USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 31 men's and women's national team titles. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (31) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s, World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez early in the 2000s, and NCAA champion and Olympic medalist Andre DeGrasse, and NCAA champions and collegiate record-holders Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM REMAIN IN GOOD HANDS WITH QUINCY WATTS - Former Trojan Olympic great Quincy Watts was promoted to USC Director of Track and Field and Cross Country on June 17, 2021 after eight seasons on Caryl Smith Gilbert's staff as an assistant in charge of sprints, long hurdles and relays. "Naming Quincy Watts, a Trojan Hall of Famer and Olympic legend, as our new director of track and field and cross country is the best and right decision for us," said USC Athletic Director Mike Bohn. "His impact on both our men's and women's programs over the past eight years has been significant. Consistent with our vision to be the most student-athlete centered program in the country, engaging our student-athletes is an important part of every coaching search process, and I am so impressed with the overwhelming support Quincy has from our current team. He is also highly respected by our former student-athletes and the national track and field community. We are very excited to have a winner and decorated Trojan leading our program, and we have the utmost confidence that he will sustain and elevate the tradition of excellence the USC shield represents." He was the 2021 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association National Outdoor Women's Assistant Coach of the Year as well as the West Region Indoor and Outdoor Women's Assistant Coach of the Year. At the 2021 NCAA Indoor meet, he helped Kaelin Roberts to her second 400-meter title and the women's 4x400-meter relay team to a second place finish, while at last week's NCAA Outdoor meet Anna Cockrell was the 400-meter hurdles champ, the women won the 4x100-meter relay and three women earned All-America honors in the 400 meters (the first time by any school in the event since 2014). In his eight years (2014-21) as a USC assistant, the Women of Troy had four Top 3 finishes at the NCAA meet, including winning it in 2018 and 2021 and placing second in 2019, and they never finished below second place at the Pac-12 meet. The Trojan men had a quartet of Top 5 NCAA finishes and Pac-12 runner-up finishes. Watts guided Trojans to 86 indoor and outdoor All-America honors in the 400 meters, 400-meter hurdles and 4x400-meter relay. His Trojan athletes also claimed 19 NCAA titles and 26 Pac-12 crowns, and they set three collegiate records and 24 school records plus all four USC freshman 400-meter records and the women's 400-meter hurdles freshman record. Besides Cockrell and Roberts, among the other champion Trojan athletes that Watts has coached are Michael Norman, Rai Benjamin, Ricky Morgan Jr., Cameron Samuel, Kendall Ellis, Kyra Constantine, Bailey Lear, Jade Stepter, Amalie Iuel, Nicole Yeargin and Vanessa Jones.

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, 11 golds, 5 silvers and 5 bronze, and have won over 20 medals at three consecutive Olympics. The success in Tokyo kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals. USC has had 510 Olympians who have earned 326 medals, 153 gold, 96 silver and 77 bronze. Forefront in the USC success is the 151 track and field athletes who have earned 49 gold medals. Current and former Trojan students won a record 13 medals at the 2020 Olympics, six gold, two silver and five bronze. USC's previous record for most track and field medals won in a single Olympics was nine at the 2016 Rio Games. This was the fifth consecutive Summer Olympics in which a USC track and field athlete earned at least one gold medal and a Trojan track and field athlete has won at least one medal in every Olympics since 1912.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Well decorated throws coach Dan Lange is one of the top assistants in the country and is joined on staff by Jebreh Harris (distances and cross country), Olympic gold medalist Joanna Hayes (hurdles), Olympic silver and bronze medalist Carmelita Jeter (sprints) and Tyree Price (jumps and multi-events). In addition, volunteer coaches Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman are Olympic gold medalists.

MECCA CLEARS FINAL HURDLE FOR USC -- Mecca McGlaston, who ranks eighth on USC's all-time 100m hurdles list and sixth on its 60m indoor hurdles list, completed her track and field eligibility for USC with end of the 2022 indoor season. McGlaston placed fifth in the 60m hurdles at the NCAA Indoor Championships and then helped USC's 4x400m relay team finish fourth with a time of 3:33.03, running the third leg. McGlaston will remain close to the program working in various capacities during the outdoor season as a student coach.

THE 2021 WOMEN'S TEAM - The women's team won the 2021 NCAA title with Anna Cockrell winning both the women's 100m hurdles and the 400m hurdles, only the second female athlete ever to pull off the double at the NCAA Championships. USC had 11 athletes combine to earn 19 first-team All-America honors during the two days of competition. The national championship is USC's 133rd among all sports, 35th by a women's team, third by the women's track and field program and third by a USC team in the 2020-21 school year, joining women's beach volleyball and women's water polo. The USC women's track program also won team titles in 2001 and 2018.

THE 2021 MEN'S TEAM - The men's team finished fifth at the 2021 NCAA Championships with Isaiah Jewett winning USC's first-ever title in the 800m at the NCAA Championships. USC scored 33 points, tying for their ninth-most points since the scoring system changed in 1985. Eight different Trojans earned first-team All-America honors.

