PLAYER TO WATCH

Junior Dominique Jones poured in 28 points against No. 9/10 West Virginia on Jan. 13, giving him 84 points in three games following 26- and 30-point performances against Notre Dame and No. 7 Syracuse, respectively. His three-game total is the second highest of his career, following a 75-point outburst in three non-conference games in Dec. 2007.

THE GAME

On Jan. 16 at 7 p.m. in the Sun Dome, USF and Rutgers will each be looking for their first BIG EAST win of the season after starting 0-4 in league play.

Three of USF's conference losses were to ranked teams in Louisville (rv), No. 7 Syracuse and No. 9/10 West Virginia. The other was to Notre Dame, who is now receiving votes. Rutgers has lost five-straight, dating back to Dec. 28 when the Scarlet Knights were defeated by then-No. 9 North Carolina. Since then, RU has lost to two other ranked teams in No. 8 WVU and No. 5 Syracuse.

THE SERIES

Rutgers owns the series lead, 5-3, although the teams have split their six meetings in BIG EAST play. USF earned three-straight victories from 2006-08, but came up short, 45-42, last season in Piscataway, N.J.

THE LOCAL BROADCASTS

The game will be carried live by 970 WFLA Radio in the Tampa Bay area with Jim Lighthall (play-by-play) and Todd Kalas (analyst) making the call. As always, catch the game on BullsVision on GoUSFBulls.com.

THE COACHES

USF: Head coach Stan Heath is in his 23rd season of coaching, ninth as a head coach and third at USF. He has posted a 143-124 overall record and is 31-47 at USF. Heath has made three NCAA appearances (2002-Kent State, 2006 and 2007- Arkansas) in his eight-year career.

Rutgers: Head coach Fred Hill holds a 41-67 overall coaching record as he works his way through his fourth season as the man in charge of the Scarlet Knights.

USF MEDIA POLICIES

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

USF hosts a weekly press conference during a regular game week, with the date depending upon the game schedule. Coach Heath will take the podium at Noon and requested players will be available between 11 a.m. and Noon. Players must be requested through Amy Woodruff by Monday at Noon. The USF Communications office will make every effort to accommodate requests.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests are taken via email. Please email Amy Woodruff (woodruff@admin.usf.edu) and Mike Bello (mbello@admin.usf.edu). Requests must be made a week in advance of the game. Media attending games will have to show ID and pass through security to enter the Sun Dome. Any misuse of credentials will result in removal from the Sun Dome and the permanent voiding of the credential.

INTERVIEWS

The daily practice schedule is listed below. Coach Heath and requested players are usually available at the end of practice on Mondays and Thursdays throughout the season. Please contact Amy Woodruff (woodruff@admin.usf.edu) to request attendance at practice.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Under no circumstances should media members contact a USF student-athlete without prior consent and approval from the USF Communications office and/or basketball contact Amy Woodruff. The same policy applies to the family members of student-athletes.

STAFF INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for assistant coaches or athletics department staff members must also be approved and cleared by the USF Communications office and/or basketball contact Amy Woodruff.

POSTGAME POLICY

The USF locker room is closed at all times. Coach Heath and a handful of USF players will report to the media room for interviews. USF will take interview requests for players and assistant coaches with 10 minutes remaining in the game. On the road, USF will conduct interviews at the designated location by the host institution. All opponent interviews - coach/player/family - shall be directed to the opponent's SID.

BIG EAST TELECONFERENCE

The BIG EAST men's basketball coaches will hold a teleconference for the media each Thursday during the basketball season, beginning Jan. 7. Each coach will be available for approximately eight minutes. Media representatives wishing to participate should contact the BIG EAST office or consult the weekly press release for the phone number. The 16 coaches will be broken up into two groups of eight. The "first" group will have teleconferences on Jan. 7, Jan. 21, Feb. 4, Feb. 18.

USF vs. RUTGERS QUICK HITS

USF is 3-5 against Rutgers after winning three-straight from 2006-08.

Last season, Rutgers defeated USF 45-42 at The RAC in Piscataway, N.J. Dominique Jones had 11 points and six rebounds in 40 minutes while Chris Howard added 10 points, six rebounds and five assists in 38 minutes. USF shot 29.8 percent from the field, 27.3 percent from long range and 73.3 percent at the line. Rutgers hit 18-58 (31%) from the field, 4-16 (25.0%) behind the arc and 5-5 (100%) from the free throw line.

Coach Stan Heath is 2-1 all-time against Rutgers.

Dominique Jones has averaged 17.3 points and 6.3 rebounds per game against Rutgers in three outings. He's averaged 41.7 percent (20-48) from the field and 41.1 percent (7-17) from long range. His high was on Jan. 2, 2008, when he hit the Scarlet Knights for 24 points and grabbed seven boards.

