NEW YORK, NEW YORK

GUESS WHO'S BACK...BACK AGAIN

Junior guard Geno Thorpe (Pittsburgh) missed two games due to an injured ankle and returned to score a career-high 25 points at Temple (2/5) in a return trip to his home state. Thorpe made a career-best 11 field goals on 19 attempts and tallied 23 points in the second half. He also compiled six assists, four rebounds and three steals. Thorpe piloted a USF comeback, trailing by as many as 27 points in the second half, to within single digits in the waning moments.

SECOND HALF SHOOTING PERCENTAGE

USF made 22-of-33 shots in the second half at Temple for a 67 percent shooting percentage. It was the highest single half shooting percentage for the Bulls since making 72 percent (18-of-25) in the first half against Kennesaw State (11/28).

30 FOR 30

The Bulls made 33 field goals at Temple, the most since USF converted on 31 field goals against Jacksonville on Dec. 15, 2015.

50+ IN 20

USF tallied 51 points in the second half against Temple on the road. It was the first time the Bulls netted 50 or more points in a half since posting 50 in the second half against Providence on Jan. 16, 2011.

CAREER NIGHT

Freshman forward Malik Fitts (Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) had a career night against Memphis (2/2). He set new career-highs in points (29), rebounds (11), and steals (three). It was Fitts' first career double-double. His 29 points is the most for a Bull this season and the first time he has scored more than 20 points in a game.

PHENOMENAL FRESHMEN

Malik Fitts, freshman guard Michael Bibby (Phoenix) and redshirt freshman forward Tulio Da Silva (Brazil) combined to score 55 of the Bulls' 75 points against Memphis (2/2). That translates to 73 percent of the team's scoring that evening. The Bulls, who are one of four teams in the nation without a senior on the roster, are receiving a lot from their freshman this season.

DON'T DISH IT IF YOU CAN'T TAKE IT

Guard Michael Bibby and junior guard Jake Bodway (Bloomington, Minn.) combined for 11 assists in the Memphis game (2/2). Bibby's six assists tied a career high while Bodway's five assists more than doubled his previous career best of two assists.

SNEAKERS AND SUITS

Coach Murry Bartow and his staff participated in the Coaches vs. Cancer campaign by wearing sneakers and suits at both the UConn (1/25) and UC games (1/29). The National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and the American Cancer Society began the partnership in 1993 and since the inaugural event, coaches have helped raise over $100 million to fight cancer.

BIBBY AND BIBBY

Guard Michael Bibby registered 14 points against UConn (1/25), including four made three pointers, a new career-high. He posted his fourth career double figure scoring game with his father, former NBA veteran Mike Bibby in attendance.

NOTES

HIGH FIVE

Forward Luis Santos (Bronx, N.Y.) snared five offensive rebounds against UConn. It was a new career-high for Santos and matched the individual high for a Bull this year (set three times prior).

ORDER THE DOUBLE RUBEN

Center Ruben Guerrero notched 16 points and 10 rebounds against Tulsa for his fifth career double-double (third this year). Guerrero has now scored double-figure points in 11 games as a Bull and grabbed double-figure rebounds nine times.

WAR ON I-4

USF and the University of Central Florida announced the official recognition of the "War On I-4" rivalry series in September. The "War on I-4" represents a long-standing and passionate rivalry between the fan bases of two of the nation's largest and fastest growing universities. The Tampa Bay and Orlando metropolitan areas, which form the fourth largest media market in the nation, are connected by a 100 short miles of Florida Interstate I-4. The official recognition of the rivalry and the traditional name, first established by the fans, creates an annual series of scored competitions across multiple sports programs.

The Green & Gold and the Black & Gold will compete for year-long bragging rights with the winners in each of 14 sports scoring toward a final tally for each program. The winning university of the football match-up will take possession of a large trophy shaped like the iconic I-4 road sign, which will be displayed on their campus for the following year. There will also be a similar plaque bestowed to the overall winning school each year.