TROJANS LEAVING THEIR MARKS - The Trojans have 19 athletes on the current team that have posted 29 outdoor top 10 marks all-time by a Trojan, including 16 marks that rank in USC's all-time top 5. The following is a list of those athletes and their ranking at USC:

He also has coached Trojan throwers to 13 school records and 29 individual Pac-12 titles. If you want to measure his impact on the Trojan throws program, you have to go no farther than the USC top 10 lists as all but one of the top 10 male and female hammer throwers in school history have been coached by Lange and all but one of the USC record-holders in the men's and women's hammer, discus, javelin and shot put have been coached by Lange. For 21 consecutive seasons (1993-2013) he guided at least one Trojan hammer thrower to All-America honors and he has coached at least one Trojan thrower to All-America honors in 31 of his first 32 seasons. Currently among Lange's throwers, Trey Knight ranks sixth and Christian Johnson 25th nationally in the men's hammer throw, Karlee Freeman ranks 17th in the women's discus throw and Joy McArthur ranks 24th in the women's hammer throw.

The 6-0 Omotade "Tade" Ojora is a senior hurdler who earned outdoor All-America honors in 2021 by finishing sixth with a time of 13.57 (-0.6). Last summer he won the British Championships 110m hurdles title with a PR of 13.38 (-1.0), but did not compete in the Olympics as he did not meet the automatic qualifying standard. Ojora ranks fifth on USC's all-time 110m hurdles list. Temitope "Temi" Ojora is a sophomore jumper on USC's team. She also earned All-America in 2021 by placing eighth in the NCAA triple jump final with a jump of 44-4.00/13.51 (+1.0). At the West Preliminary rounds she had a triple jump PR of 44-8.25/13.62 (-0.1) which ranks third on USC's all-time list and set the USC freshman record. Temi also has a high jump personal best of 5-10.75 (1.80m). So far in the 2022 outdoor season, Tade has a wind-aided best of 13.52 (+2.6w) in the 110m hurdles and a best wind-legal race of 13.74 (+0.3). Temi has a 2022 triple jump best of 42-11.00/13.08 (+2.8w) and a wind-legal best of 42-4.75/12.92 (+1.6) and a high jump best of 5-8.75 (1.75m).

BARNES BLAZES INTO TROJAN TOP 10 -- Graduate transfer Celera Barnes has made some noise during the outdoor season, after having no indoor eligibility remaining. She opened with a wind-aided winning time of 11.25 at the Beach Opener on March 4, then in winning the 100m dash at the Trojan Invitational on March 19 with a then-PR of 11.12 (+1.9), Barnes moved into eighth place on USC's all-time 100m list. At the Texas Relays on March 26, she won the 100m with a time of 10.82 (+2.8w), the fifth-fastest any condition time ever run by an NCAA woman. In the prelim on March 25, she had a PR of 11.07 (+1.2). Her 10.82w time is the third the fastest any condition time in the world run this season and her 11.07 time ranks tied for 14th in the world. Barnes a best time before USC was 11.16 set in 2018 while running for Kentucky. Last season Barnes placed eighth at the NCAA Championships with a time of 11.31 (+2.2w) to earn All-America honors.

THE KNIGHT AND HIS HAMMER -- Sophomore hammer thrower Trey Knight has been improving in leaps and bounds since his arrival at USC. As a freshman he was second in the hammer throw at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet and fifth at the Pac-12 Championships. This season he opened with a then-PR of 227-7 (69.37m) to win at the Beach Opener on March 4. Then, he won the Trojan Invitational hammer throw competition with a new personal-best of 233-3 (71.09m) to move into seventh on USC's all-time list. His mark is also the sixth-ranked mark by a collegian this season. Knight showed again what he is consistently capable of by taking second in the hammer throw, first among collegians, at the Texas Relays with a mark of 228-2 (69.54m). He then placed fourth at the Mt. SAC relays with a mark of 228-10 (69.76m), first among the college throwers.

ROBERTS & LEAR BRING SUCCESS AND EXPERIENCE -- Veteran 400m runners Kaelin Roberts and Bailey Lear are back to help lead the Trojan women. Roberts is a two-time NCAA indoor 400m champion, winning the title in 2019 (51.50) and in 2021 (50.84). Roberts has an outdoor best of 50.82 in the 400m, set at the 2021 NCAA West Preliminary Rounds, but she has yet reach the finals in the 400m outdoors, mostly due to injuries. Roberts has yet to run an outdoor 400m race in the 2022 season. Lear has an outdoor 400m PR of 51.02 which ranks sixth on USC's all-time list. Last season Lear earned outdoor All-America honors in the event by placing seventh with a time of 51.36. Roberts and Lear have combined to run on three of USC's all-time Top 10 outdoor 4x400m relays and five of its indoor Top 10 4x400m relays. Lear opened with a 400m time of 52.95 at the Trojan Invite on March 19 and improved to 52.51 at the Mt. SAC Relays which ranks 27th nationally.

