CROSSEXAMINATION

- USC is ranked No. 14 in the IWLCA coaches poll; the 49th consecutive week that the Trojans are ranked in the poll.
- The Trojans' nine-game winning streak is a season long and the longest since a 12-game streak (March 26-May 14, 2017).
- The Women of Troy went 9-1 in the month of March.
- USC leads the Pac-12 in scoring defense (6.02 gaa).
- The Trojans are 42-10 all-time at McAlister Field and 44-12 in all-time home games including contests played at the LA Memorial Coliseum.
- No. 23 Colorado is the sixth ranked opponent the Trojans face this season. USC owns 19 all-time wins over ranked foes (19-27).
- Eight different Trojans have scored double-digit goals this season. Six of those players have scored 20 or more goals including team leader Kelsey Huff (30).
- Huff and fellow sophomore goalie Riley Herford were named for Pac-12 Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week honors respectively this week.
- Seventh-year head coach Lindsey Munday is 91-39 all-time (.700).

LOS ANGELES – No. 14 USC lacrosse (12-1, 7-0 Pac-12) looks to push its winning streak to double digits when No. 23 Colorado (5-5, 4-1) and Oregon (2-10, 0-5) visit McAlister Field this weekend. The Trojans' streak currently stands at nine straight games and is already the third longest in program history. One more win will make it only the third double-digit streak in school history as well. USC won 20 straight games in 2016 and had a 12-game win streak in 2017. Both previous times, the Trojans advanced to the NCAA quarterfinal.

The Trojans lead the Pac-12 and are 12th in the NCAA with a plus-5.50 margin of victory. USC also leads the conference in goals-against average (8.69 gaa), and goals per game (14.15 gpg). Eight Women of Troy have scored double-digit goals through 13 games including six over the 20-goal mark. Team leader Kelsey Huff has 35 points on 30 goals and five assists and is riding a streak of three consecutive hat tricks. Sophia Donovan has 35 points (24g, 11a). Hope Anhut has 34 points as the team's top distributor with 13 assists (21 goals). Emily Concialdi (20g, 11a) has 31 points. Huff also has 21 ground balls and 19 caused turnovers. Izzy McMahon also has 29 points (21g, 8a).

All-American Kerrigan Miller does a little of everything. She has 14 goals, 31 draw controls, 34 ground balls, and a team-high 23 caused turnovers. In goal, Riley Herford leads the league with an 8.86 goals-against average and tops all players with 3.46 ground balls per game. In the center circle, Jackie Gilbert has 72 draw controls and leads the league at 5.54 per game. She also has 19 caused turnovers and 18 ground balls. Seventh-year head coach Lindsey Munday (91-39) leads an experienced and battle-tested squad into a quest for a fourth NCAA berth.

SONI MCALISTER FIELD

Soni McAlister Field is the home of USC women's soccer and women's lacrosse. Thanks to a generous $150,000 donation from Hobart and Soni McAlister, a new field was built on the corner of 30th Street and Hoover Street in 1998. The field served as the home of USC soccer for 14 years before lacrosse was added as USC's 21st varsity sport in 2012. Trojan lacrosse played its first season in the spring of 2013, and hosted Massachusetts in their first game at the field on February 10.

In 2000, a permanent scoreboard was installed in the southwest corner of the field. In the summer of 2012, the field was moved eastward to accommodate the construction of a new fire station, which put the field's new entrance at 30th and University Avenue.

USC lacrosse is 40-10 (.800) all-time at McAlister Field. The Trojans went undefeated there in 2015 (7-0), 2016 (9-0), and 2017 (7-0). USC has also hosted one home game at the LA Memorial Coliseum in each of the program's first five seasons and is 4-2 in the historic venue.

USC HEAD COACH LINDSEY MUNDAY

One of the most accomplished collegiate women's lacrosse players in the history of the sport, Lindsey Munday was handpicked to lead the first-ever USC women's lacrosse team in 2012.

