USC'S NEW TRACK BUILDING -- USC's new track and field building was on display at the Pac-12 Championships, but will officially open in June, as the project is in its final phase. Part of the renovation is the brand new scoreboard in the southeast corner of the track. The new building will house a team meeting room, a Hall of Fame, academic study rooms, coaches offices and a track viewing balcony. The first phase of the project was the transformation of the old office space and locker rooms into enlarged and modern locker rooms and lounge area for the athletes.

COCKRELL NAMED PAC-12 SCHOLAR ATHLETE OF THE YEAR -- USC hurdler Anna Cockrell was named the 2021 Pac-12 Women's Scholar Athlete of the Year on May 16. Also on that date, she sang the National Anthem to start the meet, won the 100m hurdles and won her third consecutive Pac-12 women's 400m hurdles title, this time with a school-record time of 54.77. Cockrell, from Charlotte, N.C., has received her master's in Public Policy after receiving an undergraduate degree in Communication with a Political Science minor. She has been very active during her time at USC and was a founder and leading member of the United Black Student-Athlete Association at USC. She is a Dean's List student, member of Lambda Pi Eta, Academic All-America and in 2020 named the CoSIDA Academic All-America Women's Team Member of the Year for Track & Field. Cockrell is the defending NCAA and three-time Pac-12 400m hurdles champion and lead all hurdlers this season with a time of 54.77. USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 30 men's and women's national team titles. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (31) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s, World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez early in the 2000s, and NCAA champion and Olympic medalist Andre DeGrasse, and NCAA champions and collegiate record-holders Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM IN GOOD HANDS WITH SMITH GILBERT - Caryl Smith Gilbert begins her eighth season as the Trojan Director of Track & Field, having the 2020 season cut short due to COVID-19 just prior to the indoor championships. In 2019, Smith Gilbert once again demonstrated that she is one of the premier track and field coaches in the country and that USC is one of the elite programs. In her first seven seasons as the leader of the USC program, Smith Gilbert's athletes won 20 individual NCAA event titles, earned 184 All-American honors and won 60 Pac-12 individual titles. She led the women's team to the 2018 NCAA outdoor title and has had the men's or women's team finish in the top 10 at the NCAA Indoor or Outdoor Championships 14 times. In addition, USC's women's team has won the last two Pac-12 titles and has finished no lower than second and the men's team has three runner-up finishes and has not finished outside the top five at the Pac-12 Championships in her six seasons. The 2019 women's team placed second at both the NCAA Indoor and Outdoor Championships and won its second consecutive Pac-12 team title. The women scored 57 points at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, its most since also scoring 57 in 2002 and its 215 total points scored in the last five seasons is the school's best stretch since amassing a school-record 268 points from 1998-2002. The 2019 young men's team fought through some injuries to place fifth at the Conference meet, 17th at NCAA Indoors and tied for 37th at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. During the year, Ayden Owens set the USC decathlon record, TeeTee Terry broke her school 100m record, Angie Annelus set the school 200m record and the women's 4x100m relay team set a USC record, the latter two in winning the NCAA title in the event. Smith Gilbert was named the 2019 USTFCCCA Women's Indoor & Outdoor Women's Coach of the Year and was named the Pac-12 Women's Coach of the Year. Her 2019 teams garnered 34 All-America honors and combined indoors and outdoors to set six school records and 10 freshman records, running her total to 39 freshman records (27 indoors and 12 outdoors) and 52 school records (31 indoors and 21 outdoors) under her leadership. In addition 18 Trojans were named to Pac-12 All-Academic teams, bringing the total to 91 in her first six seasons leading the program. A former indoor national record holder in the 55- and 60-meter dashes, Smith Gilbert was a two-time Colorado state champion in the 200-meter dash and long jump and a three-time state champion in the 100-meter dash as a prep standout. She set state records in each of those three events. She went on to become a three-time All-American at UCLA, where she was a Pac-10 champion in the 100-meter dash, 4x100-meter relay and 4x400-meter relay. She was part of an NCAA Championship runner-up 4x400-meter squad and was an All-American in the 4x100-meter relay in 1988 and 1989. A 1991 graduate of UCLA, Smith Gilbert holds a bachelor's degree in film and television production. She also holds master's degrees in sport management and sport psychology from Tennessee. She is a 2006 USATF Level III Coaches Education Clinician. She is married to former NFL linebacker Greg Gilbert. They have three sons: Alex, Spencer and Osiris. Her son Spencer is a redshirt freshman linebacker on the USC football team.

