If You Build It...

Bill Plaschke, L.A. Times, 2006 –
"It has the best sports scoreboard in town, with a constant video feed that is sharper than my home television. The seats are padded, the sound system is powerful, the sight-lines are near-perfect."

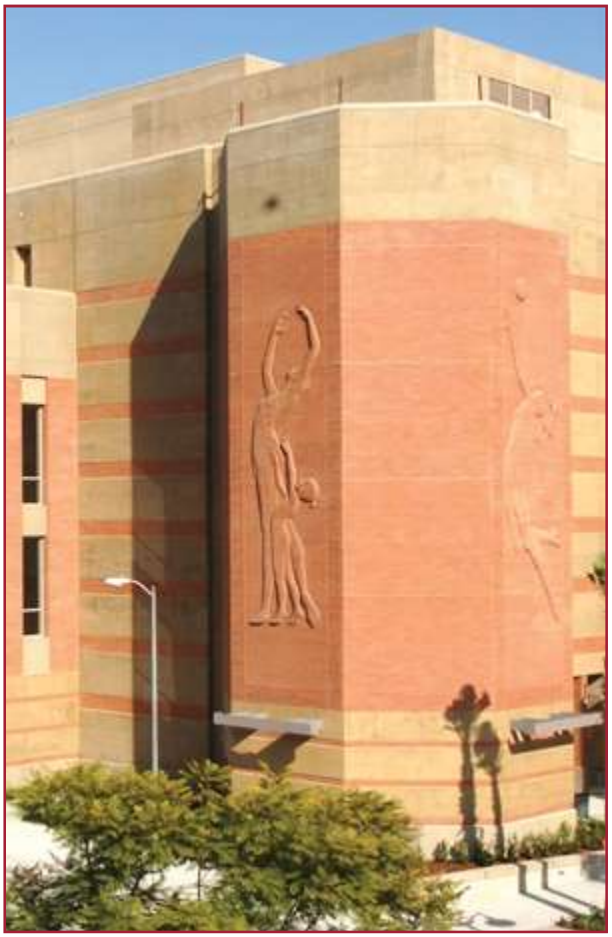

Bob Boyd, Former USC head coach -
"You just like the comfort of it, the way all the seats give you a perspective. It's going to be hard to measure the impact this will have on this program."

...They Will Come!

The completion of a dream...

For decades officials at the University of Southern California had a dream about creating a place where students, alumni, friends and community members could gather together to share the Trojan spirit. The long-awaited dream became a reality with the opening of the Galen Center for the 2006-07 season. Trojan fans can now watch their men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams compete in USC's spectacular on-campus facility.

The Galen Center also hosts concerts, family shows and pageants, summer sports camps, commencement ceremonies, community gatherings, lectures and meetings, middle school and high school athletic events...and much more!

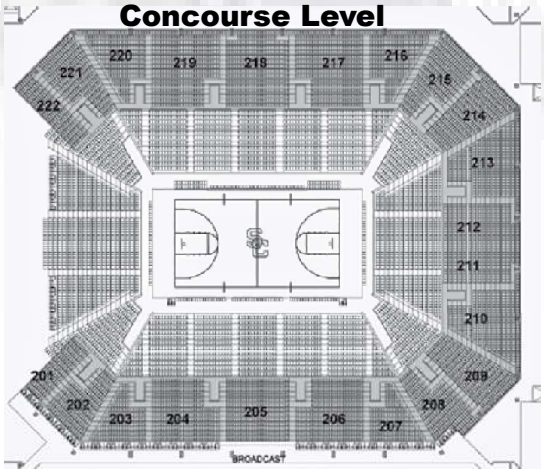

The center includes a 255,000-square-foot arena with 10,258 seats to support USC men's and women's basketball and volleyball, and a 45,000-square-foot pavilion that includes four practice courts and offices.

GALEN CENTER FACT SHEET

Galen Center:

The center consists of a 255,000 square-foot arena with 10,258 seats.

General facilities include:

- Athletic Department Hall of Fame
- Founder's Banquet Room
- USC auxiliary ticket office
- Concession stands
- Athletic merchandise store

Team facilities include:

- Locker rooms for USC men's and women's basketball and volleyball teams
- Locker rooms for visiting teams
- Weight room
- Medical training room

Athletic Pavilion:

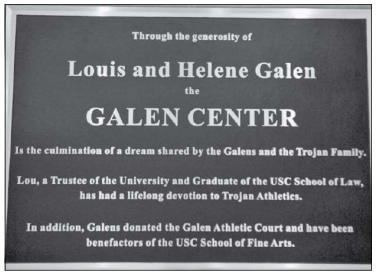

The 45,000 square-foot pavilion is attached to the Galen Center by an atrium and includes four practice courts, coaches' offices and administrative offices.

Parking:

A 1,200 space parking structure between the Radisson Hotel and Flower Street has been built. Additional parking is provided in Parking Structure "X" (PSX) at McCarthy Way and Figueroa Street, Parking Structure "D" (PSD) on campus at the corner of Jefferson and Figueroa (behind the Davidson Conference Center) and in the 1,900-space University Parking Center at Jefferson Boulevard and Hope Street, a one-block walk to the Galen Center.

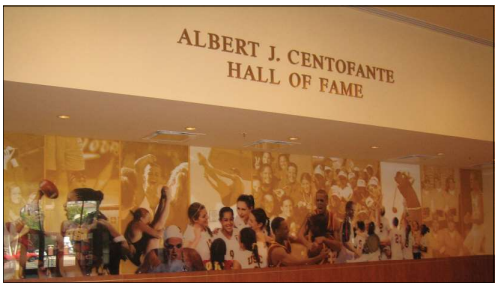

The late Lou Galen sitting in his customary baseline seat. It was through his generous donation that the dream of a new USC arena became a reality. The spectacular Galen Center arena bears his name for all his efforts.

JIM STERKEL COURT

Jim Sterkel played center for USC during the 1956 and 1957 seasons, including winning the most improved player award as a senior when he averaged 9.6 points and 8.6 rebounds per game. Sterkel grew up in Alhambra, Calif. and attended Fullerton JC before transfering to USC for his junior and senior seasons. At Fullerton JC, he was an All-Southern California JC Center selection and ran the hurdles in track. His daughter Jill was the first female swimmer to qualify for four Olympic games, where she was multi-medal winner. She swam collegiately at Texas and then coached at Texas following her swimming career. The naming of the court to honor Jim Sterkel was made possible by a donation from an anonymous classmate.

PREVIOUS HOME COURTS:

Before the Galen Center opened for the 2007 campaign the Los Angeles Sports Arena had been USC's home since the 1959 season, but it was not the only place USC has played home games. Due to scheduling conflicts and repairs due to earthquake damage, since 1959 USC has also played "home games" at Loyola Marymount, Los Angeles State College/Cal State L.A., Long Beach Arena, the Forum, Cal State Dominguez, the Lyon Center and Staples Center. USC played 22 "home games" away from the Sports Arena in the 23 seasons prior to the opening of the Galen Center. The Trojans have played home games in 13 places prior (according to records dating back to the 1927-28 season):

Olympic Auditorium
Pan-Pacific Auditorium
USC Gymnasium
Long Beach City College Gym
Loyola Marymount
Los Angeles St. College/CSULA

USC's Fabulous Facility

USC has posted a strong home record in the 16-year history of the Galen Center. With increased support from the USC fans, the Trojans look to make their beautiful arena one of the toughest places for an opponent on the West coast. USC's all-time record at the Galen Center is 188-76 with a 96-22 record in non-conference games. USC enters the 2022-23 season having won 46 of its last 51 regular season nonconference home games. USC is 58-8 in nonconference home games under Andy Enfield.

Senior Boogie Ellis showed the ability to score from all over the court and distribute the ball. He averaged 12.5 points and led USC with 56 3-point baskets made during the 2021-22 season. He also led USC with 27 steals.

OFFENSE

Coach Andy Enfield has created a high-scoring, aggressive offense and guard Drew Peterson figures once again to be in the middle of it. In 2021-22 he averaged 12.4 points and 6.2 rebounds and led the team with 113 assists. He made many clutch shots including the game winner at Oregon State and here celebrates a big shot at UCLA.

TOP•NOTCH OPPONENTS

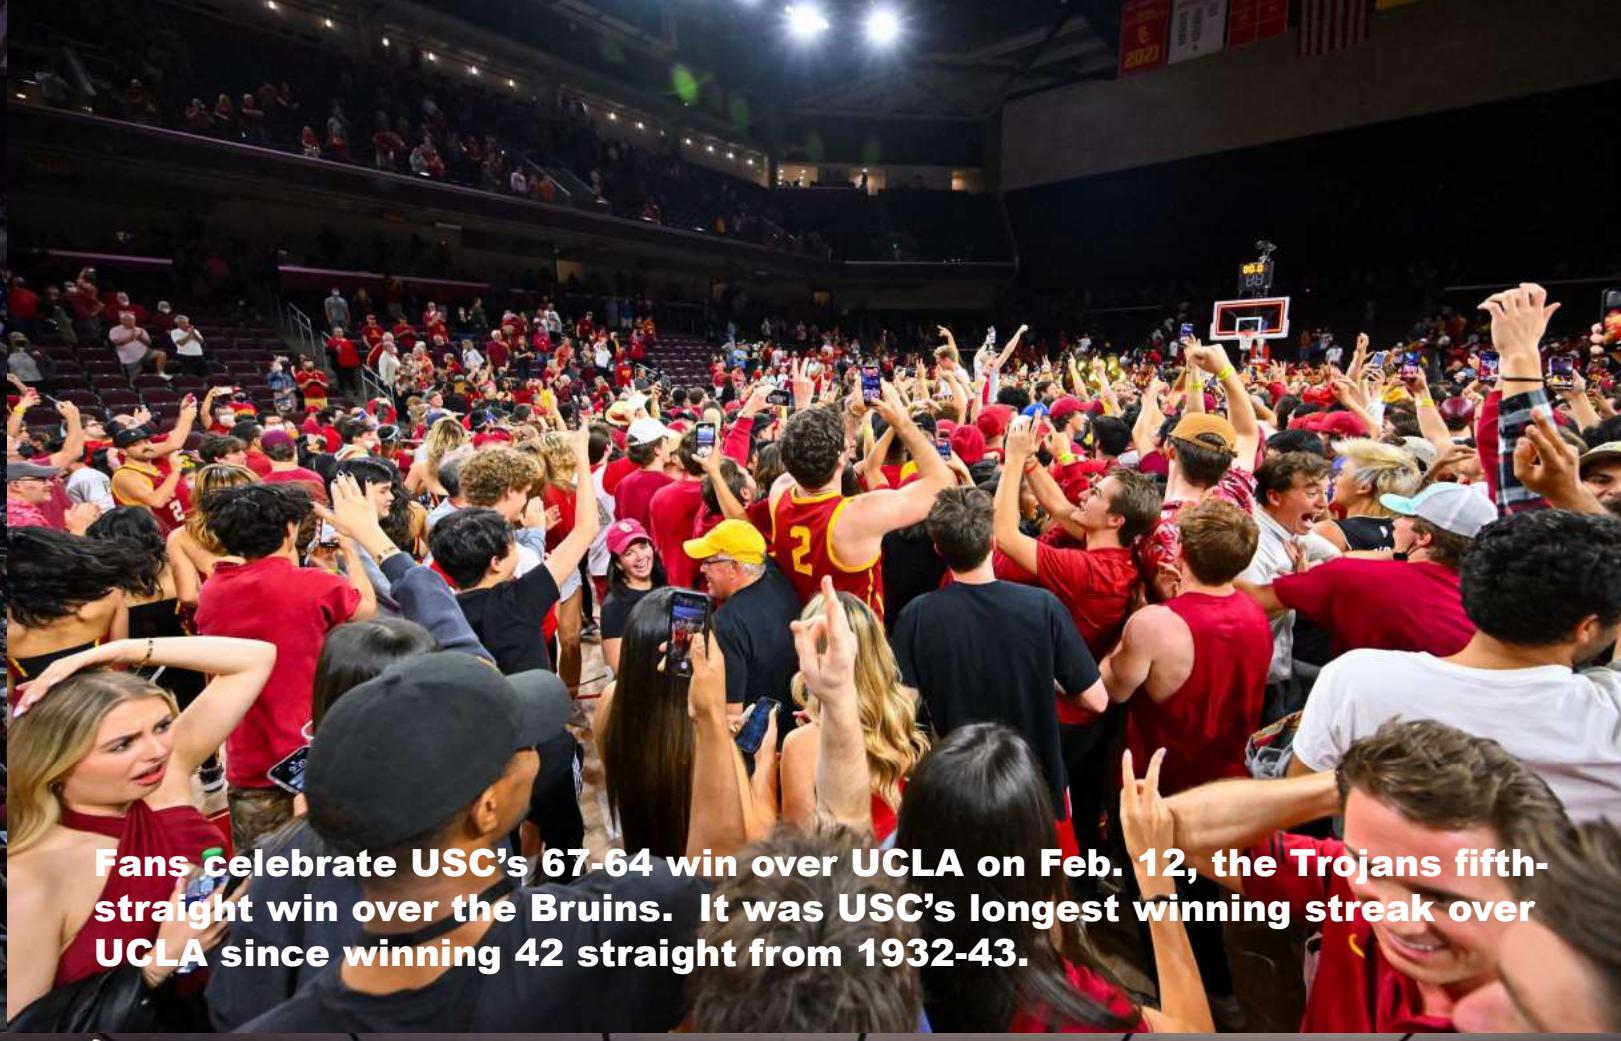

USC's beautiful home has attracted some of the top teams in the country in the first 17 seasons, including Oklahoma, Texas, Texas A&M, Tennessee, SMU, Vanderbilt, Boston College, Georgia, Georgia Tech, New Mexico and Kansas twice, including during their 2007-08 NCAA Championship season. The Pac-12 is riddled with talent and many future NBA stars have played before the Trojan faithful at the Galen Center.

USC shown here defeating Texas and NCAA Player of the Year Kevin Durant 87-68 in the second round of the 2007 NCAA Tournament.

Not only does USC play in one of the toughest conferences in the country, but they also look to face some of the toughest non-conference teams to prepare themselves for the NCAA tournament. This year's schedule includes games against Auburn, BYU and Colorado State, as well as either Butler or Tennesse and one of Dayton, Kansas, North Carolina State and Wisconsin. USC will play three of those teams at the Battle4Atlantis where it will play over the Thanksgiving holiday. USC has also played in tournaments in Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, New York, Las Vegas, South Carolina, Kansas City and Anaheim in the last 16 seasons. The Trojans also went on a summer tour to Spain and France before the 2019-20 season and took exhibition trips to Italy in 2015 and Brazil in 2011.

Fans celebrate USC's 67-64 win over UCLA on Feb. 12, the Trojans fifth-straight win over the Bruins. It was USC's longest winning streak over UCLA since winning 42 straight from 1932-43.

USC holds the 2021 Wooden Legacy Trophy after defeating St. Joseph's (70-55) and San Diego State (58-43) for the title. The two-day tournament was held at the Anaheim Convention Center.

Talented Trojans Look To Keep The Winning Ways Rolling

- Have Won School Record 160 Games Over Last 7 Seasons -

The USC Trojans' basketball program under the direction of head coach Andy Enfield has been on quite a roll. Its 73 wins the last three seasons rank tied for third among all Power 6 teams, trailing only Kansas and Baylor, the last two national champions. If you are looking to watch some good basketball in Los Angeles, the Galen Center is the place to be. Not only do the Trojans have the best winning percentage in the city between the Trojans, Bruins, Lakers and Clippers the last three years, but it also stretches out over the last seven seasons. USC is one of three schools along with Duke and Kentucky to have at least one player selected in each of the last five NBA drafts, so despite a much younger team this year, expectations are that Andy's boys will once again get it done.

USC will feature a talented and deep guard corps led by All-Pac-12 guards Drew Peterson and Boogie Ellis. The first-teamer Peterson (6-9, 205) is a stat-sheet stuffer who was third in scoring (12.4 ppg), rebounding (6.2 rpg), blocks (27) and steals (23) on the 2021-22 Trojans, while leading in assists (113) and finishing second in three-pointers (49) and free throws (76) made. Ellis (6-3, 185) was USC's second-leading scorer last season (12.5 ppg) and led the team in three-pointers made (56). Peterson has already scored 1,263 points in his collegiate career, while Ellis sits 53 points away from the 1,000 career points scored milestone entering the season.

