USC HEADS TO BAY AREA TO FACE STANFORD

• Trojans Look To Snap Two-Game Losing Streak •

TONIGHT'S GAME - The USC Trojans (13-11, 6-5) will play at the Stanford Cardinal (12-11, 5-6) at Maples Pavilion on Feb. 13 at 8 p.m. USC has lost his last two games, but has won 8 of its last 13 games.

BREAKING DOWN STANFORD - Stanford is coming off a 69-46 loss at Oregon on Feb. 10, following a three-game winning streak. Stanford is 7-2 at home this season. Sophomore forward KZ Okpala leads Stanford in scoring with a 17.4 points per game average. USC defeated Stanford 77-66 on Jan. 6 at the Galen Center to make it two consecutive wins over the Cardinal and now trails in the all-time series 125-126 (1 win by USC vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record 126-126). USC has lost its last four games at Stanford, including last season's heart-breaking 77-76 setback when Daejon Davis hit a 55-footer at the buzzer.

USC LOSES SECOND CONSECUTIVE HOME GAME - USC lost to Colorado 69-65 on Feb. 9 at the Galen Center in a tight game which neither team led by more than five points. The loss snapped a 50-game winning streak for USC when holding its opponents to under 70 points scored. The game was tied 65-all when Jonah Mathews hit a jumper in the paint with 1:49 remaining, but that would be USC's final points. CU took a two-point lead with 1:36 remaining when McKinley Wright hit a driving layup. Shaququan Aaron and Derryck Thornton missed three pointers sandwiched around a Wright missed three-pointer. USC was forced to foul D'Shawn Schwartz with 14 seconds remaining and he hit a pair of free throws for the final margin. Bennie Boatwright then missed on a long 3-pointer and the Buffaloes ran out the clock. Boatwright finished with a game-high 24 points and Aaron, with 13 points, was the only other Trojan in double-figures.

CALIFORNIA ON DECK - USC's next game will be at California (5-18, 0-11) on Feb. 16 at 5 p.m. The Golden Bears will host UCLA on Feb. 13 before hosting USC. Sophomore Justice Sueing leads California in scoring (14.9 ppg) and rebounding (6.0 rpg). USC defeated California 82-73 at the Galen Center to open Pac-12 play this season and has won its last three games against the Golden Bears. California leads the all-time series 136-125 (1 win vacated by USC due to NCAA penalty, original record 136-126). USC won 80-62 at California last season, snapping a five-game losing streak at Haas Pavilion.

RAKOCEVIC HAS BEEN DOUBLE TROUBLE - USC forward Nick Rakocevic posted his conference-leading 11th double-double with 25 points and 13 rebounds at Washington State on Feb. 2. He now has five games with 20 or more points and 10 or more rebounds, leading all Pac-12 players. He has scored at least 15 points in 14 games and has at least 8 rebounds in 17 games. Rakocevic is averaging 15.6 points and 9.7 rebounds per game. He currently ranks among the Pac-12's top 10 in six categories: rebounds (2nd), blocked shots (5th), scoring average (10th), field goal percentage (9th), offensive rebounds (2nd) and defensive rebounds (3rd).

MATHEWS LONG-RANGE STREAK SNAPPED - Junior Jonah Mathews was in foul trouble early and finished 0-for-3 from three-point range vs. Colorado on Feb. 9. It was his first game all season without making a three-pointer and snapped a streak of 28 consecutive games with at least one make from beyond the arc. Mathews had made at least two three-point baskets in each of the previous eight games. He leads USC with 57 three-point baskets made this season, connecting at a 41.6 percent clip. He has made 36 of 78 three-point attempts (46.2 percent) in the last 13 games. His 57 makes from beyond the arc are second in the Pac-12. Mathews now has 157 career three-point baskets made which ranks 11th on USC's all-time list, 6 behind Elias Ayuso who is 10th with 163. Mathews made a season-best 6 three-pointers (out of 7 attempts) at WSU on Feb. 2.

RECORD-SETTING STRETCH - USC has won 84 games during the last four seasons (2016-19), the most wins in a four-year stretch in school history. The 2006-09 teams won 85 games, but 21 wins were vacated from the 2008 season due to NCAA penalty.

ALL ABOUT ENFIELD -- Andy Enfield, 49, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and has quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. His arrival on campus created a buzz around the program and the results have come immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins over a two-year and three-year period over the last three seasons. He guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons, the first time for USC since 2007-09, all while his athletes have set the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in five consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2018 class ranking No. 15. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since tying for second in 2002 and its first outright second-place finish since 1992. USC reached the Pac-12 Tournament final for the first time since winning it in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. He now has an 106-87 record in his six seasons as the USC head coach and is 147-115 in eight seasons as a head coach. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in a 2017 First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, with impressive wins at New Mexico and Boston College, as well as Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, Jacobs ultimately becoming an All-Conference player. Enfield captivated the nation during the 2013 season as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet 16 with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCU's high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks. In Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons - its first two playing at the Division I level. FGCU had a 41-28 record in his two seasons as head coach (2011-12, 2012-13), equaling the win total of the program the previous four seasons. Prior to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 2011. FSU posted four 20-win seasons during his time on the staff and won 31 ACC games, the second-most in the conference behind Duke. In 2011 and 2012, FSU became the first program since Georgetown (1991-92) to lead the nation in defensive field goal percentage two straight seasons. He began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for Milwaukee (1995, 1996). Then he was an assistant coach with Boston for two seasons (1999, 2000). Enfield played four seasons (1988-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 points. He also set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record of 92.5 percent, making 431-of-466 free throws. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