USF and UCF will score head-to-head in 14 sports programs represented at both universities. Nine of those programs will compete head-to-head during the regular season. The programs that don't compete directly against each other will determine a winner based on the best overall conference post-season performance of each team.

Winning teams can accrue up to six points toward the overall yearlong, school total. The performances of both athletic programs in the annual NCAA Graduation Success Rate will be used as a tie-breaker, if necessary.

Total points will be tallied and announced throughout the year with progress available for viewing on the "War on I-4" website (www.War-On-I-4.com). The overall winning school will be presented the "War On I-4" trophy following completion of the last scored competition in the spring semester.

The score is currently 18-15 UCF. The two teams will meet again on March 2 at USF. For more information on the rivalry, please visit:

CAUSING FITTS

Forward Malik Fitts is giving teams fits this season. He posted another 12 point game at Memphis (1/14), his fourth game of 12 points this year.

BEWARE OF THEFT

USF recorded 10 steals at Memphis, the team's second straight game of double digit steals. The Bulls also registered 10 or more steals in back-to-back games against Kennesaw State (11/28) and at Troy (12/1).

OH SO CLOSE

USF trailed 50-34 midway through the second half at Memphis before rallying all the way back to two points on a Ruben Guerrero AND ONE dunk with 2:11 to play. Unfortunately for the Bulls, Memphis closed the game with five late free throws to hold on for the six point win.

YOU'LL GET NONE

the second largest bench point disparity since USF's reserves posted 43 points against Bethune Cookman's five (12/12).

BLOCK PARTY

Led by a season-high four Ruben Guerrero blocks, USF rejected eight total shots at Memphis (1/14), tying a season-high. USF also had eight blocks against Delaware (12/22).

BULLS HONOR VETERANS

USF men's basketball took time out of its busy practice schedule to support some of the nation's bravest men and women on Jan. 12. Interim head coach Murry Bartow, assistant coaches Sergio Rouco and Rod Strickland, and the entire team spent two hours visiting with patients at James A. Haley Veterans' Hospital in Tampa.

"My appreciation goes out to everyone who was there because they fought for our country," junior guard Geno Thorpe said. "I had a great time meeting everybody and I think it was good for our team. We got to see people really going through something in life."

USF players and coaches enjoyed hearing stories and learning military backgrounds of patients dealing with post-traumatic stress disorder and other ailments. Junior center Ruben Guerrero was very encouraged by the power of positivity shown by veterans in the Bay Area.

THREE IN DOUBLE FIGURES

PROTECTING THE ROCK

At SMU, the Bulls had one of their best ball controlled games this season (1/7). USF compiled 16 assists, a then season-high, while also yielding just 11 turnovers, a season-low.

THREE'S A CROWD

The Bulls hit a season-best 11 three-pointers at SMU (1/7), including six from sophomore guard Troy Holston (Queens, N.Y.). The 11 made treys is the most for USF since knocking down 10 against Troy on Nov. 13, 2015.

20 POINT CLUB

Guard Troy Holston totaled 20 points at SMU (1/7), a new season high. Holston accomplished the feat thanks in part to seven made field goals, six of which came from beyond the arc. It was the third time that Holston has netted 20 points in a game. He also posted 21 points at home against Tulane (3/7/15) and 22 points at Houston (3/1/15). Two of his 20 point games have been in the state of Texas.

OH SO CLOSE

Forward Tulio Da Silva hit all six of his field goals at SMU (1/7), finishing with 12 points and nine rebounds, one rebound shy of his third career double-double. Guard Geno Thorpe also was on the verge of a career night. His six assists were just one short of matching a career high.

MARK HARLAN ON ORLANDO ANTIGUA

On Jan. 3...
At USF Athletics our commitment to excellence is unwavering and central to our mission as highlighted in our strategic plan. After a thorough and deliberate review of our men's basketball program, a decision has been made to make a head coaching change. I met with Coach Antigua earlier today to inform him of this and to thank him for his service to USF. We wish Coach Antigua and his family the very best.

