USC RETURNS HOME TO FACE LONG BEACH STATE

• 23 Days Between Home Games, USC's Most Since 1995 •

TODAY'S GAME - The USC Trojans (8-2) will face the Long Beach State Beach (3-7) at the Galen Center on Dec. 15 at 3:30 p.m. The game will air on the Pac-12 Network with Ted Robinson and Tammy Blackburn calling the action.

GONE FROM GALEN -- USC is in the midst of playing 8 of 10 games (3-1) away from the Galen Center. USC played three games at the Orlando Invitational (Nov. 28, Nov. 29 and Dec. 1), then at TCU to open Dickies Arena on Dec. 6, now is home vs. Long Beach State, at Staples Center (in L.A.) vs. LSU on Dec. 21, home vs. FGCU on Dec. 29, then the Trojans will open the new year and the conference season with three road games - at Washington St. (Jan. 2), at Washington (Jan. 5) and at UCLA (Jan. 11). The 23 days between home games (Nov. 22 to Dec. 15) is USC's longest stretch in a season without a home game since also going 23 days during the 1995 season (Dec. 20 to Jan. 12).

BREAKING DOWN LONG BEACH STATE -- Long Beach State (3-7) is coming off a 65-46 home loss to Pacific on Dec. 7. LBSU has three players scoring in double figures, led by sophomore guard Chance Hunter at 14.2 points per game. LBSU has road losses at Pac-12 foes UCLA (65-69), at Stanford (58-86) and at Arizona (67-104). USC defeated LBSU 75-65 on Nov. 28 last season and leads the all-time series 9-6.

USC WINS IN THE NICK OF TIME -- Nick Rakocevic tipped in a missed shot with 0.2 seconds remaining to give the Trojans an 80-78 win over TCU in the inaugural game at Dickies Arena in Fort Worth, Texas on Dec. 6. USC led most of the game, but after a layup by Kevin Samuel with 8 seconds remaining, the score was 78-all and Samuel had a FT attempt to put TCU ahead. He missed the FT which was rebounded by Rakocevic, who followed up Ethan Anderson's driving layup attempt to give the Trojans the win. USC led 47-34 at halftime and built the lead to 18 points early in the half before TCU began to chip away. USC led 78-69 with 1:21 remaining, but Onyeka Okongwu and Jonah Mathews missed the front end of 1-and-1s, then Okongwu missed a pair of FTs with 17 seconds remaining, leaving the score at 78-76 USC, setting up the dramatics. Okongwu did have 2 key blocks in the final 44 seconds and finished with 7 blocks and 13 points. Mathews led USC with 20 points and Rakocevic had a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Anderson added 10 points and 8 assists. USC made 52.6 percent of its shots, its first game this season shooting over 50 percent from the floor.

LSU ON DECK -- USC's next game will be vs. LSU (7-2) at Staples Center on Dec. 21. LSU will host East Tennessee State on Dec. 18 before facing the Trojans. The Tigers have five players averaging double figures in scoring, led by guard Skylar Mays at 16.0 points per game. USC leads the all-time series 6-1, but lost the last meeting 87-76 on Dec. 4, 1976.

OKONGWU NEAR THE TOP OF THE CLASS -- Freshman forward Onyeka Okongwu ranks 5th among all NCAA freshman with an 17.4 scoring average. He also leads all freshmen in total blocks (33), is 2nd in blocks per game (3.30), 4th in free throws made (42), T-3rd in double-doubles (4), 3rd in shooting percentage (61.1), 5th in offensive rebounds per game (3.10) and 7th in rebounds per game (8.7).

THE SHOCKER ABOUT THE BLOCKER -- Freshman forward Onyeka Okongwu has 33 blocks through USC's first 10 games. His block total already ranks 9th on USC's all-time freshman blocks list.

A ROAD LESS TRAVELED -- USC is 2-0 on the road this season, after going 2-9 on the road during the 2018-19 season. In six of the last 11 seasons, USC won 2 or less road games for an overall record of 34-90 (27.4 percent). USC finished over .500 on the road (6-5) during the 2018 and 2017 seasons, the only two seasons in the past 11 with a winning road record.

