ENFIELD AT USC -- Andy Enfield, 54, a proven winner as a player, assistant coach and head coach, was named the USC men's basketball head coach on April 1, 2013 and quickly brought success to the Trojans' basketball program. Results came immediately with the Trojans setting the school single-season win record and the most wins in program history over a two-year, three-year, four-year, five-year, six-year, seven-year and now eight year period. USC has won 182 games over the last eight seasons which is the third-most wins in the Pac-12 and tied for the 14th-most wins in the nation among power conferences during that time. USC has had the second-best overall record in the Pac-12 four of the last six seasons (24-12 in 2018, 22-9 in 2020, 25-8 in 2021, 26-8 in 2022 and 22-11 in 2023). USC's 95 wins the past four seasons are tied for the sixth-most among the six basketball power conferences. Over the last six seasons, USC has had six players selected in the NBA Draft, tied for the 13th-most by any program in the country, with Evan Mobley being selected No. 3 overall in the 2021 NCAA Draft a year after Onyeka Okongwu was selected No. 6 in the 2020 NBA Draft. USC is one of seven teams to have had at least one player selected in five of the last six NBA Drafts. Enfield guided the Trojans into the NCAA Tournament the last three seasons and into the postseason from 2016-18 (2018 NIT), the first time for USC since 2007-09, and his teams have reached the NCAA Tournament five times in the last seven seasons in which there was a postseason. His teams have also excelled in the classroom by setting the program's top team GPAs for the Spring, Fall and Summer sessions. Enfield has brought in eight consecutive Top 30 recruiting classes, with the 2022 class ranking No. 7 and the 2023 class ranking No. 4. Enfield has an 216-146 record in his first 11 seasons as the USC head coach and is 257-174 in 13 seasons as a head coach. USC went 22-11 in the 2022-23 season and advanced to the NCAA Tournament where it fell to Michigan State 72-62 in the first round. The three consecutive NCAA Tournaments for the Trojans matched a program record. USC also finished tied for second in the Pac-12 with a 14-6 record. Boogie Ellis and Drew Peterson were named All-Pac-12 first team. USC was third in scoring average (72.5) and led the conference by holding opponents to a 39.3 field goal percentage, the fourth consecutive season holding opponents to under 40 percent shooting from the floor. USC went 26-8 in 2021-22, placed third in the Pac-12, reached the Pac-12 semifinals and the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in the last six seasons in which a tournament was played. The win total tied the school record. USC held its first 12 opponents to under 40 percent shooting, the first time in 15 seasons a team had accomplished that feat. USC was 11-0 in the nonconference and was undefeated in play prior to conference games for the second time in six seasons, one of only two teams to have done that (Villanova). The 2020-21 Trojans went 25-8 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight, winning the most conference games and games overall in the regular season among Pac-12 teams. The 2019-20 Trojans went 22-9, finished tied for 3rd in the Pac-12 and were getting better as the season was cancelled due to COVID-19. The Trojans led Pac-12 teams in defensive field goal percentage and points per game allowed in Conference play. The 2018-19 Trojans were bitten by the injury bug beginning late in the summer, practicing the majority of the preseason with seven or eight scholarship players. Ultimately USC players missed 54 games due to injury and finished with a 16-17 record after falling to regular season champion Washington 78-75 in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament. Enfield guided the 2017-18 Trojans to a 24-12 record and to a second place finish in the Pac-12, its highest outright conference finish since 1992. USC's 12 Pac-12 wins were its most since also going 12-6 in 2002. The Trojans reached the Pac-12 Tournament finals for the first time since winning the title in 2009. USC set school records with 296 three-pointers made, 1022 FG made and 569 assists. The Trojans also scored the second-most points by a USC team in history (2,798). The Trojans accomplished all of this and achieved a No. 10 ranking in the preseason, its highest since the 1974-75 season, despite 40 percent of its projected starting lineup missing much of the season. USC went 26-10 in the 2016-17 season to set the school record for wins in a season, was in the top 25 rankings for five weeks with a high of No. 22 and won two NCAA Tournament games. The Trojans won their first 14 games which was tied for the fourth-longest winning streak in school history and was the best USC start since the 1971 season. The 13-0 mark in nonconference regular season action was just the sixth time in school history USC had gone undefeated in the nonconference slate. USC defeated Providence in the First Four game for its first NCAA Tournament win since the 2009 season, then defeated No. 11 SMU before falling 82-78 to No. 12 Baylor, one win away from a Sweet 16 berth. USC won consecutive NCAA Tournament games for the first time since also winning two straight in the 2007 Tourney. After bringing in his recruits and establishing his system during the first two seasons, his Trojans took a big leap forward in the 2015-16 season. USC went 21-13 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2011. The Trojans had an 8.0 game improvement from the 2014-15 season which was tops among the Power 5 conference teams. USC played an exciting brand of basketball, averaging over 80 points per game and ranking among the nation's top 20 in offensive output. They matched a school record with four 100-point games in a season, after not having broken the century mark since 2002. The high-flying athletic style was also in effect in the 2015-16 season as the Trojans averaged over 3.5 dunks per game and set the then USC season record with 182 blocks, ranking in the top 15 in the country in this category. Enfield and staff brought in the No. 12-ranked freshman class in 2014-15 and they became key members of the team. McLaughlin was named to the 2015 Pac-12 All-Freshman team and went on to become one of three Pac-12 players all-time to record 700 or more assists and 1,600 or more career points scored. Elijah Stewart would leave USC as the school's career record-holder for three-point baskets made. USC went 12-20 during the 2014-15 campaign, including a Pac-12 Tournament first-round upset win over Arizona State. USC went 11-21 in his first season (2013-14), but Enfield developed freshmen Nikola Jovanovic and Julian Jacobs into impact Pac-12 players, In 2016, Jacobs would lead the Pac-12 in assists and was named to the All-Conference team.

