SOCIAL MEDIA

■ Fans and working media can engage with Houston Basketball on a daily basis by following the team's social media accounts. The Cougars can be found on Twitter, Facebook, Instagram and Snapchat by searching for "UHCougarWBB". Each account provides regular updates on the team, including breaking news, behind-the-scenes pictures, infographics, videos and more.

CREDENTIALS

■ All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be made by emailing Roman Petrowski, Assistant Director for Strategic Communications, at rwpetrow@central.uh.edu, at least 48 hours before tipoff. Press row seating at Hofheinz Pavilion is for working media only.

■ All space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the Houston Athletics Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet. Spouses, dates, children and non-workers are restricted from press row. Any abuse of a working credential will result in the media agency losing credential privileges. Freelance and/or non-daily writers may be asked to produce copies of actual publications in which their work has appeared. Admission to press row is by pass only.

CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

■ Only full-time, salaried employees intending to provide actual game coverage may receive credentials.

■ A requesting media agency must represent a collective, organizational editorial voice, not simply the offerings of a single individual.

■ Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

■ A media agency may assign one of its credentials to its online entity.

■ An online entity, not associated with a traditional media agency, may qualify for one credential, subject to the following conditions:

1. An on-line entity may receive a credential only if its own full-time staff writes a majority of that site's material.
2. Online entities that focus primarily on University of Houston Athletics and sponsor message boards or chat rooms, may receive credentials provided they adhere to a policy that requires that a posted message or opinion is identified with the actual name and city of the individual posting the message.
3. Any online service that is recognized as an outlet intended primarily for the purpose of delivering news related to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
4. Online entities will not receive photography credentials.
5. Online entities (other than those identified above) registering 20,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months will be given first consideration.

ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS OFFICE

■ The University of Houston Athletics Communications Office is located in the Ted Nance Suite (No. 2008) on the second floor of the Athletics/Alumni Center.

■ The Athletics/Alumni Center is located at 3100 Cullen Blvd., between Cougar Field (baseball stadium) and Hofheinz Pavilion.

WNBA SCOUTS

WNBA scouts will be provided media credentials on a space-available basis. Credentials for WNBA scouts should be requested by the parent club on letterhead.

INTERVIEWS

■ All interviews with Houston coaches, student-athletes and administrators MUST be coordinated through the Athletics Communications Office.

■ Arrangements to speak with a member of the women's basketball program should be made with Assistant Director for Strategic Communications Roman Petrowski (713-743-9391/rwpetrow@central.uh.edu) at least one day prior to the desired interview date. Student-athletes and coaches are generally available after practice.

■ The locker rooms, training room and weight room inside the Athletics/Alumni Center and Hofheinz Pavilion are off-limits to reporters.

■ On game days, no Houston student-athletes will be available until the postgame media session.

GAME DAY

■ Pregame packets, including notes and statistics, will be available in the Hofheinz Pavilion media room (located concourse level at the north end of the facility behind section 128) prior to each home contest.

■ Timeout, halftime and final statistics plus running play-by-play and postgame notes and quotes will be provided.

■ Stat monitors will be set up along press row to provide up-to-the-second information.

■ Postgame interviews for head coach Ronald Hughey and selected student-athletes will be held in the Hofheinz Pavilion media room (located concourse level at the north end of the facility behind section 128) following each home game.

■ After a brief cooling-off period, Hughey and selected student-athletes will be brought to the media room to answer questions.

PRESS SEATING AND PARKING

■ Press row seats are for working newspaper writers, radio and television reporters and Houston Athletics staff, and are allocated by the Houston Athletics Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet.

■ Admission to press row is by pass only.

■ Media members who require parking in Lot 15A (located in-between Hofheinz Pavilion and the Athletics/Alumni Center) must make their request to Assistant Director for Strategic Communications Roman Petrowski (713-743-9391/rwpetrow@central.uh.edu) at least 24 hours before tipoff.

■ Visiting media who request credentials in advance can be added to a parking list and may park in the same lot. All others may be charged.

TELEPHONES/INTERNET

■ Phone lines are available on press row on a first-come, first-serve basis. Hofheinz Pavilion also is equipped with wireless Internet during games.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

■ Photographers and videographers are allowed to shoot from the baseline only.

■ Only those on assignment and with proper media credentials will be allowed to shoot game action. No flash attachments, monopods or tripods may be used at Hofheinz Pavilion.

RADIO/TELEVISION BROADCASTS

■ All requests for radio/TV broadcasts must be made in advance through the Associate AD of the Houston Athletics Communications Office.

VISITING RADIO

■ Phone lines for originating radio broadcasts (two ISDN, one POTS) will be provided on a reciprocal basis. Please contact Assistant Director for Strategic Communications Rob Walden (713-743-9391/rwalden@central.uh.edu) to obtain those numbers in advance of game day.

ACCESS TO COUGARS INFORMATION

■ UHCougars.com – The official web site of University of Houston Athletics includes rosters, schedules, statistics, player profiles, press releases, game notes and more. The site is updated daily and also includes links to listen to UH Athletics events live over the Internet.

■ Email List – Press releases, notes and statistics are e-mailed to a large contingent of media. To be added to the list, please contact Assistant Director for Strategic Communications Roman Petrowski (713-743-9391/rwpetrow@central.uh.edu)

■ Notes packets will be available prior to each game and in many instances, much earlier.

THEAMERICAN.ORG

■ The league's official web site contains information on all 11 member schools, including updated conference statistics, schedules and standings.

THE STARTING FIVE

Five names, numbers, news items and storylines that you need to know about the USF game

STOP THE SLIDE	Houston will look to stop a three-game losing streak against the Bulls. The Cougars have not won against USF since Jan 16, 2005
HAVE WE MET?	2015-16 marks the fourth consecutive year that the Cougars and the Bulls will meet just once on the hardwood.
SERIES OF STREAKS	USF won the first seven matchups all-time against Houston from Jan. 26, 1997 to Feb. 27, 2000. Houston responded to win six straight in the series, but has since dropped their last three against the Bulls.
AMERSON'S MARCH	After scoring 6 points in the 79-62 loss against Tulsa, Marche' Amerson is now just 6 points shy of becoming the 23rd 1,000 point scorer in Houston history
TOUGH TASK	Wednesday's matchup marks the fourth this season that the Cougars will meet a ranked opponent and the first since facing No. 1/1 UConn on Jan. 8.

