was named C-USA Track Athlete of the Year and UCF's first two-time All-America first teamer. Smith Gilbert was C-USA's outdoor and indoor Coach of the Year.

She led the 2010 Knights to the C-USA Outdoor championship. Coward became UCF's first NCAA Outdoor All-American (she was fourth in the 100-meter hurdles).

In Smith Gilbert's first two seasons at UCF, 2008 and 2009, her athletes broke 30 of the school's indoor and outdoor school records. She also served as the jumps and multi events coach of Team USA at the 2009 IAAF World Outdoor Championships in Berlin.

Smith Gilbert spent five seasons (2003-07) as an assistant coach at Tennessee, where she was responsible for coaching sprints, hurdles and jumps. Her Lady Vol athletes won three NCAA titles and seven Southeastern Conference championships and earned 53 NCAA Division I All-America honors. They also established 19 school records.

The 2005 Lady Vols won the school's first NCAA Indoor Championship as her group combined for 24 All-America honors and seven school records. She was named U.S. Track Coaches Association National and Mideast Region Assistant Coach of the Year for sprints and hurdles. She was responsible for the development of Trotter, the 2007 USA Indoor and Outdoor Champion and a 2004 gold medalist in the 4x400-meter relay. She also coached Tianna Madison, who won the 2005 world championship in the long jump, Cleo Tyson, who won the 100-meter dash and helped the U.S. 4x100 relay team earn gold at the North America, Central America and Caribbean Athletic Association (NACAC) Championships, and Toyin Olupona, the 2005 Canadian National Champion in the 100-meter dash and the two-time NCAA runner-up in the 60-meter dash.

Smith Gilbert also helped the Lady Vols win SEC Indoor Championships in 2005 and 2007 and an NCAA Mideast Regional outdoor crown in 2005. The Lady Vols finished in the top four at the 2004, 2005 and 2007 NCAA Indoor Championships.

Smith Gilbert was an assistant coach at Alabama for three years (2000-02), guiding athletes in the sprints, hurdles and jumps. During her tenure with the Crimson Tide, she produced seven NCAA Division I All-Americans and four USA Olympic Trials qualifiers.

She held similar responsibilities as an assistant at Penn State for two seasons (1998-99). Her Nittany Lion athletes accumulated four All-America honors and nine school records, and made the finals at the Big Ten Championships on 10 occasions. She also served the school as an instructor for the exercise science department.

Prior to becoming a collegiate coach, Smith Gilbert was the head coach for four seasons (1994-97) at her prep alma mater, George Washington High in Denver. Her program produced two state titles, three All-America selections and five athletes who accepted full scholarships to NCAA Division I schools.

In addition to her experience at the high school and collegiate levels, Smith Gilbert was an assistant with Team USA during the NACAC Championships and was invited to coach the sprints at the 2005 Pan Am Junior Championships. She also was selected as an assistant coach for the 2007 World Championships in Osaka, Japan.

A former indoor national record holder in the 55- and 60-meter dashes, Smith Gilbert was a two-time Colorado state champion in the 200-meter dash and long jump and a three-time state champion in the 100-meter dash as a prep standout. She set state records in each of those three events. She went on to become a three-time All-American at UCLA, where she was a Pac-10 champion in the 100-meter dash, 4x100-meter relay and 4x400-meter relay. She was part of an NCAA Championship runner-up 4x400-meter squad and was an All-American in the 4x100-meter relay in 1988 and 1989.

A 1991 graduate of UCLA, Smith Gilbert holds a bachelor's degree in film and television production. She also holds master's degrees in sport management and sport psychology from Tennessee. She is a 2006 USATF Level III Coaches Education Clinician.

Born on April 19, 1969, she is married to former NFL linebacker Greg Gilbert. They have three sons: Alex, Spencer and Osiris.

Caryl Smith Gilbert gets interviewed by the Pac-12 Network's Jill Savage.

SHELDON BLOCKBURGER

Assistant Coach, Jumps & Multi-Events | Third Season

Sheldon Blockburger is in his third season with the Trojans as the assistant coach for jumps and multi-events. In his first two seasons as USC's jumps coach his athletes have earned a total of seven All-America honors (4 indoor and 3 outdoor), three individual Pac-12 titles and seven MPSF indoor titles. In his first two seasons as a USC assistant coach his athletes have posted seven school all-time top 10 marks. Blockburger was named the 2017

Men's Assistant Coach of the Year for the West Region during the indoor season as he guided Randall Cunningham to the high jump title and Dominic Smallwood to the long jump title at the MPSF Championships.

"This is a huge coup for USC Track & Field. Sheldon is, arguably, one of the few premier jumps and multi-events coaches in America and we are very pleased to be able to add such a great coach and mentor to our staff," said Director of USC T&F Caryl Smith Gilbert at the time of his hire on July 14, 2015.

It didn't take long for Blockburger to prove her correct. He coached Randall Cunningham to the 2016 NCAA outdoor high jump title and to indoor and outdoor PRs. He guided Amalie Iuel to the Pac-12 heptathlon title and the second-most points in school history of 6,011. He also led freshman Lyndsey Lopes to a fifth-place finish in the heptathlon at the conference championship and to the 10th most points ever by a Trojan woman. She improved those marks with a third-place finish and 5,371 points at the 2017 Pac-12 Meet to move to eighth on USC's all-time list.

Blockburger came to USC after 10 seasons as the combined events/jumps coach at Arizona where he guided athletes to 11 NCAA titles and 16 Pac-12 conference titles. He had 39 athletes garner All-America honors during his coaching stay in Arizona. In 2015, Blockburger guided Pau Tonnesen to the Pac-12 Decathlon title and to a second-place finish at the NCAA Championships with a school-record 8,247 points.

Prior to coaching at Arizona, Blockburger coached nine seasons at Cal Poly where he led athletes to 14 Big West outdoor titles and two NCAA titles. He coached 15 All-Americans while at Cal Poly.

Many of the athletes Blockburger has coached have gone on to achieve international success, including 2012 Olympic Silver medalist Brigetta Barrett in the high jump.

Blockburger was an outstanding decathlete himself, placing second in 1989 and third in 1990 at the USA Track & Field Championships. He also placed third in the decathlon at the 1991 Pan American games in Cuba. He posted a personal best in the decathlon on 8,301 points at the USA Championships on June 13, 1990.

Blockburger attended Orange Coast College and won the 1985 California Junior College decathlon title. He then transferred to LSU and placed fifth in the decathlon at the 1987 NCAA Championships. He graduated from Newport Harbor High in 1983 and won CIF division titles in both the long jump and triple jump during his senior season, one year after joining the track and field team.