For the remainder of the season, assistant coach Murry Bartow will serve as interim head coach. We will continue to provide all the resources and support necessary for our student-athletes and coaching staff to have success. A national search to find our next head coach will commence immediately.

Please continue to support our men's basketball team throughout the rest of the season and thank you for your continued support of USF Athletics.

COACH BARTOW

Coach Murry Bartow joined the USF men's basketball team in August 2016 and became the Bulls' interim head coach on Jan. 3, 2017. Bartow is the 10th head coach in program history and he brings 30 years of coaching experience to the Bay Area. Coach Bartow was a Division I head coach for 18 seasons, first at UAB (1996-02) and then at East Tennessee State (2003-15). Entering 2016-17, Bartow has amassed 327 career wins and eight postseason appearances (four NCAA Tournaments).

THE IMPROVEMENT OF LUIS SANTOS

Sophomore forward Luis Santos (Bronx, N.Y.) netted just 17 points as a freshman last season. After totaling six points total in the first three games of the 2016-17 season, Santos proceeded to post double-digit scoring totals in three straight games. Santos totaled 89 points in his first 15 games of 2016-17.

BENCH TO BIG MINUTES

After missing four games with a knee injury, sophomore guard Troy Holston (Queens, N.Y.) has been working his way back up to more significant minutes. Holston played 22 minutes off the bench at ECU (12/28), tallying four points and three rebounds. His next game against Houston (12/31), Holston tallied a team-high 16 points (6-for-14 shooting, 2-for-8 on treys) in 33 minutes.

CLEAN THAT GLASS

USF gathered 21 offensive rebounds at ECU on Dec. 28, the most in a 41-game span. The last time the Bulls totaled 20 offensive rebounds was at South Carolina (Dec. 5, 2015). The 21 offensive rebounds was the most since USF grabbed 22 offensive rebounds against GW (Nov. 19, 2015).

SMOTHERING DEFENSE

The Bulls defense limited East Carolina to just 16 percent shooting in the second-half on Dec. 28. It was the lowest opponent's shooting percentage that USF has allowed in a single half since yielding UCF to 18 percent shooting in the opening half on Feb. 3, 2013.

DOMINATION OF DELAWARE

The Bulls' 81-53 win over Delaware on Dec. 22 was the largest margin of victory for USF this season. It was the largest victory since a 74-45 win over UCF on March 4, 2013.

SETTING THE BAR HIGH AGAINST THE BLUE HENS

A few Bulls set career-highs against Delaware on Dec. 22. Forward Tulio Da Silva (Brazil) posted a career-high 18 points in the win. Forward Luis Santos (Bronx, N.Y.) logged nine points, another new plateau. Guard Jake Bodway (Bloomington, Minn.) compiled seven points, a career-high. Forward Isaiah Manderson (Bronx, N.Y.) scored his first career USF points. Freshman walk-ons, Yito Alvarado (Puerto Rico) and Henry Beard (Seminole, Fla.) made their USF debuts.

RECAP

GREENVILLE, N.C., DEC. 28, 2016 – USF put together a second half it can build on before falling at East Carolina, 60-49, in the conference opener Wednesday night.

USF (6-6) limited ECU to 16.7 percent shooting after the break, the lowest total the Bulls have allowed in a half dating back to Feb. 3, 2013. USF held ECU scoreless from the field for the final 9:08 of a second half that saw the Bulls outscore the Pirates, 32-26.

Junior guard Geno Thorpe (Pittsburgh) scored 13 of his team-high 18 points after the break and fell one point shy of matching his career high. Junior center Ruben Guerrero (Spain) became just the ninth Bull in program history to total 100 blocks after swatting away shot No. 99, 100 and 101 against the Pirates.

ECU (9-5) has won two in a row after starting Wednesday's game on a 17-2 run. The Pirates headed into halftime with a 34-17 lead after scoring 20 points off 15 USF turnovers.

The Bulls trailed by as many as 20 early on, but found itself down by only single digits before the midpoint of the second half. Thorpe scored nine points in the first nine minutes and his jumper cut USF's deficit to 40-32 with 11:05 left to play.

