No. 20 USC TO PLAY AT WASHINGTON THURSDAY
• USC Has Won 10 Of Its Last 11 Games •

TONIGHT'S GAME -- The USC Trojans (15-3, 9-2) will play at the Washington Huskies (3-14, 2-10) at the Alaska Airlines Arena in Seattle, Wash. on Feb. 11 at 7 p.m. The game will air on the Pac-12 Network with Aaron Goldsmith and Eldridge Recasner calling the action. The game will also be carried on Westwood One Radio with Ryan Radtke and P.J. Carlesimo call-ing the action. USC has won 10 of its last 11 games. USC's 9-2 start to Pac-12 play is its best since also beginning the 1992 season 9-2 in conference play. USC is 15-3 through its first 18 games for the fourth time in the last 19 seasons (also in 2016, 2017 and 2020). The last time USC started a season 16-3 was the 2017 season.

FACING WASHINGTON-- Washington (3-14, 2-10) has lost its last three games, but has won two of its last three home games. The Huskies are led in scoring by guard Quade Green at 15.4 points per game. USC defeated Washington 95-68 on Jan. 14 at the Galen Center and trails in the all-time series 74*-75 (with 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record 76-75). USC has lost 6 of its last 7 games at Washington.

USC BEATS BRUINS, TIES FOR CONFERENCE LEAD -- Ethan Anderson scored a career-high 19 points and Tahj Eaddy added 16 as USC defeated No. 21 UCLA 66-48 at the Galen Center. The 48 points allowed were the fewest scored by the Bruins against the Trojans since Jan. 16, 2010, when USC won 67-46 at Pauley Pavilion. The win also tied the Trojans with the Bruins atop the Pac-12 standings at 9-2. USC defeated a ranked opponent for the first time since defeating No. 11 SMU on March 17, 2017. After making only 35.3 percent of its first-half shots, USC made 50 percent in the second half to pull away from the Bruins. Anderson made a career-best five 3-pointers in the game. Evan Mobley added nine points, nine rebounds and four blocks. USC held UCLA to 33.9 percent shooting, including 15.8 percent from 3-point range.

TROJANS ENTER THE POLLS -- USC is ranked No 20 in this week's AP and Coaches Poll rankings. It is the first time USC has been ranked in either poll since Week 5 of the 2017-18 season when it was ranked No. 25 in both.

WASHINGTON STATE ON DECK-- USC's next game will be at Washington State (11-8, 4-8) in Pullman, Wash. on Feb. 13 at 5 p.m. The Cougars are coming off a 68-66 loss at Oregon State on Feb. 6 and will host UCLA on Feb. 11 before taking on USC. Guard Isaac Bonton leads Washington State in scoring with an 18.1 points per game average. USC defeated Washington State 85-77 at the Galen Center on Jan. 16. USC has won its last nine games against Washington State and leads the all-time series 78-48. USC has won five consecutive games at Washington State, last losing in Pullman in 2013. Prior to that, the Trojans had lost 9 of 10 games at WSU.

THE MAGIC MARK -- With the 66-48 win vs. UCLA on Feb. 6, USC is now 82-5 in its last 87 games when holding the opposition to under 70 points scored dating back to Feb. 28, 2015.

SCORING MARGIN BEST SINCE 1971 SEASON-- USC has a +12.1 scoring margin which leads all Pac-12 teams. It is also USC's biggest average scoring margin in a season since the 1970-71 team went 24-2 and defeated opponents by an averaged of 14.0 points per game.

DOING IT WITH DEFENSE -- USC has held its opponents to 37.9 percent shooting this season, sixth-best in the country. Stanford's 51.9 percent shooting against USC on Feb. 2 was the first time this season a Trojan opponent shot over 50 percent.

THE SULTANS OF SWAT -- USC has had 102 blocks in its first 18 games for an average of 5.7 blocks per game, sixth in the country. Freshman Evan Mobley is averaging 2.9 blocks per game, 6th in the country and first among freshmen. Mobley already ranks fourth on USC's all-time freshman blocks list (53) and two outside of the school's all-time top 10 for a single season.

THE GOOD AND THE BAD -- The good news is USC ranks tied for 19th in the country with 415 free throw attempts. The bad news is it has made just 272 of those shots for a 65.5 shooting percentage from the charity stripe, which ranks 298th in the country (out of 340 teams).

THE PAINT PATROL -- USC has outrebounded its opponents 735-588 through the first 18 games and has outscored the opposition 616-424 on points scored in the paint. USC's +8.2 rebound margin ranks 18th in the country.