USC also returns a pair of sophomore guards in Reese Dixon-Waters and Kobe Johnson who were key contributors a season ago and should see their roles increase drastically. Dixon-Waters (6-5, 210) averaged 4.8 points and 1.8 rebounds last season, but that increased to 8.5 points over the final 10 games. Included in that stretch was a career-best 16 points in USC's NCAA Tournament game. Johnson (6-6, 200) became a vital sub down the stretch, providing ball movement and defense, playing double-figures in minutes more than half of the games down the stretch. He averaged 1.2 points and 1.0 rebounds during the year and in the two-overtime win at Oregon State had five steals. Another returning sophomore guard for USC is Malik Thomas (6-5, 210). He was the 2020-21 California Gatorade High School Boys Player of the Year and appeared in nine games last season for the Trojans. Another returning guard providing depth with be junior Zach Brooker (6-0, 160) who appeared in one game a year ago.

The Trojans have added a dynamic duo of freshman guards in Tre White and Oziah Sellers. White (6-7, 210) was ranked No. 28 overall nationally in his recruiting class by ESPN.com and has demonstrated the ability to create shots for himself and others and has shown he can score in a variety of ways. Sellers (6-5, 185) also provides length at the guard position and was ranked as the No. 10 player in California as a senior. He is an excellent shooter from three-point range and is considered among the finest pure shooters brought in to the program during the Enfield era.

Redshirt junior Joshua Morgan and sophomore Harrison Hornery are the returning front-court players. Morgan (6-11, 235) averaged 3.2 points and 2.9 rebounds, while ranking second on the team with 28 blocks in 31 games off the bench. Hornery (6-10, 230) appeared in 12 games last season and scored 19 points, but showed how valuable he can be vs. Pacific. With USC trailing by as many as 13 points in the second half, Hornery came off the bench and hit three 3-pointers and grabbed six rebounds to lead the Trojan comeback.

Boogie Ellis

Drew Peterson

Reese Dixon-Waters

The new trio of Trojan bigmen are forwards Vincent Iwuchukwu, Kijani Wright and Iaroslav Niagu. Iwuchukwu (7-1, 235) was ranked as the No. 16 overall national recruit for the 2022 season by Rivals.com. He is an elite defensive presence in the paint and can score the ball, averaging 19.3 points per game at the NIBC Invitational and 16.4 points per game at the 2021 Peach Jam. Wright (6-9, 235) is a tough rebounder and defensive stopper with a nonstop motor. He was a 2022 McDonald's All-American, becoming the fourth Trojan McDonald's All-American in the last six years. Niagu (7-0, 215) is a talented bigman added to the roster in September from the NBA Global Academy in Canberra, Australia. He helped lead the NBA Global Academy to a second-place finish at the NBA Academy Games, posting a 20-point, 10-rebound game along the way. He has extensive international experience playing for his native Russia.

The cast may have changed a bit from last season, but the way the Trojans have been rolling up wins over the past seven seasons, it seems safe to expect USC to be in contention for the league title and fighting for an NCAA berth.

ANDY ENFIELD

HEAD COACH • 10TH YEAR

Andy Enfield, 53, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. Results came immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins in program history over a two-year, three-year, four-year, five-year, six-year and now 7-year period. USC has won 160 games over the last seven seasons which is the third-most wins in the Pac-12 and the 13th-most wins in the nation among power conferences during that time. USC has had the second-best overall record in the Pac-12 four of the last five seasons (24-12 in 2018, 22-9 in 2020, 25-8 in 2021 and 26-8 in 2022). USC's 73 wins the past three seasons trail only the last two NCAA Champions Kansas (83) and Baylor (81) among the six basketball power conferences.

Over the last five seasons, USC has had six players selected in the NBA Draft, tied for the seventh-most by any program in the country, with Evan Mobley being selected No. 3 overall in the 2021 NCAA Draft a year after Onyeka Okongwu was selected No. 6 in the 2020 NBA Draft. USC and Florida State were the only two schools to have a top 10 pick in each of those drafts. Only USC, Duke and Kentucky have had at least one player selected in each of the last five NBA Drafts.

Enfield guided the Trojans into the postseason in three consecutive seasons (2016-18), the first time for USC since 2007-09, and his teams have reached the NCAA Tournament four times in the last six seasons in which there was a postseason, including the last two seasons. His teams have also excelled in the classroom by setting the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in seven consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2022 class ranking No. 7.

Enfield has an 183-118 record in his first nine seasons as the USC head coach and is 224-146 in 11 seasons as a head coach. USC went 26-8 in 2021-22, placed third in the Pac-12, reached the Pac-12 semifinals and the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the last six seasons in which a tournament was played. The win total tied the school record. Forward Isaiah Mobley (selected in the 2022 NBA Draft by Cleveland) and guard Drew Peterson were named first-team All-Pac-12. USC held the opposition to a 39.0 shooting percentage and its first 12 opponents to under 40 percent shooting, the first time in 15 seasons a team had accomplished that feat. USC was 11-0 in the nonconference and was undefeated in play prior to conference games for the second time in six seasons, one of only two teams to have done that (Villanova).

The 2020-21 Trojans went 25-8 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight, winning the most conference games and games overall in the regular season among Pac-12 teams. The 2019-20 Trojans went 22-9, finished tied for 3rd in the Pac-12 and were getting better as the season was cancelled due to COVID-19. USC won three straight and five of its last seven to closeout the season. The Trojans led Pac-12 teams in defensive field goal percentage and points per game allowed in Conference play.

The 2018-19 Trojans were bitten by the injury bug beginning late in the summer, practicing the majority of the preseason with seven or eight scholarship players. Ultimately USC players missed 54 games due to injury and finished with a 16-17 record after falling to regular season champion Washington 78-75 in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. The Trojans provided many highlights including back-to-back-to-back home wins over UCLA (80-67), Arizona (80-57) and Arizona State (69-67). Bennie Boatwright was third among Pac-12 players with an 18.2 scoring average and Nick Rakocevic flirted with a double-double average with 14.7 points and 9.3 points per game. Boatwright was named first team All-Pac-12. USC led the Pac-12 in three-point field goal percentage, assists and assist to turnover ratio.

Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest outright conference finish since 1992. USC's 12 Pac-12 wins were its most since also going 12-6 in 2002. The Trojans reached the Pac-12 Tournament finals for the first time since winning the title in 2009. USC fell 75-61 to regular season conference champion Arizona in the title game, after defeating Oregon (74-54) and Oregon State (61-48) in the first two rounds. Jordan McLaughlin and Jonah Mathews were named to the All-Tournament team. McLaughlin and Chimezie Metu were named first-team All-Pac-12 and McLaughlin was named to the All-Defensive team. USC won the Diamond Head Classic in Hawai'i by defeating Akron, Middle Tennessee State and NCAA-Tournament bound New Mexico State. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season.

USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC's 47 combined wins during the 2016 and 2017 seasons were the most by the Trojans in a two-season stretch, breaking the mark of 46 total wins in consecutive seasons done in 2001-02 and 2007-08. USC defeated Providence in the First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. USC continued to play its up-tempo style and set the school record for assists (550), three-pointers made (283) and shots blocked (190), while recording its most steals as a team (252) since the 2003 season. USC also averaged 4.25 dunks per game (153 total) and had seven players average at least 7.0 points. Chimezie Metu was named the Pac-12's Most Improved Player and to the Pac-12 All-Conference second team, while Jordan McLaughlin was named honorable mention All-Pac-12 and De'Anthony Melton was named honorable mention on the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team.

After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. USC played an exciting brand of basketball, averaging over 80 points per game and ranking among the nation's top 20 in offensive output. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. The Trojans set the then school record with 266 three-pointers made and were in the top 25 in the country in three-point percentage. The high-flying athletic style was also in effect in the 2015-16 season as the Trojans averaged over 3.5 dunks per game and set the then USC season record with 182 blocks, ranking in the top 15 in the country in this category. USC's two freshmen in 2015-16 - Bennie Boatwright and Metu - made an immediate impact as Boatwright averaged 11.5 points and 5.2 rebounds per game, while Metu posted the second-most blocks ever by a Trojan freshman.

Enfield and staff brought in the No. 12-ranked freshman class in 2014-15 and they became key members of the team. McLaughlin was named to the 2015 Pac-12 All-Freshman team and went on to become one of three Pac-12 players all-time to record 700 or more assists and 1,600 or more career points scored. Elijah Stewart would leave USC as the school's career record-holder for three-point baskets made. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, including a Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State.

USC went 11-21 in his first season, but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, In 2016, Jacobs would lead the Pac-12 in assists and was named to the All-Conference team.

Enfield captivated the nation in 2013 as the head coach at Florida Gulf Coast University as he guided the first No. 15 seed into the NCAA Sweet Sixteen with impressive wins over No. 2 seed Georgetown and No. 7 seed San Diego State and introduced the world to "Dunk City," the nickname for FGCU's high-flying and high-speed offense which often ended with thunderous dunks.

Over Enfield's two-year run at FGCU, the Eagles won 41 games, advanced to the A-Sun Championship game both seasons and became the first No. 15 seed in NCAA Tournament history to make the Sweet Sixteen. His two seasons were the program's first as Division I postseason eligible.

Enfield was 41-28 in his two seasons (2011-12 and 2012-13) at FGCU, with the 41 victories equaling the program's combined total in the four years before he arrived. His squads played an up-tempo offense that featured spectacular dunks and alley-oops (they were nicknamed "Dunk City") and a defense that thrived on takeaways, as they ranked 16th nationally in steals (8.9 per game). He produced the 2013 Atlantic Sun Player of the Year (Sherwood Brown) and Defensive Player of the Year (Bernard Thompson).

In his second year at Florida Gulf Coast, Enfield led the Eagles to a school-record 26 wins in 2013, including a victory over No. 5 Miami. The Eagles won the Atlantic Sun Tournament with a resounding 88-75 victory over Mercer. In just the school's second season of NCAA Division I post-season eligibility, FGCU became the first team since Florida in 1987 to win the first two NCAA Tournament games it ever played. As the NCAA tourney's No. 15 seed, the Eagles shocked second-seeded Georgetown and then seventh-seed San Diego State to advance to the Sweet Sixteen. In 2012 in his first year at FGCU, he led the team to the Atlantic Sun Tournament championship game.
Prior to going to FGCU, Enfield spent the previous five years (2006-07 through 2010-11) as an assistant coach at Florida State, helping the Seminoles to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2009-11), including the Sweet 16 in 2011.

Enfield helped the Seminoles' staff sign three straight Top 25 classes, with the 2008 class ranked in the Top 10. The 2011 FSU roster featured 11 top 100 recruits and a pair of McDonald's All-Americans. In 2009, Basketball Times named him the nation's "Most Visible Assistant Coach" for the summer recruiting period, while ESPN The Magazine selected him as one of "Five Super Assistant Coaches in College Basketball" during the 2009 campaign.

Enfield began his coaching career in the NBA, serving as the shooting coach for the Milwaukee Bucks for two seasons (1994-95 and 1995-96). He then was an assistant coach with the Boston Celtics for two seasons (1998-99 and 1999-2000).
Through his company All Net Basketball, he was a player development consultant for NBA teams and players, focusing on improving shooting technique and offensive skills.

Enfield played four seasons (1987-88 through 1990-91) at Johns Hopkins, scoring a program-record 2,025 career points. He set the NCAA all-divisions career free throw percentage record (92.5, hitting 431-of-466 shots). He was a Division III All-American third teamer in 1991 and was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

He was a GTE Academic All-America first team selection as a senior and second teamer as a junior. He was the first basketball player at Johns Hopkins to earn an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and was named the NABC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 1991. He earned his economics degree from Johns Hopkins in 1991. He has a master's in business administration from the University of Maryland.

He prepped at Shippensburg (Penn.) High, where he was the class valedictorian.

Enfield and his wife, Amanda, a former model based in New York City, have two daughters, Aila and Lily, and a son, Marcum.

Below right, Enfield had his contract extended through the 2027-28 season. Enfield enters the season with 224 career wins, 183 as the Trojans' leader. He ranks fourth on USC's all-time coaching wins list and is 33 behind Bob Boyd (1967-79) who ranks third with 216 wins. He is shown here at a 2022 NCAA Tournament media session. Enfield has led USC into postseason play in five of the last six seasons which had games after the regular season.

CHRIS CAPKO

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • 2ND YEAR, 9TH WITH THE PROGRAM

Chris Capko was promoted to Associate Head Coach for the USC men's basketball program by head coach Andy Enfield on Aug. 30, 2021, after serving as an assistant coach since April 22, 2016.

He has been a perfect fit for Enfield's staff of energetic and talented coaches who are laying a great foundation for the program through strong recruiting. Capko was one of three college assistants in 2019 brought in for a feature broadcast by AthleticDirectorU to discuss the tough issues facing the game today.

Capko, who served as the USC Director of Operations during the 2014 and 2015 seasons, returned to the Trojans after spending the 2015-16 season as an assistant coach for Florida International University (FIU).

Before he came to USC as the Director of Operations, Capko spent two seasons as an assistant men's basketball coach at Georgia Southern (2012 and 2013) and as an assistant coach at Stetson (2010 and 2011).

Before his stint at Stetson, Capko served as a graduate assistant at Marshall where he assisted in the day-to-day operations of the program, monitoring academic progress of the players, weight training, conditioning, film exchange and assisting with the recruiting process.

As a player, Capko spent his first semester in the basketball program at the University of Florida under Billy Donovan. He later transferred to USF in Tampa where he played for three years. As a junior he was fifth in the Big East in assists and as a senior he was the Bulls' team captain.

Capko earned Academic All-Big East honors as a junior and senior at USF. He was also the Bulls' nominee for Big East Basketball Student-Athlete of the Year in 2007. Capko earned a bachelor's degree in mass communications at USF in December 2006 and a Master's in adult and technical education from Marshall in 2009.

A native of Lakeland, Fla., Capko was a starter for Kathleen High School when the Red Devils won the 2001 FHSAA 4-A State Championship. His wife's name is Miranda and they had their first child, Zoe Saint, born on Aug. 4, 2021.

ERIC MOBLEY

ASSISTANT COACH • 5TH YEAR

Eric Mobley is in his fifth season as an assistant men's basketball coach at USC, being named to the position by head coach Andy Enfield on March 24, 2018. Mobley brings a wealth of experience in coaching, player development, mentoring and working on skill enhancement for big men.

"We are excited to add Eric to our coaching staff," said Enfield at the time of the signing. "He brings to our program a wealth of playing and coaching experience at a variety of levels. He is an outstanding coach and a terrific person."

Mobley, 54, coached various AAU programs during the previous 11 years, coaching the AAU Compton Magic 16-and-Under team the three years before joining USC. Prior to joining the Trojans he traveled with the Compton Magic to China and put on coaching clinics and hosted player camps.

Mobley also ran the Triple Threat AAU youth basketball program from 2007-2018. The Triple Threat program, which he founded, was designed to educate and empower student-athletes with confidence, commitment and integrity through the game of basketball.

In addition to all of his other basketball activities, Mobley also served as the head women's basketball coach at Rancho Christian High in Temecula, Calif.

Mobley played collegiately at Portland, where he averaged 7.2 points and 5.6 rebounds as a 1990 starter. He then played a season at Cal Poly Pomona, where he was the team captain.

He then played on professional teams internationally in Portugal, Mexico and Indonesia, as well as domestically in the World Basketball League and on the legendary Meadowlark Lemon's Harlem All-Stars.

Mobley was originally from Georgia and moved to the San Diego area in the 1980s, where he graduated from Helix High in La Mesa (Calif.). He graduated from Portland in 1990 with a degree in Criminal Justice. He has worked in the Public Defenders Office in both Riverside and San Diego County as a corrections officer and investigator. He is also involved in various ministry works, feeding the homeless and the Salvation Army.

He and Nicol are the parents of sons Isaiah and Evan, both taken in the NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. Isaiah was Drafted No. 49 in the 2022 NBA Draft and Evan was drafted No. 3 overall in 2021. The Mobleys also served as foster parents for five years to teens who are now adults.

JAY MORRIS

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH • 2ND YEAR

Jay Morris was named an assistant coach for the USC men's basketball program by Andy Enfield on August 30, 2021. He is in his second season with the Trojans.