THE MATCHUP

Here's how Houston matches up with their opponent on Saturday, USF.

- Houston (4-14, 0-7) is coming off a loss against Tulsa when they fell 79-62 on Jan. 20 and had their last scheduled contest against Temple postponed for a later date.
- Junior guard Kierra Graves and freshman guard Cenecia Newman posted career-highs in points with 15 and 14 respectively. Newman earned Coach Hughey's player of the game honors.
- Marche' Amerson now has 994 career points, and is just six shy of becoming the 23rd, 1000-point scorer in Houston history.
- USF (13-5, 6-2) is currently ranked No. 20 in the latest AP Top-25 poll as well as No. 15 in the USA Today Coaches poll. The Bulls enter winners of eight of their last 10 games after defeating in-state rival UCF 88-49 on Jan. 24.
- Courtney Williams leads all USF scorers with 22.0 points per game, and is just shy of averaging a double-double per contest, pulling down 9.0 boards per game. The Bulls have four players averaging double figure point per game.
- USF outrebounds their opponents by nearly eight boards per game led mainly by Alisia Jenkins who pulls down 11.5 per contest.
- The Bulls average 76.3 points per game while only allowing their opponents to score 62.4. USF shoots 41.9 percent from the field and limits opponents to 37.2 percent. The team from Tampa hits 7.0 3-pointers per game, but limit their opponents to 30.2 percent shooting from behind the arc.

THE SERIES

- Wednesday's game marks the 17th time the two squads will meet dating back to when the teams first met on Jan. 26, 1997, a 79-73 win for the Bulls in Houston.
- USF won the first seven meetings of the series from Jan. 26, 1997 to Feb. 27, 2000. The Cougars stopped the streak on Jan. 2, 2001 when they beat USF 82-59 in Tampa. Houston would go on to win six straight, however the Bulls have responded to win the last three matchups in the series.
- The teams last met on Jan. 21, 2015 at Hofheinz Pavilion. The bulls cruised to a 71-55 victory in the only matchup for the teams in 2015.

GUY V. LEWIS BASKETBALL CENTER OPENING FALL 2015

GUY V. LEWIS BASKETBALL CENTER QUICK FACTS

Name	Guy V. Lewis Basketball Center
Location	Corner of Cullen Boulevard and Holman Street on UH campus
Cost	$25 million
Size	52,923 square feet
Est. Completion	Fall 2015
Levels	3
▪ Dedicated practice court for each program; sports performance and sports medicine areas to be used by both programs on first level ▪ Team areas, including locker rooms and academic/film rooms on second level ▪ Office space for Men's and Women's Basketball coaching/support staffs
Architects	DLR Group and Page
Construction Manager	Austin Commercial

THE FINEST PRACTICE FACILITY IN THE NATION

In late September 2014, both the University of Houston Men's and Women's Basketball programs celebrated their bright futures when renderings for the Basketball Development Center were unveiled.

Designed by DLR Group and Page, the Development Center is located adjacent to Hofheinz Pavilion at the corner of Cullen Boulevard and Holman Street on the UH campus. Construction on the $25 million facility began in September 2014 and is expected to be completed by fall 2015. Austin Commercial will be the construction manager.

The 53,000 square-foot facility will provide the environment that the Houston Men's and Women's Basketball student-athletes need to excel throughout the season in all areas. The first level will house a dedicated practice court for each team as well as sports performance and sports medicine areas, which will be used by both programs. The second level will feature the teams' areas, which include locker rooms and academic/film theaters. The team rooms contain spacious, modern lockers, multiple video screens for television and comfortable furniture. The third level will hold office space for both Men's and Women's Basketball coaching and support staffs.

"I am really excited about the Development Facility, but I am more excited about the commitment and the confidence that Dr. Renu Khator, our athletics administration and the entire student body have shown with us," said Head Coach Ron Hughey. "This opens endless possibilities with the recruits that we can bring in. This is the mecca of #ChasingGreatness."

HOUSTON ONE-SHOTS

The one thing you need to know about each member of the Houston Basketball roster

#1 BUTLER		Registered career bests in points (17) and steals (seven) in the team's 50-48 loss to SMU on Jan. 10.
#2 BLAKE		Blake matched a career-best with 11 points in the teams contest against East Carolina while also collecting nine rebounds.
#3 WINSLOW		Tallied a career-high six assists while playing extended minutes in the team's 76-37 loss to UConn on Jan. 9
#5 COLLINS		A finalist for the 2014-15 WBCA Junior College Player of the Year award, Collins will redshirt in 2015-16 due to NCAA transfer requirements.
#10 NEWMAN		Cenecia Newman exploded for 14 points and four rebounds against Tulsa to earn Coach Hughey's player of the game award.
#12 COFFMAN		Coffman will redshirt in 2015-16 due to NCAA transfer requirements. She spent her first two collegiate seasons at Oklahoma State.
#15 SMITH		Smith graduated with a B.S. in kinesiology Dec. 17. Later that night, she scored six points in Houston's win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.
#21 PALMER		Palmer erupted for six 3-pointers and a career-best 25 points against No. 24/23 George Washington on Nov. 26.
#22 AMERSON		Ameron needs 12 points to become the 23rd member of Houston's 1,000-point club.
#23 HAWKINS		Hawkins earned her second career double-double in the team's 75-66 loss to Temple. She tallied 12 points and 10 boards to go along with two assists.
#24 MITCHELL		Mitchell finished just one rebound shy of her first career double-double when she scored 11 points and had nine boards against Temple
#25 GRAVES		Tallied a career-best 15 points against the Golden Hurricane of Tulsa on Jan. 20, while picking up five rebounds and two steals.
#32 BROWN		Brown scored the first four points of her collegiate career Nov. 26 against No. 24/23 George Washington and made her first start Dec. 5 at Rice.
#33 TY. GILBERT		Exploded for a game-high 16 points in the team's 76-37 loss against No. 1/1 UConn, leading all scorers.
#35 TA. GILBERT		Gilbert received a medical hardship redshirt due to career-ending knee injuries. She remains on scholarship and is an active part of team functions

LAST TIME OUT • JANUARY 20, 2016 • TULSA 79, HOUSTON 62

Houston dropped its eighth straight contest, falling to Tulsa 79-62 on Jan. 20, inside Hofheinz Pavilion.