In four games against RU, Chris Howard has averaged 4.0 assists per game along with 6.0 points and 4.5 rebounds. He has hit 8-of-9 from the free throw line for an 88.9 percent clip.

Rutgers averages 15.5 turnovers per game while the Bulls give up the ball 13.9 times per game. USF also averages 0.7 more steals per game than the Scarlet Knights.

GILCHRIST OUT WITH ANKLE INJURY

On Dec. 9, Coach Stan Heath announced that USF will be without sophomore Augustus Gilchrist until late January due to a right ankle sprain, which he sustained during practice on Monday, Dec. 7.

HITTING FREE THROWS DOWN THE STRETCH

At the foul line, USF is 31-37 (83.8) in the second half over the last three games and 164-227 (72.2) in the second half all season compared to 87-142 (61.3) in the first half.

USF DOMINATES FIRST HALF, FALTER LATE AGAINST WVU

On Jan. 13, USF bullied No. 9/10 West Virginia in the first half, outscoring the Mountaineers 22-14 in points in the paint during the opening half, but ended the contest with 26 points in the paint compared to 34 by WVU.

The Bulls shot a blistering 57.1 percent in the first half, but dipped to 16.1 percent in the second half. Neither team could make the long ball, as USF finished 1-of-17 (5.9 percent) and West Virginia was 3-of-17 (17.6 percent).

West Virginia handed out 15 assists on their 27 made shots, while USF had four assists on 17 baskets.

JONES TOPS 1400 CAREER POINTS

Junior guard Dominique Jones finished the game against West Virginia (1/13) with 28 tallies to give him 1,404 career points, one of only seven players to accomplish the feat. Up next on the all-time list is No. 6 Tony Grier, who had 1,475 points during his career. Check page eight of the notes for the rest of the school records that Jones is eyeing.

JONES SCORES 19 IN FIRST HALF, 28 FOR THE GAME

Against West Virginia (1/13), Dominique Jones finished the first half with 19 points, which tied for the most in an opening half by any Bull this season. Jones also had 19 against San Francisco on Dec. 19.

Jones finished the game with 28 points against the Mountaineers, which gave him three consecutive games with at least 26 points. Jones scored 26 against Notre Dame, 30 against Syracuse and finished with 28 points against West Virginia. Jones also scored 30, 30 and 25 in three straight games his freshman year.

JONES NEARLY TALLIES SECOND 30-30

Dominique Jones' 28 points against West Virginia (1/13) was just two points shy of 30 for the second-straight game, after hitting No. 7 Syracuse for 30 on Jan. 10. Had Jones scored 30, vs. WVU, it would have been back-to-back 30-point games for the second time in his career, and the first time in his BIG EAST career. The first time was during his rookie campaign.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The Bulls are happy to play back-to-back games at home this week since USF is averaging 67.8 points per game in the Sun Dome, compared to 65.9 points per game on the road. USF is also shooting better (45.3-43.3%) and has less turnovers (13.0-14.9) than on the road. For more home/away/win/loss/conference comparisons, check page 6

GAME-BY-GAME SHOOTING IMPROVES FROM 2008-09

The Bulls have shot better than 50 percent four times in 15 games, with the highest FG percentage game against Virginia (53.3%) and the second-best night against Notre Dame (52.9%). The Bulls' lowest shooting night this season was 32.7 percent, after blazing the net at a 57.1 percent clip in the first half, in the 19-point loss to West Virginia. In 2008-09, USF shot less than 40 percent in 16 games and more than 50 percent only twice. See the chart below.

Category	2008-09	2009-10
USF shoots 50% or better from field:	2-0	3-1
USF shoots 40-49% from field:	6-7	5-2
USF shoots 30-39% from field:	1-13	2-3

RIVAS SEASON DEBUT AT SYRACUSE

After having bilateral tibial surgical revision, which replaced the metal rods in both of his lower legs, senior Alex Rivas returned to the court for four minutes against Syracuse. Rivas was 1-1 from the field for two points in his season debut.

Rivas' battles with shin splints and stress fractures forced him to have metal rods inserted in his legs last year. The rods were then replaced this summer.

SHOOTING PERCENTAGES JUMP FROM 2008-09 TO CURRENT SEASON

Through 16 games, USF's shooting percentages have taken major leaps from 2008-09 to this season. See the chart below:

	Games	Total FG %	3PT FG %	FT %
2007-08	31	43.9	33.0	63.8
2008-09	31	39.9	29.7	59.8
2009-10	16	44.3	30.9	68.0

HOWARD MAKING THE MOST OF SENIOR SEASON

Senior guard Chris Howard is making the most of his final season with the Bulls, putting up offensive numbers like never before.