10 FOR 10 -- All 10 available scholarship players on USC's team have had at least one 10-point scoring game this season.

ALL ABOUT ENFIELD -- Andy Enfield, 50, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and has quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. Results came immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins over a two-year, three-year and four-year period over the last four seasons. He guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons (2016-18), the first time for USC since 2007-09, all while his athletes have set the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in six consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2019 class ranking No. 7. Over the last two seasons, USC has had three players selected in the NBA Draft, tied for the fifth-most by any program in the country. He now has an 118-95 record in his seven seasons as the USC head coach and is 159-123 in nine seasons as a head coach. The 2018-19 Trojans were bitten by the injury bug beginning late in the summer and only had as many as 10 scholarship players available for preseason practice four of the 30 sessions. Ultimately USC players missed 54 games due to injury and finished with a 16-17 record after falling to regular season champion Washington 78-75 in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since tying for second in 2002 and its first outright second-place finish since 1992. USC reached the Pac-12 Tournament final for the first time since winning it in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in a 2017 First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, with impressive wins at New Mexico and Boston College, as well as a Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, Jacobs ultimately becoming an All-Conference player. Enfield captivated the nation during the 2013 season as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet 16 with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCU's high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks. In Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons - its first two playing at the Division I level. FGCU had a 41-28 record in his two seasons as head coach (2011-12, 2012-13), equaling the win total of the program the previous four seasons. Prior to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 2011. FSU posted four 20-win seasons during his time on the staff and won 31 ACC games, the second-most in the conference behind Duke. In 2011 and 2012, FSU became the first program since Georgetown (1991-92) to lead the nation in defensive field goal percentage two straight seasons. He began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for Milwaukee (1995, 1996). Then he was an assistant coach with Boston for two seasons (1999, 2000). Enfield played four seasons (1988-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 points. He also set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record of 92.5 percent, making 431-of-466 free throws. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

FACING THE BEST -- The USC men's basketball team is once again taking on an ambitious nonconference schedule for the 2019-20 season, highlighted by a home games against Temple and South Dakota State, tough road games at Nevada and TCU and a neutral sight game against defending SEC champion LSU. In all, USC will face four defending conference champions, play 15 games against teams which reached the 2019 postseason and 14 games against teams which won 20 or more games last season.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station for the first time will be AM 790 KABC with Jordan Moore calling the action. The USC graduate is in his fifth season of working on USC basketball broadcasts, his second season as the play-by-play announcer.

PAC-12 PREDICTIONS -- USC was picked to finish 5th in the 2019-20 Pac-12 preseason poll by league media. The rest of the predictions went as follows: 1.) Oregon (291), 2.) Colorado (288), 3.) Washington (273), 4.) Arizona (263), 5.) USC (198), 6.) Arizona State (187), 7.) Oregon State (161), 8.) UCLA (148), 9.) Utah (131), 10.) Stanford (84), 11.) Washington State (47) and 12.) California (35).

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,609-1,208* in its 114 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 79 of the first 113 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 151-69 in 14 seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 83-22 in nonconference games at the Galen Center. USC is 45-8 in home nonconference games with Enfield as the head coach, including 33-5 in its last 38 regular season nonconference home games.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY -- The USC men's basketball team tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or ventured out into the community for an event over the last several years. One of their biggest involvements the past two years has been with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk, along with Director of Scouting Martin Bahar to raise money in the name of his sister Maddie who died from the disease in 2009.

* 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record: 1,630-1,207.

The will no longer be a weekly Pac-12 teleconference call with each of the 12 Conference head coaches having a time of availability. For interviews with USC's Andy Enfield, please contact Dave Tuttle at davidtut@usc.edu or at (213) 725-3102.

OPPONENTS USE SNIPER ATTACK -- Seven of USC's 10 opponents have made at least nine three-pointers in their games against USC. USC held TCU to 5 three-pointers in the win on Dec. 6, snapping a streak of six-straight games allowing 9 or more long-range baskets. Marquette made 14 three-pointers against USC on Nov. 29 to the Trojans' three for a 42-9 advantage in points from beyond the arc. In its first 10 games, USC has made 61 three-pointers (6.1 per game) to its opponents' 90 three-pointers (9.0 per game). USC has been outscored by 87 points from three-point range this season for an average of 8.7 points per game. The Trojans' opponents have scored 39.3 percent of their points this season from three-point range.