Munday was named the MPSF Coach of the Year in 2015 and 2016; and was the IWLCA's West/Midwest Regional Coach of the Year. She was also chosen as the ILWomen National Coach of the Year in 2016. As a player, she won a pair of NCAA titles with Northwestern in 2005 and 2006. She then became an assistant at NU and helped the Wildcats to three titles from 2007-09.

Munday is a two-time world champion (2009 and '13) with the U.S. women's national team. In 2009, she earned All-World recognition with 17 goals and 20 assists (37 points) in seven games and later captained the 2013 squad to a record seventh FIL World Cup title.

Munday is 91-39 (.700) overall at USC and guided the Trojans to three straight NCAA berths (2015-17), and back-to-back MPSF league titles (2016-17). In 2013, she led USC to a fourth-place MPSF finish with an appearance in the league tourney after the Trojans were picked to finish seventh.

As an assistant at Northwestern (2007-10) Munday was the recruiting coordinator and offensive coach. NU was 85-4 during her tenure and went 23-0 in 2009.

One of the greatest players in NU history, Munday was a Tewaaraton semifinalist in 2005 and 2006, and finished her career as the program's all-time leader in assists (128), third in points (268), and fifth in goals (140). She set single-season NU records for points (107) and assists (54) in 2005. The Wildcats were 64-12 and won the school's first-ever NCAA titles in the sport. She helped Northwestern become the first school outside the Eastern Time zone to win a national title and the first program to win consecutive NCAA championships.

Munday is a two-time first-team All-American (2005-06), All-Region, and All-American Lacrosse Conference selection. Munday received a bachelor's degree in communication from Northwestern in 2006.

SCOUTING REPORT

NO. 23 COLORADO: The Buffaloes (5-5, 4-1 Pac-12) hold second place in the league standings but are coming off a 9-7 loss to No. 15 Denver at home. All five of CU's losses are to ranked opponents including an 11-5 decision to USC on March 16 in Boulder. Miranda Stinson leads the Buffs with 35 goals and 10 assists (45 points). She also handles duties in the center circle with 35 draw controls. Her 15 caused turnovers also top all CU players and she is second on the team with 20 ground balls. In goal, Julia Lisella has a 48.8 save percentage but gives up just 9.67 goals per game. The Trojans are 6-2 all-time against the Buffs and 4-0 at home.

OREGON: The Ducks (2-10, 0-5 Pac-12) have lost eight straight coming into the weekend and got their only two wins over Mercer (13-6) in the season opener and Jacksonville (15-12) in the spring's fourth game. Shannon Williams leads Oregon with 51 points and tops all Ducks with 30 goals and 21 assists. Jamie Level has 41 draw controls followed by 29 by Madeline Reece who leads the team in ground balls with 25. In goal, Rachel Hall has a 50.2 save percentage and a 13.74 goals-against average as a freshman. The Trojans are 6-3 all-time against Oregon and are 2-1 in home games against the Ducks, including an overtime victory in 2018.

TRACK THE TROJANS: For a behind-the-scenes look, fans of USC lacrosse can follow the Trojans on Twitter and Instagram at @USCTrojansLax. USC will appear in four live Pac-12 Networks broadcasts this spring. Home games against Stanford (Mar. 25), Colorado (Apr. 5), and Oregon (Apr. 7); and a road game at Stanford (Mar. 31) will be shown on the Networks' national and regional channels. Pac-12 tournament games will also be carried on the network's channels. All non-broadcast league games will be shown on the Pac-12+ stream platform.

LAST TIME OUT: The Women of Troy extended their season-long winning streak to nine games with a pair of road victories over California (16-4) and Stanford (11-10). The 12-goal win over the Golden Bears was USC's third double-digit victory of the season (all by 12). The Trojans then went to overtime on The Farm for the second time in as many visits. This time, the Women of Troy staved off the Cardinal for an 11-10 victory on Kelsey Huff's game-winner in the second extra period. Huff scored four against Stanford and racked up her third straight hat-trick game. In goal, Riley Herford had eight saves and picked up eight ground balls. Both Huff and Herford were later named Pac-12 Players of the Week.