Blockburger and his wife, Cindy, are the parents of twins, Johnny and Alyssa.

JOANNA HAYES

Assistant Coach, Sprints & Hurdles | Second Season

2004 Olympic 100m hurdles gold medalist Joanna Hayes is in her second season as an assistant track and field coach for sprints and hurdles. She was hired to the position on July 14, 2016.

"We are excited to add such a great teacher and accomplished athlete in Olympic champion Joanna Hayes to our staff," said Smith Gilbert at the time of announcement. "She is an excellent recruiter, brings a spirit of competitiveness and I think she will be a great addition to what I believe is the best track and field staff in the country."

In her first season at USC, Hayes helped guide Trojan athletes to five All-America honors during the outdoor season and one during the indoor season. Her work with Anna Cockrell helped lead her to indoor 60m hurdles and outdoor 100m hurdles and 400m hurdles All-America status. Cockrell also set the USC freshman records in the 60m hurdles and 400m hurdles. Cockrell and Amalie Luel took second and third at the 2017 NCAA Championships in the 400m hurdles. At the 2017 Pac-12 Championships, USC had four women in the 100m hurdles final and three in the 400m hurdles final. USC athletes also posted four school top 10 marks during her first season of working with the hurdlers.

She also works closely with the sprinters and relay teams which posted 10 USC all-time top 10 marks during the 2017 season.

Hayes served as an assistant coach in the sprints and hurdles at UCLA from 2014-16, helping the Bruins earn several All-America honors in the hurdles and 4x100m relays.

Hayes won a gold medal in the 100m hurdles at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, setting an Olympic record with a time of 12.37. She finished the 2004 season ranked No. 1 in the world and earned USA Track & Field's Jesse Owens Award that year. She was also a gold medalist in the 400m hurdles at the 2003 Pan American Games.

While a collegian at UCLA, Hayes captured the NCAA 400m Hurdles title as a senior in 1999 and won a total of seven Pac-10 titles in the hurdles and relays. She was a six-time All-American and helped lead UCLA to three consecutive Pac-10 team titles from 1997-99 and two consecutive runner-up finishes at the NCAA Outdoor Championships from 1998-99.

Hayes, who graduated from UCLA in 2001 with a degree in Sociology, previously had been a track and field coach at Harvard-Westlake School in Los Angeles for six seasons and was a coach at the Brentwood Middle School in 2003.

She is active in the community and started the Joanna Hayes Foundation, which provides support for programs and services that work to develop the whole child with healthy minds, bodies and spirits.

Hayes and her husband Eric Thomas, have two daughters, Zoe and Aly.

PATRICK HENNER

Assistant Coach/Cross Country & Distances | First Season

Patrick Henner begins his first season as the cross country coach and as an assistant coach in charge of the distances for the USC track and field team.

Henner was the Georgetown director of track and field and cross country from 2007-15 and prior to that, spent eight seasons as the Hoyas' head men's cross country coach and assistant coach for men's and women's track and field team. During his time at Georgetown, he built the program into one of the top-tier programs in the country. Georgetown's women's cross country team won the 2011 NCAA title and five times finished inside the top 10 in the country, including fourth in 2010 and 2015 and fifth in 2013. His men's program finished in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships three times with seventh-place finishes in 2000 and 2006 and an eight-place finish in 2008.

While at Georgetown, he coached 24 individual cross country All-Americans, including Emily Infeld who was the 2010 cross country runner-up at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. He guided Georgetown to four Big East cross country titles (2 women and 2 men) and three of his athletes won the individual title. His teams won nine NCAA Mid-Atlantic Region cross country team championships and he earned eight NCAA Mid-Atlantic Region Coach of the Year honors.

In track and field, Henner coached 108 All-Americans with 12 athletes garnering a top 5 finish at the NCAA Championships. Georgetown won the 2012 Big East Women's Indoor Track & Field team championship and he coached 61 conference individual and relay champions.

Prior to Georgetown, Henner was a coach at James Madison where he served as head men's and women's cross country coach, as well as assistant track and field coach for the Dukes from 1990-99. His coaching achievements as head coach at JMU include being named the 1998 NCAA Southeast Region and Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Cross Country Coach of the Year. He guided JMU to its first NCAA cross country team championship berth in school history and the 1998 men's team placed ninth at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. He guided JMU's men's team to two and the women's team to win CAA cross country team title, both the first in program history.

In track and field at JMU, he coached 28 All-American and guided Dukes to 14 school records. He was named CAA Coach of the Year two times.

He began his coaching career as the head coach of the men's and women's track and field and cross country teams at Blacksburg High in Blacksburg, Va. from 1983-1987. Both the men's and women's teams won state championships in 1984, 1985 and 1986.

Henner earned an undergraduate degree in Secondary Education from Virginia Tech in 1983 and a masters in Kinesiology from James Madison in 1989.

DAN LANGE

Assistant Coach, Throws | 29th Season

Dan Lange has coached the USC throwers for 28 seasons and is one of the nation's most respected teachers, having guided his athletes to All-American honors 66 times. He also has coached Trojan throwers to 11 school records and 27 individual Pac-12 titles.

If you want to measure his impact on the Trojan throws program, you have to go no farther than the USC top 10 lists as all but one of the top 10 male and female hammer throwers in school history have been coached by Lange and all but one of the USC record-holders in the men's and women's hammer, discus, javelin and shot put have been coached by Lange. For 21 consecutive seasons (1993-2013) he guided at least one Trojan hammer thrower to All-America honors.

Last season, he guided Nick Ponzio and Brittany Mann to All-America honors in the shot put, and Mann and Matthew Katnik posted Trojan all-time top 10 marks in the shot put. During the indoor season, Mann broke the USC women's weight throw and shot put records and became an indoor shot put All-American, while Katnik had the second-farthest shot put mark in school history and the men's team posted four Trojan top 10 marks.

In 2016, he coached Tera Novy to All-America honors in the discus throw and she set the school discus throw record with a mark of 200-5. The season before, he coached Conor McCullough to the 2015 NCAA men's hammer throw title and Alexandra Collatz, Novy and Nick Ponzio to All-American honors. McCullough represented the USA in the hammer throw at the 2016 Olympics.

In 2014, Collatz was an All-American and Collatz and Remington Conatser won Pac-12 titles, while his athletes scored seven times at the conference meet. In 2013, Conatser (2nd, hammer), Jenny Ozorai (4th, hammer) and Collatz (5th, discus) all earned All-America honors. In addition, Conatser won a Pac-12 title and Ozorai placed second and Collatz fourth in their events at the Pac-12 Championships.