MOBLEY NAMED PAC-12 PLAYER AND FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK -- Fresh-man Evan Mobley was named Pac-12 Player of the Week and Freshman of the Week for the week of Feb. 1-7. He became the second player (USC's Onyeka Okongwu in 2020) to earn both honors in the same week. Mobley also won the Freshman of the Week honor for the fifth time this season, a Pac-12 record. Mobley averaged 16.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 3.0 blocks in USC's wins at Stanford (72-66) and at home vs. UCLA (66-48).

MOBLEY ON LATE SEASON WOODEN AWARD WATCH LIST -- USC freshman Evan Mobley is one of 20 players selected to the 2021 Wooden Award Late Season Watch List for the top collegiate player. Mobley is one of four freshmen on the list and the only Pac-12 player.

WINNING WAYS - USC's .833 winning percentage is 15th-best in the country.

ALL ABOUT ENFIELD -- Andy Enfield, 51, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and has quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. Results came immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins in program history over a two-year, three-year, four-year and five-year period. USC has won 109 games over the last five seasons which is the third-most wins in the Pac-12 and the 21st-most wins in the nation among power conferences during that time. USC has had the second-best overall record in the Pac-12 two of the last three seasons (24-12 in 2018 & 22-9 in 2020). He guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons (2016-18), the first time for USC since 2007-09, all while his athletes have set the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in seven consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2021 class ranking No. 12. Over the last three seasons, USC has had four players selected in the NBA Draft, tied for the fifth-most by any program in the country. He now has an 147-105 record in his eight seasons as the USC head coach (4th-most wins in school history) and is 188-133 in 10 seasons as a head coach. The 2019-20 Trojans went 22-9, finished tied for 3rd in the Pac-12 and were getting better as the season was cancelled due to COVID-19. USC won three straight and five of its last seven to closeout the season. The Trojans led Pac-12 teams in defensive field goal percentage and points per game allowed in Conference play. The 2018-19 Trojans were bitten by the injury bug beginning late in the summer and only had as many as 10 scholarship players available for preseason practice four of the 30 sessions. Ultimately USC players missed 54 games due to injury and finished with a 16-17 record after falling to regular season champion Washington 78-75 in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since tying for second in 2002 and its first outright second-place finish since 1992. USC reached the Pac-12 Tournament final for the first time since winning it in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in non-conference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in a 2017 First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, with impressive wins at New Mexico and Boston College, as well a Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, Jacobs ultimately becoming an All-Conference player. Enfield captivated the nation during the 2013 season as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet 16 with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCUs high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks. In Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons - its first two playing at the Division I level. FGCU had a 41-28 record in his two seasons as head coach (2011-12, 2012-13), equaling the win total of the program the previous four seasons. Prior to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including the Sweet 16 in 2011. FSU posted four 20-win seasons during his time on the staff and won 31 ACC games, the second-most in the conference behind Duke. In 2011 and 2012, FSU became the first program since Georgetown (1991-92) to lead the nation in defensive field goal percentage two straight seasons. He began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for Milwaukee (1995, 1996). Then he was an assistant coach with Boston for two seasons (1999, 2000). Enfield played four seasons (1988-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 points. He also set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record of 92.5 percent, making 431-of-466 free throws. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station will be AM 790 KABC with Jordan Moore calling the action. The USC graduate is in his sixth season of working on USC basketball broadcasts, his third season as the play-by-play announcer.

A HISTORY OF WINNING -- USC has compiled a record of 1,638-1,218* in its 115 years of intercollegiate basketball competition. USC has had a .500 or better record in 80 of the first 114 seasons.

THE GALEN ADVANTAGE -- USC is 171-71 in 15 seasons at the Galen Center since it opened on Nov. 16, 2006. USC is also 90-22 in nonconference games at the Galen Center. USC is 52-8 in home nonconference games with Enfield as the head coach, including 40-5 in its last 44 regular season nonconference home games.

OUT IN THE COMMUNITY -- The USC men's basketball team tries to be a conscientious member of the community and has routinely had youth groups or schools visit practice or ventured out into the community for an event over the last several years. One of their biggest involvements the past several years has been with the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk.

 * 21 wins and one loss in 2007-08 vacated due to NCAA penalty, original record: 1,659-1,217.

LONGEST BREAK SINCE 1967 SEASON -- The Trojans went 20 days without playing a game following its win over UC Irvine on Dec. 8, until facing Santa Clara on Dec. 29. The 20 days without a game during a season was USC's longest stretch without a game since going 36 days without a game during the 1967 season (playing Dec. 21 and then not again until Jan. 27). After the game vs. UC Irvine on Dec. 8, USC had four scheduled games either postponed (Dec. 13 vs. Stanford and Dec. 20 at Oregon State) or canceled (Dec. 16 vs. San Francisco and Dec. 23 vs. Texas Southern) due to a confirmed case of COVID-19 within the USC men's basketball program that caused team activities to be paused beginning on Dec. 13.

