LOS ANGELES – The 16th-ranked USC women's volleyball team (6-3) is on the road for a third consecutive weekend and will play its seventh and eighth straight matches away from home when the Trojans take on Louisiana (7-4) and No. 23 San Diego (2-4) in the SDSU/USD Challenge at Jenny Craig Pavilion on Friday, Sept. 14, in San Diego. While the Women of Troy meet the Ragin' Cajuns for the first time, their meeting with the Toreros makes USD the sixth ranked opponent on USC's non-conference schedule.

The last time USC made a trip into San Diego, it was for the 2015 NCAA regional championship. ## USC HEAD COACH BRENT CROUCH

Brent Crouch is in his first season as head coach at USC. He was hired on Jan. 8, 2018, following four seasons as the head coach at Portland, where he was named the 2016 West Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Crouch inherited a winless UP program and guided the Pilots to their winningest season in 25 years in just his season at the helm. He started at Portland in 2014 after the Pilots went 0-27 the previous season. The team was 7-23 in his first year and went 16-15 in 2015; and 17-13 in 2016. His 2017 squad, which was hampered by injuries, was 15-15, with five losses in five-set matches. He was 55-66 overall in four years.

Portland's 48 victories from 2015-17 marked the program's best three-season total since 1984-86. The Pilots' 10-8 third-place WCC finish in 2016 was their most league wins since 1985 and was the highest conference finish since 1989. Crouch led Portland to the program's first-ever victories over Top 10, Top 15, and Top 25 opponents; and coached three All-WCC first-team players. He also helped establish the beach volleyball program at UP in 2016.

Prior to Portland, Crouch was an assistant at Saint Mary's College for four years (2010-13) with the indoor program and head coach of the inaugural beach team in 2013. While there, the Gaels' indoor team went 73-40, finished in the WCC's top three each season, and earned a berth into the 2012 NCAA Tournament, and advanced to the second round. Crouch led the beach Gaels to an 8-2 record for the best mark among Northern California programs; with a No. 9 ranking and a bid to the AVCA pairs championship for the team's top pair.

Crouch served as an assistant with the U.S. Collegiate National Team that won gold at the 2016 U22 Global Challenge; and as both an indoor and beach coach in the USA Volleyball High Performance program.

For five years (2004-09) Crouch was a head coach at various levels. He led the RoShamBo Girls' Volleyball 14 team, which was part of the Skyline Juniors Volleyball Club in Dallas, Texas, and guided the Wave VBC 17s team in Encinitas, Calif. His Wave squad finished third in the 2008 Junior Olympics Open Division and won gold at the Southern California National Qualifier. He was also head coach of the San Diego City College men's team (2006-08) and head coach of Oregon's men's club team (2004-05).

Crouch played for Texas A&M's club team (1993-97) and earned a bachelor's degree in history (1998) and a master's in philosophy (2000) from Texas A&M. He later received his doctorate in philosophy from Oregon in 2006. On the beach, Crouch competed in the AVP and CBVA from 2005 to 2007.

As a professor, Crouch has taught philosophy at Oregon, San Diego City College, and Saint Mary's College. Born on Jan. 8, 1975, he and his wife Marcy have two sons; Jonathan and William. Marcy is a physical therapist and received her doctorate in physical therapy from USC.

BUT FIRST, LET ME TAKE A #SELFIE: Get social with the Women of Troy! Fans can follow and interact with the USC women's volleyball team on Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram by searching for @USCWomensVolley.

