HEAD COACH JOSE FERNANDEZ | 433-289 CAREER RECORD (23RD SEASON) | 2018 & 2021 AAC COACH OF THE YEAR

Jose Fernandez has created a culture of excellence with USF women's basketball — and the numbers are powerful evidence of his handiwork.

Eight NCAA Tournament appearances (including seven in the last 10 seasons).

Seven 20-win seasons.

Postseason play in 17 of the last 19 seasons.

Perennial appearances in the top 25 rankings.

Since Fernandez was named head coach on Nov. 14, 2000 — just seven months after arriving at USF as assistant coach — history-making success has been the expectation.

"If I ever stop waking up without the same fire and energy, I'll be done," Fernandez says. "But I can't picture that happening. I want to take this program where it has never been before — the Sweet 16, the Elite Eight, the Final Four. I'm one of those lucky guys. I enjoy what I do. It always comes back to the people you surround yourself with, the type of players you recruit and getting them to learn the right way to do things. You have to care."

Fernandez's level of care is felt by his players on the court — and long after they leave USF.

"You need tough skin to play for Coach Fernandez," former USF guard Jasmine Wynne says. "He meant business. He did not play. But you realized he believed in you. And that helped you believe in yourself."

Fernandez has coached 36 all-conference players, two Associated Press Honorable Mention All-Americans (Courtney Williams and Maria Jespersen); three members of the USF Athletics Hall of Fame (Williams, Shantia Grace and Jessica Dickson); three American Athletic Conference Freshmen of the Year; and five WNBA draft picks (Kitija Laksa, Seattle Storm, 11th overall, 2020; Williams, eighth, Phoenix Mercury, 2016; Inga Orekhova, 18th, Atlanta Dream, 2014; Andrea Smith, 35th, Connecticut Sun, 2013; and Dickson, 21st, Sacramento Monarchs, 2007).

Fernandez was twice named AAC Coach of the Year (2018 and 2021). The 2020-21 squad captured the AAC regular-season championship, then won the AAC Tournament title. The Bulls have reached the AAC championship game in six of the past eight seasons, while reaching the conference semifinals in every season since the league debuted in 2013-14.

During the 2021-22 season, in the space of four days, the Bulls defeated a pair of top 10-ranked opponents, including No. 9 Oregon and No. 7 Stanford, the defending national champion.

Fernandez's Bulls have four times reached the NCAA Tournament's second round, opening postseason play with victories against teams from the Big 12 (Texas Tech in 2013), SEC (LSU in 2015), Mountain West (Colorado State in 2016) and Pac-12 (Washington State in 2021).

USF, which reached its first NCAA Tournament in 2006 (losing against USC in the first round), announced itself as a significant player in 2013 when it defeated No. 7-seeded Texas Tech 71-

70 on the Red Raiders' home court. The Bulls then fell during a thrilling overtime second-round game against No. 2 California, which went on to the Women's Final Four.

In 2015, USF earned a home date at the NCAA Tournament and downed LSU before 5,560 fans at the Yuengling Center, then were defeated by No. 3-seeded Louisville in the second round. In 2016, USF downed Colorado State 48-45, then fell to UCLA in Los Angeles. In 2021, USF defeated Washington State before losing against No. 1-seeded NC State.

To cap the 2008-09 season, the Bulls won the WNIT Championship, defeating the home-standing Kansas Jayhawks 75-71 before a program-record crowd of 16,113 fans. In all, Fernandez's teams have made nine WNIT appearances, including the 2014 semifinals.

Fernandez's tenure has been punctuated by a dramatic turnaround in the program's fortunes. Before Fernandez's arrival, USF women's basketball had just three winning seasons (all 14-13 states) in the 22 years of play prior to his arrival. Its only championship was the 1978 Florida State Title in the old Association of Intercollegiate Women's Athletics (AIWA).

The biggest keys USF's prosperity? Fernandez, a native of Miami who had been an assistant coach with the Barry University men while leading the previously unheralded Lourdes Academy girls program to a state-championship game, established contacts throughout the state of Florida and made certain that the Bulls were a known quantity. In recent years, Fernandez has been masterful with international recruiting, bringing aboard players from 18 different countries. He has also sprinkled in players from different regions of the United States, including a sampling of junior-college All-Americans, giving USF women's basketball a formidable recruiting presence in every potential circle.

Fernandez, who was inducted into the Sports Club of Tampa Bay's Hall of Fame on June 8, 2022, is 416-285 in 22 USF seasons. He has 15 wins against top 25-ranked teams, including a 67-63 overtime victory against No. 6 Mississippi State at the Yuengling Center in 2020 for the highest-ranked opponent ever defeated by USF.

Since arriving at USF, Fernandez and his staff have worked to schedule the toughest teams in women's basketball. The Bulls have faced perennial powers such as Baylor, UConn, Mississippi State, DePaul, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Louisville, Notre Dame, LSU, Miami, Michigan State, Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Oregon, UNLV, Stanford, Tennessee, Texas and Wake Forest, to name a few. USF has boasted some of the toughest strength of schedules in the country.

Fernandez started in coaching while working on his associate degree at Miami-Dade CC Kendall, where he earned his degree in 1991. Fernandez served as a student assistant coach for the men's basketball team and was immediately thrown into the fray with on-floor coaching, scouting, and most importantly, overseeing recruiting correspondence and getting his name out in front of coaches around the state.

It was at Miami-Dade that Fernandez met Cesar Odio, who not only saw his potential and hired him as a student assistant, then promoted him to a full-time assistant coach in 1991. He stayed at Miami-Dade for one season (1991-92) before becoming the assistant boys' basketball coach at Miami's Sunset High School (1992-94).

Following his two seasons at Sunset, Fernandez and Odio renewed acquaintances when Odio was tabbed head men's basketball coach at Barry University in Miami Shores, Fla. (1994-96). Fernandez came along as Odio's top assistant and immediately established himself as a coach who had a sharp eye for talent and potential. During his two-year stay at Barry, Fernandez helped the Buccaneers to consecutive winning seasons, after the program only produced two in the first 10 years, and a combined 34-21 record.

Fernandez began girls' basketball in 1996, when he secured his first head coaching job at Miami's Lourdes Academy. During his three seasons at Lourdes, Fernandez led the Bobcats to a 83-16 (.838) record and a trip to the state Class 5A championship game in 1998 where they finished as the runner-up. In addition to his coaching responsibilities at Lourdes, Fernandez established roots among high school coaches from around Florida and the nation as director and founder of the successful Miami Suns AAU program.

Fernandez broke into collegiate women's basketball when he returned to Barry for his second of two tours of duty at the school. In his second stint, he served one year (1999-00) as the top assistant coach for the Buccaneers. Although it was just one season, Fernandez helped Barry record the second-most wins in the program's history as the Buccaneers posted a 22-8 record and the program's second-best slate ever in the Sunshine State Conference at 10-4. The team's 22 wins that season is still just one of three 20-wins campaigns for Barry since the women's basketball team started competing during the 1988-89 season.

After graduating from Miami-Dade Kendall, Fernandez earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994 from Florida International University. Along with his coaching duties at the beginning of his professional career, Fernandez also taught physical education at Miami's Coral Reef Senior High School, Southwest Senior High School and Hialeah Middle School.

Fernandez and his wife, Tonya, live in Tampa with their daughters, Sydnie, Alex, Taylor, Brianna and Brooke.

■ The Bulls held a double-digit advantage for the majority of the fourth quarter and led by 10, 56-46, with just under two minutes left in the contest ... South Florida then got free throws from Sammie Puiasis and Elena Tsineke in the final 18 seconds to help secure the victory.