Howard is averaging 9.3 points per game, up from last season's 7.7 ppg. His attempts and percentages have also increased. See the chart below.

LOOKING FOR PRODUCTION FROM THE BENCH

In four BIG EAST games this season, the USF bench has scored just 15 points, with the low being two against Notre Dame and West Virginia. The Bulls combined for seven bench points at Louisville and four at Syracuse. While USF is averaging 3.8 bench points per game, BIG EAST opponents' reserves

GILCHRIST NOTES

With sophomore forward Augustus Gilchrist out with an ankle injury, the Bulls are missing the top scorer on the squad. See some notes below about his impact on the 2009-10 team.

GILCHRIST AVOIDING SOPHOMORE SLUMP

Gilchrist is avoiding the sophomore slump so far this season, as his productivity has exploded. See comparisons below between his first two seasons.

	G	FG	3FG	FT	Rebounds	Points
2008-09	25	99-245 (.404)	14-43 (.326)	43-77 (.558)	42/69 (4.4)	255 (10.2)
2009-10	8	47-87 (.540)	8-11 (.727)	48-59 (.814)	25/34 (7.4)	150 (18.8)

GILCHRIST HOT FROM THE CHARITY STRIPE

Gilchrist has hit 48 free throws this season, five more than his season total from 2008-09. This year Gilchrist is 48-of-59 from the line for an 81.4 percent clip, whereas last year he only hit 43-of-77, which is 55.8 percent. After knocking down all seven free throws against Virginia, he hit 15-of-16 against Davidson, and the next night against South Carolina he was 10-of-12.

TOP FIVE IN THE BIG EAST

As of Dec. 8, Gilchrist led the BIG EAST in three-point percentage, hitting 8-of-11 for a 72.7 percent clip. Gilchrist was also fifth in the league in scoring, averaging 18.8 ppg, and 12th in rebounding at 7.4 rpg.

ABOUT ... DOMINIQUE JONES

TWO-TIME ALL-BIG EAST CONFERENCE

KEEPING UP WITH MR. JONES

- Junior guard Dominique Jones was selected to the 2009-10 Preseason All-BIG EAST Second Team. He earned All-BIG EAST honorable mention after both his freshman and sophomore campaigns.
- Athlon Magazine picked Jones as a 2009-10 Athlon Sports Preseason All-American (honorable mention). Jones joins seven BIG EAST players on the listing, including one league opponent on the first, second and third teams and four on the honorable mention team.
- Jones was the BIG EAST Conference Player of the Week Dec. 21. He was also selected to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on Nov. 23, just a day after being picked to the Charleston Classic All-Tournament Team, and on Jan. 11 after scoring 30 at No. 7 Syracuse and 26 against Notre Dame in the same week.
- In his 58th career game, Jones topped the 1,000-point plateau, the second-fastest Bull to accomplish the feat.
- Jones' top 11 scoring games:

JONES AS A FRESHMAN...

HAD ARGUABLY THE BEST SEASON OF ANY FRESHMAN IN USF HISTORY

- All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention
- Unanimous selection on the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team
- Averaged a team-high 17.1 points per game
- 17.1 points per game ranked seventh in the BIG EAST
- Averaged 18.2 in conference play, the best of any league freshman and third-best in the conference
- Fourth leading returning scorer in BIG EAST
- Pulled down 4.6 rebounds per game, second best on the team
- Team-high 1.3 steals per game
- Was only Bull to start all 31 games on the year
- Scored in double figures in 28 of 31 games
- Had 20 or more points in 10 games and three games with more than 30 points
- 31 points vs. Seton Hall was career high and the highest scored by a BIG EAST freshman in 2007-08
- Three 30-plus point games are already tied for fourth on the USF all-time career list
- Was only USF player to play all 40 minutes in a game during the season, doing it five times
- First game-winning basket was at Rutgers on March 1, 2008, giving USF its first BIG EAST road win
- Shattered the USF freshman scoring mark by tallying 531 points on the year. The previous freshman record was 455 set by B.B. Waldon in the 1998-99 season
- BIG EAST Rookie of the Week four times as well as the Sporting News National Player of the Week once
- Became first freshman in USF history, and only the third USF player ever, to score 30 or more points in back-to-back games
- Was the first BIG EAST freshman in 13 years to score 30 or more points in consecutive games. The last BIG EAST freshman to accomplish the feat was Georgetown's Allen Iverson in December of 1994
- Made 123 free throws on the year, sixth on USF single season list