USC IN BRIEF: The Women of Troy have one of the toughest non-conference schedules in the nation. USC has faced teams ranked No. 3, No. 4, and No. 5. The Trojans earned wins over fourth-ranked Florida on the road and took down fifth-ranked Kentucky at home but dropped a three-set decision to No. 3 BYU last weekend. First-year head coach Brent Crouch has also guided the Trojans to wins over No. 13 Creighton; and over UNI and Louisville which each sit just outside the top 25. USC boasts a formidable offense with All-American OH Khalia Lanier leading the charge (3.83 kps). She is joined on the pins by sophomore standout Brooke Bolkin (4.44 kps) and junior transfer Emily Baptista (2.78 kps). Freshman setter Raquel Lázaro earned back-to-back Pac-12 Freshman of the Week honors in her first two weekends and leads the league in total assists (395). On defense, the Women of Troy turn to senior libero Victoria Garrick (4.56 dps); one of just 17 Trojans ever to collect over 1,000 career digs.

LAST TIME OUT: USC's treacherous schedule caught up with the Trojans as they fell in back-to-back same-day matches at the Marquette Invitational. The Women of Troy dropped a hard-fought first set, 30-28, to third-ranked BYU and then suffered a 3-0 sweep at the hands of the Cougars. Later in the evening, the Trojans earned a big 33-31 win in the fourth against No. 25 Marquette to force a fifth set but couldn't defeat the host Eagles. Things looked dicey for USC as it fell behind, 2-0, to Syracuse in their final match at the tourney, but the Trojans fought back to earn a five-set win over the Orange. It was the team's first five-set win after falling behind, 2-0, since the end of the 2016 season. Junior MB Jasmine Gross was chosen to the all-tournament team.

AVCA POLL POSITION: The Trojans opened 2018 ranked No. 10 after finishing the 2017 campaign in the No. 7 spot. Overall, the Trojans have appeared in the poll 500 times and have held a spot among the poll's top 10 teams 316 times, which ranks seventh all-time. The Trojans have also held the No. 1 ranking 47 times previously, which is sixth all-time.

PAC-12 POW(ER)S: USC players have received Pac-12 Player of the Week honors 75 times (third most among league teams). Since 2011, when the Pac-12 began honoring separate offensive and defensive players of the week and named a freshman of the week, Trojans have earned 19 offensive awards, 10 defensive awards, and taken home 16 freshman honors. In the first week of the 2018 season, sophomore OH Brooke Botkin received her first-career league honor as the Offensive Player of the Week and freshman setter Raquel Lázaro was chosen for Freshman of the Week honors. Lázaro repeated as the Freshman of the Week in week two.

DOUBLE DOWN: Eight Trojans on this year's squad have recorded career double-doubles. Junior OH Khalia Lanier has five this season and leads all players with 30-career double-doubles. Sophomore OH Brooke Botkin has recorded four double-doubles in 2018 and has five-career double-double matches. Freshman setter Raquel Lázaro logged her first-career double-double with 53 assists and 22 digs against Creighton and has three-career double-doubles.

CROUCHING TIGER: First-year USC head coach Brent Crouch led the Trojans to a win over No. 5-ranked Kentucky in his first match at the helm (Aug. 24). In his previous position as Portland's head coach, he led the Pilots to their first-ever wins over ranked opponents including the very first over San Diego (Nov. 14, 2015). That USD squad coincidentally was also ranked No. 23 at the time of the match. The following year, Crouch helped UP earn its first-ever upset over a top-10 opponent on a 3-2 victory at San Diego (Nov. 10, 2016).

ONE IS THE LONELIEST NUMBER: USC is 13-6 all-time in the City of San Diego. However, the Trojans have found themselves on the short end of upsets in each of their last two trips. In 2013, USC was 6-0 and ranked No. 1 when it went into Jenny Craig Pavilion for the first time. Having won the previous nine meetings against USD either at home or in neutral locations, the Trojans dropped a four-set stunner to the No. 9-ranked Toreros on Sept. 13, 2013. On the back end of that season, USC advanced to the NCAA regional championship match at Galen Center. In 2015, despite being ranked No. 2 in the AVCA poll, with a 30-2 regular-season record, the Trojans held the No. 1 seed in the NCAA tournament. Ironically, USC defeated San Diego at home in the second round and moved into the regional championship held at Jenny Craig Pavilion. There, the Trojans took down Creighton in the semifinal but suffered a five-set upset loss to eighth-seeded Kansas in the championship match to end the season.