Morris spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at San Diego State, where he helped guide the Aztecs to a combined 74-20 record, including a 42-11 tally in Mountain West Conference games. San Diego State went 23-5 last season and won the Mountain West Conference Tournament, before falling to Syracuse in the first round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament. During the 2019-20 season, he helped guide the program to a 26-0 start, and distinction as the last undefeated team in Division I. San Diego State was the only team in the country to complete the regular season with just one loss (28-1) and one of three programs to finish the year with only two losses. SDSU spent 15 weeks ranked in the national polls including 11 weeks in the AP top-10. For five weeks the squad was No. 4 and finished at No. 6, equaling its highest ranking to end a season (2010-11).

Morris spent the 2017-18 season as an assistant coach at San Jose State. In his one season at SJSU, Morris helped the Spartans improve in several statistical categories, mostly on the defensive side of the ball. SJSU finished five spots better in the Mountain West than it did in 2016-17 in field-goal percentage defense, ranking sixth and limiting foes to 43.7 percent shooting (46.0 percent in '16-17). The Spartans also finished with better conference rankings than the previous season in three-point field-goal percentage defense (8th to 4th) and scoring defense (9th to 7th). Offensively, Morris helped SJSU improve its three-point shooting as it ranked fifth in the MW in 2017-18 (.371) compared to 2016-17's seventh-place showing (.348).

Prior to the 2017-18 season, Morris briefly held a non-coaching position at SDSU before accepting the full-time assistant coach job at San José State. He spent the 2016-17 season at Long Beach State as the director of player development, where he was responsible, in part, for the development of an off-court curriculum focused on developing skills and relationships that would assist student-athletes after basketball.

Prior to his time at the Big West school, Morris spent the 2015-16 campaign at Nevada. In that one season, Morris helped the Wolf Pack to a 24-14 record, which was a 15-win improvement over the previous year, and to a CBI championship. On the recruiting trail, Morris was the lead recruiter for several four-star signees, leading to national recognition by a number of recruiting sites.

Before moving to Reno, Morris was rooted at CSUN, a school he spent five seasons at as an assistant coach. While in the San Fernando Valley, Morris led the recruiting efforts for the 2012 Big West Freshman of the Year and number of Division I transfers. On the floor, he was instrumental in the development of the team's perimeter and interior players, and while assisting the Matador offense in 2013-14, CSUN ranked in the top-10 nationally in free throw percentage (1st), free throws made (2nd) and free throws attempted (8th).

Morris got his Division I start at Long Beach State where he spent two seasons as the director of operations. In his position, he was responsible for coordinating team travel, film exchange, serving as camp director, maintaining the program's recruiting database and monitoring academic progress. During his time at LBSU, the 49ers had the 10th-best recruiting class among mid-majors in 2009 and made the title game at the 2010 Big West tournament.

A member of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), Morris received his coaching start at his high school alma mater, Westchester High in Los Angeles where he was an assistant basketball coach and strength coach for three seasons. During his stint at the prep level, Morris coached six players who went on to play Division I.

Morris earned his bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from Cal State Dominguez Hills in 2010, and later received his master's degree in coaching/athletic administration from Concordia University in 2017.

Morris and his wife, Yavonna, have twins -- a son named Chance and daughter named Mercy.

DESMON FARMER

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING • 2ND YEAR

Desmon Farmer is in his second season as a Director of Scouting for USC after serving as a graduate assistant for the program for a season. He brings with him a wealth of professional playing experience, youth coaching and skill development training.

Farmer had spent the previous nine years working with professional and elite youth athletes to advance their basketball skills which resulted in multiple championships and over 20 college scholarships. Farmer coached the winning team at the National Basketball Players Association Top 100 Camp. Has served as the Royal Basketball school and Young3 coach and skills trainer since 2018.

He was the founder and coach of the AAU Vegas Thunder/Jam On It team with produced more than 20 NCAA scholarships for its athletes. He has also provided private and group training as well as clinics for youth athletes since 2011. He also is part owner and player for the Big3, a 3-on-3 professional league started by Ice Cube.

After playing professionally for 14 seasons, he returned to USC to finish his Bachelor of Arts degree in the Spring of 2020. Farmer played for USC from 2001-04, scoring 1,606 points which still ranks fifth on the Trojans' all-time scoring list. His freshman season of 2001 the Trojans went 24-10 and reached the Elite Eight, beating Oklahoma State, Boston College and Kentucky, before falling to Duke in the Regional final. He was named to the Pac-10 All-Freshman team in 2001, was All-Conference from 2002-04 and honorable mention All-America in 2004. He averaged 13.3 points per game during his career, including a 19.4 average as a senior which is the 13th-best single-season scoring average by a Trojan.

After leaving USC, Farmer was signed as a free agent by the NBA's Indiana Pacers, but did not make the roster. He played in a combined 11 NBA games with Seattle in 2006-07 (8) and San Antonio in 2008 (3) scoring a total of 26 points. During his stay in the NBA he was coached by Gregg Popovich, Bob Hill and Rick Carlisle.

From 2004-15 he played for teams in the NBA D-League (now G-League) or for international professional teams. In the D-League he played for Reno, Rio Grande Valley and Tulsa becoming one of the league's all-time leading scorers. Internationally he played in Israel, the Dominican Republic, Argentina, Colombia, Croatia, Russia, Puerto Rico, Spain, Poland, Belgium and Greece. He helped lead his Prokom Trefl team to the 2005 EuroLeague Sweet 16 and his Zadar Croatia team to the 2009 EuroCup Elite Eight. While playing for Candores in the Colombian LBN League, he set the single-game scoring record with 50 points.

Farmer is originally from Flint, Mich. He graduated from Flint Northwestern High in 2000 where he earned Michigan high school basketball All-State honors.

Farmer works with guard Drew Peterson at practice.

KURT KARIS

DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING • 4TH YEAR

Kurt Karis is in his fourth season as Director of Scouting, following two seasons as a graduate assistant with the USC men's basketball program. He earned his Master's in Communication Management in 2020. He also earned his undergraduate degree from USC in Communication

Karis began his USC basketball career in the 2017 season following two years (2014-15) at Chicago State. The Northbrook, Ill. native played in 22 games in two seasons for the Trojans, serving the role of a back-up guard on the team.

Karis played his high school ball at Glenbrook North and averaged 17 points and seven assists as a senior. He was named all-conference his final three seasons at Glenbrook North and was named the team MVP his final two seasons. He helped lead his team to conference titles each of his final three seasons.

Karis is one of 10 children.

Karis works with Onyeka Okongwu top and reconnects with other NBA Trojans, Chimezie Metu and De'Anthony Melton

KURTIS SHULTZ

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MANAGER • 10TH YEAR

Kurtis Shultz is in his 10th season as part of the USC strength and conditioning staff. He will primarily be working with the USC men's basketball team once again this season.

Shultz arrived at USC after three seasons (2009-11) as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers head strength and conditioning coach and six seasons overall with the NFL team. He oversaw the Buccaneers year-round conditioning program while also overseeing the 9,353 square foot workout facility that he helped design.

Shultz joined Tampa Bay after two seasons with the Minnesota Vikings (2004-05) as the head strength and conditioning coach. In 2003 he served as the assistant strength coach with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Shultz gained a bulk of his professional experience as strength coach for the Maryland basketball program, helping the team to the 2001-02 NCAA title.

Shultz was also a basketball player at Maryland (1991-95) and served as team captain as a senior. His final two seasons with the Terrapins they advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen.

His wife's name is Sharon and they have three children, Jacob (13), Courson (11) and Jaxson (9).

Shultz has installed a rigorous workout program designed to get the Trojan players in their best shape ever and ready to to push the ball up court for 40 minutes.

JON YONAMINE

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER, MEN'S BASKETBALL • 10TH YEAR

Jon Yonamine is in his 10th season as the USC men's basketball athletic trainer. He was promoted to Associate Athletic Trainer, Men's Basketball in August of 2015.

He began working at USC in 2008 and has served as the Trojans' athletic trainer for track and field (2008-11) and baseball (2011-13).

Yonamine previously worked as an assistant athletic trainer at UC Irvine. While at UC Irvine, he worked with various teams including men's basketball, baseball, and the men's and women's golf teams. Prior to graduate school, he had internships with the New York Jets and Anaheim Ducks.

He is a graduate of UC Irvine in 2000 and earned a master's in Kinesiology from Cal State East Bay in 2005 while working as a graduate assistant at Cal. He and his wife, Jennifer, have four children, a son Devin, a daughter Jordyn and twin daughters Brooklyn and Kamdyn.

Yonamine tapes up Elijah Stewart before the First Four game against Providence.

MICHAEL SWETS

ASSISTANT AD, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS • 7TH YEAR

Michael Swets was named the Director of Operations for the USC men's basketball program on July 11, 2016. He was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director for Basketball Operations leading into his seventh season with the Trojans in 2022-23.

As USC's Director of Operations, Swets handles team travel arrangements, manages the program's budget, works on the Trojan's non-conference schedule, coordinates the daily schedule and oversees the team of student managers. He also acts as the program's liaison to many of the other departments within athletics as well as the rest of the campus community. He also leads the community outreach endeavors for the USC men's basketball program.

On October 30, 2021 he was named one of Division I college basketball's Top 50 Notable Support Staff by Silver Waves Media. In April 2018, Swets was a featured panel speaker at the NABC Convention during the Final Four in Houston, Texas for the forum "Director of Basketball Operations: Standard Operating Procedure."

Prior to his arrival at USC, Swets served as the Director of Operations for the Towson basketball program from 2012-2016, which marked the winningest four-year period in the history of the program (75 wins). In his role, he was responsible for coordinating team travel, overseeing the program's budget and served as the director of their summer basketball camps. Prior to that, he was the Director of Student-Athlete Development for the Tigers for a season. While at Towson he helped the program to an NCAA record 17.5 game turnaround during the 2012-13 season, finishing with 18 wins. The season marked the first above .500 overall finish at the school since the 1993-94 season. A year later, Towson set the school's record for Division I wins (25) during the 2013-14 season, reaching the postseason for the first time since 1991 and earning the school's only two postseason victories. They also reached the postseason during the 2016 season, for just the fourth time in school history.

Swets joined Towson from Providence College where he served as a graduate assistant for two seasons. At Providence, he was responsible for the breakdown of game and practice footage for player development and opponent scouting in addition to assisting with the day-to-day operations, recruiting visits and summer camps. He also assisted in scheduling for the Friars.

A 2009 graduate of Boston College, Swets was a student manager for the Eagles for three seasons and was named head manager as a senior. He assisted Head Coach Al Skinner and the staff during the games, practices and individual workouts while performing daily administrative duties, helping the program advance to two NCAA Tournaments. He received the Mary Kaye Waldron Award in 2009 as the support staff member who best exemplified inspiration, loyalty and unwavering dedication to the Boston College basketball program.

Swets earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Boston College in marketing, information systems and management leadership in 2009, graduating magna cum laude. He also received the Athletic Director's Award for Academic Achievement. He earned his MBA from Providence in 2011.

LIZ LAYTON

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL ADMINISTRATION • 2ND YEAR

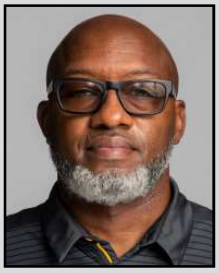

Liz Layton is in her second season as Director of Basketball Administration for the men's basketball program. She brings with her a solid background in delivering exceptional clerical and operational support for professionals, as well as a true passion for the game of basketball. She quickly has established herself as a key member of the Trojan basketball family.

After studying Dance Education at Brigham Young University, Liz went on to Head Coach the Drill Team programs at Juan Diego Catholic High School in Draper, Utah and Lone Peak High School in Highland, Utah from 2013-2016. She then danced professionally for the NBA as a member of the Utah Jazz Dancers from 2017-2018.

In her role as USC's Director of Basketball Administration, Liz oversees daily operations, analyzes financial approvals and payments, assists in coordinating travel arrangements and acts as a liaison for other departments throughout the USC campus community.

BREAKDOWN: Sophomore Reese Dixon-Waters is a 6-5, 210-pound athletic guard who has great basketball instincts and has the ability to help the Trojans both offensively and defensively. Dixon-Waters is expected to have a big roll during the 2022-23 season. He originally committed to USC for the 2021-22 season, but graduated from high school early and enrolled at USC in December of 2020 and was able to get invaluable experience as part of the 2020-21 team.

2021-22: Dixon-Waters played in 33 games off the bench and averaged 4.8 points and 1.8 rebounds. He saw his playing time increase during the second half of the season, averaging 20.7 minutes and 8.5 points over the last 10 games. He missed the Pac-12 semifinal game against UCLA on March 11 with a sore hip. He came back strong in the NCAA Tournament game vs. Miami on March 18, scoring a career-high 16 points, 14 in the second half to help the Trojans get back into the game after trailing by as many as 13. He scored 10 points and matched a career best with two three-pointers vs. UCLA on Feb. 12. He scored a then-career-best 14 points in the double-overtime win at Oregon State on Feb. 24. He made 34 of his last 38 free throws (89.5 percent). Among Trojans with at least 20 makes from three-point range, he led the team with a 46.0 shooting percentage (23-for-50).

2020-21: Dixon-Waters joined the team after graduating He became eligible on Dec. 12 and USC was set to open Pac-12 play with him in uniform on Dec. 13, but hours before the game it was postponed due to a positive COVID-19 test. He did make his debut vs. Santa Clara on Dec. 29 and he nailed a three-pointer on his first collegiate shot...for the game he scored 5 points and had a rebound in 5 minutes of action. In seven games for USC he scored 5 points and grabbed 6 rebounds. Overall, he played 34 minutes over 10 games and scored 5 points and had 6 rebounds. He played in three of USC's four NCAA Tournament games along USC's NCAA Tournament run to the Elite Eight.

HIGH SCHOOL: Dixon-Waters was ranked as the No. 4 player in the state of California and No. 50 overall player in the nation by 247Sports.com. Dixon-Waters averaged 17.0 points, 10.0 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 steals per game in leading the Vikings to a 22-7 record that season. As a sophomore at Dorsey HS, Waters averaged 18.9 points, 6.6 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.7 steals per game.

PERSONAL: Reese was born on June 21, 2002.

BREAKDOWN: Sophomore 6-10, 230-pound forward Harrison Hornery is a strong rebounder and scorer out to the three-point range. He will make a strong play for an expanded roll this season.

2021-22: Hornery was used sparingly, appearing in 12 games and scoring 19 points in 54 minutes of action. Had a layup vs. CSUN on Nov. 9 in his collegiate debut. Became an instant fan-favorite when he came off the bench and spearheaded USC's comeback from a 13-point second-half deficit against Pacific on Feb. 2 by going 3-for-4 from three-point range to score nine points and grab a season-best six rebounds.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hornery graduated from Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif. where he averaged a team-leading 18.6 points, 7.8 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game as a senior. Hornery also led Mater Dei in three-point shots made with 76. He scored 24 points or more over the final six games which included three CIF Southern Section Open Division playoff games and a CIF Southern Section Regional Open Division game. Hornery was named first team All-State and the Orange County Player of the Year as he led the Monarchs to a 27-4 record. He was also named first team All-CIF and Trinity League MVP. He maintained a 4.1 grade-point average.

PERSONAL: Hornery was born on July 1, 2001 in Mackay, Queensland, Australia. His parents are Deanne and Brian Parslow and his father is Chuck Hornery...He has five siblings, Charlie, Grace, Clancy, Claire and River…Hornery came to the U.S. to play basketball at Mater Dei and has live with a host family in Mission Viejo, Calif. He stayed in the U.S. during the pandemic and saw his parents only through Facetime for nearly 15 months…His interests include golf, visiting the beach and going back to Australia… He would like to visit Fiji someday…Hornery is majoring in Economics at USC.

BREAKDOWN: Redshirt junior 6-11, 220-pound forward Joshua Morgan provides USC with experience and a strong defensive presence in the paint. He transferred to USC from Long Beach State after the 2019-20 season, his freshman campaign. He is a tough rebounder and defender.