DEFENSIVE SHIFT -- USC is 8-2 after 10 games this season, after being 5-5 after 10 games during the 2018-19 season. The biggest change has been on the defensive end where the Trojans are holding their opponents to 68.7 points per game and to a 38.7 shooting percentage.

2019-20	Through 10 Games	2018-19
68.7	Points Per Game	75.1
38.7	Shooting Percentage Defense	40.9
68	Steals	61
53	Blocks	38
40.1	Rebounds Per Game	38.1

OKONGWU NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN & PLAYER OF THE WEEK (Nov. 25) -- Freshman forward Onyeka Okongwu averaged 25.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.5 blocks in USC's two games to earn Pac-12 Freshman of the Week and the Player of the Week honors for the week of Nov. 18-24, it was announced by the Pac-12 today (Nov. 25). With the Freshman of the Week being a new honor this season, Okongwu becomes the first player to earn both awards in the same week. In the 91-84 win over Pepperdine on Nov. 19, Okongwu scored a career-high 33 points, while grabbing five rebounds and making two blocks. The 33 points scored were the most by a USC freshman in a game since O.J. Mayo scored 37 on March 1, 2008 at Arizona State (player participation later vacated due to NCAA penalty, previous USC freshman with more points was Harold Miner with 34 on February 15, 1990 vs. Stanford). The 6-9 forward also made 17 of 21 free throws (81.0 percent) in the game against Pepperdine to set the record for most free throws made in a game by an individual at the Galen Center and it was also the third-most free throws ever made in any game by a Trojan. The last Trojan to make more free throws in a game was John Block on Feb. 11, 1966 vs. Washington when he set the school record with 21. The 17 free throws made are currently tied for the most by an NCAA Division I player this season and were the most by a Conference player since Stanford's Reid Travis (19) in Dec. 2016. Okongwu followed that game up with 17 points, six rebounds and five blocks in the 70-61 loss to undefeated Temple on Nov. 22.

RAKOCEVIC NAMED PAC-12 PLAYER OF THE WEEK (Nov. 18) -- Senior forward Nick Rakocevic averaged 25.5 points, 13.5 rebounds and eclipsed the 1,000 career points scored mark to help lead the Trojans to two wins and earn Pac-12 Player of the Week honors for the week of Nov. 11-17. It is the third career Pac-12 Player of the Week selection for Rakocevic, tied for the third-most all-time by a Trojan, trailing only Harold Miner (7) and Wayne Carlander (4). In USC's 84-66 home win over South Dakota State on Nov. 12, Rakocevic matched a career high with 27 points and added 16 rebounds for a double-double. He hit a pair of free throws with just over eight minutes remaining in the game to reach 1,000 career points scored. He then scored 24 points and grabbed 11 rebounds in the Trojans' 76-66 win at Nevada on Nov. 16. Rakocevic made 10 of 15 shots to help USC hand Nevada just its fourth loss in its last 48 home games.

MATHEWS & RAKOCEVIC SHARING SENIOR SUCCESS - USC senior guard Jonah Mathews (1,092 career points) and senior forward Nick Rakocevic (1,086 career points) both surpassed 1,000 career points scored in the game vs. South Dakota State on Nov. 12. They became the 41st and 42nd Trojans to register 1,000 or more career points in a USC uniform and became the first pair of Trojans to accomplish the feat in the same game since Don Carfino and Purvis Miller vs. Oregon in 1980. Rakocevic also has 749 career rebounds which ranks 12th on USC's all-time list and 10th among active players. He now has 24 career double-doubles which ranks T-15th among active players. Mathews has made 199 career three-point baskets, sixth on USC's all-time list and 43rd among active players.

