TTU scored 18 points from the free throw line in the second half. USC outrebounded TTU 31-28, but was outscored 36-20 on points in the paint. Nick Rakovec finished with 9 points and 9 rebounds to snap his double-double streak at five games, three-in-a-row this season. Texas Tech made 16 of 19 second-half shots, with one of the misses being a heave from near halfcourt as the shot clock expired. The game was tied at 52-all with 8:23 remaining, but USC was outscored 26-11 the rest of the way.

BREAKING DOWN MISSOURI STATE - Missouri St. is 3-1 after falling 85-62 to Nebraska in an NABC HOF Classic first-round game on Nov. 19. Missouri State averages 75.8 points per game, led by Keandre Cook (18.5) and Jarred Dixon (17.0). USC won its only previous meeting with Missouri St. 83-75 on Dec. 22, 2016.

CSU BAKERSFIELD ON DECK - The Trojans' next game will be against CSU Bakersfield (3-2) at the Galen Center on Nov. 25 at 4 p.m. The Roadrunners are coming off a 68-67 win over Weber State, as Damiyne Durham hit a 3-pointer with 5.0 seconds remaining. USC won its only other meeting with CSU Bakersfield 63-59 on Dec. 15, 2013.

WESTPHAL TO THE HALL - USC great Paul Westphal was inducted into the NABC Hall of Fame on Nov. 18. Westphal played at USC from 1970-72 and averaged 16.4 points per game, ninth-best in school history, before going on to an all-star career as both a player and coach in the NBA. While at USC, Westphal was a two-time All-Pac-8 first-team selection and was named to the 1972 Helms Athletic Fund All-America team. The 1971 Trojans went 24-2, posting the best winning percentage all-time by a USC team of 92.3 percent. He served as USC's team captain for the 1972 season and led the Trojans with a 20.3 scoring average. USC retired his No. 25 jersey on January 18, 2007 and he was inducted into the Trojan Athletic HOF on May 17, 1997.

He became the first USC player to record three double-doubles to start a season since Sam Clancy did it to start the 2001-02 season. ALL ABOUT ENFIELD -- Andy Enfield, 49, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and has quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. His arrival on campus created a buzz around the program and the results have come immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins over a two-year and three-year period over the last three seasons. He guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons, the first time for USC since 2007-09, all while his athletes have set the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in five consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2018 class ranking No. 15. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since tying for second in 2002 and its first outright second-place finish since 1992. USC reached the Pac-12 Tournament final for the first time since winning it in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. He now has an 96-78 record in his six seasons as the USC head coach and is 137-106 in eight seasons as a head coach. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in a 2017 First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, with impressive wins at New Mexico and Boston College, as well as Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, Jacobs ultimately becoming an All-Conference player. Enfield captivated the nation during the 2013 season as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet 16 with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCU's high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks. In Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons - its first two playing at the Division I level. FGCU had a 41-28 record in his two seasons as head coach (2011-12, 2012-13), equaling the win total of the program the previous four seasons. Prior to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 2011. FSU posted four 20-win seasons during his time on the staff and won 31 ACC games, the second-most in the conference behind Duke. In 2011 and 2012, FSU became the first program since Georgetown (1991-92) to lead the nation in defensive field goal percentage two straight seasons. He began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for Milwaukee (1995, 1996). Then he was an assistant coach with Boston for two seasons (1999, 2000). Enfield played four seasons (1988-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 points. He also set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record of 92.5 percent, making 431-of-466 free throws. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

FACING THE BEST -- The USC men's basketball team is once again taking on an ambitious nonconference schedule for the 2018-19 season, highlighted by a home games against Vanderbilt and Nevada and neutral site games against Texas Tech, Oklahoma and TCU. USC's nonconference schedule will feature six potential games against teams which made the postseason last year, including a possible two games against 2018 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 teams. Also, USC will play 11 games against Pac-12 foes which competed in the postseason a year ago.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station once again will be ESPNLA 710 Radio with Jordan Moore calling the action. Moore, a USC graduate, is in his fifth season of working on USC broadcasts, first as the play-by-play man.