2021-22: Morgan appeared in 31 games off the bench for the Trojans averaging 3.2 points and 2.9 rebounds per game. He was second on the team in blocks with 28. Posted a season-best 13 points and added six rebounds in the Wooden Legacy win over Saint Joseph's on Nov. 25. He scored eight points and grabbed eight rebounds the next day in the championship win over San Diego State. Missed three USC home games from Jan. 24-29 with right knee tendinitis. He made his only shot and grabbed four rebound in USC's NCAA Tournament game vs. Miami on March 18.

2020-21: Morgan was going to redshirt the 2020-21 season, but once the NCAA granted players another season and he was cleared, he was used sparingly. Morgan appeared in seven games and scored two points and grabbed four rebounds. Played in his first game as a Trojan vs. Santa Clara on Dec. 29. He had two points on a dunk and collected 2 rebounds vs. Stanford on March 3. Morgan played in USC's first two NCAA Tournament games, playing a minute and making a block vs. Drake on March 20 and playing three minutes and getting a rebound vs. Kansas on March 22.

2019-20: Morgan had a strong freshman season for Long Beach State being named the Big West Defensive Player of the Year and being named honorable mention All-Big West. He was the second Big West freshman to earn Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining Mamadou Ndaiye of UC Irvine in 2014. He played in all 32 games and made 29 starts while averaging 8.4 points, 6.1 rebounds and 2.5 blocks per game. Morgan had 80 blocks which set the school record and ranked 13th nationally, second among freshman. His 80 blocks ranked second all-time in a single season by a Big West player. He also set the LBSU single-game record with 8 blocks vs.CS Fullerton on Jan. 18. He scored in double figures 14 times with a season-best 17 points vs. UC Riverside on Feb. 15. He had 23 games of at least five rebounds with a career-best 14 boards vs. UC Davis on Jan. 16.

HIGH SCHOOL: Morgan graduated from Sheldon High in Sacramento in 2019. He averaged 9.3 points, and 7.3 rebounds with over four blocks per game. He began his high school career at Pleasant Grove High.

PERSONAL: Joshua was born on October 7, 2001.

Nov. 9 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC had a complete team effort in its 89-49 win over CSUN in the opener on Nov. 9 at the Galen Center. Boogie Ellis scored 20 points in his USC debut and Isaiah Mobley scored 15 points and added nine rebounds. Twelve of 13 Trojans to play in the game scored, five different players registered at least one block and six players had a dunk. USC's 40-point win was its largest margin of victory since defeating Southern Utah 91-49 on Dec. 21, 2018. USC improved to 23-4 in its last 27 home openers. USC used a 19-0 run midway through the first half to build a comfortable margin and never looked back, leading 52-19 at the break. USC's first half points were more than it scored before the break last season and CSUN's first-total was lower than any of USC's opponents a seasons ago. USC made 11 of 13 shots from the FT line for a 84.6 shooting percentage, its highest from the line since making 87.5 percent vs. Utah on Jan. 30, 2020. USC outrebounded the Matadors 40-25.

Nov. 13 • Liacouras Center
Philadelphia, Pa.

USC built up a 19-point first half lead, but had to withstand a frantic Temple comeback for a 76-71 win at the Liacouras Center in Philadelphia, Pa. The victory was the 200th career victory for USC head coach andy Enfield, the 159 at the helm of the Trojans. USC led 46-27 at the break and still by 17 at 58-41 nearly seven minutes into the second half, when Temple went on a 13-0 run to cut it to 58-54 at the 9:42 mark. Isaiah Mobley hit a 3-pointer 17 seconds later and USC led by at least 4 points the rest of the way until Temple cut it to 3 at 74-71 with 9 seconds remaining. Drew Peterson then hit a pair of free throws to ice the game. Chevez Goodwin led four Trojans in double figures with 19 points, followed by Isaiah White with 12, Boogie Ellis with 11 and Peterson with 10. Isaiah Mobley had 9 points and 8 rebounds, despite sitting out much of the first half in foul trouble. The game was marred by a total of 46 fouls, 22 on the Trojans. USC was outrebounded 44-39. USC had 20 assists on its 27 baskets.

Nov. 16 • Alico Arena
Fort Myers, Fla.

Chevez Goodwin scored 20 and Boogie Ellis 18 with career highs in rebounds (8) and assists (6) to lead USC to a 78-61 win before a sellout crowd at FGCU, as Andy Enfield returned to the place he began his head coaching career. Enfield, who led the Eagles to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2013, was inducted with that team into the FGCU Athletic Hall of Fame the night before. USC trailed 15-10 eight minutes into the game, but outscored FGCU 25-12 the rest of the half to take an 8-point lead at the break. The Eagles cut it to 5 points 10 minutes into the 2nd half, but USC went on a 12-2 run capped by back-to-back 3-pointers by Isaiah Mobley to put the game away. Mobley finished with 13 points and Max Agbonkpolo tied a career best with 10 as the Trojans had four players in double-figures for the second consecutive game. USC made 49.2 percent of its shots, while holding FGCU to 36.7 percent shooting. USC had 22 assists on its 32 baskets. USC outscored FGCU 44-26 on points in the paint and out-dunked Dunk City 5-1 in the game.

Boogie Ellis had 19 points and Max Agbonkpolo scored a career-high 17 off the bench as No. 25 USC men's basketball cruised to a 98-71 win over Dixie State at home on Monday night. Chevez Goodwin continued his strong start to the season with a 12-point, 11-rebound double-double. Reese Dixon-Waters scored a career-high nine points. Five total Trojans scored in double-digits and 11 recorded points. The Trojans had season-highs in points, field goals, 3-pointers and rebounds. The Trojans faced little danger throughout the game and opened the night with a 22-5 run powered by four 3-pointers and several highlight buckets from Ellis. USC used its early cushion to experiment with different lineups as 11 Trojans entered the game within the first 12 minutes. After trailing 47-36 in the first half, Dixie State (1-4) tried to rally in the second half. The Trail Blazers made their first four buckets and trimmed USC's lead to nine points. The Trojans broke out with a 19-6 run to make the game all but over.

Boogie Ellis scored 17 points on 8-of-14 shooting as No. 24 USC men's basketball cruised over Saint Joseph's, 70-55, in the semifinal round of the Paycom Wooden Legacy in Anaheim on Thanksgiving Day. Joshua Morgan scored a USC career-high 13 points off the bench in his second year with the Trojans. The USC bench combined for 28 points. Chevez Goodwin had 10 points and eight rebounds. Isaiah Mobley grabbed a game-high 10 boards. The Trojans' win marks a 5-0 for the second straight season. Despite making just four 3-pointers, USC's size bothered Saint Joseph's (2-3) as the Trojans scored 40 points in the paint. USC also continued its clean assist-to-turnover ratio on Thursday, turning the ball over just seven times white dishing 12 dimes. Ejike Obinna finished with 18 points and 10 rebounds for Saint Joseph's. Hawks leading scorers Taylor Funk (18.5 ppg) and Jordan Hall (15.5 ppg) were held to just 12 points and four points, respectively.

Captain Isaiah Mobley recorded his first double-double of the season with 18 points and 12 rebounds as No. 24 USC men's basketball locked down San Diego State, 58-43, to claim the Paycom Wooden Legacy championship on Friday night in Anaheim. Drew Peterson scored 14 of his 16 points in the second half. Boogie Ellis had just two points — his lowest total of the season — but was a plus-15 in 34 minutes on the court. Chevez Goodwin added 10 points and five rebounds. The Trojans met the Aztecs in a defensive showdown and won the game despite shooting just 42.1%, making six of 18 free throws and going on several significant scoring droughts throughout the game. USC held San Diego State to 32.1% shooting and allowed three 3-pointers on 17 attempts. The Trojans held Aztecs leading scorer Matt Bradley to just three points on 1-of-7 shooting and got him into foul trouble throughout the game.

Isaiah Mobley and Boogie Ellis combined for 40 points as No. 20 USC opened Pac-12 play with a 93-73 win over Utah in front of an energetic home crowd at the Galen Center. The Trojans' 7-0 start to the season is their best since 2017 when USC won its first 14 games. Mobley recorded a double-double for the second straight game with a career-high 21 points on 8-of-14 shooting and a career-high tying 13 rebounds. Ellis finished with 19 points on 7-of-12 shooting. Max Agbonkpolo contributed 16 points, scoring mostly in the paint. Drew Peterson finished with 11 points and 8 rebounds. Joshua Morgan grabbed 8 boards and blocked 4 shots off the bench. USC dominated Utah on the boards, owning a 51-32 rebounding advantage and grabbed 18 offensive rebounds. The Trojans shot 52.2% from the field and continued their clean record of ball-control with just 8 turnovers. Down 2 points at the 12:36 mark in the first half, the Trojans broke out on a 7-0 run. After the two teams scored two buckets each, USC went on a 13-0 run highlighted by Ellis scoring 8 unanswered points in the stretch. The two spurts allowed the Trojans to take a 48-28 lead into halftime and never allowed the Utes within single-digits for the rest of the game.

Chevez Goodwin completed a three-point play with 16 seconds left to lead No. 20 USC to a hard-fought 63-61 win at Washington State in its Pac-12 road opener. There were 7 lead changes and 7 ties in the game. After an Isaiah Mobley 3-pointer tied the game at 54 with just over 4 minutes remaining, the Trojans and Cougars traded 2-point baskets until a Drew Peterson turnaround jumper put USC up 60-58 with 51 seconds remaining. WSU's TJ Bamba then hit a 3-pointer with 35 seconds left for a 61-60 lead, setting up Goodwin's heroics. Max Agbonkpolo blocked Noah Williams' shot with 6 seconds remaining, then after a missed FT by Josh Morgan, Williams well-defended forced shot at the buzzer fell short and USC improved to 8-0, its 11th consecutve win against WSU. Goodwin led USC with 14 points and Peterson added 13. USC trailed 32-30 at the break, its first time all season behind at halftime. Goodwin scored the first 7 points of the second half to give the Trojans the lead after trailing by as many as 7 points in the first half. USC actually had a 12-0 scoring run from the final minute of the first half to the first 3 minutes of the second half to open up a 39-32 lead, after trailing for all by 32 seconds of the first half. USC made 50 percent of its shots, while holding WSU to 37.9 percent shooting.

Isaiah Mobley scored 14 of his 21 points in the second half, Drew Peterson added 15 and No. 16 USC defeated Long Beach State 73-62 in front of over 5,500 fans at Galen Center on Dec. 12. It was the Trojans' 10th straight win to open the season. Mobley also had 12 rebounds for his fourth double-double in five games. Peterson shot 6-for-8 from the field, including 3-for-3 from 3-point range. Max Agbonkpolo finished with 11 points. USC limited LBSU to 38.3 percent shooting and have held all 10 of their opponents to under 40 percent shooting this season. LBSU made 51.7 percent of its first-half shots, but were held to 25.8 percent shooting after the break. LBSU was poised to take a lead into halftime, but Peterson hit a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to tie the game at 38-all at the half. USC built on Peterson's big shot and opened the second half with a 14-0 run to take the lead for good. USC was outrebounded 35-34 and allowed LBSU to get 15 offensive boards. USC committed 15 turnovers and 8 of the 9 Trojans to play had at least one of them. USC made 7 of 10 free throws (70 percent) for its best shooting night at the stripe since the season opener. New USC new head football coach Lincoln Riley made his first public appearance to fans at the game, sat courtside and was introduced at a timeout in the first half.

Chevez Goodwin scored 17 of his 23 points in the second half and had several clutch baskets down the stretch as No. 10 USC rallied from an early 10-point deficit to beat UC Irvine, 66-61, at the Galen Center on Dec. 15. With USC up just 3 with 2:11 left in the game, Goodwin converted an and-one play that energized the Galen Center crowd. After UCI made consecutive baskets, Goodwin came up clutch once more by grabbing an offensive rebound for a put-back layup with 24 seconds left to seal the game. Goodwin recorded his USC-high in points and finished with a season-best 3 blocks. Isaiah Mobley finished with a 22-point, 12-rebound double-double. Collin Welp had a game-high 24 points for the Anteaters. USC opened the game with a 12-2 run but UC Irvine which was 1-for-11 from the floor at that point, made 8 of its next 9 shots to take a 24-18 lead. UCI upped the lead to 10 points twice in the first half and lead by 8 at 36-28 at the break. The Trojans roared back in the second half and erased UC Irvine's lead with a 13-4 run. Goodwin and Mobley combined for 28 of the Trojans' 38 points to close out the game. USC held UCI to 37.5 percent shooting and outrebounded the Anteaters 46-33. USC had a season-low 40.7 shooting percentage. USC'S 66 points scored were the most by a UCI opponent this season to date.

Boogie Ellis scored 16 points as No. 10 USC stayed perfect (12-0) in its start to the season with a 67-53 win against Georgia Tech at the Colangelo Classic in Phoenix on Dec. 18. Ellis scored in double figures for the first time in five games despite averaging 17.0 points in the Trojans' opening five contests. He also grabbed seven rebounds and was presented the game's Most Valuable Player award by tournament namesake Jerry Colangelo. The Trojans also had strong contributions from Chevez Goodwin (13 points and eight rebounds), and Ethan Anderson and Isaiah Mobley (11 points each). The Trojans pulled away at multiple points of the game thanks to 3-point shooting, making 9 of 19 treys for USC's best clip of the season at 47.1%. The Trojans had a cold start to the game and found themselves in an early 14-8 deficit but their' tough defense prevented further damage, holding the Yellow Jackets to a season-low 31.8% shooting all game. USC finally went on a 25-4 run later in the first half led by a 3-point barrage from Peterson, Anderson and Mobley. The burst gave USC a nine-point lead at halftime. Georgia Tech cut the lead within seven points with 6:13 remaining, but the Trojans closed out the game with 20-4 run. Michael Devoe scored a game-high 25 points for the Yellow Jackets.

Isaiah Mobley scored 19 and Drew Peterson 17 as USC extended its season-opening winning streak to 13 and ended California's 9-game home winning streak with a 77-64 win at Haas Pavilion in Berkeley, Calif on Jan.6. USC had not played since Dec. 18 due to Covid-19 protocols, but showed no rust as it made 53.4 percent of its shots, outrebounded California 39-24 and outscored the Bears 50-14 on points in the paint. There were 10 lead changes and 6 ties in the first half, but USC took a 36-31 lead to the break and never looked back. USC made 64.3 percent of its shots in the second half (18 of 28), made 3 of 4 three-pointers and both free throws after the break. The Trojans also had just 3 turnovers in the second half and 9 for the game. Cal made 45.8 percent of its second-half shots to finish with a 40.7 field goal percentage, the first team all season shooting over 40 percent against USC. USC was the first team in 15 seasons to hold its first 12 opponents under 40 percent shooting. Boogie Ellis scored 14 points and Chevez Goodwin added 12 as USC pushed its winning streak against Cal to seven games. Grant Anticevich led Cal with 19 points. The Trojans matched their season-best free throw result by making 11 of 13 for a 84.6 shooting percentage from the charity stripe.

Jan. 11 • Maples Pavilion
Palo Alto, Calif.

In its first game being ranked No. 5 since Dec. 30, 1974, the Trojans fell 75-69 at Stanford in Palo Alto, Calif. with a limited crowed of 100 due to Covid-19 restrictions and a 2 p.m. start on a Tuesday. The game was originally scheduled for Jan. 8, but was postponed due to health and safety protocols within the Stanford program. The game was tight throughout with neither team holding more than a 7-point lead and the game featuring 10 lead changes and 5 ties. USC held a 7-point lead with 1:56 remaining in the first half, but Stanford's Spencer Jones went on a personal 6-0 run in 36 seconds at the 1:28 mark to cut USC's lead to 33-32 at the break. The game went back and forth throughout the second half. With USC up 4 and just under 5 minutes remaining, Stanford went on a 9-1 run to take control of the game. USC was 1-for-6 from the floor and 4-for-8 from the free throw line in the final 5 minutes, while Stanford was 4-for-6 from the floor and 7-for-8 from the line. Stanford posted opponent high to date of 75 points, 43.9 field goal percentage and a 41.7 percent from three-point range, making 10 of 24 attempts. USC made 6 of 21 three-point attempts and shot 42.9 percent from the floor. Isaiah Mobley led USC with 16 points on 5 field goal attempts. Jones and Harrison Ingram led Stanford with 21 points each.