TROJANS ON THE RADIO -- USC's radio flagship station will be AM 790 KABC with Jordan Moore calling the action. The USC graduate is in his 10th season of working on USC basketball broadcasts, his sixth season as the play-by-play announcer.

USC had shot higher than 70 percent for a season from the free throw line just twice in the previous 15 seasons and averaged 65.5 percent from the line the previous four seasons. THE WINNING WAYS -- Since the beginning of the 2016 season, USC has picked up 193 victories, is tied for 17th-most by any team that played in the six Power basketball conferences over that period (ACC, Big 12, Big East, Big Ten, Pac-12 & SEC). Boggie Ellis scored 28 points and Isaiah Collier added 24 to lead No. 16 USC to an 81-70 victory over Brown on Nov. 19. It wasn't easy, though. Ellis scored 16 points in the first half for the Trojans and was pivotal late in holding off the pesky Bears. He made a long 3-pointer off an inbounds pass by Harrison Homery right as the shot clock expired to give USC a 79-70 lead with 33 seconds left. A few moments earlier, Brown's Felix Kloman was called for a foul and technical foul. Ellis made his two free throws and Collier made the technical free throws to give the Trojans a 76-70 lead. Those free throws proved to be the difference. USC led by 15 points early, but Brown cut the lead to 3 points at halftime at 35-32 on a 3-pointer by Kloman at the buzzer. USC finished the first hald making 2 of its final 12 FG before the break. Kino Lilly Jr. made a 3-pointer to tie the game at 66 with 4:54 left, but USC finished on a 15-4 run. Lilly Jr. scored 24 points to lead the Bears. USC made 12 of its 24 3-point attempts and Ellis made 6, to tie his career high for 3-pointers made in a game (5th time). It was the first-ever meeting between USC and Brown in men's basketball.