DESERT DELIGHT -- USC defeated Arizona 87-73 in Tucson, Ariz. on Jan. 7 snapping a 10-game road losing streak at Arizona, then snapped a seven-game road losing streak at Arizona State with a 73-64 win on Jan. 9. The sweep in the desert of Arizona and ASU was USC's first since the 1985 season. It also marked USC's first 2-0 start in Pac-12 road games since the 2007 season. USC had a .486 shooting percentage and held the Arizona school to a combined .372 shooting percentage. USC also outrebounded the desert schools 82-62 in the two games.

IT'S A TEAM GAME -- Eight Trojans have already had at least one game of 10 points scored or more this season. Nine Trojans are averaging at least 4.2 points per game.

CBU SETS AN OPPONENT RECORD -- California Baptist's 20 three-point baskets made was a USC opponent record for makes in a game. The previous record of 16 was set by Arizona in 2002. CBU made 20 of 41 shots from beyond the arc for a 48.8 shooting percentage. Ty Rowell made 9 3-pointers to tie the record by a Trojan opponent from beyond the arc, set in 2019 by Markus Howard of Marquette.

LONDON TO FOCUS ON FOOTBALL -- USC basketball guard and football wide receiver Drake London has decided not to join the men's basketball team this season and to put all of his focus into football. London played in two games for the basketball team last season and had three rebounds in six minutes of action. This past football season, the sophomore had 33 catches for a team-leading 502 yards, along with three touchdowns.

THE 2020-21 TROJANS -- The USC men's basketball team has a new look for the 2020-21 season as the strong sophomore core of Ethan Anderson, Isaiah Mobley and Max Agbonkpolo is joined by eight new players which includes a consensus top three recruit in Evan Mobley and Noah Baumann who redshirted last season following his transfer from San Jose State. The 2020-21 Trojans will be a team with many interchangeable parts and feature players who can guard multiple positions. USC entered this season having won 109 games over the last five seasons, the winningest five-year stretch in school history and the 2020-21 Trojans look to continue the upward trend.

RECAP OF THE 2019-20 SEASON -- The 2019-20 Trojans went 22-9 and led the Pac-12 in rebounding and were among the Conference's top teams in blocks, scoring defense and defensive field goal percentage. USC seemed to be just hitting its stride heading to the postseason as winners of five of its last seven games and finishing tied for third in Pac-12 play at 11-7 before the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. USC led all Pac-12 teams in Conference play in points allowed and field goal percentage defense.

EVAN MOBLEY HAD A STONG COLLEGIATE DEBUT -- USC's decorated freshman forward Evan Mobley did not disappoint in his collegiate debut vs. CBU on Nov. 25, scoring 21 points, grabbing nine rebounds, three blocks and three dunks. His 21 points scored were the third-most by a USC freshman in his debut and the most since O.J. Mayo scored 32 vs. Mercer on Nov. 10, 2007.

MOBLEY NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK A RECORD-TYING FOUR TIMES - USC freshman forward Evan Mobley has been named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Week four times this season, tying the conference record. He won for his efforts for the week of Nov. 30-Dec. 6, the week of Dec. 7-13, the week of Jan. 4-10 and the week of Jan. 18-24.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN -- There are a total of 16 players on the 2020-21 USC men's basketball roster. The Trojan team by class are: Seniors (4): McKay Anderson (G), Tahj Eaddy (G), Chevez Goodwin (F), Isaiah White (G); Juniors (5): Noah Baumann (G), Talin Lewis (G), Reggie Parris (G), Drew Peterson (G), Amar Ross (G); Sophomores (4): Max Agbonkpolo (F), Ethan Anderson (G), Isaiah Mobley (F), Josh Morgan (F); Freshman (3): Boubacar Coulibaly (F), Even Mobley (F), Reese Waters (G).