Jan. 13 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC scored the final 11 points to overcome a hot-shooting Oregon State team and earn a 81-71 win at the Galen Center on Jan. 13. Due to Covid-19 restriction, fans were not allowed, other than a spattering of friends and family. USC took its first lead of the game at 57-56 with 10:33 remaining in the game, after trailing 42-37 at the half and by 10 points early into the second half. The Beavers, who shot 43.5 percent for the game, made 57.7 percent of their shots in the first half and 33.3 percent in the second half. OSU was hot from beyond the arc all night, making an opponent-high 52.9 percent from 3-point range. Chevez Goodwin led the USC comeback with 20 points and 12 rebounds. He had 9 offensive rebounds, the most by a Trojan since Taj Gibson had 10 on Nov. 20, 2008 vs. Seton Hall. Trailing 41-51 at the 16:49 mark of the second half, USC went on a 24-8 run over the next 7:39 to go up 65-59, punctuated on a 3-pointer by Reese Dixon-Waters who scored 7 points in that stretch. OSU didn't go away though as Jarod Lucas hit back-to-back 3-pointers to tie the game. After a Goodwin dunk and a Drew Peterson 3-pointer gave USC a 70-67 lead, OSU scored the next 4 points to make it 71-70 OSU with 3:55 remaining. Isaiah Mobley scored the next 6 points to lead USC's 11-0 run to end the game. Peterson added 17 points, 7 rebounds and 4 assists. Lucas led OSU with 27 points, making 6 of 10 three-pointers.

Boogie Ellis and Isaiah Mobley scored 18 points each, but No. 5 USC suffered its second loss of the season, falling 79-69 to Oregon at the Galen Center on Jan. 15. Oregon led wire-to-wire and by as many as 18 points early in the second half. After USC closed to within 5 points late in the first half, Oregon closed the half with a 13-2 blitz, punctuated by a 3-pointer by Eric Williams Jr. at the buzzer to go into the break up 45-29. USC got as close as 9 points with just under 5 minutes remaining, but got no closer. USC made 41.7 percent of its shots, while allowing Oregon to make an opponent high of 50 percent, the first team all season to make 50 percent of its shots against the Trojans and the 79 points scored were an opponent high to date. USC did not do any better in its three-point defense at the Ducks made 47.6 percent from beyond the arc. USC turned things around in the second half, outscoring Oregon 40-34 and outshooting them from the field. USC committed13 turnovers in the game and was outscored 22-11 on points off turnovers and was beaten 15-3 on fastbreak points. USC did grab 15 offensive rebounds and outscored the Ducks 21-4 on second chance points. Oregon guard Will Richardson scored a career-high 28 points and made a season-high 5 3-pointers on 8 attempts.

Jan. 20 • CU Events Center
Boulder, Colo.

Chevez Goodwin scored all 14 of his points in the second half and USC held Colorado to one field goal in the final 6:41 to earn a gritty 61-58 victory at the CU Events Center on Jan. 20. The win snapped USC's 7-game losing streak to Colorado. Goodwin also grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds, the most by a Trojan since Nick Rakocevic also had 18 on Nov. 11, 2018 vs. Vanderbilt. The game featured 13 lead changes and eight ties and was close throughout with neither side taking more than a 7-point lead. Trailing by its biggest deficit of the game at 50-45 with 6:41 remaining, the Trojan defense held the Buffaloes without a field goal until a harmless floater by Keeshawn Barthelemy just before the buzzer, snapping an 0-for-8 skid from the floor. Max Agbonkpolo began the comeback with a putback, followed by a CU turnover and a Goodwin free throw. After an Agbonkpolo block, Isaiah Mobley finished a baseline drive with a dunk and the Trojans had tied it at 50-all. USC took the lead for good at 55-53 with 2:14 remaining on a Goodwin layup. Goodwin made 1 of 2 FT and Agbonkpolo 3 of 4 down the stretch to close it out. USC held Colorado to 31.4 percent shooting, but the Buffs made 7 of 15 from 3-point range (46.7 percent). USC outrebounded Colorado 47-32 and outscored them 38-12 on points in the paint.

Drew Peterson made a season-best five 3-pointers and scored a season-best 23 points to help lead No. 16 USC to a 79-67 win at Utah on Jan. 22. USC improved to 16-2, the best start by a Trojan team since the 1971 season. The win completed the tough Mountain schools road trip sweep, only the second time for the Trojans since the schools joined the conference in 2011. USC defeated Colorado, 61-58, in Boulder on Thursday. Peterson was 5-for-5 from 3-point range which tied for the third most makes without a miss from beyond the arc by a Trojan. He was 9 of 10 from the field overall and also grabbed seven rebounds. Boogie Ellis had 18 points and Isaiah Mobley scored 10 with six boards and five assists. USC jumped out to a 14-point lead behind 12 first-half points by Ellis, but Utah finished the half on a 13-4 run to make it 35-30 at the break. USC responded with a 21-8 run after the break to take control of the game. USC made 50.9 percent of its shots, while holding Utah to 36.1 percent shooting. USC outrebounded Utah 42-31, outscored them 40-20 on points in the paint and 15-6 on second chance points. Gabe Madsen led Utah with five 3-pointers made and a career-best 20 points scored. USC had 18 assists, it most since having a season-best 23 vs. Long Beach State on Dec. 13.

Drew Peterson led USC with 16 points and Max Agbonkpolo, Chevez Goodwin and Isaiah Mobley each scored 12 as USC rallied to beat Arizona State, 78-56, at the Galen Center on Jan. 24. USC was also boosted off the bench by Reese Dixon-Waters' 8 points and Kobe Johnson's 5 assists. USC started 3-for-16 from the floor and trailed 22-10 14 minutes into the game, but went on a 16-0 run at the point, beginning with back-to-back 3-pointers by Dixon-Waters and Mobley twice. As the second Mobley 3-pointer swished through it was tied at 22-all with 4:25 remaining in the half. USC still scored the next 4 points before a jumper by Jalen Graham stopped the run. USC scored the next five, including a 3-pointer just before the buzzer by Johnson to give USC a 31-24 lead at the break. USC built the lead to as many as 25 points in the 2nd half. USC more than doubled ASU on the boards (49-24) and outscored them 36-6 off the bench. Despite its slow start, USC made 45.8 percent of its shots and held ASU to 34.4 percent shooting. The game was played before limited fans as Covid-19 restrictions were scaled back. Shortly after the game was over, a bomb threat was called in and the remaining people in the arena were evacuated.

Drew Peterson led the Trojans with 14 points, but USC lost for the second time this season to Stanford, this time 64-61 at the Galen Center on Jan. 27. Stanford jumped out to a 14-5 lead by making 5 of its first 7 shots, including 4-for-4 from 3-point range five minutes into the game. Stanford made its first five 3-point shots in the half. USC finished the first half on a 15-2 run to take a 34-28 lead into the break. Stanford held USC to a season-low 27 points in the 2nd half to earn the victory. The Cardinal scored the first 6 points after the break to tie it, but ndid not take the lead until a jumper by Spencer Jones with 5:06 left gave them a 56-55 lead. After a missed dunk by Boogie Ellis, a pair of buckets from James Keefe and Brandon Angel pushed the lead to 60-55. USC responded with a jumper by Max Agbonkpolo and a 3-pointer from the corner by Peterson to tie the score at 60 with 55 seconds left. After a TO, Harrison Ingram drove right down the lane for a layin and a 62-60 lead. Isaiah Mobley was fouled on an attempted putback with 14 seconds left, but made just one of two FT and Stanford closed out the game with a pair of FT by Angel. Stanford made 50 percent of its shots in the 2nd half and 42.6 percent for the game. Stanford defeated USC 29-27 on rebounds and 26-22 on points in the paint. The Cardinal outscored USC 18-4 on points in the paint in the second half.

Isaiah Mobley scored a career-high 24 points and Boogie Ellis had a season-best 21 to power USC to a 79-72 win over California at the Galen Center on Jan. 29. Ellis made 8 of 10 shots, including both from 3-point range. Despite Cal posting its second-best shooting day of the season of 50 percent and being just the second USC opponent make half of its shots, the Trojans stormed back from an early 11-point deficit. California jumped out to a 20-9 lead 8 minute in, including 2-for-2 from 3-point range. USC outscored the Golden Bears 32-15 the rest of the half to lead 41-35 at the break. The Trojans led the entire second half, but did not put Cal away until late in the game. USC led 67-60 with 4:46 remaining, but Cal scored 5-straight points to cut it to 67-65 with 3:16 remaining. Mobley then hit a turnaround in the lane and Ellis converted a 3-point play with a layup and foul shot to up the lead to 7 again. Max Agbonkpolo hit one of two FTs and Drew Peterson 4-straight to close out the game. USC had just four turnovers, its fewest in a game since having 3 at UCLA on Feb. 28, 2019. USC outscored the Bears 16-2 on fastbreak points. USC tied a season high in makes from the FT line, going 21-for-28. Chevez Goodwin added 10 points for the Trojans and Ethan Anderson had four points and a team-best 5 assists without a turnover.

Feb. 5 • McKale Center
Tucson, Ariz.

In a game that featured 14 lead changes and 11 ties, Arizona finished on an 18-3 run over the final 6:17 for a 72-63 win at the McKale Center before 14,644 fans. The No. 7 Wildcats were the first ranked opponent USC had faced this season and it didn't seem like it mattered to the Trojans as they led 60-54 at the 6:30 mark of the second half. However, USC missed all but one of its final 14 shots down the stretch and the final margin became the biggest lead for either team during the game. USC trailed by one at halftime, 29-28, as Ethan Anderson's jumper at the buzzer was downgraded to a 2-pointer from a 3-pointer. Arizona built the lead to as much as 6 points 4 minutes into the second half, but when Max Agbonkpolo's jumper went through the net at the 13:00 mark USC had tied the game at 42-all. USC took 15 more shots than Arizona, but made only 34.3 percent, while Arizona made 47.3 percent of its shots. The Wildcats also outrebounded USC 42-37 and outscored the Trojans 42-28 on points in the paint. Isaiah Mobley led USC with 15 points and Isaiah White scored 9 points by going 3 of 7 on 3-pointers. Chevez Goodwin, Boogie Ellis and Anderson added 8 points each. USC lost for the first time when committing less turnovers than its opponent (6-1).

Feb. 8 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

Harrison Hornery came off the bench to hit three 3-pointers to help ignite USC's 13-point second half comeback in a 74-68 win at the Galen Center. USC made 17 of its final 27 shots (63 percent). After falling behind 39-26 three minutes into the second half, USC used a full-court press and some hot shooting to mount the comeback. Hornery's third 3-pointer with 8:01 remaining gave USC a 53-51 lead, its first lead since three minutes into the game (4-3). Two and a half minutes later, Drew Peterson's floating jumper in the paint gave USC the lead for good at 57-56. Peterson scored 8 of his 12 points after the break and Boogie Ellis scored 11 of his team-high 13 points in the second half. Chevez Goodwin also reached double figures in points with 12. Hornery, seeing added minutes as Isaiah Mobley missed the game with a non-displaced nasal fracture, had career-bests with 9 points and 6 rebounds in 14 minutes off the bench. Hornery had scored five points and had one rebound in 17 minutes of action in USC's first 23 games. Fellow freshman Reese Dixon-Waters matched a career best with nine points, going 6-for-6 from the FT line. USC made its final shot of the first half to finish at 31.0 percent (9-for-29) and went 0-for-7 from 3-point range before the break.

Drew Peterson scored a career-high 27 points, with 12 rebounds, four assists and five blocks as No. 21 USC defeated rival No. 12 UCLA, 67-74, in front of a sold-out crowd Feb. 12. Peterson was 4-of-5 from the 3-point line and willed a 18-6 run late in the second half that helped the Trojans seal the win. Chevez Goodwin had 10 points and nine rebounds and Reese Dixon-Waters added a career-best 10 points, going 2-of-3 from the 3-point line.The Trojans were without and leading scorer and rebounder Isaiah Mobley, who missed his second-straight game due to concussion like symptoms as a result of a nondisplaced nasal fracture suffered on Feb. 5. The victory extended the Trojans' win streak over the Bruins to five games. USC has won five straight against the Bruins for the first time since winning 42 consecutive games against UCLA from 1932-43. It was the first time the Trojans and Bruins faced off against each other both as ranked teams since Feb. 7, 2007. USC went 5-of-10 from the 3-point line in a tight first half to help give the Trojans a 33-31 edge at halftime. UCLA opened the 2nd half on a 14-8 run to match its biggest lead at 45-41, but USC responded with a 20-8 run to match its biggest lead at 61-53 with 4 minutes left. USC went 1-for-8 in FGs with 3 turnovers.the rest of the way, but secured the win.

Feb. 17 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

Chevez Goodwin scored his USC high of 24 points to lead the Trojans to a 79-69 win over Washington at the Galen Center on Feb. 17. The 22-4 start for the Trojans is its best 26-game start since also beginning 22-4 during the 1974 season. USC started slow and trailed by 5 points early, but Goodwin scored 16 of his 24 points before the break to lead the Trojans to a 42-25 bulge at halftime. Drew Peterson had 14 points with seven assists. Isaiah Mobley, who missed the last two games due to concussion like symptoms, wore a protective mask and scored 12 and added eight assists in his return. USC overcame Washington's signature zone defense by moving ball. The Trojans had 28 assists on its 30 field goal attempts. It was USC's most assists in a game since also registering 28 on Feb. 28, 2019 at UCLA. USC also made 48.4 percent of its shots, including 40 percent from 3-point range, while holding Washington to 36.7 shooting. Boogie Ellis scored 9 points, matched a career best with 2 blocks and had a season-high 4 steals. USC led by as many as 23 in the second half, but committed 11 second-half turnovers and won by 10 points, the closest margin since three minutes remained in the first half.

Washington State made 15 3-pointers, but it was a 2-pointer from Boogie Ellis just inside the free throw stripe which decided USC's 62-60 win on Feb. 22. USC trailed 57-51 with 5:30 remaining, then outscored the Cougars 11-3 for the win. Buckets by Chevez Goodwin and Drew Peterson, plus a pair of free throws by Ellis tied the game at 57-all with 4:18 left. WSU then made a free throw and FG to take a 3-point lead, only to have a Max Agbonkpolo corner 3-pointer tie the game at 60-60 with 2:15 remaining. WSU missed its next 3 shots and USC its next 2. After Andy Enfield called a timeout with 20 seconds left, Ellis drove into the lane and hit a pull-up jumper over Tyrell Roberts with 0.2 seconds left for the win. WSU made 20 baskets, 15 of which were 3-pointers, scoring 45 of its 60 points from beyond the arc. The 15 3-pointers made were the most by a USC opponent since Cal Baptist made a USC opponent record 20 3-pointers on Nov. 25, 2020. WSU led 32-28 at halftime and by as many as 8 points in the second half. USC committed 14 turnovers and was outscored 25-7 on points off turnovers. Ellis finished with a game-high 21 points and Peterson added 17 points. Despite WSU making 48.4 percent from 3-point range, it was held to 31.7 percent shooting overall.

Oregon State • 91

Feb. 24 • Gill Coliseum
Corvallis, Ore.

Drew Peterson had a 21-point, 10-rebound double-double to lead No. 16 USC to a double-overtime win at Oregon State, 94-91, in Corvallis, Ore., on Feb. 24. Four other Trojans — Isaiah Mobley (19 points), Max Agbonkpolo (16), Reese Dixon-Waters (14, career-high) and Ethan Anderson (12)— also scored in double-digits. Mobley added 10 rebounds and Anderson had six assists and five steals. USC played without Boogie Ellis (left ankle sprain) and Isaiah White (right wrist strain). USC led 40-33 at halftime, but the Beavers immeadiately erased that lead with a 7-0 run to begin the second half. A Max Agbonkpolo fastbreak dunk gave USC a 52-51 lead at the 10:47 mark of the second half, a lead they maintained until the final three seconds of regulation when Dashawn Davis hit a 3-pointer to send it to overtime. Davis was unstoppable as he scored OSU's final 19 points in regulation, making 9-straight shots. Mobley scored 7 points in the first OT, but a Davis floater with 19 seconds remaining sent the game to the 2nd OT. USC took the lead for good in the 2nd OT on a driving hook shot in the lane by Anderson with 1:13 remaining. Two FTs by Peterson and 1 by Agbonkpolo sealed the win. OSU made 53.8 percent of its shots, just the 3rd opponent to make over 50 percent. USC made 21 of 25 free throws (84 percent). USC's 13 steals were its most since registering 15 vs. Washington on March 8, 2017.

