THIS WEEK

The top-ranked Women of Troy host No. 2 Stanford as the Trojans look to extend their overall win streak to 37 and their stretch of wins over the Cardinal to five in a row. USC (20-0, 2-0 MPSF) are set to square off against Stanford (14-1, 2-0) at 2 p.m. on Saturday (March 30) at Uytengsu Aquatics Center.

USC IN THE RANKINGS

USC kicked off 2019 ranked No. 1 in the national preseason poll and selected at No. 1 in the MPSF preseason poll. As of the Week 11 rankings, the Trojans remain at No. 1 in the land.

SCOUTING STANFORD

The No. 2 Cardinal is 14-1 overall and 2-0 in MPSF action after a 20-7 win over Harvard and a 16-7 win over UC Irvine last week. Makenzie Fischer leads Stanford and the MPSF with 51 goals to date. In goal, Emalia Eichelberger and Thea Walsh have shared time, with Eichelberger averaging 9.1 saves and 6.6 goals-against per game, while Walsh averages 6.2 saves and 5.2 goals-against. In a series dating back to 1996, USC is 36-35 all-time against the Cardinal with wins in the last four meetings. The Trojans beat the Cardinal 10-8 last month in the championship game at the Barbara Kalbus Invitational – the first meeting between USC and Stanford since Trojans won the 2018 NCAA Championship in a 5-4 decision in Los Angeles.

LAST ACTION

USC made a strong statement in turning a tight game into a decisive Trojan victory on the road in its most recent action on March 16. USC shut down No. 5 host in the second period, silencing the Rainbow Wahine for a full 14 minutes while the Trojans peeled out ahead. Behind five goals from Maud Megens and nine saves from Amanda Longan, USC pinned up a key 12-8 final victory over Hawai'i to keep USC's undefeated season very much alive. The Trojans are now 20-0 overall on the year and are riding a 36-game win streak that dates back to last year's NCAA Championship run. Hawai'i struck first with a blast out of set, but USC shrugged off the early deficit and fired back with three straight scores to get into the lead. Paige Hauschild locked things up with a counterattack finish, and then Grace Tehaney laced in the go-ahead goal less than a minute later. A Tehaney takeaway led to USC's next blast – another Hauschild ripper to make it 3-1 Trojans at 2:20 in the first. The hosts got a lucky bounce and was there for a putaway at the post off the rebound, and it was 3-2 at the end of the first. In the next stretch, USC made its statement. The Trojans poured out seven straight goals – pitching a shutout in the second period – as Maud Megens rattled the back of the net five times during the Trojan rally. Freshman Alejandra Aznar plugged in her first during the surge, with fellow freshman Tilly Kearns also punching up a goal to help carry USC to a 10-2 lead with 2:28 on the clock in the third. Hawai'i would stop the run, but Kearns nabbed a steal and hit fellow freshman Mireia Guiral for the finish to take the Trojans ahead 11-3. The hosts got a skip to go in the final minute, and it was 11-4 USC entering the fourth. There, Hawai'i was able to break through for four goals while Aznar hammered in her second goal of the night to help round things out as a final 12-8 USC victory.

BKI CHAMPS

USC stayed perfect on the year with a winning run to the 2019 Barbara Kalbus Invitational championship in late February. The Trojans opened up with a 13-5 win over San Diego State before wrapping group play with a 7-1 win over Arizona State. In the semifinals, USC had a tighter contest in a meeting with Cal, but the Trojans pulled out the 9-8 win to move into the title match. Up against Stanford in a rematch of last year's NCAA final, USC was again up to the test, making a late rally in the fourth and holding off the Cardinal for a 10-8 victory that kept the Trojans' win streak intact. After the winning run, USC locked up its second sweep of the MPSF's weekly honors as Maud Megens picked up her second MPSF Player of the Week award of the year and Bayley Weber had her first career selection as MPSF Newcomer of the Week on Feb. 26. Megens delivered six goals at the invite, with a hat trick in a 9-8 semifinal win over Cal and two goals in the 10-8 title match victory over Stanford. It was Megens' second MPSF Player of the Week pick this year and fourth overall. Freshman Weber scored four goals, including two in the semifinal win over Cal and one in the championship victory over Stanford at the Barbara Kalbus Invitational. A force on the defensive end as well, Weber got a key steal early against Cal and took it the other way for an early USC lead in the semis. It's Weber's first career award as a Trojan.