CAN YOU DIG IT?: Senior libero Victoria Garrick became the 17th player in program history to collect 1,000 career digs in the Trojans' 2017 NCAA second-round match against San Diego. She now has 1,211 career digs and needs 93 to crack the program's top-10 career ladder; and is chasing three-time All-American April Ross who had 1,303 career digs (2000-03). Garrick is one of just six Trojans to record at least 500 digs in a single season and ranks among greats including Debora Seilhamer, Natalie Hagglund, Taylor Whittingham, Alli Hillgren, and Katie Haller. She had 519 digs in 2017 to rank 10th in USC's single-season record books.

KILLER K: Junior OH Khalia Lanier became the program's 17th player to record 1,000 career kills in the final match of 2017. She is the first Trojan to reach the 1K mark in just her freshman and sophomore seasons. Only one other Trojan collected more than 1,000 kills in her first two seasons with the program. All-American OH Asia Kaczor did so but transferred to Troy and reached the milestone as a junior and senior. Lanier now has 1,140 career kills and needs 333 to overtake 10th place on USC's career ladder (1,472; Megan McCallister, 1987-90).

HELPING HAND: Freshman setter Raquel Lázaro dished out 55 assists in her collegiate debut. It was the highest single-match total by a Trojan setter since 2012 (Hayley Crone). She later posted 53 assists to go with 22 digs to post her first-career double-double.

TROJAN OLYMPIANS: USC's proud Olympic heritage includes representation by at least one player or coach in all but three Olympic Games since 1964 (1972, 1976, 2004). A total of 19 USC Olympians have competed in women's volleyball and beach volleyball combined. In the last summer games, USC was represented by three-time All-American April Ross, who paired with Stanford All-American Kerri Walsh Jennings, to win bronze medals in beach volleyball. Ross also holds a silver medal from the 2012 London Games with partner Jennifer Kessy. Trojan All-American libero Debora Seilhamer also participated in the 2016 Rio Games where she led Puerto Rico to its historic first-ever berth in the Olympic tourney.

THE GALEN CENTER

Over 130 years ago, USC's founders envisioned an on-campus arena to further unite the Trojan community. On October 12, 2006, dream became reality with the opening of the Galen Center; the new home to USC's basketball and volleyball programs.

In late 2002, successful banker and longtime USC fan Louis Galen and wife Helene pledged a $10 million donation for the project. The Galens later added an additional $25 million and upped their original donation to $15 million. Their total of $50 million was the final push needed to break ground on the new facility.

On October 31, 2004, ground was broken across from the University Park campus. Los Angeles City Council members Bernard Parks and Jan Perry were alongside Louis and Helene Galen and a contingency of Trojan supporters for the historic groundbreaking ceremony.

After nearly two years of construction, the first event held in the Galen Center was a women's volleyball match between USC and Stanford on October 12, 2006. A few weeks later, Galen Center hosted its first-ever concert featuring Al Green. The first men's basketball game held at the arena took place on November 16 between USC and South Carolina. A capacity crowd of 10,258 attended a men's basketball game between USC and Arizona on January 31, 2008, to set the venue's all-time attendance record.

Galen Center construction cost an estimated $147 million, which included the arena, offices, and state-of-the-art practice pavilion. The center puts USC teams on an appropriately impressive stage and allows its student-athletes to put their talents on display in the 255,000 square-foot arena. Trojan athletes and visiting teams have access to state-of-the-art locker rooms, weight room, and medical training rooms.

The adjacent 45,000 square-foot pavilion features practice areas with three sections and enough space for four full basketball courts or nine volleyball courts as well as seating for 1,000 spectators. The ground floor of the pavilion houses offices for coaches and administrative personnel. Galen Center also has its own ticket office, concession stands, and merchandise stores, and houses the USC Athletic Department Hall of Fame.