Drew Peterson scored 20 points, including the game winning 3-pointer with 11.5 seconds remaining, and USC came away with a hard-fought 70-69 victory at Oregon on Feb. 26. Isaiah Mobley scored all 17 of his points in the second half as USC picked up its 25th win of the season, a school record for regular season wins. The game was tight throughout with their being seven ties and 19 lead changes. USC had built a 12-point lead with 4:57 remaining in the first half, only for Oregon to close the half on an 11-0 run to take a 32-31 lead at the break. Neither side could put away in the second half. Oregon took its biggest lead of the game at 64-61 with 3:04 remaining when Jacob Young drained a long 3-pointer at the end of the shot clock. Mobley answered with a pair of free throws to cut it to one, but Davion Harmon it a driving layup to up the lead to 3 again at 66-63. Baskets by Agbonkpolo and Mobley around a missed Oregon shot gave USC a 67-66 lead with 42 seconds remaining. Quincy Guerrier hit a 3-pointer with 22 seconds remaining for an Oregon 69-67 lead and setting up Peterson's heroics. After a timeout, Peterson found space and launched a 3-pointer from right of center to give USC a 70-69 lead and ultimately the victory. USC made 44.1 percent of its shots and held the Ducks to 38.7 shooting. USC outrebounded Oregon 21-12 in the second half.

In its first game hosting a team ranked as high as No. 2 since 2014, the No. 16 Trojans came up short in a 91-71 loss to No. 2 Arizona at the Galen Center on March 1. USC fell behind 21-8 seven minutes into the game and got no closer than 9 points the rest of the game. USC never led in the game and suffered its worst loss of the season and worst against Arizona since 2015. Arizona efficiently dissected the USC defense, scoring an opponent Galen Center record 51 first-half points for a 51-27 lead at the break and a 30-point margin 5 minutes into the second half. Arizona made a USC opponent high 55.6 percent ot their shots, while USC made 39.7 percent of its shots. The Arizona shooting percentage was the highest by a USC opponent since Oregon made 55.8 percent of its shots on Jan. 13, 2019. Max Agbonkpolo led USC with 14 points. USC's three leading scorers entering the game Isaiah Mobley, Drew Peterson and Boogie Ellis combined to make 8 of 34 shots (23.5 percent) and finished with a combined 28 points. They entered the game averaging a combined 41 points per game. Arizona made 12 of 25 3-pointers (48 percent), while USC was 4 of 18 from beyond the arc (22.2 percent). Bennedict Mathurin led Arizona with 19 points. USC had its second sellout of the season and set a Galen Center record for student attendance of 2,960. USC outscored Arizona 44-40 in the second half.

Isaiah Mobley scored a team-high 20 points and grabbed 8 rebounds, but it wasn't enough as No. 16 USC fell to rival No. 17 UCLA in Westwood on March 5 despite a late rally. Boogie Ellis and Drew Peterson each contributed 13 points. The Trojans' historic 5-game winning streak over the Bruins, its longest since 42-straight from 1932-43, came to an end. USC concluded the season with 25 regular seasons wins (25-6), its most ever before the postseason. The game decided 2nd place in the Pac-12. Despite an early 5-minute stretch without a basket, the game remained close at 25-22 UCLA with 5 minutes left in the first half when UCLA went on an 11-3 run to go up 11 before settling for a 41-35 halftime lead. USC tied the game at 47-all at the 15.29 mark of the 2nd half when Ellis completed a 4-point play. UCLA then built the lead back up as the Trojan turnovers continued to mount. Down 13 points with 5:49 left in the game, the Trojans attempted a comeback with Mobley scoring eight points on a 12-1 run. The spurt cut the Bruin lead to two points with 1:22 remaining. Cody Riley then hit a fadeaway 13-footer to give UCLA a 4-point lead and USC had 4 misses and a turnover in its final 5 possessions, while UCLA made 3 of 4 free throws to close it out. USC committed 15 turnovers to UCLA's one, a Trojan opponent record, and was outscored 21-3 on points off turnovers.

Boogie Ellis scored 17 points to lead No. 3-seed USC to a 65-61 win over No. 6-seed Washington in a Pac-12 Tournament quarterfinals matchup at T-Mobile Arena on March 10. The win was the 26th of the season for USC (26-6), matching the school record for wins in a season (2017). Isaiah Mobley finished with 9 points, 9 rebounds and 6 assists. Drew Peterson and Reese Dixon-Waters also scored 9 points for USC. USC escaped despite having a season-high 23 turnovers, including four in the final two minutes that nearly cost the Trojans the game. The Trojans overcame the turnovers by making 49.0 percent ot their shots and holding the Huskies to 30.8 percent shooting. The Trojans endured a 21-point first half from Terrell Brown Jr. and eight turnovers to trail 39-36 at halftime. Washington pushed the lead to 8 at 44-36 at the 18:14 mark of the second half, but USC quickly got back into the game and took the lead on 2 3-pointers by Ellis and an and-one play by Max Agbonkpolo. USC held Washington scoreless for a five-minute stretch midway through the 2nd half and to a 23.5 shooting percentage from the field after the break. After a series of turnovers by USC and missed shots by Washington, Dixon-Waters was fouled with 6.1 seconds remaining and USC clinging to a 63-61 lead. He calmly sank a pari of free throws and USC was moving on Boogie Ellis matched a career-high with 27 points and made a season-best five 3-pointers, but it wasn't enough as No. 3-seed USC fell to No.2-seed UCLA, 69-59, in the Pac-12 Tournament semifinals on March 11. Drew Peterson added 11 points and Isaiah Mobley had 9 points and 7 rebounds. Despite making their first three shots, the Trojans never found an offensive rhythm. USC missed 13 of its next 15 shots and finished the game shooting 39.6 percent from the field. USC controlled the lead for most of the first seven minutes of the game but UCLA broke away with a 10-3 run that gave the Bruins the edge for the rest of the game. Despite Peterson's first-half buzzer-beater, the Trojans trailed 36-28 at halftime. After a layup by Mobley and an alleyoop conversion by Kobe Johnson, USC had cut the lead to four at 42-38 at the 14:38 mark of the second half, UCLA responded with a 7-0 run in the Trojans got no closer that 6 points the rest of the way. Ellis scored 18 of USC's 31 second-half points. UCLA made 48.9 percent of its shots,including 54.5 percent in the second half to keep the Trojans at bay. UCLA outscored USC by 7 points at the charity stripe. USC had a season-low six assists on its 21 baskets. USC lost for the second time this season when holding its opponent to under 70 points (20-2). Reese Dixon-Waters missed the game with a sore right hip.

After an error-filled first half, the No. 7 seed USC Trojans overcame a 13-point deficit only to fall 68-66 to the No. 7 seed Miami Hurricanes in the Midwest Regional first-round game held in South Carolina. USC trailed 31-20 at the break after committing 12 turnovers and shooting 29.6 percent from the field. The Trojans stormed out of the locker room following the break by outscoring Miami 17-2 to take its largest lead of the game at 37-33. Miami seemed to regain its footing after Chevez Goodwin fouled Isaiah Wong on a three-pointer as the shot clock expired with 14:11 remaining in the game. Wong, who led all scorers with 22 points, sank all three free throws. The game went back-and-forth over the next 13 minutes with neither team surging ahead by more than five points. Miami then went on a 6-0 run to open up a 7-point lead at 65-58 with 44 seconds remaining, that's when Drew Peterson, who finished with 17 points, went to work. He hit a pair of 3-pointers sandwiched around a Miami turnover to cut it to 65-64 with 25 seconds remaining. After Miami hit one FT, Peterson drove the lane and tied the game with a layup at 66-all with 14 seconds remaining. Miami's Charlie Moore drove the lane with 3 seconds remaining and was awarded a controversial pair of FTs after a foul was called on Ethan Anderson. Moore hit both and Peterson's shot from near halfcourt bounced of the rim as time expired.

Below right, Chevez Goodwin and Drew Peterson receive basketballs commemorating their 1,000 career points scored as a college basketball player.

Jordan McLaughlin was a three-year captain for the Trojans who finished his career as the school's all-time leader in minutes played, second in assists, third in steals and games played, fourth in points and fifth in three-point baskets. He is one of three Pac-12 players to register 700 or more assists and 1,600 or more points in a career.

USC BASKETBALL HISTORY

First thoughts of USC Athletics tradition often gravitate toward the gridiron, the white sweaters of the song leaders and the Spirit of Troy, USC's indomitable marching band.

But flash to the hardcourt, where the tradition is also quite storied and you can still find the same white sweaters and the same inspiring fight songs. The only thing missing is Traveler, USC's regal white horse, but he likes it better on grass anyway.

USC's men's basketball program has a long and decorated tradition in Los Angeles, the original Southern California powerhouse.

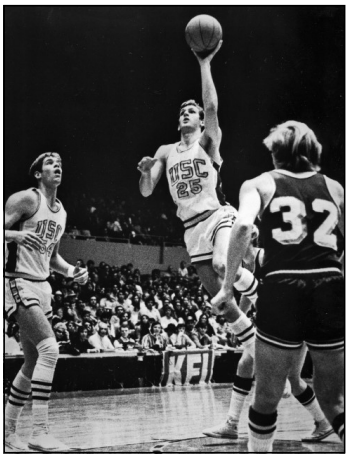

The Trojans started playing basketball in 1907 and have compiled a record of 1,673-1,231 (.576)*, winning 14 league championships and one conference tournament title.

By the 1920s, USC established itself as the top team in Los Angeles and won its first Pacific Coast Southern Division League title in 1928. It began a run of 10 league titles in 16 years including a string of five in a row from 1932-36.

Among the early standouts at Troy were future Hall of Famers Jack Gardner and Sam Barry. Gardner played for Barry from 1930-32 but went on to become the only coach in history to lead two schools to the Final Four twice each (Kansas State in 1948 and 1951 and Utah in 1961 and 1966). Barry is USC's all-time winningest coach.

It was in this era when USC ran off a remarkable 42 consecutive wins over rival UCLA from 1932-42, by far the greatest streak in the series.

Two of the game's giants came through in the late 1940s in Tex Winter and Bill Sharman. Winter, who coached collegiately and in the pros for more than 55 years, lettered for the Trojans in 1947 and later received a bit of attention for a little offense he designed in the shape of a triangle.

USC and NBA great Paul Westphal

Sharman was an All-American at USC as a senior in 1950 before becoming a standout player and coach in the NBA. Known as "Bullseye Bill" for his marksmanship at the foul line – a true weapon in the days when every foul resulted in a foul shot – Sharman spent 10 years with the Boston Celtics, winning four NBA titles and going to eight All-Star games. He later went on to coach the Los Angeles Lakers to their first title in 1972 and was a long-time executive with the club.

USC remained formidable during the 1950s and 1960s, the latter decade featuring Trojan stalwart John Rudometkin, whose 18.8 scoring average remains second all-time at Troy for players who played more than one season.

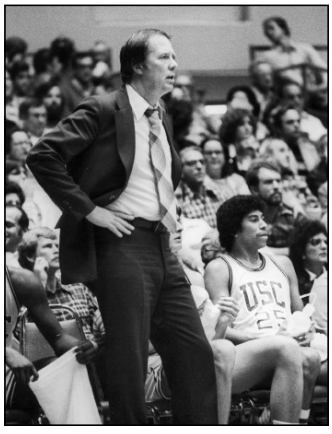

USC surged in the 1970s under coach Bob Boyd. In fact, Boyd led the Trojans to their greatest regular season record ever, a 24-2 mark in 1971 on a team that included the great Paul Westphal. USC won 24 games again in 1974 (featuring the talented Gus Williams) and won 20 in Boyd's final year in 1979.

Stan Morrison and George Raveling followed Boyd with Raveling returning the Trojans to prominence in the early 1990s thanks in large part to the school's all-time leading scorer, Harold Miner.

Miner was named Sports Illustrated's Player of the Year in 1992, leading USC to a 24-6 record and a school-best No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Former UCLA great Henry Bibby took over the USC program in 1997 and kept USC among the top teams in the West.

Included in Bibby's three NCAA Tournament teams was a breakthrough 2001 Elite Eight team, marking the Trojans' furthest foray in the Big Dance in the tournament's current format. Only eventual champion Duke was able to slow the Trojans down.

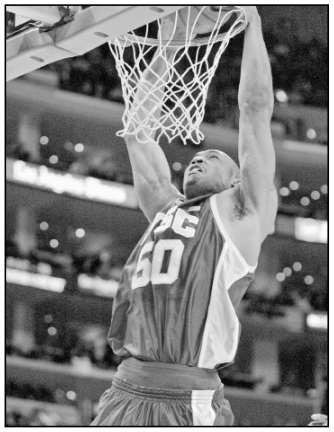

Bob Boyd and Don Carfino

That 2001 team featured NBA draftees Brian Scalabrine, Jeff Trepagnier and Sam Clancy. The Trojans returned to the NCAAs again in 2002, but were a first-round upset victim in overtime to UNC-Wilmington.

The Trojans struggled over the next few years until Tim Floyd became the new coach for the 2005-06 season. He turned the team around immediately going 17-13 in his first season and guiding the 2006-07 Trojans to a school-record 25 wins (25-12). The 2006-07 Trojans were selected to play in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2001-02 season and advanced to the Sweet 16, led by first team All-Pac-10 junior swingman Nick Young, who was then taken in the first round of the NBA draft by Washington.

USC again reached the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 with a 21-12 record behind freshman O.J. Mayo, who following the season became USC's highest-ever drafted player when he taken with the third pick in the NBA draft. The Trojans went 22-13 in 2008-09, captured their first Pac-10 Tournament title by defeating NCAA-bound California, UCLA and Arizona State, then joined them in the Big Dance where they fell in the second round to NCAA runner-up Michigan State. Following the season, DeMar DeRozan (No. 9) and Taj Gibson (No. 26) were both first-round draft picks, marking the first time in school history USC had two players selected in the first round. Further demonstration as to how far the program has risen is the fact that the Trojans were the only program with a top 16 pick in each of the three drafts from 2007-09. Kevin O'Neill took over the program for the 2010 season and was able to guide the team to a 16-14 record and in the thick of the Pac-10 Conference race until the final weeks despite a self-imposed postseason ban.

USC's 3rd all-time scorer and 2nd all-time rebounder Sam Clancy

In 2011 USC had to replace 4 of its top 6 scorers from the previous season, had a starter play with a fracture in his hand for half the season and the starting point guard ineligible for the first 10 games, but hung tough. They advanced to the Pac-10 Tournament semifinals and then on to the NCAA Tournament once again, where they fell to eventual Final Four participant VCU. The 2012 season had high hopes, but after a series of injuries, the depleted Trojans limped in with a record of 6-26, then followed that up with a 14-18 season and were eager for the next chapter in Trojan history to begin.

The first page of the new chapter was turned when the Trojans announced on April 1, 2013 that Andy Enfield was taking over as head coach. Coming off a magical run with Florida Gulf Coast in 2013 when he led the first No. 15 seed in the NCAA Tournament to the Sweet 16, the Trojans turned the reigns over to Enfield. He and his staff have recruited well and have built a strong foundation of young players and there is a tangible buzz about the future of the program. In just his third season he led the Trojans to the 2016 NCAA Tournament, its first postseason game since 2011, and to three convincing victories over crosstown rival UCLA. USC also entered the national rankings during the 2016 season, its first time in the top 25 since 2008. USC continued its upward ascent by posting a 23-9 record during the 2016-17 regular season, its most regular season wins since 1992. USC went on to win a school-record 26 games (26-10) and won two NCAA Tournament games. In 2017-18, USC went 24-12 and placed second in the conference, its highest Pac-12 finish since tying for second in 2002. USC had a 22-9 record and strong finish in 2019-20, but the season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Behind Pac-12 Player, Defenseive Player and Freshman of the Year Evan Mobley the 2020-21 Trojans went 25-8 and advanced to the fourth Elite Eight in school history, where they fell to overall No. 1 Gonzaga. In 2021-22, USC set the school regular season win total with 25 and finished the regular season ranked No. 22 and tied the school overall wins record with 26 (26-8). USC's 160 wins from 2016-22 were the 13th-most among the Power 6 teams during that period and its 73 wins during that span were tied for the third-most among Power 6 team.