2018-19 PAC-12 PREDICTIONS -- USC was picked to finish 5th in the 2018-19 Pac-12 preseason poll by league media. The rest of the predictions went as follows: 1.) Oregon (288), 2.) UCLA (264), 3.) Washington (249), 4.) Arizona (205), 5.) USC (203), 6.) Arizona State (165), 7.) Colorado (161), 8.) Utah (122), 9.) Stanford (109), 10.) Oregon State (102), 11.) California (45) and 12.) Washington State (37). USC was picked seventh prior to the 2017-18 season and finished second in the conference.

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,589-1,192* in its 113 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 79 of the first 112 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 138-65 in 13 seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 75-20 in nonconference games at the Galen Center. USC is 37-6 in home nonconference games with Enfield as the head coach, including 25-3 in its last 28 regular season nonconference home games.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY -- The USC men's basketball team tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or ventured out into the community for an event over the last several years. One of their biggest involvements the past two years has been with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk, along with Director of Scouting Martin Bahar to raise money in the name of his sister Maddie who died from the disease in 2009.

* 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record: 1,584-1,179

USC'S FRESHMAN CLASS RANKED NO. 15 - USC's three-man freshman class of guards Kevin Porter Jr. and Elijah Weaver and forward J'Raen Brooks was ranked No. 15 nationally, with all three players ranking within the top 80 recruits according to ESPN, Scout and Rivals. Porter Jr. averaged 27 points, 14 rebounds and five assists as a high school senior at Rainier Beach High and was named "Mr. Basketball" for the state of Washington. He led his team to the state final where it fell to Garfield High, led by fellow current USC freshman Brooks. Weaver was named Florida's 6A Player of the Year as he averaged 23.1 points, 8.2 rebounds, 8.7 assists and 4.3 steals per game for Rockledge High. FITS RIGHT IN - Freshman guard Kevin Porter Jr. scored 15 points in his collegiate debut on Nov. 6 vs. RMU, the most points by a Trojan freshman since Jordan McLaughlin scored 19 points in his first game in 2014. He made his first career start vs. Stetson on Nov. 14 and scored 12 points. In four games he is averaging 14.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 2.3 assists and 1.3 blocks. Porter Jr. is third on the team by scoring average and has made 52.4 percent of his shots (22-for-42).

THE 2018-19 USC TROJANS - USC's men's basketball program looks to continue its ascent to the top of the conference during the 2018-19 season as it returns seven of its top 10 scorers from last season and had added a dynamic three-man freshman class which is ranked No. 15 in the country. USC went 24-12 and finished second in the Pac-12 last season, its highest finish outright since the 1992, and has won a school-record 71 games over the last three seasons. To keep it rolling, USC will have to replace 2018 NBA Draft picks Chimezie Metu and De'Anthony Melton, as well as Jordan McLaughlin and Elijah Stewart who litter the Trojans' all-time top 10 lists and are on NBA G-League teams.

CLIMBING THE CONFERENCE LADDER - USC is one of two schools (Bucknell) to increase its conference win total in each of the last four seasons. In fact, USC is one of just 13 schools (1 of 2 in Power 5 Conferences) to increase its conference win total in each of the past three seasons. USC had two Pac-12 wins in 2014 and finished 12th in the conference. Since then, in 2015 USC won three games (12th), in 2016 it won nine games (T-6th), in 2017 it won 10 games (T-5th) and in 2018 it won 12 games (2nd).

O'BANNON HAS SURGERY - Sophomore guard Charles "Chuck" O'Bannon had surgery to repair a broken left pinky finger on Nov. 13 and expected to miss a month of action. He injured his finger in practice on Nov. 9. O'Bannon played 10 minutes in USC's opener on Nov. 6 vs. RMU.

USC BRINGS IN TOP-RANKED RECRUITING CLASS - Isaiah Mobley, Onyeka Okongwu, Max Agbonkpolo and Kyle Sturdivant have signed to play basketball at USC for the 2019-20 season, it was announced by head coach Andy Enfield today (Nov. 14). At the time USC's recruiting class was ranked No. 1 by 247Sports.com and Rivals.com and No. 2 overall by ESPN.com, the highest-ranked recruiting class ever by the USC men's basketball program. "Our 2019 recruiting class will bring a combination of skill, size, and athleticism to our program," said Enfield. "As we continue to lose players after graduation and early to the NBA, we expect this recruiting class to have an immediate impact on the success of our team next season." USC has now had six consecutive top 30 classes under Enfield and this year's class contains three of the top five recruits from the state of California according to ESPN.com.