Built with the entire community in mind, the Galen Center has opened its doors to youth and high school sporting events, concerts, commencement ceremonies, community events, lectures, meetings, shows, pageants, and more. It has also hosted numerous MPSF, Pac-12, and NCAA championship events including the 2012 NCAA Men's Volleyball Championship. In 2013, the Galen Center served as host of one of four NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Regional Championships.

The USC women's volleyball team is particularly comfortable in the Galen Center. Since its opening, the Women of Troy are 154-32 (.828) as the home team. In 2007, the Trojans went undefeated at home (19-0) and advanced to the NCAA semifinal match. In 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2015, USC lost just once at home in each season.

1,000 SHIPS: USC's win over ASU on Oct. 5, 2016, was the program's 1,000th all-time victory. The Trojans became just the 17th program in NCAA Division I history to reach the 1K milestone. USC is the owner of six national championships (three AIAW and three NCAA) and has won eight conference crowns including two since the inception of the Pac-12 (2011 and 2015).

HOME, SWEET HOME: The Trojans are 154-31 (.828) all-time at the Galen Center. When it comes to the volleyball court, the Women of Troy are less than hospitable to their visitors. The Trojans went 12-1 in home matches in 2011 and completed the 2012 home schedule with a 17-1 mark. In 2007, USC was 19-0 at home on the way to an appearance in the NCAA national semifinal match. The Trojans are 17-3 all-time at Galen Center in NCAA tournament matches. The three losses were to Hawai'i (2008 and 2009) each time in the second round; and to Washington in the 2013 NCAA Regional Final.

TRANSFERS OF POWER: The Trojans welcome a pair of coveted transfers in 2018. Both juniors and both All-West Coast Conference selections in 2017, USC will add the services of MB Jasmine Gross and OH Emily Baptista. Gross ranked fourth in the NCAA in blocks as a sophomore (1.79 bps) and holds several Pepperdine match and single-season records for blocks. Baptista was the leader of the Pacific offense in 2017 and once notched a career-high 26 kills for the Tigers.

#1 BLINDSIDE BROTHER: OH Brooklyn Schirmer didn't come to school alone. Elder brother Bernard Schirmer transferred to Troy from Mount Sac and is a sophomore offensive lineman on the football team.

#2 SISTER, SISTER: MB Madison Murtagh's elder sister Mackenzie Murtagh played volleyball at San Francisco from 2010-13, where Madison also played as a freshman in 2015-16. Following her transfer, Murtagh joined another volleyball sister as she reunited with Victoria Garrick at USC, whom she played club volleyball with at Red Rock VBC in Redwood City, Calif.

#4 NUTTY VICE: Libero Victoria Garrick's guilty pleasure is Nutella, a delicious hazelnut spread made of skim milk with a hint of cocoa.

#4 SKIPPING PRACTICE: In 2017, libero Victoria Garrick's TEDx Talk on the need for attention to mental health among student-athletes spread through the volleyball community. Garrick has since advanced her message through her own podcast entitled Skipping Practice. In it, she has casual conversations with athletes, celebrities, and other personalities on a bi-weekly basis.

#7 HER MAJESTY: OH Brooke Botkin graduated from high school a full semester early to join the Trojans in the spring of 2017. In the fall of 2016, she was named Homecoming Queen of Pearland HS in Pearland, Texas, a suburb of Houston.

#8 BLOOD MONEY: Setter Ashley Humphreys comes from a long bloodline of volleyball talent. Her mother Wendy Rush was a four-time All-American setter at Stanford (1984-87) and a member of the Stanford Athletics Hall of Fame. Humphreys' aunt Kari Rush was an All-American and team captain for the Cardinal in 1983. Her sister won the NCAA championship with Stanford as a setter in 2016. Ashley hadn't always wanted to play volleyball, but a little financial incentive from her parents gave her the push she needed to pursue the sport she eventually thrived in.