- Freshman guard Cenecia Newman earned Coach Hughey's player of the game honors for her career-high 14 point, four rebound night against the Golden Hurricane. Junior Kierra Graves also added a career-best 15 points.>>>
- Houston jumped all over the Golden Hurricane in the first quarter, breaking out to a 19-13 lead after one frame. Tulsa would respond in the second half to pull even, before hitting a shot at the buzzer to make the score 27-25 Tulsa heading to the second half.
- Houston came out sluggish in the third quarter and allowed the Golden Hurricane to open the half on a 13-0 run. When the quarter ended Tulsa had built a 19 point lead at 55-36.
- Tulsa had five players in double-figures on the night, including a huge contribution from Ashley Clark. Clark scored 33 points (14-of-21 shooting) in just 36 minutes with six rebounds, four assists and three steals. Kelsee Grovey (12), Erika Wakefield (11), Teanna Reid (11), and Crystal Polk (10) all scored double-digits, while Tyjae' Scales led all rebounders with 11.

FINAL

EXHIBITION - NOVEMBER 8 - HOFHEINZ PAVILION

HOUSTON - Houston started the 2015-16 season on the right foot with a 59-42 exhibition victory over Texas A&M-International. Marche' Amerson led the Cougars with 12 points.

The Cougars overwhelmed TAMU with a suffocating defensive effort. The visitors shot just 31.3 percent (15-for-48) from the floor, including a 1-for-13 (7.7 percent) output from 3-point territory. Houston also forced the Dustdevils into 28 turnovers.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"I'm really excited for this team, because the potential is just through the roof. As soon as we get all of the nervous energy out and know where we are supposed to be on the court at what time, I think we are going to be pretty good."

TURNING POINT

The Cougars were only up by a point, 15-14, at the end of one quarter, but they blitzed the Dustdevils at the outset of the second period. Alecia Smith scored five straight points to kick off a 15-2 run at the start of the quarter, and the run gave Houston their first double-digit lead. The Cougars were in command for the remainder of the game.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: All 12 of Amerson's points came in the first half on a very balanced scoring day for the Cougars, and Jessiela Palmer recorded a team-high seven rebounds. Smith dished six assists and nabbed four steals, while Graves also tallied four thefts.

TAMU: Keiona Mathews finished with a game-high 13 points, while Katia Javier added nine. Mathews also led the Dustdevils in rebounds, with six.

KEY STATS

- The won the first three quarters, 15-14, 19-8 and 17-10. The visitors outscored Houston in the fourth stanza, 10-8.
- Houston won the rebounding battle, 39-35.
- Tyler Gilbert blocked multiple shots in 18 of 30 games last season, and she did the same vs. TAMU, recording two rejections.
- The Cougars are 2-0 in exhibition games under Hughey, including last season's 100-37 victory over Huston-Tillotson.

FINAL

55

NOVEMBER 13 - CHARLESTON, S.C.

CHARLESTON, S.C. - The University of Houston Women's Basketball team fell to College of Charleston, 55-48, Friday afternoon at TD Arena. The loss came in the season opener for both teams, dropping the Cougars to 0-1 in 2015-16.

Hughey's team was strong defensively, holding the home team to 28.1 percent (16-for-57) shooting. But Charleston was able to edge Houston by hitting all 15 of their free throw attempts, and they rallied from a five-point halftime deficit.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"To win games at this level, you have to make shots, limit turnovers and have a strong post presence. We struggled in those areas tonight, but we will correct those issues and come back with a much more complete effort Thursday night."

TURNING POINT

Houston took a 31-29 lead on two Mariah Mitchell free throws with 2:54 left in the third quarter, but Charleston responded with the largest run of the game. The home team scored 10 straight points, including 3-pointers by Breanna Bolden and Kelsey Booth, to take a commanding 39-31 lead they would not relinquish.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Freshman Serithia Hawkins led the Cougars with 11 points in her first official collegiate game. Kierra Graves snagged a team-high nine rebounds, while Tyler Gilbert blocked four shots and Jessiela Palmer swatted three, a career high.

College of Charleston: Bolden led all scorers with 19 points.

KEY STATS

- Charleston had the edge shooting 3-pointers, knocking down 8-of-12 (66.7 percent) while Houston finished 7-for-29 (24.1 percent).
- CofC hit all six of their 3-pointers and all 12 of their free throw attempts in the second half.
- The loss dropped the Houston program to 29-12 all-time in regular-season openers.
- Gilbert finished with three or more blocks for the 12th time in her collegiate career.
- Marche' Amerson played 28 minutes to move into eighth in Houston history with 2,867 career minutes. She also tied for seventh in Houston history with her 91st career start.

HOUSTON - An early deficit could not sway the University of Houston Women's Basketball team Thursday night, though the Cougars could not complete the rally, dropping a 47-41 decision to Long Beach State at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Houston's defensive tenacity kept Hughey's team alive throughout the game. After surrendering 21 points in the opening quarter, the Cougars allowed just 26 points for the rest of the game. Overall, Long Beach State shot just 33.3 percent (14-for-42) and was pressured into 21 turnovers.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"We have been working on our attention, our focus and our energy and communication at the start of games. The resilience of this team is really good; you can see it gives us an opportunity to fight more, come back and do things to be successful."

TURNING POINT

After falling behind 15-2 in the first five minutes of the game, the Cougars rallied to tie the contest on two occasions. The Coogs drew even for the first time with 8:30 left in the third quarter, as a Kierra Graves 3-pointer made the score 26-all. The game was tied for the last time with 1:46 left in the third, as Jacqueline Blake sank two free throws to make the score 37-41.

