The previous most consecutive No. 1 rankings by the USC women's team in the USTFCCCA rankings of two weeks occurred in the 2018 season when it claimed the NCAA team title.

BRISSETT POSTS TOP 3 TIME IN THE WORLD - USC sophomore hurdler Chanel Brissett was named the Pac-12 Women's Track Athlete of the Week for the week of April 1-7 as she won the women's 100m hurdles with a then-world-leading time of 12.87 (+0.1) at the Jim Click Shootout on April 6. FREEMAN SETS USC FRESHMAN DISCUS RECORD - Freshman Karlee Freeman won the women's discus throw at the Triton Invitational on April 12 with a PR and USC freshman record of 179-5 (54.70m). Her throw moved her to fourth place on USC's all-time women's discus throw list. Her mark ranks third among Pac-12 throwers, 23rd overall nationally and is the top discus throw by a freshman this season.

FABULOUS FRESHMEN - Karlee Freeman isn't the only USC freshman making their mark in the early season. Omotade Ojora also has the top freshman 110m hurdles time, Sam VanDorpe is second in the 800m among freshman, Eric Allen Jr. is seventh among freshmen in the 100m dash and Ayden Owens is fifth in the 110m hurdles. Two-time NCAA high jump champion Randall Cunningham (2016 outdoors & 2018 indoors) returns from a broken left leg. Cunningham injured himself on his final attempt at the 2018 NCAA Indoor Championships after winning the title with his PR clearance of 7-6 (2.29m) which had tied the school indoor record. Hurdler Marquis Morris returns after missing last season with a fractured right clavicle suffered in a fall at the 2018 Trojan Invitational on March 17. Morris ranks 10th on USC's all-time 110m hurdles list with a time of 13.56. Matthew Katnik used the 2018 season as a redshirt year. He has an outdoor shot put PR of 62-9.50/19.14m) which ranks ninth on USC's all-time list. He competed indoors this season and finished seventh in the shot put with a mark of 64-7.25/19.69m at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Nicolaus Jakowec took two years off from the track and field team and returned during the indoor season to set the school indoor 3000m record with a time of 8:09.77. USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 129 men's and women's national championships. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (31) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s and World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez in the 2000s, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM IN GOOD HANDS WITH SMITH GILBERT - Caryl Smith Gilbert begins her sixth season as the Trojan Director of Track & Field and once again last season demonstrated that she is one of the premier track and field coaches in the country and that USC is one of the elite programs. Smith Gilbert earned her first national title by guiding the USC women's team to the 2018 NCAA Outdoor T&F Championship, the second in program history. The women claimed the crown with an epic come-from-behind victory in the 4x400m relay, the meet's final event. The men's team had a historic final day with Michael Norman and Rai Benjamin combining to set three collegiate records en route to a fourth place team finish. This was the culmination of an extremely successful season which also saw the men's team take second and the women' seventh at the 2018 NCAA Indoor Championships, the women's team winning the Pac-12 title and the men taking third and both teams winning the MPSF indoor conference team titles. The women's teams have scored 173 points at the NCAA Championships in her first five seasons as the program leader, the most points in a five-year stretch since scoring 212 points during the 2000-04 seasons. USC's teams garnered 22 All-America honors, and combined indoors and outdoors to set 10 school records and six USC freshman records, running the total to 29 freshman records (20 indoor and 9 outdoor) and 46 school records (29 indoors and 17 outdoor) under her leadership. Smith Gilbert was named the 2018 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) National Women's Coach of the Year, Pac-12 Women's Coach of the Year and MPSF Men's & Women's Coach of the Year. Nine Trojans were named USTFCCCA All-Academic and the women's team was named 2018 outdoor National Scholar Team of the Year. In addition 19 Trojans were named to Pac-12 All-Academic teams, bringing the total to 73 in her first five seasons leading the program. In addition she has guided the men's team to the 2016 and 2018 MPSF indoor conference title and the women's team to the team titles in 2019, 2018, 2017, 2015 and 2014. Smith Gilbert was named the 2015 Pac-12 Men's & Women's Coach of the Year, the first woman to win the Men's Coach of the Year honor. She has also been named the 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018 and 2019 MPSF Women's Coach of the Year and the 2016 and 2018 Men's Coach of the Year, the 2014, 2015 and 2019 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Indoor Coach of the Year and the 2016 USTFCCCA West Region Men's Coach of the Year and the 2014 and 2018 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Outdoor Coach of the Year. She also was named the national USTFCCCA Women's Coach of the Year in 2018, after she led the Trojans to the team title, the second in program history. She was named the USC Director of Track & Field on June 17, 2013, following the retirement of Ron Allice who guided the program for 19 seasons. Smith Gilbert was a six-time Conference USA Coach of the Year at Central Florida and guided them to a program-best fifthplace finish at the 2013 NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. Also in her six seasons at UCF, her athletes were named All-Americans more than 100 times and set more than 100 school records. Her team won four-straight Conference-USA titles (2010-13), the most in conference history. UCF's fifth-place finish in 2013 was the best finish by a non-BCS school since 2000. Smith Gilbert went to UCF after five seasons (2003-07) as an assistant coach at Tennessee and three as an assistant coach at Alabama (2000-03).