CHARTING MATHEWS & RAKOCEVIC:

Points		Rebounds		3-Point Baskets
31. Jaha Wilson	1,116	7. Derrick Dowell	806	1. Elijah Stewart	245
32. Bill Sharman	1,107	8. Roy Irvin	768	2. Bennie Boatwright	243
33. Ron Riley	1,105	9. Wayne Carlander	767	3. Lodrick Stewart	232
34. Gabe Pruitt	1,102	10. Jaha Wilson	763	4. Brandon Granville	218
35. Jonah Mathews	1,092	11. David Bluthenthal	755	5. Desmon Farmer	203
36. Nick Rakocevic	1,086	12. Nick Rakocevic	749	6. Jonah Mathews	199
37. Paul Westphal	1,085

THE "BIG O" MY -- Freshman forward Onyeka Okongwu scored 20 points, grabbed 13 rebounds and matched the school record with eight blocks in his collegiate debut vs. FAMU on Nov. 5. Okongwu also became the first USC freshman to post a double-double in his debut since Taj Gibson in 2006.

O'BANNON HAS HAND SURGERY -- USC guard Charles O'Bannon Jr. injured his hand in practice on Nov. 25 and had O.R.I.F. (Open Reduction Integral Fixation) surgery on the third metacarpal of his left hand on Nov. 27. He is expected to miss at least four weeks.

RAKOCEVIC NAMED TO PRESEASON WOODEN AWARD WATCH LIST -- Nick Rakocevic was one of 50 players named to the preseason Wooden Award Watch List on Nov. 5. The 50 student-athletes on the watch list are early front-runners for the Wooden Award All-American Team and the Most Outstanding Player Award, as voted upon in a preseason poll of national college basketball experts.

PAC-12 PRESEASON HONORS -- Senior forward Nick Rakocevic was named to the inaugural Pac-12 Preseason All-Conference team, announced at Pac-12 Media Day on Oct. 8 in San Francisco, Calif. Senior guard Jonah Mathews and freshman forward Isaiah Mobley were named honorable mention. USC was picked to finish fifth by Pac-12 media and received one of the 27 first-place votes.

USC PRESEASON ACTION -- USC defeated preseason No. 10 Villanova 72-61 in an exhibition game on Oct. 18 which benefited the California Fire Foundation. Senior transfer wing Daniel Utomi and freshman forward Onyeka Okongwu led USC with 15 points each, with Okongwu adding 10 rebounds for a double-double. The Trojans then experimented with different rotations and lineups and won its closed scrimmage against Santa Clara 72-68 on Oct. 26. USC was led by the freshmen five of Okongwu (17), Isaiah Mobley (14), Ethan Anderson (10), Kyle Sturdivant (8) and Max Agbonkpolo (7) who scored 56 of the team's 72 points.

WINNING WAYS -- USC won 87 games over the previous four season (2016-19), the winningest four-year stretch in school history. Included in that stretch was a school-record 26 wins during the 2017 season.

TROJANS EXCEL ON FOREIGN SUMMER TOUR -- The USC men's basketball team went on an 11-day foreign summer tour (Aug. 6-16) to Spain and France. The Trojans traveled to Barcelona, Spain, Cannes, France, Monaco and Paris, France. The Trojans spent three nights in Barcelona, Cannes and Paris and played a game in each city. USC went 3-0 on the trip, defeating a Spanish Select team 102-51 in Barcelona on Aug. 8, a French Select team 90-67 on Aug. 11 in Cannes and a Lithuania Select team 105-83 on Aug. 14 in Paris. USC made 52.3 percent of its shot on the trip and Onyeka Okongwu averaged 20.3 points and 10.7 rebounds, while Nick Rakocevic averaged 13.3 points and 11.0 rebounds per game. MOBLEY NAMED TO MALONE AWARD WATCH LIST -- USC freshman forward Isaiah Mobley is one of 20 athletes named to the 2020 Karl Malone Award Watch List, it was announced by the Basketball Hall of Fame on Oct. 17. Mobley is one of two freshman on the pre-season watch list for the Karl Malone Award. The annual award in its sixth year recognizes the top power forwards in Division I men's college basketball and is named after 2010 Hall of Famer and two-time NBA Most Valuable Player Karl Malone. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates. Mobley graduated in 2019 from Rancho Christian School in Temecula, Calif. where as a senior he averaged 22 points, 13 rebounds, four assists and three blocks. He helped lead Rancho Christian into the CIF State Open Division Championships. For more information on the 2020 Karl Malone Award and the latest updates, log onto www.hoophallawards.com and follow @hoophall and #MaloneAward on Twitter and Instagram. Starting Five Fan Voting presented by Dell Technologies will go live on Friday, October 18.

