THIS WEEK - The Trojan track and field team will be competing at the 2024 Pac-12 Track & Field Championships being hosted by Colorado at Potts Field in Boulder, Colo. from May 10-12.

TROJANS AT THE PAC-12 CHAMPIONSHIPS -- The USC men's and women's teams both placed second at the 2023 Pac-12 Track & Field Championships held in Walnut, Calif. The USC women's team has now finished in the top four in 31 of the 36 seasons of the women's meet and has won the title four times. The USC men have now posted a top three finish in 11 of the last 14 Pac-12 Championship meets. USC's men have won the conference title 16 times, the last time during the 2006 season. USC's men have scored at least 99 points in 23 of the last 27 meets. Both the USC men's (277) and the USC women's teams (164) lead the conference in all-time event titles at the Pac-12 Championships. Johnny Brackins Jr. was named the 2023 Pac-12 Male Athlete of the Meet as he accounted for 22.0 points (win in LJ and 4x100, 2nd in 110m H, 3rd in 4x400m).

400 METERS TO TROJAN GLORY -- USC's William Jones won the 2023 Pac-12 men's 400m title by edging out teammate Johnnie Blockburger, who had won the previous two titles. Jan'Taijah Jones won the 2023 women's 400m title, her second consecutive conference 400m title and the sixth in-a-row by a Trojan woman. Jan'Taijah Jones is seeking to become the third conference woman to win three consecutive Pac-12 400m titles (Keshia Baker and Phyllis Francis). USC's Kendall Ellis holds the women's 400m meet record with a time of 49.99 set in 2018.

TRACKING THE TROJANS ON TELEVISION -- The 2024 Pac-12 T&F Championships will be carried on the Pac-12 Network live on Sunday, May 12, starting at noon. THE GREEK HAMMER - Junior hammer thrower Nikolaos Polychroniou from Athens, Greece, had a PR of 246-10 (75.24m) to win the USC-UCLA Dual Meet hammer throw competition on April 27. His throw moved him from sixth to third on USC's all-time list and he currently ranks fourth in the country. Polychroniou took second in the hammer throw at the 2023 Pac-12 Championships and went on to finish fifth at the NCAA Championships to earn All-America honors.

JONES CLEARING ALL HURDLES - 2022 Pac-12 100m hurdles champion and 2022 NCAA 100m hurdles runner-up Jasmine Jones is back in action after battling injuries since then. She was able to run the first three 400m hurdles races of her career last season, before having to shut it down for the season. This winter, Jones captured the NCAA 60m hurdles title with a school-record time of 7.77. She was unable to complete her first outdoor race, the 100m hurdles at the Florida Relays on March 30. She did not see action again until running the 400m hurdles at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet on April 28, winning with a time of 56.24, the ninth-fastest time by a collegian this season. She then ran a 100m hurdles race at the Oxy Invitational on May 4 and posted a time of 12.86 (-0.4) which ranks 10th nationally. She now is one of two collegiate women to rank in the top 10 in both events this season.

OJORA SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS - USC senior jumper Temi Ojora currently ranks second among NCAA athletes with a slightly wind-aided triple jump best of 45-4.25/13.82m (+2.2w). She also has a wind-legal best this season of 44-11.50/13.70. She has won all four of her TJ competitions this season. Ojora also cleared a career-best 5-10.75 (1.80m) in the high jump and has a long jump best this season of 20-7.75/6.29m (+1.4). She won all three events at the annual USC-UCLA Dual Meet on April 28 to lead USC to victory, its 10th consecutive over the Bruins.

