TONIGHT'S GAME - The USC Trojans (6-6) will host the UC Davis Aggies (3-9) at the Galen Center on Dec. 30 at 6 p.m. The game will be USC's final nonconference game before Pac-12 Conference play begins on Jan. 3 when USC will host California at 7 p.m. The game will be part of a doubleheader with the USC women's team which hosts UCLA in its Pac-12 opener at 2 p.m.

BREAKING DOWN UC DAVIS - UC Davis (3-9) is coming off a 77-59 loss at Loyola Marymount on Dec. 28. UC Davis is 0-6 on the road this season. Senior guard TJ Shorts II leads UC Davis in scoring average at 14.3 points per game. UC Davis went 22-11 last season and returned three starters from that team. This is the first meeting between the two schools.

USC ROLLS TO WIN OVER SOUTHERN UTAH - USC rolled to a 91-49 win against Southern Utah at the Galen Center on Dec. 21 to earn Andy Enfield his 100th career win as the Trojans' head coach. The 42-point win was USC's largest since winning the 2017-18 opener 84-42 over CS Fullerton. USC snapped a four-game losing streak by holding SUU to a season-low 49 points and to 34.0 percent shooting. USC was led by Bennie Boatwright who scored 18 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his first double-double of the season. Nick Rakocevic was USC's high scorer with 21 points and all 10 Trojans who played scored at least 2 points. USC had a season-best 24 assists, its most since recording 28 vs. UCSB on Dec. 17, 2017. McKay Anderson who began his career at SUU and became eligible for the first time after sitting out the first semester, scored his first two points as a Trojan. USC outscored SUU 52-22 on points in the paint and 33-11 on points off turnovers, as it registered a season-high 11 steals. USC made 53.7 percent of its shots and 41.2 from three-point range.

CALIFORNIA ON DECK - USC's next game will be vs. California at the Galen Center on Jan. 3 at 6 p.m. The Golden Bears (5-6) will host Seattle on Dec. 29 before traveling to Los Angeles. Paris Austin leads five Bears averaging double figures in points with a 13.6 average. USC won both games against California last season, but trails the all-time series 136-124 (1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record 136-125).

ENFIELD WINS 100TH - Andy Enfield earned his 100th career win as the USC head coach with the 91-49 victory over Southern Utah on Dec. 21. He has a 100-82 record in his six seasons at the helm of the USC program. He has led the Trojans into the postseason each of the last three seasons, combining to win 71 games, the most in a three-year stretch in school history. He has a 141-110 overall record in eight seasons as a head coach.

DEROZAN BREAKS USC NBA SCORING RECORD - When DeMar DeRozan (USC, 2009) scored 30 points in the San Antonio Spurs' 111-103 win vs. Denver on Dec. 26, he became USC's all-time leading scorer in the NBA with 14,112 career points. He passed Gus Williams who is now second with 14,093 career points and the rest of the impressive top five is Paul Westphall (3rd, 12,809), Bill Sharman (4th, 12,665) and Cliff Robinson (5th, 10,823). DeRozan scored 485 points (13.9 per game) in his one season (2008-09) at USC, helping lead the team to a 22-13 record. That team defeated ASU and James Harden 66-63 to win the Pac-12 Tournament title with DeRozan earning MVP, and then reached the NCAA Tournament second round.

TROJANS TAKE THE LEAD - USC led for 36:31 of the 40 minutes in the win against Southern Utah on Dec. 21. In the four-game losing streak prior to that win, USC led for a total of 16:52 minutes out of a total of 170 minutes. Of that, 14:20 was in the first loss vs. Nevada on Dec. 1. USC never led vs. TCU on Dec. 7, led for 1:24 vs. Oklahoma on Dec. 15 and for 2:08 in the double-overtime loss at Santa Clara on Dec. 18.