But LBSU took the lead on their next possession, as Jewelyn Sawyer hit a layup for the final points of the third period. The visitors held Houston to just four points in the fourth quarter to preserve the victory.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Jessieka Palmer and Alecia Smith led Houston with eight points each, while Graves and Marche' Amerson each posted seven.

Long Beach State: Anna Kim hit all four of her 3-point attempts and scored 14 points, while Sawyer notched 12 points and 11 rebounds.

KEY STATS

- Houston won the rebounding battle, 34-26. The Cougars grabbed 11 offensive boards.
- Long Beach State led at halftime, 26-21, though the Cougars held LBSU to just five points in the second quarter.

HOUSTON - Serithia Hawkins tallied 14 points and eight rebounds while Marche' Amerson hit a clutch 3-pointer in the closing stages of the game as the University of Houston Women's Basketball team edged Louisiana-Lafayette, 52-51, Sunday at Hofheinz Pavilion. The victory is the first for the Cougars in 2015-16.

Houston's trademark passion on defense lifted Hughey's club to the victory. The Ragin' Cajuns came into the contest averaging 81.5 points per game but were held 30 points under their average and shot just 39.6 percent.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"I am just so happy for the ladies that are in this program and everyone who has signed to be in this program. The people outside of Houston do not know about the resilience that we grow here on campus. That is the one thing that we want to display every time we step on the floor. That resilience is going to carry us for a long, long way."

TURNING POINT

Two Kierra Graves free throws with 3:31 left gave the Cougars a 49-48 lead in the back-and-forth battle, and after losing the lead, the Cougars got it back on an Amerson 3-pointer at the 1:53 mark that made the score 52-51. Neither team scored again, and when UL's last-ditch 3-pointer missed the rim at the buzzer, Houston had their first win of the season.

"Coach Hughey believed in me, and I felt like my teammates believed in me," Amerson said of the winning shot. "So I just let it go, and when it went in, it was like the best feeling ever."

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: AMERSON was ultra-efficient, going 4-for-7 from the field and 3-for-4 from both the free throw line and 3-point range. The rookie has now led Houston in the scoring column in two of her three regular-season games. Amerson scored 10 points, and fellow senior Alecia Smith matched a career high with seven assists.

Louisiana-Lafayette: Kia Wilridge scored 19 points, and Keke Veal scored 12 points.

KEY STAT

- Houston outscored the Ragin' Cajuns, 15-4, over the final five minutes of the second quarter.

HOUSTON VS. GEORGE WASHINGTON

78

FINAL

82

NOVEMBER 26 - 1:30 PM - AUSTIN, TEXAS

AUSTIN, Texas - Houston made life difficult for No. 24/23 George Washington for a full 40 minutes, but in the end the Colonials earned a victory, 82-78, Thanksgiving Day at the Cedar Park Center. The game was Houston's first effort at the 2015 Lone Star Showcase.

Down by 26 points in the fourth quarter, Houston did not lose focus or stop battling. The Cougars whittled their deficit down to a final margin of four points before absorbing the loss.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"Our team never stopped fighting today, even when down big in the fourth quarter, and because of that attitude, we very nearly came back and won the game. That mentality is something our coaching staff has worked tirelessly to instill in our players, so it's rewarding to see our team take that message to heart and leave it all on the court today."

TURNING POINT

The Coogs trailed by just four points at halftime, 37-33, and they scored the opening two points of the third quarter to cut the deficit in half. But the Colonials switched to a full court press and used it to score the next eight points, establishing their first double-digit lead. Jonquel Jones scored a deuce with 8:30 left in the period to make the score 45-35, and George Washington led the remainder of the afternoon.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Jessieka Palmer was 6-for-7 from downtown on the way to her 25-point day, which included a half-court heave at the end of the game. She added five rebounds.

Alecia Smith was 3-for-4 from 3-point range and scored 17 points, a season high, along with five assists. Serithia Hawkins paced UH with six rebounds, and Tyler Gilbert blocked two shots.

GW: Caira Washington recorded 22 points and 12 rebounds, while Jones, a Wooden Award Watch List member, posted 20 points and 13 rebounds.

KEY STATS

- The Cougars fell behind, 74-48, on a George Washington 3-pointer with 5:15 left in the game. But they did not quit fighting, and they outscored GW, 30-8, over the final five minutes.
- Palmer's 25-point explosion is the most by a Houston player since March 3, 2013, when Porsche Landry scored 28 in a 69-59 victory over Rice.

HOUSTON VS. WRIGHT STATE

61

FINAL

75

NOVEMBER 27 - 11 AM - AUSTIN, TEXAS

AUSTIN, Texas - Houston stayed close to Wright State throughout the afternoon before falling Friday, 75-61, in their second game of the Lone Star Showcase. Houston was down just one point at the halftime intermission before suffering the loss.

Balanced scoring was the name of the game for Hughey's team offensively, as three players scored in double-figures. Alecia Smith led the way with 13 points, her second-straight double-digit effort.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"We played well in spurts today, but winning a game like this requires a sustained effort, and we didn't bring that today. We lost the rebounding and points in the paint battles and turned the ball over too many times, and we will need to be much better in those areas to beat good teams going forward."

TURNING POINT

Houston trailed by 12 points early in the third quarter but came all the way back to take a 46-45 lead on a Serithia Hawkins 3-point play with 2:48 on the clock. But Wright State ended the quarter on a 9-2 run, taking a six-point lead into the final 10 minutes, and they never trailed again.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Smith knocked down 3-of-7 3-point attempts after hitting 3-of-4 and scoring 17 points yesterday. She is the lone Cougar to score in double-figures in both Lone Star Showcase games.

Hawkins scored 11 points and led the Cougars with seven rebounds, while Tyler Gilbert came off the bench to chip in 10 points, a season high, to go with three blocks.

Wright State: Antania Hayes led all players with 29 points and 12 rebounds. Kim Demmings added 14 points, including a pair of 3-pointers.