USC TRACK AND FIELD HISTORY - USC track and field is well known as one of the most successful athletic programs in the history of the NCAA, with 31 men's and women's national team titles. The Trojans have won far more NCAA team and individual titles combined than any other university. However, the most dominant force in USC's slate of athletic programs is not the baseball team (12 College World Series titles) or the football squad (nine national championships) but the men's track and field program, with an unprecedented 28 NCAA titles (including nine straight, 1935-43). In fact, in the history of the NCAA, only the Oklahoma State wrestling program (34) has more national titles than USC men's outdoor track and field. Trojan athletes have dominated the track and field scene for decades. From the exploits of sprinter Charlie Paddock and thrower Clarence "Bud" Houser in the 1920s and 1930s, sprinter Mel Patton in the 1940s, thrower Parry O'Brien in the 1950s, sprinter Lennox Miller and pole vaulter Bob Seagren in the 1960s, sprinter Quincy Watts in the 1980s, to four-time NCAA hammer champion Balazs Kiss (only the fifth collegian to win four in a row) in the 1990s, World Champion hurdler Felix Sanchez early in the 2000s, and NCAA champion and Olympic medalist Andre DeGrasse, and NCAA champions and collegiate record-holders Rai Benjamin and Michael Norman, USC is synonymous with track and field excellence.

TROJAN PROGRAM REMAINS IN GOOD HANDS WITH QUINCY WATTS - Former Trojan Olympic great Quincy Watts was promoted to USC Director of Track and Field and Cross Country on June 17, 2021 after eight seasons on Caryl Smith Gilbert's staff as an assistant in charge of sprints, long hurdles and relays. In his 10 seasons working with USC athletes, he has guided Trojans to 104 indoor and outdoor All-America honors in the 400 meters, 400-meter hurdles and 4x400-meter relay. His Trojan athletes also claimed 20 NCAA titles and 33 Pac-12 crowns, and they set three collegiate records and 28 school records plus all four USC freshman 400-meter records and the women's 400-meter hurdles freshman record. During the 2023 season at the helm of the Trojan program, Watts led the men's and women's team to second-place finishes at the Pac-12 Championships, with the Trojans winning nine event titles. His 400m crew was especially dominant with freshman William Jones edging teammate and two-time defending champion Johnnie Blockburger in the final with a time of 44.65, just 0.05 off the school freshman record. On the women's side, Jan'Taijah Jones won the title with the second-fastest 400m time by a USC woman of 50.44, to lead a 1-2-3-5 finish for the Trojans in the event. The women's 4x400m relay earned outdoor All-America honors and the women's and men's 4x400m relays earned indoor All-America honors. Jan'Taijah Jones also placed fifth in the 400m at the NCAA Indoor Championships. USC athletes combined to post 60 indoor and outdoor Trojan all-time top 10 results during the season. During the season Allie Jones set the USC heptathlon record, Tade Ojora the men's 60m hurdles record, Samirah Moody the women's 60m record and Summer Mosley the women's weight throw record. Watts also continues coaching USA Olympic medalists Michael Norman, Rai Benjamin and Kendall Ellis. Norman won gold medals in the 400m and with the USA 4x400m relay team and Benjamin a silver medal in the 400m hurdles at the 2022 World Athletics Championships.

TROJANS' OLYMPIC GLORY - USC athletes of the present and past won 21 medals at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, 11 golds, 5 silvers and 5 bronze, and have won over 20 medals at three consecutive Olympics. The success in Tokyo kept USC as the leader among U.S. universities for most all-time medals and gold medals. USC has had 510 Olympians who have earned 326 medals, 153 gold, 96 silver and 77 bronze. Forefront in the USC success is the 151 track and field athletes who have earned 49 gold medals. Former Trojan students won a record 13 medals at the 2020 Olympics, six gold, two silver and five bronze. USC's previous record for most track and field medals won in a single Olympics was nine at the 2016 Rio Games. This was the fifth consecutive Summer Olympics in which a USC track and field athlete earned at least one gold medal and a Trojan track and field athlete has won at least one medal in every Olympics since 1912.