Rady Children's Invitational

Otega Oweh tipped in a missed shot with 1.4 seconds left to lift Oklahoma to a 72-70 win in the Rady Children's Invitational championship game on Nov. 24. USC erased a 6-point deficit over the final 4:02 to tie at at 70-all when DJ Rodman hit a pair of free throws with 27.9 seconds left. Oklahoma's Javian McCollum, who was named tournament MVP, launched a highly contested 3-pointer which bounced off the rim and was ticked in by Oweh who raced in from the baseline. USC led 39-36 at the break and surged to an 8-point lead 1:20 into the second half as Boogie Ellis, who finished with 16 points and was named to the All-Tournament team, hit a 3-pointer and another jumper to make it 44-36. Oklahoma responded with a 10-3 run. With USC up 56-53 with 13:12 remaining, the Trojans scored only one basket over the next 8 minutes to fall behind 58-64. USC still trailed by 4 points with 2 minutes remaining, but a pair of free throws by Ellis and Rodman tied the game a 70-all. Oklahoma made 50 percent of its shots, just the third team in the last 2 seasons to shoot 50 percent or more against the Trojan defense. The Sooners also made 10 of 22 3-pointers (45.5 percent), including a 4-for-4 effort from back-up center John Hugley IV.

Dec. 10 • Galen Center
Los Angeles, Calif.

USC squandered a 15-point halftime lead and fell 84-79 in overtime to Long Beach State before a sellout crowd at the Galen Center, spoiling the collegiate debut of Bronny James. With his father LeBron and the entire James family and a jam-packed crowd of local and national media in attendance, Bronny James scored 4 points, had 3 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 steals and a block in his first game since a cardiac arrest on July 24. USC led 45-30 at halftime and still by 10 points at 56-46 with 13:10 remaining, but LBSU went on a 12-3 run to cut it to 59-58 with just under 10 minutes remaining. Neither team had more than a one-possession lead until USC took a 69-64 lead with 5:56 left after a Boogie Ellis 3-pointer and a layup by Kobe Johnson. LBSU finished regulation on a 10-5 run to force OT. James had a steal and made 1 of 2 FTs to give USC a 2-point lead with 21 seconds left in regulation, but LBSU's Marcus Tsohonis, who scored a game-high 28 points, hit a tough jumper in the paint to tie the game at 74 with 3.9 seconds left. LBSU outscored USC 10-5 in OT to secure the win. USC made only 40.6 percent of its shots and 55.6 from the free throw line, missing 16 shots from the charity stripe. Isaiah Collier and Vincent Iwuchukwu led USC with 15 points and Ellis added 14. There were 47 fouls called in the choppy game.

Isaiah Collier (25), Boogie Ellis (22) and Kobe Johnson (21) all scored over 20 points as the Trojans defeated Stanford 93-79 at Galen Center on Jan. 6. It was the first time USC has 3 players score 20 or more points in the same game since March 18, 2018 vs. UNC Asheville (McLaughlin, Rakocevic and Stewart). Johnson scored 21 points, had 5 rebounds, 5 assists, 5 steals and no tunovers. He became the only Trojan since 1996 to register a stat line like that, and only the second NCAA player this season with a line like that. Collier scored a season-high 26 points and Ellis added 22. The Trojans made 14 3-pointers, their most since also netting 14 vs. California on Jan. 16, 2020. The game was close throughout and after Stanford scored 10 straight points to tie the game at 61-all with 9:46 remaining, USC finished the game on a 32-18 run. Collier, Ellis and Johnson took over from that point, combining for 28 of the Trojans' final 32 points to pull away. Both teams scorched the nets all day with Stanford making 52.7 percent of its shots, including 59.1 percent from 3-point range, while USC made 47.8 percent of its FGs, including 56.0 percent from beyond the arc. USC had 18 assists and 6 turnovers. The Trojans also forced 13 turnovers and outscored Stanford 25-10 on points off turnovers.
