WOMEN REACH UNCHARTED HIGH GROUND - The USC women's was ranked No. 1 in the country for four consecutive weeks (March 18-April 15) in the 2019 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) rankings, a program first. The previous most consecutive No. 1 rankings by the USC women's team in the USTFCCCA rankings of two weeks occurred in the 2018 season when it ended up winning the NCAA team title.

USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 129 men's and women's national championships. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (31) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s and World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez in the 2000s, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM IN GOOD HANDS WITH SMITH GILBERT - Caryl Smith Gilbert begins her sixth season as the Trojan Director of Track & Field and once again last season demonstrated that she is one of the premier track and field coaches in the country and that USC is one of the elite programs. Smith Gilbert earned her first national title by guiding the USC women's team to the 2018 NCAA Outdoor T&F Championship, the second in program history. The women claimed the crown with an epic come-from-behind victory in the 4x400m relay, the meet's final event. The men's team had a historic final day with Michael Norman and Rai Benjamin combining to set three collegiate records en route to a fourth place team finish. This was the culmination of an extremely successful season which also saw the men's team take second and the women' seventh at the 2018 NCAA Indoor Championships, the women's team winning the Pac-12 title and the men taking third and both teams winning the MPSF indoor conference team titles. The women's teams have scored 173 points at the NCAA Championships in her first five seasons as the program leader, the most points in a five-year stretch since scoring 212 points during the 2000-04 seasons. USC's teams garnered 22 All-America honors, and combined indoors and outdoors to set 10 school records and six USC freshman records, running the total to 29 freshman records (20 indoor and 9 outdoor) and 46 school records (29 indoors and 17 outdoor) under her leadership. Smith Gilbert was named the 2018 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) National Women's Coach of the Year, Pac-12 Women's Coach of the Year and MPSF Men's & Women's Coach of the Year. Nine Trojans were named USTFCCCA All-Academic and the women's team was named 2018 outdoor National Scholar Team of the Year. In addition 19 Trojans were named to Pac-12 All-Academic teams, bringing the total to 73 in her first five seasons leading the program. In addition she has guided the men's team to the 2016 and 2018 MPSF indoor conference title and the women's team to the team titles in 2019, 2018, 2017, 2015 and 2014. Smith Gilbert was named the 2015 Pac-12 Men's & Women's Coach of the Year, the first woman to win the Men's Coach of the Year honor. She has also been named the 2014, 2015, 2017, 2018 and 2019 MPSF Women's Coach of the Year and the 2016 and 2018 Men's Coach of the Year, the 2014, 2015 and 2019 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Indoor Coach of the Year and the 2016 USTFCCCA West Region Men's Coach of the Year and the 2014 and 2018 USTFCCCA West Region Women's Outdoor Coach of the Year. She also was named the national USTFCCCA Women's Coach of the Year in 2018, after she led the Trojans to the team title, the second in program history. She was named the USC Director of Track & Field on June 17, 2013, following the retirement of Ron Allice who guided the program for 19 seasons. Smith Gilbert was a six-time Conference USA Coach of the Year at Central Florida and guided them to a program-best fifthplace finish at the 2013 NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships. Also in her six seasons at UCF, her athletes were named All-Americans more than 100 times and set more than 100 school records. Her team won four-straight Conference-USA titles (2010-13), the most in conference history. UCF's fifth-place finish in 2013 was the best finish by a non-BCS school since 2000. Smith Gilbert went to UCF after five seasons (2003-07) as an assistant coach at Tennessee and three as an assistant coach at Alabama (2000-03).

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2016 Rio Olympics, 9 golds, 5 silvers and 7 bronze, after earning 25 medals at the 2012 London Olympics. The success in Rio kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals and continuing its streak of having won a gold medal at every Summer Olympics since 1912. Nine of the medals earned by Trojans at the Rio Olympics were won by USC track and field athletes, the most by Trojan tracksters in a single Olympics. USC track and field athletes have claimed 49 gold medals in Olympic competitions. Forty-four current, former and incoming USC students competed in Rio, the most of any U.S. university. It was the fifth consecutive Summer Games that USC has had at least 40 Olympians. In Rio, those Trojans competed in 9 sports and represented 21 countries. Twenty-five of USC's Rio Olympians were women, 29 were competing in their first Games and 9 were current or incoming student-athletes. In reflecting on USC's success over the years at the Olympics, it is amazing to note that a Trojan athlete has won at least one gold medal in every track and field event except the 800m, 1500m, 5000m, 10000m, steeplechase, triple jump and javelin.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Caryl Smith Gilbert has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Well decorated throws coach Dan Lange is one of the top assistants in the country and is joined on staff by former Georgetown head coach Patrick Henner (distances), Carjay Lyles (jumps and multis), Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts (sprints and long hurdles) and Skyler Willis (hurdles and sprints).