JONES CONTINUED TO IMPRESS AS A SOPHOMORE

AFTER AN EXPLOSIVE FRESHMAN CAMPAIGN, JONES BETTERED HIS NUMBERS AND MOVED INTO THE USF RECORD BOOKS

- All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention
- Averaged 18.2 points per game, sixth best in the conference
- Scoring average of 19.0 in league play was fourth in the BIG EAST
- Scored his 1,000th-career point becoming the second-fastest Bull to accomplish the feat
- Ended the 2008-09 season in 14th place on USF's all-time scoring list with 1,078 points in two seasons
- His 547 points are eighth on the single-season USF scoring list
- Drained 121 free throws as a sophomore, which is ninth on the USF single-season list and just three made from moving into sixth
- Ended season 12th all-time on career free throws made list with 244, just 15 free throws made from moving into 10th all-time
- Drained 106 3-pointers in his career, 11th on the all-time USF career list and just one out of ninth place all-time
- Four games with 30 or more points and seven for his career, second most in USF history
- Scored at least 20 or more points 22 times in his career, including 12 in 2008-09
- Collected at least 29 or more points five times this season and 10 in his career
- Second career game-winning basket is against No. 8 Marquette
- Talled his second double-double of his career with 26 points and 10 rebounds vs. DePaul on 1/20. The other was a 30-point, 14 rebound performance at Richmond (12/5/07)
- Exploded for a career high 36 points vs. Iona, shooting an efficient 12-16 from the field, 7-9 from 3-point range and 5-6 from the free throw line. He also finished with five assists, accounting for at least 46 of USF's 68 points. He began the assault with a 17-point first half, hitting 6-8 field goals, 3-4 3-pointers and 2-2 from the free throw line
- The 36 point outburst vs. Iona is tied for fifth on the all-time USF single-game scoring list

NEWS CLIPS AND RECORDS

ALL-BIG EAST FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE SEASON

Sophomore guard Dominique Jones has been named BIG EAST Honorable Mention for the second consecutive year when the league announced its all-conference teams on Sunday, March 8.

Jones followed an outstanding freshman season with an impressive sophomore season that saw him average 18.2 points per game, 5.5 rebounds, 3.8 assists, notch 40 steals and go over the 1,000-point plateau. His scoring ranked sixth in the league. He jumped his scoring average to 19.0 points per game in conference games, which ranked fourth in the BIG EAST.

The Lake Wales, Fla., native is just the fourth honorable mention selection for USF in its four years in the league, to go along with Kentrell Gransberry's first-team and second-team honors. Jones was also the first All-Rookie Team pick for the Bulls last season.

JONES SCORES 1,000 CAREER POINTS

With his first point at Seton Hall on Feb. 25, a free throw, at the 17:10 mark of the first half, sophomore Dominique Jones became just the 16th player in USF history to score 1,000 career points. He is the second fastest Bull to reach 1,000 and one of only three USF players to do it in two seasons. Jones also became the quickest sophomore to reach 1,000. He reached 1,000 in his 58th career game. Only Tony Grier reached 1,000 career points in fewer games. Grier surpassed 1,000 in his 51st career game during his junior season. USF's all-time leading scorer, Charlie Bradley, went over 1,000 in his 59th career game during his sophomore season.

JONES MOVES INTO TOP 10 IN EIGHT RECORDS, LOOKING IN ON ONE OTHER

In just his third season with the Bulls, Dominique Jones is currently listed on eight career records lists at USF and looking in on one other. He is fifth in free throws made (320), and tied for fifth in free throws attempted (438). He is seventh in scoring (1,404 points) and field goals attempted (1,061), eighth in three point field goals made (138) and three pointers attempted (406), ninth in field goals made (473) and 10th in steals (121). He is just 40 handouts away from 10th in career assists.

EIGHT 30-POINT GAMES

Jones has scored 30 points or more in eight games with the Bulls, three times as a rookie, four games his sophomore season and once as a junior.

THIRTY 20-POINT GAMES

Jones has scored 20 points or more in 30 games at USF. His last 20-plus game was 28 vs. West Virginia on Jan. 13, 2010. In 12 games last season, Jones tallied at least 20 points and he did it 10 times in 2007-08.

CAREER-HIGH 36 VS. IONA

Sophomore Dominique Jones exploded for a career high 36 points vs. Iona (12/27/08), shooting an efficient 12-16 from the field, 7-9 from 3-point range and 5-6 from the free throw line. The 36 points bested his high of 31 done twice previously (12/6/08 at UCF and 2/26/08 vs. Seton Hall). He also finished with five assists, accounting for at least 46 of USF's 68 points. He began the assault with a 17-point first half, hitting 6-8 field goals, 3-4 3-pointers and 2-2 from the free throw line.