That's as close the Bulls would get the rest of the way in their first game back from holiday break. After a slow start, USF committed just three turnovers in the second half and set a season-high with 21 offensive rebounds. The Bulls finished with a 47-38 advantage in total rebounds.

Key Stat

ECU scored 20 points off 15 USF turnovers on the way to a 34-17 halftime lead.

Notables

- Sophomore guard Troy Holston (Queens, N.Y.) posted four points and three rebounds after missing the past four games with an injury.
- With 101 career blocks, Ruben Guerrero needs just two more blocks to pass Augustus Gilchrist (2008-12) for eighth on the program's career blocks list.
- Redshirt freshman forward Tulio Da Silva (Brazil) grabbed a team-high 12 boards, including a career-high tying five offensive rebounds.
- USF set a season high with 21 offensive rebounds, outscoring ECU 18-6 on second chance points.

MURRY BARTOW

Interim Head Coach • 1st Season • UAB '85

Murry Bartow joined the USF men's basketball staff in August 2016. He was named the interim head coach on Jan. 3, 2017.

Bartow came to USF after serving as the head coach at East Tennessee State for 12 years. At ETSU, he finished with a record of 224-165, a winning percentage of .576, the third-best in school history. Bartow led the Buccaneers to a Southern Conference championship in 2004, the Atlantic Sun Conference regular season title in 2007 and back-to-back A-Sun Tournament championships in 2009 and 2010.

In 2013-14, the Bucs made their sixth postseason appearance in 11 seasons under Bartow, advancing to the second round of the CollegelInsider.com Tournament thanks to a victory over traditional rival Chattanooga in the first round. Winning 19 games on the year, the team also advanced to the semifinals of the Atlantic Sun Conference Tournament.

In 2010-11, ETSU enjoyed a 24-win campaign, earning their first invitation to the CollegelInsider.com Postseason Tournament and advancing to the semifinals of that event. To reach that game against Iona, the Bucs enjoyed victories over former Southern Conference rival Furman, and a quarterfinal win over Ohio University, marking the first time in school history the team had captured two postseason victories in the same season. During the regular season, the Bucs enjoyed their highest RPI ranking since 2004, and won road games against quality opponents such as the SEC's Mississippi State and Atlantic 10's Dayton.

Bartow did arguably his best coaching job ever during the 2009-10 season, as the Bucs overcame the tragic preseason death of rising sophomore Seth Coy and the loss of injured senior captain Mike Smith to still win the A-Sun title and make the program's ninth trip all time to the NCAAs. The Bucs placed three players on the A-Sun All-Tournament team, and took on Kentucky in the NCAA Tournament.

During the 2008-09 season, Bartow guided the Bucs to another 20-win season, as ETSU posted a 23-11 record. Even more impressive, the Bucs captured the A-Sun Tournament title and made the program's eighth trip all-time to the NCAA Tournament. ETSU placed three players on the league's all-tournament team, and ultimately made an impressive showing in the first round of the NCAAs as a No. 16 seed, taking No. 1-seeded Pittsburgh to the wire.

In 2006-07, Bartow once again led the Bucs to one of the best seasons in school history, as the team went 24-10 overall and 16-2 in Atlantic Sun play to finish as the regular season champions. The squad earned a trip to the National Invitation Tournament, and for the second time in four seasons, Bartow was honored by his peers with the A-Sun Coach of the Year award.

In 2003-04, Bartow led the Bucs to arguably the best season in their history, finishing with a program-best 15-1 record in Southern Conference play, setting a new school record with a 16-game winning streak, and coming within one win of matching the best overall record in school history with a 27-6 mark. ETSU finished first in the SoCon North Division for the fourth year in a row and won its second overall regular season title in four years. In addition, the Bucs captured the SoCon Tournament title for the second straight year and the sixth time in school history, and the team competed in its seventh NCAA Tournament.