RAKOCEVIC NAMED TO THE ABDUL-JABBAR AWARD WATCH LIST -- USC senior Nick Rakocevic is one of 20 athletes named to the 2020 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Award Watch List, it was announced by the Basketball Hall of Fame on Oct. 18. The annual award in its sixth year recognizes the top centers in Division I men's college basketball and is named after 1995 Hall of Famer and three-time NCAA Champion Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates. Rakocevic enters his senior season ranked 15th on USC's all-time rebound list with 665 career rebounds and is 35 points away from 1,000 career points scored. Last season, he averaged 14.7 points and 9.3 rebounds in 33 games. He posted 15 double-doubles which ranked second among Pac-12 players and 23rd nationally. He ranked in the Pac-12's top 10 in six categories: scoring average (10th), rebounds (3rd, 308), field goal percentage (8th, 54.8 percent), blocked shots (5th, 47), offensive rebounds (1st, 109) and defensive rebounds (3rd, 199). Rakocevic was named honorable mention on the 2019 Pac-12 All-Conference team and is on the 2020 preseason first team All-Conference list. For more information on the 2020 Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and the latest updates, log onto www.hoophallawards.com and follow @hoophall and #KareemAward on Twitter and Instagram. Starting Five Fan Voting presented by Dell Technologies will go live on Friday, October 18.

USC GRADUATION RATES HIT ALL-TIME HIGH FOR 6TH YEAR IN A ROW -- The 2019 Graduation Success Rate of USC student-athletes hit an all-time high for the sixth consecutive year, this year reaching 90%, according to data released on Oct. 16 by the NCAA. The 2019 GSR measures how many student-athletes in the classes of 2009 through 2012 graduated within six years of their enrollment. That 90% figure is four percentage points higher than USC's 2018 mark. It also is 23 percentage points higher than it was when the NCAA first released GSR numbers in 2005. Eleven of the 19 USC sports whose data was tracked by the NCAA had a GSR this year above 90%, including seven with a perfect 100%: men's and women's tennis (both 100%), defending NCAA champion men's water polo (100%), women's lacrosse (100%), women's rowing (100%), women's soccer (100%), women's swimming (100%), women's water polo (95%), women's track and field (94%) and men's and women's volleyball (92%). Five other teams scored in the 80% range: men's track and field (88%), women's basketball (87%), men's golf (86%), men's swimming (84%) and football (82%). Nine USC teams either set or equaled all-time high GSR rates for their programs this year: the seven teams that scored 100%, plus men's volleyball and football. Football's rate, which is seven percentage points higher than 2018 and 27 percentage points better than its initial figure in 2005, was at a program high for the fourth consecutive year. Seventeen USC teams saw their scores either improve from last year or stay the same: men's basketball (+10 percentage points), women's golf (+10), men's water polo (+8), football (+7), men's golf (+6), women's track and field (+6), women's volleyball (+6), women's swimming (+4), men's swimming (+3), men's volleyball (+2), women's water polo (+2), women's basketball (+1), men's tennis (even), men's track and field (even), women's rowing (even), women's soccer (even) and women's tennis (even). "The continued increase of our graduation rates highlights our student-athletes' outstanding effort and performance in the classroom," said Dr. Denise Kwok, USC's director of Student-Athlete Academic Services. "These GSR figures are testament to the emphasis that USC places on academic success in the athletic department and the culture that has grown from that. We are thankful for the collaborative work among faculty, staff, coaches and the SAAS staff in the Stevens Academic Center that supports our student-athletes in their pursuit of academic and athletic excellence."