2019 UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WOMEN'S WATER POLO

THREE SWEEPS WEEKS

(Say that 10 times fast!) In 11 weeks of work, USC has compiled four MPSF Player of the Week selections and four MPSF Newcomer of the Week honors. Three times, the Trojans have swept the weekly awards. Junior Maud Megens has laid claim to three Player of the Week picks, while freshmen Alejandra Aznar and Bayley Weber have nabbed two Newcomer of the Week selections apiece. Senior goalie Amanda Longan has secured one MPSF Player of the Week award this year.

CLIMB ON

As the 2019 season chugs along, the Trojans already have players climbing the career charts. With her fifth goal at the UCSB Winter Invitational, junior Maud Megens tallied her 100th career goal as a Trojan on Jan. 18. Megens now ranks No. 12 all-time at USC in scoring with 146 career goals. On the defensive end, senior goalie Amanda Longan entered her senior season ranked No. 3 all-time at USC in career saves. She'd haul in a career-high 19 saves in USC's season opener to tally the second most single-game saves by a Trojan. The next week, she collected her fourth career complete-game shutout. The senior now grips 736 career saves – still a bit of a stretch away from the No. 2 all-time tally of 838 held by Longan's fellow Cutino-winning goalie Bernice Orwig. Also on the rise in the career charts are Paige Hauschild and Denise Mammolito, who are both nearing the century mark with 98 and 93 goals, respectively, to date.

BY THE NUMBERS

Now 20 games into 2019, USC has outscored opponents 294-78. Junior Maud Megens is the Trojans' top scorer to date with 51 goals. Behind her on the 2019 scoresheet sits sophomore Paige Hauschild with 30 goals and true freshman Alejandra Aznar and with 28. They're followed by freshmen Bayley Weber (24) and Tilly Kearns (24) and juniors Denise Mammolito (22) and Kelsey McIntosh (20), while freshman Mireia Guiral is also now in the 20-goal zone. On the defensive end, two goalies have checked into the cage to date. Senior Amanda Longan has logged minutes in 17 games, averaging 11.0 saves and 3.9 goals-against per game. She also boasts the second most single-game saves by a Trojan, having made a career-high 19 stops vs. Cal Baptist on Jan. 19. In all this year, Longan has recorded eight outings with double-digit saves. Redshirt sophomore Holly Parker has stepped in in 10 games, averaging 8.0 saves and 4.0 goals-against per game to date while also claiming a career-high 10-save day. The Trojan defense has rendered opponents silent in at least one period of play in 16 games while accumulating a grand total of 34 shutout periods this season so far, including back-to-back complete-game shutouts. Overall, USC is averaging 14.7 goals per game on the offensive end and is allowing just 3.9 goals-against per game defensively. The Trojan defense leads the MPSF.

BACK-TO-BACK BATTLE

For almost a decade now, there's been a fierce title tug-of-war between two teams. The claim to the NCAA women's water polo championship has gone to either USC or Stanford for the past nine seasons. For every tug in the Trojan direction – there's been four titles won by USC in that stretch – the Cardinal have grabbed ahold the next year. At the end of the line this season is a chance for the USC women to do what they've never done before – to claim back-to-back national championships.

ON YOUR LEFT

A spring addition to the Trojan roster, Alejandra Aznar's presence bumps USC's set of left-handed shooters to four, with fellow freshman Grace Tehaney also wielding a deft left hand, while returning lefties Verica Bakoc and Sabrina Garabet are already proven sharpshooters. USC's lefties have combined for 60 goals – 20 percent of the Trojans' team total.