THE BROTHERS ALLEN -- The USC track and field team has three brothers from Odenton, Md. on the roster: sophomores Ashton and Austin and senior Eric Allen Jr. Eric Allen Jr. ran his 100m PR of 10.31 (+0.9) in winning the sprint title at the Trojan Invitational on March 19. He posted his 200m PR of 20.50 (+1.3) at the 2019 NCAA West Preliminary Rounds and he went on to reach the NCAA semifinals in the event. At the Triton Invitational on April 9 Allen Jr. set his 400m PR of 46.56. Sprinter Ashton Allen competed in four meets in 2021 and has been active in 2022 both indoors and outdoors. Austin Allen, a sprinter and jumper, elected to sit out the 2021 season and has yet to compete at USC.

BURNETT WINS USC'S FIRST-EVER 60M TITLE -- Senior Davonte Burnett won the men's NCAA 60m title by running a PR and USC school record of 6.50. He actually won it twice. There was an error in the timing the first time they ran the 60m final, so they did it again and Burnett demonstrated it was no fluke by winning it again. Brendon Stewart placed sixth in the final with a time of 6.64 and Kasaun James did not start. Burnett's time eclipsed the previous school record of 6.55 held by Olympian Aaron Brown and current teammate James. Burnett was a double outdoor All-American in 2021, placing fifth in the 100m and sixth in the 200m at the NCAA Championships.

BARNES EARNS PAC-12 W-TRACK ATHLETE OF THE WEEK HONORS -- USC sprinter Celera Barnes was named the Pac-12 Women's Track Athlete of the Week for the week of March 21-27 in was announced by the Conference today (March 29). Barnes, a graduate transfer from Kentucky, won the women's 100m dash at the Texas Relays on March 26 with a wind-aided time of 10.82 (+2.8w). That is the fifth-fastest any condition women's collegiate 100m dash of all-time. A day earlier, Barnes had the fastest qualifying time to the finals of 11.07 (+1.2), which is her wind-legal PR and ranks fourth on USC's all-time list. Barnes currently has the fastest wind-legal and wind-aided 100m dash times in the world this season.

SEARS III EARNS PAC-12 M-FIELD ATHLETE OF THE WEEK HONORS -- Earnest Sears III was named Pac-12 Men's Field Athlete of the Week for April 11-19 as he won the Invitational Elite men's high jump competition at the Mt. SAC Relays on April 16 with the second-leading clearance all-time by a Trojan and equaled the 2022 world-leading height. Sears III won the Invitational Elite men's high jump competition at the prestigious Mt. SAC Relays with a personal-best clearance of 7-6.50 (2.30m). That clearance moved Sears III to second on USC's all-time outdoor high jump list, trailing only Jesse Williams who has the school record of 7-7.25 (2.32m) set in 2006. The 7-6.50 mark is tied for the world-leading height and also ties him for fifth all-time by a Pac-12 athlete.

THE WISE MAN OF THE PAC -- USC sophomore Dallas Wise ranks among the top Pac-12 jumpers in three events. Wise ranks tied for fifth in the Pac-12 in the high jump at 6-10.75 (2.10m), seventh in the triple jump at 48-10.25 (14.89) and 15th in the long jump at 23-2.75 (7.08m). Brewer had an anchor leg time of 2:06.02. The previous record for USC was 8:45.24 set in 1987 by Michelle Taylor, Julie Seleine, Elise Lyon and Lesley Noll. Three of USC's runners currently rank within the top 25 among Pac-12 800m runners: Brown is 11th (2:06.04), Maccagnini is 16th (2:06.79) and Brewer is 21st (2:07.80).

BURNETT & WATTS EARN USTFCCCA WEST REGION HONORS -- USC Director of Track & Field and Cross Country Quincy Watts was named the 2022 West Region Men's Indoor Coach of the Year by the U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association, while Trojan senior sprinter Davonte Burnett was the USTFCCCA West Region Men's Indoor Track Athlete of the Year, it was announced on March 17. Watts guided USC's men to an 18th place finish at the NCAA Indoor Meet on March 11-12. Three Trojans qualified for the NCAA finals in the 60 meters, including champion Burnett, and there were six USC All-American first teamers (and two second team). His 4x400-meter relay ran the second fastest indoor time in USC history (3:04.86) and the quartet placed eighth at the NCAAs. He also had athletes ranked in the national Top 25 in the high jump, 400 meters, 200 meters and weight throws heading into the NCAA meet. Last week, Burnett captured the NCAA 60-meter title in a school-record time of 6.50 after running a 6.58 in the semis. Earlier this indoor season, he broke the Arkansas Qualifier meet record with a then-personal best time of 6.60 in the 60. He also clocked a personal-best of 20.97 in the 200 meters at the Arkansas Qualifier and ran a leg on USC's season-best 4x400-meter relay, which posted a 3:04.86.