KEY STATS

- Gilbert moved into eighth place in Houston history in career blocked shots in the with her second block of the Wright State game.
- Houston got 19 points from their bench, while Wright State's reserves tallied 10.
- The Cougars trailed at the half, 29-28, but scored the six of the period's final seven points.
- Wright State took the first quarter, 14-11, and the Coogs were better in the second, 17-15. WSU was five better in the fourth quarter, 24-19, and they outscored Houston in the fourth, 22-14.

HOUSTON VS. IOWA

AUSTIN, Texas - The Cougars hung tough Saturday on the final day of the Lone Star Showcase before falling to No. 25/21 Iowa, 64-50, at the Cedar Park Center. Freshman Serithia Hawkins finished just shy of a double-double in her sixth collegiate game.

The Cougars stayed close to the Hawkeyes on the strength of a renewed defensive effort and topnotch rebounding. Houston outrebounded Iowa, 47-46, including 26 offensive rebounds, and they held the Hawkeyes to 38.5 percent (20-for-52) shooting.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"I'm proud of the improvements we made after yesterday's game in the areas of rebounding and defense, because I knew we were capable of so much more. To nearly beat a team the caliber of Iowa in rebounding shows how much potential our team has. We still have to address some issues on the offensive end and play a consistent 40 minutes, but when we do, we will make some noise in conference play."

TURNING POINT

UH was down by just six points, 27-21, with 2:30 left in the first half, but the Hawkeyes took control with a substantial run before intermission. Iowa scored 11 straight, including three consecutive 3-pointers, to take a 38-21 lead, and the advantage was 38-23 heading into the break.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Hawkins finished with 12 points and nine rebounds, just one board short of a doubledouble. Eight of the freshman's rebounds came on the offensive glass, and she also finished with a block and a steal.

Iowa: Ally Disterhoft was one of four Hawkeyes in double figures and scored a team-high 15 points. Alexa Kastanek drained three 3-pointers and scored 13.

KEY STATS

- Iowa now holds a 2-1 lead in the all-time series between the clubs. Houston's lone victory came in the last meeting before Saturday, 70-64 in 2003.
- Tyler Gilbert also nearly recorded a double-double, with eight points and seven rebounds.
- Jessiekla Palmer drained a pair of 3-pointers and scored eight points. She finished the Lone Star Showcase with eight 3-pointers over three days.

HOUSTON AT RICE

HOUSTON - Marche' Amerson hit a 3-pointer with :15 remaining to lift the University of Houston Women's Basketball team to a 62-59 victory over crosstown rival Rice on Saturday afternoon at Tudor Fieldhouse. The victory is Houston's fifth in a row over the Owls.

Houston trailed, 59-58, when they forced a Rice turnover with :41 seconds left in the game. With the shot clock running low on the ensuing possession, senior Alecia Smith drove the lane. When the defense collapsed, Smith connected with Amerson in the right corner, and the senior drained her fifth 3-pointer of the night to make the score 61-59. The Owls turned the ball over again on their next possession, and Houston hit one final free throw to help seal the deal.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"This victory shows that the University of Houston runs this town. It also shows the people of this city that our team is not the same old Houston. We're getting back to the glory days. It's going to take one day at a time, one possession at a time, but we are willing to grind every second to make it happen."

TURNING POINT

Houston trailed by as many as nine points in the third quarter, and things looked bleak when two Rice free throws gave the home team a 57-51 lead with 4:55 remaining. But the Owls did not convert another field goal, and Amerson's 3-pointer made the lockdown defensive effort pay off for Hughey and the Cougars.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Amerson came off the bench for the first time this season and responded with a 5-for-10 day from long distance, leading the Cougars with 15 points. The five 3-pointers are a new career high for the Rudder, Texas, native. Tyler Gilbert added 12 points to go with a career-high 14 rebounds, including 11 offensive boards, while Serithia Hawkins chipped in 13 points.

Rice: Maya Hawkins was 5-for-11 from downtown and led all players with 21 points.

KEY STATS

- Rice did not make a field goal in the final 8:59 of the game, as Houston forced the Owls into misses on their final six attempts.
- The Cougars dominated the glass, collecting 43 rebounds to Rice's 27.

HOUSTON AT INCARNATE WORD

67

FINAL

51

DECEMBER 7 - SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, Texas - The University of Houston Women's Basketball team was in control throughout the evening as they earned a 67-51 victory over the University of the Incarnate Word team at the McDermott Convocation Center on Monday night.

Houston led for all but 54 seconds of the game and built a 19-point advantage as they coasted to their second win in three days, both on the road. The Cougars were guided by career high scoring performances by a trio of newcomers: Serithia Hawkins, Kierra Graves and Jacqueline Blake.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"I'm really excited by the way our team demonstrated great poise against a tough Incarnate Word team that fought hard until the final whistle. Our kids continued to show the resilience and perseverance that carried us to the Rice win Saturday. Through adversity, we stuck together and trusted each other until we had the victory."

TURNING POINT

Houston scored the final five points of the second quarter to take a 35-23 lead into halftime, and after UIW opened the third quarter with a deuce, the Cougars scored nine more uninterrupted points. Blake capped the run with a putback that gave the Cougs a 44-25 lead with 6:23 left in the quarter. It was Houston's largest lead, and though UIW would rally late, the Cougars never trailed again.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Hawkins led the Cougars with 16 points, while Graves added 12 and Blake poured in 11. All three Cougars set personal highs in a Houston uniform, and Blake also topped her career best with 13 rebounds.

UIW: Brianna Williams came off the bench and led all scorers with 21 points.

KEY STATS

- The Cougars outrebounded the Cardinals, 50-31, including 23 offensive boards.
- The Cougs dominated second chance points, 20-10.
- Hughey's squad won all four quarters: 12-7, 23-16, 15-13, and 17-15.
- UH has also won their last three matchups with Southland Conference teams, including last season's wins over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Nicholls State.

