HEAD COACH JOSE FERNANDEZ | 372-271 CAREER RECORD (20TH SEASON)

Named the 2018 American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, head coach Jose Fernandez has been laying the groundwork brick-by-brick for 19 seasons for the Bulls to grow into a perennial top-25 program. Under his guidance, USF has transformed from a program with only five winning seasons to a staple in the NCAA Tournament. A coach known for his recruiting connections and incredible work ethic, Fernandez has created a culture of excellence at USF.

Fernandez has watched his team reach new milestones, including six 20-win seasons in the last seven years dating back to the 2012-13 season. The Bulls have reached the NCAA Tournament six times, including five trips in their last seven seasons, and postseason play in 15 of the last 16 seasons. Fernandez led the Bulls to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in as many years in 2018 as the senior class became the first in program history to reach four NCAA Tournaments. The Bulls also reached their ninth Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) in 2019, despite numerous season-ending injuries to key players, and advanced to the second round out the event.

Fernandez, who was officially named head coach on Nov. 14, 2000 - just seven months after arriving at USF as an assistant coach - has led the Bulls in an amazing turnaround under his tenure. In addition to the program's six trips to the NCAA Tournament, Fernandez has also guided USF to nine WNIT appearances, which includes the 2009 WNIT title and a semifinal appearance in 2014. The Bulls have also advanced to the American Athletic Conference (AAC) Tournament championship game in four of the past five seasons and have made at least the semifinal round during every season in the AAC.

Fernandez also knows how to get the most out of his talent with Maria Jespersen earning Associated Press All-America honorable mention honors in 2018. USF has had two players earn AP All-America honorable mention honors, Jespersen and Courtney Williams, in 2016, and Fernandez has coached them both.

Playing for Fernandez could also lead to the pros, as was the case for five players in program history to be drafted by WNBA teams. Courtney Williams became the second player in program history to be selected in the first round in 2016, going eighth overall to the Phoenix Mercury. Other Bulls selected in the WNBA Draft, under Fernandez, include Inga Orekhova, who was chosen 18th overall by the Atlanta Dream in 2014; Andrea Smith, who was chosen 35th by the Connecticut Sun in 2013 and Jessica Dickson, who was chosen 21st in the 2007 WNBA Draft by the Sacramento Monarchs.

USF made its first-ever NCAA Tournament during the 2005-06 season. Fernandez also led USF to its first-ever NCAA Tournament victory with a 71-70 win over Texas Tech in 2013. Fernandez and the Bulls made history again in 2015, when they hosted USF's first-ever NCAA Tournament basketball game at the Yuengling Center. The Bulls defeated LSU in the first round, in front of a hometown crowd of over 5,000 fans. In his third NCAA Tournament in four years, Fernandez took the Bulls back to the second round, defeating No. 22 Colorado State 48-45 in Los Angeles, Calif. USF returned to the tournament in 2017, but the Bulls lost at the buzzer to Missouri.

The Miami native has had 14 seasons with a .500 record or better leading USF. In the 22 years prior to his arrival, the Bulls recorded just three winning seasons, all 14-13 slates. Fernandez has guided USF to nine seasons with 20-plus wins, including a 26-8 record during the 2017-18 campaign that marked the fourth straight season with 24 or more wins. He posted his 300th career win at USF during the 2016-17 season and has compiled a record of 354-259 in 19 seasons leading the Bulls' program, including 13 or more wins in The American in four of six seasons in the conference. The Bulls have posted 11 wins over Top 25 ranked teams, including an 84-65 pasting of No. 13 Ohio State in the Yuengling Center in 2018.

Fernandez believes to be the best you have to play the best. Since arriving at USF, Fernandez and his staff have worked to schedule the toughest teams in women's basketball. The Bulls have sought after perennial powers like Baylor, DePaul, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Louisville, Notre Dame, LSU, Miami, Michigan State, Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, UNLV, Texas and Wake Forest, to name a few. USF has boasted some of the toughest strength of schedules in the country.

Fernandez got his start in coaching while working on his associates degree at Miami-Dade CC Kendall - where he earned his degree in 1991. Fernandez served as a student assistant coach for the men's basketball team and was immediately thrown into the fray with on-floor coaching, scouting, and most importantly, overseeing recruiting correspondence and getting his name out in front of coaches around the state.

It was at Miami-Dade that Fernandez met Cesar Odio, who not only saw his tremendous potential and hired him as a student assistant, but then promoted him to a full-time assistant coach upon his graduation in 1991. He would stay at Miami-Dade for one season (1991-92) before becoming the assistant boys' basketball coach at Miami's Sunset High School (1992-94).

Following his two seasons at Sunset, Fernandez and Odio would renew acquaintances when Odio was tabbed head men's basketball coach at Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla. (1994-96). Fernandez came along as Odio's top assistant and immediately established himself as a coach that had a sharp eye for talent and potential. During his brief two-year stay at Barry, Fernandez helped the Buccaneers to consecutive winning seasons, after the program only produced just two in the first 10 years, and a combined 34-21 record.