ALL ABOUT ENFIELD -- Andy Enfield, 49, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and has quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. His arrival on campus created a buzz around the program and the results have come immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins over a two-year and three-year period over the last three seasons. He guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons, the first time for USC since 2007-09, all while his athletes have set the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in five consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2018 class ranking No. 15. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since tying for second in 2002 and its first outright second-place finish since 1992. USC reached the Pac-12 Tournament final for the first time since winning it in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. He now has an 100-82 record in his six seasons as the USC head coach and is 141-110 in eight seasons as a head coach. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in a 2017 First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, with impressive wins at New Mexico and Boston College, as well as Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, Jacobs ultimately becoming an All-Conference player. Enfield captivated the nation during the 2013 season as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet 16 with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCU's high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks. In Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons - its first two playing at the Division I level. FGCU had a 41-28 record in his two seasons as head coach (2011-12, 2012-13), equaling the win total of the program the previous four seasons. Prior to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 2011. FSU posted four 20-win seasons during his time on the staff and won 31 ACC games, the second-most in the conference behind Duke. In 2011 and 2012, FSU became the first program since Georgetown (1991-92) to lead the nation in defensive field goal percentage two straight seasons. He began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for Milwaukee (1995, 1996). Then he was an assistant coach with Boston for two seasons (1999, 2000). Enfield played four seasons (1988-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 points. He also set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record of 92.5 percent, making 431-of-466 free throws. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

FACING THE BEST -- The USC men's basketball team is once again taking on an ambitious nonconference schedule for the 2018-19 season, highlighted by a home games against Vanderbilt and Nevada and neutral site games against Texas Tech, Oklahoma and TCU. USC's nonconference schedule will feature six potential games against teams which made the postseason last year, including a possible two games against 2018 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 teams. Also, USC will play 11 games against Pac-12 foes which competed in the postseason a year ago.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station once again will be ESPNLA 710 Radio with Jordan Moore calling the action. Moore, a USC graduate, is in his fifth season of working on USC broadcasts, first as the play-by-play man.

2018-19 PAC-12 PREDICTIONS -- USC was picked to finish 5th in the 2018-19 Pac-12 preseason poll by league media. The rest of the predictions went as follows: 1.) Oregon (288), 2.) UCLA (264), 3.) Washington (249), 4.) Arizona (205), 5.) USC (203), 6.) Arizona State (165), 7.) Colorado (161), 8.) Utah (122), 9.) Stanford (109), 10.) Oregon State (102), 11.) California (45) and 12.) Washington State (37). USC was picked seventh prior to the 2017-18 season and finished second in the conference.

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,593-1,196* in its 113 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 79 of the first 112 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 141-66 in 13 seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 78-21 in nonconference games at the Galen Center. USC is 40-7 in home nonconference games with Enfield as the head coach, including 28-4 in its last 32 regular season nonconference home games.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY -- The USC men's basketball team tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or ventured out into the community for an event over the last several years. One of their biggest involvements the past two years has been with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk, along with Director of Scouting Martin Bahar to raise money in the name of his sister Maddie who died from the disease in 2009.

* 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record: 1,613-1,195

MISSING PIECES - USC has yet to have a full allotment of players since it began practice during the summer. When summer workouts began Bennie Boatwright was still out recovering from offseason knee surgery. Then on Aug. 23 freshman guard Elijah Weaver injured his ankle which required surgery on Aug. 30. In the 30 official practices USC was allowed in the preseason, only four times did they have as many as 10 players available (including walk-ons) due to a variety of things including twisted ankles, pink eye, colds, sore hips, etc. Unfortunately, since the season has begun, the injury bug has not subsided, beginning with Boatwright and Weaver not being available for the first two games. The following is a list of games missed so far by USC players:

Total Games Missed - 25

Charles O'Bannon	- 11 total (all but Robert Morris)	Fractured left pinky finger
Victor Uyaelunmo	- 2 total (Oklahoma, Santa Clara)	Sore left knee
Kevin Porter Jr.	- 6 total (CSUB, LBSU, TCU, Okla., SC, SUU)	Right quadiceps contusion (6, plus limited to 4 minutes vs. Nevada)
Derryck Thornton	- 1 total (CSU Bakersfield)	Right ankle sprain