In 2012, Lange coached Ozorai and Marissa Minderler in the hammer and Kristine Busa in the javelin to first team All-America honors. Minderler won her second-straight Pac-12 hammer title, but more impressive is that USC had 4 of the top 8 finishers, with Orozai second, Jade Niemeyer fifth and Lauren Chambers eighth to earn USC 23 points in the conference meet.

In 2011, he coached Trey Henderson and Ozorai in the hammer to All-America honors, with Henderson, Minderler (hammer) and Cooper Thompson (javelin) winning Pac-10 titles.

In 2010, Henderson in the hammer and Aaron Dan in the discus earned All-American honors with fifth-place finishes at the NCAAs. In 2008, Lange helped guide Eva Orban to the NCAA title in the women's hammer, while Corey White took second in the men's javelin. In 2009, they both were NCAA runners up and Kristine Busa placed 8th in the women's javelin.

In 2008, Corey White came up just short of an NCAA title in the javelin, but during the course of the season set a new school standard in the event with a throw of 267-10, more than 23 feet farther than the previous school record. In 2009, he again finished second at the NCAAs and pushed his school record in the javelin to 272-2. On the women's side, Lange helped Eva Orban reach new heights as she became the first Trojan female to win an NCAA title in the hammer and broke her own school record with a throw of 230-3.

The 2007 season could have been Lange's finest work with the men's throwers as Noah Bryant set the school record in the shot, a record that had stood for 35 years, and won the NCAA indoor and outdoor shot titles. In addition, Adam Midles was an All-American and had the then fourth-best hammer throw in school history, Bryant had the eighth best hammer mark, William Denbo the sixth best shot put and Stenn Parton the ninth farthest javelin throw by a Trojan. Lange was honored after the season by being named the West Region top assistant coach in men's throws for the second consecutive season. He also guided Orban to All-American honors in the hammer again (3rd place), a NCAA West hammer title and a second-place finish at the Pac-10 Championships. In addition to Orban, Julia Rozenfeld placed sixth at the Pac-10 and seventh at the NCAA West Regional in the hammer.

Lange coached three USC record-setters in 2006 as Eva Orban set the school record in the hammer with a Pac-10 and West Regional record-throw of 226-8, Kate Hutchinson set the then-USC record in the discus with a toss of 189-5 and Karen Freberg set the shot put standard with a mark of 57-7.50. Orban won the hammer at the Pac-10s and the NCAA West Regional and place second in the event at the NCAAs. Hutchinson placed second at the Pac-10 Championships and won the discus competition at the NCAA West Regional which gave Troy a share of the women's title. He also guided two male Trojans to All-American honors as Bryant placed seventh in the shot and Midles seventh in the men's hammer.

In 2005 Midles placed sixth in the hammer throw at the NCAA Championships and in 2004 Michael Murray earned All-America honors in the hammer throw, L'Orangerie Crawford was an All-American in the women's shot put and Inga Stasiulionyte took second at the NCAAs in the women's javelin throw. Stasiulionyte also threw 204-3 (62.27m) to win the Lithuanian Championship and qualify for the Olympics. In 2003, Stasiulionyte placed second in the javelin throw and Julianna Tudja was second in the hammer throw at the NCAA Championships. In 2002 Stasiulionyte again was second in the javelin and Crawford was sixth in the hammer throw at the NCAAs.

His throwers helped the USC women's team earn its first NCAA women's team title as Stasiulionyte won the javelin throw as a freshman, Tudja was third in the hammer throw and Cynthia Ademiluyi was third in the shot put. Norbert Horvath placed fifth in the men's hammer throw to make it a nine-year run by the USC men with a hammer throw All-American. It was Horvath's third-straight time scoring in the event at NCAAs and he also won the Pac-12 title for the third straight season.

At the 2000 Pac-10 Championships, USC's men continued its men's hammer domination, sweeping the top four spots to key the Trojans' title run. Horvath went on to place fifth at the NCAA Championships and Jennifer Vail placed sixth in the women's hammer throw.

From 1993-1999, Lange men's throwers were especially domineering in the hammer throw as they captured five NCAA titles and finished second three times. First he guided former Trojan and 1996 Olympic gold medalist Balazs Kiss to four consecutive NCAA hammer throw championships from 1993-96 (and a collegiate record) and aided USC throwers across the board with his vast knowledge in the sport. In 1997, despite the departure of Kiss, Lange made it five in a row, coaching Bengt Johansson to the 1997 NCAA hammer title. Johansson was runner up in the hammer in 1998, as was Horvath in 1999.

From 1992-99 at the NCAA Championships, he guided Allison Franke to a seventh-place finish in the discus throw in 1992, Leslie Coons to a third-place finish in the hammer throw in 1996, Ashley Selman to a second-place finish in the javelin throw and Vail to a sixth-place finish in the hammer throw in 1999.

He also was instrumental in guiding Nia Ali to a fourth-place finish in the heptathlon at the 2009 NCAA Championships.

Outside of USC, Lange coached hammer thrower Lisa Misipeka to the American Samoa record in that event and to the Olympics. He also worked with Tudja after she left USC and guided her to the Olympics. He was the coach for No. 1-ranked discus thrower Adam Setliff, three-time U.S. discus champion and two-time U.S. Olympian.

A four-year letterman at Cal State Northridge and three-time NCAA Division II championship meet qualifier, Lange also earned All-American honors in the hammer. Lange studied exercise physiology at Cal State Northridge and also works as a sports fitness consultant and as a human performance consultant for business professionals.

Lange resides in Valencia, Calif. and has two sons, Dylan and Dalton.

QUINCY WATTS

Assistant Coach, Sprints & Long Hurdles | Fifth Season

Former Trojan Olympic great Quincy Watts is in his fifth season at USC as an assistant coach for the sprints. In his first four seasons, he has helped guide Trojans to 43 indoor and outdoor All-America honors in the 400m, 400m hurdles and 4x400m relays. His Trojan athletes have also claimed 11 Pac-12 titles, set 17 school records, all four USC freshman 400m records and the women's 400m hurdles freshman record.

Last season, Watts guided Kendall Ellis to USC records in the women's indoor (51.52) and outdoor (50.00) 400m race, a second-place finish at the NCAA Indoor Championships and a third-place finish at the Outdoor Championships. Cameron Pettigrew also reached the women's final and Michael Norman also became a 400m All-American on the men's side. Norman also set the USC freshman record with a time of 44.60. Both Norman and Ellis also won Pac-12 400m titles. Watts again had great success with the relays with the women's 4x400m relay winning the indoor title and placing second outdoors, while setting the indoor collegiate record (3:27.03) and running the second-fastest time ever outdoors (3:23.35). The men's team set the school indoor record and ran its fastest outdoor time since 2012. Ellis also qualified during the summer to represent the USA in the 400m at the World Championships. Watts also worked with the 400m hurdlers and Anna Cockrell and Amalie Iuel, who placed second and third respectively at the NCAA Championships and Cockrell setting the Trojan freshman record with a time of 55.14 at the USA T&F Championships.