HOME, SWEET HOME: The Women of Troy are 44-12 all-time in home games and are 40-10 at McAlister Field. Between 2015 and 2018, the Trojans won 23 straight games on McAlister Field. Including two wins at the LA Memorial Coliseum, USC claimed 25 consecutive home victories during the impressive streak.

LET'S GET IT STARTED: USC improved to 4-3 all-time in season openers following its 15-10 win over Hofstra (Feb. 9). The Trojans started the year 3-0 before suffering a loss; the second-best start in school history. The program record for consecutive wins to open a season is 20 when USC blazed a trail into the 2016 NCAA quarterfinals with a 20-0 record. The Trojans are also 7-0 in all-time league openers (5-0 in the MPSF and 2-0 in the Pac-12).

FRESH RECORDS: In USC's game against Hofstra, freshman attacker Katie Ramsay became the first Trojan freshman to record a hat trick in her first collegiate game since 2013 (Maggie Mawhinney vs. Presbyterian; Feb. 13). She scored the first goal of the game, which marked only the third time that a freshman scored the Trojans' first goal of the season. Ramsay joined Kelsey Huff (2018 at Virginia Tech) and Amanda Johansen (2013 vs. Northwestern).

NET VALUE: Sophomore goalie Riley Herford's win on Feb. 9 vs. Hofstra marked just the second time that a USC netminder earned a victory in her first-career start. The other was Cassandra Collins (April 24, 2016) in her senior game start against UC Davis. Herford's then-career high 11 saves against Jacksonville (Feb. 24) made her just the third USC goalie to collect double-digit saves in a game.

ALL-AMERICAN GIRLS: USC has celebrated seven IWLCA All-America selections through six years as a program. Michaela Michael was the first-ever All-American selection as a third-teamer in 2015. Michael and defender Courtney Tarleton were each named to the first team in 2016, with midfielder Amanda Johansen chosen to the third team. Michael repeated her first-team honors in 2017 and defender Lydia Sutton earned third-team honors. Kerrigan Miller joined the ranks as a third-team choice in 2018.

PAC IT UP: 2019 is the second season of Pac-12 lacrosse. In 2018, the Conference of Champions made lacrosse the 13th women's sport sponsored by the Pac-12. The addition of Arizona State brought the league to the minimum six teams to receive an automatic qualifier berth into the NCAA championship. The first-ever Pac-12 Lacrosse Championship was held at Prentup Field; hosted by Colorado. Stanford claimed the first Pac-12 title and will defend its crown at the 2019 championship in Eugene, Ore. (April 25-28). Previously a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation, from the end of 2015 to the middle of the 2018 season, USC won a school-record 22 consecutive conference games. The Trojans were undefeated in the MPSF in 2016 (9-0) and 2017 (8-0). USC won the 2016 and 2017 MPSF championships. USC is 6-0 all-time in league openers and earned its first victory in a Pac-12 opener, 14-3, against Arizona State in 2018.

PAC-12 POW-WOW: Trojans own 10 Pac-12 Player of the Week awards. Five different Women of Troy have received the honor this spring. Emily Concialdi (Feb. 25), Sophia Donovan (Mar. 18), and Kelsey Huff (Apr. 1) were each named for the offensive award for the first times in their careers. Kerrigan Miller (Mar. 11) earned her second-career nod and became the first player in league history to receive both the defensive and offensive awards in her career. Riley Herford is USC's only repeat winner this season (Mar. 18, Apr. 1) and is the program's third player to receive multiple awards. Trojans swept the awards on both March 18 and April 1. Previously, All-Pac-12 goalie Gussie Johns was named for the Defensive Player of the Week award twice in 2018. All-American defender Lydia Sutton was also Defensive Player of the Week once.

POLL POSITION: The Trojans opened 2019 ranked No. 21 in the IWLCA Coaches' preseason poll. USC has spent 49 consecutive weeks ranked in the IWLCA poll dating back to the 2016 preseason poll. USC spent a school-record 26 straight weeks in the top 10 from March 21, 2016 through Feb. 19, 2018. The Trojans are 19-27 all-time against ranked opponents, which includes a 9-13 record against teams ranked in the top 10 and 2-10 against teams ranked among the top five.