ABOUT GILCHRIST

"He's legit. He's a definite pro prospect." - FAU Coach Mike Jarvis

ABOUT JONES

UCF coach Kirk Speraw calls USF junior Dominique Jones, who has averaged 30.5 points against UCF, "one of the best guards in the entire country."

"He's explosive," West Virginia coach Bob Huggins said. "He can score in a lot of ways."

are scoring 14.5 ppg.

KEEPING IT CLOSE

USF is 9-2 in games decided by 4-20 points, but is 0-3 in games decided by three points or less.

SCORING FROM LONG RANGE

USF has hit at least one three pointer in every game since the Bulls were held without a long ball on March 3, 2004 against UAB.

JONES TOPS 16 POINTS 11 TIMES

Junior Dominique Jones has scored more than 16 points in 11 games this season, including a season-best 30 at No.7 Syracuse. He has collected more than 25 points five times this season.

JONES ON WEEKLY HONOR ROLL

Junior guard Dominique Jones averaged 28.0 points and 6.5 rebounds against Notre Dame and No.7 Syracuse this week to earn a spot on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll. Jones shot 48.5 percent (16-33) from the field this week, including 6-13 (46.2%) from long range and 18-23 (78.3%) at the line. In two games, he handed out eight assists, swiped two steals and blocked a shot. He had 26 points against Notre Dame at 30 at No. 7 Syracuse. Jones was named to the Weekly Honor Roll on Nov.23 and was the BIG EAST Player of the Week on Dec.21. As a sophomore, he earned one Weekly Honor Roll (Jan. 19) award and as a freshman, he was the Rookie of the Week four times.

SOPHOMORE GUARD JOINS THE TEAM AT SYRACUSE

Against Syracuse, sophomore guard Anthony Crater played his first minutes as a Bull, dishing out two assists, but shooting 0-6, all from long range. Crater sat out the first part of the season after transferring to USF from Ohio State, where he averaged 1.2 points and 13.1 minutes in 10 games. In his short OSU career, he had 19 assists to just nine turnovers.

GIVE THE ROCK TO JONES

After scoring just six points in the first half, junior guard Dominique Jones tallied 14-straight to start the second half at Syracuse (Jan. 10). He ended the day with 30 points, the eighth time he has scored at least 30 points in a game. The 30 points also set his season high. In four career games against Syracuse, Jones has gone for 17, 23, 29 and now 30 points. Jones was 10-11 from the free throw line in the second half and 13-17 overall.

JONES AND MERCER TAKE OVER THE SECOND HALF

Dominique Jones and senior Mike Mercer scored 33 of USF's 37 second-half points at No. 7 Syracuse on Jan. 10. Senior Chris Howard and freshman Toarlyn Fitzpatrick scored USF's only other four points while senior Jarrid Famous was 0-4 and sophomore Anthony Crater was 0-5 in the second period.

TROUBLES WITH BIG EAST ROAD GAMES

USF is just 2-34 in BIG EAST Conference road games, with victories at DePaul (1/10/09) and Rutgers (3/1/08). USF was 0-8 on the road the first two years in the league and 1-8 in each of the next two seasons.

BACK-TO-BACK CAREER NIGHTS FOR FITZPATRICK

True freshman Toarlyn Fitzpatrick scored his career high in back-to-back games against Louisville (11 pts) and Notre Dame (13 pts), hitting five free throws each night. At Louisville, the Tampa native also grabbed a career-high 11 rebounds, and he blocked three shots and played 36 minutes against Notre Dame, all personal bests.

FIVE PLAYERS SHARE EIGHT DOUBLE-DOUBLES

Five players, including a pair of newcomers, have combined to collected eight double-doubles this season. Freshman Toarlyn Fitzpatrick has one while junior college transfer Jarrid Famous has four in 14 games. Returners Dominique Jones and Mike Mercer have two and one, respectively.

Only four players combined for five double-doubles last season in Chris Howard (2), Augustus Gilchrist, Dominique Jones and Alex Rivas.

KEEP JONES ON THE COURT

Junior Dominique Jones has played all 40 minutes in four of 15 games this season, averaging 35.4 minutes per contest. His season low is 24 minutes, which has happened twice. The first was in the 22-point blowout of Kent State when the Bulls played five games in nine days. The second time was when the Lake Wales, Fla., native fouled out

BULLS INK

DORITY AND AUSTIN

The University of South Florida men's basketball coach Stan Heath announced the signing of point guard LaVonte Dority and center Waverly Austin to NCAA Letters of Intent during the November signing period.

Dority is a 6-0, 180-pound point guard from Chicago's Edwin G. Foreman High, where he averaged 20 points, six assists and 4.8 rebounds last season. One of four Division I signees on his high school team, Dority led the Hornets to a 19-7 record in the Chicago Public League. Dority's strengths include creating scoring opportunities and attacking the basket. He is rated by ESPN as one of the top 50 point guards in the country.