TROJANS SIGN No.1 RECRUIT MOBLEY - Evan Mobley, the No. 1 overall recruit in the 2019-20 men's basketball recruiting class, signed a National Letter of Intent (NLI) to play basketball for USC on Nov. 13. Mobley's signing marks the first time in program history that USC has signed the nation's No. 1-ranked recruit. Mobley, a 7-0, 210-pound forward, averaged 19.2 points, 10.4 rebounds and 4.7 blocks per game last season for Rancho Christian School in Temecula, Calif. Mobley was named the 2019 Gatorade California Player of the Year and is the consensus No. 1 recruit in the 2019-20 recruiting class, topping the list on ESPN.com, Rivals.com and 247Sports.com. Mobley has won gold medals representing USA Basketball at the 2019 FIBA U19 World Cup and the 2018 FIBA U17 World Cup. He was named as a participant for the 2019 USA Basketball Men's Junior National Team October minicamp and participated in the 2019 USA Men's Junior National Team Next Generation minicamp at the NCAA Men's Final Four. Mobley and current Trojans Onyeka Okongwu and Isaiah Mobley led the Compton Magic to the prestigious 2018 Adidas Gauntlet Championship before earning the "mythical AAU national championship" later that summer in Las Vegas, Nev.

USC'S 2019 FRESHMAN CLASS RANKED NO. 7 - USC's freshman class of Max Agbonkpolo, Ethan Anderson, Drake London, Isaiah Mobley, Onyeka Okongwu and Kyle Sturdivant was ranked No. 7 by 247Sports.com. Agbonkpolo led Santa Margarita Catholic to the CIF Southern Section Div. I title by scoring 23 points and hitting the game winner. He was ranked as the No. 5 prospect in California and No. 52 nationally by 247Sports. Anderson was the L.A. City Section Player of the Year and he led Fairfax High to the Open Division Championship. He ranked as the No. 4 point guard in California. London, at USC on a football scholarship as a wide receiver, was named to the CIF Southern Section Div. 4 first team as he averaged 29.2 points and 11.9 rebounds per game. Mobley was a 2019 McDonald's All-American and was ranked as the No. 1 recruit in California and No. 15 nationally. Okongwu was named California "Mr. Basketball" each of the last two years and was ranked No. 17 nationally by ESPN.com. Sturdivant was named the No. 6 player in the state of Georgia and the No. 12 point guard in the country by 247Sports.com.

USC TO THE NBA -- USC has seven former players that began the season on NBA rosters: Dewayne Dedmon (Sacramento), All-Star DeMar DeRozan (San Antonio), Taj Gibson (New York), De'Anthony Melton (Memphis), Chimezie Metu (San Antonio), Kevin Porter Jr. (Cleveland) and Nikola Vucevic (Orlando). Since the 2007 NBA Draft, USC has had six players selected in the first round, tied for 13th-most in the country. In addition, Jordan McLaughlin is signed to a two-way contract with Minnesota and made his NBA debut on Nov. 6. Also, Pe'Shon Howard is on Grand Rapids in the G-League, Curtis Washington on Maine in the G-League and Shaquwan Aaron and Bennie Boatwright are on the Memphis G-League roster. Nov. 5 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC outscored Florida A&M 53-25 in the second half to win its opener 77-48 at the Galen Center on Nov. 5. The Trojans' vaunted freshman class scored 53 of the team's 77 points, led by Onyeka Okongwu's 20. Okongwu also had 13 rebounds and tied a school record with 8 blocks. He also became the first USC freshman to post a double-double in his debut since Taj Gibson in 2006. USC's next two leading scorers were also freshman, Isaiah Mobley with 17 and Max Agbonkpolo with 10. Freshman point guard Ethan Anderson had 4 points and tied the USC freshman first-game record with seven assists. USC led 24-23 at halftime as it shot 33.3 percent from the field, while making just 1 of 8 3-pointers and 1 of 9 free throws. USC bounced back from the charity stripe in the second half, making 13 of 14. USC outscored FAMU 21-9 on fastbreak points and 50-32 on points in the paint. USC had 12 steals, matching the most it had in a game during the 2018-19 season. USC improved to 21-4 in its last 25 home openers.

Los Angeles, Calif.