Fernandez entered the world of girls' basketball in 1996, when he secured his first head coaching job at Miami's Lourdes Academy. During his three seasons at Lourdes, Fernandez led the Bobcats to a stellar 83-16 (.838) record and a trip to the state 5A championship game in 1998 where they finished as the runner-up. In addition to his coaching responsibilities at Lourdes, Fernandez established valuable roots among Florida and high school coaches from around the nation as director and founder of the successful Miami Suns AAU program.

Fernandez would then break into collegiate women's basketball when he returned to Barry for his second of two tours of duty at the school. In his second stint, he served one year (1999-00) as the top assistant coach for the Buccaneers. Although it was just one season, Fernandez helped Barry record the second-most wins in the program's history as the Buccaneers posted a 22-8 record and the program's second-best slate ever in the Sunshine State Conference at 10-4. The team's 22 wins that season is still just one of three 20-wins campaigns for Barry

LACING 'EM UP AGAINST THE BEST

■ During 2019-20, the Bulls battled through their usual daunting schedule featuring 12 teams that advanced to either the NCAA Tournament (8) or the WNIT (4).

■ In addition to the eight teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament that dot USF's schedule, the Bulls will face three of the four No. 1 seeds from last season's "Big Dance" ... USF played the two teams that played for the national championship – in Tampa at Amalie Arena – when the Bulls traveled to Baylor (Nov. 19) and then faced Notre Dame (Nov. 30) in the Cancun Challenge ... In addition, USF took on Mississippi State (Dec. 19) in the Duel in the Desert in Las Vegas, along with its annual AAC home-and-home with UConn (Feb. 16, March 2).

■ USF also faced Texas (Nov. 8) at home, South Dakota State (Nov. 28) and Florida Gulf Coast (Dec. 29) in Cancun, and UCF (Jan. 19, Feb. 19).

HOME, SWEET HOME

■ To say that USF has defended their home court over the last five-plus seasons - 92 games - is an understatement ... The Green and Gold have dropped just 16 games (76-16), since the beginning of the 2014-15 season, including four or fewer losses five times during that stretch.

Seasons with four or fewer home losses since the beginning of the 2014-15 season

2019-20	14-2
2017-18	13-1
2016-17	10-4
2015-16	15-1
2014-15	13-3

■ USF has also proven to be one of the elite teams in The American, and to do that you need to win games at home ... The Bulls are 37-13 in AAC games at home, and were 29-5 prior to the 2018-19 season.

■ Games at the Yuengling Center are no vacation for nonconference foes when they come to Tampa ... Over the last five-plus seasons, the Bulls have posted a 36-2 record in nonconference games at home, which includes this seasons wins over Jacksonville (70-39), No. 15/15 Texas (64-57), Howard (82-53), VCU (77-55), Saint Francis (Pa.) (62-23), Alabama State (80-29), Idaho (67-64) and Brown (Dec. 30) ... USF has won 21 straight nonconference games, and 33 of its last 34, with the only loss coming to Louisville during the 2016-17 season.

■ During the last five-plus years, the likes of Oklahoma, LSU, Louisville, Penn State, Oklahoma State, St. John's, and this season Texas, have visited USF for non-conference tilts.

PRIMED FOR THE POSTSEASON

■ USF made 15 postseason tournament appearances and had six NCAA Tournament berths in head coach Jose Fernandez's previous 19 seasons ... The all-time winningest coach in program history, he has guided USF to nine 20-win seasons, two WNIT final four appearances, the 2009 WNIT championship and won more than 350 games.

BULLS SHINE ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

■ Before the team's preparation for the 2019-20 season, five Bulls showcased their talent on the world stage at the FIBA U20 Women's European Championship and 2019 Women's Pan American Games over the summer.

A SOLID FRONTCOURT RETURNS FOR USF

■ Returning this season for the Bulls in the frontcourt is a trio of players – Beatriz Jordao, Shae Leverett and Tamara Henshaw – that made noise in The American, or early on in the year, before the injury bug hit.

■ Henshaw, the Bulls' lone senior, is expected to continue being a force inside ... She averaged 6.5 points per game but was a real problem on the glass for the opposition, grabbing a team leading 8.1 rebounds per outing which ranked fourth in the AAC ... In addition, she grabbed 10.3 rebounds per contest in AAC games, which was tops in the conference.

■ Leverett, a redshirt junior center, averaged 7.4 points and 7.5 rebounds per contest, which was good enough for second on the team ... She recorded eight double-figure scoring performances and grabbed double-digit rebounds seven times ... Leverett also rejected 1.6 blocks per game, good enough for third in The American, and 2.6 rejections per outing in conference action which led the league.

■ Jordao, a sophomore center, averaged 11.3 points, 5.7 rebounds and 1.9 blocks per game before suffering a season-ending injury after just 12 games ... She started her career with a bang, recording a double-double at Ohio State on Nov. 6, 2018, with 17 points and 10 rebounds.