In 2016, Ricky Morgan garnered 400m All-America honors and Jaide Stepter set the then school indoor and outdoor 400m records. The USC women's relays both set school records. Stepter also was a 400m hurdles All-American, won her third consecutive conference hurdles record and tied the school record with a time of 54.95 at the USA T&F Championships.

In 2015 he coached Vanessa Jones to the Pac-12 women's 400m title and Ellis to the USC women's freshman outdoor 400m record and Morgan to the men's freshman indoor record. All three runners advanced to the NCAA semifinals in the event. At the time, Jones ran the second-fastest 400m time ever by a USC woman of 51.50 to win the conference title. Ellis' freshman record of 52.32 was set in winning the 400m at the USATF Juniors. He also guided the talented quartet of Stepter, Amalie Iuel, Ellis and Jones which won the Pac-12 title, earned a second-place finish at the NCAA Championships and set both the USC indoor and outdoor 4x400m records. Iuel and Stepter were All-Americans in the 400m hurdles and Stepter won the Pac-12 title in the event.

In his first season back home at USC, Watts helped guide the men's and women's sprinters post some impressive marks. His work with the 400m runners was especially impressive as Akawkaw Ndirpagbor won the MPSF indoor 400m title and then earned indoor All-America honors and set the school indoor record. Three USC women and one male scored at the Pac-12 Championships in the 400m dash. Stepter won her first Pac-12 400m hurdles title.

Watts spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as an assistant coach at CS Northridge, primarily working with the distance runners. Prior to that, Watts was an assistant coach at Harvard-Westlake High School which he helped develop into one of the strongest distances programs in the country. Watts began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Taft High, where he went to high school.

Watts, who came to USC specializing in the 100- and 200-meter dashes, turned into the best 400-meter runner in USC history. The four-year (1989-92) letterman won the 1992 NCAA 400-meter race in a meet record time of 44.00 which stood for 25 years. Watts also ran the anchor leg on the 4x400m relay team which set the school record of 3:00.58 and placed second. The year before he finished second in the 400m at the 1991 NCAA Championships. Watts also was a wide receiver on USC football team in 1990. Watts was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

Watts was a two-time gold medalist at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. He twice broke Lee Evans' Olympic record in winning the 400 meters. Watts ran 43.71 in the semifinal before clocking a time of 43.50 in the final (which still stands as the USC record). He then teamed with Andrew Valmon, Michael Johnson and Steve Lewis to win the gold in the 4x400 meter relay in a then-world record time of 2:55.74. Watts ran the second leg in a blistering 43.10 which is among the fastest in the world. He also earned a gold medal in the 4x400 relay at the 1993 World Championships in Stuttgart, Germany which still is the world record and a silver medal at the 1991 World Championships in Tokyo, Japan.

He was ranked in the world Top 10 in the 400m for four consecutive years (1991-94), including No. 1 in 1992. In the 1600m relay at the World Championships, he won a silver medal in 1991 and a gold medal in 1993 (in world record time).

A native of Detroit, Mich., Watts prepped at Taft High School in Woodland Hills, Calif. before attending USC.

KYRAH McCOWAN

Director of External Operations

McCowan begins her fourth season with the USC Track & Field program as the external director of operations. McCowan works primarily with official visits, special events and community outreach.

She came to USC as executive assistant to the head football coach and served in that capacity from 2010-14. Prior to coming to USC, she served as a student assistant in football recruiting at Tennessee from 2000-04, assistant director of football community relations from 2005-08 and football offensive staff assistant and community outreach in 2009.

McCowan first met USC Director of Track & Field Caryl Smith Gilbert in 2001 when she was an assistant track and field coach at the University

AMANDA DECKER

Director of Internal Operations

Amanda Decker is in her second season as the Director of Internal Operations. She oversees the day-to-day activities of the team, including team travel, equipment, communications, social media, and home meet management.

She came to USC after two seasons as the director of operations for the Michigan men's and women's track and field/XC programs. She oversaw the daily operations of the program, including team travel, recruiting, equipment, and home meet management.

Decker has been a certified official at the national and high school level. She has worked dozens of high school meets and served as an official at the 2015 and 2016 USATF Junior Olympics and the 2015 USATF Cross Country Junior Olympics.

Prior to her work at Michigan, she spent four years working for the Eastern Michigan University Foundation in several roles. In her last role, she served as the communications and graphic design manager and was responsible for driving the Foundation's brand to ensure consistent visual representation and oversaw all creative materials for the organization. She also managed the Foundation's first single-day fundraiser, raising more than $133,000 on Giving Tuesday in 2013.

Decker got her start at Eastern Michigan as a graduate student from 2007-09, where she earned her master's degree in sport management. She was a graduate assistant sports information director, where she was the primary media contact for eight of the Eagles' 21 sports, including track and field.

Decker graduated with a bachelor's degree in sport management with an emphasis in sport communication from Bowling Green State University in 2007. She served as a team manager for the men's and women's cross country and women's track and field teams, assisting with the day-to-day activities of the programs.

Decker lives in Los Angeles.

USC was just five points outside of a top 10 finish.

Junior Eric Sloan holds his NCAA long jump award which earned him All-America honors. He finished sixth in the long jump and 16th in the triple jump.

Holding NCAA Awards for a top 8 finish and earning All-America honors top to bottom are junior Marquis Morris, freshman Michael Norman and junior Nick Ponzio.

2017 POSTSEASON AND DUAL MEET REVIEW

Women 3rd, Men T-20th At 2017 NAAs

- Women Have Highest Finish Since 2006 -

USC's women's team placed third and the men's team tied for 20th at the 2017 NCAA T&F Championships in Eugene, Ore. from June 7-10. The women scored 43 points, its most since scoring 57 in 2002 and it was the team's highest finish since placing second in 2006. The men's team scored 14 points, just five points out of a top 10 finish.

The women earned 13 first-team All-Americans and the men's team four. In the first four seasons with Caryl Smith Gilbert as the USC Director of T&F, the women's team has scored 120 points at the NAAs, its most in a four-season stretch since scoring 158 from 2001-04.

On the final day of the women's championships, Anna Cockrell and Amalie Luel took second and third respectively in the 400m hurdles, Kendall Ellis placed third in the 400m dash and the 4x400m relay team took second with a school record while breaking the previous collegiate record with a time of 3:23.35.