HOUSTON VS. UNLV

FINAL

63

DECEMBER 12 - HOFHEINZ PAVILLION

HOUSTON - The University of Houston Women's Basketball team was edged in the final minutes by UNLV, 63-60, Saturday at Hofheinz Pavilion. Jessieka Palmer led the Cougars with 16 points off the bench, including a pair of 3-pointers.

After dominating the glass in their last two games, Houston lost the rebounding battle to UNLV, 46-38. The Lady Rebels turned their 21 offensive boards into 20 second chance points, while Houston finished with 11 second chance points on 13 offensive rebounds.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"This game, when it came down to it, they outrebounded us by five, and we had three more turnovers than we needed to. You've got to be able to take care of the most basic parts of the fundamentals of the game of basketball. Those are things you have to be able to take care of to win games. So, we'll get back to our fundamentals and get ready for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi."

TURNING POINT

The Cougars took the lead in the first quarter and were ahead for 26:46 before UNLV's Amie Callaway drained a 3-pointer with 7:25 left in the fourth, giving the Lady Rebels a 51-49 lead. Houston would never lead again, and when Nikki Wheatley's layup with 46 seconds left broke a 58-all tie, the Lady Rebels had an advantage they would not relinquish.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Palmer finished 5-for-13 shooting and led the Cougars with 16 points. It was the second time this season she has paced the team in scoring. Kierra Graves added 10 points while Marche' Amerson and Tyler Gilbert led the squad with six rebounds each.

UNLV: Brooke Johnson and Dakota Gonzalez each scored 17 points, while Nikki Wheatley finished with 16 points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

KEY STATS

- The Cougars dominated the bench points category; Houston reserves accounted for 36 points, while UNLV bench players scored 0.
- Houston blocked six shots as a team, with Gilbert accounting for three rejections and Sharayla Brown tallying two.
- The game featured five ties, including three in the fourth quarter alone, and four lead changes.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas - A huge third quarter run led the University of Houston Women's Basketball team to a 76-73 victory over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Thursday night at the Dugan Wellness Center. The win is Houston's third consecutive victory in road games.

Houston trailed at the half, 31-29, but used pressure defense and pinpoint shooting to blitz the Islanders in the third quarter and build a comfortable working margin. The Cougs outscored the home team in the third, 28-14, by knocking down 10-of-15 shots in the period.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"Mentally, we didn't always stick to the game plan tonight, but what we did do well was play exceptionally hard. When you compete as hard as we did tonight, it can make up for lots of issues. I'm proud of the heart and desire our team showed and look forward to carrying that mentality into Sunday's game against UTRGV."

TURNING POINT

Up 43-40 midway through the third quarter, the Cougars launched a 10-2 run that put some breathing room between them and the Islanders. Kierra Graves hit a pair of free throws at the 1:07 mark of the period to give Houston their first double-digit lead, 53-42, and they never trailed again.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Marche' Amerson drained four 3-pointers and led the Cougars with a season-high 18 points, while Tyler Gilbert scored a season-best 13 and Jacqueline Blake added 10. Blake grabbed a team-high six rebounds, and Serithia Hawkins led the way with four assists.

Texas A&M-Corpus Christi: Brittany Mbamalu was 6-for-9 from 3-point range and led all players with 24 points. Shola Adebayo added 13 points and seven rebounds

KEY STATS

- For the game, Houston shot a season-high 49.1 percent (27-for-55) from the field, which is also a Hughey era high.
- Thursday was more than just a successful day on the court for Houston, as Alecia Smith graduated with a B.S. in kinesiology before taking the court. The Cedar Hill, Texas, native received her degree from UH in just three-and-a-half years.

HOUSTON - Freshman guard Serithia Hawkins recorded her first career double-double behind 13 points and 11 rebounds, but it was not enough as the Cougars fell 55-45 to UTRGV to close out the non-conference portion of their schedule, at Hofheinz Pavilion, on Sunday

The two teams entered the locker room at the half with the score tied at 23, despite the Cougars holding the Vaqueros to just 33 percent from the field on 10-of-30 shooting. UTRGV used a 10-4 run at the end of the third quarter to take a 42-36 lead into the final period, and the Cougars could never get back within four points.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"In the second half, we went in and talked about the adjustments we needed to make, and how we needed to protect the basketball, and be more aggressive and not settle for a jump shot, and to attack the zone. We didn't do that in the second half. We came out, stood around and watched the ball. We got out-hustled."

TURNING POINT

With the scored tied at 23 apiece entering the fourth quarter, the Vaqueros outscored the Cougars 19-13 to take a six point lead into the final frame. Houston used a 3-pointer from senior Alecia Smith to cut the lead to four at 46-42 with 4:46 remaining in the contest, but UTRGV would use a 9-3 run over the final 3:32 to close out the game.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Freshman guard Serithia Hawkins tallied 13 points and 11 rebounds to collect her first career double-double. Hawkins finished the game 6-of-14 from the field and added five steals, four assists and a block. Senior forward Tyler Gilbert added 12 points for the Cougars on 4-of-8 shooting for her fourth double-digit scoring game of the season.

UTRGV: Shawnte' Goff led UTRGV in scoring with 16 points while bringing down seven rebounds, while Hilda Bjorg Kjartansdottir added 14 points and seven boards of her own. Anushka Maldonado and Rickell Preston tied for the team lead in rebounds with nine apiece.

KEY STATS

- Freshman Serithia Hawkins recorded her first career double-double behind 13 points and a career-high 11 rebounds.

NEW ORLEANS- The Houston Cougar women's basketball team opened American Athletic Conference play by dropping a 70-48 decision to Tulane on Wednesday, at Devlin Fieldhouse in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Houston trailed by just six to end the first quarter when Marche' Amerson hit a three-pointer as time was winding down to make the game 17-11. After Tulane took a 38-16 lead into the half, the two teams played neck-and-neck for the remainder of the contest, with each team scoring 32 points in the second half.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"We didn't come out with a lot of focus and energy in the beginning. It's all about energy and effort: especially when you're playing a good team. You can't have live ball turnovers to allow them to get into transition, and you have to rebound the basketball. Those two things we didn't do well to start out. But, we'll get back and fix things, and watch the Peach Bowl, and support the football team, and then we'll go to practice."