Austin, at 6-10, 250-pounds, is ranked by ESPN as the 54th-best center in the country. Hailing from Fredericksburg, Va., Austin currently plays for Heat Basketball Academy in Martinsville, Va. Last season he helped God's Academy, a prep school in North Texas, to a 35-9 record in 2009, averaging 16.2 points, 7.9 rebounds and 3.4 blocks. He has also attended Courtland High School in Virginia and Yulee High School in Jacksonville, where his mother lives, and played AAU ball for the Delaware Takeover.

Austin runs the floor well and does a good job of crashing the boards on both ends while having a nice mid-range game. Defensively he has the ability to alter or block a lot of shots with his jumping ability.

LEEMOW LEAVES TEAM

Guard Justin Leemow has decided to leave the men's basketball team, according to head coach Stan Heath. "Justin has decided to leave the team due to family and personal reasons," said Heath. The sophomore from Brooklyn, N.Y., averaged 2.4 points, 1.25 assists, 1.1 steals and 1.3 rebounds in 12 games this season for the Bulls. In his two seasons at USF, he averaged 1.9 points, 1.2 assists, .72 steals and 1.3 rebounds in 43 games.

DUMARS TRANSFERRED AT SEMESTER'S END

Freshman guard Jordan Dumars, son of NBA great Joe Dumars, left USF at the end of the fall semester, citing his desire to be closer to home, which is Detroit. According to Coach Heath, "He loved his experience here. He liked being on the team, but he just felt that he wanted to be closer to home."

In six games, Dumars played 27 total minutes, averaging 1.0 point per game. His only buckets came against Kent State, when he hit a pair of three-pointers.

JONES EARNS BIG EAST PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Junior guard Dominique Jones averaged 22.7 points and 4.7 rebounds in the Bulls' three wins Dec. 16, 19 and 20 to earn his first-career BIG EAST Player of the Week award. He was also listed as the NBE Basketball Report BIG EAST Player of the Week. Jones was on the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll earlier this season (11/23) and was named the league's Rookie of the Week four times in the 2007-08 season.

Against UCF, USF and USD, Jones shot 52.6 percent (20-38) from the field and 50 percent (9-18) from long range while hitting 79.2 percent (19-24) of his free throws.

In 35.7 minutes per game, Jones also averaged 4.0 assists, 3.7 steals and .7 blocks per game while posting a 1.3 assist to turnover ratio.

HOWARD FIFTH ON USF ASSISTS LIST, NOW TRAILS FORMER COACH

Against Hampton, senior guard Chris Howard surpassed Brian Swift's 389 hand-outs to take sole possession of fifth on the USF career assists list. Howard, with 422 helpers, now trails No. 4 Tommy Tonelli, former USF assistant coach and director of operations, who had 480 assists from 1983-86.

HOLDING DOWN HAMPTON

Head Coach Stan Heath has preached defensive pressure this offseason, and it showed in USF's 74-55 victory over Hampton. USF held the five Hampton starters to just 16 of the team's 55 points in the game. Those five players combined average prior to the game was 49.5 points. Vincent Simpson (14.9 ppg) was held to two points while Darrion Pellum (13.5 ppg) and Michael Freeman (12.1 ppg) each had three against the Bulls.

GILCHRIST EARNS FIRST BIG EAST WEEKLY HONOR ROLL AWARD

Sophomore Augustus Gilchrist led the Bulls to a 2-0 record averaging 23.0 points and 7.0 rebounds per game last week, earning his first BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll award of the season on Nov. 30. The forward shot 69 percent (18-26) from the field, 83.3 percent from long range (5-6) and 71.4 percent (5-7) at the free throw line. He also had four blocks, two steals and an assist. After scoring only four points in the first half against Florida Atlantic (Nov. 27), Gilchrist added 23, which was his previous career high, in the second half to finish with 27 against the Owls. A native of Clinton, Md., Gilchrist hit 10-of-12 from the field (83.3%) and 2-of-2 from three-point land in USF's sixth win of the season. He pulled down seven rebounds, had one swipe and blocked three Owl shots. Against Kent State, Gilchrist scored 19 points, hitting 3-of-4 from the arc, and pulled down seven rebounds. He also had a block, an assist and a steal.

JONES EARNS BIG EAST WEEKLY HONOR ROLL AWARD

Junior guard Dominique Jones was selected to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll the first reporting week of the season, on Nov. 23. That week, Jones led the team with 19.4 points per game, 14 steals and 24 assists and was second on the squad with 7.2 rebounds per contest. He scored at least 13 points in each of the first five games, and had six or more rebounds in four of five games. The junior played all 40 minutes against South Carolina and Wilmington, and 38 minutes against Virginia. At the time, the native of Lake Wales, Fla., was fifth in the league in scoring, third in steals, ninth in assists, 17th in rebounding and first in minutes played.