 Not including 21 wins & 1 loss vacated in the 2007-08 season due to NCAA penalty*

First Game At The Galen Center - South Carolina 80, USC 74 (OT) on November 16, 2006

LOS ANGELES (AP) -Tre Kelley scored 11 of his 26 points in overtime and Blake Sheldon added a career-high 22 points, helping South Carolina defeat Southern California 80-74 Thursday and spoil the Trojans' season opener in their new on-campus arena.

It was an emotional night as the Trojans honored the memory of point guard Ryan Francis, who was killed in a drive-by shooting in May during a visit to his home state of Louisiana. Players wore a black patch with his No. 12 on their jerseys.

After playing in the Los Angeles Sports Arena since 1959, the Trojans' move to the 10,258-seat Galen Center filled about 60 percent of the seats for the first men's game, although the student section was jammed with fans wearing white T-shirts reading "Trojans 12 We Remember" on the front and Francis' number and nickname Franchise on the back. With Paulette Francis looking on after a halftime tribute to her son, the game went into overtime tied at 62.

USC freshman Taj Gibson missed a jumper down low in the closing seconds of regulation. South Carolina got the rebound and Brandis Raley-Ross drove to the basket, tossing up a one-handed layup that missed as time expired. The Gamecocks (2-1) got 17 points from Raley-Ross, including a dunk that forced overtime.

Gibson led four USC players in double figures with 16 before fouling out of his college debut. Nick Young added 15, freshman Daniel Hackett had 13 and Lodrick Stewart 11.

South Carolina dominated the five-minute overtime, taking a 72-65 lead on a 3-pointer and driving layin by Kelley. Stewart's 3-pointer cut USC's deficit to 74-70 with 1:20 left, but the Trojans were forced to foul and South Carolina hit its free throws down the stretch.

The Trojans held themselves together after spending halftime on the court for the tribute to Francis, while the Gamecocks retreated to their locker room. Trailing 34-31, South Carolina scored four in a row to open the second half. USC went on an 11-5 run to regain a 45-40 lead. The game went back and forth the rest of the way, with neither team leading by more than five points.

USC • Retired Uniforms

In the first year of the Galen Center, USC honored some of its legendary players as the jersey numbers were retired for Bill Sharman (No. 11) and Paul Westphal (No. 25) for the men's team and Cheryl Miller (No. 31) and Lisa Leslie (No. 33) for the women's team. Sharman had his jersey retired in a halftime ceremony during the USC-UCLA game on Jan. 13, 2007 and Westphal had his retired at the half of the USC-Arizona game on Jan. 18, 2007. The women's uniform numbers were retired on Nov. 10, 2006 at halftime of the USC-Long Beach State women's basketball game. The legendary John Rudometkin had his No. 44 jersey retired at halftime of USC's win vs. Texas on Dec. 5, 2010 and USC's all-time leading scorer Harold Miner had his jersey retired on Jan. 15, 2012. All-American guard Gus Williams had his No. 10 jersey retired on Feb. 4, 2016. Bob Boyd had his No. 19 jersey retired on Jan. 25, 2017.

USC Men's Basketball Olympic History

Chimezie Metu became the fifth Trojan basketball player to compete in the Olympics when he was a member of Nigeria's team at the 2020 Olympics in Tokyo. Metu played in all three games for Nigeria and averaged 9.0 points and 6.7 rebounds. Trojans DeMar DeRozan for Team USA and Dwight Lewis for Venezuela became the third and fourth USC men's basketball players to compete in the sport at the Olympics in 2016. DeRozan earned a gold medal as Team USA cruised to the title in 2016, going undefeated in eight games. He became the first Trojan to play for the U.S. Olympic basketball team and the first to medal. Lewis and Venezuela went 1-4 and did not advance out of pool play. DeRozan and Lewis were teammates at USC during the 2008-09 season and Lewis still is third on USC's all-time games played (133) and second in minutes played (4,069) lists. The first Trojans to compete in men's basketball at the Olympics were Ingo Mendel for West Germany in 1984 and Elias Ayuso for Puerto Rico in 2004.

MOBLEYS KEEPS IT ROLLING FOR TROJANS...

USC has had eight players selected in the first round since 2007, with Evan Mobley's No. 3 overall selection by Cleveland in the 2021 NBA Draft. Mobley is the fifth Trojan selected in the top 10 of the NBA Draft, joining O.J. Mayo (3rd in 2008), Onyeka Okongwu (6th in 2020), DeMar DeRozan (9th in 2009), Paul Westphal (10th in 1972). His brother Isaiah Mobley was taken in the second round of the 2022 NBA Draft with the 49th pick. USC has now had at least one player drafted in each of the last five NBA Drafts, one of three schools which can make that claim, along with Duke and Kentucky. USC's six total selections over the last five NBA Drafts is tied for the seventh-most among all Division I schools and is second among Pac-12 schools, trailing only Arizona's seven picks.

RECENT GALEN GRADUATES

The Trojans have 11 players on 2022-23 opening day NBA rosters. Five of the latest looking to make their mark in the NBA are Chimezie Metu (Sacramento), De'Anthony Melton (Memphis Grizzlies), Jordan McLaughlin (Minnesota) and Onyeka Okongwu (Atlanta Hawks).

Chimezie Metu split his rookie campaign playing for San Antonio and its G-League affiliate the Austin Spurs. He then signed with Sacramento in 2020 and in 2021 signed a multi-year deal with the club. Metu left USC ranked 3rd in blocks and 20th in scoring on USC's all-time lists.

Kevin Porter Jr. has found a home with the Houston Rockets and was rewarded with a new 4-year deal. Last season, the starting guard averaged 15.6 points, 6.2 assists and 4.4 rebounds.

De'Anthony Melton is making his mark with the Memp;his Grizzlies, earning him a multi-year contract. He has since moved on to Philadelphia, a strong contender in the East. He left USC tied for 1st in steals and third in assists on USC's all-time freshman list.

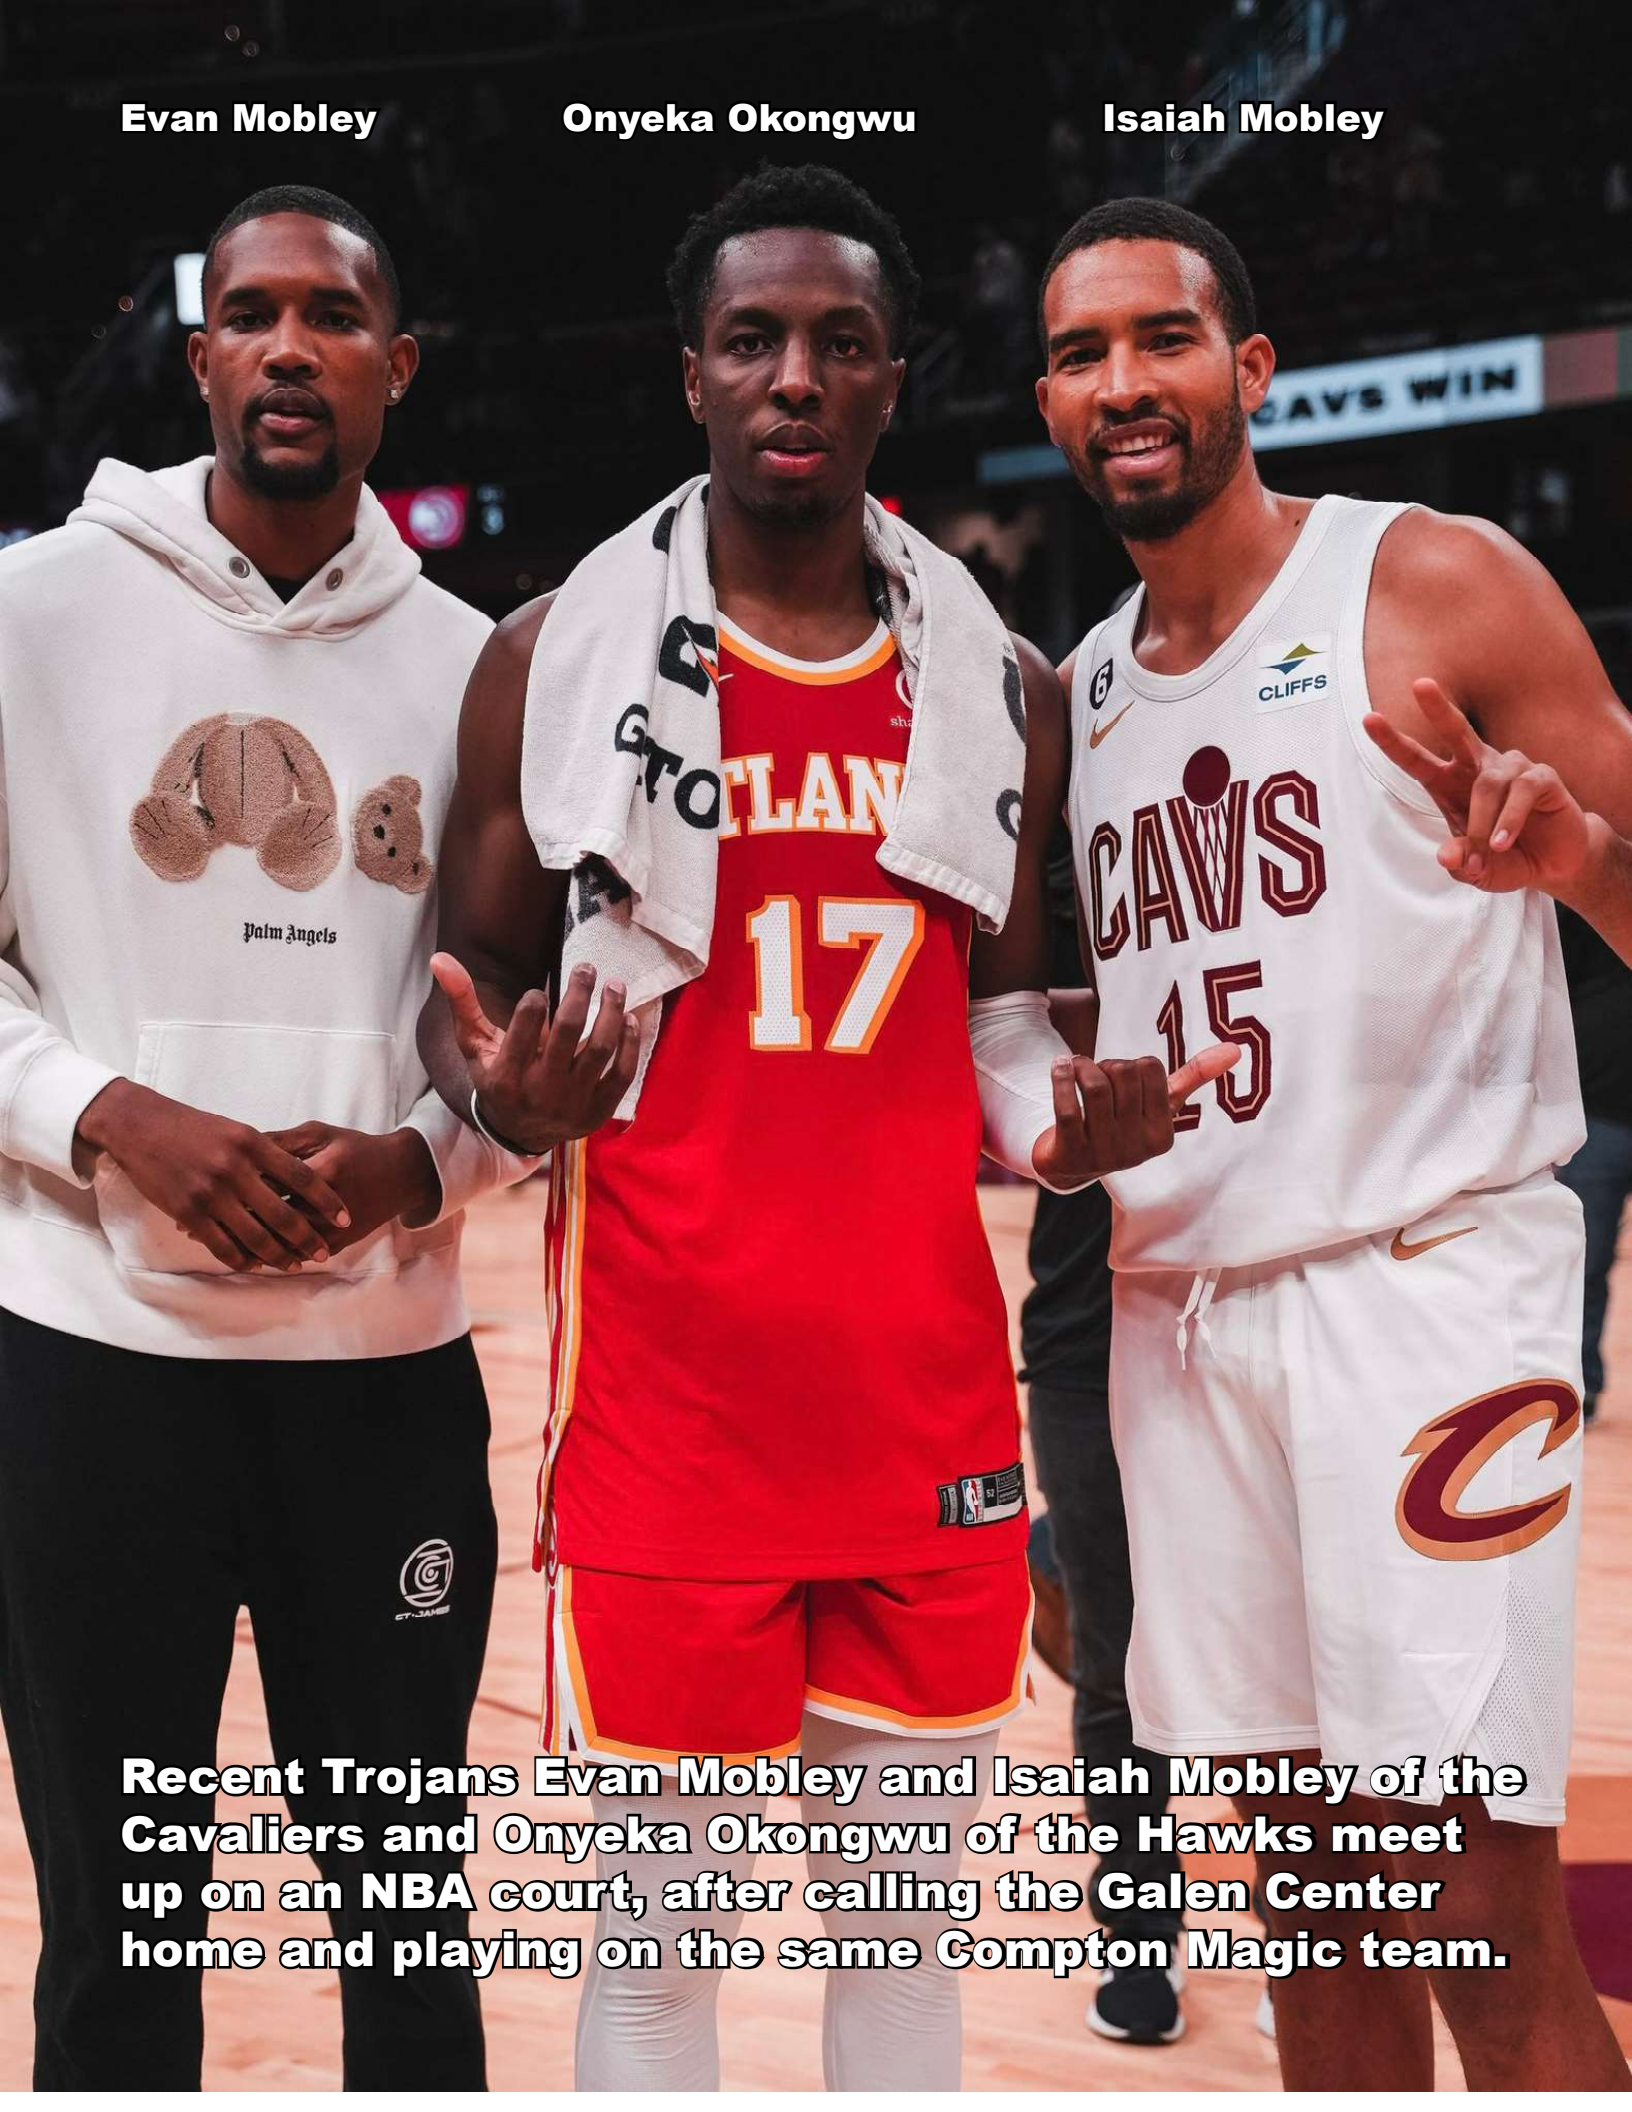

Jordan McLaughlin has worked his way into a full-time roster spot and a valuable member of the Timberwolves' rotation. He left USC ranked 1st in minutes played, 2nd in assists, 3rd in games and steals, 4th in points and 5th in 3-pointers made on USC's all-time list.