Nick Rakocevic posted a double-double and he and fellow senior Jonah Mathews surpassed the 1,000 career points scored mark during USC's 84-66 win over South Dakota State at the Galen Center on Nov. 12. Rakocevic matched a career high with 27 points and added 16 rebounds for his 21st career double-double. Mathews made 3 3-pointers and finished with 14 points, scoring his 1,000th career point with a jumper at the 12:38 mark of the second half. Just under 4 minutes later, Rakocevic hit a pair of FTs to surpass 1,000 career points. USC led 38-31 at halftime and had its lead cut to one point twice in the second half, but the Trojans always answered the bell, finishing on a 24-10 run to close out the game. USC opened the game outscoring the Jackrabbits 26-10 over the first 13 minutes. USC had 12 steals and outscored SDSU 28-6 on points off turnovers. Onyeka Okongwu scored 12 points and had 8 rebounds to snap his double-double streak at 2 to begin his career. Fellow freshman Max Agbonkpolo hit 3 3-pointers to finish with 9 points.

Nov. 16 • Lawlor Events Center
Reno, Nev.

USC used a 42-10 advantage on points in the paint to win 76-66 at Nevada on Nov. 16. It was a nice start on the road for the Trojans who were coming off a 2-9 road campaign during the 2018-19 season. Nick Rakocevic led the way with a double-double of 24 points and 11 rebounds by making 10 of 15 shots. Daniel Utomi added 12 points and Elijah Weaver scored 11 for USC. Ethan Anderson scored 8 points and had 8 assists without a turnover to guide the attack. After Nevada took a 21-18 lead with 8:33 left in the first half, USC went on a 13-0 run over the next five minutes and never trailed again. Five different players scored during the run. Nevada stayed close by making 11 3-pointers, including 8 in the first half. USC led 40-35 at halftime, but turned up the defense in the second half, holding Nevada to 23.3 percent from the floor, including 18.8 percent from 3-point range. USC outrebounded Nevada 42-37. Nevada's Jazz Johnson led all scorers with 26 points, making 6 3-point baskets.

Onyeka Okongwu scored a career-high 33 points, Nick Rakocevic had 16 points and 11 rebounds, and USC rallied from an early pair of double-digit deficits to beat Pepperdine 91-84 at the Galen Center on Nov. 19. Okongwu went 17 for 21 from the free throw line, the most makes by a Trojan in a game at the Galen Center and third all-time by a Trojan. His 33 points were also the most by a USC freshman since O.J. Mayo scored 37 on March 1, 2008 (participation later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The previous freshman with more points in a game was Harold Miner with 34 on Feb. 15, 1990. Jonah Mathews added 16 points and Isaiah Mobley had 14, 11 in the second half. Pepperdine hit 3 consecutive 3-pointers to cut USC's lead to 81-78 with 2:14 remaining, but Okongwu and Rakocevic finished things off from there. Okongwu hit a pair of free throws before dunking on Rakocevic's alley-oop pass. Rakocevic got fouled and made a pair of free throws that put the Trojans back up by nine. The 5-0 start with all of the wins by 7 points or more is USC's first since accomplishing the feat the first 8 games of the 1963 season. Colbey Ross kept the Waves in the game by making 6 3-pointers and scoring 38 points, the most by an opponent in regulation at the Galen Center.

Orlando Invitational

USC held Fairfield to 27.0 percent shooting and won 54-47 in the first round of the Orlando Invitational on Nov. 28. Fairfield took the lead early in the game at 16-8 by making 4 of its first 5 3-point attempts, but the Trojans slowly found their footing and forged a 25-22 lead by halftime. USC led the rest of the way, opening up a 14 point lead at 50-36 with 7:23 remaining. The Trojans did not make a field goal the rest of the way, but hit 4 free throws to put the game away. The 27 percent shooting by Fairfield was the lowest by a USC opponent since holding CS Fullerton to 23.3 percent shooting on Nov. 10, 2017. Onyeka Okongwu and Jonah Mathews led USC with 14 points each and Elijah Weaver added 13. Weaver scored the first 8 points of the 2nd half with 2 3-pointers and a layup as USC opened up a 33-22 lead. USC outscored Fairfield 20-4 on fastbreak points and 24-6 on points in the paint. USC committed 15 turnovers which led to 13 Fairfield points. The 54 points were the fewest by USC in a game since losing 67-39 vs. Utah on Feb. 1, 2015. The 54 points were the fewest by USC in a win since defeating CSUF 53-49 on Nov. 25, 2014.