The members of the women's team scoring at the Championships were: Cockrell (100m HH, 400m IH), Ellis (400m, 4x400m), Hall (100m HH), Deanna Hill (200m, 4x400m), Luel (400m IH, 4x400m), Brittany Mann (SP), Cameron Pettigrew (400m, 4x400m) and Ky Westbrook (100m).

Members of the men's team scoring and earning first-team All-America status were: Marquis Morris (110m HH), Michael Norman (400m), Nick Ponzio (SP) and Eric Sloan (LJ).

Final team scores:

Men: 1.) Florida - 61.5, 2.) Texas A&M - 59.5, 3.) Virginia - 36, 4. Arkansas - 33, 5.) Auburn - 24, 6.) Georgia - 22.5, 7.) Tennessee - 20 & LSU - 20, 9.) Oregon - 19.5, 10.) Alabama - 19, T-20.) USC - 14.

Women: 1.) Oregon - 64, 2.) Georgia - 62.2, 3.) USC - 43, 4.) Kentucky - 40, 5.) Florida - 39, 6.) Arkansas - 38.2, 7.) Texas and LSU - 32, 9.) Kansas State - 25, 10.) Arizona State - 21.

USC Grabs 19 Individual Spots At NAAs

- Women's 4x400m Sets School Record At Regional Again -

USC's women's 4x400m relay team set a school record, Eric Sloan won the triple jump with a West Preliminary Rounds record and Kendall Ellis broke her school 400m record at the 2017 NCAA West Preliminary Rounds held at Mike A. Myers Stadium in Austin, Texas from May 25-27. During the three-day competition USC qualified 20 athletes in 19 individual events and three relays for the National Championships.

The final events on the track to conclude the West Preliminary Rounds were the women's and men's 4x400m relays. USC's women ran a team of Cameron Pettigrew, Amalie Luel, Anna Cockrell and Kendall Ellis and it set a school record by winning its quarterfinal heat with a time of 3:26.09 to automatically advance to the NCAA Championships. USC had the top qualifying time by more than two seconds. The men's team of Ricky Morgan Jr., Alex Rohani, Marquis Morris and Michael Norman took second with a season-best time of 3:04.65 to automatically advance to the NCAA Championships in the event. The 4x400m relay time was USC's best since running 3:00.64 in taking second at the 2012 NCAA Championships.

The men's 4x100m relay also qualified for nationals, but USC's highly-ranked women's 4x100m relay team was disqualified after a protest for a pass outside of the zone, after it looked like they had advanced.

Trojans that qualified for the NCAA Championships in Eugene, Ore. (June 7-10) during the three days of the West Preliminary Rounds were: Alexander Barnum (M-4x100m), T.J. Brock (M-4x100m), Anna Cockrell (W-100m HH, W-400m IH), Kendall Ellis (W-400m), Robert Ford (M-800m), Dior Hall (W-100m HH), Deanna Hill (W-100m, W-200m), Amalie Luel (W-400m IH), Matthew Katnik (M-SP), Brittany Mann (W-SP), Ricky Morgan Jr. (M-400m), Marquis Morris (M-110m HH), Michael Norman (M-400m), Cameron Pettigrew (W-400m), Nick Ponzio (M-SP), Alex Rohani (M-4x400m), Tanya Sapa (W-SP), Eric Sloan (M-LJ, M-TJ), Christian Sourapas (M-4x100m), Ky Westbrook (W-100m) and the men's 4x100m relay and both the men's and women's 4x400m relays.

Women & Men Take 2nd At Pac-12 Meet

- Ellis Part Of Two Pac-12 Championships Records -

Kendall Ellis won the women's 400m race with a school and meet-record time, Michael Norman won the men's 400m race with a personal best time, Eric Sloan won the men's triple jump with the final leap of the competition and both the men's and women's 4x400m relays won titles, the women with a meet record, at the 2017 Pac-12 Track & Field Championships at Hayward Field in Eugene, Ore. from May 13-14. Both the USC men's and women's team took second place, with the men scoring 115.50 points and the women 135 points.

The women's team had four athletes score in the 100m and 100m hurdles and three score in the 200m, 400m and 400m hurdles. Ellis won the 400m race with a PR, school-record and meet-record time of 50.66. Cameron Pettigrew took third with a PR of 51.61 which moved her from eighth to fifth on USC's all-time list and Kyra Constantine placed sixth with a season-best time of 52.92. The trio earned USC 19 points in the team competition. Ellis became the third Trojan woman to win the event, joining Gervaise McCraw in 1987 and Vanessa Jones in 2015.

The men's team had three score in the 100m dash and two in the 200m, 400m, shot put and triple jump. USC's Sloan and Dominic Smallwood went 1-2 in the triple jump and Nick Ponzio and Matt Katnik went 2-3 in the shot put final. Norman had a PR and 10th-fastest time in school history of 45.15 to win the Pac-12 men's 400m title as a freshman. He edged out Oregon's Marcus Chambers who was the two-time defending champion in the event. Ricky Morgan Jr. had a season-best time of 45.85 to take third and combine with Norman to score 16 points. Norman became USC's 16th champion in the event, more than any other school, and its first since Bryshon Nellum in 2013.

Final 2017 Pac-12 Championship Results:

Women's Scores: 1.) Oregon - 189, 2.) USC -- 135, 3.) Colorado -- 78, 4.) Washington -- 72, 5.) UCLA -- 63, 6.) Arizona State -- 58.50, 7.) Stanford -- 47, 8.) Arizona -- 46, 9.) California and Washington State 45, 11.) Oregon State -- 21.50, 12.) Utah -- 16.

Men's Scores: 1.) Oregon -- 175, 2.) USC -- 115.50, 3.) UCLA -- 101, 4.) Colorado -- 73, 5.) California -- 72, 6.) Washington State -- 68.50, 7.) Washington -- 61, 8.) Arizona State -- 51, 9.) Arizona -- 50, 10.) Stanford -- 49.

Trojans Split Dual Meet with Bruins

- Women's Team Wins For 9th Time In 10 Seasons -

Eric Sloan, Deanna Hill and Amalie Luel each won two events to lead the Trojans in the annual USC-UCLA Dual Meet held at Loker Stadium on the USC campus on April 30. USC's women won 86-77 for their fourth consecutive win in the series, while the men's team fell 88-75. USC's women won 11 of 19 events and the men won 10 of 19 events, while four Trojans posted school all-time top 10 marks or times.

The hammer throw was held the day before at Ell Camino College in Torrance, Calif. with Brittany Mann winning the women's event with a PR.