FACING THE BEST -- The USC men's basketball team is once again taking on an ambitious nonconference schedule for the 2018-19 season, highlighted by a home games against Vanderbilt and Nevada and neutral site games against Texas Tech, Oklahoma and TCU. USC's nonconference schedule will feature six potential games against teams which made the postseason last year, including a possible two games against 2018 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 teams. Also, USC will play 11 games against Pac-12 foes which competed in the postseason a year ago.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station once again will be ESPNLA 710 Radio with Jordan Moore calling the action. Moore, a USC graduate, is in his fifth season of working on USC broadcasts, first as the play-by-play man.

2018-19 PAC-12 PREDICTIONS -- USC was picked to finish 5th in the 2018-19 Pac-12 preseason poll by league media. The rest of the predictions went as follows: 1.) Oregon (288), 2.) UCLA (264), 3.) Washington (249), 4.) Arizona (205), 5.) USC (203), 6.) Arizona State (165), 7.) Colorado (161), 8.) Utah (122), 9.) Stanford (109), 10.) Oregon State (102), 11.) California (45) and 12.) Washington State (37). USC was picked seventh prior to the 2017-18 season and finished second in the conference.

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,598-1,200* in its 113 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 79 of the first 112 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 146-67 in 13 seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 79-21 in nonconference games at the Galen Center. USC is 41-7 in home nonconference games with Enfield as the head coach, including 29-4 in its last 33 regular season nonconference home games.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY -- The USC men's basketball team tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or ventured out into the community for an event over the last several years. One of their biggest involvements the past two years has been with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk, along with Director of Scouting Martin Bahar to raise money in the name of his sister Maddie who died from the disease in 2009.

* 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record: 1,619-1,199.

The Trojans have 6 players from California, 2 from Florida and Washington and one from Illinois.

THE MAGIC MARKER - With the 69-65 loss to Colorado on Feb. 9, USC had its 50-game winning streak snapped when holding its opponent to under 70 points scored. USC's previous loss when the opponent scored under 70 points was a 64-59 setback at Arizona State on Feb. 22, 2015.

DISTRIBUTING THE ROCK - USC has averaged 19.8 assists in its wins and 11.7 assists in its losses. USC leads Pac-12 teams with 387 assists. Derryck Thornton leads USC and is second in the conference with 110 assists. USC's 1.3 assist to turnover ratio is tops in the Pac-12. USC is 12-0 this season when it has 16 or more assists. USC ranks 27th in the country in assists per game (16.1).

REBOUND, REBOUND, REBOUND - Nick Rakocevic (12), Bennie Boatwright (12) & Shaquan Aaron (career-high 10) became just the second Trojan trio with 10 or more rebounds in the same game in the last 27 seasons when they accomplished the feat vs. Arizona on Jan. 24. Last season, Boatwright, Rakocevic and Chimezie Metu did it vs. Santa Clara on Dec. 14, 2017, but prior to that, it hadn't happened since the 1992 season.

A WIN FOR THE BENCH - USC outscored Arizona 17-16 in bench points, the only game in Pac-12 play the Trojans outscored its opponent. Through 11 conference games, USC has been outscored 236-92 in bench points.

MOBLEY NAMED A 2019 McDONALD'S ALL-AMERICAN - Incoming USC freshman Isaiah Mobley was named a 2019 McDonald's All-American on Jan. 24. Mobley, a 6-foot-10, 230-lb. forward out of Rancho Christian HS in Temecula, Calif., will play in the 42nd annual McDonald's All-American Game on March 27 in Atlanta. He is averaging 22 points, 13 rebounds, 4 assists and 2 blocks per game as a senior at Rancho Christian. Mobley was ranked the No. 1 recruit in the state of California when he signed his letter of intent to play at USC in November and was the only Californian selected to play in this year's McDonald's All-American Game. Mobley was also named the MVP of the Pangos All-American Game, the Jumpman Best of the West Game, the JB Showcase, the BattleZONE and the NBPA Top 100 Cam

He began the season with three consecutive double-doubles before getting 9 points and 9 rebounds vs. Texas Tech on Nov. 19, snapping a streak of five consecutive double-doubles dating back to last season. He became the first USC player to record three double-doubles to start a season since Sam Clancy did it to start the 2001-02 season. THE WINNING WAYS - USC had 71 wins during the previous three seasons, the winningest three-season stretch in school history.