USC WOMEN 2ND, MEN 17TH AT 2019 NCAA INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS - Chanel Brissett in the 60m hurdles, Kaelin Roberts in the 400m and TeeTee Terry in the 60m all won titles to help lead the USC women's team to a second-place finish, while Earnest Sears III placed fourth in the men's high jump to help lead the Trojan men's team to a 17th place finish at the 2019 NCAA Indoor T&F Championships being held at the Birmingham CrossPlex in Birmingham, Ala. on March 8-9. USC's women scored 51 points and the men's team scored 12 points in the two-day event. The USC women's three individual titles in the 17 events were more than any other school and only two other teams had two individual champions. The second-place finish for the women's team tied for its best finish ever at the NCAA Indoor Championships (T-2nd in 1986).

THE MAGICAL 2018 OUTDOOR SEASON - The USC women's track and field team won the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field title, the second in school history, with an epic come-from-behind victory in the 4x400m relay by .07 seconds, the meet's final event. Angie Annelus won the 200m title and Anna Cockrell placed second in the 400m hurdles to help key the Trojans' comeback. Also scoring individually for USC was TeeTee Terry in the 100m, Deanna Hill in the100m and 200m, Ellis in the 400m and Madisen Richards in the LJ. The men's team placed fourth at the Championships, it highest since tying for fourth in 2014 and the last time USC finished higher was third place in 2003. Michael Norman in the 400m, Rai Benjamin in the 400m hurdles and the 4x400m relay all set collegiate records. Also scoring for USC were Robert Ford in the 800m (7th) and Earnest Sears III in the HJ (7th).

Jewett won the 400m at the Power 5 Trailblazer Challenge with a PR of 46.29 which ranks T-46th nationally. He opened up in the 800m on April 20 and won the Invitational race at the Mt. SAC Relays with a PR of 1:46.11, third on USC's all-time list and fourth this season among NCAA runners. Jewett won the Pac-12 800m title with a time of 1:49.25 on May 12.

That jump moved her into eighth place on USC's all-time women's triple jump list. She then won the TJ at the Power 5 Trailblazer Challenge with a wind-aided jump of 42-11.50/6.09 (+2.3w). She made it 3-for-3 in triple jump wins by taking the title at the Jim Click Shootout with a leap of 42-4/12.90 (+0.5). Marten moved from eighth to seventh on USC's all-time list with a jump of 43-0.25/13.11m (+0.2) to finish sixth in the Invitational triple jump at Mt. SAC on April 19. Marten also competed indoors and places second at the MPSF Championships with a leap of 41-10.50/12.76m. Marten, from Stuttgart, Germany, began her career at SMU in 2015, then spent two seasons competing for California (2016 & 2018). She has a PR of 43-8.00 (13.31m) and place seventh in the triple jump at the 2016 NCAA Championships to earn All-America honors. Marten finished second in the TJ with a jump of 42-6.00/12.95m (+0.0) at the Pac-12 Championships on May 12.

KATNIK USED HIS TIME WELL - Redshirt junior Matthew Katnik sat out the 2018 season, but has already left his mark on the 2019 campaign by winning the shot put at the Power 5 Trailblazer Challenge with a PR and then-NCAA-leading throw of 64-6.50 (19.67m). That throw moved him to fifth on USC's all-time list and is the farthest shot put by a Trojan since Noah Bryant set the school record with a mark of 67-5.50 in 2007. He also won the shot put in his first outdoor meet back, the Trojan Invitational on March 16, with a then-PR and nation-leading throw of 63-10.25 (19.46m). Katnik earned 2019 Indoor All-America honors by placing seventh at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a throw of 64-7.25 (19.69m). He currently ranks 14th in the country in the shot put. He took sixth in the SP at Pac-12s with a mark of 62-1.75.