USC's women trailed early, but a sweep in the 400m by Kendall Ellis, Kyra Constantine and Kayla Richardson pulled the Trojans within a point. They then swept the 100m behind Deanna Hill, Zaria Francis and Ky Westbrook and were on their way to victory. USC also had sweeps in the 200m, 100m hurdles and 400m hurdles.

The men's team was going to need to hit perfectly to win and they almost did. Unfortunately the defending NCAA high jump champion Randall Cunningham no-heighted, so the Trojans were shutout of the high jump and Just'N Thymes was held out of the sprints to make sure he was fully healthy come Pac-12 Championships, so USC lost some valuable points there.

The men's team saw the outdoor debut of Michael Norman who won the 400m with a then-USC freshman record of 45.22.

2016 NCAAAs - 1st - HJ
2017 Pac-12s - 3rd - HJ
2017 NCAA Prelims - 14th - HJ

THIS YEAR: Senior All-American high jumper Randall Cunningham is in his final season on the track team. He won the 2016 NCAA high jump title and ranks tied for fourth on USC's all-time high jump list.

2017: He had a season-best clearance of 7-3.00 (2.21m) in the high jump to place second at the Texas Relays on April 1. He cleared 6-11.50 (2.12m) to take third at the Pac-12 Championships and went on to tie for 14th at the NCAA West Prelims with a best clearance of 6-10.75 (2.10m). He won the MPSF indoor high jump title with an indoor PR of 7-5.25 (2.27m) on Feb. 25...that jump moved him into second place on USC's all-time indoor high jump list.

2016: Cunningham won the NCAA high jump title by going perfect through his first five jump and clearing the winning height of 7-4.50 (2.25m). That is an outdoor PR for Cunningham and moved him from fifth to tied for fourth on USC's all-time list. He became the 11th Trojan to win the NCAA HJ title. He was second in the HJ at the Pac-12 Championships with a clearance of 7-1.75 and at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet by going over 7-0.50. Helped USC's 4x100m relay reach the Pac-12 finals, by running anchor in the prelims as the Trojans were running out of bodies. He qualified in the high jump for the Olympic Trials but no heighted.

2015: He enjoyed an outstanding first season as a high jumper at USC, culminating with him becoming the only freshman All-American in the event in the country and the first Trojan freshman ever to earn that status. He opened up his outdoor career at USC with a jump of 6-9.50 to take fifth at the CSULA Invitational on March 7, but won at the Trojan Invitational with a jump of 7-1 (2.16m) on March 21 and would clear at least 7-1 in every other meet. He also won the USC-UCLA Dual Meet high jump title with a clearance of 7-2.50 (2.20m) on May 3. He set a then-PR with a jump of 7-4.25 (2.24m) to place second at the Florida Relays on April 4...that jump moved him into fifth on USC's all-time list and was a half-inch short of the USC freshman record. He took second at the Pac-12 Championships with a jump of 7-1 on May 17 and tied for eighth at the the same height at the NCAA Championships on June 12. Went on to win the high jump title at the USATF Junior Championships with a clearance of 7-2.50 (2.20m) and also won at the Pan Am Junior Championships with a jump of 7-1 on Aug. 2.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cunningham is a 2014 graduate of Bishop Gorman High in Las Vegas, Nev. He was named the 2013 Gatorade Nevada Boys Track & Field Athlete of the Year. He is a two-time Nevada Division I high jump champion and a two-time AAU Junior Olympics high jump champion. In his 2014 wins, he cleared 6-11 at the Nevada state meet and 7-0 at the Junior Olympics. In 2013, he broke the Sunset Region high jump record which had stood for 36 years with a clearance of 7-0. As a senior his best clearance was 7-2.00 in winning at the Mt. SAC Relays...he won every meet he entered in which he cleared a height. In 2013 he cleared a personal best of 7-3.25 which led all high school high jumpers. Cunningham also played quarterback and led Gorman to its fifth consecutive state championship in 2014. In the title game, he rushed for 213 yards and four touchdowns, while completing 9 of 11 passes for 111 yards and a touchdown.

PERSONAL: Randall was born on January 4, 1996 in Las Vegas, Nev...His parents are Randall and Felicity...He has four siblings Vashti, Grace, Sophia and Christian...His father played quarterback in the NFL for 16 seasons and his uncle, Sam Cunningham, also attended USC and played football before an NFL career...Says his sports hero is his father...Lists his favorite food as pasta...Is majoring in Business Administration at USC.

2017: Norman was slowed by a hamstring issue and didn't open up his outdoor campaign until the USC-UCLA Dual Meet on April 30. He made his outdoor collegiate debut special by winning the 400m race with a then USC freshman record time of 45.22, but he was just getting started and would break that record four more times. He won the Pac-12 400m title with a then-PR of 45.15, edging out Marcus Chambers of Oregon, the two-time defending champion in the event. He also anchored USC's title-winning 4x400m relay which posted a time of 3:07.67. He cruised out of the NCAA West Prelims with the fifth-fastest qualifying time of 45.38. He also anchored USC's 4x400m relay which ran 3:04.65, USC's fastest time since 2012, to advance to the NCAA Championships. He had a then-personal best in the 400m of 44.97 in the NCAA semifinals and finished fourth in the final with a new best of 44.88 to earn All-America honors. He anchored USC's 4x400m relay which finished 13th with a time of 3:05.80. Norman reached the USA T&F Championship finals by taking third in the semifinals on June 23 with a USC freshman record of 44.60, which ranks third on USC's all-time list. He finished seventh in the finals with a time of 44.80 on June 24. He also ran in two indoor 200m races, winning his collegiate indoor debut with a time of 20.76 at the New Mexico Classic on Feb. 3 and taking fourth with a USC freshman record and fourth-fastest time ever by a Trojan of 20.75 at the Tyson Invitational on Feb. 11.

ALL-TIME NCAA POINT SCORERS

The following athletes scored points for USC at the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor championships. The year, order of finish, class and time/mark is noted.

Scoring in the NCAA meet scored the first 5 places the first two years, then the first 6 places through 1981, then from 1982-84 the top 12 scored. Since then, the top 8 spots have been counted. The NCAA conducted its meets in yardage through 1975, except for the Olympic years 1936, 1948, 1952, 1956, 1960, 1964, 1968 and 1972. Those Olympic years that are recorded in meters are denoted with (m) after the year.

USC REMEMBERS KATHERINE B. LOKER

Katherine Bogdanovich Loker who passed away on June 26, 2008 at the age of 92 was associated with USC for more than 60 years. A member of the Class of 1940, she was an English major and a star runner on the track team. She married stage and screen actor Donald P. Loker, whose professional name was Don Terry and who later served as an executive in the StarKist Foods Company, the firm founded by Katherine's father in 1917.

