THE HATTERS NICKNAME

The unlikely combination of a famous hat manufacturer and a university produced a novel nickname for Stetson University. The athletic teams are called "Hatters," reflecting the university's association with John B. Stetson, maker of the well-known Stetson hats. It all began in 1883 when Henry DeLand founded the DeLand Academy. Three years later, after a disastrous freeze affecting the citrus industry left DeLand in financial distress, Stetson, who had a winter home in DeLand, became interested in the school. At DeLand's request, Stetson was made chairman of the Board of Trustees in 1889 and the university was renamed in his honor. Stetson University fielded the first football team in Florida in 1901. The name "Hatter" was used then and is still in use today.

Merrill, founder of Merrill Lynch; and former Marine Corps General Roy Geiger.

Stetson's DeLand campus has been used as a set for a number of films and television shows. These include the Adam Sandler film The Waterboy, Ghost Story, From Earth to the Moon, First of May, Estás nominado: Cuando la realidad supera a la ficción, and Walt Before Mickey.

2020-21:

NUMBER SWITCH

Maria Visone wore #1 at Coastal Carolina and planned to continue wearing #1 at Stetson. When the Hatters recruited Shamari Tyson, Tyson asked about wearing #1, and the coaches posed the question to Visone. Here is what she considered:

“It was easy for me to switch from #1 to #3. When I transferred here at Stetson, I choose #1 because that is the number that I was wearing at the beginning of my college basketball career at Coastal Carolina. To me #1 represents God, and God comes first in everything I do; I play for Him. When I came to the U.S, the first thing I told myself was “I will never separate myself from God.” Since I am Catholic, #3 has a major importance in my religion as well. This number represent the Trinity (three persona of God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit), the divine wholeness, completeness, and perfection. I will never be complete and perfect as He is, but I want to live like Him, He is my inspiration.

It is a blessing for me to play with this number, because here I am representing my team, my country, my family, but most importantly, my religion.

So, when Coach Noc asked me if I would want to change my number so that Shamari could have #1. I told her that I would switch only if I could wear #3. So here it goes with #3.”

- ▶ ASUN Honor Roll (2019-20)