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2016 Rio Olympics, 9 golds, 5 silvers and 7 bronze, after earning 25 medals at the 2012 London Olympics. The success in Rio kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals and continuing its streak of having won a gold medal at every Summer Olympics since 1912. Nine of the medals earned by Trojans at the Rio Olympics were won by USC track and field athletes, the most by Trojan tracksters in a single Olympics. USC track and field athletes have claimed 49 gold medals in Olympic competitions. Forty-four current, former and incoming USC students competed in Rio, the most of any U.S. university. It was the fifth consecutive Summer Games that USC has had at least 40 Olympians. In Rio, those Trojans competed in 9 sports and represented 21 countries. Twenty-five of USC's Rio Olympians were women, 29 were competing in their first Games and 9 were current or incoming student-athletes. In reflecting on USC's success over the years at the Olympics, it is amazing to note that a Trojan athlete has won at least one gold medal in every track and field event except the 800m, 1500m, 5000m, 10000m, steeplechase, triple jump and javelin.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Caryl Smith Gilbert has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Well decorated throws coach Dan Lange is one of the top assistants in the country and is joined on staff by Jebreh Harris (distances and cross country), Nick Newman (jumps and multis), Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts (sprints and long hurdles) and Skyler Willis (hurdles and sprints).

THE 2021 WOMEN'S TEAM - The women's team won the team title in 2018, placed second in 2019 and was loaded last season before the season was cancelled due to COVID-19. Most of those athletes are back and much has been added. Returners include 2-time defending NCAA 200m champion Angie Annelus, defending NCAA 400m hurdles champion Anna Cockrell, All-American 400m runner Krya Constantine who ranks in USC's top 5 in the indoor and outdoor 400m list two-time NCAA Indoor 400m champion Kaelin Roberts, USC 100m record-holder and 7-time All-American TeeTee Terry and Lanae-Tava Thomas who owns the school indoor and outdoor freshman 200m record and ranks among the school's top 10 in both the 100m and 200m.

THE 2021 MEN'S TEAM - The men's team finished fourth at the 2018 NCAA Championships and tied for 37th in 2019 before the 2020 outdoor season was postponed. USC has a vastly different roster since its last full season, but among the key returners are 2018 Pac-12 hammer throw champion Nathan Bultman, school indoor 800m record-holder Isaiah Jewett, two-time shot put All-American Matthew Katnik, USC freshman 110m hurdles record holder Tade Ojora, All-American 400m hurdler Cameron Samuel, USC indoor record-holder and All-American high jumper Earnest Sears III and Trojan indoor freshman 400m record-holder Zach Shinnick.

TROJANS LEAVING THEIR MARKS - The Trojans have 25 athletes on the current team that have posted 56 outdoor top 10 marks all-time by a Trojan, including 36 marks that rank in USC's all-time top 5. The following is a list of those athletes and their ranking at USC:

Also, Isaiah Jewett is also receiving votes for the men's Bowerman it was announced on May 20. Terry, from Miami, Fla., won her third consecutive Pac-12 100m sprint title with a Loker Stadium record-time of 11.10 (+1.1) on May 16. In the prelims on May 15, Terry had a wind-aided time of 11.02 (+2.6w) which ranks tied for second in the country. Terry also won the Pac-12 title in the 200m dash on May 16 with a personal-best time of 22.72 (+1.4) which ranks sixth on the NCAA descending order list. Terry anchored USC's 4x100m relay which posted a time of 42.99. Terry accounted for 22 points during the meet and earned Co-Women's Athlete of the Meet. Terry also had a big USC-UCLA Dual Meet on May 2, setting the meet record in the 100m at 11.09 (+0.7) and anchoring USC's winning 4x100m relay which set the meet record with a time of 42.63. That time ranks fourth on USC's all-time list and second among all NCAA teams this season. During the 2021 indoor season, Terry ran the fastest times of her career in the women's 60m and 200m at the 2021 NCAA Indoor Championships and took home a second-place finish in the 60m final with a time of 7.14 and fourth in the 200m final with a PR of 22.75. Terry's 200m time moved her to second on USC's all-indoor list. Terry's time of 7.09 in the NCAA 60m semifinal was a PR and tied Angela Williams school record. Cockrell, from Charlotte, N.C., also was a two-time winner at the Pac-12 Championships grabbing both the 100m hurdles and 400m hurdles titles. Cockrell won her third consecutive Pac-12 400m hurdles title with a PR, USC-record and NCAA-leading time of 54.77. That time also ranks seventh on the all-time Pac-12 list in the event. She also matched a season best with a time of 12.79 (+0.0) to win the women's 100m hurdles title. The 2021 Pac-12 Women's Scholar Athlete of the Year also began her Championship Sunday by singing the National Anthem with her teammate Jasmine Jones. Cockrell is the defending NCAA 400m hurdles champion and lead all hurdlers this season with her time of 54.77. Cockrell also ranks tied for fifth nationally in the 100m hurdles this season with a time of 12.79. Cockrell's time of 54.77 broke the USC women's 400m hurdles record of 54.95 co-owned by Natasha Danvers and Jaide Stepter and her best career time of 12.69 in the 100m hurdles ranks third on USC's all-time list. Cockrell has also run on three of USC's all-time top 10 4x400m relays. Jewett, from Los Angeles, won his second consecutive men's 800m title at the Pac-12 Championships and bettered his NCAA-leading time with a time of 1:45.16. Jewett's time also moved him to second on USC's all-time list and set the Loker Stadium record.

THIS COULD BE A SPECIAL SEASON FOR ROBERTS -- Kaelin Roberts won the 2021 NCAA indoor women's 400m title with an indoor PR of 50.84 on March 13. Roberts also won the 2019 NCAA title with her previous personal best of 51.50. She then opened up the 2021 outdoor season with a PR and NCAA-leading time of 51.23, then bettered it to 51.14 at the Dual Meet on May 2 which moved her from 4th to 3rd on USC's all-time list. Robert sat out the Pac-12 Championships and currently ranks third on the NCAA 2021 W-400m list.

ANNELUS EYES A THREE-PEAT - USC sprinter Angie Annelus is the two-time defending NCAA women's 200m champion and looks to become the second person ever to win the event three times, joining Kimberlyn Duncan of LSU. Annelus won the 2018 200m title with a time of 22.76 (-2.3) to help lead the Trojans to the team title and then set the USC record in the 200m with a winning time of 22.16 (+1.3) in the 2019 final. Annelus posted her first 200m time of the season in the Pac-12 semifinals with a time of xxx on May 14, then ran 22.86 to finish second in the final on May 16 which ranks tied for 12th nationally this season.

SCOTT EYES USC TRIPLE JUMP RECORD - In just four meets, graduate transfer Jordan Scott has already landed the third-farthest triple jump in USC history of 55-7.75/16.96 (+0.9). Scott now trails only Allen Simms who set the record of 56-4 (17.17m) on April 28, 2003 and Julien Kapek who jumped 56-2 (17.12m) on June 14, 2003 to win the NCAA title. Scott's legal PR is 56-0.50/17.08m, but he has a wind-aided PR of 57-0/17.37m.

QUITE A GROUP - USC's women's 400m runners are one of the more loaded event groups for the Trojans. Currently, Kaelin Roberts (3rd - 51.14), Kyra Constantine (4th - 51.16) Nicole Yeargin (T-5th - 51.39) and Bailey Lear (8th - 51.57) all rank in USC's all-time outdoor top 10 in the event. So far this outdoor season, USC has four women's 400m runners ranking in the top 15 nationally: Roberts (3rd), Lear (15th), Constantine (4th) and Nicole Yeargin (10th). At the Pac-12 Championships with Roberts sitting out, USC still finished 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th and 7th to earn 30 points and help secure the come-from-behind team title.