TURNING POINT

Senior forward Marche' Amerson hit a big 3-pointer as time was winding down in the first quarter to cut Tulane's lead to six heading into the second frame. However, the Green Wave would outscore the Cougars 21-5 in the second period to take a 38-16 lead at the half.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Senior forward Marche' Amerson led the Cougars on offense scoring 11 points, while also finishing as the team's leading rebounder with seven. Sophomore guard Chyanne Butler a career-high eight points of her own to go along with four rebounds, three assists and two steals. Tulane: Leslie Vorpahl scored 25 points and assisted on seven baskets to lead the Green Wave offensively. Vorpahl shot 10-of-15 from the field including 5-for-7 from behind the 3-point line. Tulane also got a big contribution from Tierra Jones who registered a double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds.

KEY STATS

- With her block late in the contest, senior Tyler Gilbert now has 100 rejections in her career making her just the sixth Cougar in school history to record triple-digit blocks.

HOUSTON - The Houston Cougar Women's Basketball team fell just shy in a second-half comeback effort, falling 75-66 to Temple on Saturday in Hofheinz Pavilion. Freshman guard Serithia Hawkins led the Cougars with 12 points and 11 rebounds for her second career double-double.

After a sluggish first quarter, the Cougars trailed 17-3 heading into the second frame. However, Houston would come roaring back in the final three quarters, eventually taking the lead for the first time in the game on a 3-pointer by senior Marche' Amerson to bring the score to 57-54 with 5:50 remaining in the game.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"First of all, I'd just like to say that I'm really, really proud of our team today: The perseverance, the fight and the intensity that we displayed. To dig a hole like that and then come back is just unbelievable. It's just a credit to who we are and that we're focused and ready to play. I'm just delighted to coach a team like that. They could have easily just folded it up and went inside and not competed, but that's not who we are. That's not the culture of our program. When we talk about chasing greatness, that's it. That's the epitome of what that is."

TURNING POINT

After Amerson's 3-pointer gave the Cougars the lead, Temple answered back just 20 seconds later to tie the game at 57 apiece when Feyonda Fitzgerald connected with a shot from behind the arc of her own. From there the Owls closed the contest on an 18-9 run. Fitzgerald finished the contest with 23 points.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Freshman guard Serithia Hawkins earned her second career double-double tallying 12 points and 10 rebounds, including four on the offensive glass, before fouling out late in the game. Sophomore guard Mariah Mitchell added a season-high 11 points and a career-best nine rebounds, while sophomore Chyanne Butler also added a career-best 14 points.

Temple: Feyonda Fitzgerald led the Owls offensively with 23 points, including 11-of-12 shooting from the free throw line. Alliya Butts also added 20 points, while Erica Covile scored 17 to go along with six rebounds. Donnaizha Fountain led Temple with nine rebounds.

KEY STATS

-Houston had four players in double-figures. Junior guard Kierra Graves matched a career-high with 12 points along with Butler, Hawkins and Mitchell's performances.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The Houston Cougar Women's Basketball dropped a 74-57 decision to the Memphis Tigers, on Tuesday, on the road in Memphis, Tenn. Junior Kierra Graves scored 11 points to lead the Cougars, while senior Marche' Amerson added 10 points of her own.

Memphis started hot and grabbed a 6-0 lead just over a minute into the game. Memphis would build its lead to 13 at the end of the first quarter taking a 23-10 lead into the second frame. The Cougars finally settled in after the first quarter and were able to work their way back into the game from the free-throw line. Houston shot 10-15 from the charity stripe in the first half, and 19-28 overall.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"We've been over it over-and-over again about being sure with our passes. But, we started out the game again with three turnovers and never really got involved. We started out unsure tonight after having a couple of good practices. I'm just not sure what it is when we step on the court, but we're going to have to find out what it is and fix it. We have to get better energy, better focus, and we just have to play hard all the time. If we take care of playing hard, that will take care of the other stuff."

TURNING POINT

Houston struggled to keep the Tigers out of the lane, and forward Brianna Wright took advantage of that for Memphis. Wright scored 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting, and helped contribute in a big way to the Tigers 46 points in the paint.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Junior guard Kierra Graves led Houston in scoring with 11. Graves' double-digit scoring night is her second consecutive game in double figures and fourth of the season. Senior Marche' Amerson also scored in double figures. Amerson's 10 points bring her to 967 for her career and moving her just 33 points away from becoming the Cougars' 23rd 1,000 point scorer

Memphis: Wright and Ariel Hearn dominated the game for the Tigers, scoring a combined 38 of Memphis' 74 points. Wright collected five boards to go along with 18 points, while Hearn scored 20 on 9-of-10 shooting from the field.

KEY STATS

- Houston entered play Tuesday night outrebounding opponents by 1.1 boards per game. The Cougars dominated Memphis on the glass, beating the Tigers 40-29.

HOUSTON - Senior Forward Tyler Gilbert scored a season-high 16 points, and collected eight rebounds as the Houston Cougar Women's Basketball team fell 76-37 against No. 1/UConn on Friday, inside Hofheinz Pavilion.

The Cougars jumped out to an early 8-4 lead as the Houston defense forced the Huskies to miss their first five shots from the field. The Cougs took a 15-14 lead into the second quarter behind Tyler Gilbert's 4-of-4 start from the field, marking the first time the Huskies have trailed after the first quarter this season.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"For our team to come out against the number one team in the country and play like that for two and a half quarters, we did a hell of a job. I'm so proud of Tyler Gilbert and the rest of my team. They were able to come in and follow the game plan and play with heart. We talked about representing and playing for the name across their chest more than the name across their back, and they did that and represented us well tonight."

TURNING POINT

Despite trailing at the end of the first quarter, UConn finished the frame on a 6-0 run. The scoring streak continued for the Huskies into the second where they ratted off nine unanswered points to begin the quarter. Houston trailed 31-20 at halftime. UConn outscored the Cougars 45-17 to end the contest.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Senior forward Tyler Gilbert exploded for 10 first half points and five rebounds after playing all but one minute in the first half. Gilbert would go on to finish the game with a season-best 16 points and a game-high eight rebounds. Freshman Serithia Hawkins finished Friday's contest with six points and four rebounds.