EAST COAST BIAS: USC has played 26 games on the East Coast (in the Eastern time zone) and holds a 13-13 overall record in those games. The Trojans own wins over Dartmouth (2), Notre Dame (2), LIU Brooklyn, Marist, Stetson, Florida, Virginia Tech, and Boston University in true road games. USC defeated James Madison at a neutral location in the 2015 NCAA first round in Durham, N.C.; beat Ohio State in a game played in New Jersey; and took down Jacksonville in Gainesville, Fla., in the first round of the 2017 NCAA tournament.

SISTER SITUATION: Four pairs of sisters have suited up for the Trojans. The first duo was fraternal twins Glade and Shannon Nugent (2014-16). The Nugent sisters played in a total of 10 games together in three seasons. All-American Amanda Johansen (2013-16) was on the Trojans' inaugural team and graduated before younger sister Kelly Johansen joined the team for the 2017 season. The elder Johansen also served as one of Troy's assistant coaches in 2018. In the same year, midfielder Kaeli Huff was joined by sister Kelsey Huff. The Huffs comprise only the second sister pair to be on the same roster for the Trojans. All-MPSF attacker Gabby McMahon (2014-17) has departed but younger sister Izzy McMahon (Isabel) joined the Women of Troy in 2018 following her transfer from Army. The two McMahons are also the older sisters of Daniella McMahon, who is a junior at Pac-12 rival Stanford.

HAT TRICK MAGIC: Eight current Trojans are members of the program's hat-trick club. Junior midfielder Kerrigan Miller leads the group with 13-career hat tricks, which ranks sixth among USC's career leaders. Sophomore midfielder Kelsey Huff has 12 hat tricks and ranks seventh all-time at Troy. Junior midfielder Kaeli Huff has eight and ranks ninth. Junior attacker Izzy McMahon has seven hat tricks at USC including one in her Trojan debut. McMahon had two four-goal games while at Army. Senior attacker Emily Concialdi and sophomore attacker Sophia Donovan each have five-career hat-trick games. Junior attacker Hope Anhut and freshman attacker Katie Ramsay each have two. USC's all-time leader is Michaela Michael, who finished her career (2014-17) with 41 games of three goals or more.

STATE YOUR CASE: USC's roster is made up of players from 11 different states. In a bi-coastal battle, New York takes the edge with nine players from the Empire State on the 2019 Trojan squad. California is represented by seven Women of Troy. Four players hail from New Jersey, with two from Florida, Maryland, Oregon, and Pennsylvania. Connecticut, Georgia, Texas, and Virginia are each represented by one Trojan player.

POWER 100 PLAYERS: Freshman midfielders Erin Bakes and Katie Ramsay were each part of the ILWomen.com Power 100. Bakes was named the No. 2-ranked incoming freshman while Ramsay received the No. 47 rating. Frosh midfielder Nicole Macolino rounded out a trio of Trojans with her selection as one of 50 freshmen "On the Rise." Last year, Riley Herford (No. 12) and Kelsey Huff (No. 13) were ranked among the nation's top 15. In 2016, the Women of Troy landed the country's No. 1-rated recruit in Kerrigan Miller. In 2015, Jackie Gilbert was rated the No. 17 incoming recruit by the publication.

RED, WHITE, AND BLUE FOR TWO: All-American midfielder Kerrigan Miller was chosen as a member of the 2019 U.S. Lacrosse Women's Senior National Training Team along with former all-league goalie Gussie Johns. Miller has experience with the U19 team and helped Team USA take silver at the 2015 FIL Women's World Cup in Edinburgh, Scotland. Senior defender Jackie Gilbert was also a member of the 2015 U.S. U19 roster and has the distinction of being the first California native to be selected to a U.S. lacrosse national team.

