USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 31 men's and women's national team titles. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (31) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s, World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez early in the 2000s, and NCAA champion and Olympic medalist Andre DeGrasse, and NCAA champions and collegiate record-holders Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM REMAIN IN GOOD HANDS WITH QUINCY WATTS - Former Trojan Olympic great Quincy Watts was promoted to USC Director of Track and Field and Cross Country on June 17, 2021 after eight seasons on Caryl Smith Gilbert's staff as an assistant in charge of sprints, long hurdles and relays. "Naming Quincy Watts, a Trojan Hall of Famer and Olympic legend, as our new director of track and field and cross country is the best and right decision for us," said USC Athletic Director Mike Bohn. "His impact on both our men's and women's programs over the past eight years has been significant. Consistent with our vision to be the most student-athlete centered program in the country, engaging our student-athletes is an important part of every coaching search process, and I am so impressed with the overwhelming support Quincy has from our current team. He is also highly respected by our former student-athletes and the national track and field community. We are very excited to have a winner and decorated Trojan leading our program, and we have the utmost confidence that he will sustain and elevate the tradition of excellence the USC shield represents." He was the 2021 U.S. Track & Field and Cross Country Coaches Association National Outdoor Women's Assistant Coach of the Year as well as the West Region Indoor and Outdoor Women's Assistant Coach of the Year. At the 2021 NCAA Indoor meet, he helped Kaelin Roberts to her second 400-meter title and the women's 4x400-meter relay team to a second place finish, while at last week's NCAA Outdoor meet Anna Cockrell was the 400-meter hurdles champ, the women won the 4x100-meter relay and three women earned All-America honors in the 400 meters (the first time by any school in the event since 2014). In his eight years (2014-21) as a USC assistant, the Women of Troy had four Top 3 finishes at the NCAA meet, including winning it in 2018 and 2021 and placing second in 2019, and they never finished below second place at the Pac-12 meet. The Trojan men had a quartet of Top 5 NCAA finishes and Pac-12 runner-up finishes. Watts guided Trojans to 86 indoor and outdoor All-America honors in the 400 meters, 400-meter hurdles and 4x400-meter relay. His Trojan athletes also claimed 19 NCAA titles and 26 Pac-12 crowns, and they set three collegiate records and 24 school records plus all four USC freshman 400-meter records and the women's 400-meter hurdles freshman record. Besides Cockrell and Roberts, among the other champion Trojan athletes that Watts has coached are Michael Norman, Rai Benjamin, Ricky Morgan Jr., Cameron Samuel, Kendall Ellis, Kyra Constantine, Bailey Lear, Jade Stepter, Amalie luel, Nicole Yeargin and Vanessa Jones.

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, 11 golds, 5 silvers and 5 bronze, and have won over 20 medals at three consecutive Olympics. The success in Tokyo kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals. USC has had 510 Olympians who have earned 326 medals, 153 gold, 96 silver and 77 bronze. Forefront in the USC success is the 151 track and field athletes who have earned 49 gold medals. Current and former Trojan students won a record 13 medals at the 2020 Olympics, six gold, two silver and five bronze. USC's previous record for most track and field medals won in a single Olympics was nine at the 2016 Rio Games. This was the fifth consecutive Summer Olympics in which a USC track and field athlete earned at least one gold medal and a Trojan track and field athlete has won at least one medal in every Olympics since 1912.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Well decorated throws coach Dan Lange is one of the top assistants in the country and is joined on staff by Jebreh Harris (distances and cross country), Olympic gold medalist Joanna Hayes (hurdles), Olympic silver and bronze medalist Carmelita Jeter (sprints) and Tyree Price (jumps and multi-events. In addition, volunteer coaches Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman are Olympic gold medalists.

McGlaston placed fifth in the 60m hurdles at the NCAA Indoor Championships and then helped USC's 4x400m relay team finish fourth with a time of 3:33.03, running the third leg. McGlaston will remain close to the program working in various capacities during the outdoor season as a student coach.

THE 2021 WOMEN'S TEAM - The women's team won the 2021 NCAA title with Anna Cockrell winning both the women's 100m hurdles and the 400m hurdles, only the second female athlete ever to pull off the double at the NCAA Championships. USC had 11 athletes combine to earn 19 first-team All-America honors during the two days of competition. The national championship is USC's 133rd among all sports, 35th by a women's team, third by the women's track and field program.and third by a USC team in the 2020-21school year, joining women's beach volleyball and women's water polo. The USC women's track program also won team titles in 2001 and 2018.

He also has coached Trojan throwers to 13 school records and 30 individual Pac-12 titles. If you want to measure his impact on the Trojan throws program, you have to go no farther than the USC top 10 lists as all but one of the top 10 male and female hammer throwers in school history have been coached by Lange and all but one of the USC record-holders in the men's and women's hammer, discus, javelin and shot put have been coached by Lange. BURNETT WINS USC'S FIRST-EVER 60M TITLE -- Senior Davonte Burnett won the men's NCAA 60m title by running a PR and USC school record of 6.50. He actually won it twice. There was an error in the timing the first time they ran the 60m final, so they did it again and Burnett demonstrated it was no fluke by winning it again. Brendon Stewart placed sixth in the final with a time of 6.64 and Kasaun James did not start.. Burnett's time eclipsed the previous school record of 6.55 held by Olympian Aaron Brown and current teammate James. Burnett was a double outdoor All-American in 2021, placing fifth in the 100m and sixth in the 200m at the NCAA Championships.

It was at that point that a mistake was noticed in the women's discus throw and that Karlee Freeman had won the event which shifted the score four points and the Trojan women had an 81-80 victory, their eighth consecutive in the series. It would have made Jan'Taijah Ford's mind-boggling close and win by 0.04 seconds in the women's 4x400m relay even more dramatic, as it actually decided the meet. The men's 4x400m also squeaked out a 4x400m relay win to clinch an 86-76 win over the Bruins. USC has now swept or split the last eight Dual Meets (4-0-4).