SET DEPTH

USC has also brought in reinforcements at 2-meters. The Trojans now have three true centers at the ready in newcomers Mireia Guiral and Tilly Kearns and sophomore Nina Ceklic. Courtney Fahey and Kaylee Brownsberger also were in the mix at set last year. Freshmen Guiral and Kearns have tag-teamed a 2-meter for a combined 44 goals to date.

PERIMETER POWER

A powerful presence at set can open up the perimeter, where USC's top guns are ready to strike. Paige Hauschild was USC's top scorer last year, followed by Denise Mammolito, who is now a junior. Fellow junior Maud Megens also is back, standing out as one of the most dangerous scorers in the world. That trio alone has combined for more than a third of USC's goal scoring to date.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

Cutino Award winner Amanda Longan looms large as arguably the best goalie in collegiate waters. She has two rising proteges alongside her in redshirt sophomore Holly Parker. That duo backs up what is becoming a strong defensive corps, where Paige Hauschild has already proven herself as a relentless defender. So, too, do freshmen Bayley Weber and Mireia Guiral stand to make a defensive impact alongside returning defensive-savvy Trojans Randi Reinhardt and Denise Mammolito.

SEASON OPENER

Against Cal Baptist in the Trojans' 2019 season opener, USC tacked up the first five goals of the game – all from the hands of newcomers. The first goal of the year came from Mireia Guiral, whose fellow Spaniard Alejandra Aznar drilled three goals in that 5-0 start. Fellow freshman Grace Tehaney also got to the back of the net in that surge before another freshman – Bayley Weber scored her first of a first-period hat trick to help USC along to a 10-2 lead after eight minutes of action. That 10th goal was also served up by a fresh face in Tilly Kearns, while the final two of the day came from new Trojans as well. Freshmen Sophia Lucas and Claire Haas would tally their first career USC goals in their first appearances in Cardinal and Gold to get in on the winning start to 2019. Aznar finished up with five goals to lead the pack, while junior Maud Megens plugged in four. Freshmen Tehaney and Weber had a hat trick apiece in that opening win over Cal Baptist.

2019 TROJANS AT A GLANCE

The 2019 Trojans opened the season picked No. 1 in the MPSF Preseason Poll and No. 1 in the nation. In USC's arsenal for 2019 are the MPSF Player and Newcomer of the Year in Amanda Longan and Paige Hauschild. Both Longan and Hauschild were First Team All-Americans, while Longan also reigned supreme as the Peter J. Cutino Award winner. USC also boasts two more All-Americans in juniors Denise Mammolito and Maud Megens, who further highlight a grand total of 11 returning Trojans who were on the NCAA Championship-winning roster in 2018. Gone are three All-Americans who took with them two NCAA championship rings in Brianna Daboub, Victória Chamorro and Hayley McKelvey. But USC has added three new international players, along with a set of talented California products who stand out in the Trojan freshman class. Australian import Tilly Kearns is joined by Spaniards Alejandra Aznar and Mireia Guiral as the newest Women of Troy. That trio along with U.S. Junior National Team members Grace Tehaney and Bayley Weber add a fresh depth charge to the USC gameplan. The 2019 Women of Troy are captained by seniors Longan and Courtney Fahey, who have been members of USC's 2016 and 2018 NCAA Championship teams.

It was the Trojans' second NCAA title in three years, and gave USC a final 26-1 overall record. It was head coach Jovan Vavic's 15th national championship as a head coach at USC, with six titles won by the USC women and nine by the USC men – all under Vavic's watch. USC had gone 5-0 in MPSF play and won the MPSF Tournament title along the way to get the top seed into the NCAA tourney. Junior goalie Amanda Longan and freshman Paige Hauschild were both named finalists for the Peter J. Cutino Award, with Longan emerging as the winner of the prestigious award to become the second USC goalie and the seventh Woman of Troy to win it. Both Longan and Hauschild earned First Team All-America honors, along with sophomore Maud Megens. Senior Brianna Daboub earned a spot on the All-America Second Team, with fellow senior Hayley McKelvey on the Third Team. Sophomore Denise Mammolito picked up All-America Honorable Mention. Longan was also the National Player of the Year, with Jovan Vavic named National Coach of the Year. •