ALL-STAR COACHING STAFF - Olympic gold medalist Quincy Watts has put together an impressive coaching staff that looks like an all-star roster. Jebreh Harris (distances and cross country), Olympic gold medalist Joanna Hayes (hurdles), two-time Olympian Martin Maric (throws) and newcomers added this season John Bolton (sprints), Karl Goodman (sprints) and Jeff Petersmeyer (jumps).

The Trojan women posted 15 all-time top 10 indoor times or marks, led by school records set by Marne Sullivan in the 800m (2:04.17), Jasmine Jones in the 60m hurdles (7.77) and Allie Jones in the pentathlon (4,528). SULLIVAN IS BEING HEARD -- Graduate transfer Marne Sullivan has had an impressive first season at USC. She set the USC indoor 800m record with a time of 2:04.19 and has run the eighth-fastest outdoor 800m race of 2:04.59. She was born deaf and received a cochlear implant at the age of 3 and 1/2. She has said she always felt to be a step behind her peer due to the time she had to spend in speech therapy, attending multiple audiologist appointments and working with learning specialists. She learned to cope and fit in well with her familiar environment, but really felt out of place when she went off to Boston College and had to interact with new people and an unfamiliar environment. She realized there was a lack of understanding and decided to use her situation to be a leader for deaf awareness and began using her platform as an athlete to share her story and educate others. Through social media she has helped become an inspiration to others with hearing and other disabilities. She founded and was the head of the non-visible/visible disability sub-committee through Eagles for Equality, a DEI student-athlete organization on the BC campus. She has continued her efforts at USC by partnering with brands for Deaf Awareness month and more. In March, Sullivan was named the CalHope Courage Award winner which recognizes two student-athletes at California colleges and universities monthly for overcoming the stress, anxiety, and mental trauma associated with personal hardships and adversity.

BRODERICK MAKING AN IMMEDIATE IMPACT -- Freshman Racquil Broderick set the USC freshman discus throw record in his very first meet with a throw of 204-6 (62.34m) to win the Beach Opener on March 2. His throw also moved him to second on USC's all-time list, a foot and a half behind the school record of 206-0 (62.78m) set by Gary Carlsen in 1967. Broderick has won four of the five discus throw competitions he has entered this season.

STEVENSON POSTS USC TOP 5 INDOOR AND OUTDOOR LONG JUMP MARKS -- Sophomore JC Stevenson has posted the fifth-farthest long jump ever indoors and outdoors by a Trojan this season. His indoor jump was 26-1.00 (7.95m) to win at the Spokane Sports Showcase on Jan. 12 and his best outdoor jump went for 26-5.00 (8.05m) to win at the Mt. SAC Relays on April 20.

BRACKINS JR IS A TRIPLE THREAT -- Junior Johnny Brackins Jr. has been making a name for himself this season as a jumper, hurdler and sprinter. During the indoor season, Brackins Jr. set the USC indoor record in the long jump with a leap of 27-0.00 (8.23m), breaking Detmer Haaf's school record of 26-11.25 (8.21m) which had stood since 1990. Brackins Jr. also had a time of 7.55 in the 60m hurdles to move into second on USC's all-time list and placed second in the event at the NCAA Indoor Championships with a time of 7.57. During the outdoor season he has run 13.51 in the 110m hurdles which is just outside of the USC all-time top 10. He also ran the 400m hurdles for the first time at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet on April 28 and in his second race ran 50.84 at the Oxy Invitational on May 4, which ranks tied for 30th nationally. Brackins Jr. also ran the second leg on USC's 4x400m relay which won at the USC-UCLA Dual Meet with a season-best time of 3:05.26.

FRESHMEN MAKING THEIR MARKS -- USC freshmen athletes have set five school freshmen records this year. Racquil Broderick (Discus Throw - 204-6), Nathan Cumberbatch (Indoor 800m - 1:47.78), Marjourie Lopez (10000 - 36:32.25, Indoor 3000m - 10:11.90), Madison Whyte (Indoor 200m - 22.90)