YOU WILL BE MISSED... -- The Trojans have re-loaded and are anxious to continue the program's upward surge, but there is no doubt that this edition will be a different team. Gone are All-Pac-12 and now NBA forward Onyeka Okongwu (16.2 ppg, 8.6 rpg) and a pair ot four-year players in all-time USC three-point baskets leader Jonah Mathews (13.4 ppg and 247 career 3-pointers made) and second all-time rebounder Nick Rakocevic (10.5 ppg, 923 career rebounds). In all, 8 of the 11 Trojans to score a point in the 2019-20 season are no longer on the roster. All that means is the new edition of the Trojan cagers will be called upon to replace 80.6 percent of the scoring, 76.4 percent of the rebounding and 74.7 percent of the minutes played OKONGWU KEEPS USC'S DRAFT SUCCESS ROLLING -- USC 2019-20 forward Onyeka Okongwu was selected sixth overall by the Atlanta Hawks in the first round of the 2020 NBA Draft. Okongwu was USC's highest drafted player since O.J. Mayo was selected third in the 2008 NBA Draft and fourth all-time taken in the top 10 (DeMar DeRozan 9th in 2009 and Paul Westphal 10th in 1972). For the second consecutive NBA Draft USC has had a player taken in the first round (Kevin Porter Jr., 2019). USC seven first-round selections since 2007 in the NBA Draft are tied for 13th among all college programs. Also, USC's four draft selections in the last three NBA Drafts are tied for the most among all-Pac-12 teams with Washington and Arizona.

Evan Mobley had 14 points and 13 rebounds, and USC pulled away over the final 10 minutes to beat Oregon State 75-62 on Jan. 28 for its eighth win in nine games. Mobley had five dunks on his way to the freshman's seventh double-double of the season. Isaiah White and Noah Baumann added 11 points each and Ethan Anderson had 10 points for the Trojans. They avenged a two-point loss to the Beavers on Jan. 19 that snapped USC's six-game winning streak. Ethan Thompson had 20 points, seven rebounds and five assists, and Jarod Lucas added 18 points for the Beavers. The teams traded baskets early in the second half after neither led by more than five points in the first 20 minutes. It wasn't until the Trojans put together their biggest spurt of the game that they got any breathing room. They outscored the Beavers 18-6 to take a 65-49 lead, their largest of the game. Chevez Goodwin scored six points during the spurt. He finished with 10 rebounds, helping the Trojans dominate the boards, 48-30. Oregon State cut its deficit to 65-58 on three consecutive 3-pointers by Thompson, Lucas and Julien Franklin. But that proved to be the Beavers' last big run as they never got closer than seven points in the closing minutes.

USC outscored Stanford 6-0 over the final 1:18 to eke out a 72-66 comeback win at Maples Pavilion on Feb. 2. Stanford led for all but 5:30 in the game as Jaiden Delaire (22) and Michael O'Connell (20) both had career scoring highs. Tahj Eaddy broke the tie with a driving layup with 1:18 remaining, then after Evan Mobley blocked an Oscar da Silva layup, Eaddy hit a fadeaway jumper with 29 seconds remaining for a 70-66 lead. da Silva then had another shot blocked, this time by Isaiah Mobley, who finished with a career-high four blocks. Stanford came up with the rebound and Spencer Jones was fouled. He miss the front end of a 1-and-1 and Drew Peterson hit a pair of FTs with seven seconds remaining for the 72-66 final. USC trailed 35-32 at the half and by as many as 10 points in the first half and by seven with 10:29 remaining. Evan Mobley led USC with 23 points and 11 rebounds for his 8th double-double of the season. Peterson scored 15 points and Eaddy 14, including teaming up to score 13 of USC's final 17 points. Stanford made 51.9 percent of its shots, the first USC opponent to shoot over 50 percent. The Cardinal were held to 1-for-8 shooting in the final four minutes. USC outscored Stanford 16-2 on second chance points.

Ethan Anderson scored a career-high 19 points and Tahj Eaddy added 16 as USC defeated No. 21 UCLA 66-48 at the Galen Center. The 48 points allowed were the fewest scored by the Bruins against the Trojans since Jan. 16, 2010, when USC won 67-46 at Pauley Pavilion. The win also tied the Trojans with the Bruins atop the Pac-12 standings at 9-2. USC defeated a ranked opponent for the first time since defeating No. 11 SMU on March 17, 2017. After USC saw its early 6-point lead cut to one at 17-16 with 8:12 left in the first half, Andy Enfield called a timeout and the Trojans responded with a 13-4 run to closeout the half for a 30-20 lead. After making only 35.3 percent of its first-half shots, USC made 50 percent in the second half to pull away from the Bruins. Anderson made a career-best five 3-pointers in the game. Evan Mobley added nine points, nine rebounds and four blocks. USC held UCLA to 33.9 percent shooting, including 15.8 percent from 3-point range. UCLA played the game without its two main bigmen Cody Riley (knee) and Jalen Hill (personal reasons). The win was USC's third consecutive against the Bruins. All nine Trojans who played in the game scored and had at least one rebound and one assist. Johnny Juzang led UCLA with 13 points and 13 rebounds.