T&F SPREADS THE LOVE ON VALENTINE'S DAY - To celebrate Valentine's Day, USC's track & field athletes Anna Cockrell and Nathan Bultman stopped by the Los Angeles Veterans Affairs Medical Center on Feb. 14 to spend time with U.S. veterans and make them feel the love. Alongside the Laker Girls and other local dignitaries, Cockrell and Bultman visited with hospitalized veterans, handing out trinkets and treats. The Trojans brought four dozen cardinal and gold colored roses, one rose for each veteran they met. While visiting hospital rooms, they met Greg Monroe, an Army vet who immediately recognized Bultman because he loves to watch to collegiate track & field on TV. They also spent time passing out roses in the outpatient room, where they met a USC alum named Bill Plyley, who played football until shipping off to the Navy. NORMAN WINS THE 2018 BOWERMAN - USC's Michael Norman was named The Bowerman winner at the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) convention in San Antonio, Texas on Dec. 20. The Bowerman is given out annually to the top men's and women's collegiate performer and is track and field's highest honor for a college athlete. Norman, from Murrieta, Calif., won the NCAA title in the 400m dash and as part of USC's winning 4x400m relay, with both setting collegiate records at the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships in Eugene, Ore. Norman helped lead the Trojans to a fourth-place finish as a team. Norman stormed around the track to victory in the 400m dash with a collegiate-record time of 43.61, breaking the record of 43.70 set by Fred Kerley in 2017. Norman's time also broke the NCAA finals record of 44.00 set by his coach Quincy Watts in 1992. He also bettered the Hayward Field record of 43.74 set by Michael Johnson in 1993. Norman's becomes the seventh best performer ever and the fastest American since Jeremy Wariner ran 43.45 in 2007. Norman and his teammates Ricky Morgan Jr., Rai Benjamin and Zach Shinnick closed out the men's championships by winning the 4x400m relay with a collegiate, NCAA meet, Hayward Field and school record time of 2:59.00. The previous NCAA record and NCAA championship record was 2:59.59 set by LSU in 2005. USC's previous school record in the men's 4x400m relay was 3:00.58 set in 1992. At the 2018 NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships on March 10 in College Station, Texas, Norman won the 400m dash with a USC, collegiate, USA and World record-time of 44.52. He broke the previous world record of 44.57 set by Kerron Clement of USA in 2005. Then the 4x400m relay of Shinnick, Benjamin, Morgan Jr. and Norman shattered the world, collegiate and USC record with a winning time of 3:00.77. Norman turned pro on June 12 and remains at USC working to complete his undergraduate degree in Communication. His teammate Benjamin was also one of the three finalist for the award.

His point total is the current world leader and set the Puerto Rico national record in the event. Owens set seven personal bests in the 10 events and won three events (100m, 110m hurdles & 400m) outright. He didn't clinch the win until the final event, running down 2018 Pac-12 champion Harrison Williams of Stanford in the final stretch of the 1500m race to win the two-day event by 18 points.

--USC ATHLETICS ANNOUNCES $16-MILLION TRACK FACILITY RENOVATION; 1ST PHASE TO BE COMPLETED THIS SPRING

LOS ANGELES—The first phase of the $16-million renovation of USC's track and field facility is on schedule to be completed by the end of this spring, while funding for the second phase is actively underway.

The building on the northwest corner of Loker Stadium, which since 2001 has housed coaches offices and team locker rooms, is being transformed into enlarged locker rooms and new lounge areas for the men's and women's teams. It will be dedicated this Saturday (April 28) at the USC-UCLA dual meet that USC is hosting on Cromwell Field.

Phase two will look to replace the equipment storage building on Loker Stadium's southwest corner with a newly-constructed building that will house a team meeting room, a Hall of Fame, academic study rooms, coaches offices and locker rooms, and a track viewing balcony.

"Our new facilities will have an immediate impact on every student-athlete who comes through our track and field and cross country programs," said sixth-year USC Director of Track and Field Caryl Smith Gilbert, who led the Women of Troy to the 2018 NCAA outdoor title. "My coaching staff and I are so appreciative of the support for the project thus far – a great deal of which has come from former USC track and field athletes who are now paying it forward to the next generation of students."

Some 80 percent of the funding raised for the renovation has come from former members of the Trojan track and field teams. Former USC track and field athlete John Colich and his wife, Janine, provided the lead gift for the renovation, while Trojan track and field alumnus Joe Antunovich designed the project.

Added USC athletic director Lynn Swann: "We are grateful to the early supporters of this project, especially John and Janine Colich, and we are thrilled to be completing phase one soon. USC track and field is synonymous with excellence and these facilities will provide our student-athletes with the top resources in the nation."

Naming opportunities for phase two are available. For information, contact the Trojan Athletic Fund at (213) 740-4155 or taf@usc.edu.

The USC men's and women's track and field program is the most successful in the nation. The men have won 26 outdoor and 2 indoor NCAA team championships, while the defending NCAA champion women have won a pair of NCAA team outdoor crowns. The Trojan men have captured an unprecedented 139 NCAA outdoor and indoor individual and relay titles and the Women of Troy have added 27. USC also has had 137 track and field Olympians, male and female.

Some of the sport's most iconic athletes have competed for the Trojans, including Quincy Watts, Louis Zamperini, Bryshon Nellum, Felix Sanchez, Andre De Grasse, Bob Seagren, Charles Paddock, Mel Patton, Parry O'Brien, Jesse Williams and Dallas Long on the men's side and Angela Williams, Inger Miller, Virginia Powell, Dalilah Muhammad and Nia Ali on the women's side (Allyson Felix attended USC after turning pro). USC's most recent track stars include Michael Norman, the 2018 NCAA outdoor and indoor 400-meter champion, and Kendall Ellis, whose dramatic comeback to win the 1600-meter relay clinched the 2018 women's NCAA team title.