JONES SELECTED TO CHARLESTON CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

After averaging 20.7 points and 7.7 rebounds in three games, guard Dominique Jones was selected to the Charleston Classic All-Tournament Team. In three games, Jones averaged 4.7 assists and 3.0 steals in 38.7 minutes per game. He shot 52.4 percent from the field and 30 percent from long range. He exploded for his season-high 28 points and had six steals, three assists and four rebounds in 40 minutes against UNC-Wilmington in the consolation game of the tournament.

GILCHRIST TOUTS BACK-TO-BACK CAREER NIGHTS

After scoring a career-high 23 points against SMU in the season opener, sophomore Augustus Gilchrist set two more career marks against Virginia on Nov. 16.

The forward from Clinton, Md., hit 7-of-7 free throws and dished out three assists, both career highs at the time. He also scored 18 or more points in back-to-back games for the first time in his career, hitting SMU for 23 and Virginia for 18.

STARTERS DOMINATE STAT SHEET IN ROAD OPENER

USF's five starters scored all 67 points for the Bulls, grabbed 24-of-31 rebounds and recorded all 13 assists and all three blocks in the season opener at SMU (Nov. 13). Five players entered the game from the bench, attempting only five field goals, three of which were from long range.

EXHIBITION MIXES EXPERIENCED RETURNERS WITH NEWCOMERS

After just one exhibition game against Florida Southern on Nov. 3, it's obvious that USF's six court-eligible newcomers will make an impact on the 2009-10 season. Junior Dominique Jones showed leadership with 20 points, eight assists and six rebounds while junior transfer Jarrid Famous added 20 points, eight rebounds and six assists in his USF debut. Senior Mike Mercer returned from his 2008 ACL injury to drop in 17 points on 7-10 shooting and 2-3 from behind the arc.

USF had four players score in double digits including Jones and Famous with 20 each. Mike Mercer added 17 points, while freshman Toarlyn Fitzpatrick put up 14 points.

Every active player for USF scored in the 110-79 victory and no player earned more than 27 minutes, with eight players notching at least 17 minutes.

BULLS TOP CENTURY MARK IN EXHIBITION WIN

In exhibition action against Florida Southern on Nov. 3, the Bulls scored more than 100 points for just the second time in Coach Stan Heath's tenure in Tampa. The only other time the Bulls have tallied triple digits was the 100-69 win over Florida Atlantic on Nov. 17, 2007. The Bulls did not score more than 80 points in any game during the 2008-09 season.

JONES TABBED PRESEASON ALL-BIG EAST

Junior guard Dominique Jones was named to the All-BIG EAST second team in a vote by the league's coaches during the conference's annual media day at Madison Square Garden. The All-BIG EAST accolade is the first preseason award for Jones in his career. He earned All-BIG EAST honorable mention after both his freshman and sophomore campaigns.

USF AT NO. 7 SYRACUSE

USF outrebounded Syracuse 38-36 ... USF drew the score to within two, 19-17, with 9:09 left in the first, but a 16-4 run by Syracuse downed the Bulls ... After scoring just six points in the first half, junior guard Dominique Jones tallied 14-straight to start the second half. He ended the day with 30 points, the eighth time Jones has scored at least 30 points in a game. The 30 points also set his season high ... In four career games against Syracuse, Jones has gone for 17, 23, 29 and now 30 points ... Jones was 10-11 from the free throw line in the second half and 13-17 overall ... Jones and senior Mike Mercer scored 33 of USF's 37 second-half points ... Junior Jarrod Famous came up just one point shy of recording his team-high fifth double-double of the year with nine points and 12 rebounds ... Senior forward Alex Rivas earned his first minutes of the season and scored his first bucket with 5:54 left in the first half. He ended the game with two points and no rebounds. Rivas spent the first half of the season recovering from bilateral tibial surgical revision that replaced the metal rods in his legs ... Sophomore guard Anthony Crater made his USF debut after sitting out due to NCAA transfer rules. Crater, who adds tremendous speed at the point guard position, had two assists but was held scoreless in 25 minutes of action. He attempted six shots.