Onyeka Okongwu was selected No. 6 overall in the 2020 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks after one season at USC. He was named All-Pac-12 First Team after averagine 16.2 points and 8.6 rebounds. He set the USC freshman blocks record (76) and FG percentage *61.6), plus ranks among the Trojans' all-time top 5 in four other categories for a USC freshman. He had strong rookie campaign and helped fuel the Hawks' run to the NBA Eastern Conference finals. He has become an integral piece in the Hawks rotation.

Evan Mobley averaged 16.4 points and 8.7 rebounds to help lead USC to the 2021 Elite Eight. Mobley was named the Pac-12 Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year. He became just the second player ever (Anthony Davis, Kentucky) of the power basketball conferences to accomplish that feat. He was the only Division I NCAA player to average at least 16.0 points, 8.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 2.0 blocks. Mobley's 95 blocks set the USC freshman record and rank 2nd all-time among Pac-12 freshmen. Drafted No. 3 by Cleveland, he went on to finish second in the 2021-22 NBA Rookei of the Year Voting, as he averaged 15.0 points, 8.3 rebounds and 1.7 blocks per game.

Recent Trojans Evan Mobley and Isaiah Mobley of the Cavaliers and Onyeka Okongwu of the Hawks meet up on an NBA court, after calling the Galen Center home and playing on the same Compton Magic team.

SAM BARRY
(Inducted: Naismith - 1979, NABC - 2006)

Justin "Sam" Barry, USC's winningest coach ever, started out a three-sport star at Madison (Wisc.) High. After a four-year stint at Knox College, Barry coached Iowa for seven seasons, leading the Hawkeyes to the 1923 Big Ten championship and a share of the 1926 title. He then came to Troy, where he stayed for 18 years, leading the Trojans to a 260-138 won-loss record, a mark that included winning the Pacific Coast Conference in 1930, 1935 and 1940. Under Barry, USC won the Southern Division seven times and finished third in the 1940 NCAA tournament. In 1948, Barry led the USC baseball team to the NCAA title, and served as an assistant football coach. On the administrative side, Barry was a leading advocate of the 10-second rule and the elimination of the center jump after each basket.

JACK GARDNER
(Inducted: Naismith -1984, NABC - 2006)

Gardner was a three-year lettermen at USC (1930-32) and was captain his senior year, playing under legendary coach Sam Barry. He learned well from Barry and became one of the most successful college coaches ever. Known as "The Fox", Gardner became the only coach in history to lead two different schools to the Final Four twice each. Gardner achieved this honor by directing both Kansas State (1948 and 1951) and Utah (1961 and 1966) into the Big Dance. In 28 years of coaching at the major college level, Gardner's teams compiled a 486-235 record (67.4 percent). When you combine his 10 years (1933-43) of coaching AAU, high school, junior college and military ball, his record swells to 649-278, an impressive 70 percent winning mark. A proponent of fundamental basketball, Gardner was an expert in fast break hoops.

ALEX HANNUM
(Inducted: Naismith - 1998)

A three-year letterman at USC in 1943, 1946-47, Hannum was a captain his final year with the team. Hannum, who had a knack for turning around beleaguered franchises during 16 professional coaching seasons (12 NBA, four ABA), was the first coach in professional basketball history to win an NBA and ABA Championship. He began his coaching career as a player/coach for the St. Louis Hawks during the 1956-57 season, reaching the NBA Finals. The next year, Hannum began his first season as a full-time head coach and guided St. Louis to the 1958 NBA Championship. He spent three years with the Syracuse Nationals (1960-63), posting a 48-32 record in his final year. Hannum then became coach of a San Francisco Warrior team that had finished fourth in the Western Division the previous year and led them to the NBA Finals. Under Hannum's guidance in San Francisco, Wilt Chamberlain altered his game from offense-oriented to defense-and-team-oriented, a trait that would later help him win an NBA title. Both Hannum and Chamberlain were reunited in Philadelphia in the 1966-67 season, winning the NBA championship with a then-record .840 winning percentage (68-13). Following his stint in Philadelphia, Hannum joined the ABA's Oakland Oaks, turning a last-place team into a title team in 1969. Hannum was named NBA Coach of the Year in 1964 and ABA Coach of the Year in 1969.

GEORGE RAVELING

Raveling was the USC men's basketball head coach from 1987-94 and led the Trojans into the post his last four seasons, making the NCAA Tournament in 1991 and 1992 and playing in the NIT Tournament in 1993 and 1994. His 1992 team, featuring USC's all-time leading scorer Harold Miner, went 24-6 before losing in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to Georgia Tech on a three-pointer at the buzzer. Raveling was a star player at Villanova before getting into coaching as an assistant at Maryland. He served as a head coach at USC, Washington State and Iowa, amassing 337 victories and six NCAA tournament appearances. In 1994 Raveling walked away from the coaching profession due to health reasons, but stayed close to basketball as a color commentator for Fox Sports and CBS. He later joined Nike and currently holds the title of Director of International Basketball for Nike. Outside of his tremendous record as a coach at several different stops, Raveling's career was socially significant. He was the first ever African-American head coach in the ACC and the Pac-8 (now Pac-12). Raveling is not only known for making history by breaking down racial barriers as a coach, but also was a part of history when on August 28, 1963 he received the original copy of the Martin Luther King Jr., "I Have a Dream" speech.

BILL SHARMAN

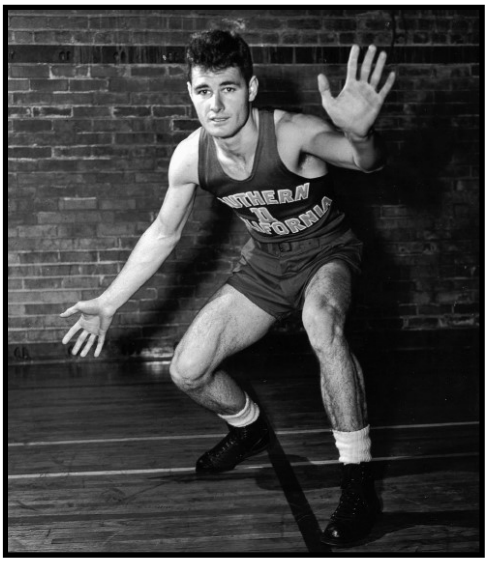

(Inducted: Naismith - 1976 (player), 2004 (coach), NABC - 2006)

Bill Sharman, who brought a disciplined work ethic to basketball with a willingness to spend countless hours in the gymnasium perfecting his skills, was a 15-letter athlete at Porterville (Calif.) High before coming to USC. A four-year letterwinner at Troy (1947-50), Sharman was named All-America in 1950 and was a two-time All-Pacific Coast Conference selection and conference MVP. He's still 21st on USC's all-time scoring list (1,108). Sharman, known as "Bullseye Bill" for his marksmanship at the foul line, played briefly in the Brooklyn Dodger organization before his basketball career took off. Sharman spent 1951 with the NBA's Washington Capitals before they folded. He joined Boston a year later and became a Celtic mainstay. In 10 seasons with the Celtics, Sharman was named All-NBA First Team four times and played in eight All-Star Games, earning MVP honors in the 1955 tilt. Sharman teamed with Bob Cousy to form one of the NBA's most formidable backcourt duos, and the pair landed Boston four NBA championships (1957, 1959, 1960, 1961). He directed the Los Angeles Lakers to their first NBA title in 1972 and was awarded Coach of the Year honors. That season, the Lakers finished with an amazing 69-13 regular season record, including 33 straight victories, both NBA single-season records. By winning titles in the ABL (Cleveland Pipers, 1962), ABA (Utah Stars, 1971), and NBA (Los Angeles Lakers, 1972), Sharman became the first coach to win championships in three different pro leagues. Sharman joins John Wooden and Lenny Wilkens as the only members enshrined as a player and a coach.

PAUL WESTPHAL

(Inducted: Naismith - 2019, NABC - 2018)

A prolific scorer for USC from 1969-72, Paul Westphal averaged 16.4 points over his career – the ninth-highest scoring average in program history. He was a two-time All-Pac-8 First Team selection and received numerous All-America accolades in 1971 and 1972. Westphal followed his collegiate career with a successful run in the NBA. After being drafted No. 10 overall in 1972 by the Boston Celtics, he went on to make five All-Star Teams and four All-NBA Teams, and was a member of the 1974 NBA champion Celtics squad. After finishing his playing career, Westphal held head coaching positions with Southwestern Baptist Bible, Grand Canyon and Pepperdine, along with the NBA's Phoenix Suns, Seattle SuperSonics and Sacramento Kings.

TEX WINTER

(Inducted: Naismith - 2011, NABC - 2010)

USC basketball player and guru of the triangle offense Fred "Tex" Winter played at USC during the 1947 season after a year at Compton College. He earned the first USC Most Inspirational Player Award and his teammates on the 1947 team included Hall of Famers Alex Hannum and Bill Sharman. Winter was also one of the nation's top pole vaulters when he lettered in track at USC in 1946. Winter was a coach and assistant coach for nearly 60 years at the collegiate and NBA levels, gaining his widest acclaim as the architect of the very successful triangle offense which helped the Chicago Bulls and Los Angeles Lakers win nine NBA titles. Winter won six NBA titles as Phil Jackson's lieutenant with the Bulls in the 1990s as well as three more with the Lakers (2000-02). After leaving USC, Winter went on to be an assistant coach at Kansas State (1948-51). He helped lead the Wildcats to three league titles and to the1951 NCAA title game against Kentucky. He earned his first head coaching job at Marquette where he guided the Warriors to a 25-25 record in two seasons. Current USC head coach Kevin O'Neill also got his first Division I NCAA head coaching job at Marquette. Winter then returned to Kansas State as head coach for 15 seasons (1954-68) and guided them to eight league titles and six NCAA Tournament appearances. His Kansas State teams twice reached the Final Four, losing to Seattle and Elgin Baylor in the 1958 semifinals and falling to UCLA and John Wooden in the 1964 semifinals. In 1958 he became the youngest coach in college basketball history to be named UPI Coach of the Year. Winter is a member of several halls of fame, including the USC Athletic Hall of Fame, the Pac-10 Hall of Honor, the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame, and he was awarded the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement from the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In June 2010 he was given the Chuck Daly Lifetime Achievement Award by the NBA Coaches Association.

Media • Information

Press Credentials: Direct all inquiries to David Tuttle, Sports Information Director, USC Heritage Hall Room 103, Los Angeles, California 90089-0601, (213) 740-8480. Information about radio and television broadcasting rights can also be obtained from Tuttle. Media credentials for USC home men's basketball games will not be mailed in advance. Instead, credentials will be available for pick-up on game days at the Galen Center media entrance (located on the Flower Street side of the arena), generally 2 hours before tipoff. Credentials will be issued on a game-by-game basis (there are no season passes). Credentials must be requested online. Credential requests must be received by noon 2 days prior to each game, so that the USC Sports Brands and Communications office can work with USC's Office of Athletic Compliance to review and approve requests. The online credential request form covers NCAA compliance issues. To request a credential, go to: http://www.sportssystems.com/uscbasketball (NOTE: Do not use Internet Explorer as your browser; if you get an error message, change browsers or clear the cache). Credentials are non-transferrable. A valid identification that matches the submitted name must be shown and credentials must be picked up in person. At the Galen Center media entrance, media must sign an acknowledgement of the completed online waiver prior to being issued a credential. Photographers must check out a photo vest which will be at an adjacent table and return them to the security check-in desk at the end of the game.

Telephones: Contact ITS at (213) 821-0687 to order phone service at the Galen Center.

Galen Center: The Galen Center (3400 South Figueroa Street) is located approximately 15 miles from Los Angeles International Airport (adjacent to the USC campus). Directions: take Century Blvd. east to I-405 north; exit to I-10 east (toward Los Angeles) to I-110 South; exit Adams Blvd. and turn right onto Figueroa St.; go one mile and the Galen Center will be on your left. Or take I-405 south to I-105 (toward Norwalk) east to I-110 north (toward Pasadena/Los Angeles) and exit at King Blvd.

Media Parking: If you are approved for parking, you will be sent a game-specific parking code which you will supply to the attendant at the kiosk located at the entrance of Parking Structure 2 between the Galen Center and the USC Hotel. Enter off Figueroa Street. USC does not provide parking passes to NBA scouts.

Media Will Call: "Media Will Call" for Trojan basketball games is located at the southeast entrance of Galen Center, located off Flower Street.

Media Information: There will be no or limited printed handouts (game notes, media guides, program, stats, notes and quotes) available. All of this material will be available digitally in the online media center at USCTrojans.com/mbb-media (contact the SID for the username and password). The online media center also will include pool photos (halftime and post-game) and video. A link to live in-game stats is available on the men's basketball schedule page on USCTrojans.com.

Post-Game Interviews: USC's post-game locker room is CLOSED, including to the media, in order to comply with NCAA rules that prohibit media interaction contact with recruits who may be present during this time. Head coach Andy Enfield and several players will be brought to the post-game interview room. Additional media interviews will be conducted in the area outside the post-game interview room as coaches and players exit the locker room hallway. USC's sports information staff will work with the media to expedite this process.

USC Practices: Men's basketball practices at USC will be closed to the public and media unless pre-approved. To ensure that USC and its Office of Athletic Compliance know which individuals are coming into the presence of our players, media wishing to attend a USC men's basketball practice must complete a one-time online waiver no later than 2 p.m. on Monday of the week of the first planned visit (contact David Tuttle in the Sports Information office for the link) in order to allow the Office of Athletic Compliance time to review and approve requests. Also, once initially approved, media do not need to seek permission to attend subsequent practices, as names will remain on the approved list for the rest of the year. USC will practice at the Galen Center on the main floor or in the practice courts (call the USC sports information office for daily practice schedule updates). The first 15 minutes of practices will be open to local and national media. Media must remain in a designated area of the arena or practice court. USC coaches and players will be available to the media on the court immediately after all practices.

Player Interviews: All requests for player interviews should be directed to Dave Tuttle, Sports Information Director by calling (213) 740-8480 or e-mailing davidtut@usc.edu. Please make your requests at least 48 hours in advance. Media members may interview players in person or by phone after USC's practice sessions or during a class break if possible. No interviews will be granted on the day of a game or prior to practice and under no circumstances are players available for interviews by calling them in their dorm rooms or apartments. Players are instructed not to grant any telephone or face-to-face interviews unless arrangements are made through the USC Sports Information Office.

Coach Interviews: All requests for interviews with Andy Enfield and his staff should be directed to Dave Tuttle, Sports Information Director (213) 740-8480.

Post Game Services: USC will post online post-game quotes from both head coaches (and players in the event of outstanding individual performances), in addition to post-game notes.

Jordan Moore

Radio Play-by-Play

Jordan Moore begins his fifth season as USC men's basketball's radio play-by-play announcer, the fourth year on USC's flagship station AM 790 KABC Radio. Moore was named to his current position on October 8, 2018, following four seasons (2015-18) as the radio sideline analyst for USC men's basketball.

Since 2013, Moore also has been USC football's pre-game show host and in-game sideline reporter, as well as the co-host of the popular weekly "Trojans Live" radio show.

The 39-year-old Moore, a 2005 graduate of the USC Annenberg School for Communication and Journalism, called minor league baseball and high school football and basketball on Southern California over-the-air and online broadcast outlets for 4 years (2006-09) before returning to his alma mater in 2010 as USC Athletics' director of social media. In his daytime job for USC Athletics, Moore oversees all creative content for the department, including the men's basketball program. He also serves on the USC Athletics Black Lives Matter Action Team and the communications team for the Department of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion.

Moore and his wife, fellow USC alum Samantha Tulin, have a 8-year-old son, Bailey, and a 4-year-old daughter, Kalia.