#9 ALBANIA MANIA: Setter Cindy Marina is also a setter for the Albanian Women's National Team. Marina helped Albania capture unprecedented bronze medals at the 2018 European Volleyball League championship.

#10 SPANISH IMPORT: Setter Raquel Lázaro is the first USC women's volleyball player to hail from the country of Spain. She is also the first international player on the Trojans' roster since 2016 when Italian setter Alice Pizzasegola played at Troy.

#11 PORTLANDIA: MB Jasmine Gross' parents Aaron Gross and Susan Campbell are each head tennis coaches at the University of Portland where USC head coach Brent Crouch coached from 2014-17. Father Aaron coaches the men's team and mother Susan is the head coach of the women's team.

#13 GRANDIOSE: Libero Raegan LeGrand is the cousin of former Stanford All-American libero Gabi Ailes. LeGrand is plenty familiar with the Pac-12 having watched her cousin perform in the league growing up. Ailes' shoes are big ones to fill, but LeGrand is up to the task after being named the 2015-16 Gatorade Nebraska Volleyball Player of the Year.

#14 YOU'RE KIDDING: Libero Reni Meyer-Whalley knows what it's like to be the middle kid. She is one of nine children and is right in the middle of her eight siblings whose ages range from 15 to 35. In all, she has five brothers; Ryan (35), Zane (26), Quade (25), Hayze (22), and Trae (15); and has three sisters; Kristin (32), Elyza (31), and Stevie (15). Older sister Kristin was a defensive specialist and libero for Boston College (2004-07) and also wore the No. 14.

#14 RECORDS FOR RENI: Libero Reni Meyer-Whalley is the daughter of world-renowned record label executive Tom Whalley. Tom Whalley was the chairman and CEO of Warner Bros. Records and served as an artist and repertoire (A&R) executive at Interscope Records. He later started a record label called Loma Vista Records.

#16 FATHER FIGURE: OH Khalia Lanier is the daughter of NBA Hall of Famer Bob Lanier. He was the first overall pick in the 1970 NBA draft and went on to become an eight-time all-star during his career with the Detroit Pistons (1970-80) and Milwaukee Bucks (1980-84). He entered the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1992 and served as an interim head coach of the Golden State Warriors from 1994-95. Khalia lists her father as her biggest sports hero and wears the No. 16 as tribute to his athletic career. Bob Lanier's No. 16 is retired by both the Pistons and the Bucks.

#17 TRAVEL PARTNER: OH Daley Krage doesn't go on a trip without travel companion Perry the Platypus. The Pillow Pet version of the Nickelodeon cartoon character has gone on every volleyball trip with her for the past four years.

#20 HORSEY SHOW: Libero Jenna Adams used to be an exhibition rider and show horses in her youth.

#20 SCHOOL OF CHOICE: Libero Jenna Adams played her freshman season at Ohio State in 2016. Following her first campaign, she surveyed several schools on the West Coast to consider for her transfer in order to be closer to home in San Mateo, Calif., and eventually selected USC. Adams had plenty of influence in her process with uncles and grandparents who played sports at UCLA, San Diego State, and Pepperdine.

THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back more than 100 years, to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Imperial Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College (now Oregon State University). All four are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and the PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities (AAWU) was formed with Thomas J. Hamilton appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premier league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009, when he was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott.

Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference on July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978.

It was during the 2010-11 academic year that Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. In addition to expanding, institutions agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in the Conference's history, created two football divisions - the North and the South, and established a Football Championship Game for the first time. He also secured landmark media rights deals with ESPN and FOX that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, in addition to establishing Pac-12 Networks which guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 13 women's sports, with women's lacrosse a new addition for the 2017-18 academic year and beach volleyball having been added in 2015-16. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and two women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located in the heart of San Francisco in the SOMA district.