USF VS. WEST VIRGINIA

USF bullied West Virginia in the first half outscoring the Mountaineers 22-14 in points in the paint during the opening half, and ended the contest with 26 points in the paint compared to 34 by WVU ... USF shot a blistering 57.1 percent in the first half, but dipped to 16.1 percent in the second half. Neither team could make the long ball, as USF finished 1-of-17 (5.9 percent) and West Virginia was 3-of-17 (17.6 percent) ... West Virginia handed out 15 assists on their 27 made shots, while USF had four assists on 17 baskets ... Dominique Jones finished the opening half with 19 points which tied for the most in an opening half by any Bull this season. Jones also had 19 against San Francisco on Dec. 19 ... Jones finished the game with 28 points against the Mountaineers, which gave him three consecutive games with at least 26 points. Jones scored 26 against Notre Dame, 30 against Syracuse and finished with 28 points against West Virginia. Jones also scored 30, 30 and 25 in three straight games his freshman year ... Jones' 28 points against West Virginia (1/13) was just two points shy of 30 for the second-straight game, after hitting No. 7 Syracuse for 30 on Jan. 10. Had Jones scored 30, vs. WVU, it would have been back-to-back 30-point games for the second time in his career, and the first time in his BIG EAST career. The first time was during his rookie campaign. ... Jones finished the night with 28 to give him 1,404 career points, one of only seven players to accomplish the feat.

HEAD COACH STAN HEATH

Third Season | Eastern Michigan, '88

Detroit, Mich. | USF ('07-Present) | Arkansas ('02-'07) | Kent State ('01-'02) | Michigan State ('96-'01) | Bowling Green ('94-'96) | Wayne State ('91-'94)

Stan Heath, whose eight-year head coaching career at the collegiate level has already included three NCAA tournament appearances, is building something special at the University of South Florida.

Heath, entering his third season as head men's basketball coach at USF during the 2009-10 campaign, led the Bulls to their most BIG EAST wins in 2008-09 and engineered the school's first victory against a top-10 ranked team.

The Bulls posted a 7-7 record at home, highlighted by a 57-56 win on Feb. 6, 2009 against No. 8 Marquette, ending a 32-game losing streak to teams ranked in the top 10.

"It's very special, one of the more special wins I've ever had in my career," said Heath after the win. "I don't want this to be the last one. I want to have more conversations like this in the future."

Heath arrived at that special moment after being named USF head coach on April 3, 2007 - marking the official start to a new era in the program's history.

In his two seasons in Tampa, Heath has guided three players to All-BIG EAST honors, including first-team selection Kentrell Gransberry in 2007-08 and record-setting guard Dominique Jones, who captured honorable mention laurels as a freshman and sophomore and was a unanimous pick on the All-Rookie Team.

Heath, 44, arrived at USF after serving as head coach at the University of Arkansas for five seasons. While with the Razorbacks, Heath guided the program to a pair of NCAA tournament appearances (2006, 2007) and an overall record of 82-71. UA posted 20-win campaigns in each of his final two seasons, and 2006-07 was highlighted by a run to the championship game of the SEC tournament and subsequent participation in the NAAs.

An outstanding recruiter throughout his career, Heath's signing classes have gained national recognition in recent years. National media outlets ranked his efforts among the top 15 in the country in 2003, 2004 and 2006. In his eight years (Arkansas, Kent State and USF) as a head coach, he has directed a total of nine players to all-league accolades and his rosters have featured a pair of freshman All-Americans, two conference defensive players of the year, one sixth man of the year and two NBA players, including one lottery pick.

Prior to Arkansas, Heath guided Kent State to a record-setting 2001-02 campaign in his first year as a head coach at the collegiate level. The Golden Flashes claimed the Mid-American Conference regular season and tournament titles en route to a 30-6 record and an appearance in the Elite Eight. KSU set a league record for wins that year, won 21 games in a row and defeated three nationally ranked opponents (No. 20 Oklahoma St., No. 8 Alabama, No. 9 Pittsburgh) during its historic postseason run.

While an assistant coach for five seasons (1996-97 - 2000-01) under Tom Izzo at Michigan State, Heath helped the Spartans develop into one of the top programs in all of college basketball. During his tenure, MSU advanced to the Final Four on three occasions (1999, 2000 and 2001), highlighted by the national championship in 2000. The Spartans compiled an overall record of 132-37 during his stay in East Lansing and also made one more Sweet 16 (1998) trip and participated in the National Invitation Tournament (1997).

The Detroit native has also made collegiate assistant coaching stops at Bowling Green State University (1994-95 - 1995-96), Wayne State University (1991-92 - 1993-94), Albion College (1989-90 - 1990-91) and Hillsdale College (1988-89). He began his coaching career at the prep level, working for one season (1987-88) at Lincoln High School in Ypsilanti, Mich.

A three-year letterwinner (1984-87) at Eastern Michigan University, Heath earned his bachelor's degree in social science in 1988. He went on to complete his master's work in sports administration in 1993 at Wayne State University.

Heath is married to the former Ramona Webb and the couple has two sons: Jordan and Joshua.