For his efforts in 2003-04, Bartow was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year by both the league's coaches and media. Plus, the Bucs had three players named first-team All-SoCon, including senior Zakee Wadood – who was selected as the league's most valuable player – and Tim Smith – who was selected as the tournament's most valuable player.

Bartow, who was also head coach at the University of Alabama-Birmingham from 1996-2002, has won 327 games in his career and made appearances in eight postseason tournaments as a Division I coach – including the NCAA Tournament in 1999, 2004, 2009 and 2010. Bartow replaced former ETSU head coach Ed DeChellis, who spent seven seasons at ETSU before taking the head coaching position at Penn State following the 2002-03 season. DeChellis is currently the head coach at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Bartow enjoyed his share of success early in his head coaching career. Overall, his UAB teams posted a 103-83 record that included 48 Conference USA victories – second only to Cincinnati's Bob Huggins in that same time span.

The Blazers – who enjoyed 20-win seasons twice under Bartow – also made three postseason appearances during this time, getting invitations to the NIT in 1997 and 1998, and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1999. In 23 years as a player, assistant coach and head coach, Bartow has been to 16 post-season tournaments (10 NCAA and 6 NITs).

The son of Coach Gene and Ruth Bartow, Murry literally grew up around the game of basketball, and has apprenticed at the side of two of the game's master teachers, Gene Bartow and Indiana's Bob Knight.

Bartow began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Indiana (1985-87) and worked with the Hoosiers' 1987 NCAA Championship team. He then worked for two seasons as a full-time assistant and recruiting coordinator at William & Mary (1987-89).

During his seven seasons as an assistant on the UAB staff (1989-96), Bartow developed a reputation as an energetic teacher and recruiter, and was often mentioned as one of the nation's top defensive strategists.

A 1980 graduate of Birmingham's W.A. Berry High School, Bartow was an outstanding point guard, earning All-Jefferson County honors and his team's MVP award as a senior. He played basketball at UAB from 1980-85, and was part of four NCAA Tournament teams, three Sun Belt Conference championship teams and UAB's 1984 Great Alaska Shootout title team. He was also a member of the golf team while at UAB.

Bartow earned his B.A. in business administration from UAB in 1985, and his master's degree from Indiana in 1987. Bartow, a native of Warrensburg, Missouri, is married to the former Tammy Earley of Birmingham, a registered nurse and former UAB cheerleader. They have three sons, Alec, Stephen and Connor.

SERGIO ROUCO

Assistant Coach • 3rd Season • Nova Southeastern, '87

Sergio Rouco is in his third season as an assistant coach for USF's men's basketball team.

A former Division I head coach and 25-year veteran in the coaching ranks at many levels, Rouco came to USF after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant coach at Ole Miss. In 2012-13, Rouco helped lead a Rebel revival as Ole Miss claimed its second SEC Tournament title, won a school record-tying 27 games and earned its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002. He also helped coach a Rebel offense that led the league in scoring for the first time in school history. Rouco helped mentor Marshall Henderson to SEC Player of the Year honors, Murphy Holloway to the All-SEC first team and Reginald Buckner to the SEC All-Defensive Team.

In his first season with Ole Miss, Rouco helped the Rebels win 20 games and earn an NIT bid. Long known for his ability to coach defense, Ole Miss became one of the SEC's stingiest squads in 2011-12, ranking third in the league in field-goal percentage defense (.405), while Buckner was named to the SEC All-Defensive Team.

Prior to Ole Miss, Rouco was the head coach at FIU in his hometown of Miami, Fla. and led the Panthers to a 55-94 overall record. In his first season at the helm, Rouco guided FIU to the semifinal game of the Sun Belt Conference Championships, the longest postseason run for the program since 1998. He mentored four players to All-Sun Belt Conference status, including two-time honorees Ivan Almonte and Alex Galindo. Freddy Asprilla was the 2009 SBC Freshman of the Year.