UConn: Breanna Stewart, Moriah Jefferson, Kia Nurse and Gabby Williams all scored 13 points apiece to lead UConn in scoring. Natalie Butler had a team-high eight rebounds, while Stewart and Katie Lou Samuelson each collected six.

KEY STATS

-Houston was able to rebound the Huskies on the offensive glass, collecting 12 offensive rebounds to UConn's 11. career-high 11 rebounds.

HOUSTON - Sophomore guard Chyanne Butler scored a new career-high 17 points, but the Houston Cougar Women's Basketball team dropped a tough decision falling to in-state rival SMU 50-48, inside Hofheinz Pavilion on Sunday.

Houston fell behind 4-0 to start the contest, but the Cougars would roar back on a 15-7 run through most of the first quarter. Butler led the Cougars through the first frame with 11 points, while four other Cougars had two apiece.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"Well, this one is really tough to swallow. We take the lead at the beginning, and go for three quarters of the game and lose it in the last minute or two just because you didn't box out. We gave up second chance points and turned the ball over the last three or four minutes of the game. This one is tough to swallow."

TURNING POINT

Despite the Cougars leading for over 32 minutes in the contest, SMU was able to outscore Houston 26-17 in the second half to claim the win. The Cougars led 44-43 with just 2:12 to play before SMU forward Keely Froling hit a jumper to give SMU the lead.

The teams traded buckets for the final two minutes, and Houston forced a turnover with just 29 seconds to play and the game tied at 48. Junior guard Kierra Graves had a clean look at a three-pointer with six seconds remaining, but just missed. The rebound came out to Mustang guard Gabrielle Wilkins who was fouled on the rebound. Wilkins would make her two free throws to give SMU the 50-48 win.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Sophomore guard Chyanne Butler scored a career-high 17 points on 7-of-19 shooting in the contest. Butler also tallied a career-high seven steals along with two rebounds and one assist. Senior Jessieka Palmer added 10 points on 4-of-5 shooting, while freshman Serithia Hawkins added a team-high eight rebounds.

SMU: Sophomore forward Alicia Froling led SMU in scoring with 15 points on 7-of-16 shooting. Sophomore guard McKenzie Adams also had double figures with 10 points, while Gabrielle Wilkins picked up a game-high 10 rebounds.

Greenville, N.C.- Despite trailing by 14 points after the first quarter, the Houston Cougar women's basketball team roared all the way back to tie the game in the second half, before eventually falling to East Carolina 76-70 on Thursday night, in Greenville, N.C.

After a slow start for both teams, Houston led 4-1 midway through the first quarter. However, the Pirates would go on a 25-8 run to close out the half and take a 14-point lead into the first break. Fueled by sophomore guard Chyanne Butler, the Cougars came out firing in the second quarter and were able to cut the lead to nine at the half at 39-30. Butler finished the contest with 12 points and four rebounds, marking her second straight double-digit performance.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"We had a good game plan and we executed. They came out early and attacked us and pushed us on our heels a little bit. Once we saw we could play with them we started to play. We dug ourselves in a hole in the first quarter. You come out of that first quarter down 26-12, but we basically won every quarter after that: even coming back and tying it up. Rebounding continues to be something that is coming back to be our Achilles Heel. Even though we only got outrebounded by three, we gave up too many second chance points. We turned the ball over less than we have, but we're still above our goal. If we take care of that, then we have extra possessions. We only had 52 offensive possessions and they had 72."

TURNING POINT

After shooting 44.1 percent in the first half, the Cougars held the Pirates to just 14-of-38 (36.8 percent) in the third and fourth quarters. Houston used lockdown defense to open the second half on a 14-5 run and crawl all the way back to tie the score at 44 apiece.

However the Pirates would answer with a 17-7 run of their own to head into the fourth quarter with a 10-point lead at 61-51. Houston battled in the fourth quarter and was able to pull within four late in the contest, but ECU sensation Jada Payne sank two free throws with nine seconds remaining to seal the win. Payne finished the contest with a game-high 24 points and 10 rebounds.

TOP PERFORMERS

Houston: Junior forward Jaqueline Blake had a standout performance for the Cougars, falling just shy of a double-double with 11 points and nine boards. Blake's 11 points match a career-high for the transfer from Miami Dade Community College. Sophomore Chyanne Butler led Houston in scoring with 12 points for her second straight double-digit scoring night, while Marche' Amerson inched closer to 1,000 career points with an 11-point performance tonight.

East Carolina: The Pirates got major contributions from their big-three as seniors Jada Payne, DeVaughn Gray and T'iana Taylor scored a combined 63 of ECU's 76 points. Payne led all scorers with 24 points and completed a double-double with 10 boards, while Taylor tallied a game-high 16 rebounds to go along with 21 points. Gray added 17 points and four assists for East Carolina. The trio ended the game shooting 34-of-50 from the field.

HOUSTON - Junior Kierra Graves and freshman Cenecia Newman led the Houston Cougar Women's Basketball with career-highs in points, but the Cougars fell 79-62 to Tulsa inside Hofheinz Pavilion on Thursday.

Houston came out strong in the first quarter, quickly building a 19-13 behind seven first-quarter points by senior Jessieka Palmer and 41.2 percent shooting by the Cougars. Tulsa responded by outscoring Houston 14-6 to take a 27-25 lead at the half. Palmer finished the contest with eight points, three rebounds and three assists.

COACH HUGHEY'S TAKE

"Kierra always plays well. She gave up a few defensive assignments but also came up with good steals. She's one that we're going to continue to develop and push her to be the best that she can be. She has a chance to really do something special. Cenecia was one that we've been building up her confidence in practice, and we wanted to have the opportunity to showcase her at some point, and I was happy that she came out and responded. She works hard in practice every day. She pushes herself and does all the things necessary to be successful."

TURNING POINT