Katherine and her husband gave more than $30 million to the university, placing them among the top individual benefactors in USC history. Together they were the principal benefactors of what is now the USC Loker Hydrocarbon Research Institute, where their support was instrumental in enabling Distinguished Professor George A. Olah to complete the research that led to his winning the 1994 Nobel Prize in Chemistry. Katherine was also a strong supporter of USC athletics, particularly track and field, which named its new stadium in her honor, and of the USC School of Theatre, where she established the Donald P. Loker Action Fellowship in memory of her beloved husband.

Katherine was elected an honorary trustee of USC in 2000. She received an honorary degree from USC in 1998 and USC's highest honor, the Presidential Medallion, in 2006. She was also the recipient of the Alumni Association's highest honor, and the Dean's Medallion for the USC College of Letters, Arts and Sciences.

She was a Presidential Associate, a member of the Board of Councilors of the USC College of Letters, Arts and Sciences, a life member of Town and Gown, and a member of the San Diego Trojan League. In 2005 she was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame and received its Spirit Award. In 2006 she received the USC Track and Field Heritage Award.

Katherine Loker's steadfast support of higher education extended beyond the University of Southern California. She served on the Committee of University Resources at Harvard and received the Harvard Medal in 1995 and an honorary degree in 2000. She also served as a life member of the Advisory Board of California State University, Dominguez Hills, where she received an honorary degree in 1999; a trustee and foundation member of the California Science Center of Los Angeles; a foundation executive board member of the Nixon Presidential Library in Yorba Linda; and a founding member of the Los Angeles Music Center. She was an active supporter of the Donald P. Loker Cancer Treatment Center at the California Hospital Medical Center, Los Angeles.

Loker Award Established

For years the Trojans have honored the top male track and field athlete with the Cromwell Award and in 2012 the Loker Award has been established to honor USC's most outstanding female athlete. The award is being created to pay tribute to Katherine B. Loker, longtime USC track and field supporter who passed away in 2008.

Newly refurbished Cromwell Field and Loker Stadium was the site of the 2013 Pac-12 Track & Field Championships.

The USC track shown here just after the new surface was laid down. USC's Cromwell Field and Loker Stadium both underwent significant renovations over the winter break in preparation for the 2013 track and field season. Both the track and the infield were replaced and the exterior of Loker Stadium received a facelift.

USC installed a brand new Bynon BSS 2000 track, the same kind used at Hayward Field in Oregon, the site of the 2012 Olympic Trials and home to the 2014 NCAA Championships. In addition, a new all-weather Field Turf Revolution was installed in the infield of the track.

Also, the exterior of Loker Stadium, the fences and signs were repainted and the water fountains replaced. The landscaping was upgraded and new jumping pits and runways were added. In addition, new fiber was brought into the venue to provide an upgraded sight for broadcasts with the conference championships being televised by the Pac-12 Network.

The last time USC hosted the conference meet before 2013 was in 2003.

USC MEN'S TOP 10 PERFORMERS

Listed below are the Top 10 USC track and field performers in each outdoor event during seasons in which they represented USC through Sept. 1 of their senior year. It does not include marks made before or after attending USC, or during seasons in which they did not compete for USC. Current Trojans are listed in bold. (Note: Rankings are based on the conversion of plus .24 seconds from hand timing to electronic timing in the 100 and 200 meters, plus .14 in the 400 meters, as established by the NCAA, and are marked with a "+". For races above 400 meters, the electronic time is rounded off to the nearest tenth and marked with an "e". An "n" means non-winning.)

FELIX LEADS USC's WORLD ATTACK ON TRACK & FIELD

-Trojans Earn Seven Medals At The 2017 London World Championships -

Ten current and past USC athletes teamed up to earn three gold, three silver and one bronze medal at the 2017 IAAF World Championships in London, England from Aug. 4-13.

Allyson Felix (USC, 2008) earned her record-16th World Championships medal as part of USA's gold-medal winning 4x400m relay team. She ran the second leg for USA's 4x400m relay which won the gold medal by nearly six seconds with a world-leading time of 3:19.02. Felix took the baton with the slightest of leads, but immediately stormed away from the pack, cut in at the break with a big lead and built an insurmountable margin for the USA team. That gold medal was her 16th career World Championships medal, the most by any athlete. Felix also earned gold in the women's 4x100m and a bronze in the open 400m.

Trojan medalists at the 2017 IAAF World Championships were: Kendall Ellis (Gold – 4x400m Semis), Allyson Felix (Gold – 4x100m & 4x400m, Bronze – 400m), BeeJay Lee (Silver – 4x100m Semis), Dalilah Muhammad (Silver – 400m IH), Bryshon Nellum (Silver – 4x400m Semis).

Other Trojans competing at the 2017 IAAF World Championships were: Nia Ali (100m hurdles finalist), Aaron Brown (200m), Tynia Gaither (200m finalist), Aleec Harris (110m hurdles) and Amalie Iuel (400m & 400m hurdles).

Allyson Felix earns two golds and a bronze

Dalilah Muhammad earns a silver

BeeJay Lee earns silver

Bryshon Nellum earns silver

Paths of Glory

The Story of USC's Unmatched Track & Field History

USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 122 men's and women's national championships. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (2 indoor), including nine straight from 1935-43.

Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s and World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez in the 2000s, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

THE CROMWELL YEARS: 1909-1948

The roots of Troy's preeminence date back to 1926, when coach Dean Cromwell brought the first NCAA track and field championship to USC. Cromwell, who led the Trojans from 1909-48, also served as head coach of the football team for five seasons.

Dean Cromwell

However, the foundation he laid was not on the gridiron but the cinderpaths. Cromwell's track squads won 12 NCAA championships and featured 34 NCAA individual champions. In addition, Cromwell was unanimously selected as headcoach of the victorious 1948 U.S. Olympic team, a group which featured five Trojans (Mel Patton, Bob Chambers, Roland Sink, Wilbur Thopson and Cliff Bourland). In fact, Patton, Thomson and Bourland brought home gold medals in their respective events from London, the Olympic site.

From 1935-43, USC experienced a streak of unequalled track and field success. No other university has come close to matching Troy's string of nine consecutive NCAA championships, all under Cromwell's watchful eye. Nicknamed the "Maker of Champions," he fashioned Trojan athletes into a powerhouse. At the 1936 Olympics in Berlin, USC trackmen scored enough points (37 1/2) to have finished among the top five in the world. Cromwell's influence extended far beyond the USC campus to the corners of the world. He personally tutored champions in every Olympic Games from 1912 to 1948, and upon his retirement in 1949, "The Dean" remained involved as a regular figure in various Southland sporting events until his death in 1962.