Rouco began his college coaching career as an assistant at FIU from 1987-91, including one season under former Ole Miss head coach Bob Weltlich. Rouco returned to FIU as an assistant from 2000-03 before being hired by Billy Gillispie as an assistant at UTEP for the 2003-04 season.

Rouco was credited for much of the team's success in his one season at UTEP, which saw the Miners win 24 games and advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Born in Cuba and raised in Miami, Fla., Rouco found much success as a high school coach in his hometown, with head coaching stops at Loyola (1986-87) and Miami Norland (1991-95). He directed Loyola to a school-record 22 wins in 1986, while he led Miami Norland to 29 wins and a No. 1 state ranking for a portion of the 1994-95 season.

He boasts head coaching experience at the professional level for Club Mauricio Baez (1995) and Los Minas (1996) in the Dominican Republic, helping both squads reach the semifinals of the playoffs. In 1996-97, he was the head coach of the Trotamundos de Carabobo in Venezuela, and he returned to that country in 2010 to coach the Marinos de Anzoategui.

He also spent three years as an associate director at the Boys & Girls Club of Miami, where his duties included supervising athletic programs, 30 employees and 8,000 youth, as well as spearheading fund-raising efforts and payroll budgeting.

A 1987 graduate of Nova Southeastern with an education degree, Rouco and his wife, Kelly, have two sons - Sergio Alessandro and Fabian.

ROD STRICKLAND

Assistant Coach • 3rd Season • Northeastern Illinois, '13

Rod Strickland is in his third season as an assistant coach for USF men's basketball.

Strickland came to USF after spending the last six seasons with Orlando Antigua at Memphis and Kentucky. Prior to USF, he served as special assistant to the head coach for John Calipari at Kentucky from 2009-14, the same time Antigua was an assistant coach with the Wildcats. During the five seasons in Lexington, Strickland was a member of teams that combined for four NCAA Tournaments, three final fours and one national championship (2012) with an overall record of 152-37.

Strickland was on Calipari's staff at Memphis as well from 2006-09. He was the director of student-athlete development/manager for two seasons and in 2008 was named director of basketball operations for the Tigers. As director of basketball operations, Strickland monitored academics, coordinated recruiting visits and assisted with travel plans.

With Strickland on staff, Memphis posted a 104-10 record and continued to dominate Conference USA. In his three seasons with the Tigers, the team won three consecutive C-USA regular season and tournament titles. Memphis reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and advanced to the Elite Eight in 2007. In 2008, the Tigers competed in the NCAA Tournament championship game and set the NCAA Division I record for victories in a single season with a 38-2 record.

Prior to Memphis, the New York City native enjoyed a 17-year NBA career. The 6-foot-3 guard was an NBA first-round draft pick of the New York Knicks in 1988 and played for New York, San Antonio, Portland, Washington, Miami, Minnesota, Orlando, Toronto and Houston during his career. Strickland played in 1,094 games and scored 14,463 points (13.2 per game) and dished out 7,987 assists (7.3 per game). The 1997-98 campaign with Washington was Strickland's best, as he averaged a double-double with 17.8 points and 10.5 assists. His 10.5 assist average led the NBA that year and he was selected to the All-NBA second team. That year, Strickland also became only the 25th player in NBA history to record 10,000 points and 5,000 assists. He also ranked among the NBA's top 10 in assists in the 1991-92 (fifth), 1993-94 (sixth), 1994-95 (fifth) and 1995-96 (fourth) seasons.

Prior to his time in the NBA, Strickland enjoyed a stellar career at DePaul. A 1987 and 1988 All-America pick, Strickland helped lead the Blue Demons to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances from 1985-88, including Sweet Sixteen showings in 1986 and 1987. The three-time Blue Demon letterwinner ranks among the program's career leaders in scoring average (eighth; 16.6 ppg), assists (third; 557) and steals (second; 204).

In September of 2008, Strickland was inducted into the New York City Basketball Hall of Fame. During the summer of 2013, he earned a degree in sports leadership from Northeastern Illinois. Strickland and his wife, Cheryl, have four children; Torin, Tai, Terell and Tanner.