DAN LANGE, THE ALL-AMERICAN COACH -- Dan Lange is in his 32nd season as USC throws coach and is one of the nation's most respected teachers, having guided his athletes to All-American honors 69 times. He also has coached Trojan throwers to 12 school records and 28 individual Pac-12 titles. If you want to measure his impact on the Trojan throws program, you have to go no farther than the USC top 10 lists as all but one of the top 10 male and female hammer throwers in school history have been coached by Lange and all but one of the USC record-holders in the men's and women's hammer, discus, javelin and shot put have been coached by Lange. For 21 consecutive seasons (1993-2013) he guided at least one Trojan hammer thrower to All-America honors and he has coached at least one Trojan thrower to All-America honors in 30 of his first 31 seasons.

JOHNSON & JOHNSON -- USC brothers McKay and Christian Johnson are having quite an impact on the USC track and field team this season. McKay, a redshirt junior, transferred to USC from California. He already has set his outdoor PR in the shot put with a mark of 66-2.50 (20.18m) which ranks fourth on USC's all-time list. He is a three-time indoor All-American in the shot put. Christian is a redshirt freshman who began his career at Texas, but did not compete. So far this season, he has set his PR in the hammer throw with a mark of 196-9 (59.98m), which ranks 12th among Pac-12 throwers. Their father Zak was a decathlete at USC.

OJORA TIMES TWO -- USC has a brother and sister act from London, England in Temi and Tade Ojora on the 2021 track and field team. The 6-0 Omotade "Tade" Ojora is a junior hurdler who took second in the 110m hurdles at the 2019 Pac-12 Championships and third this season. He finished tied for 14th at the 2019 NCAA West Regional in the event, narrowly missing out on advancing to the NCAA Championships in the event as a freshman. He also set the USC freshman record in the event with a time of 13.68 in winning the 2019 Dual Meet. He owns a PR of 13.54. Temitope "Temi" Ojora is a freshman jumper on USC's team. She has a PR this season of 44-6.75/13.58m (+0.0) in the women's triple jump, which ranks fourth on USC's all-time list in the event and is the school freshman record. She has qualified for Great Britain's team for the World Junior Championships. Temi also owns a high jump personal best of 5-10.75 (1.80m) which is tied for 11th on USC's all-time list.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR BULTMAN -- USC hammer thrower Nathan Bultman has established a new personal best in each of his last four meets. He began the season in 10th place on USC's all-time hammer throw list with a mark of 220-2 (67.12m) set in 2018. He then bettered his standing with a throw of 220-9 (67.28m) at the Cal Dual Meet on April 10, then to 221-6 (67.51) at the Beach Invitational on April 16, then improved to 231-1 (70.44m) at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet on May 2 and then won his second Pac-12 title in the event with a PR of 239-10 (73.12m) on May 14. That moved him into fourth on USC's all-time list and to third on the 2021 NCAA descending order list.

DYNAMIC FRESHMEN DUO -- USC's dynamic freshman jumping duo of Morgan Smalls and Temi Ojora are perhaps the best tandem on a Trojan roster since Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set the USC long jump and triple jump records in the late 1980s. Already Smalls ranks tied for fourth on USC's all-time list in the long jump (21-5.25/6.53m), 10th in the triple jump (42-8.00/13.00m) and tied for 6th in the high jump at 6-0.00 (1.83m). Meanwhile, Ojora ranks third in the triple jump (44-6.75/13.58m) and tied for 11th in the high jump (5-10.75/1.80m). Ojora also in her only long jump competition of the season has jumped 19-8.25. Both Smalls long jump mark set on May 15 and Ojora's triple jump mark set on May 16 were USC freshman records, surpassing jumps by Wendy Brown which had stood since the 1985 season.

TERRY WAS FLYING IN FAYETTEVILLE -- TeeTee Terry ran the fastest times of her career in the women's 60m and 200m at the 2021 NCAA Indoor Championships and took home a second-place finish in the 60m final with a time of 7.14 and fourth in the 200m final with a PR of 22.75. Terry's 200m time moved her to second on USC's all-indoor list. Terry's time of 7.09 in the semifinal was a PR and tied Angela Williams school record. Terry actually stumbled in the 60m final or she might have set the school and NCAA record in the event. Terry then opened her 2021 outdoor season with an NCAA-leading time of 11.08 (+2.0), which now is second by 0.01 seconds. At the last NCAA Outdoor Championships in 2019, Terry placed third in the 100m dash with a school-record time of 10.98 (+1.6).