TWO JESSES, NINE NATIONAL TITLES: 1949-1961

Jess Hill and Jess Mortensen, both integral parts of USC's proud athletic heritage, carried the track and field torch after Cromwell's retirement. Both men are still considered among the finest all-around athletes in USC history, and their accomplishments did not end after their playing days were over.

Hill, who lettered in three sports at USC (football, baseball and track), served as head coach of Troy's track and field program in 1949 and 1950, leading the Trojans to an undefeated season and national championship in both seasons. From 1951-56, Hill coached the football team, and in 1957, he began his tenure as USC athletic director, a position he held until 1972.

Mortensen's reign at USC also began as an undergraduate. The talented athlete lettered in track, basketball and football, winning the NCAA javelin title as a junior. After a 14-year coaching stint at Riverside Junior College, he returned to become coach of the Trojan track and field team in 1951, leading Troy to seven NCAA championships in his 11-year tenure. Mortensen's Trojan teams never lost a dual meet, going 79-0 between 1951 and 1961. He developed some of Troy's best-known trackmen, including Parry O'Brien and Max Truex. Sadly, "Mort" died suddenly at the age of 54 from complications caused by a blood clot. Hill, his longtime friend and teammate, stepped in as interim head coach for the 1962 season, and a new chapter in Trojan track and field history was about to begin.

THE WOLFE YEARS: 1963-1984

The prospect of succeeding three consecutive coaching legends would be a difficult task for anyone, but Vern Wolfe answered the challenge.

During his 22 years at the helm of the Trojan track and field program, USC captured five outdoor NCAA championships, including back-to-back titles in 1967 and 1968. A pole vaulter for Cromwell's Trojan teams, Wolfe also won indoor titles in 1967 and 1972. At the time of his retirement in 1984, he was the third-winningest coach in U.S. track history, all despite reductions in scholarships and the lack of a top-flight on-campus facility.

Wolfe, who competed in senior events as a pole vaulter, attacked all problems with a straight-ahead approach. He continued to win throughout his career and towards the end oversaw the modernization of Cromwell Field, USC's track facility which served as a training site for the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles. And so, after 21 years on the job, Wolfe retired and gave way to Ernie Bullard.

BULLARD AND BUSH: 1985-94

Another in the line of former Trojan athletes to become head coaches at USC, Ernie Bullard came to Troy from San Jose State, where he helped build the Spartans into a national contender. It didn't take long for Bullard to continue Troy's winning ways, recruiting athletes like sprinter Quincy Watts, a two-time gold medalist at the 1992 Olympic Games.

Jim Bush was the man picked to replace longtime friend Bullard in 1991. After all, who better to rebuild the USC program than the man who guided UCLA to five national championships?

Bush helped stabilize the program and recruited some of Troy's stars, like Balazs Kiss of Hungary, the 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 NCAA champion in the hammer throw. Consequently, he helped lay the foundation for the latest in the distinguished line of Trojan head track coaches: Ron Allice.

RON ALLICE: 1995-2013

Ron Allice, who prior to the 1995 season was named the Director of Track and Field for USC's combined men's and women's program, was no stranger to success. He distinguished himself at every level of competition, all in the Southland, and is well-known not only as a master builder, but a man who can keep a program at the highest level year after year.

Allice came to Troy with impeccable credentials: 11 state championships in 16 years at Long Beach (Calif.) City College, where his 1980 squad was called "the best junior college team in history" by Track & Field News. During his tenure at Long Beach C.C., his teams lost just one dual meet.

He quickly went to work, guiding the USC men's team to a fourth-place finish at the 1995 NCAA Outdoor Championships. In 1996, his Women of Troy won their first-ever Pac-10 title. In 1997, he led the Trojan men's team to its first Pac-10 title since 1977 and a third-place showing at the 1997 NCAAAs. In 1999, the men won their second Pac-10 title in three years. At the NCAAAs, the women finished third and the men fifth (as a combined men's and women's program, this was the best finish in school history). In 2000, the men finished seventh--their seventh consecutive top 10 finish--while the women placed second--their highest finish ever. In 2001, Allice guided the Women of Troy to their first-ever NCAA team championship. In 2003, he led the men's team to a third-place finish, with three Trojans winning NCAA titles.

Allice's troops continued the winning ways, being the only school in the country to have both the men's and women's programs finish in the top 10 from 2005-07. In fact, four times between 2005-09 USC accomplished that feat with the only blemish being an 11th place finish by the women's team in 2008.

Early in the spring of 1966, USC assistant track coach Willie Wilson was found to have terminal cancer. USC's two-mile relay of John Link, Dennis Carr, Bruce Bess and Dave Buck vowed to give him something special to remember and ran 7:14.4 to set a world record at the Los Angeles Coliseum on May 13, 1966.

The Trojans also dominated at the Regional and conference level with the men's team capturing four regional titles and the women's team tying for one seven seasons, while the men earned one more Pac-10 title in 2006.

Allice retired after guiding the USC men's team to a fifth-place finish and the women's team to a 21st-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Championships. Bryshon Nellum in the 400m and Reggie Wyatt in the 400m IH both won individual titles. Allice guided the USC men's teams to a top 10 finish 14 times and the women's team to a top 10 finish 11 times.

Allice had a career dual meet record of 218-50-1 at five schools, and coached more than 286 first-team All-Americans, 32 individual NCAA champions, 54 Olympians, four world record holders and seven American record holders.

CARYL SMITH GILBERT: 2013-CURRENT

Caryl Smith Gilbert took over the program on June 17, 2013 and led the men's team to a fourth-place tie and the women to a 16th-place tie at the 2014 NCAA Championships in her first season. She also guided both teams to a second-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships. Throw in the womens' indoor MPSF conference title and it is easy to see that the program is in good hands for future success.

In her second season USC's men placed 5th and the women 7th at the NCAAAs, as well as the women capturing the MPSF indoor title again. The teams both took second one again at the conference meet. They also combined to set four USC outdoor records and set four Trojan freshman outdoor marks. Despite a slew of injuries, the USC women tied for 9th and the men were 12th at the 2016 NCAA Championships and Randall Cunningham won the NCAA high jump title. Four more USC outdoor records were established and Smith Gilbert guided the men to the MPSF indoor team title. In 2017 USC's men and women placed second at the Pac-12 Championships and the women finished third at NCAAAs, their highest finish since 2006 and their 43 points were the team's most since 2002.

Trojan long jumper Randy Williams won the Gold Medal at the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich with a jump of 27-4 1/4, which is still a USC freshman record.