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2016 Rio Olympics, 9 golds, 5 silvers and 7 bronze, after earning 25 medals at the 2012 London Olympics. The success in Rio kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals and continuing its streak of having won a gold medal at every Summer Olympics since 1912. Nine of the medals earned by Trojans at the Rio Olympics were won by USC track and field athletes, the most by Trojan tracksters in a single Olympics. USC track and field athletes have claimed 49 gold medals in Olympic competitions. Forty-four current, former and incoming USC students competed in Rio, the most of any U.S. university. It was the fifth consecutive Summer Games that USC has had at least 40 Olympians. In Rio, those Trojans competed in 9 sports and represented 21 countries. Twenty-five of USC's Rio Olympians were women, 29 were competing in their first Games and 9 were current or incoming student-athletes. In reflecting on USC's success over the years at the Olympics, it is amazing to note that a Trojan athlete has won at least one gold medal in every track and field event except the 800m, 1500m, 5000m, 10000m, steeplechase, triple jump and javelin.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Caryl Smith Gilbert has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Well decorated throws coach Dan Lange is one of the top assistants in the country and is joined on staff by former Georgetown head coach Patrick Henner (distances), Carjay Lyles (jumps and multis), Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts (sprints and long hurdles) and Skyler Willis (hurdles and sprints).

USC WOMEN 2ND, MEN 17TH AT 2019 NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - Chanel Brissett in the 60m hurdles, Kaelin Roberts in the 400m and TeeTee Terry in the 60m all won titles to help lead the USC women's team to a second-place finish, while Earnest Sears III placed fourth in the men's high jump to help lead the Trojan men's team to a 17th place finish at the 2019 NCAA Indoor T&F Championships being held at the Birmingham CrossPlex in Birmingham, Ala. on March 8-9. USC's women scored 51 points and the men's team scored 12 points in the two-day event. The USC women's three individual titles in the 17 events were more than any other school and only two other teams had two individual champions. The second-place finish for the women's team tied for its best finish ever at the NCAA Indoor Championships (T-2nd in 1986).

THE MAGICAL 2018 OUTDOOR SEASON - The USC women's track and field team won the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field title, the second in school history, with an epic come-from-behind victory in the 4x400m relay by .07 seconds, the meet's final event. Angie Annelus won the 200m title and Anna Cockrell placed second in the 400m hurdles to help key the Trojans' comeback. Also scoring individually for USC was TeeTee Terry in the 100m, Deanna Hill in the100m and 200m, Ellis in the 400m and Madisen Richards in the LJ. The men's team placed fourth at the Championships, it highest since tying for fourth in 2014 and the last time USC finished higher was third place in 2003. Michael Norman in the 400m, Rai Benjamin in the 400m hurdles and the 4x400m relay all set collegiate records. Also scoring for USC were Robert Ford in the 800m (7th) and Earnest Sears III in the HJ (7th).

T&F SPREADS THE LOVE ON VALENTINE'S DAY - To celebrate Valentine's Day, USC's track & field athletes Anna Cockrell and Nathan Bultman stopped by the Los Angeles Veterans Affairs Medical Center on Feb. 14 to spend time with U.S. veterans and make them feel the love. Alongside the Laker Girls and other local dignitaries, Cockrell and Bultman visited with hospitalized veterans, handing out trinkets and treats. The Trojans brought four dozen cardinal and gold colored roses, one rose for each veteran they met. While visiting hospital rooms, they met Greg Monroe, an Army vet who immediately recognized Bultman because he loves to watch to collegiate track & field on TV. They also spent time passing out roses in the outpatient room, where they met a USC alum named Bill Plyley, who played football until shipping off to the Navy. NORMAN WINS THE 2018 BOWERMAN - USC's Michael Norman was named The Bowerman winner at the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) convention in San Antonio, Texas on Dec. 20. The Bowerman is given out annually to the top men's and women's collegiate performer and is track and field's highest honor for a college athlete. Norman, from Murrieta, Calif., won the NCAA title in the 400m dash and as part of USC's winning 4x400m relay, with both setting collegiate records at the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Eugene, Ore. Norman helped lead the Trojans to a fourth-place finish as a team. Norman stormed around the track to victory in the 400m dash with a collegiate-record time of 43.61, breaking the record of 43.70 set by Fred Kerley in 2017. Norman's time also broke the NCAA finals record of 44.00 set by his coach Quincy Watts in 1992. He also bettered the Hayward Field record of 43.74 set by Michael Johnson in 1993. Norman's becomes the seventh best performer ever and the fastest American since Jeremy Wariner ran 43.45 in 2007. Norman and his teammates Ricky Morgan Jr., Rai Benjamin and Zach Shinnick closed out the men's championships by winning the 4x400m relay with a collegiate, NCAA meet, Hayward Field and school record time of 2:59.00. The previous NCAA record and NCAA championship record was 2:59.59 set by LSU in 2005. USC's previous school record in the men's 4x400m relay was 3:00.58 set in 1992. At the 2018 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships on March 10 in College Station, Texas, Norman won the 400m dash with a USC, collegiate, USA and World record-time of 44.52. He broke the previous world record of 44.57 set by Kerron Clement of USA in 2005. Then the 4x400m relay of Shinnick, Benjamin, Morgan Jr. and Norman shattered the world, collegiate and USC record with a winning time of 3:00.77. Norman turned pro on June 12 and remains at USC working to complete his undergraduate degree in Communication. His teammate Benjamin was also one of the three finalist for the award.

GETTING TO KNOW THE TROJANS - The USC program has been featuring a weekly "Getting to Know" feature on its website of some of the newest Trojan track and field athletes, starting on Oct. 9. To view the Q&A's with some of USC's new track talent, go to USCTrojans. com/track.