CLIMBING THE CONFERENCE LADDER - USC is one of two schools (Bucknell) to increase its conference win total in each of the last four seasons. In fact, USC is one of just 13 schools (1 of 2 in Power 5 Conferences) to increase its conference win total in each of the past three seasons. USC had two Pac-12 wins in 2014 and finished 12th in the conference. Since then, in 2015 USC won three games (12th), in 2016 it won nine games (T-6th), in 2017 it won 10 games (T-5th) and in 2018 it won 12 games (2nd).

DEROZAN BREAKS USC NBA SCORING RECORD - When DeMar DeRozan (USC, 2009) scored 30 points in the San Antonio Spurs' 111-103 win vs. Denver on Dec. 26, he became USC's all-time leading scorer in the NBA with 14,112 career points. He passed Gus Williams who is now second with 14,093 career points and the rest of the impressive top five is Paul Westphall (3rd, 12,809), Bill Sharman (4th, 12,665) and Cliff Robinson (5th, 10,823). DeRozan scored 485 points (13.9 per game) in his one season (2008-09) at USC, helping lead the team to a 22-13 record. That team defeated ASU and James Harden 66-63 to win the Pac-12 Tournament title with DeRozan earning MVP, and then reached the NCAA Tournament second round.

PORTER JR. RETURNS - Freshman guard Kevin Porter Jr. has played the last six games, his longest consecutive games played streak of the season. He was suspended for conduct issues and missed the game at Oregon on Jan. 13 and at home vs. UCLA on Jan. 19, after returning to action on Jan. 10 at Oregon State. He had missed all but four minutes of the previous 10 games with a right quadriceps contusion. Porter Jr. came off the bench to score five points, grab four rebounds and dish out two assists at Oregon State and then had 14 points and made three 3-pointers vs. Arizona in his "second return." Porter Jr. originally suffered the quadriceps injury in the game against Missouri State on Nov. 20. Porter Jr. scored 15 points in his collegiate debut on Nov. 6 vs. RMU, the most points by a Trojan freshman since Jordan McLaughlin scored 19 points in his first game in 2014. He made his first career start vs. Stetson on Nov. 14 and scored 12 points. Porter Jr. was the only Trojan to score in double figures in the five games this season.

He earned his first career Pac-12 Player of the Week honor on Jan. 7. Rakocevic scored 21 points and grabbed 12 rebounds in USC's 80-67 home win over UCLA. He made 75 percent of his shots (9-for-12) and matched a career high with four assists. It was his eighth double-double of the season and 13th of his career. Rakocevic scored 15 of his points, had nine rebounds and all four assists in the second half when USC turned a 36-33 halftime lead into a comfortable victory.

MISSING PIECES - USC has yet to have a full allotment of players since it began practice during the summer. Nick Rakocevic matched a career high with 27 points and USC defeated Arizona 80-57 at the Galen Center on Jan. 24. Rakocevic added 12 rebounds for his 9th double-double of the season. USC's 23-point win was its largest over Arizona since winning by 24 points during the 1974 season and snapped a 5-game losing streak to the Wildcats. USC held Arizona to 27.8 percent shooting, the lowest by a Trojan opponent since CSUF made 23.3 percent of its shots on Nov. 10, 2017. Bennie Boatwright also had a double-double with 12 points and 12 rebounds, matching his career rebound best. Shaquwan Aaron had a career-best 10 rebounds, 5 assists and 5 points. Rakocevic, Boatwright & Aaron became just the second Trojan trio with 10 or more rebounds in the same game in the last 27 seasons (the other Dec. 14, 2017 vs. Santa Clara: Boatwright, Rakocevic & Metu). Kevin Porter Jr., after missing the last 2 games due to suspension and 9 of the previous 11 with injury, scored 14 points on 4 of 7 shooting, 3 of 4 from 3-point range. USC led 36-19 at halftime after Derryck Thornton banked in a long three-pointer at the buzzer. USC won its 39th consecutive game when holding the opposition to 70 or less points.

Bennie Boatwright nailed a 3-pointer from just to the right of the top of the key with 11.1 seconds remaining to propel USC to a 69-67 win over Arizona State on Jan. 26. USC had led 62-57 with 6:30 remaining, when ASU's Remy Martin went to work, hitting a pair of FTs and then back-to-back 3-pointers to give the Sun Devils a 65-62 lead. USC re-took the lead 66-65 on a layup and then a pair of FTs by Nick Rakocevic at the 1:46 mark. Eleven seconds later Rakocevic tried to draw a charge on Luquenz Dort and picked up his 5th foul. Dort hit both FTs and after 2 misses by USC and a turnover and missed FT by ASU, Boatwright's heroics were set up. USC trailed 38-35 at halftime, but came out on a 17-6 run after halftime to open up its biggest lead of the game at 52-44 with 13:30 remaining. USC kept its lead until Martin's second straight 3-pointer gave ASU its 65-62 lead. USC held ASU to 26.7 percent shooting in the second half and 30.8 percent overall. ASU outrebounded USC 49-35 and outscored it 22-8 on fastbreak points. Boatwright led USC with 17 points and Rakocevic added 15 points and 9 rebounds. Shaquwan Aaron kept the Trojans close in the first half by going 3-for-3 from 3-point range and scoring 11 of his 13 points.