She shoots and edits her own videos and has over 43,000 subscribers on YouTube with over 4.2 million video views. Her father Matthew appeared in the 1975 Universal Pictures film Jaws as an un-credited band member during the opening sequence depicting Amity Island. Also... she beat Old Mill.

#3 CHINESE SCHOOL: Midfielder Erin Bakes is proficient in Chinese. She chose Chinese as her foreign language in middle school and continued through high school. Bakes completed her AP (Advanced Placement) requirement and spent two weeks in China as an exchange student.

#4 AGGIE HILL: Attacker Ashley Hill's sister K.C. played attack for UC Davis in 2013. Hill's brother Christopher was an attacker for Navy's men's lacrosse team.

#5 PLAY IT AGAIN: Midfielder Emily Concialdi plays the ukulele and is quite the skier. She was named the Journal News Westchester/Putnam's 2014 Girls' Skier of the Year. Concialdi captured the New York Section 1 Girls Giant Slalom title and the Skimeister crown (for the lowest combined time for slalom and giant slalom) and finished in the top 10 in both downhill events at the state championships as a junior. She is the second-youngest of six siblings.

#6 BAND AID: Defender Jackie Gilbert used to play the drums and if she weren't playing lacrosse, she would be in the USC Trojan Marching Band, The Greatest Marching Band In The History Of The Universe.

#7 SISTER, SISTER: Midfielder Kelly Johansen is the younger sister of former USC All-American midfielder and Hofstra assistant coach Amanda Johansen. She wears the same number as the elder Johansen.

#9 BRAIN DRAIN: Defender Morgan Kuligowski is majoring in computational neuroscience and has done in-depth research into brain function through the use of artificial and augmented reality. She hopes to one day help improve the study of the brain through the use of emerging technologies.

#10 FORE SCORE: Midfielder Gabbi Klein was also a member of the girls' golf team at Monte Vista High School.

#12 SPEED DIAL: Defender Finley Ueland talks with her mother Lois before every practice and game. On different coasts, the time different works out because mom is usually in the car on the way to work right before Finley hits the field.

#18 GET INVOLVED: Defender Emily Shields is a member of the Trojan Athletic Senate and the Student Business Association.

#19 TOP OF THE CLASS: Midfielder Kerrigan Miller was the 2016 top-rated recruit according to Inside Lacrosse and was USC's first-ever No. 1 recruit. Miller, who is one of five siblings, comes from an athletic family. Her older sister MacKenzie played lacrosse at Belmont Abbey College and sister Delaney is on the snowboard team at East Carolina University.

#19 BROTHERLY LOVE: Midfielder Kerrigan Miller has a deep bond with her younger brother Sullivan. Affectionately called Sully, the younger Miller was born with down syndrome and has inspired his older sister's performance on the field.

#20 GRAND DESIGNS: Midfielder Katie Ramsay is a business major who aspires to a career where her passion for sports, art design, and commerce intersect.

#21 DRAWN TOGETHER: Attacker Chelsea Kovinsky is an entire country's length from home (Baltimore, Md.), but she is not alone. Older sister Hailey is a sophomore defender at San Diego State. The two met on the field on Feb. 22.

#22 HOOP IT UP: Attacker Izzy McMahon held a basketball scholarship at Army and came off the bench for the Knights in 26 games as a freshman (2015-16). She averaged 4.8 minutes per game and had 20 points, 12 assists, 11 rebounds.

#37 UNDER THE INFLUENCE: Midfielder Kaeli Huff has had a lot of familial sports figures to look up to. Father Scott played for and coached the New York Saints indoor lacrosse team. Her uncle, Steven Huff, played lacrosse at North Carolina and later for the Saints and Lizards. Another uncle, Kevin Huff, played football and lacrosse at Hofstra and played lacrosse for the N.Y. Saints. Her uncle, Keith Huff, played football at Hofstra; and her aunt Victoria Huff, played softball for North Carolina and professionally for the Carolina Diamondbacks. Huff's uncle Chris Engers was a member of 1992 USA Paralympic team that competed in Barcelona. Huff is also an active member of the Trojan Athletic Senate and the Student Business Association.