Orlando Invitational

Behind 51 points from Markus Howard, Marquette defeated USC 101-79 in a semifinal game at the Orlando Invitational on Nov. 29. Howard's 51 points were the most by a USC opponent since Gary Payton set the opponent record with 58 on Feb. 22, 1990. USC led early at 11-5, but Howard then went on a personal 11-0 run to give the Golden Eagles a 16-11 lead and USC trailed the rest of the way. USC trailed 57-36 at halftime as Marquette made 55.9 percent of its shots before the break, including 66.7 percent from 3-point range (10 of 15). USC made 39.4 percent of its first-half shots and was 0-for-4 from 3-point range. USC trailed 53-23 at one point in the first half, but outscored the Golden Eagles 13-4 to close the half and 9-2 to start the second half to cut the deficit to 14 at 59-45 three minutes into the second half. USC was able to cut the lead to 13 at one point, but Marquette didn't falter and went on to the 22-point win. Isaiah Mobley led 4 Trojans in double figures with 15 points and added 9 rebounds. Onyeka Okongwu and Elijah Weaver scored 12 points and Kyle Sturdivant added 11. Marquette outscored USC 42-9 from 3-point range, making 14 of 29 (48.3 percent). The game featured 58 total fouls and Okongwu, Mobley and Nick Rakocevic all fouled out. That was the most combined fouls in a USC game since 61 were called in the 3 OT game vs. Colorado on Jan. 29, 2015.

Orlando Invitational

USC claimed the third-place game at the Orlando Invitational with a 77-62 win over Harvard on Dec. 1. USC led for all but 31 seconds in the game and by as many as 25 points in the 2nd half, before settling in for the 15-point win. Both teams were hot from the floor in the 1st half with USC leading 52-43 by making 60 percent of its shots, while Harvard made 46.7 percent. USC turned up the defense in the 2nd half, holding Harvard to one FG in the first 11:53 of the 2nd half (1-for-17) and to 25.9 percent from the floor after the break. USC led 70-45 at that point and cruised to the victory. Onyeka Okongwu led USC with 27 points on 12 of 14 shooting and 14 rebounds to earn selection to the 5-man All-Tournament team. Quinton Adlesh made 4 of 6 three-pointers to finish with 12 points. Jonah Mathews also had 12 points and added 5 assists and 2 steals. Isaiah Mobley started and had 8 points, 11 rebounds and 2 blocks. Harvard made 8 of 17 3-pointers in the 1st half (47.1 percent) to stay close, but made only 2 of 10 (20 percent) in the 2nd half. Harvard's leading scorer Bryce Aiken had 10 points in the 1st half and was shutout in the 2nd half. USC tied season bests to date of 49.2 percent shooting from the floor and 50 percent from 3-point range (7 of 14).

Dec. 6 • Dickies Arena
Fort Worth, Texas

Nick Rakocevic tipped in a missed shot with 0.2 seconds remaining to give the Trojans an 80-78 win in the inaugural game at Dickies Arena in Fort Worth, Texas on Dec. 6. USC led most of the game, but after a layup by Kevin Samuel with 8 seconds remaining, the score was 78-all and Samuel had a FT attempt to put TCU ahead. He missed the FT which was rebounded by Rakocevic, who followed up Ethan Anderson's driving layup attempt to give the Trojans the win. USC led 47-34 at halftime and built the lead to 18 points early in the half before TCU began to chip away. USC led 78-69 with 1:21 remaining, but Onyeka Okongwu and Jonah Mathews missed the front end of 1-and-1s, then Okongwu missed a pair of FTs with 17 seconds remaining, leaving the score at 78-76 USC, setting up the dramatics. Okongwu did have 2 key blocks in the final 44 seconds and finished with 7 blocks and 13 points. Mathews led USC with 20 points and Rakocevic had a double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds. Anderson added 10 points and 8 assists. USC made 52.6 percent of its shots, its first game this season shooting over 50 percent from the floor. USC made 6 of 14 FTs in the second half (42.9 percent) and 14 of 24 for the game (58.3 percent).
